at BUF	9	75	FG	at BUF	6	66	TD

RUSHING DEFENSE: The Jets have held opposing running backs to 115 yards this season, the sixth-lowest total in the league through two weeks. Since the start of the 2015 season, opposing running backs have gained just 3.4 yards per carry, the second-lowest average in the league, while scoring a league-low three rushing touchdowns.

THREE FOR FORTÉ: With his three rushing touchdowns in the Week Two win at BUF (9/15), RB Matt Forté became just the seventh Jets running back to score three times on the ground since 1970. For Forté, it marked his second such performance and first since scoring three times at WAS (10/20/13) as a member of CHI.

FORTÉ ON THE GROUND: For the second-consecutive week, RB Matt Forté, posted over 100 all-purpose yards, including his first 100-yard rushing effort as a Jet. Through two weeks, Forté ranks second in the NFL in rushing yards, while his 264 scrimmage yards rank fourth in the league among running backs.

LT 78 RYAN CLADY 9th SEASON
A three-time All-Pro and four-time Pro Bowl selection, including in each of his last three full seasons, who was added via trade (DEN) in the offseason. Part of an offensive line that has allowed just two sacks through the first two games and ranks fifth in the league in rushing.

LG 77 JAMES CARPENTER 6th SEASON
Returns for his second season at LG after joining the team as a UFA last year. Part of an offensive line that has allowed just two sacks through the first two games and ranks fifth in the league in rushing.

C 74 NICK MANGOLD 11th SEASON
Longest-tenured Jet enters his 11th season after originally joining the team as a first-round selection in 2006. Has been selected to seven Pro Bowl teams, including each of the last three seasons. Part of an offensive line that has allowed just two sacks through the first two games and ranks fifth in the league in rushing.

RG 67 BRIAN WINTERS 4th SEASON
Started at RG after spending the final nine games of the 2015 season there. Part of an offensive line that has allowed just two sacks through the first two games and ranks fifth in the league in rushing.

RT 71 BEN IJALANA 6th SEASON
Made his first career start at RT (9/11), rotating with Brent Qvale throughout the game. Part of an offensive line that has allowed just two sacks through the first two games and ranks fifth in the league in rushing.

RT 79 BRENT QVALE 2nd SEASON
Made his first start on the offensive line last week (9/15), rotating with Ijalana at RT throughout the game. Part of an offensive line that has allowed just two sacks through the first two games and ranks fifth in the league in rushing.

TE 47 KELLEN DAVIS 9th SEASON
Returns for his second season with the Jets. Started the first two games helping the team rank 5th in the league in rushing.

WR 87 ERIC DECKER 7th SEASON
Has registered touchdowns in six consecutive games dating back to Week 14 of 2015 and has scored 15 touchdowns in his last 18 games.

QB 14 RYAN FITZPATRICK 12th SEASON
Completed 24-of-34 passes (70.6%) for 374 yards (his second highest total as a Jet) in the Week Two win at BUF (9/15). Connected on 8 passes of 20+ yards at BUF (9/15) to four different WRs.

RB 22 MATT FORTÉ 9th SEASON
Registered his first 100-yard rushing effort as a Jet, compiling three scores on the ground in the Week Two win. Became the first Jet with three rushing touchdowns in a game since Shonn Greene in 2012 vs. IND.

FB 43 JULIAN HOSWARE 1st SEASON
2015 undrafted free agent earned the fullback job this offseason. As a rookie, switched positions from outside linebacker in college to fullback.

KEY RESERVES

WR 81 QUINCY ENUNWA 2nd SEASON
Leads the team with 13 receptions this season. Posted a career-high 92 yards receiving in Week Two at BUF (9/15) after catching the first touchdown of his career in Week One vs. CIN (9/11).

BY THE NUMBERS

Receiving touchdowns needed by RB Matt Forté to become the fifth player in NFL history to eclipse 8,000 yards rushing, 4,000 yards receiving and 20 receiving touchdowns in his career, joining running backs Marshall Faulk, Marcus Allen, Thurman Thomas and Herschel Walker.

Franchise marks set under Offensive Coordinator Chan Gailey last season, including total offense (5,925), passing offense (4,057) and passing completions (362).

Eric Decker is one of four receivers in NFL history to have been a part of a duo to combine for 25-or-more receiving touchdowns in multiple seasons. He accomplished the feat for the second time in 2015 with teammate Brandon Marshall.

