CALDWELL'S THIRD SEASON IN DETROIT

JIM CALDWELL

Head Coach
 Years with Lions: 3
 Years as NFL Head Coach: 6
 Years in NFL: 16

SECOND-HALF TURNAROUND IN 2015

Following a 1-7 start, Caldwell led the Lions to a 7-9 record in 2015 on the shoulders of a 6-2 surge to finish off the year. Detroit became the fourth team since 1991 to start a season with 1 or fewer wins in the first 8 games (1-7 or 0-8 record) and finish with a 6-2 record. A 6-2 finish is the best record by any team since 1991 to start the season with a 1-7 or 0-8 record. It marks the Lions' best second-half finish since the team finished 7-1 in 1995.

FIRST SEASON IN DETROIT

By finishing the 2014 season with an 11-5 regular season record, Caldwell tied Patsy Clark (1931, Portsmouth Spartans) for the most wins in franchise history by a coach in his first year with the club.

- Caldwell is the third coach in team history to lead the Lions to the playoffs in his first year with Detroit (George Wilson in 1957; Bobby Ross in 1997).
- He is the seventh coach in franchise history (since 1930) to lead the Lions to a winning record (entire season) in his first year with the club.

COACHING OVERVIEW

- Hired as head coach for the Detroit Lions January 14, 2014.
- In 15 NFL seasons, Caldwell has worked on coaching staffs that have led teams to 12 winning seasons and only twice finished below .500. Overall, Caldwell's teams he coached for have compiled a 163-88 regular season record, along with 12 playoff appearances, eight division titles, three conference championships and two Super Bowl wins.
- In five years as an NFL head coach, Caldwell has led a team to 11+ wins twice (14 with Indianapolis in 2009). Coached in three Super Bowls with Indianapolis (XLI and XLIV) and Baltimore (XLVII) and won two Super Bowl titles (Indianapolis and Baltimore).
- In his first year as head coach for Indianapolis (2009), he won the AFC Championship and led the franchise to Super Bowl XLIV. He became the first NFL coach to win his first 14 games and the fifth rookie head coach to reach the Super Bowl.
- One of four head coaches to produce 24+ regular-season wins and a Super Bowl berth in their first two career seasons as head coach.
- In eight of the 10 seasons Caldwell coached in Indianapolis, the Colts ranked in the Top-10 in total offense eight times and six times in the Top-5.
- From 2003-09, Caldwell was the Colts quarterbacks coach and was also promoted to assistant head coach and associate head coach during that time. He worked closely with QB Peyton Manning and the team's quarterbacks. During that span, Indianapolis set NFL records with seven consecutive seasons finishing with 11+ wins (6, Dallas 1976-81) and 12+ victories (4, Dallas, 1992-95).
- Manning won four (2003, 2004, 2008, 2009) of his five NFL MVP awards under Caldwell's tutelage.
- Two of his quarterbacks, Manning (Super Bowl XLI) and Ravens QB Joe Flacco (Super Bowl XLVII) were named Super Bowl MVPs following their teams' respective championship runs.
- After being appointed Ravens offensive coordinator in December 2012, the team went on to win five of its next seven games, including Super Bowl XLVII. During that span, the offense averaged 400.6 yards per game, including an average of 410.3 yards per game during the four playoff wins.

NEW LIONS LEADER

BOB QUINN
Executive Vice President and General Manager
Years with Lions: 1

QUINN MAKES HIS MARK

Bob Quinn, hired January 11, 2016 as executive vice president and general manager, oversees the entire Lions' football operations and reports directly to Owner and Chairman of the Board Martha Firestone Ford.

- Since joining the Lions, Quinn, who spent the previous 16 seasons with the New England Patriots, has begun building the football foundation which he believes will provide the team with the optimum chance for success. During his introductory press conference, he quickly set forth his vision.
- Among the numerous free agents acquired by Quinn this offseason was WR Marvin Jones, considered by many to be the top free agent wide receiver on the market. Additionally, Quinn also retained key Lions free agents, including DT Haloti Ngata and LB Tahir Whitehead.
- His initial draft class featured the selection of the most linemen (offense and defense) in a Lions draft since 1989, highlighted by the team's first three picks (T Taylor Decker, DT A'Shawn Robinson and C Graham Glasgow).

PATRIOTS PAST

During his time with New England, Quinn served a number of roles in the player personnel department, including most recently as Director of Pro Scouting from 2012-15. While he worked as Director of Pro Scouting, the Patriots won the 2014 Super Bowl and four-straight AFC East Division championships.

- From 2009-2012, Quinn was the Assistant Director of Pro Personnel. For the previous nine years, Quinn worked in several different capacities within the Patriots player personnel department, including roles in college scouting as a National Scout and Regional Scout. He played an integral role in evaluating and procuring talent for the team through the NFL draft process, free agency, trades, etc.
- While working for the New England Patriots, he helped contribute to one of the most impressive stretches in NFL history, one that produced four Super Bowl titles, including the most recent championship in 2014 (Super Bowl XLIX). Since 2000, Quinn's first year with New England, the Patriots have won six AFC Championships, 13 AFC East titles, 12+ games in a season 10 times (which includes the past six years) and 10+ games in 14 of his 16 seasons.
- As Director of Pro Scouting, Quinn utilized all possible methods to seek the Patriots' "next player." This approach had a tremendous impact on the Patriots' Super Bowl XLIX championship as seven players, who were acquired (including two via trades) after the start of the regular season, all played in the Super Bowl.
- Another key player during the Super Bowl XLIX Championship run, CB Malcolm Butler, signed with the club after a rookie minicamp tryout. Butler, who sealed the Super Bowl victory with a goal line interception, would join All-Pro CB Darrelle Revis in the New England secondary. Prior to serving as Director of Pro Scouting, Quinn was the Patriots' assistant director of pro personnel. Prior to that, he worked in college scouting as the team's national scout in 2008 and as a regional scout from 2004-07.

