JEFFREY LURIE | CHAIRMAN & CEO

In 1994, Jeffrey Lurie purchased the Philadelphia Eagles, launching the most successful run in franchise history.

The Eagles became a perennial contender as the club established a winning tradition by capturing seven NFC East titles, playing in five NFC Championships and making an appearance in Super Bowl XXXIX. This unprecedented run of success compiled a greater overall winning percentage, more playoff appearances [23] and more playoff victories [11] than it had under all previous Eagles ownership groups combined.

While Lurie's teams have thrived on the field, he has also built a successful business and community-oriented organization over the two decades that he has served as Chairman and CEO.

After purchasing the Eagles, Lurie recognized that the organization was in need of a total reconstruction, design and relocation of its office headquarters, practice facility and stadium. He immediately committed to providing the franchise with everything it needed to succeed and constructed two state- of-the-art facilities in South Philadelphia: the NovaCare Complex (2001) and Lincoln Financial Field (2003).

Although Lincoln Financial Field was erected specifically to house its primary tenant, the Philadelphia Eagles, Lurie also created a multi-dimensional event destination that could house a wide variety of events. Fittingly, the first ticketed event at the new stadium was a soccer match between Manchester United and FC Barcelona in August 2003.

Since then, Lincoln Financial Field has continued to evolve with an ever-changing entertainment landscape and underwent a two-year, $125 million revitalization in 2013. Over the years, the venue has hosted high-profile events including sold-out concerts, national and international soccer matches, the NCAA Lacrosse Championships, the Army-Navy Game, Monster Jam, Temple University football games and more.

Lurie serves on numerous NFL committees, including the Finance Committee, Broadcast Committee, International Committee and the Super Bowl Advisory Committee.

Lurie is also a thoughtful and compassionate philanthropist. Inspired by his younger brother, who is autistic, Lurie and his entire family are devoted to raising both money and awareness for research on the causes of the neurodevelopmental disorder.

One of Lurie's philanthropic endeavors was the creation of the team's non-profit charity, the Eagles Charitable Foundation, that now provides children in the Philadelphia region with greater access to vision care as well as supporting autism research and services.

"Autism is one of the most under-funded conditions in the country, and we need to raise awareness," Lurie has noted. "Those who have autism are wonderful people, usually highly intelligent, sweet and caring. They are often unable to effectively communicate with others. A great deal more research needs to be done."

The Eagles won the coveted 2011 Sports Team of the Year Award by Beyond Sport, a global organization that promotes, develops and funds the use of sport to create positive social change across the world, for its campaigns, "Tackling Breast Cancer" and "Go Green!"

Prior to entering business, Lurie served as an adjunct assistant professor of social policy at Boston University. He earned a B.A. from Clark University, a master's in psychology from Boston University and a Ph.D. in social policy from Brandeis University.

Born on September 8, 1951, Lurie has two children. He is married and resides in the Philadelphia area with his wife, Tina. In his free time, he enjoys traveling, golfing, tennis, movies, music and discovering great restaurants.

DON SMOLENSKI | PRESIDENT

Don Smolenski, a longtime leader in the Eagles' front office and a veteran sports executive, was named the club's president in June 2012, capping a steady rise through the executive ranks of the organization. Smolenski was originally hired by the team in 1998 as chief financial officer, was later promoted to senior vice president/chief financial officer and was named the team's chief operating officer in 2010.

As president, Smolenski directs the club's business and strategic efforts, including sales, marketing, communications and operations. He is known for his collaborative, easygoing style, financial acumen and long-term view. He has played a key role in significant projects from the construction of Lincoln Financial Field to the club's internationally recognized environmental and philanthropic programs. He also aided Chairman and CEO Jeffrey Lurie and Executive Vice President of Football Operations Howie Roseman in the team's search for its newest head coach, Doug Pederson.

During his tenure as president, Smolenski has infused energy and creativity throughout the organization with his engaging leadership style. In 2015, he was named to the Most Admired CEOs list by the Philadelphia Business Journal and in 2016 the Philadelphia Eagles was named to Philly.com's Top Workplaces list.

When Chairman and CEO Jeffrey Lurie took over the Philadelphia Eagles in 1994, he set out to build a multi-dimensional event venue that housed not only Eagles games, but a variety of entertainment events. In his first year as president, Smolenski spearheaded a twoyear, $125 million Lincoln Financial Field revitalization project that has helped the organization realize Lurie's vision. Over the years, Lincoln Financial Field has hosted high-profile events including soldout concerts, national and international soccer matches, the NCAA Lacrosse Championships, the Army-Navy Game, Monster Jam and more.

Smolenski plays an important role in the team's environmental initiatives. Because of its Go Green program, the Eagles have emerged as a leader in environmental stewardship in the sports industry. Those efforts include conservation efforts, recycling programs and use of renewable energy including wind and solar.

Smolenski serves as the treasurer of the team's non-profit, charitable wing, the Eagles Charitable Foundation (ECF), a nonprofit 501c3 that today provides children in the Philadelphia region with greater access to vision care and provides funds to support autism research and services. Along with serving as treasurer of ECF, Smolenski helped launch the Eagles Care initiative in 2013. The innovative Eagles Care program forges annual, strategic partnerships with five local nonprofits in order to increase the impact of the team's community efforts. The Eagles also host the annual Huddle Up For Autism event at Lincoln Financial Field in partnership with the Center for Autism Research at The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia.

In addition to his leadership roles within the Eagles organization, Smolenski is also a member of the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce Board, the FM Global Advisory Board, the Philadelphia Sports Congress, the Panasonic Advisory Board and the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia (CHOP) Foundation Board of Overseers. Before joining the Eagles, Smolenski served as chief financial officer for the International Hockey League where he oversaw all league financial matters and played an integral role in the expansion of the league. Through the development of expansion models and the analysis of league performance models, Smolenski saw the league grow from 12 to 19 teams.

Smolenski began his career as a public accountant with Arthur Andersen.

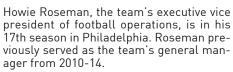

An avid athlete and outdoor enthusiast, Smolenski is a triathlete who has also completed the Detroit, Pittsburgh and Boston Marathons. He earned his bachelor of arts degree in biology from Amherst College and a master's degree in accounting from the University of Hartford. Don and his wife, Karen, have two sons, Jake and Shane.

HOWIE ROSEMAN EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

In his role, Roseman oversees the team's football operations and scouting departments, sports science department, contract negotiations, salary cap management as well as serves as advisor to chairman and CEO Jeffrey Lurie on NFL strategic matters.

In 2016, Roseman assisted Lurie in the team's search for a new head coach and in the eventual hiring of Kansas City Chiefs offensive coordinator Doug Pederson.

Roseman also bolstered the Eagles scouting department in 2016 with the hiring of Joe Douglas as vice president of player personnel and Andy Weidl as the club's assistant director of player personnel. Douglas and Weidl are both products of the scouting tree of renowned Ravens general manager Ozzie Newsome.

Under Roseman's direction in the 2016 offseason, the Eagles planned and executed the contract extensions of several core players to multi-year contracts, including Fletcher Cox, Vinny Curry, Sam Bradford, Lane Johnson, Zach Ertz, Brent Celek, and Malcolm Jenkins.

In addition, Roseman also initiated two aggressive trades in 2016 that allowed the Eagles to move up from the 13th pick in the first round to the 2nd overall selection and select North Dakota State QB Carson Wentz.

When Roseman was hired in 2010 at the age of 34, he was the youngest person to be named GM in the NFL in the last 30 years.

In his first year as general manager in 2010, Roseman oversaw a major overhaul of the roster, making it one of the youngest in the NFL. That revamped Eagles squad earned an NFC East division championship. In 2014, the Eagles had an NFC-high nine Pro Bowl players.

Roseman's tenacity, creativity and ability to develop and nurture positive relationships in every aspect of his job has played a significant role in Roseman's ascent within the Eagles organization.

After relentlessly pursuing jobs in the front office of an NFL team, Roseman finally got his foot in the door with the Eagles in 2000 as salary cap/staff counsel, and has since worked his way up the ladder.

From 2008-09, Roseman served as the team's vice president of player personnel. In that role, he managed the college scouting staff, organized and ran draft meetings, and scouted the top college prospects throughout the country.

