THE MATCHUP

After putting forth an offensive outburst that resulted in 523 total net yards and 41 points, both season highs, the New Orleans Saints, winners of two straight contests, will find out quickly if their resurgence is for real when they face one of the NFL's most consistent clubs in the Kansas City Chiefs on Sunday at Arrowhead Stadium. Both teams are coming off important wins as the Saints defeated the Carolina Panthers 41-38 and the Chiefs manhandled the Oakland Raiders, 26-10. With a win, New Orleans would improve to 3-3.

New Orleans won their second-consecutive contest on the strength of their offensive attack, consistent defensive pressure on the Panthers and a game-winning 52-yard field goal with :11 left. The Saints, who are ranked second in the NFL in points per game (31.0) have scored 35 and 41 points in the victories over San Diego and Carolina.

Against the Panthers, the Saints had their best offensive showing of the season with QB Drew Brees passing for 465 yards, the third-highest total of his 16-year career and in franchise record books. The signal-caller has quickly developed a strong connection with third-year wideout Brandin Cooks, who had seven receptions for 173 yards, including an 87-yard touchdown grab. The duo's 98- and 87-yard touchdown connections in 2016 are the two longest in the NFL this season.

Midway through the first quarter, TE Coby Fleener rushed for a two-yard touchdown, marking the first rushing score of his career. Late in the third quarter, he grabbed a mid-range pass from Brees and rambled for a 50-yard touchdown. Rookie WR Michael Thomas continued his impressive start, making five grabs for 78 yards and one touchdown, as he leads New Orleans in receiving with 26 grabs for 307 yards with three scoring catches.

The New Orleans defense allowed the Panthers to successfully convert only three-of-11 third down attempts (27%). LB Craig Robertson continued to build on his strong first campaign in New Orleans, leading the team with 10 tackles (seven solo) and adding one fumble recovery. DE Kasim Edebali added his first sack of the season, while CB Sterling Moore made his first interception as a Saint.

Special teams also played an important role in the Saints victory. Rookie WR Tommylee Lewis, who also added two receptions for 24 yards, brought back a punt 59 yards to set up a New Orleans touchdown to give the Saints a 21-0 lead. Rookie K Wil Lutz drilled a successful 52-yard game-winning field goal with 11 seconds left, the longest game-winning kick by a Saint since 1984.

The Saints and Chiefs have met 10 times, with the series knotted at five games apiece. At Arrowhead Stadium, the Saints have a 3-1 mark all-time.

This Week In The NFC South: The Atlanta Falcons will host the San Diego Chargers at 3:05 p.m., while the Tampa Bay Buccaneers visit the San Francisco 49ers for a 3:05 matchup.

THE COACHES

New Orleans Saints Head Coach Sean Payton has posted an 89-60 regular season record and a 6-4 postseason mark, guiding the team to the postseason five times, to the NFC Championship twice and to the Super Bowl XLIV Championship. He's the club's lone head coach to open a season with 13 straight victories and post a 13-game winning streak and has the franchise's top winning percentage (.597). Payton's 52-31 (.627) home record and 43-38 (.531) mark away from the Mercedes-Benz Superdome are the club's top all-time winning percentages in both categories. On Oct. 2, 2016 at San Diego, he captured his 94th victory as head of the New Orleans Saints, surpassing Jim Mora (93 victories from 1986-96) for the most victories by a head coach in team history despite having coached 13 fewer games than Mora. In his first season with the club in 2006, he took the Saints to the NFC Championship and was named NFL Coach of the Year by most major media outlets. The Saints are the only team to finish in the top 10 in net yards per game each season since 2006, including finishing second in 2015 with 403.8 ypg. Payton was hired as New Orleans' 14th head coach on January 18, 2006, after serving on Dallas' staff from 2003-05 under Pro Football Hall of Fame Head Coach Bill Parcells. Prior to joining the Cowboys, Payton served on the New York Giants coaching staff from 1999-2002, including the final three seasons as offensive coordinator. His tenure was highlighted by a Super Bowl berth in his first full season calling plays. Payton's prior NFL coaching experience came as quarterbacks coach for Philadelphia from 1997-98. He played quarterback at Eastern Illinois, where he passed for 10,665 yards, then the third-highest total in NCAA Division 1-AA history. The three-time Associated Press All-American selection had professional stints with Chicago of the Arena Football League, Ottawa of the Canadian Football League and the Chicago Bears in 1987. Starting his college coaching career at San Diego State, Payton wrapped two stints as an assistant with the Aztecs (1988-89 and 1992-93) around a stop at Indiana State (1990-91). He moved to Miami (Ohio), where he coached quarterbacks from 1994-95 before doing the same at the University of Illinois in 1996.

Andy Reid is in his fourth season at the helm of the Chiefs in 2016. He was hired as the club's 13th head coach in franchise history on January 7, 2013. Reid joined the Chiefs after 14 seasons as Head Coach/Executive Vice President of Football Operations of the Philadelphia Eagles where he compiled a 130-93-1 (.583) regular season record. He added six division titles, five NFC Championship appearances and one Super Bowl appearance. In his coaching career, Reid's teams have made the playoffs 17 times (20-16 record), and he has coached in three Super Bowls and eight NFC Championship Games. He owns three NFL Coach of the Year titles. In 2015, Reid's Chiefs rattled off 10 consecutive regular season wins to finish 11-5 and earn a playoff berth for the second time in his three seasons with the club. In addition to his 164-112-1 regular season record, he owns an 11-11 postseason mark as a head coach. His 175 wins in regular season and postseason play is tied for 14th in NFL history. Among active head coaches, Reid ranks third in regular season wins, trailing only Bill Belichick and Jeff Fisher. Reid was originally introduced as the head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles on Jan. 11, 1999, after spending seven seasons as an assistant coach with the Green Bay Packers under Head Coach Mike Holmgren. During his seven years with the Packers, Reid served as the tight ends coach and assistant offensive line coach (1992-96) and as quarterbacks coach (1997-98). In his span with the Packers, the team reached the playoffs six times and represented the NFC twice in back-to-back Super Bowls, defeating New England in Super Bowl XXXI and falling to Denver in Super Bowl XXXII.

LAST MEETING

Sept. 23, 2012: Kansas City Chiefs 27, New Orleans Saints 24 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – New Orleans' season continued to get off to a rocky start as they fell to the Chiefs in an overtime contest at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

The Saints scored first in the contest on their first drive on a nine-yard touchdown pass from QB Drew Brees to WR Lance Moore and that lead increased to 24-6 in the third quarter following a six-yard scoring throw from Brees to FB Jed Collins.