- In 2008, the Patriots drafted LB Jerod Mayo in the first round and WR Matthew Slater in the fifth round. Mayo was a two-time Pro Bowl linebacker and Slater has become one of the league's elite special teams players having earned five Pro Bowl selections and three All-Pro honors. Quinn also served two seasons (2002-03) as a pro scout and two seasons (2000-01) as a player personnel assistant for the Patriots.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR

FOURTH-AND-FINAL DRIVE

The Lions are 3-3 through six games, with every game this season being decided by a touchdown or less. The Lions host the last of a three-game home stand with a hot Washington Redskins team. Detroit looks to stockpile the win column after grabbing two victories in their last two matchups. After a 1-3 start, the Lions have begun tallying up impact plays in all three phases of the game.

When backs have been against the wall, Lions players have answered the call all over the field, starting with QB Matthew Stafford driving the offense into opponent territory. All three of Stafford's game-winning drives this season have helped setup Lions K Matt Prater for game-winning field goals in every Lions victory this season.

Lions Head Coach Jim Caldwell on Prater making a game-winning field goal in consecutive weeks: "We don't like to have them end that way, but when we're in the middle of it, it's always great to be able to come out on top in that regard. We can't go to the well too often in those situations, it's just not going to be something that we're going to be able to do week in and week out, obviously, but our guys have performed well."

The Lions have made plays in do-or-die situations, including important fourth-down conversions. The Lions are four-for-four on fourth down the past two weeks. On fourth-and-one from their own 49 last week against Los Angeles, the Lions went for it early in the first half last week against the Rams. A few series later Detroit faced fourth-and-short from the goal line and successfully converted for a touchdown to WR Andre Roberts. The Lions are a perfect five-for-five on fourth downs in 2016, and they face a Redskins team with a 33 percent conversion rate. Detroit has proven capable to be efficient when rolling the dice on fourth down, as the ability to move the chains and keep the ball in the hands of offensive playmakers has paid great dividends in the first half of 2016.

Caldwell on if aggressiveness on fourth downs is an attempt to pressure the opponent: "It's not any different than we've always done it. We've always kind of taken those opportunities when we thought they were there. We go after it, we try to be prudent with it. But, like I tell you, if you check it we've probably been in the upper echelon a number of times when we go for it on fourth down since I've been here. And so, I just think you have to commend our guys for standing up to the challenge because it's not easy to get one yard in the National Football League. It's a difficult task, and I think our guys upfront did a nice job."

The Lions defense has also seen its fair share of big-time opportunities and has seized the moments when given the chance. After Prater drilled the go-ahead field goal late in the past two weeks, Lions CB Darius Slay and S Rafael Bush both forced interceptions on the opponents' final drives to secure victories against both Philadelphia and Los Angeles.

Bush on the encouragement the defense gains by consistently forcing turnovers: "You're just always working to get better, always working to make the least mistakes as possible. This game is not played by perfect people. We understand that mistakes are going to be made, but it's up to us to limit those mistakes, limit those big plays and when the opportunity comes for you to make your play, just make it."

Caldwell on if he gets satisfaction seeing his team make clutch plays: At the end of the game, they just don't back down from tight situations like that. I think we've gotten to be comfortable being uncomfortable. They kind of just feel like that's the norm and it's an atmosphere in which they can perform well, and they've been able to do so."

STAFF-FORD FIELD

The Lions' comeback win over Los Angeles rested solely on the shoulder of QB Matthew Stafford, who completed four touchdown passes to four different receivers. In the first quarter, Stafford connected with WR Marvin Jones Jr. for a seven-yard touchdown, the duo's fourth scoring completion of the season. Next, Stafford hit WR Andre Roberts in the end zone for a two-yard touchdown in the second quarter to tie the game 14-14, marking Roberts' first receiving score as a Lion. The third quarter saw Stafford complete a four-yard touchdown pass to WR Anquan Boldin, and in the fourth Stafford hit WR Golden Tate for a 23-yard completion to tie the game at 28-28.

Week 6 marked Stafford's 10th career game in which he's thrown four touchdown passes, as he became just the sixth quarterback since 1960 to tally 10+ games with four touchdowns in a players' first eight NFL seasons. By tossing four touchdown passes against Los Angeles, Stafford, now with 14 touchdown passes on the season, moved past QB Bobby Layne (13 in 1951) for the second-most touchdown passes by a Lions quarterback through the first six games of the season. He trails only his own franchise mark of 15 touchdowns through the first six games of the 2011 season.

Stafford on how the offense gets in a rhythm with numerous starters missing from the game: "Just a lot of hard work. You know, we go out and practice, practice extremely hard. We have guys who are coming in, like you said, off the street really the last two weeks and have played a ton of snaps for us. It's a testament to those guys, the guys that are coaching those guys to get them ready to play and just being veteran guys. They come in ready to play, go play. Not to say it's going to be perfect every time, but those guys are really helping us and helping us battle through a tough time as far as who's available at the moment."

After evening the game at 28-28 in the fourth quarter, the Lions regained late possession of the ball. Stafford led the offense on a nine-play, 44-yard scoring drive resulting in a field goal, notching a 31-28 come-from-behind victory. This marked Stafford's 23rd career game-winning drive when trailing or tied in the fourth quarter or in overtime. Stafford finished the day with 23 of 31 passes completed for 270 yards and 14 rushing yards on five attempts. His 139.8 passer rating set a single-game franchise record among Lions passers with 30+ pass attempts, surpassing the previous best set by QB Gary Danielson (138.1, 12/9/78).

Tate on Stafford's durability: "What I love is that we have guys that are playmakers, and when we need it the most 9 (Stafford) is going to duck his head and just run. He's done a phenomenal job at getting those key first downs, putting his body on the line and hopping back up. That is one tough son-of-a-gun, and every year I thank God, thank you for this tough, Texas boy. You've got to love him. You never have to worry about him showing up, no matter if he's sick or not feeling it. Whatever it is, he's always going to show up and give us the best chance he can to win."

RISING RECEIVERS

Lions' receivers hauled in four touchdown passes from QB Matthew Stafford en route to a 31-28 victory over the visiting Rams last Sunday. WR Golden Tate led the way with eight catches for a career-high 165 yards and one touchdown in the win. It was his ninth career 100-yard receiving game and 10th including playoffs.