Roseman was elevated to director of football administration in 2003 and to vice president of football administration in 2006. In that role, he worked in the personnel department evaluating players around the NFL and for the draft. He also represented the team to the NFL on contract, salary cap, and player personnel matters.

In 2007, Roseman was invited to participate in the NFL-Stanford Program for managers at the Stanford Graduate School of Business, a program developed by the NFL to promote development of leaders within the league.

Roseman is also active in the Philadelphia-area community, contributing to a variety of initiatives involving military and children. In fact, he was named Honorary Commander for the Joint Base Mc-Guire-Dix-Lakehurst for his continued efforts with the military. His charitable endeavors have benefited the Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation, the Boys & Girls Clubs of America, USA Football, Pop Warner and Cop Wheels. He is also a member of the Governing Body of the Global Sports Management Summit.

Born in Brooklyn, NY, Roseman earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Florida before earning a JD degree from Fordham Law School. Howie and his wife, Mindy, reside in suburban Philadelphia with their four children.

Joe Douglas, who was hired by the Eagles as vice president of player personnel on May 11, 2016, comes to Philadelphia with 16-plus years of NFL scouting experience.

Douglas spent the 2015 season as the director of college scouting for the Chicago Bears after working on the Baltimore Ravens' personnel staff for 16 years (2000-15).

Douglas was instrumental in acquiring a number of key performers for the Ravens, Mosley, K Justin Tucker, CB Lardarius Webb and G Marshal Yanda. Grubbs, Mosley, Yanda and Tucker have combined for eight Pro Bowls with the Ravens.

"I have known Joe for several years and have admired his work with both the Ravens and the Bears," said Howie Roseman, Eagles executive vice president of football operations. "He is a guy that we had targeted from the outset. I feel that we are very fortunate to have him lead our player personnel department. [Ravens general manager] Ozzie Newsome and [Bears general manager] Ryan Pace spoke very highly of him and his work. He is passionate about football, passionate about scouting and he played a vital role in the success of the Ravens over the last decade."

As a member of the Ravens organization, Douglas held various posts which included serving as the club's national scout (2012-15), Southeast area scout (2009-11), East Coast area scout (2008) and Northeast area scout (2003-07). Douglas was first hired by Baltimore in 2000, where he worked as a player personnel assistant for three years. He was responsible for fall and spring scouting assignments, college workouts and draft visit coordination, managing the team's college video library and assisting the pro personnel department with special teams evaluations of club opponents and unrestricted free agents.

An All-Atlantic 10 selection, Douglas started 45 consecutive games at tackle for the University of Richmond. Following his collegiate playing career, he transitioned into a volunteer assistant coach with the Spiders' football team in 1999.

DOUG PEDERSON | HEAD COACH

Doug Pederson was named head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles on January 18, 2016, following a three-year run as the offensive coordinator of the Kansas City Chiefs.

While with the Chiefs, Pederson helped quide the team to a 31-17 regular-season record, which included a 10-0 stretch to close out the 2015 campaign, and playoff appearances in 2013 and 2015. During Pederson's time in Kansas City, the Chiefs offense ranked first in the NFL in rushing touchdowns (54), third in yards per carry

Under Pederson's direction, the Chiefs excelled at protecting the football and committed the third-fewest turnovers (50) in the NFL since 2013. Over that span, Kansas City's +29 turnover differential ranked third in the league behind only Seattle (+37) and Carolina (+34), while the Chiefs were the only team to boast two seasons with at least a +12 differential (+18 in 2013 and +14 in 2015).

In 2015, Pederson helped the Chiefs rebound from a 1-5 start to win a franchise-record 11 consecutive games, including Kansas City's first playoff victory in 22 years. During the Chiefs' 2015 regularseason winning streak, which began in Week 7, the club ranked tied for first in the NFL in rushing touchdowns (14), fourth in rushing yards per game (143.8) and tied for fifth in points per game (27.8). Limited turnovers helped propel Kansas City's run, as the Chiefs committed just seven total turnovers (four INTs, three fumbles) after Week 6 and finished the 2015 regular season with the second-fewest turnovers in the league (15). Kansas City's offense showed guick-strike ability in 2015, as the Chiefs also ranked third in scoring drives of four plays or less (11 TDs for 75 points).

Kansas City acquired QB Alex Smith via trade in 2013 and the 10year veteran experienced the most productive stretch of his career under Pederson's tutelage: a three-year span during which he set a Chiefs record for wins by a starting quarterback in his first three years as a starter (30). During his three years in Pederson's offense, Smith notched three consecutive 3,000-yard seasons, threw the second-fewest interceptions among quarterbacks with at least 1,000 attempts (20) and ranked fourth among all quarterbacks with 1,183 rushing yards. Smith's 20 interceptions from 2013-15 marked the lowest three-season total of his career in years that he played more than 10 games.

Before joining Kansas City, Pederson served as the quarterbacks coach in Philadelphia from 2011-12. In his first season as the Eagles quarterbacks coach, Pederson helped QB Michael Vick become the second quarterback in NFL history to top the 3,000-yard passing and 500-yard rushing plateaus in consecutive seasons. That year, under Pederson's direction, Vick set career highs in completions (253) and passing yards (3,303) while throwing the third-most touchdowns of his career (18). Vick's yards through the air, combined with his 589 rushing yards, helped Philadelphia's offense record a then-franchiserecord 6,386 net yards (now the second-highest total) and notch a team-record 356 first downs. Additionally, the 2011 Eagles offense ranked second in the league in plays of 10-plus yards (258) and tied for second in plays of 20-plus yards (84).

Pederson began his pro coaching career as an offensive quality control coach with the Eagles in 2009 and served in that capacity through the 2010 season. In his two seasons in that role, the Eagles combined for 868 points and set single-season franchise scoring records in back-to-back years (429 in 2009 and 439 in 2010). The 2010 and 2009 scoring outputs currently rank third and fourth, respectively, in franchise history.

In 2010, Pederson assisted an Eagles offense that recorded a thenfranchise-record 6,230 net yards (now fourth), which ranked second in the NFL that season, and a then-franchise-record 439 points, which ranked third in the league. The 2010 Eagles had a propensity for big plays and ranked near the top of the league in plays of 20-plus yards (tied for first, 80), quick-strike touchdown drives (tied for first, 11) and scoring outside of the red zone (second, 139 points).

During Pederson's first season coaching with the Eagles in 2009, Philadelphia's offense threw for the fifth-most passing yards in Eagles annals (4,089), which at the time ranked second in franchise history.

A 12-year NFL veteran, Pederson played quarterback for the Green Bay Packers, Miami Dolphins, Philadelphia Eagles and Cleveland Browns after originally being drafted by the Carolina Panthers in the 1995 expansion draft. Pederson was coached by three of the most successful coaches in NFL history: Don Shula, Mike Holmgren and Andy Reid. Additionally, Pederson played alongside Pro Bowl quarterbacks Brett Favre, Dan Marino, Donovan McNabb and Jim McMahon.

Pederson served as a backup quarterback for Green Bay from 1995-98 and 2001-04, and was part of Packer teams that won Super Bowl XXXI, two NFC Championships (1996 and 1997) and six division titles. Pederson made eight starts for the Browns in 2000 and logged 1,047 yards and two touchdowns on 117 completions. In 1999, Pederson made nine starts for the Eagles, completing 119 passes for 1,276 yards and seven touchdowns.

In a 1993 contest against the Eagles, Pederson was pressed into duty when Dolphins starter Scott Mitchell left the game with a shoulder injury. In the second half, he helped guide Miami to a 19-14 win that marked Don Shula's 325th career victory.

Pederson attended Northeast Louisiana (now Louisiana Monroe) where he earned four letters and was a three-year starter at quarterback. He finished his college career with 6,445 yards and 33 touchdowns on 571-of-1,032 passing. As a senior, Pederson led the Southland Conference in passing when he completed 205 of 367 passes for 2,282 yards and 10 touchdowns. In 1989, he set a school record with 619 passing yards against Stephen F. Austin. Pederson graduated from Northeast Louisiana with a B.B.A. in business management.

The Bellingham, WA, native (born January 31, 1968) earned three letters each in football, baseball and basketball at Ferndale (WA) H.S., where he was an all-league selection at quarterback, safety and kicker and finished his high school career with 1,880 yards and 19 TDs on 106-of-250 passing.