Two-point conversions made by RB Matt Forté for his career, tied for second-most all-time in NFL history.

7.0

Since 2013, the Jets are just the fifth team to record three-or-more 7.0-sack games (LAR, NYG, ARZ and KC), after reaching the mark for the third time in Week One.

Consecutive home games in which WR Eric Decker has caught a touchdown, the longest active streak since 2015.

Takeaways (five interceptions and four fumble recoveries) recorded by CB Darrelle Revis in his return season to the Jets in 2015, the second-most in the NFL.

17

Following an NFL-low 13 takeaways in 2014, the Jets defense responded with 30 in 2015 – an improvement of 17 – which tied for third-most in the league.

22

Sacks allowed by the Jets 2015, the second-fewest in the league. Total marked the fewest allowed by the team since it surrendered a franchise-low 19 in 2001.

28

Combined receiving touchdowns by WRs Eric Decker and Brandon Marshall since 2015, the most among NFL receiving duos.

31

In 2015, Brandon Marshall became only the third player in NFL history to record at least 100 catches and 1,500 yards at the age of 31 or older (Jerry Rice & Andre Johnson).

68

Games in which RB Matt Forté has eclipsed 100 scrimmage yards since 2008, the most by any player during that time period.

69

Since 2012, Brandon Marshall (33) and Eric Decker (36) have combined for 69 red zone touchdown receptions, ranking first and second in the league, respectively.

70+

Yards gained by WRs Brandon Marshall and Quincy Enunwa in the first half against BUF in Week 2. First time a Jets duo has each recorded 70 yards or more in the first half of a game since 2000 (Dedric Ward - 73; Richie Anderson - 96).

73

Tackles LB David Harris trails Mo Lewis by for second place on the franchise's all-time tackles list.

83.4

Rushing yards per game allowed in 2015 under then first-year defensive coordinator Kacy Rodgers, which bested the team's previous low of 85.4 set in 1968.

117

Number of games it took Matt Forté to reach 8,000 rushing and 4,000 receiving yards. Second-fastest player in NFL history to reach both milestones (Marshall Faulk – 107).

118

Consecutive regular-season games started by LB David Harris, the most among active LBs and the second-longest streak among active defensive players.

121

Number of games it took WR Brandon Marshall to reach 700 career receptions, the third-fewest games needed to hit the milestone in NFL history.

146

Consecutive games WR Brandon Marshall has recorded a reception, the second-longest streak among active players (Larry Fitzgerald – 180).

157

Total passing touchdowns in QB Ryan Fitzpatrick's career, most by an Ivy League quarterback in NFL history.

206

Total receptions Eric Decker and Brandon Marshall have combined for since 2015, the most among NFL wide receiver duos.

312

Consecutive extra points K Nick Folk made to begin his NFL career, the second-longest streak in league history (Rian Lindell - 321).

493

Number of total yards the Jets offense recorded against BUF in Week Two, the most under head coach Todd Bowles and fifth-most since 1998.

494

With 494 career receptions, Matt Forté has now passed Walter Payton for 10th all-time in career receptions by a running back following his performance in Week Two against BUF.

891

The last time the Jets produced a 300-yard passer, 100-yard rusher and two 100-yard receivers in the same game and just the second time since 1970.

11,000

Yards milestone WR Brandon Marshall eclipsed in 2015, becoming the 33rd player in NFL history and just the fourth active player since 2006 to do so.

WR ROBBY ANDERSON

"He's got great speed, I think he showcased that a little bit in the game, he does every day on the practice field. He's got really good hands...he's just got soft hands, he brings everything in. The touch-down catch that he made over the defender, I thought he made it look easy and that's kind of what jumped out to me, he made such a difficult catch look like an easy one. He's got a good little swagger to him that I hadn't really seen that you see in games come out a little bit."

-- QB Ryan Fitzpatrick

WR QUINCY ENUNWA

"He's a jack of all trades. He's like the Dennis Rodman on our team. He gets the rebounds, he dives on the floor for loose balls, he does a bunch of things. He can be a wideout, he can be an H-back, he blocks, he catches, he runs deep, he runs short."

-- Head Coach Todd Bowles

"Quincy has done a great job. It has been very evident to me through the beginning of training camp that he's going to be a big part of what we do and has really improved as a receiver. He's so versatile and we saw that last year with everything we asked him to do. He can really develop into a big-time weapon for us."