Perhaps the highlight of the game came in the third quarter when Stafford used a hard count to draw the Rams offside. Knowing he had a free play, No. 9 took a shot deep down the sideline and hit Tate for a 61-yard gain that was initially ruled a touchdown. However, after review, the replay official determined Tate was down by contact at the Los Angeles one-yard line. The ruling took away what would have been Tate's first touchdown reception of the contest.

Tate on his long reception that was initially ruled a touchdown: "You know, the defense jumped offside, so it was a free play and I just kind of ran down the field, looked up, the ball was on its way and I just kind of made a play and made a guy miss. And then the turf monster got ahold of me."

Tate made up for it later in the game when he caught a short screen from Stafford and took it 23 yards to the house. Tate, who turned in his best single-game performance of his seven-year NFL career against Los Angeles, talked about his mentality in this game after an uncharacteristically slow start to the season.

Tate on how far he's come since two weeks ago at Chicago: "I'm kind of a forget-the-past guy, just keep grinding, just keep working. That's really all I can do, just show up to work every day and control what I can control. I can't control when the ball is going to be thrown to me or what side (Matthew) Stafford's looking at or what plays are called. But when my number is called on, I can control from then on. Just kind of, just kept working at practice, just kept working. Stayed in the book, you know, just didn't listen to what people were saying outside of the locker room and my chance came. All I did was just do my job, that's all I did."

Caldwell on the importance of WR Golden Tate's performance in light of offensive injuries: "Golden is one of those guys that, with the ball in his hand he's pretty tough to handle. He can do it a number of different ways, and Jim Bob (Cooter) and those guys have been really creative in trying to make certain that he does touch it. Came up with a lot of big ones, even on the offside play, which is something they work on time and time again in that situation with a free play. We're glad we were able to get a big one out of it this time around, but Golden is obviously a big part of what we do. Just like anything else, I think I mentioned earlier, when everybody's concerned about Golden and all those kinds of things, that some games you're not going to have what Marvin (Jones) has, number of catches, or Anquan (Boldin). By the way, Anquan had a lot of big catches in that game, too. But, there's going to be times where I think everybody, they're skilled enough and talented enough that there's no telling who's going to be the leading receiver from week to week."

As Caldwell alluded to, the former Notre Dame standout was merely one of the bright spots in Detroit's receiving corps last Sunday. WR Anquan Boldin proved, yet again, he's still one of the game's top wideouts at age 36. The 14-year vet moved up the NFL's all-time receiving list with his first reception of the ball game, an eight-yard pass-and-catch from Stafford, as he surpassed seven-time Pro Bowl WR Torry Holt (13,382) for 15th on the all-time list for career receptions. Later in the game, Boldin found himself on the receiving end of a four-yard touchdown pass from Stafford, marking his third touchdown reception of the season and 77th of his career.

WR Andre Roberts also made his presence known in the second quarter when he hauled in a clutch, two-yard touchdown reception on 4th-and-2. After rolling the dice, Caldwell was able to breathe a sigh of relief as Roberts made a big play in a crucial situation.

Caldwell on his thought process on the fourth-down conversion touchdown: "What we try and do is try and make certain that during the course of the week we discuss all these things, try to discuss all of the possibilities and the what if's and it just kind of lined up, but it took a heck of a play. I mean, Andre (Roberts) going up, literally taking it, that was a heck of a throw by Matthew (Stafford) and a heck of an effort by Andre. Did a nice job, so we know we were fortunate in that regard."

With his touchdown reception, Roberts became just the ninth player in Lions history to record a receiving touchdown and punt return touchdown (10/2 at Chi) in the same season and first since WR Jeremy Ross in 2013.

S Rafael Bush picked off a Rams pass with 1:01 to play in the game that sealed the Lions' 31-28 victory in Week 6 (10/16). The interception was Bush's second of his career and first since joining the Lions.

Rookie DT A'Shawn Robinson knocked down his third pass of the season against Los Angeles (10/16) to become the first Lions defensive tackle with three+ pass defenses through the first six games of the season since DT Corey Williams (3) in 2010.

With four touchdown passes in Week 6 vs. Los Angeles (10/16), QB Matthew Stafford has now thrown four touchdown passes in a game 10 times in his eight-year career. He became the sixth quarterback since 1960 to tally 10+ games with four touchdowns in a player's first eight NFL seasons. Stafford, who is 28 years, 252 days old, is the fourth-youngest quarterback with 10 career four-touchdown pass games. Only Pro Football Hall of Famers Dan Marino and Brett Favre and Peyton Manning reached the mark at a younger age.

WR Andre Roberts caught one of the Lions' four touchdown passes in the team's 31-28 win over Los Angeles. Combined with his punt return touchdown earlier this season at Chicago (10/2), Roberts is now the ninth player in Lions history with a receiving and punt return touchdown in the same season and first since 2013 (WR Jeremy Ross).

15

K Matt Prater connected on a 34-yard field goal with 1:29 left to play in Week 6 vs. Los Angeles (10/16) that gave the Lions their 31-28 final lead of the game. Prater now has 11 career game-winning kicks with less than 2:00 to play in the fourth quarter or in overtime, including three this season. Overall, he has 15 game-winning or game-tying field goals with under 4:00 to play in the fourth quarter or in OT.

23

QB Matthew Stafford tied the game with a 23-yard touchdown pass with 6:02 left in the fourth vs Los Angeles, and he then led the team on a nine-play, 44-yard drive that culminated in a 34-yard field goal to give the Lions the 31-28 lead. He now has tallied 23 game-winning drives during his career when trailing or tied in the fourth quarter or in OT.

Picking up where he left off last season, RB Theo Riddick currently ranks second in the NFL in receptions by running backs with 26, and also leads the NFL in receiving touchdowns by running backs with three.

47.0

Through Week 6 of the 2016 season, P Sam Martin leads the NFL in net punting average with a mark of 47.0. The next highest net punting average stands at 45.6 (Jaguars P Brad Nortman).

55

Through Week 6, LB Tahir Whitehead is tied for fifth in the NFL in total tackles with 55 (40 solo). He registered a career single-game high 12 total tackles against the Eagles in Week 5, marking his fourth game in 2016 with 10+ tackles and fifth such game of his career.