Pederson and his wife, Jeannie, have three sons: Drew, Josh and Joel. Jeannie played college basketball at Louisiana College.

A versatile offensive lineman with eight years of NFL experience, Allen Barbre (pronounced BAR-ber) joined the Eagles in 2013 and emerged as a starter in his third season in Philadelphia, opening all 16 games at left guard in 2015. A former fourth-round draft pick of the Packers in 2007, Barbre was a fouryear starter at Missouri Southern State. Barbre and the Eagles agreed on a three-year contract extension during the 2014 offseason.

2015 HIGHLIGHTS

 After spending the 2014 season on Injured Reserve following a season-ending ankle injury sustained in Week 1, rebounded in 2015 to earn a starting position on the line and opened all 16 games at LG

BIRDSEED

- Barbre has rarely handled the football during his career, but he fondly remembers the last time he found the end zone. As a junior in 2005 at Missouri Southern, Barbre scored a touchdown on a 4-yard rush in the first quarter of a win vs. Truman State. Although his touchdown was the first of five on the day for the Lions, Barbre's score meant much more than the rest. On the Tuesday prior to the game, Missouri Southern Head Coach John Ware passed away from a heart attack. Ware, who played offensive line for Drake University, had spent 19 years coaching at Truman before taking the head coaching job at Missouri Southern in 2004. "As a tribute to Coach Ware, we lined up in a formation made up only of offensive lineman," recalls Barbre. "I lined up as guarterback, I took the snap from the shotgun and ran it in. It was pretty neat."
- Says the biggest influence on his life and career is his high school coach, Larry Bunn. "Coach Bunn saw something in me and made sure I was headed in the right direction. He got to me at a young age and made sure I was doing the right things."
- Barbre comes from Native American heritage as his great-great-grandfather Eli Barbry was a Chief of the Tunica-Biloxi Indian Tribe of Louisiana. Barbre is very fond of his heritage and is honored to be part of Native American culture. His grandfather currently lives on the Tunica-Biloxi Indian Reservation in Marksville, Louisiana

If you had one word best fit to depict Connor Barwin the football player and Barwin the man, that word would be versatile. On the field, he is best described by his coaches as the "jack of all trades," willing and able to rush the passer, set the edge on run plays or drop into pass coverage. Off the field, Barwin's foundation, Make The World Better (MTWB), exemplifies his upbringing as the son of a city manager and the civic pride he displays since growing up in Detroit, MI. A former tight end and basketball player at the University of Cincinnati, he was a 2nd-round pick of the Texans in 2009 and signed with Philadelphia as a free agent in 2013. He earned his first Pro Bowl bid in 2014 as well as a 2nd-team All-Pro berth.

Why not take advantage of everything a city has to offer? It just makes sense to me ... My dad was a city manager, so I gained an appreciation for cities from him. He took me around different cities and pointed out all the differences and great places to go. I really got that from him and just try to embrace wherever I am."
- Serves as a spokesman and avid user of Southeastern Pennsylvania Transportation Authority (SEPTA). "I love public transportation and I love using it," said Barwin. "It's good for the city and it's great for the environment" ... When not taking public transportation, Barwin drives a Tesla, an electric-powered car, or rides his bicycle

- After being born completely deaf, Barwin underwent multiple surgeries until he was 12 years old to have his hearing restored

He's a physical kid and he's got good size. With the spread formations now, a lot of the linebackers are smaller than we would like. But he's got good size. ## BIRDSEED

- Prior to landing his first NFL job as a rookie free agent with the Houston Texans in 2011, Braman thought his football career was over. "After I got kicked out of Idaho, I was making concrete railroad ties for a year, just back-breaking work. It was tough." Braman went to West Texas A&M in 2009 after a two-year stint at Long Beach City College. He originally went to Idaho, where he was a redshirt freshman in 2006. "The bottom line is I was just immature and got caught up in bad things. It was an eye-opening experience for me and really forced me to grow up. I think going through that ultimately made me a better person. I'm so much more appreciative of everything I have now."
- Claims to get his size from his late grandfather, Ivan Cecil Braman, a WWII veteran who was a whopping 7-foot-4 and 360 pounds
- As a senior prank at West Texas A&M, teammates cut off his dreadlocks at his defensive line coach's house. Still having an attachment to them, he still has them stored in a Ziploc bag in his garage
- While at Long Beach City College (2007-08), modeled for Abercrombie & Fitch and did casting calls in L.A.

- Was heavily recruited out of Shadle Park (WA) H.S. as a standout track star. Competed in the 4x100 relay, high jump, long jump and javelin. Has considered training for the javelin following his football career and would love to have the chance to throw in the Olympics for Team USA
- Is interested in pursuing a degree in business management following his playing career

First jersey: Dan Marino, Miami Dolphins

What he'd be doing if not in football: Financial advisor

- Funniest Eagle: Jordan Matthews

"Trey brings you the rare combination of a special teams player: He brings you the speed, he has the agility, he plays with the aggressiveness and he has the athletic ability. That's what you want out of your special teams players."

> - Former Eagles LB and Pro Bowl Special Teamer Ike Reese

A versatile threat in the collegiate ranks, Trey Burton originally signed with the Eagles as a rookie free agent during the 2014 offseason. Burton has been a key member of the Eagles special teams units in his first two seasons, as he recorded a blocked punt and a blocked punt touchdown return in 2014, and led the team with 19 special teams tackles in 2015.

BIRDSEED

- Works out during the offseason with teammate Nelson Agholor and his brother, Clay Burton, at the Performance Compound in Tampa, FL
- Went on a mission trip to Africa in summer 2012 and lists future trips as an item on his bucket list
- Has a great appreciation for Philadelphia's history and enjoys exploring the city in his free time. "I was never exposed to anything like this when I was growing up," explains Burton
- Claims the biggest influences on his life were a trio of mentors: his late grandfather, John McClintock, and two of his high school coaches, John Peacock and Larry Shannon. Trey grew up without a father in his life and these three men helped fill that void. "They kept me going in the right direction," said Burton. "I didn't have a father growing up, so they were my father figures through high school. If I ever needed anything or need anything to this day, I can always go to them and ask for anything."
- Burton's athleticism runs in his bloodlines, as his grandfather, Lawrence Burton, was the seventh-overall selection in the 1975 NFL Draft and also sprinted for Team USA in the 1972 Summer Olympics in Munich. Lawrence split time with New Orleans and San Diego during a five-year NFL career, hauling in 44 catches for 804 yards and seven TDs. Additionally, he placed fourth for the United States in Munich in the 200-meter final
- Runs a summer football camp in his hometown of Venice, FL
- As the son of a single mother, Trey hopes to get involved in charities that focus on helping children who grow up without fathers

2016 HIGHLIGHTS

• Hauled in his first-career TD off a 2-yard pass from QB Carson Wentz in the third quarter at Chi. (9/19). Also totaled career highs with five receptions for 49 yards in the Monday night win

I love players that sacrifice their personal statistics for the team and Celek leads the Eagles in that category.

- ESPN analyst Jon Gruden

One of the toughest and most reliable players in team history, Brent Celek does it all from the tight end position. He is a big target in the passing game, a relentless blocker and an unquestioned leader on the squad. Despite not being invited to the NFL Scouting Combine, Celek went on to become a 5th round pick in 2007 and developed into one of the most productive Eagle tight ends ever. He has also ingrained himself within the Philadelphia community with his philanthropic work and business acumen. After inking a new deal in 2016, Celek is signed through 2018.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Produced one of the most prolific seasons by an Eagles tight end in 2009, setting career highs in receptions (76), yards (971) and TDs (eight). These numbers were the second-highest single-season totals in team history in all three categories among tight ends. In addition, his yards and touchdown totals ranked fourth among all NFL tight ends
- Set a franchise playoff record with 10 catches, (83 yards and two TDs) in the NFC Championship game on 1/18/09 at Ari. His two TD receptions tied a team postseason record (Chad Lewis, Fred Barnett, Harold Carmichael)
- With 157 receiving yards vs. the Ravens on 9/16/12, Celek recorded the second-highest yardage output by a tight end in franchise history behind Pete Retzlaff's 204 yards vs. Was. on 11/14/65

BIRDSEED - Cont.