-- QB Ryan Fitzpatrick

I think he's worked on his craft. He's worked on his hands every day in the offseason. He's worked on his feet. He's worked on his route running. Quincy is a tireless worker, and a lot of the things you see that he's doing now is paying off from the offseason. And I think Justus (Galac), our strength coach, has done a great job with him as far as getting his footwork together and him playing with more balance.

-- Head Coach Todd Bowles on where Enunwa has developed

LB DAVID HARRIS

"David's probably the most underrated guy over there, but he's the glue that keeps everybody together over there. He does everything. Not only just mentally, he makes plays. He makes a ton of plays. They're probably not flashy, like you see (Muhammad Wilkerson) and you see (Darrelle) Revis and the rest of those guys. But, David keeps that core intact. David understand the game. He's our coach on the field. Without him, I don't know where we'd be."

-- Head Coach Todd Bowles

(David Harris) is always, to me, our leader. He's our captain. So goes him, so goes us in a lot of ways. He gets us lined up. We know we're going to be in the right defense. He steadies the ship when he's in the game. In so many ways I think he's invaluable."

-- Defensive Coordinator Kacy Rodgers

RB MATT FORTÉ

"His production speaks for itself. For a guy to play at that high of a level for that many years that's pretty incredible in this league. Just hearing stories, too, from former teammates that played with him about his work ethic. He's been nothing but impressive since he's been here. The way he approaches the game, I think he'll fit in the huddle really well. He's got a calm demeanor about him. He goes about things the right way. I've been really impressed so far. It's going to be great to have him out there."

-- QB Ryan Fitzpatrick

"The thing I like most is that it adds versatility to the offensive group. Here's the thing. Defenses always try to key in on formations and different personnel groups. But when Matt Forté is in the game, they cannot do that because he's equally effective coming out of the backfield [on pass patterns] as he is carrying it. [Defenses] can't really play those games with this group. The way Chan Gailey runs his offense, we have no idea what Matt is going to be doing."

-- Retired RB LaDainian Tomlinson on what Forté brings to the offense (credit: Newsday)

"He's a good football player. He's a workhorse. He's done all of the little things right, even the hard, grind-out runs to things opening up at the end and we stayed with it and we stayed with him. He got some things done at the end."

-- Head Coach Todd Bowles

LB ERIN HENDERSON

"He's a guy that's a veteran guy, and along with Dave (Harris), he's one of the leaders on that defense. You know like I talked about knowledge, he understands. He's seen the game before and he's able to be professional in the field, in the meeting rooms, and help younger guys improve their study habits and things like that."

-- Assistant Head Coach / Inside Linebackers Mike Caldwell

C-NICK MANGOLD

"He's been great, it's the way he carries himself. He doesn't see himself as a 10-year-plus veteran. He practices every day, he takes notes every day, he's at meetings on time, he gets treatment when he has to get treatment, he's at lift on time. When someone is doing the same thing, what rookies should be doing every day in their 11th year, you've got to respect that right now. He gives advice when he needs to give advice, he takes people under his wing, he does all the right things. We have a lot of people that do that so I'm happy about that."

-- Head Coach Todd Bowles on Mangold's leadership

QUOTE BOARD

WR BRANDON MARSHALL

"I think Brandon Marshall, when it's said and done, is definitely going to be a Hall of Famer."

-- Hall of Fame WR Michael Irvin

WR JALIN MARSHALL

"I think he is tremendous with his work ethic, he's obviously physically talented, he's got speed, he's got the ability to catch the ball, he's versatile, he knows both positions all ready and just the way he attacks it in the meeting rooms, and watching film. He's asking questions, he's answering them, he's on top of it and I love when a young guy comes in, and is a sponge of the game, wants to learn everything and figure out what his craft is. That's how you have success in this league because physically, everyone's got it. It's mentally that kind of separates you and keeps the longevity of your career."

-- WR Eric Decker

LB LORENZO MAULDIN

"He's better mentally. He has a better grasp of the system. He understands, positionally, things he has to do to drop and rush, and he understands how people are trying to block him. So from that standpoint, he's matured some."