However, the Chiefs would respond 18 seconds later with a 91-yard touchdown run by RB Jamaal Charles. While it would be the only touchdown that Kansas City would score in the game, the Chiefs would add four more field goals, including the game-winner in overtime, aided by a fourth quarter safety on a sack of Brees in the fourth quarter.

Brees completed 20-of-36 passes for 240 yards with three touchdown passes. Moore led the team in receiving yardage with four grabs for 70 yards, including the first quarter nine-yard scoring grab. RB Darren Sproles had a career-long 47-yard run in the first quarter to help set up the Brees-Moore touchdown connection.

Chiefs QB Matt Cassel completed only 26-of-44 passes for 248 yards with one interception and a 65.3 passer rating. Kansas City WR Dwayne Bowe led both teams in receiving with seven receptions for 79 yards. Charles had 33 carries for 233 yards (7.1 avg.) with the 91-yard touchdown run.

Despite the loss, New Orleans had won the turnover battle 3-1 over the Chiefs. DE Cameron Jordan and LB Jonathan Casillas recorded fumble recoveries and CB Jabari Greer recorded the Saints' first interception of the season, a 28-yard return. The two turnovers led to 14 points.

TE Jimmy Graham caught four passes for 16 yards and a one-yard touchdown in the third quarter. It was Graham's sixth-consecutive regular season game with a touchdown catch, dating back to the 2011 season, putting him alone in first place in team record books, breaking a tie with WR Marques Colston, Moore and Robert Meachem, each of who had touchdown catches in five straight games. Graham tied the team record for consecutive games with a touchdown, joining RB Pierre Thomas (2008) and RB Dalton Hilliard, who did it twice (1988-89 and 1992). His streak would end after that contest.

GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1: Oakland Raiders 35, Saints 34; September 11, 2016 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – In the season kickoff for both clubs, Oakland scored a touchdown with 47 seconds remaining and followed the score with a two-point conversion to prevail in a shootout in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

The Saints had taken a 34-27 lead with 6:03 remaining when RB Travaris Cadet scored on a two-yard TD throw from QB Drew Brees. But the Raiders put together an 11-play, 75-yard drive on their final possession. The march was capped by a 13-yard TD throw from QB David Carr to WR Seth Roberts and Carr drilled a successful throw to WR Michael Crabtree in the end zone for the subsequent two points to put the Raiders ahead. Brees drove New Orleans to the Oakland 43 in the game's final seconds, but a 61-yard field goal attempt went wide left.

The Raiders took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a 47-yard FG by K Sebastian Janikowski. The Saints responded by a successful 42-yard kick by rookie K Wil Lutz. Oakland took the lead back late in the opening quarter on a six-yard touchdown run by RB Latavius Murray.

New Orleans then tied the score on a nine-play, 75-yard drive that ended early in the second quarter on a one-yard touchdown pass from Brees to WR Willie Snead IV. New Orleans took a 17-10 lead going into halftime when Brees connected with WR Brandin Cooks for a 15-yard TD.

In what would seem like rough sailing, starting a drive at their own two-yard line midway through the third quarter, Brees connected with Cooks on a throw that turned into a 98-yard TD, the longest offensive play in franchise history, breaking a record that stood since the franchise's inaugural season in 1967. Following an Oakland FG, New Orleans went into the fourth quarter with a 24-13 edge.

A wild fourth quarter put the Raiders back in the contest, starting with their first drive of the period that ended with a two-yard TD run by RB Jamize Olawale. While Lutz powered a 20-yard field goal through despite getting touched by the Raiders, the 27-19 cushion wouldn't last long though as Oakland rookie RB Jalen Richard, a Louisiana native, burst through for a 75-yard TD, followed by a successful two point conversion from Carr to WR Amari Cooper. With the Saints then starting at their 16, Brees completed a pass to Snead for a gain of 43 yards to the Oakland 26, but he fumbled. Rookie WR Michael Thomas alertly recovered the ball and one play later, Brees tossed the touchdown to Cadet that gave the Saints a seven-point lead before Oakland's final rally.

GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 2: New York Giants 16, Saints 13; September 18, 2016 @ MetLife Stadium – Already down one starter in Delvin Breaux with a fibula injury, a trio comprised of Ken Crawley, De’Vante Harris and Sterling Moore put up a gritty performance against a New York receiving trio comprised of Odell Beckham Jr., Victor Cruz and Sterling Shepard, keeping them out of the end zone after P.J. Williams was forced to depart.

In the second quarter, S Kenny Vaccaro stripped the ball from Giants RB Shane Vereen and it was picked up by LB James Laurinaitis at the Saints 36-yard line. On the Giants’ subsequent possession, QB Eli Manning completed a pass to Cruz that gave the wideout open space, but S Jairus Byrd and Crawley remained in pursuit and dislodged the ball, which was picked up by Harris at the Saints 16. With the Giants receiving a final possession in the second quarter and in a matchup of the sons of former Saints teammates, LB Michael Mauti sacked Manning up the middle and forced him to cough the ball up and it was recovered by DE Paul Kruger at the Giants 25-yard line.

Adversity would hit again when a 38-yard field goal attempt by K Wil Lutz was blocked by Giants defensive tackle Jonathan Hankins and was recovered and returned by CB Janoris Jenkins 65 yards for a touchdown. However New Orleans got the ball back and QB Drew Brees completed passes of 17- and 23-yards to help set up a 39-yard field goal by Lutz with seven seconds left in the half to trail by only four points.

The Giants got the ball at the half and advanced to the Saints 35-yard line, but a 53-yard field goal attempt went wide left. While K Josh Brown connected on a 48-yard kick later in the third quarter, Brees and the Saints got the ball back and engineered a nine-play, 74-yard drive that ended with a 17-yard connection where WR Willie Snead IV made a jumping grab in the end zone to tie the score. When the Giants got the ball back, they advanced to the one-yard line, but the Saints defense stopped them on two straight run plays and a pass attempt, forcing a 19-yard field goal. Lutz later tied the score at 13-apiece with a 45-yard kick. Following the field goal, the Giants got the ball back with 2:54 remaining at their 25-yard line. Manning completed a pass for a 34-yard gain to Cruz at the Saints-two yard line and the Giants would milk the clock until there were two seconds left and Brown drilled a 23-yard field goal to secure the home-opening victory for the Giants.