- Admits getting snubbed for the combine in 2007 was a huge motivating factor for him. Said Celek: "It ticked me off, to be honest. I thought I would be drafted higher, but it just lit a fire under me that I will always carry."
- A friend of die-hard Eagles fan and CSNBC's Mad Money host Jim Cramer, the two met for the first time for dinner in 2009 and have regularly talked about football and finance ever since
- Acquired his desire to invest and research business ventures during his college classes at Cincinnati. "I would often get bored in class and sometimes just log onto the internet during class to research companies." ... Not much has changed today as Celek uses Flip Board to keep up with all the latest news and trends in business, style, entrepreneurship, architecture and design
- Brent's No. 1 fan is his grandfather, Ed, and vice versa. "We've been very close from when he was little on up," Ed said. Brent gave his grandfather the ball from his first touchdown catch in 2007. In fact, Prime Stache, contains a photo of Ed with a mustache on the menu

A lifelong fan of the Philadelphia Eagles, Vinny Curry has emerged as a valuable pass-rushing threat in the Eagles defensive line rotation, signing a five-year contract in 2016 that will keep him in Philadelphia through 2020. In 2014, Curry provided quality production off the bench as he set career highs in sacks (nine) and forced fumbles (four). Selected in the second round in 2012, Curry was named the 2011 Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year as a senior after posting 11 sacks, seven forced fumbles and 22 tackles for a loss.

On October 15, the very next day, he joined his Marshall teammates and defeated conference rival Rice at home, 24-20. Curry had arguably the greatest game of his career as he posted nine tackles, 3.5 sacks and a forced fumble. His performance earned him the FWAA/ Bronko Nagurski National Defensive Player of the Week award

GREEN AND SILVER SLUGGER

Ertz took his skills the baseball field as he captured the Eagles annual batting practice competition title at Citizens Bank Park in 2016. Ertz won a hotly-contested final round over fellow Eagles tight end Trey Burton. Other participants included 2015 champion Jon Dorenbos, head coach Doug Pederson, Bennie Logan, Chris Maragos, Donnie Jones, and Chase Daniel

LEARNING FROM THE BEST

During high school, Ertz was tutored by four-time Pro Bowl tight end Brent Jones. Jones helped coach the team and paid special attention to Ertz. "He was big and had a lot of athleticism," Jones said. "He thought he was a basketball player. After the first month, I told him, 'You have what the NFL is looking for. If you put in the time and effort you can play at the pro level.'" Jones saw Stanford as the best fit for his pupil and contacted then-Cardinal head coach Jim Harbaugh. Although Ertz suffered a broken wrist early in his junior season, Stanford arrived with a scholarship offer, which Ertz accepted.

INJURY REPORT

- Organized a co-ed, high school football camp in Michigan called the Select 100 that takes 10 students (five boys and five girls) from each of Detroit's 20 public schools. The inaugural camp took place in summer 2015 and will help promote teamwork, confidence through sports and self esteem. At the suggestion of his wife, Carlyne, Graham decided that it was important to incorporate girls into the program, as the couple recognized the void for female football camps
- In the offseason, trains in Detroit with former Michigan LBs Larry Foote and LaMarr Woodley. Works out at a Detroit boxing facility, Barwis Methods, with trainer Mike Barwis
- Names his mother, Tasha Graham, as being the most influential person in his life. A cancer survivor, Tasha was diagnosed with leukemia at a young age. She spent most of her life working at a Chrysler auto plant to support Brandon and his three sisters. Recalled Tasha, "The doctors told me I would never be able to have kids, so I cherish them because of that. When I was working at Chrysler, working hard, trying to make ends meet, it was for them and Brandon saw that."
- Rod Oden, who was an assistant coach at Crocket while Graham was in high school, is now the head coach there and fondly reflects on Graham's work ethic and the impact he has made on the program. "He was an absolute leader. The entire school would follow Brandon. He's a leader in demonstration. We say, 'Leadership is demonstrated, it's not announced.' He walks in a room and his presence commands respect. People see him put in the extra hours. They see him run the extra sprints, lift the extra weights, and they follow. Now we have kids who want to be the next Brandon. They're still following."

- A three-star recruit who signed a national letter of intent at Missouri, Darnell Green-Beckham - the brother of Dorial - was diagnosed and received treatment for acute lymphoblastic leukemia a few years back. While in high school, Darnell wore the number "10" and Dorial wore "5," but when Dorial moved on to the University of Missouri, he changed his number to "15" to show his brother, who is now in remission, that they were linked as one on the football field

Pro Bowl: 2016

As a true student of the game, a dynamic playmaker from the safety position, and a tireless philanthropist in the community, Malcolm Jenkins is a pillar in the Eagles locker room. He posted career and team highs in tackles (120), passes defensed (15) and forced fumbles (3) in 2015, en route to his first trip to the Pro Bowl. Jenkins signed a three-year contract with the Eagles on the first day of free agency in 2014 and provided instant veteran leadership on the team's defensive unit. Originally a first-round draft pick (14th overall) of the Saints in 2009 out of Ohio State, Jenkins was a two-time defensive team captain during his time in New Orleans. The seven-year veteran launched the Malcolm Jenkins Foundation in 2010 in an effort to enhance the lives of children in under-served communities.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl in 2015 after registering career and team highs in tackles (120), passes defensed (15) and forced fumbles (3)
- Recorded his 4th career interception for a touchdown and his second as an Eagle when he returned a 99-yard interception to the end zone off of Patriots QB Tom Brady at NE (12/6/15). It tied for the third-longest in team history and was the longest since Lito Sheppard's 102-yarder vs. Dal. (10/8/06). He also became the fourth Eagle and the first safety in team history with a pick-six in back-to-back years (Sheldon Brown, Joe Lavender, Jim Nettles)
- Became the first Eagles safety since Brian Dawkins in 2004 to record an interception in three consecutive games after picking off Colin Kaepernick at SF (9/28/14) and returning it 53 yards for a score
- Voted a two-time defensive team captain by his New Orleans teammates in 2012 and 2013
- Named to the 2011 USA Football All-Fundamentals Team and earned the Saints Man of the Year award
- In 2010, named Associated Press 2nd-team All-Pro
- Became the first Saints defender since 2001 to earn NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors when he did so in Weeks 12 and 14 during the 2010 season
- Picked off Rams QB Sam Bradford twice in Saints territory, one of which he returned for a 96-yard touchdown in a win vs. StL (12/12/10)

BIRDSEED

• Credits many for helping him get to where he is today, but he singled out three people: his father, Lee Jenkins; his high school football and track coach, Larry Lester; and his college coach Jim Tressel. "My father's best advice was 'You don't know what you don't know,' meaning you constantly need to learn more. Larry Lester taught me how to prepare and how to train. We'd sometimes be the only two people on the field on a weekend, just trying to get myself better. And Coach Tressel taught me about integrity and how to be a pro before I even became a pro"

BIRDSEED - Cont.

- After reading The Zombie Survival Guide by Max Brooks, Jenkins began collecting an array of different survival tools in what he describes as "a half-hearted attempt at doomsday prepping." Also names AMC's The Walking Dead as his favorite TV show
- In 2016, Jenkins participated in a NFL version of Celebrity Family Feud hosted by Steve Harvey, which aired on July 3. Jenkins and the rest of the NFC defense defeated the AFC offense and collected $25,000 for Got Your 6 charity in the Fast Money round thanks to Jenkins' impressive 152-point effort

- Was a high school teammate of Kyle Wilson and Anthony Davis, all of whom went on to be first-round draft choices
- Active in the New Orleans community, was recognized in 2013 with the John Wooten Professional Leadership Award for devoting his time and serving as a leader on and off the field
- In 2012, earned the Jesse Owens Influential Athlete Award by the Ohio State Alumni Association. This award acknowledges "an African-American alumnus and former student-athlete who exemplifies great character and talent, demonstrates exceptional professional success and continues to reflect the highest qualities of a consummate athlete and humanitarian"
- His wife, Morrisa, recently started a company called Meaux Moisture (meauxmoisture.com) which sells all-natural body care products. "I use her products on my beard," says Jenkins. "I give all the credit for my beard to my wife"

2016 HIGHLIGHTS

• Sacked Bears QB Jay Cutler for a 10-yard loss on the second play of the game in a 29-14 Monday night victory at Chi. (9/19)

PERSONAL

- Married to his wife, Morrisa, and has one daughter, Elle. Malcolm and Morrisa met on Facebook while he was a senior at Ohio State. "She was at Southern Miss, so we talked on Facebook for a while and I just happened to get drafted by the Saints. New Orleans was only an hour and ten minutes from where she was in Hattiesburg, so we started hanging out and the rest is history."
- Son of Willie Lee and Gwendolyn V. Jenkins. His dad is a software engineer for Comcast and his mom is the president of The Malcolm Jenkins Foundation

HUMBLE BEGINNINGS

For a player who won a Super Bowl and played in a Pro Bowl, his career did not exactly begin in a blaze of glory. Jenkins was originally a nine-year old, back-up guard for the Piscataway Braves of his Pop Warner squad in New Jersey. Jenkins recalled that he played just seven plays per game that was mandatory for all players in that league. "All I remember is that I got my 7 plays in and from there it was a race to get the free hot dog."