-- Head Coach Todd Bowles on how Mauldin has developed

CB DARRELLE REVIS

"He's been great at sharing. He has a good way of teaching and making them understand it without going through a whole lot of detail. He puts them in position on the field and makes them see things that they wouldn't normally see so he's been good."

-- Head Coach Todd Bowles on how Revis shares his knowledge

CB BUSTER SKRINE

"The thing I love about Buster is he's so competitive and he's very coachable. He absorbs everything; he takes it in. A lot of guys at this level that think they know it all. The one thing about our room is that our guys are very coachable, and that's one of the things that stands out about Buster. He always comes to practice every day with a lot of energy. Sometimes you have to drag stuff out of players—he's not that guy. He comes to work every day, he busts his butt, and you know what you're going to get from him. He's a good pro."

-- Assistant Cornerbacks Coach Daylon McCutcheon

DL MUHAMMAD WILKERSON

"Other than talent? He's a talented guy. He's big, he's fast, he's strong. He can two-gap, he can one-gap, he's quick. He's rare. There are some people like that in the league but not many. I'm sure there are about 10 or 12 of them in the league that look like that but not many of them. He's got a special talent and a special gift."

-- Head Coach Todd Bowles on what distinguishes Wilkerson

G BRIAN WINTERS

"From the 18 months since I've been here, Brian has gotten better and better, and has had an outstanding training camp. He's gotten better and better and hopefully he continues to do so."

-- Offensive Line Coach Steve Marshall

"Confidence is a big thing with him. You can see that as he played more and more last year. He really got in a groove. From day one, when I came back, his confidence was there. He's a tough player, he's fun to have in the huddle, and he's fun to have on your team. He's just going to continue to improve and get better because he puts the work in."

-- QB Ryan Fitzpatrick

KEY PERFORMANCES

In eight career games against KC, WR Brandon Marshall has totaled 589 receiving yards and seven touchdowns on 52 receptions, including two 100-yard performances (12/09/07 & 11/06/11).

As a member of DEN, WR Eric Decker hauled in a career-high four receiving touchdowns against KC (12/01/13). For his career, Decker has recorded 36 receptions for 537 yards and eight touchdowns versus KC.

As a member of BUF, QB Ryan Fitzpatrick threw four touchdowns and 208 yards on 17-of-25 passing on Kickoff Weekend in 2011. At the time, it marked the third game of Fitzpatrick's career in which he's thrown for four-or-more touchdowns.

In his lone career game against KC, RB Matt Forté totaled 109 yards from scrimmage (71 rushing, 38 receiving) and one receiving touchdown as a member of CHI (10/11/15).

In four career games against KC, LB David Harris has tallied 22 total tackles, 2.0 sacks and two passes defended.

TODD BOWLES

TODD BOWLES HEAD COACH

Todd Bowles was named the 18th head coach of the New York Jets on January, 14, 2015 and is entering his second season at the helm after posting a 10-6 record in his first season, a six-win improvement from the previous season.

MAJOR KEYS

For Bowles, the keys to having a successful team come from execution in four key areas: running the ball, third down, red zone and turnovers. In 2015, the Jets ranked in the top-third of the NFL in three of the four offensive categories, and in the top three in all four defensive categories, improving the team's rank in seven of the eight.

FIRST-YEAR SUCCESS

Despite installing new systems on both offense and defense, both units finished in the top 10 league wide, one of five teams to do so, while their +52 yards per game differential ranked fourth in the league. On the offensive side of the ball, the Jets set new franchise marks for total offense (5,925) and passing offense (4,057). The Jets defense saw improvement in their rankings across the board, including setting a new franchise best with just 83.4 yards per game rushing allowed and intercepting 18 passes, tripling their 2014 total, and recovered 12 fumbles. Those 30 takeaways led to 91 points, the most scored by the Jets since they registered 101 in 2009.

DEFENSIVE MINDED

It's no secret that Coach Bowles reserves a special place in his heart for the defensive side of football. Bowles saw his defenses rise to the top of the charts under his control and tutelage. Over the past three years, heading up the Arizona Cardinals defense as a defensive coordinator and keeping a watchful eye on the Jets defense as head coach, Bowles' name still resides in the upper echelon of the defensive statistics.