WEEK 3: Atlanta Falcons 45, Saints 32; September 26, 2016 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – New Orleans’ season continued to get off to a rocky start as they fell to the Falcons on a Monday Night Football contest at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

The Saints scored first in the contest on their first drive on a two-yard touchdown pass from QB Drew Brees to TE Coby Fleener. The New Orleans defense then got off to a solid start when a three-and-out was forced, capped by a sack by DT Nick Fairley and DE Cameron Jordan on third down. However, the Falcons would get the ball back on a fumble on the punt play and three plays later, RB Tevin Coleman tied the score on a two-yard touchdown run.

The rushing TD would be the start of an offensive onslaught for Atlanta as it would mark the first of five-consecutive offensive TDs on a performance where the Falcons would rush for 217 yards, the highest total against the Saints since 2014. Atlanta added a 90-yard interception return for a TD by Falcons LB Deion Jones.

Brees completed 36-of-54 passes for 376 yards with three touchdown passes. Fleener led the team in receiving yardage with seven grabs for 109 yards, including the first quarter touchdown grab. It was the first 100-yard performance of his Saints career and the fourth of his career. RB Mark Ingram had his most productive performance of the season when he carried 15 times for 77 yards and rushed for a two-point conversion and also caught four passes for 30 yards, including the first touchdown reception of his career.

Falcons QB Matt Ryan completed 20-of-30 passes for 240 yards with two TDs and a 113.2 quarterback rating. RB Devonta Freeman had 207 total yards from scrimmage, rushing for 152 and catching 55 more on five passes, as he led the Falcons in both rushing and receiving.

WEEK 4: New Orleans Saints 35, San Diego Chargers 34; October 2, 2016 @ Qualcomm Stadium – The Saints took their first win of the season at San Diego, battling to a 35-34 victory that saw New Orleans gain three takeaways in the last 6:50 of the contest, resulting in 14 points that helped them really from a 13-point deficit.

New Orleans started off fast as QB Drew Brees, in his first game at the Chargers since playing for them from 2001-05, engineered an 11-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a one-yard TD run by RB Mark Ingram. The two clubs then traded punts, but on San Diego’s final possession of the first quarter, QB Philip Rivers completed a 20-yard touchdown to TE Hunter Henry to tie the score.

The Saints got the ball back and in a drive that ran into the second quarter, New Orleans advanced 75 yards in 14 plays, ending with a four-yard touchdown pass from Brees to FB John Kuhn. But the New Orleans defense would then struggle on a 57-yard completion for a touchdown from Rivers to WR Dontrelle Inman two plays later to tie the score and the Chargers took advantage of a Brees interception and a costly defensive offside penalty to score 10 more points and go into halftime with a 24-14 lead.

In the start to the second half, after forcing San Diego to punt for the first time since their first possession of the contest, New Orleans took advantage of field position starting at the San Diego 48-yard line and Kuhn punched in a one-yard touchdown to put the Saints back within three. The clubs traded punts two more times before San Diego got the ball and advanced it to the New Orleans 36 at the end of the third quarter.

At the start of the fourth quarter, a defensive holding penalty assessed to New Orleans S Vonn Bell put the Chargers at the New Orleans one, allowing RB Melvin Gordon to run for a one-yard TD. Brees then tossed an interception two plays later that was returned to the New Orleans 26-yard line. However, the New Orleans defense held the Chargers to a field goal, giving them only a 13-point lead after DE Cameron Jordan sacked Rivers on third down. After an unsuccessful New Orleans drive, San Diego got the ball back, but Bell forced Gordon to cough up the ball, which was recovered by DE Darryl Tapp at the San Diego 13-yard line. Following three running plays, Brees completed a five-yard TD to WR Michael Thomas to put New Orleans within six with 4:50 to play on fourth down. When the Chargers got the ball back, WR Travis Benjamin fumbled on the first play of their drive and the ball was picked up by LB Nate Stupar at the San Diego 31-yard line.

New Orleans first advanced to the Chargers 21-yard line on a nine-yard rush and on third-and-one a nine-yard completion from Brees to WR Tommy Lee Lewis supplied a new set of downs and put the Saints at the 13. After converting another first down, Kuhn punched the ball in from the one-yard line with his third touchdown and on the ensuing drive, a sack by DT Nick Fairley and interception by CB B.W. Webb extinguished San Diego's comeback hopes.

WEEK 6: Saints 41, Carolina Panthers 38; October 16, 2016 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – The Saints behind QB Drew Brees, WR Brandin Cooks and the number two ranked offense and scoring unit in the NFL, beat the Panthers, 41-38 in a shootout where New Orleans got the final edge on a 52-yard field goal by K Wil Lutz at a sold-out Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

New Orleans got the ball first and Brees drove the Saints down the field in a 12-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a two-yard touchdown run by TE Coby Fleener on fourth-and-one. Late in the second quarter, Brees completed a pass to Cooks that the speedy wideout converted into an 87-yard touchdown, the second-longest passing play of the 2016 season across the NFL, as well as the sixth-longest passing play in franchise history.

On New Orleans' next possession, Brees found WR Michael Thomas for a nine-yard touchdown with 13:47 left in the first half. After the Panthers got to within 21-10, Lutz hit a 33-yard field goal near the end of the first half to give the Saints a 24-10 halftime lead.

Midway through the third quarter, Panthers QB Cam Newton completed a one-yard pass to TE Ed Dickson to put the Panthers within seven. But on the next drive, Brees threw his third touchdown pass, a 50-yard connection with Fleener.

Carolina scored two touchdowns at the start of the fourth quarter, but missed the extra point following their second score, allowing New Orleans to hold onto a 31-30 lead. New Orleans upped the lead back to 38-30 on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Brees to TE Josh Hill, but the Panthers tied the score late on a two-yard Newton touchdown run and a successful two-point conversion. When New Orleans got the ball back, Brees led the Saints on an 11-play, 41-yard drive that ended with Lutz's successful kick. Brees finished the game 34-of-49 for 465 yards with four touchdowns and a 118.2 rating and Cooks had seven grabs for a career-high 173 yards with the scoring grab.