STYLIN' IN THE SECONDARY

Jenkins has fully immersed himself in the world of fashion and, more specifically, the bow tie. At the suggestion from his wife, Morrisa, Jenkins launched his own company, Rock Avenue Bow Ties, which specializes in the design and creation of neck wear and pocket squares and encourages self expression in its customers. For more information on Rock Avenue, visit rockavenuebowties.com

- Attended Piscataway (NJ) High School where he led the team to three-consecutive state titles playing wide receiver and defensive back. Also was an All-State and All-American selection as a senior
- Excelled at track and field, where he won the state title in the 400-meter dash as a junior
- Was a leader in the Omega Psi Phi fraternity at Ohio State, graduating with a bachelor's degree in communications
- Twitter: @MalcolmJenkins; Instagram: malcolmjenkins27

A physically gifted athlete who played collegiately as a quarterback, tight end and defensive lineman before transitioning to the offensive line in 2011 at Oklahoma, Johnson was drafted by the Eagles with the 4th-overall selection in the 2013 NFL Draft. After starting all 45 games that he has played in his threeyear career (including playoffs), Johnson signed a new six-year contract during the 2016 offseason.

2015 HIGHLIGHTS

• Started all 16 games for the Eagles, opening 14 contests at RT and making his first two career starts at LT at Dal. (11/8) and vs. Mia. (11/15)

BIRDSEED

- Spends part of his offseason working out in Southern California at MMA Athletics, a program founded by MMA legend Randy Couture and FOX NFL insider Jay Glazer. "It helped me become tougher, mentally"
- Credits his mother, Ray Ann, for being where he is today. "She was a single mother and she raised me by herself. She didn't have a lot, but she made sure I was happy." Ray Ann has a degree in criminal justice and works as a social worker with deathrow inmates at a prison in Riverside, TX. Lane was proud to purchase his mother a new home in 2014
- Did not receive a single college football offer out of high school. "That left me with a bitter taste in my mouth and a chip on my shoulder. It motivated me then and still does to this day"
- His graduating class from Groveton (TX) High School consisted of a total of 35 students. In fact, Groveton's listed population in 2010 was just 1,057
- Leans on the advice of his father-in-law, John Goodman, who played defensive line for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1981-85. "He's been a mentor to me. He's been in my shoes; been there, done that. He's taught me how to best work through adversity and the tough times"
- Before transfering to Oklahoma, played one year for head coach J.J. Eckert at Kilgore (TX) College. Eckert on Johnson's progression: "One day we were in a goal-line drill and we were short a tight end due to injuries and we have this big monster (Lane) sitting right next to us. We said, 'Could you go play tight end on this play? Just run through the C-gap and if you see someone, just hit 'em.' Well, he pancaked a linebacker and Division I college coaches were there and his stock went high basically just on one play in a goal-line drill."

PERSONAL

- He and his wife, Chelsea, reside in Edmond, OK. They have a son, Jace; a daughter, Journey Layne; and a dog, Mox
- Played quarterback and safety at Groveton (TX) HS, where he was an all-region and honorable mention all-state selection. Groveton also produced former Oilers/Titans and Falcons RB Rodney Thomas

- Eagles Offensive Line Coach Jeff Stoutland

Jason Kelce arrived at the University of Cincinnati as a walk-on linebacker in 2006 and is now a Pro Bowl center with the Eagles. Between then and now, Kelce used an incredible amount of athleticism, diligent work ethic, and intelligence to make his present a reality. A 6th-round draft pick of the Eagles in 2012, Kelce made the most of his opportunity as a rookie and became an immediate starter. Following the 2013 season, he was rewarded with a seven-year contract extension through 2020.

- His experience as a linebacker and running back in high school have helped him become the player he is today. "Playing linebacker definitely helped me as an offensive lineman. - Also grew up playing a variety of different sports including hockey, lacrosse, soccer and baseball. "Playing all of those sports has helped me adapt to any circumstance that is thrown my way."
- In 2014, Kelce became the first professional athlete to compete in Wing Bowl, an annual chicken wing eating contest conducted by the Eagles flagship radio station, 94 WIP. He ate 65 wings in 14 minutes

RENAISSANCE MAN

While he was always known for his athletic talents on the field growing up, Kendricks' passion off the field is in the fine arts. Kendricks attended Bullard Talent, a private school that specializes in the fine arts from kindergarten through 8th grade. While there, Kendricks acted in plays such as Robin Hood, Aladdin and The Lion King. He also learned to dance in hip-hop, urban, tap and jazz styles. Said Kendricks: "I really have an appreciation for all kinds of art and going there really instilled that in me at a young age. I would go there during the day and then play sports for other schools. I remember you'd have to win a raffle to get your kids in, so my mom did that for me and I got lucky."

A third-round draft choice of the Eagles in 2013, Bennie Logan has been a dependable force and productive member of the Eagles defensive line from the nose tackle position. The Coushatta, LA, native helped anchor LSU's defensive line and wore the famed #18 jersey during his final season in Baton Rouge.

- Credits his grandmother, Ella Faye Bonner, and his cousin, Harry Gary, as the two biggest influences in his life. "My grandmother is my hero because when my mother passed away, she took me in and raised me from junior high to high school and even helped me through college," said Logan. "My cousin, Harry, pushed me to work hard and motivated me and stayed on me. He paid for me to go to LSU's camp and that's when I really came onto the scene. Without him helping me by paying for me to go to the camp and by pushing me to work hard, I wouldn't be in the place that I am."
- If Logan could trade places with one person for one day, he would like to experience what it is like to be homeless. "I come from a background that wasn't the best and it would be interesting to see how it is to live without a house and to have to look for food every day. It would make you more appreciative and would make you stop taking things for granted."
- Believes that if he wasn't playing football, he would be in the law enforcement field, either as an FBI agent or a U.S. Marshal. "Growing up as a little kid, I always wanted to be a firefighter or a police officer," Logan stated. "As I got older, I learned more about the expert fields of law enforcement. I started watching more shows about the U.S. Marshals and the FBI and saw all the things that they do. It made me want to travel all over the world and hunt for fugitives like they do."
- Named the "Game of the Century," a 2011 match-up between unbeaten LSU and Alabama as his favorite college game. It was the first time two undefeated SEC teams met as the #1 and #2 ranked teams in the country. LSU won a defensive struggle, 9-6

One of the top special teams players in the league, Chris Maragos took a long and arduous road to even reach the NFL. He made it despite not receiving any offers to play football coming out of high school or any sort of ranking on Rivals. He walked on at both Western Michigan and Wisconsin as a receiver and received a scholarship offer for only his final season with the Badgers. He joined the 49ers as a rookie free agent in 2010 with a signing bonus of $4,000 but became a special teams standout during a three-year tenure with Seattle from 2011-13, which included a Super Bowl championship. He joined the Eagles after signing a three-year contract in 2014.