ASSISTANT COACH CAPSULES

MIKE CALDWELL

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH / INSIDE LINEBACKERS

- Mike Caldwell returns for his second season as the team's assistant head coach/linebackers coach. In his first season, Caldwell was part of a defense that set a franchise record with just 83.4 rushing yards per game allowed as two of his linebackers, DAVID HARRIS and Demario Davis, finished first and second on the team in total tackles with 128 and 118, respectively.
- Prior to joining the Jets, Caldwell oversaw a Cardinals linebacker group that contributed to a defense led by Todd Bowles that ranked fifth in points allowed per game in 2015 (18.7) despite the key losses of inside linebackers Karlos Dansby (free agency) and Daryl Washington (injury).

BRANT BOYER

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

- Brant Boyer was named the special teams coordinator for Head Coach Todd Bowles' staff on February 2, 2016, after serving as an assistant special teams coach with the Colts for the last four seasons. Boyer reunites with Bowles, who served as the defensive nickel package coach with the Browns.
- During his tenure in Indianapolis (2012-15), Boyer aided a Colts special teams unit that ranked in the top 10 league-wide during that span in net punting average (third), kickoff return average (fourth), kickoff touchbacks (fourth) and field goal percentage (seventh), despite using three different players as primary punt returners and four different kick returners in his four seasons.
- In 2014, both punter Pat McAfee and kicker Adam Vinatieri received Associated Press First-Team NFL All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors under Boyer as McAfee converted a career-high three inside kicks and set single-season franchise records for punts pinned inside the 20-yard line (30), net punting average (42.8) and kickoff touchbacks (70), while Vinatieri made 30-of-31 field goals, including 35 consecutive attempts, the fourth-longest streak in NFL history.
- In 2013, Boyer coached Matt Overton to his first career Pro Bowl selection, one year after discovering the long snapper at a specialists combine in Arizona and bringing him to Indianapolis for a workout prior to his signing in April of 2012.

CHAN GAILEY

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

- Chan Gailey returns for his second season as the Jets offensive coordinator after a record-setting 2015 campaign saw the franchise set new marks for total offense (5,925), passing offense (4,057) and pass completions (362), while wide receiver BRANDON MARSHALL and quarterback RYAN FITZPATRICK established individual all-time team bests. Under Gailey's direction, the Jets improved their league ranks from a bottom-third offense in 2014 to a top-third offense in 2015.
- Gailey, who is entering his 39th year of coaching, has spent 13 of his previous 19 NFL seasons as either a head coach or offensive coordinator and boasts a resume that includes four Super Bowl appearances, including three with the Broncos (XXI, XXII, XXIV) and one with the Pittsburgh Steelers (XXX).
- Against BUF in Week 2, the Jets recorded the fifth-most total yards of offense in team history since 1998. The Gailey-led unit produced a 300-yard passer, 100-yard rusher and two 100-yard receivers, becoming the first team in the NFL to accomplish the feat since 2015 (PIT).

KACY RODGERS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

- Kacy Rodgers returns for his second season as the Jets defensive coordinator after enjoying a wildly successful 2015 campaign in which the defense saw improvements in all areas, including allowing a franchise-low 83.4 rushing yards per game. Under Rodgers' direction, the Jets finished with the top-ranked red zone defense and improved to third in the league in third-down conversions (33.2 percent).
- Against running backs in 2015, Rodgers led a defense that limited ball carriers to just 3.35 yards per carry, while holding a team's leading running back to under 65 yards in 12-of-16 weeks. In addition, the team's rushing defense allowed a franchise-low four rushing touchdowns, besting the previous low of five set in 1982. Against the pass, Rodgers was equally impressive, holding opposing quarterbacks to the lowest completion percentage in the NFL (57.1 percent) and the sixth-lowest passer rating (79.0). The secondary also accounted for all 18 of the team's interceptions after the defensive unit registered an NFL-low 13 takeaways in 2014. In Rodgers' first year, that total increased to 30, which tied for the third-most in the league and the most since the team recorded 31 in 2011.
- As a whole, the Jets defense under Rodgers ranked in the top 10 in five major defensive categories, including points (No. 9), total defense (No. 4), rushing defense (No. 2), third downs (No. 3) and red zone (No. 1).

TIM ATKINS

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

- Tim Atkins was named a quality control - defense coach on Head Coach Todd Bowles' staff on February 9, 2016, taking the place of John Scott, Jr., who was promoted to assistant defensive line coach this offseason.
- Prior to joining the Jets, Atkins worked in football administration with the Bills for two seasons (2011-12). Before joining Buffalo, he spent time in a variety of roles, including defensive quality control for the UFL, graduate assistant at FAU, defensive assistant for the Dolphins, wide receivers coach (2005) and safeties coach (2004) at Whittier College before breaking in as an assistant defensive backs coach with Hamilton (AZ) High School.