THIS DATE

This week’s game is being played on Oct. 23. In the 50 years of Saints football, there have been six Oct. 23 games, with the Saints posting a 4-2 record on the date. On this date in 1983, New Orleans beat Tampa Bay 24-21 on Bobby Johnson’s 70-yard interception return for a touchdown. A 1988 20-6 win over the Los Angeles Raiders was part of an effort where RB Craig “Ironhead” Heyward carried 11 times for 109 yards (9.9 avg.), including a 73-yard run. In a 1994 37-34 win over the Los Angeles Rams, Tyrone Hughes returned two kickoffs for touchdowns on his way to setting or tying seven team and four NFL records. In a 62-7 win over Indianapolis on Oct. 23, 2011, New Orleans set a scoring record as QB Drew Brees completed 31-of-35 passes for 325 yards with five touchdowns, zero interceptions and a 144.9 passer rating

FAMILY TIES

Numerous Saints players, coaches and administrators are not the only members of their families to make a name for themselves in pro football. No less than 17 Saints players, coaches or front office personnel have relatives who have played, coached or served in the front office in the NFL.

Defensive Coordinator Dennis Allen - Father, Grady, played for the Atlanta Falcons from 1968-72.

Offensive Coordinator Pete Carmichael - Father, Pete, served as an assistant coach in the NFL from 1994-2003 with the Jacksonville Jaguars and the Chicago Bears.

Secondary Coach Aaron Glenn - Younger brother, Jason, was a linebacker and sixth-round draft pick of the Detroit Lions in the 2001 NFL Draft, playing six seasons in the NFL with the New York Jets, Miami Dolphins and Minnesota Vikings.

Assistant Head Coach/Linebackers Joe Vitt – Son, Joey, is an area scout for New Orleans.

Assistant General Manager/College Scouting Director Jeff Ireland – Stepson of Kansas City Chiefs Hall of Fame LB/C E.J. Holub and the grandson of former Eagles player and Bears personnel executive Jim Parmer.

National Scout Terry Wooden – Brother, JoJo, is director of player personnel for the San Diego Chargers.

S Jairus Byrd – Father, Gill, played for the San Diego Chargers from 1983-92 and is a 12-year National Football League coaching veteran, last serving as cornerbacks coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2015.

DB Ken Crawley – Cousin, Stephon Morris, spent the 2012 season with the New England Patriots.

DB De’Vante Harris – Father, Rod, was a wide receiver, playing three seasons in the National Football League and spending the 1989 season with New Orleans where he would appear in 11 games, handling the club’s kickoff and punt return duties.

RB Mark Ingram – Father, Mark Ingram Sr., was a 10-year National Football League veteran who played for the New York Giants, Miami Dolphins, Green Bay Packers and Philadelphia Eagles.

DE Cameron Jordan – Father, Steve, had a 13-year career as a tight end with the Minnesota Vikings, with six Pro Bowl selections.

DE Paul Kruger – Brother, Dave, signed with Cleveland as an undrafted free agent and participated in Browns training camp in 2013, while his other brother, Joe, was selected by Philadelphia in the seventh round of the 2013 draft (212th overall).

TE Michael Mauti – Father, Rich, played eight years in the National Football League as a wide receiver and special teams contributor, including seven with the Saints from 1977-83, closing out his career with the Washington Redskins in 1984.

QB Luke McCown – Older brother, Josh, plays QB for the Cleveland Browns.

T Andrus Peat – Father, Todd, played six National Football League seasons with the Phoenix Cardinals and the Los Angeles Raiders.

LB Nate Stupar – Older brother, Jonathan, played two seasons in the NFL from 2009-10, while his uncle, Jeff Hostetler, won two Super Bowl titles with the New York Giants, as part of a 12-year career in the league.

WR Michael Thomas – Uncle, Keyshawn Johnson, is a former wide receiver, spending 11 seasons in the National Football League, earning three Pro Bowls and the Super Bowl XXXVII title.

TEAM NOTES

ROSTER ROLL CALL

Of the 53 players on the current Saints roster, 32 were on the active roster, a reserve list or the practice squad at the end of the 2015 season. Among newcomers, the roster includes five unrestricted free agents, six veteran free agents, four draft picks, six rookie free agents and one claimed off of waivers (QB Joe Callahan, Green Bay).

Of the 53 players, 30 have less than four years of previous NFL experience, including 11 who are in their first NFL season. Below is a breakdown of the Saints roster by years of experience (year entering): 16 years-1, 13 years-1, 11 years-5, 8 years-7, 7 years-1, 6 years-5, 5 years-3, 4 years-9, 3 years-3, 2 years-7, rookies-11.

HIGHER EDUCATION

40 colleges and universities are represented on the Saints' opening day 53-man roster. Of that total, 10 are represented by multiple Saints, three from Ohio State and two apiece from Alabama, the University of California, Colorado, Georgia, Penn State, Oregon, Southern Methodist, Stanford and Texas.

MY HOMETOWN

Saints players come from 22 different states, Washington D.C., Germany and Nigeria. Of the 53 players currently on the team's active roster, the state which claims the most members of the team is Texas with nine (quarterbacks Drew Brees and Luke McCown, long snapper Justin Drescher, defensive back De'Vante Harris, running back Daniel Lasco, running back, return specialist Marcus Murphy, punter Thomas Morstead, LB Craig Robertson and safety Kenny Vaccaro).

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

A spot on the practice squad is another avenue to get onto the active roster and have the opportunity to contribute. New Orleans has nine players on their current 53-man roster who moved up after being on a practice squad before being promoted. Below is an overview of these players with extensive practice squad experience.

WR Brandon Coleman was originally signed by New Orleans out of Rutgers following the 2014 NFL Draft. Coleman spent the majority of his rookie campaign on the practice squad before being elevated to the active roster for the regular season finale. Fully recovered from a nagging knee injury suffered as a redshirt junior in 2013, Coleman won a roster spot on the 2015 opening day roster, going on to make 30 receptions for 454 yards (15.4 avg.) with two TD grabs. He has appeared in all five games in 2016, catching 12 passes for 116 yards.

An eight-year NFL veteran, T Tony Hills has persevered on three practice squads and after starting the 2015 season on the Baltimore practice roster, the former University of Texas standout was signed to the Saints active roster. Now in his second season with New Orleans, Hills has appeared in three games, seeing extensive time at left tackle on Oct. 16 against Carolina in place of an injured Peat.

G/C Senio Kelemete participated on the Saints practice squad in 2013 after spending the 2012 campaign on the Arizona Cardinals active roster. In 2015, he started three games at right guard, one at left guard and started the season's final contest against Atlanta at left tackle. It was his first career start at the position. In 2016, he has played in four-of-five contests with two starts, last opening at left guard on Oct 16 against Carolina.