BIRDSEED

- Credits his father, Nick, for instilling the relentless work ethic he possesses. "We never stopped practicing when I was growing up," said Chris, who was coached by his father in little league football. "We'd play catch with the football for hours in our cul-desac and then he'd hit ground ball after ground ball to me on many hot summer days. He taught me all about work ethic, commitment and character"
- When asked who he tries to model his game after in the NFL, Maragos quickly responded with Matthew Slater and Earl Thomas. "Matthew plays the game with so much character, integrity and heart and Earl excels in the mental aspect of the game. He's always pressing the issue on and off the field"
- Played with E.J. Biggers and Louis Delmas while at Western Michigan
- Trains with former Badgers and current NFLers DeAndre Levy, Nick Hayden, J.J. Watt, and Kevin Zeitler at NX Level in Waukesha, WI in the offseason

Maragos used an unlikely source to get his shot at Wisconsin: Facebook. "I was a walk-on receiver at Western Michigan, but it was always a dream of mine to play at Wisconsin," said Maragos. "My brother was the mascot there and he knew some guys on the team. So, I decided to give it a shot."

Maragos looked up Wisconsin's starting WR Luke Swan on Facebook and sent him a message. "I told him my brother was Bucky Badger and wanted a shot to play at Wisconsin. He responded and got my film in front of the coaches. Next thing I knew they were asking me to walk on. It was amazing."

- "The conversation that sticks out most with me was the one that we had before the whole draft process," said Matthews. "[Rice] told me that every checkpoint that you go to, go into it like you're the best one there. Not to use a cliché, but own the moment. Really feel that there's no one there that can mess with me"
- Matthews didn't start playing football until he became the subject of some playful ribbing from his classmates in grade school. "I was getting made fun of by my friends because I played soccer," he said. "I was really good at soccer and had really good feet. I was asked to join a couple of travel teams, but I was getting made fun of by some of my best friends. So, it was time to go play football"
- His "Welcome to the NFL" moment came during the team's 33-10 victory over the Dallas Cowboys on Thanksgiving Day in 2014. "It was crazy knowing that everybody in the country was sitting down to watch the game that we were playing in. That was when I first realized how big of a stage we are truly on"

Originally a fifth-round draft choice of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2013, Steven Means was signed by the Eagles off of the Houston Texans practice squad following Week 13 of the 2015 season. Means appeared in 11 games over his first two seasons with Tampa Bay, recording five tackles as a defensive end in addition to contributing on special teams. A native of Buffalo, NY, Means was a four-year letterman at the University at Buffalo, where he finished his career ranked fourth in school history in sacks with 18.5.

BIRDSEED

 According to Means, the best player he has ever lined up against is current teammate and Eagles LT Jason Peters. In fact, Peters was part of his "welcome to the NFL" moment. As a rookie for the Buccaneers in 2013, Means' performance in a Week 4 matchup against the Cardinals led to increased snaps the following game. It just so happened that the next contest would be against the Eagles and o-line anchor, Peters. Said Means, "I just remember this one play where Jason literally lifted me up in the air and slammed me to the ground. It didn't stop there. He rested his hands on my chest and made sure that my back remained on the grass until the play was over. I was in total shock at the time and just kept thinking that you have to come ready to play on every single down at this level."

To get a big guy playing tackle that can pass protect like he does and work his way down the field, God didn't create many people like him.<sup>11</sup>

- NBC Sunday Night Football analyst Cris Collinsworth

In 2000, he was a redshirt defensive lineman in college, laboring on Arkansas' scout team. In 2004, he was a rookie free agent tight end just looking for playing time in Buffalo. Now, he is a eight-time Pro Bowl and six-time All-Pro offensive tackle who is building his resume for a spot in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. In between is the remarkable story of Jason Peters, who is regarded by many experts as the best left tackle in the game, and who has anchored the Eagles offensive line since being acquired in a trade from Buffalo in 2009. Peters was rewarded with a five-year contract following the 2013 season that will keep the tackle in Philadelphia through 2018.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- With his eighth Pro Bowl selection and sixth as an Eagle in 2015, Peters has garnered the secondmost Pro Bowl nods by an offensive lineman in team history behind Chuck Bednarik (eight), who did so as a two-way player at center and linebacker
- Earned Pro Bowl honors in five consecutive seasons (2007-11) and All-Pro honors following the 2007, '08, '10, '11, '13 and '14 campaigns
- Joined Frank "Bucko" Kilroy (1953-55) as the only two offensive linemen in franchise history to earn a Pro Bowl berth in three consecutive years
- Since Peters' first Pro Bowl selection in 2007, only Cleveland's Joe Thomas (eight) has been selected to as many Pro Bowls as a tackle
- Has two career touchdowns: Blocked a punt and recovered it in the end zone (12/19/04 at Cin.) and caught J.P. Losman's first career TD pass (9/11/05 vs. Hou.)

- Credits former Bills coach Mike Mularkey for his career-changing switch from tight end to tackle in 2005. "Offensive line was one of our weak points and I remember wanting to get on the field any way I could. Coach Mularkey told me about it and Mouse (O-line coach Jim McNally) and I got to work."
- Was once taken out of a baseball game as a 9-year old after the umpire and opposing coach were convinced he was too old to play. "I struck out 9 batters in the first three innings. Thanks to his grandfather, Dallas Wiggins, buying and restoring cars has been a passion in Jason's life. "He used to take all these old cars and fix them up. When I was little, I was always hanging around watching him and my uncle, and I got hooked."

A native of Columbus, GA, the long-armed and athletic Smith garnered USA Today second-team All-America honors in 2013 after amassing 14.5 sacks. - Claims that O-linemen Trent Williams and Jonathan Cooper have been the best players he has lined up against
- Follows some of the game's top pass rushers, including Connor Barwin, Von Miller, Kahlil Mack, DeMarcus Ware, Clay Matthews, Bruce Irvin, Michael Bennett and Cliff Avril. Grew up watching the likes of Michael Jordan, Michael Vick and Vince Young
- As a standout basketball player, was on the same AAU team as Steelers LB Jarvis Jones. In fact, all five starters on the squad went on to play football for Divison-I schools
- Played quarterback at Hardaway (GA) High School where he was selected to the 2009 AAA All-Region second team as a quarterback, throwing for more than 1,800 yards and 14 touchdowns. Added 227 yards and four touchdowns on the ground
- Son of Marcus Smith, Sr. and Elba Wilson. Marcus works in the maintenence department at Kodak and Elba works in customer service for both Kudzu and The Game. His mother was a student-athlete at Walter State College, who played point guard for the school's basketball team

THE RIGHT SWITCH

Since he was five years old, Marcus Smith played one position - quarterback. "I was a dual threat growing up," said Marcus. "I never played anything else." Shortly after going to Louisville, the coaches approached him about switching over to defense. In just the fourth year of his life playing defense, Marcus erupted his senior season as he racked up 14.5 sacks en route to being named the AAC Defensive Player of the Year. "I've always been a team guy, do whatever the team needs me to do. It was the best decision I ever made."

Pro Bowl: 2015, 2016

One of the most versatile weapons in the NFL, the Eagles acquired Darren Sproles in a trade with the New Orleans Saints and signed the back to a twoyear extension during the 2014 offseason. In July 2016, Sproles signed his second Eagles contract: a one-year extension that will keep him in Philadelphia through 2017. The multi-dimensional threat at running back, receiver and returner has led the NFL in all-purpose yards since 2007 and all running backs in receiving touchdowns and receiving yards during that span. One of the league's premier return men since entering the league as a fourth-round pick of the Chargers in 2005, Sproles has nine career return touchdowns on both punts (seven) and kickoffs (two).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Leads the NFL with 16,369 all-purpose yards since 2007 and is second among all active players in the category with 18,017 all-purpose yards, trailing only Baltimore's Steve Smith, Sr. (18,464)
- Ranks seventh in NFL history in combined kick and punt return yards (10,967) and eighth in kick return yards (8,350)
- Boasts nine career return TDs (seven punts and two kickoffs), which ranks tied for sixth all-time and tied for second among active players with Jacoby Jones, while trailing only Devin Hester (19). His seven career punt return scores are tied for seventh in NFL history
- Ranks tied for 12th in NFL history among running backs with 28 career receiving touchdowns
- One of the NFL's premiere threats catching the ball out of the backfield, leads all NFL RBs since 2007 in receiving touchdowns (28), while ranking second in receiving yards (4,178) and receptions (474)
- Is one of just four players in NFL history with at least two games with both a punt return touchdown and rushing touchdown in the same contest, joining Gale Sayers, Ockie Anderson and Curly Oden
- Is the only player in NFL history to record 15plus rushing touchdowns (19), 25-plus receiving touchdowns (28) and five-plus punt return touchdowns (7) over the span of his career
- Ranks tied for first in Eagles history in punt return touchdowns with four, along with WR DeSean Jackson. Is also the only player in team history to have multiple seasons with at least two punt return scores
- Earned second-team AP All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors as a punt returner in 2014 after leading the NFL in punt return average (13.0), punt return yards (506) and tying for the lead in TDs (two)
- Set an NFL postseason record with 15 catches for 118 yards in a NFC Divisional game at SF (1/14)

Originally a fifth-round draft choice of the Miami Dolphins in 2013, Caleb Sturgis was signed by the Eagles following Week 3 of the 2015 regular season and connected on 18-of-22 field goal attempts (81.8%), including two 50-plus yarders in his first seson with the team. A four-year letterman at the University of Florida, Sturgis converted 70-of-88 attempts (79.5%) in his career and was a two-time finalist for the coveted Lou Groza Award (2011, '12).