77

Second-year RB Zach Zenner totaled a career single-game high of 77 yards from scrimmage, which included a career-high 58 rushing yards and 19 receiving yards. His 19-yard career long rushing attempt was part of the Lions' fourth-quarter drive that tied the game at 28-28.

QB Matthew Stafford's 139.8 passer rating against the Rams last week ranks as the second-highest single-game rating of his career and the highest in games with 30+ pass attempts. His 139.8 rating set a single-game franchise record among Lions passers with 30+ pass attempts, and it marked the fifth time in Stafford's career he has garnered a 130.0+ passer rating with 30+ pass attempts.

WR Golden Tate helped propel the Lions offense in the team's 31-28 win over the Los Angeles Rams as he registered a career-high 165 receiving yards on eight receptions (20.6 avg). He scored on a 23-yard catch-and-run to tie the game at 28-28 with 6:02 remaining in the game. Tate's 165-yard outing was his ninth career 100-yard game and sixth since joining the Lions. He now has three career 150-yard games, all since signing with Detroit in 2014.

185

In the 31-28 win over the Los Angeles Rams, LS Don Mulhbach played in his 186th career game and moved past Hall of Fame CB Dick LeBeau (185) for the sixth-most games played in Detroit Lions history.

214

Since joining the Lions in 2014, WR Golden Tate ranks seventh in the NFL in receptions over the past three seasons with 214.

529

In his first season in Detroit, WR Marvin Jones Jr. already ranks in the Top 10 in multiple receiving categories, including receiving yards (7th, 529) and receiving touchdowns (T-4th, 4). He is also tied for the League-lead in 25+-yard receptions with seven.

WR Anquan Boldin tallied 60 receiving yards on 8 receptions against the Rams in the Lions' 31-28 win. With 60 yards, he moved past WR Torry Holt (13,382) for 15th on the all-time receiving yards list. Boldin now has 13,439 career receiving yards.

QB Matthew Stafford threw for 213 yards at Chicago (10/2) and broke the record for the most passing yards (currently at 27,624 through 99 games) in NFL history by a player in his first 100 career games. In his 97th career game, Stafford surpassed the previous high set by Hall of Fame QB Dan Marino (27,064) and joined Marino as the only quarterbacks in NFL history to throw for 27,000 career yards in the first 100 games of their career.

THE JIM BOB COOTER EFFECT

Entering Week 7 vs. Washington, the Lions offense ranks among the most efficient in the NFL. The Lions have scored touchdowns on 16 of their 56 offensive possessions (28.6), and are tied for fifth in fewest giveaways with 5.

➤ The Lions are also excelling on third- and fourth-down conversions this season, as they rank tied for third (46.5) and tied for first (100.0), respectively.

SINCE WEEK 10 OF 2015

Dating back to Week 10 of last season, the Lions won six of their final eight games under Offensive Coordinator Jim Bob Cooter to cap off 2015, and have maintained that offensive momentum so far in 2016 in his first season as the team's play-caller.

➤ Dating back to the beginning of Week 10 of the 2015 season (Nov. 12, 2015) Cooter's offense led by QB Matthew Stafford ranks among the NFL's best in several offensive categories.

AT THE CONTROLS

Lions QB Matthew Stafford, now in his eighth NFL season, has led the Lions offense to great offensive heights. He already has set single-season and career franchise records and closed in on more Lions career passing marks last season. Additionally, Stafford has finished among the top quarterbacks in the League passing rankings the past five seasons.

APPROACHING 100 GAMES

Against the Washington Redskins this Sunday, Stafford will play in his 100th regular season game.

➤ Stafford threw for 213 yards at Chicago (10/2) and broke the record for the most passing yards (currently at 27,624 through 99 games) in NFL history by a player in his first 100 career games. In his 97th career game, Stafford surpassed the previous high set by Hall of Fame QB Dan Marino (27,064) and joined Marino as the only quarterbacks in NFL history to throw for 27,000 career yards in the first 100 games of their career.

STAFFORD'S GAME-WINNING DRIVES

Throughout his career, Stafford has proven the ability to bring the team from behind to claim victory and perform great in the closing minutes of the game.

- Thus far, Stafford has led the Lions to 23 victories when trailing or tied in the fourth quarter or overtime, including Week 6 vs. Los Angeles (10/16). He has six career game-winning touchdown passes with less than one minute to play in fourth quarter (franchise record) and seven after the two-minute warning.
- Stafford's 11 game-winning drives since the beginning of 2014 also leads all NFL quarterbacks.

PASSING PRIDE - CAREER

Among Lions QBs, Stafford has passed his way into Lions lore by becoming the franchise leader in multiple categories.

CAREER YARDS

With 27,624 career passing yards, Stafford is the Lions' all-time leader in career yards and the only Lions QB to reach 20,000 career yards. With 362 in Week 11 at Pittsburgh in 2013 (11/17/13), Stafford broke the previous record of 15,710 held by Layne, which stood for 55 seasons (1958). Stafford achieved this record in only 55 career games. Layne reached 15,710 yards in 97 career games.

MARV-ELOUS MR. JONES

Jones Jr. joined the Lions following a four-year career (2012-15) with the Cincinnati Bengals, where he was a key piece of the Bengals' high-powered offense. He recorded a career high 10 touchdowns in 2013, and so far leads the Lions with 529 receiving yards.

- With 6 receptions for 205 yards and two touchdowns at Green Bay (9/25), Jones Jr. became the fifth player in Lions history to surpass 200 receiving yards in a game, joining Calvin Johnson (5), Cloyce Box (2), Richard Johnson (1) and Roy Williams (1) in that elite group.
- Jones recorded the 10th 200-yard receiving game in team history and his 205 yards were the eighth-most by a Lions receiver in a single game.
- Through Week 6, Jones Jr. ranks seventh in receiving yards (529), tied for fifth in receiving touchdowns (4) and tied for first in 25+-yard receptions with 7.

A BOLD CAREER

In his 14th NFL season, WR Anquan Boldin joins the Lions receiving corps in 2016 with numbers worthy of Hall of Fame consideration.