Originally signed as an undrafted free agent out of Shippensburg University by the Pittsburgh Steelers following the 2005 NFL Draft, FB John Kuhn would begin his NFL career on the practice squad of the Steelers from 2005-06, before being elevated to the Steelers active roster. Following his time in Pittsburgh, the York, Pa. native spent nine seasons with Green Bay. In 2016, he has rushed seven times for 14 yards with three touchdowns and has added four catches for 15 yards with one touchdown over five games played with one start.

Initially signed to the Cleveland Browns practice squad after competing on a tryout basis during his rookie season in 2011, the versatile LB Craig Robertson would seize this opportunity, making the 53-man roster the following season. He has tallied 369 tackles (242 solo), four sacks, six INTs, 18 passes defensed, two forced fumbles, six fumble recoveries, one TD and 33 special teams stops over 63 games with 42 starts. In 2016 over five starts, he has posted 55 tackles (41 solo), one fumble recovery and three passes defensed.

WR Willie Snead IV first entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with Cleveland in 2014 out of Ball State. Appearing in 15 games last season, including eight starts, Snead made 69 receptions for 984 yards (14.3 avg.) and three touchdowns. In four games with one start in 2016, he has recorded 19 receptions for 296 yards and two touchdowns.

LB Nate Stupar came to the NFL as a seventh-round draft pick of the Raiders in the 2012 NFL Draft (230th overall), later signing to their practice squad. The former Penn State standout would also spend time on the practice squads of the Eagles and 49ers over the course of his rookie season. In 2016, he has played in all five contests with three starts and has posted 18 tackles (13 solo), one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and four special teams stops.

CB B.W. Webb joined the Saints in Week Two of the 2016 season after previous stints with the Tennessee Titans (2015), Pittsburgh Steelers (2014) and Dallas Cowboys (2013). Originally drafted by the Cowboys in the fourth round (114th overall) of the 2013 NFL Draft, this fourth-year cornerback has logged 38 career games (three starts), 40 total tackles (34 solo), two interceptions, 11 pass defenses and six special teams stops. In three games with one start for New Orleans in 2016, he has tallied six tackles (five solo), one interception and seven passes defended.

BUCKING THE ODDS

Players whose names are not called in the NFL Draft each spring face challenging odds in sticking on a team, with every snap or drill in OTAs, minicamps and training camp under evaluation. Yet the current 2016 53-man roster features 19 undrafted players who bucked the odds, eight of whom started at least one contest for the Saints prior to this season. Undrafted players on the current Saints 53-man roster with NFL experience include CB Delvin Breaux, RB Travaris Cadet, Coleman, CB Brian Dixon, LS Justin Drescher, DE Kasim Edebali, LB Dannell Ellerbe, TE Josh Hill, G Tim Lelito, CB Sterling Moore, Robertson and Snead IV.

A New Orleans native who suffered a serious neck injury as a high school senior at McDonogh 35 that did not allow him to play football at LSU where he was committed, the persistent Breaux took a route through the Gridiron Developmental Football League, the Arena Football League and the Canadian Football League. Breaux made his mark the last two seasons with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats, where he was named a CFL All-Star. He parlayed that success into a free agent contract with New Orleans, going on to start all 16 contests in 2015, finishing with 49 tackles (38 solo), a team-high three interceptions, 23 passes defended and one fumble recovery. Breaux was voted by his teammates as the club's 2015 Ed Block Courage Award winner. He started the team's Week One contest against Oakland, but was forced to leave with a leg injury in the second half.

Signed following a standout college career at Appalachian State, Cadet has played in 53 career regular season games with three starts and has carried for 69 yards on 24 attempts, made 77 receptions for 649 yards with four touchdowns and returned 58 kickoffs for 1,473 yards (25.4 avg.). Over five games played with one start in 2016, he has rushed twice for four yards, caught 15 passes for 90 yards with one touchdown and returned five kicks for 86 yards (17.2 avg.), also adding one special teams stop.

Signed as an undrafted free agent in 2014 out of Northwest Missouri State, Dixon has played in 34 games for the Saints over three seasons, totaling 19 tackles (18 solo), one pass defended, two forced fumbles and 21 special teams stops. In 2016, he has appeared in two games and has posted one tackle.

Signed as an undrafted free agent out of the University of Colorado in 2010 by Atlanta and picked up by New Orleans at midseason, Drescher has handled long-snapping duties for 91 consecutive games, adding four special teams stops.

A Hamburg, Germany native who started playing football in middle school prior to further developing his skills in prep school in New Hampshire, Edebali was signed following the 2014 NFL Draft out of Boston College and in two seasons has played in all 37 games with two starts, posting 46 tackles (32 solo), eight sacks, four passes defended, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and 21 special teams stops. In 2016, he has seen action in all five games with one start and has totaled 10 tackles (seven solo), one sack and one pass defended.

Signed as an undrafted free agent by Baltimore out of Georgia in 2009, Ellerbe has appeared in 68 games with 34 starts, posting career totals of 338 tackles (249 solo), 6.5 sacks, three interceptions, 13 passes defended, a forced fumble, four fumble recoveries, 18 special teams stops and a coverage forced fumble. In his first season with New Orleans, he posted 45 tackles (39 solo), one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one pass defended over six games with four starts.

A 2013 undrafted free agent signing by New Orleans out of Idaho State, Hill has played in 48 career games with 15 starts and has posted 38 catches for 363 yards (9.6 avg.) with nine touchdowns and 24 special teams stops. In 2016, he has caught two passes for 23 yards with one touchdown over two games played, both starts. Against Carolina on Oct. 16, he caught an eight-yard go-ahead touchdown pass in the fourth quarter, marking his first TD reception of 2016.

Ahead is a synopsis of several returning players and newcomers through the draft, free agency and trade to the 2016 Saints offensive line:

LT Terron Armstead - The club's first third round draft choice in 2013 out of Arkansas-Pine Bluff, Armstead impressed scouts by running the fastest 40-yard dash time (4.71) by an offensive lineman in the history of the NFL Scouting Combine. Armstead has opened 30 regular season games and two postseason contests for New Orleans. He opened two of the first five contests of 2016 at left tackle, missing the last three games with a knee injury.

G Jahri Evans - The 2006 fourth round draft choice made a rapid ascent from his small school roots at Bloomsburg into one of the NFL's top interior linemen and the top guard in team history. Evans's been named to six Pro Bowls since 2009, as well as being named an AP first-team All-Pro selection from 2009-12 and a second-team selection in 2013. Overall, Evans has started 158 contests at right guard for New Orleans, the ninth-highest total for games played in team record books. In 2016, he has opened all five games at right guard.