2016 HIGHLIGHTS

 Connected on all three of his attempts, including a 53-yarder at Chi. (9/19), tying for the second-longest field goal of his career and the fifth-longest in team history. It was his 12th career three FG game

BIRDSEED

- Grew up in a family with six children (two girls, four boys), who were all homeschooled by his mom, Karen. His dad, Smiley, is a pastor at Good News Church in St. Augustine
- Caleb's brother, Nathan, is a professional soccer player who currently plays for the Seattle Sounders
- Growing up in St. Augustine, FL, Sturgis was a big fan of the Jacksonville Jaguars as a kid and even went to their training camp practices when he was eight years old. His first jerseys were Mark Brunell and Natrone Means
- Always seems to enjoy his most successful games in his home state of Florida. As a sophomore in high school, he hit a 49-yarder in Sun Life Stadium. He later hit a career-long 56 yarder as a sophomore at Florida against Georgia at EverBank Field. Two of his 50-plus yarders in the NFL have come in the state of Florida as well

- Sturgis met his wife, Kimberly, at the University of Florida, where she was a cheerleader. She is currently a fitness instructor in Gainesville, FL
- Attended St. Augustine (FL) High School where he earned first-team Class 3A All-State honors as a senior placekicker
- Did not start playing football until his sophomore year in high school when his high school coach approached him about it. He went on to hit a 49yard field goal that year in Sun Life Stadium, which is when he realized he had a potential future as a kicker
- Also competed as a forward on St.Augustine's soccer team and for the Julington Creek club
- Says the biggest influence on his career has been his older brother, Nathan. "It's been great to be able to learn from somebody who is also playing a professional sport"
- Enjoys golf and other leisure sports. "Whether it's golf or cornhole, I'm very competitive"
- During the offseason, Sturgis spends some of his free time helping his dad, who is a pastor at Good News Church and works to start other churches around the country

Nickname: Tully

Stephen Tulloch signed a one-year contract with the Eagles on August 23, 2016, after spending the previous five seasons with the Detroit Lions. Tulloch was originally drafted by Tennessee in the fourth round in 2006 and has played under Eagles defensive coordinator Jim Schwartz both in Tennessee and Detroit. The 11-year veteran has played in every game of his NFL career with the exception of his 2014 season, which was cut short due to a knee injury.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Finished as Detroit's leading tackler in four of his five seasons with the club (2011-13, 2015), recording at least 100 tackles in each of those campaigns
- Led the Titans defense in tackles in 2009 and 2010. His career-high 169 tackles in 2010 is still the highest total for the Titans since Keith Bulluck recorded 171 in 2004

BIRDSEED

- Inspired by his mother, Mercedes, a single mother who raised Stephen and his seven older brothers and sisters while working as a nurse. "She always found ways to help others despite all that she was going through. That carried with me as I began my NFL career." As a result, he began the The Stephen Tulloch Foundation in 2009. The foundation helps underprivileged youth with opportunities to be successful and works to provide them with the same opportunities as other children. His goal is to supply youth with the essentials to build self-esteem, establish their goals, and help unlock their potential. For more info: Tulloch55.com
- His support of cancer initiatives through his foundation is inspired in part by his high school teammate, John Jerret, who passed away from cancer when Tulluch was just 18. "It really woke me up and I knew from that moment on that I wanted to pay it forward in honor of him."
- Attended N.C. State with four of his high school teammates three of which who went on to be drafted in the NFL (he, Andre Maddox, Pat Thomas)
- Grew up admiring many undersized linebackers such as Mike Singletary, London Fletcher, Zach Thomas and Dexter Coakley. "I would watch highlights and would Google them every week to see how they played"
- Began playing football at the age of 5 for the Kendall Hammocks Warriors as a running back

THE LITTLE LINEBACKER

Tulloch launched a children's book that he wrote with Maria Dismondy in 2015. "Growing up I was always told I was too small or too slow to make it to the next level of football and I thought that sharing my story through a children's book would be a great way to inspire young children"

A versatile offensive lineman who has experience playing both tackle positions, Halapoulivaati Vaitai (pronounced hal-lah-poo-lee-VAH-tee VIE-tie) was selected by the Philadelphia Eagles in the fifth round (164th overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft. A two-time All-Big 12 honoree, Vaitai was a key anchor on the Horned Frogs' offensive line in 2015 that helped pave the way for both a 1,000-yard rusher and receiver in the same season for just the second time in school history.

BIRDSEED

- In fall 2015, interned with Youth Advocate Programs, Inc., an agency that provides direct service to vulnerable and high-need youth and families. As a part of his internship, 'Big V' was paired with a sixth grader who suffered from severe ADHD. "My job was to mentor him and take him out after school. It was a very eye-opening experience. The hardest part of the job is having to shut down your feelings and emotions. You get exposed to serious and dire living conditions, but our only job is to be a big brother to the kids. We can't try to fix everything"
- Learned to play the guitar at a young age when his cousin taught him three chords. He plays by ear and does not read music. "Polynesians are very musically talented and they always play by ear. I also know how to play the ukulele, but prefer the guitar because it's bigger"

Biggest pet peeve: People chewing loudly

A versatile defensive back out of the University of Florida, Jaylen Watkins was signed to the Eagles 53-man roster off of the Buffalo Bills practice squad following Week 12 of the 2015 season. Watkins was originally selected by the Eagles in the fourth round of the 2014 NFL Draft. A four-year letterman with the Gators, Watkins appeared in 48 games with 28 starts during his collegiate tenure, recording 133 tackles, three interceptions and 21 passes defensed. A native of Cape Coral, FL, Watkins is the brother of Buffalo 2014 first-round selection WR Sammy Watkins, with the two pros separated by less than a year in age.

BIRDSEED

- Watkins' younger brother, Sammy, was a firstround draft pick of the Buffalo Bills in the 2014 draft after a stellar career as a receiver at Clemson. Prior to their college games, the two brothers would send each other words of encouragement. Sammy will never leave his room to head to the stadium until he texts Jaylen, "Play today like it's your last game." Jaylen responds with a phrase Sammy had become accustomed to in his three-year collegiate career, "Play hard and be safe."
- Lee County, FL (which houses Cape Coral and Fort Myers) has turned out a plethora of NFL talent, including Deion Sanders, Jevon Kearse and the Watkins brothers. "It was crazy for our hometown when Sammy and I got selected. We've had a lot of guys get drafted recently, but obviously not two brothers. Fort Myers isn't the biggest town, but it's put together a nice little bit of history on the football field. We had a few other guys selected [in 2015] with Tre Boston going to Carolina and Aaron Lynch heading to San Francisco."
- Considers himself a film junkie and tries to learn as much as he can from game footage. "I just like to watch film. Any kind of film, whether it's watching another team or receivers, other DBs. In college, I used to watch a lot of NFL DBs and try to gain as much knowledge as I could from them. When you watch all of the NFL corners, they're all so different. I like things that all of them do, so I just try to take little things from them and mold them all together. I don't want to model myself after just one guy."