- Boldin led the 49ers last year with 69 receptions and 789 yards. He currently ranks 11th in receptions (1,038) and 15th in receiving yards (13,439) on the NFL's all-time lists.
- Only 13 players in NFL history have recorded 1,000 or more receptions in their careers. With 1,038, Boldin trails only Titans WR Andre Johnson (1,062), Cardinals WR Larry Fitzgerald (1,055) and Cowboys TE Jason Witten (1,048) for the most among active players.
- In 2015, Boldin was also named the NFL's Walter Payton Man of the Year.

RUSH TO SCORE

- Through six games in 2016, the Lions backfield ranks tied for fifth in receptions (38), third in receiving yards (316) and first in receiving touchdowns (4).
- Detroit saw three backs reach the end zone in Week 1 vs. Indianapolis (9/11) with scores from Riddick, Abdullah and Washington. Abdullah collected 120 yards from scrimmage (63 rush, 57 receiving) and Riddick garnered 108 total yards (45 rush, 63 receiving). By both running backs surpassing 100 total yards, it marked the first time since November 28, 2013 (vs. GB: Reggie Bush, 182; Jaque Bell, 128) that the Lions had two running backs total over 100 yards from scrimmage in a game.

THEO-RIDDICKLY SPEAKING

RB Theo Riddick has shown a knack for coming through in the clutch over the course of his young career, as he has demonstrated himself as a reliable contributor as both a rusher and pass catcher out of the backfield.

THEO'S THREE-YEAR SPAN

- Riddick caught two touchdown passes (1, 17 yards) in the Lions' 24-23 win over Philadelphia and became the first Lions running back to register two receiving touchdowns in a game since RB Horace King vs. Minnesota December 9, 1978.
- By catching two touchdown passes against the Eagles, Riddick became the fourth Lions running back to record 10+ receiving touchdowns over a three-year span, joining Bill Dudley (15, 1947-49), Howard Cassidy (10, 1956-58; 14, 1957-59; 12, 1958-60) and Doak Walker (10, 1950-52; 11, 1953-55).
- Riddick is the seventh Lions running back in team history to catch 10+ touchdowns in a career and the first to reach that mark since Hall of Fame RB Barry Sanders (10, 1989-98).

- With four receptions at Chicago in the Lions' 24-20 win last season, Riddick set a new franchise record for the most receptions (80) by a Lions running back in a season. He broke the previous record of 77 set by FB James Jones in 1984. He is the first Lions running back ever to catch 80+ passes in a season.
- Riddick's 697 receiving yards also surpassed Jones' 662 yards (1984) as the most by any Lions running back in a single season.

GETTIN' ZIGGY WITH IT

DE Ezekiel Ansah, entering only his fourth season, has already asserted himself as one of the NFL's best young pass rushers. He finished third in the NFL in sacks with 14.5, paving the way to an Associated Press Second Team All-Pro selection and his first-career Pro Bowl nod. He became the first Lions DE to be named to the Pro Bowl since DE Robert Porcher in 2002.

➤ Ansah finished third in the NFL in sacks with 14.5, behind only Raiders DE Khalil Mack (15.0) and Texans DE J.J. Watt (17.5). His 14.5 sacks were also the most among all NFC players.

ANSAH-LUTELY AMONG THE BEST

With 1.0 sack in Week 17 at Chicago (1/3), Ansah now has 30.0 career sacks after three NFL seasons and is only the second Lions player to record 20+ sacks in his first three seasons of his NFL career, joining DT Ndamukong Suh (2010-12), since sacks became an official statistic in 1982. His 30.0 sacks are now the most by a Lions player in his first three seasons, surpassing Suh's 22.0.

DESTRUCTIVE D-LINE

Over the past seven seasons, few defensive line units have disrupted opponents in both the passing and running games as the Detroit Lions. The Lions, under the direction of Defensive Line Coach Kris Kocurek since 2010, feature an attack upfront that first concentrates on stopping the run and then applies heavy pressure on the quarterback.

KERRYING THE LOAD

The Lions' defensive line displays great depth across the board, led by first-year DE Kerry Hyder. Hyder earned a roster spot this offseason and has emerged on the scene as one of the NFL's upstart pass rushers so far.

- Through Week 6, Hyder is currently tied for sixth in the NFL in sacks with 5.0 (22 yards).
- Hyder piled on his early-season sacks total by adding another sack at Chicago (10/2). Through four games, he tallied 5.0 sacks and became the third Lions defensive player to register 5+ sacks through the team's first four games (DE William Gay, 8.5 in 1983; DE Robert Porcher, 5.0 in 2001).

DOMINANT SINCE 2010

- Since 2010, the Lions rank third in the NFL in sacks by defensive linemen with 211. During that span, under Kocurek's guidance, the Lions also rank in the top five for defensive line tackles for loss (320, 2nd), QB hits (506, 1st) and forced fumbles (50, 2nd).
- The Lions have now surpassed 500 QB Hits by defensive linemen since the beginning of the 2010 season. Detroit is the only team with 500+ QB Hits over the past six seasons. The second-highest total is Cincinnati with 465.
- The Lions are also the only team with 200+ sacks, 300+ TFLs and 500+ QB Hts by D-Linemen since 2010, which covers the past 101 games.

QUINTESSENTIAL SAFETY

Following up on his Pro Bowl season in 2014, S Glover Quin solidified his place as the Lions' anchor in the secondary last season and has continued his ascent as one of the most consistent safeties in the NFL. He received the team's Joe Schmidt Leadership Award in 2015, as voted by his teammates.

100 CLUB

In the 2015 season finale at Chicago (1/3/16), Quin started his 100th consecutive game, including his 48th straight start since joining the Lions in 2013. Quin, now with 106, has the longest active streak of consecutive starts among safeties and is second among all defensive backs.

BIG PLAY SLAY

The Lions extended CB Darius Slay through the 2020 season at the start of training camp this year, locking him up as the Lions' top lockdown corner and one of the NFL's top blossoming young defensive backs for years to come.

- Since 2014, Slay's 37 pass defenses are tied for fourth in the NFL with Washington CB Josh Norman and Denver CB Aqib Talib.

SLAY SAVES THE DAY

With less than 2:00 to play in the fourth quarter vs. Philadelphia (10/2), Slay picked off an Eagles pass (11-yard return) to seal the Lions' 24-23 win against Philadelphia. It was Slay's first interception of the season and fifth of his career.