C/G Senio Kelemete - Originally a fifth round selection of the Arizona Cardinals (151st overall) in the 2012 NFL Draft, since first joining the New Orleans practice squad at the start of the 2013 season, this fourth-year offensive lineman has displayed the versatility to play every position on the offensive line. The 6-foot-3, 300-pounder played in all 16 games for the first time in his career in 2015 and opened five games, including contests at both guard positions and at right tackle. He has appeared in four-of-five games in 2016 with two starts.

G Tim Lelito - Originally signed as an undrafted free agent out of Grand Valley State in 2013, this lineman proved the jump was not too big from Division II to the NFL as he's started at all three interior positions. In 2015, Lelito won the starting left guard slot in the preseason, but ended up seeing significant action at both guard spots. He opened 11 contests at left guard and two at right guard. He has appeared in all five games in 2016 (four starts).

T Andrus Peat - A first round selection (13th overall) in the 2015 NFL Draft out of Stanford, Peat was considered one of the top college offensive linemen in 2014. In his rookie campaign, Peat saw action in 12 contests with eight starts, being inserted into several offensive packages, including two starts at left tackle in place of an injured Armstead. In 2016, he has started all five contests, opening two games at left guard, while making the last three starts at left tackle in place of an injured Armstead.

RT Zach Strief - This 2006 seventh round pick out of Northwestern has appeared in 145 regular season games with 81 starts and played in 10 postseason contests, four which he has opened. He has become even more durable with age, appearing in and starting 42 consecutive postseason and regular season contests at his right tackle position, before missing last season's Week 16 contest against Jacksonville with an elbow injury. He has made each start over the team's first five contests at right tackle.

C Max Unger - After being acquired by the Saints via trade at the start of the 2015 offseason, Max Unger anchored the middle of the New Orleans line, including being the lone offensive linemen to open all 16 contests. Originally a second round draft pick of the Seahawks in 2009, Unger has been named a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press in 2012 and is a two-time Pro Bowler, helping the Seahawks to two Super Bowl appearances and a victory in Super Bowl XLVIII. For the 2016 season, he was voted one of two offensive team captains. Unger has opened all 88 games he has played in since 2009, including all five in 2016.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

DEFENSIVE DRAFT

Over the last two NFL Drafts, New Orleans has shown a commitment to improving the defense, with four players selected over the last two drafts on the current Saints 53-man roster. Below is an overview of these four players:

LB Stephone Anthony, Clemson (D1b-15) - In his rookie campaign, Anthony started all 16 games at middle linebacker and led the team with a club rookie record 144 tackles (99 solo), while adding one sack, one interception, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery, one defensive touchdown, one defensive two-point conversion off of a blocked PAT attempt, five passes defended and one special teams stop. His total stops led NFL rookies and he was a consensus All-Rookie selection. In the club's Week 13 contest against Carolina, he took a blocked PAT kick attempt back 82 yards for the two-point conversion, marking the first time in NFL history that a blocked PAT kick attempt led to a two-point conversion since the rule change before the 2015 season. In five games played with two starts in 2016, he has posted five tackles (three solo), including one tackle for loss.

S Vonn Bell, Ohio State (D2b-16) - Selected by New Orleans in the second round (61st overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft, Bell was a consensus All-American and one of the top rated defensive backs in the NFL Draft. As a senior, the Rossville, Ga. native was a Jim Thorpe Award semifinalist after recording 65 tackles and adding two interceptions, one brought back for a TD, one fumble recovery and 11 passes defended. He started 28 games his final two years at Ohio State, and posted career totals of nine interceptions, 176 stops, 24 passes defended, two fumble recoveries and four tackles behind the line of scrimmage. Over five games played with two starts in his rookie campaign, he has recorded 32 tackles (19 solo), one forced fumble and one special teams stop.

DT Tyeler Davison, Fresno State (D5b-15) - This run-stopping widebody defensive lineman played in 53 career games at Fresno State and made 28.5 stops for a loss and 14.5 sacks. In 2015, Davison played in all 16 games with five starts, finishing his rookie campaign with 26 tackles (15 solo) and 1.5 sacks. In four games played in 2016, all starts, he has totaled 10 tackles (six solo).

DL David Onyemata (D4-16) - Possessing a unique combination of size and speed, this Lagos, Nigeria native turned in a productive college career north of the border at the University of Manitoba, as the first member of the Bisons program to be drafted. In 37 career games, he posted 166 tackles, 9.5 sacks, two passes defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. Over five games played in 2016, he has tallied 11 tackles (six solo).

NEW FACES ON DEFENSE

Along with the NFL Draft, New Orleans used free agency to add pieces to their defense, bringing players from other teams, as well as other leagues to help create the perfect mixture of veteran leadership and young talent in the Saints locker room. Below is an overview of those players:

DT Nick Fairley - Fairley comes to New Orleans after spending the past five seasons contributing to the defensive line rotations of the Detroit Lions (2011-14) and St. Louis Rams (2015). He has recorded 186 tackles (111 solo), 17.5 sacks, four passes defended, five forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries over 66 games played with 35 starts. Originally a first round draft pick of Detroit in 2011 out of Auburn, Fairley has started all five games in 2016, posting 23 tackles (14 solo) and 3.5 sacks.

S Roman Harper - Re-signed this offseason with New Orleans, where he established himself as one of the NFL's most physical defensive backs, Roman Harper is the only safety in team history to have been selected to two Pro Bowls. His 18 career sacks rank first among active defensive backs and are tied for ninth all-time. The Prattville, Ala. native is now in his 11th season, after playing his first eight in New Orleans and his last two with the Carolina Panthers. In 2015, Harper started all 16 regular season games at safety for the second straight season and the sixth time in his career and finished with 73 tackles (58 solo), a career-high two fumble recoveries and seven passes defended as he helped Carolina advance to the Super Bowl. In 2016, he has posted six tackles (three solo) and one special teams stop over five games played with one start.

DE Paul Kruger - Winning Super Bowl XLVII in New Orleans as a member of the Baltimore Ravens after the 2012 season, Kruger comes to New Orleans after spending the previous three campaigns with the Cleveland Browns. Originally drafted by the Baltimore Ravens in the second round (57th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft out of Utah, Kruger has appeared in four games with three starts for the Black and Gold in 2016, registering 13 tackles (eight solo), one half sack, one pass defended and one fumble recovery.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

LB James Laurinaitis - Laurinaitis comes to New Orleans after starting every game of his professional career over seven years with the St. Louis Rams, finishing as the club's all-time leading tackler (1,015). The 2009 second-round draft pick has totaled 1,039 tackles, 16.5 sacks, 10 interceptions, 38 passes defended, four forced fumbles and eight fumble recoveries over 115 games. He has started at MLB in three-of-five games in 2016 and has recorded 24 tackles (14 solo), one pass defended and one fumble recovery. He missed his first-career game on Oct. 2 at San Diego due to a quad injury.