ROBBY BROWN

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

- Robby Brown returns for his second NFL season and second with the Jets as the team's quality control - offense coach. In his first NFL season, Brown reunited with Offensive Coordinator Chan Gailey, who he played for in his two seasons at Georgia Tech as the team set new franchise marks for total offense (5,925), passing offense (4,057) and pass completions (362).
- Prior to joining the Jets, Brown coached in the collegiate ranks for 10 seasons, working at South Alabama, Northwestern State, Valdosta State, Henderson State, Southwest Baptist and Troy.
- As offensive coordinator for Valdosta State in 2012, Brown helped the team capture the NCAA Division II National Championship, while averaging 469 yards and scoring 40 points per game.

MARK COLLINS

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

- Mark Collins returns for his second season as the Jets outside linebackers coach after a first season that saw four different outside linebackers register sacks, led by rookie third-round selection LORENZO MAULDIN (4.0). MAULDIN registered all of his sacks after Week 8, finishing with the most by a Jets rookie since 2012. Additionally, veteran Calvin Pace added 3.0 sacks, his eighth-consecutive season logging at least 3.0 for the Jets.
- Prior to working with the outside linebackers in his final season (2014) with the Falcons, Collins served as a defensive assistant and worked with the defensive line for four seasons (2010-13). In his time with Atlanta, the defense produced 140 takeaways, the seventh most in the league for a team that notched at least 46 wins and ninth overall. During his time coaching the defensive line, the run defense recorded a tackle for loss once every 10.2 rushing attempts, the eighth best ratio in the league.
- Before to his arrival in the NFL, Collins was an assistant coach at the collegiate level for 11 seasons, with stops at Louisiana-Monroe, Georgia, Georgia Southern, Elon and Michigan after getting his start in coaching at his alma mater, East Tennessee State. His one year at Georgia produced a No. 2 ranking in the final Associated Press poll, while his two seasons at Michigan saw back-to-back Rose Bowl appearances.

JOE DANNA

DEFENSIVE BACKS

- Joe Danna returns for his second season as the Jets defensive backs coach after he oversaw a secondary that tripled its interception total from the previous season. The defensive backs produced all 18 of the team's interceptions last season (fifth most in the NFL), tripling their 2014 total of six (ranking tied for 30th). Additionally, the secondary held opposing quarterbacks to the lowest completion percentage in the league (ranked 21st in 2014) and the sixth lowest quarterback ranking (ranked 30th in 2014).
- Under his direction, cornerback DARRELLE REVIS, who returned to the club in 2015, registered nine takeaways (five interceptions and four fumble recoveries), the most of any cornerback in the league and his most interceptions since 2009. Second-year former undrafted cornerback MARCUS WILLIAMS led the team in interceptions, picking off six passes despite playing in less than 27 percent of the defensive snaps, while 2014 first-round pick safety CALVIN PRYOR registered career highs in tackles (71) and passes defended (six). He recorded his first three takeaways of his career (two interceptions and one forced fumble) in his first season under Danna.

DAVID DIAZ-INFANTE

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

- David Diaz-Infante was named offensive line assistant for Head Coach Todd Bowles' staff on February 9, 2016, returning to the Jets after spending the previous season with the club as a training camp intern. Prior to his time with the Jets, Diaz-Infante served as an offensive assistant with the Arizona Cardinals for two seasons (2013-14), working on the same coaching staff as Bowles, who was the defensive coordinator at the time.
- Before he began his coaching career, Diaz-Infante enjoyed a seven-year career in the NFL in which he played both guard and center with the Chargers, Broncos and Eagles. During his career, he played in 69 games (nine starts), earning Super Bowl rings with the Broncos in 1998 and 1999. He entered the league in 1987 with the Chargers as an undrafted free agent and played in three games as a rookie. The first of his two stints with the Broncos came in 1995-98 before playing with the Eagles in 1999 and finishing his career with Denver in 2001. He also played in the World League of American Football (WLAFF) with the Frankfurt Galaxy (1991-92), the Sacramento Gold Miners in the Canadian Football League (1993-94) and the Las Vegas Outlaws in the XFL (2001).