- Slay also forced an Eagles fumble on 3rd-and-2 at the Eagles 45-yard line that was recovered by DT Tyrann Walker. The turnover gave the Lions the ball back with 2:34 to play in the fourth quarter and led to the game-winning field goal. The forced fumble was the first of Slay's career.
- Slay is the first player to force a fumble resulting in a takeaway and intercept a pass in the last 3:00 of the fourth quarter since Indianapolis Colts CB Eugene Daniel at the New York Jets December 5, 1993.
- In the game, Slay had 3 tackles (3 solo), 1 interception (11 yards), 1 forced fumble and 2 pass defenses.

WHEN THE LEVY BREAKS

LB DeAndre Levy returns to the Lions defense in 2016 after missing most of the 2015 season due to injury. Levy's rise as one of the faces of Detroit's defense has placed him in the conversation among the Lions' all-time greats at the position.

PIN THEM BACK

- Through Week 6, Martin leads the NFL in net punting average (47.0) and ranks third in gross average (50.2). His 47.0 net average is the highest average through first the first six games of a season since 1991.

(Minimum 2.5 punts/G)

In the Lions' 39-35 win at Indianapolis, Martin tied the second-highest single-game net punting average (55.5) in NFL history since net punting became an official statistic in 1976 (minimum qualifier: 4 punts). Martin's 55.5 net punting average also set a new team single-game record.

- Martin's gross punting average of 58.8 (4-235) against the Colts was the highest by a Lions punter since at least 1960, surpassing the previous best of 57.3 by Hall Famer Yale Lary against San Francisco October 6, 1963.

PRATER THE GREAT

After joining the Lions in Week 6 of 2014, K Matt Prater has emerged as one of the NFL's most consistent place kickers. Following the 2014 season, Prater re-signed with the Lions to a new three-year contract in 2015.

- With a 50-yard field goal at Green Bay (9/25), Prater connected on his 30th career 50-yard field goal to become the eighth kicker in NFL history to make 30 50+-yard field goals.
- With a 50-yard field goal second quarter field goal at Chicago (10/2), Prater connected on his 31st career 50+-yard field goal. Prater became the third kicker in Lions history to make at least 10 50-yard field goals with the Lions (Jason Hanson, 52; Eddie Murray, 16).

THROUGH THE UPRIGHTS AND INTO THE RECORD BOOKS

Prater connected on a 59-yard field goal to end the first half in the 2015 season finale at Chicago (1/3/16), setting a new team record for the longest field goal in Lions history. Prater's 59-yarder surpassed the previous record of 56 accomplished twice by K Jason Hanson (Cle 10/8/95; at Car 11/16/08).

- Prater's kick was the longest in the history of Soldier Field. Bears K Robbie Gould made the previous long of 58 yards.
- With his 59-yarder, Prater joined K Jason Hanson (8 in 2008 and 5 in 2011) as the only kickers in team history to make five 50-yard field goals in a season. Additionally, Prater has now tallied five 50+-yard field goals in a season for the third time in his career (5 in 2008 and 6 in 2013).

- With 6 points (1 FG, 3 PAT) at Chicago last season, Prater finished the season with 102 points and surpassed the 100+-point mark for the fifth time in his career. Prater is the sixth player in team history with 100+ points in a season and the first since K Jason Hanson in 2012 (134). He joins Hanson (12 seasons), K Eddie Murray (4 seasons), K Errol Mann (3 seasons), RB Doak Walker (2 seasons) and RB Barry Sanders (1 season) as the only players in team history to score 100 points in a season.

RETURN OF ROBERTS

Lions WR Andre Roberts came to Detroit this offseason as a free agent and has already made his impact known as a weapon in the return game.

- Entering Week 7, Roberts ranks second in the NFL in punt return average (17.8), fifth in punt return yards (142) and is one of only five players with a punt return touchdown so far this season.
- Roberts returned two punts for 100 yards at Chicago, which included an 85-yard punt return touchdown in the fourth quarter. His 100 yards established a new single-game career high (previous best: 72 vs. Den 12/12/10) and his punt return touchdown was longest of his career (previous best: 37 at Dal 10/27/14).
- Roberts' punt return was the sixth-longest in team history and longest since WR Reggie Swinton's 89-yard punt return at Carolina December 21, 2003. It was also the first by a Lions returner since WR Jeremy Ross scored on a 58-yard punt return at Philadelphia December 8, 2013. Additionally, Roberts' 85-yard punt return touchdown marked the longest ever by a Lions returner against the Bears.

IRON LION

Lions veteran LS Don Muhlbach is among the NFL's ironmen when it comes to career games played.

- Muhlbach has now played in 13 NFL seasons, all with the Detroit Lions, since entering the League in 2004. He is the 9th player in franchise history to play 13 seasons with the Lions.
- By playing against the Los Angeles Rams in Week 6 (10/16), Muhlbach passed Hall of Fame CB Dick LeBeau (185) for the sixth-most games played in Detroit Lions history. Thus far in 13 seasons, Muhlbach has tallied 186 career games.
- On K Matt Prater's 50-yard field goal at Green Bay (9/25), Muhlbach snapped on the 40th made 50-yard field goal of his career.

TACKLING SPECIALISTS

Now in his eighth season, S Don Carey has cemented himself as the Lions' leading tackler on special teams coverage. This year he is joined by CB Johnson Bademosi, who is proven as one of the best cover players in the NFL.

- Carey led the league last year in solo special teams tackles with 14, and finished tied for second in total special teams tackles with 16.

- The Lions signed CB Johnson Bademosi this past offseason. In 2015, Bademosi tied for the NFL lead in total special teams tackles with 17. It marked the fourth-consecutive season he has finished with at least 15 total special teams tackles.
- Through four games this season, Carey co-leads the Lions with five special teams tackles, while Bademosi has recorded two.