LB Craig Robertson - Robertson joins the Saints after spending his first five NFL seasons with the Cleveland Browns. He has tallied 369 tackles (242 solo), four sacks, six interceptions, 18 passes defended, two forced fumbles, six fumble recoveries, one touchdown and 33 special teams stops over 63 games with 42 starts. In 2015, he appeared in 12 games with nine starts and totaled 50 tackles (30 solo), one interception, five passes defended, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and nine special teams stops. Starting each of the team's first five contests, he has totaled a team-high 55 tackles (41 solo), one fumble recovery, three passes defended and one special teams stop.

LB Nate Stupar - The former Penn State standout has appeared in 48 career contests with six starts for four clubs and has posted career totals of 49 tackles (38 solo), one sack, one pass defended, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and 32 special teams stops. In his first season with the Black and Gold, he has played in five games with three starts and has posted 18 tackles (13 solo), one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and four special teams stops.

DE Darryl Tapp - Originally selected by the Seattle Seahawks in the second round (53rd overall) of the 2006 NFL Draft out of Virginia Tech, Tapp comes to New Orleans to add depth to the club's defensive line rotation after initially participating in the Saints' minicamp on a tryout basis. The Portsmouth, Va. native has played in 151 career NFL games with 36 starts and has recorded totals of 308 tackles (238 solo), 28.0 sacks, two interceptions, one returned for a touchdown, 20 passes defended, 11 forced fumbles, 10 fumble recoveries and 11 special teams tackles over 11 seasons, including stints with the Seattle Seahawks, the Philadelphia Eagles, Washington Redskins and Detroit Lions. In five games played in 2016, he has recorded 11 tackles (three solo), one half sack and one fumble recovery.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

Under the guidance of Greg McMahon, who is in his 11th season on the coaching staff and his ninth as coordinator and his assistant Stan Kwan, the Saints special teams is once again one of the team's most consistent position groups.

- K Wil Lutz is in his first season with New Orleans, joining the team after originally being signed by the Baltimore Ravens as an undrafted free agent out of Georgia State following the 2016 NFL Draft. The Newnan, Ga. native played in 47 career games (most in school history) at Georgia State and is the program's career leader in FGs (31), PATs (120) and points (213) and owns the school's top career punting average (42.8 avg.) on 92 punts. Over his rookie campaign, he has connected on seven-of-11 field goal attempts, including a career-long 57-yard field goal against Atlanta on Sept. 26, the third-longest made field goal in franchise history, matching Kai Forbath's 57-yarder at Houston last year. He is also 18-for-18 on PAT attempts. On Oct. 16 against Carolina, he kicked a 52-yard game-winning field goal with :13 remaining to collect the first game-winning field goal of his career, the longest game-winning kick by a Saint since 1984.

- P Thomas Morstead, who has been a weapon in the field position game with his strong leg, outstanding placement abilities and booming kickoffs, returns for his eighth year with New Orleans. Over his eight-year career, the club's fifth-round draft choice (164th overall) in 2009 from Southern Methodist University, has posted a club-record career gross average of 47.0 on 430 punts, ranked third all-time in the NFL (compiled by the NFL since 1939), with a team-best career 41.1 net average, which is ranked second all-time (compiled by NFL since 1976) and has placed 142 punts inside the 20-yard line, while also booming 258 kickoffs in the end zone for touchbacks. Morstead has recorded three of the top ten all-time single-season net yardage figures (compiled by the NFL since 1976). In Week One against the Raiders, he played in his 111th career game, moving him into sole possession of 31st in club record books in games played, surpassing a tie with Tommy Barnhardt for most games played by a punter. In 2016, he has punted 20 times for 1,028 yards (51.4 avg.) and has placed six of his punts inside the 20-yard line.

QUARTERBACKS

DREW BREES

- Since signing with the New Orleans Saints as an unrestricted free agent in 2006 from the San Diego Chargers, Drew Brees has thrown for 4,000 or more yards each season, became the only quarterback to throw for 5,000 yards four different times, set the league single-season yardage record in 2011 (broken by Peyton Manning in 2013) and ranked at or near the top in every passing category, both in single-seasons and over the 10-year period, breaking nearly every club record.

- He opened the 2016 season against Oakland going 28-of-42 for 423 yards, four TDs and a 131.3 passer rating. With 4,306 passing yards on kickoff weekend for his career, he joined Peyton Manning as the only QBs in NFL history to throw for at least 4,000 yards on opening weekend over their careers. It was also his sixth-consecutive week one game with at least 300 yards passing, surpassing a record held by Kurt Warner (1999-2003).

- Since 2006, he leads the NFL with 50,289 passing yards, 362 touchdown passes, 6,501 attempts, 4,390 completions, a 67.5% completion percentage, 92 games with at least 300 yards passing, 15 with at least 400 yards passing, 381 completions of 25 yards or more and stands at fourth in the league with a 99.2 passer rating.

- Brees has been selected to play in a club-record eight Pro Bowls as a Saint, with nine overall berths in the NFL's all-star game twice as a starter. His seven consecutive selections as a Saint is tied for first in franchise history with Pro Football Hall of Fame tackle William Roaf.

- Brees has posted a 96-67 regular season record in contests he has started since signing with the Saints in 2006. In 2015 at Atlanta, he recorded his 100th career victory as a Saints quarterback. Including his six playoff victories, his 102 total wins in a Saints uniform make him the winningest quarterback in franchise history. Overall, Brees' win total as a member of the Saints ranks fourth among all NFL QBs since 2006.

- In his 16-year NFL career where he's appeared in 222 games with 221 starts, Brees has completed 5,515-of-8,310 passes (66.4%) for 62,637 yards, 442 touchdown passes and a 96.0 passer rating. He's the NFL's all-time most accurate passer, is ranked third in completions, third in TD passes, third in passing yardage and seventh in passer rating. In Week Two at the New York Giants, he surpassed Dan Marino (61,361) to move into third place on the NFL's all-time passing yardage list.

BY THE NUMBERS

3 – Brees, Dan Marino and Peyton Manning are the only three NFL players to throw for 40 or more touchdowns twice. Also the number of NFC Offensive Player of the Month awards won by Brees in his 15-year career, the most monthly awards won by a Saint in team history.