KARL DORRELL

WIDE RECEIVERS

- Karl Dorrell returns for his second season as the Jets wide receivers coach, marking his 27th season coaching at the collegiate and professional levels. In his first season with the Jets, Dorrell oversaw a record-setting receiving group led by BRANDON MARSHALL, whom he helped earn Pro Bowl recognition after posting franchise marks with 109 receptions (fourth in the league), 1,502 yards (fourth) and 14 receiving touchdowns (tied for first).
- Additionally, ERIC DECKER saw an increase in his production, surpassing all of his 2014 season numbers in his second campaign with the Jets as the receiver logged 80 receptions for 1,027 yards and 12 touchdowns. The combo of Decker and Marshall combined for the most receptions and receiving touchdowns of any wide receiver duo in Jets history while finishing second in team annals in total receiving yards. The pair also logged touchdowns in the same game nine times, besting the NFL record established in 1998.
- Before rejoining the NFL coaching ranks in 2015 with the Jets, Dorrell spent 2014 as the offensive coordinator quarterbacks coach at Vanderbilt.
- Against BUF in Week Two, WRs BRANDON MARSHALL and ERIC DECKER each recorded 100-or-more receiving yards. It marked the 13th time since 2015 that the Jets have produced a 100-yard receiver, the second-most in the NFL.

JEFF HAMMERSCHMIDT

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

- Jeff Hammerschmidt was named an assistant special teams coach for Head Coach Todd Bowles' staff on February 5, 2016, his first position in the NFL after spending 24 seasons coaching in the collegiate ranks.
- Prior to joining the Jets, Hammerschmidt served as a special teams coordinator for his alma mater Arizona (2008-11) before working in the same capacity at Colorado State (2012-15). In his time with the Rams, both the punter and kicker received honorable mention all-conference honors.
- Throughout his career, Hammerschmidt has coached every level of the defense (secondary, linebackers and defensive line) while also serving as a defensive coordinator for Southern Utah (1996-97), Saint Mary's (2000-02) and Montana (2003-04). He began his coaching career in 1992 as a graduate assistant at Arizona and has since worked with a handful of current and former NFL players, including Kris Dielman, Adewale Ogunleye, Antwaan Randle El and Brooks Reed.

JIMMIE JOHNSON

TIGHT ENDS

- Jimmie Johnson returns for his second season as the Jets tight ends coach after returning last season to the NFL following a one-year absence. In his first season with the Jets, Johnson battled key injuries at his position, losing both JACE AMARO and ZACH SUDFELD before the start of the season. Under Johnson, the tight ends helped block for a rushing attack that ranked 10th in the league, helping Chris Ivory earn Pro Bowl honors after gaining an AFC-leading 1,070 yards rushing, the first 1,000-yard season of his career, and also set career bests in rushing touchdowns (seven), total touchdowns (eight), receptions (30) and receiving yards (217).
- Prior to joining the Jets, Johnson spent eight seasons as the Vikings tight ends coach, utilizing a variety of different players in his time there. Four different tight ends led the group in receptions, including Jermaine Wiggins (2006), Visanthe Shiancoe (2007-11), Kyle Rudolph (2012) and John Carlson (2013). Under Johnson, Shiancoe posted 208 catches for 2,424 yards and 24 touchdowns in five seasons, despite amassing just 35 catches for 253 yards and three touchdowns in the four seasons prior to joining Minnesota. In his final two seasons with Johnson, Rudolph, a former second-round selection, posted 12 touchdowns. Although he missed eight games in those two seasons, Rudolph's 12 touchdowns tied for the fifth-most among tight ends in the NFL. In their time under Johnson, Vikings tight ends also excelled in the red zone, producing 36 touchdowns on just 75 targets, or almost half a touchdown per target, the best in the league.