PERSONAL

- Attended Cape Coral (FL) High School, where he played quarterback, wide receiver and defensive back. As a senior in 2009, passed for 1,230 yards and 13 touchdowns and rushed for 928 yards with 10 touchdowns, while also racking up 29 receptions for 461 yards and five touchdowns
- In addition to starring on the football field, he also ran track at Cape Coral and advanced to the Class-4A Track Championships in the 4x100 relay
- Earned his degree from Florida in family, youth and community science
- Began playing football as a 5-year old for the Ft. Myers Firecats. He played wide receiver
- Son of Brandy Green and Samuel Watkins III. Brandy is a second-grade teacher and Samuel is a truck driver

- His brother, Sammy, plays for the Buffalo Bills. His cousin, Jeremy Ware, was selected by the Oakland Raiders in the seventh round of the 2010 NFL Draft
- Hobbies include reading, fishing and bowling
- Has a girlfriend, Gerraka Lewis. The two met when Jaylen was playing Pop Warner football and they both attended Cape Coral High School and the University of Florida

- Despite growing up an avid Minnesota Vikings fan, Wentz idolized 2016 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee QB Brett Favre."I loved watching Favre play. I loved his gunslinger mentality and just the way he had fun. He was fun to watch and he played the game and enjoyed it. I think he played it the right way"
- Wentz's body frame changed dramatically during his time at Bismarck Century (ND) High School. He measured at 5-foot-8, 125 pounds as a freshman; 5-foot-10, 150 pounds as a sophomore; 6-foot-3, 170 pounds as a junior; and 6-foot-5, 200 pounds as a senior. As a sophomore, an undersized Wentz was told by quarterbacks coach Nick Walker, "You have the ability to be great," which was crucial in shaping his drive for the game. "Just to hear that when you're a kid, you're smaller than everyone out there and this and that, for someone to come tell you that, it was pretty special. He really believed in me and he expected to get the best out of me"
- Outside of his faith, Wentz's brother, Zach, has been the biggest influence on his life and career. "My older brother has always been a role model. He played baseball at NDSU; he was really good in school and everything. I wanted to do better than him. I just wanted to always follow in his footsteps"
- Tattoo on Wentz's wrist reads, "Audience of One," a motto that shapes his life. "It means living for the Lord as my audience, trying to glorify everything. It's a good reminder for me every day"

After signing with the Eagles in the 2016 offseason, Wisniewski returns to his home state of Pennsylvania, where he spent the majority of his early football career. A native of Pittsburgh, PA, he was a two-time 1st-team all-state selection at Central Catholic (PA) High School. Wisniewski went on to play collegiately at Penn State, where he earned four letters for the Nittany Lions and was named first-team All-American as a senior in 2010.

THREE-STEP DROP

Biggest influence on his life/career: His father, Leo, who also played at Penn State and was selected by the Baltimore Colts in 1982 NFL Draft Favorite all-time offensive lineman: His uncle, Steve, who was an eighttime Pro Bowler and two-time All-Pro selection at guard with the Los Angeles/Oakland Raiders from 1989-2001

Best player he's lined up against: Chiefs NT Dontari Poe

Best part of being an offensive lineman: "It's the strongest community – genuinely a unit. There's a real camaraderie on the O-line"

Most challenging aspect of the offensive line: "It's an unnatural position. When you pass block, you're moving backward trying to stop someone coming at you at full force. It takes a lot of training to overcome that"

Position he'd play other than offensive line: Defensive end

ADELPHIA 29, CLEVELAND 10

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 2016 - LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD

The Philadelphia Eagles began a new chapter in their storied history on Sunday, September 11, 2016, with Eagles Head Coach

Doug Pederson taking over the sidelines for his first regularseason game and rookie QB Carson Wentz stepping into the spotlight as the team's starter under center.

It didn't take long for Wentz to win over the home crowd at Lincoln Financial Field, as the rookie guarterback jumped out of the gates and led a nine-play, 75yard touchdown drive on the team's opening possession of the 2016 season. During the march, Wentz completed 4-of-5 passes for 57 yards and capped the drive with a perfectly lofted, 19-yard pass to WR Jordan Matthews in the left corner of the end zone for the first touchdown of his career.

The Eagles new-look, 4-3 defense stifled Browns QB Robert Griffin III and the Cleveland offense for the remainder of the first quarter. After the Birds forced three-straight three-and-outs, Eagles K Caleb Sturgis connected on a 22-yard field goal to put Philadelphia up 10-0.

The Browns managed to get their offense in gear on its first possession of the second quarter, as Griffin hit WR Terrelle Pryor Sr. for a 44-yard gain to move Cleveland inside the Eagles 10. A pass interference penalty in the end zone on Eagles S Malcolm Jenkins allowed Browns RB Isaiah Crowell to punch the ball in from the 2-yard line and cut the Eagles' lead to 10-7.

Despite giving up a score, the Eagles defense responded on Cleveland's next possession as S Rodney McLeod, who was signed as a free agent in the 2016 offseason, picked off Griffin and returned the ball to Wentz and the Eagles offense with just under four minutes remaining in the half.

Following the pick, Sturgis connected on a 38-vard field goal to give the Eagles a 13-7 lead.

5-12, C. \

Sproles

Cleveland added a field goal on their first drive of the second half, but an errant snap out of the end zone on their next possession resulted in an Eagles safety and made the score 15-10 Philly.

Wentz took advantage of the momentum generated from the safety and threw a 35-yard touchdown to WR Nelson Agholor on the Eagles' next drive.

The defense closed out the win by keeping Cleveland off the board for the remainder of the game and Eagles RB Ryan Mathews

PHILADELPHIA 29, CHICAGO 14

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 2016 - SOLDIER FIELD

The Eagles kicked off their 2016 road schedule when they traveled to Chicago to face the Bears on Monday Night Football. Philadelphia's defense set the tone early when Eagles S Malcolm Jenkins sacked Bears QB Jay Cutler on the second play from scrimmage, setting up a third-and-20 and an eventual fourth-down punt. Appearing in the second game of his career, rookie QB Carson Wentz came out of the gates strong on the Birds' first possession, completing 8-of-9 attempts to set up a 25-yard field goal by K Caleb Sturgis.

move the Bears into the red zone, but the Birds defensed tightened up and forced a field goal attempt which Chicago K Connor Barth clanked off the left upright.

Despite the missed field goal, the Bears were able to take a 7-3 lead on their next possession, as RB Jeremy Langford capped a six-play, 65-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown.

Langford's touchdown proved to be the last offensive score for the home team, as the Eagles defense put a stranglehold on the Bears offense for the remainder of the game.

Following Chicago's touchdown, Sturgis hit two field goals to close out the first half (29 and 53 yards), propelling the visitors to a 9-7 halftime lead.

After the teams traded numerous possessions to start the second half, Philadelphia broke the game wide open at the end of the third quarter. Taking over at his own 32, Wentz completed a 22-yard pass to WR Jordan Matthews to spark an eightplay, 68-yard drive, which was punctuated by a 3-yard rushing touchdown by RB Ryan Mathews.

Moments after Mathews touchdown gave Philly a 16-7 lead, the Eagles offense received another scoring opportunity courtesy of Eagles LB Nigel Bradham.

On Chicago's next play from scrimmage, Bradham picked off a Cutler pass and returned the interception to the Bears 2-yard line. Wentz immediately hit TE Trey Burton for a touchdown and although Sturgis missed the ensuing extra point, the Eagles found themselves with a comfortable 22-7 advantage.

The Bears fumbled on their next possession, setting up the Eagles' third touchdown of the night: a 1-yard run by Mathews.

EAGLES IN THE COMMUNITY

As proud Philadelphians who take their responsibility to the community seriously, the Eagles believe there is no offseason to good citizenship. Between the team's year-round community efforts and Eagles Charitable Foundation, the Eagles work with a number of organizations in the Philadelphia region to strengthen and support a high quality of life for generations of fans because they believe that strong non-profits build strong communities.

The Eagles host a variety of events and campaigns that aim to inspire, motivate and educate. As a professional football team, the Eagles have a unique platform to reach the community and have long-lasting effects.

The team takes great pride in serving the fans, local non-profits and the region at large, because to the Eagles, making the Delaware Valley proud is just as important off the field as it is on it.

The Eagles, corporations, foundations and kindhearted individuals have all played a vital role in supporting the more than one million children in the tri-state region that ECF has assisted since its inception.