The Detroit Lions' start to the 2016 regular season highlighted the duel between two marquee quarterbacks in Lions QB Matthew Stafford and Colts QB Andrew Luck. With the help of a balanced offense through the air and a consistent rushing attack on the ground, the Lions jumped out to a 21-3 lead. After a 21-yard touchdown run by RB Theo Riddick to put Detroit up 7-0, rookie RB Dwayne Washington scored his first career touchdown to extend the lead 14-0. Seven of Stafford's 14 first half completions all went to different receivers including a six-yard touchdown strike to TE Eric Ebron that put Detroit up 21-3. Luck and the Colts responded with a 75-yard drive ending in a touchdown reception by Colts WR Donte Moncrief to set the score at 21-10 right before halftime. After a Lions drive stalled, Luck and the Colts put together an 85-yard drive ending in a 19-yard touchdown pass to TE Dwayne Allen. Following a successful two-point conversion pass to Allen, Indianapolis trailed 21-18 halfway through the third quarter. Detroit responded with a 71-yard drive ending with an 11-yard touchdown pass to RB Ameer Abdullah to go up 28-18. Following an Adam Vinatieri 40-yard field goal, Luck and the Colts added a 94-yard drive ending with a 16-yard touchdown strike to TE Jack Doyle to tie the game at 28-28. With completions to five different receivers, Stafford connected with Riddick for a 13-yard score. A missed extra point by K Matt Prater put the Lions lead at 34-28 with 4:11 left to play. The Colts put together an eight play drive for 75 yards as Doyle hauled in his second touchdown reception from six yards out to go up 35-34 on Detroit with 37 seconds left in regulation. With three timeouts, Stafford and the Lions completed three passes for a total of 50 yards before Prater lined up for a 43-yard field goal to put Detroit ahead 37-35 with four seconds left to play. After a series of laterals on the ensuing kickoff, Detroit was awarded a safety, ending regulation and giving the Lions a 39-35 victory.

The Lions hosted the Tennessee Titans in their home opener at Ford Field in Week 2 of the 2016 regular season (9/18). After a Sam Martin 48-yard punt and a holding penalty on the Titans, Tennessee started a drive from their own 10-yard line early in the first quarter. Lions DE Devin Taylor stuffed Titans RB DeMarco Murray in the end zone for a Detroit safety. The Lions immediately added an eight play scoring drive for 79 yards that was capped by a 24-yard Matthew Stafford touchdown strike to Anquan Boldin, putting the Lions up 9-0 in the first quarter. After a series of short completions by Titans QB Marcus Mariota, Tennessee put the score at 9-3 with a 46-yard field goal by Titans K Ryan Succop. Following a series of stops by both defenses, Detroit put together a 13-play, 75-yard drive that ended in a 42-yard field goal by K Matt Prater, giving the Lions a 12-3 lead going into halftime. Detroit constructed a 14-play drive midway through the third quarter that ended in a 27-yard field goal by Prater, giving the Lions a 15-3 lead heading into the fourth quarter. After a 20-yard completion, Mariota quickly connected with TE Delanie Walker for a 30-yard touchdown strike to bring the score to 15-10 with more than 14 minutes left to play. After forcing Detroit to punt on multiple drives, the Titans took the ball back with 7:04 to play. Mariota connected on all nine of his last pass attempts, including a nine yard touchdown pass to Titans WR Andre Johnson. The Titans took a 16-15 lead with 1:13 to play after a sack by Detroit on their failed two-point conversion attempt. Titans CB Perrish Cox intercepted a pass by Stafford at midfield on the Lions last drive of the game to give Tennessee a 16-15 victory.

The Packers defeated the Lions 34-27 in Week 3 at Lambeau Field after getting out to an early 31-3 lead which included scores on all of Green Bay's first six possessions. The Packers scored first with a 14-yard touchdown pass from Packers QB Aaron Rodgers to WR Davante Adams to take a 7-0 lead. The Lions responded with a 16-play drive that ended in a 42-yard field goal from K Matt Prater, setting the score at 7-3. After a kickoff out of bounds by Detroit, Rodgers and the Packers started a drive from their own 40. Rodgers quickly followed up on a 40-yard pass across the middle to WR Jordy Nelson with an eight-yard touchdown pass back to Nelson, giving Green Bay a 14-3 lead at the end of the first quarter. On the first play of the second quarter, Lions CB Nevin Lawson was called for defensive pass interference, a penalty for 66 total yards against Detroit. Rodgers and Packers TE Richard Rodgers connected for a two-yard touchdown pass following the infraction for a 21-3 Green Bay lead. A Matthew Stafford pass intended for Lions TE Eric Ebron was picked off on the ensuing Detroit drive, leading to a Green Bay field goal by K Mason Crosby. After a stalled Lions drive, Rodgers found Nelson again in the second quarter in the back of the end zone for a 17-yard touchdown and 31-3 Packers lead. In two plays Stafford connected with Lions WR Marvin Jones Jr. before the end of the first half for a 73-yard touchdown strike, giving the Packers a 31-10 lead at halftime. Detroit scored on the first possession of the second half when Stafford hit WR Anquan Boldin for a touchdown early in the third quarter to set the score at 31-17. Crosby nailed a 46-yard field goal on Green Bay's next drive, giving the Packers a 34-17 lead heading into the fourth quarter. With a 50-yard field goal by Prater, two stops by the Lions defense and another deep touchdown pass to Jones Jr., the Lions pulled within one score at 34-27 with more than three minutes left to play. A scramble by Rodgers on third and long gave Green Bay a 34-27 victory as time expired.

The Chicago Bears defeated the Detroit Lions 17-14 in Week 4 at Soldier Field. After getting the ball on their own 45-yard line in the first quarter, the Bears put together a 10-play drive that ended in a Brian Hoyer touchdown pass to WR Eddie Royal to give Chicago a 7-0 lead. The Lions failed to score in the first quarter, but the defense put together a series of stops that kept the score at 7-0 midway through the second quarter. Lions K Matt Prater put Detroit on the board after nailing a 50-yard field goal with four minutes left to play in the first half. After another defensive stop by Detroit, the Lions offense moved the ball into Bears territory looking to close the gap on a 7-3 Bears lead before halftime. A pass by Lions QB Matthew Stafford was picked off by Bears CB Jacoby Glenn with 16 seconds left in the second quarter, robbing the Lions of any points before the half. With Detroit opting to receive the second half kickoff, the Lions offense drove 66 yards in nearly eight minutes but failed to get in the end zone at Chicago's one yard line. Prater knocked in a 21-yard field goal to put Chicago's lead at 7-6. Hoyer and the Bears offense quickly responded as they went 75-yards in six plays ending with Hoyer connecting with Bears TE Zach Miller for a six yard touchdown catch. After a Bears defensive stop to end the third quarter, Chicago went 11-plays for 73 yards that ended in a 25-yard field goal by Bears K Connor Barth. The Lions trailed 17-6 with more than 10 minutes left to play in regulation. A Lions series was halted at the Bears 23-yard line when a Stafford pass intended for Lions WR Anquan Boldin was intercepted by Bears CB Deiondre' Hall with four minutes left. After a defensive stop, Lions WR Andre Roberts returned a Chicago punt 85-yards for a touchdown. The Lions' two-point conversion attempt was successful, giving the Bears a 17-14 lead with 1:52 left to play. Chicago escaped with a 17-14 victory after Detroit failed to recover an onside kick attempt late in the game.