PEPPER JOHNSON

DEFENSIVE LINE

- Pepper Johnson returns for his second season as the Jets defensive line coach after his first year saw the defensive line establish a new franchise mark with just 83.4 rushing yards allowed per game. Additionally, the team's rushing defense allowed a franchise low four rushing touchdowns, besting the previous low of five set in the 1982 season when the year was shortened to just nine games. Against running backs in 2015, the Jets defense limited ball carriers to just 3.35 yards per carry, holding a team's leading back to under 65 yards in 12-of-16 weeks. Eight times in 2015, an opponent's leading running back failed to average 3.00 yards per carry against the Jets.
- Under Johnson, MUHAMMAD WILKERSON earned the first Pro Bowl recognition of his career as the fifth-year pro recorded a career-high 12.5 sacks, while Damon Harrison posted a defensive line-leading and career best 92 tackles. Additionally, 2015 first-round selection LEONARD WILLIAMS was named to the All-Rookie Team by the Pro Football Writers of America
- Under his direction, 11 different defensive linemen have registered at least 5.0 sacks, including both WILKERSON (12.5) and SHELDON RICHARDSON (5.0) in his first season with the Jets.

STEVE MARSHALL

OFFENSIVE LINE

- Steve Marshall returns for his second season as the Jets offensive line coach, his 36th season coaching football and ninth in the NFL. In his first season with the Jets, the offensive line helped RYAN FITZPATRICK set a franchise record for most passing touchdowns (31), while his 3,905 yards passing were the second most in the franchise's history, trailing only Joe Namath's 4,007 in 1967.
- Including his first season with the Jets, Marshall's offensive lines have ranked in the top 10 in the league in sacks allowed in each of his last four seasons. In 2015, FITZPATRICK was sacked just 19 times (fifth fewest), or on just 3.3% of his dropbacks, the best percentage in the NFL. In total, the Jets offensive line allowed the second-fewest sacks in the league (22) and the fewest since the franchise allowed 19 in 2001.
- Additionally, behind Marshall's line, Chris Ivory earned Pro Bowl honors after gaining an AFC-leading 1,070 yards rushing, the first 1,000-yard season of his career and also set career bests in rushing touchdowns (seven), total touchdowns (eight), receptions (30) and receiving yards (217).

DAYLON McCUTCHEON

ASSISTANT CORNERBACKS

- Daylon McCutcheon returns for his second season as the Jets assistant defensive backs coach after making his NFL coaching debut in 2015. In his first full season with the Jets, he assisted Defensive Backs Coach Joe Danna on a secondary that tripled its interception total from the previous season. The defensive backs produced all 18 of the team's interceptions last season (fifth most in the NFL), increasing their 2014 total of six (ranking tied for 30th). Additionally, the secondary held opposing quarterbacks to the lowest completion percentage in the league (57.1 percent) and the sixth lowest quarterback ranking (79.0).
- McCutcheon returned to the Jets after spending the 2013 training camp as a minority coaching intern, working with the defense. Prior to returning to the Jets, he assisted the Cardinals in the same capacity during the 2014 training camp, working with Todd Bowles, Mike Caldwell and the Arizona defense.

KEVIN PATULLO

QUARTERBACKS

- Kevin Patullo returns for his second season as the Jets quarterbacks coach after reuniting with Offensive Coordinator Chan Gailey last season and helping RYAN FITZPATRICK post a franchise-record 31 touchdown passes for an offense that established a new franchise mark for total yards (5,896) – including 400 plus yard performances in four of the final six games – and net passing yards (4,057), while ranking 11th in points per game (24.2), the most by a Jets team since 2008.

JOHN SCOTT, JR.

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE

- John Scott, Jr. returns for his second season with the Jets and first as assistant defensive line coach after he spent the 2015 season as the team's quality control – defense coach.
- Prior to joining the NFL, Scott served as a college coach for 12 seasons, working mostly as a defensive line or outside linebackers coach. He spent time at Louisiana-Lafayette (2003-04), Norfolk State (2005), Western Carolina (2006-08), Missouri State (2009), Georgia Southern (2010-12) and Texas Tech (2013-14).

MARCEL SHIPP

RUNNING BACKS

- Marcel Shipp returns for his second season guiding the Jets running backs after returning to the NFL in 2015 at the conclusion of a seven-year playing career that ended in 2007.
- In his first year with the Jets, Shipp coached running back Chris Ivory to the first 1,000-yard rushing season of his career as the back led the AFC with 1,070 yards on the ground while also registering career high with eight touchdowns, 30 receptions and 217 receiving yards. Additionally, running back BILAL POWELL also enjoyed a career season, establishing single-season bests with 47 receptions for 388 yards and two receiving touchdowns, including averaging 49.8 yards receiving per game from Weeks 11-16, the best in the league over that span.