The Lions snapped a three-game losing streak with a 24-23 victory against the Philadelphia Eagles. The Lions jumped out to a 14-point lead, including touchdowns on their first three possessions before the Eagles fought back to make the game a nail-biter. Detroit drove 75 yards on their first drive that ended with a Matthew Stafford touchdown pass to Theo Riddick. After forcing Philly to punt, Stafford found Riddick again for a 17-yard touchdown reception. Philly entered the second quarter down 14-0 before Eagles QB Carson Wentz led his team to a touchdown drive. The Eagles drove 75 yards in nine plays when Wentz found Eagles RB Ryan Mathews for a one-yard touchdown pass to make it a 14-7 margin. Stafford connected with five different receivers on Detroit's next possession that ended with a touchdown strike in the back of the end zone to Lions WR Marvin Jones Jr. The Eagles overcame three offensive penalties with a 50-yard field goal by K Caleb Sturgis to go into the half down 21-10. Philly opened the third quarter with another drive led by Wentz, who connected with four different receivers on five pass attempts before WR Jordan Huff hauled in a one-yard touchdown pass. An Eagles defense that held the Lions to 45 total yards in the second half forced a fumble on the ensuing drive to set up a 33-yard Sturgis field goal. With more than a quarter of football left to play, Philly trailed 21-20 before forcing a Lions three and out late in the third quarter. After stout performances by both defenses, a 20-yard completion by Wentz led to Sturgis' third field goal of the day, this time from 49 yards out. The Lions trailed 23-21 with a little more than five minutes left. After another three and out by Detroit's offense, Lions CB Darius Slay forced a fumble on a third and short that was recovered by Lions DT Tyrunn Walker. Detroit's offense took over in Eagles territory with 2:34 left in regulation. Stafford found WR Golden Tate on third and short for a 27-yard gain that moved the Lions within field goal range. A third down sack by Eagles DT Fletcher Cox brought out Lions K Matt Prater for an attempt at the 10th game winning field goal of his career. Prater drilled the kick from 29 yards out, but the Lions defense still needed to make a stop. Wentz and the Eagles offense took the field with 1:28 left and trailing 24-23. Slay forced his second straight turnover on as many defensive possessions when a 1st and 10 pass intended for Eagles WR Nelson Agholor was intercepted by Slay to seal a 24-23 victory for Detroit.

The Lions pulled out a 31-28 win against the Los Angeles Rams led by another game-winning drive by QB Matthew Stafford and K Matt Prater's third game-winning field goal of the season. On the first series of the game the Lions drove 75-yards in eight plays, including a fourth-and-one conversion by RB Zach Zenner on Detroit's own 49 yard line. WR Marvin Jones Jr. caught his fourth touchdown of the season from seven yards out to give the Lions a 7-0 lead early in the first quarter. The Rams responded by going 75 yards in 10 plays. Rams QB Case Keenum completed 15 of his 17 first-half passes, including hitting WR Kenny Britt for a 20-yard touchdown to tie the game more than halfway through the first quarter. After a Detroit drive stalled, Los Angeles drove from its own 16-yard line in 11 plays, and 83 yards later Keenum scurried into the end zone from the goal line to take a 14-7 lead. With 11 minutes to play in the first half, Stafford and the Lions offense responded with completions to five different receivers and another fourth-down conversion, this time from the goal line ending in a touchdown strike to WR Andre Roberts. LA got the ball back with the game tied at 14-14 and 3:03 left in the first half. Keenum connected with Britt for 43 of Britt's 136 yards on the day to move the Rams into Lions territory. After two penalties were called on the Lions, LA lined up on the goal line threatening to score before the half. Three strong stops by the Lions defense brought up a crucial fourth down from Detroit's own one-yard line with four seconds to play in the first half. After a timeout, Los Angeles lined up to go for it on fourth down when Rams RB Todd Gurley was stuffed by Lions DT Tyrann Walker and DT Stefan Charles to end the half with a 14-14 tie game. After another Lions defensive stop to start the second half, Stafford hit Lions WR Golden Tate for a deep 61-yard completion. Two plays later Stafford found Lions WR Anquan Boldin for a four-yard touchdown grab. Keenum and the Rams offense continued to respond as they answered with a 47-yard pass to Britt on first down to quickly move into Lions territory. Two plays later Keenum connected with Rams TE Lance Kendricks in the back of the end zone for a 15-yard touchdown to tie the game at 21. After forcing Detroit's offense to a three and out, the Rams drove 80 yards, ending with Britt's second touchdown reception of the day to take a 28-21 lead. With 14:09 to play Stafford and the Lions offense went 84 yards in 13-plays with the help of Zenner's career-long rush of 19-yards on first and 20. Tate then took a screen pass 23-yards and the distance to tie the score at 28-28 with nearly six minutes left in regulation. Detroit's defense then forced a key three-and-out to get the ball back into the hands of Stafford who passed for a quarterback rating of 139.8 and four touchdowns on the day. The Lions offense chewed up more than three-and-a-half minutes before Prater came out to drill a 34-yard field goal to give the Lions a 31-28 lead with 1:29 left in the game. Detroit needed one more stand by the defense when S Rafael Bush helped seal the game by registering an interception on second down with 1:09 left in regulation. Bush's second-career interception left the Rams with zero timeouts and a Lions kneel-down-victory formation.