4 – NFL-record number of consecutive games that Brees threw for 350 yards in 2011. Also the NFL-record number of seasons that Brees has thrown for at least 5,000 yards (2008, 2011-13), throwing for 5,162 yards in 2013.

6 – The NFL-record number of seasons Brees has led the NFL in passing yardage, including 2015 (4,870). Also, the streak of consecutive games in which Brees did not throw an INT between 2015-16, matching a franchise record. The streak was broken on Sept. 26 against Atlanta.

7 – The NFL-record number of regular season contests where Brees has thrown five TDs and zero interceptions.

8 – The NFL-record number of times he reached the 350-yard mark in 2011. Also the franchise-record number of seasons that Brees has been selected to the Pro Bowl. Also, the number of seasons overall and NFL-record consecutive campaigns (2008-15) that Brees has thrown for at least 30 touchdowns.

9 – NFL-record stretch of consecutive games with at least 300 yards passing, which he's accomplished twice. Also the number of consecutive wins for Brees as a starter on Monday Night Football, tied for second all-time. Brees is only the second player in NFL history to throw for 4,000 yards in nine straight seasons.

10 – Number of consecutive seasons Brees has thrown 25 touchdown passes, making him only the second player in history to do so, joining Peyton Manning.

11 – Number of seasons Brees has thrown 25 or more touchdown passes, tied for second in NFL record books with Tom Brady and Brett Favre.

12 – 2015 was Brees' 12th-consecutive season with 3,000 yards passing. Only Favre (18) and Manning (13), have thrown for 3,000 yards in more consecutive seasons.

13 – With 13 300-yard passing games in 2011, Brees set the NFL single-season record, surpassing the one he previously tied with 10 in 2008. In 2015, Brees become the fifth player to have 13 3,000-yard passing seasons, joining Favre (18), Manning (16), Dan Marino (13) and Brady (13).

15 – The number of times Brees has thrown for at least 400 yards, passing Manning (14) for most in league history.

BREES BY THE NUMBERS

20 – Franchise-record NFC Player of the Week awards won by Brees as a Saint and the most conference Player of the Week honors since 2006. Including his tenure in San Diego, his 22 conference Player of the Week awards rank third all-time behind Manning (27) and Brady (24).

28 – Successful drives in the fourth quarter or overtime engineered by Brees for a TD or field goal in the regular season to lead the Saints to victory since joining the club in 2006, tied for the NFL's third-highest total over this period.

29 – Regular season contests by Brees with at least four TD passes, ranked second behind Manning (35).

45 – Consecutive regular season contests between 2012-15 with at least one TD pass, fifth-best in league history. Streak ended on November 29, 2015 at Houston.

47 – Consecutive regular season contests from Sept. 8, 2011– Nov. 21, 2013 when he'd thrown for at least 200 yards, a span of three seasons. Brees is currently on a 39-game streak.

52 – The number of 350-yard games over his career.

53 – National Football League-record number of games with at least 30 completions, ahead of Manning (38).

54 – Consecutive regular season contests between 2009-12 with at least one TD, the longest streak in history, surpassing the record held by Johnny Unitas. It was set on October 7, 2012 vs. San Diego. The streak ended on Nov. 29, 2012 when he did not throw a touchdown at Atlanta.

56 – Players that Brees' 442 career touchdowns have gone to with both the Saints and San Diego. On Oct. 2 at San Diego FB John Kuhn became the 56th player, as well as the 41st different Saint.

57 – The NFL-record number of consecutive regular season contests where Brees had thrown at least 20 completions until Oct. 13, 2013 at New England.

66.4 – Career completion percentage, ranked first in National Football League record books.

67.5 – Franchise-record completion percentage as a Saint, ranked first in the NFL since 2006.

71.2 – Brees' National Football League single-season record completion percentage in 2011.

81 – Number of regular season games by Brees as a Saint where he's posted a rating of 100 or more (min. 10 attempts) owning a 65-16 record in these contests. This is the highest total among QBs since 2006. He's reached the milestone 98 times over his 16-year career.

92 – Number of club-record regular season contests by Brees with 300 yards or more passing as a Saint, the highest total since 2006. Brees has reached the 300-yard mark 99 times, ahead of Manning (93) for the most all-time.

96 – Club-record regular season victories as a starting QB. Including the playoffs, Brees has compiled a 102-69 record as the Saints' starter. His 102 total wins currently rank fourth among all NFL signal-callers since 2006.

98 – In the team's season opener against Oakland, he connected with WR Brandin Cooks on a 98-yard touchdown, the longest pass play of his career, the longest pass play in franchise history and the longest scoring offensive play in franchise history.

133 – Regular season games Brees has with two or more TDs in his 16-year career, the second-most by an active player behind Tom Brady (140). Since joining the Saints in 2006, Brees has 107 contests with multiple touchdown passes, first in the NFL.

205 – October 4, 2015 vs. Dallas, with an 80-yard TD pass to RB C.J. Spiller, Brees reached 400 TD passes in his 205th career game, the quickest a player has reached 400 TD passes (Peyton Manning, 209).

305 – Career-best consecutive attempts in which he had not thrown an interception, becoming just the fourth player in NFL history to have a streak of at least 300 attempts. Streak ended on Sept. 26 against Atlanta.

362 – Touchdown passes as a Saint, ranked first in club records and in the NFL during this time period, including seven in 2015 vs. the New York Giants to tie an NFL record. With 442 career TD passes, he ranks third.

62,637 – In 2015 vs. Detroit, Brees eclipsed 60,000 passing yards for his career, becoming just the fourth player to reach the mark, as well as the fastest.

JOE CALLAHAN

- Originally signed by Green Bay as an undrafted free agent following the 2016 NFL Draft, the Absecon, N.J. native completed 918-of-1,429 pass attempts (64.2 percent) for 1,878 yards, 130 touchdowns with 38 interceptions over his collegiate career at Wesley. As a senior in 2015, he threw for 5,063 yards and 55 touchdowns on 346-for-496 passing (69.8 percent), becoming the first NCAA Division III quarterback to ever throw for 5,000 yards in a season, while joining Hawaii's Colt Brennan as the only quarterback in college football history to throw for 5,000-plus yards and 55-plus touchdowns in a single season.

LUKE McCOWN

- McCown is in his 13th NFL season and fourth with New Orleans. Originally a fourth round selection (106th overall) in the 2004 NFL Draft by Cleveland, the former Louisiana Tech standout has played in 63 career games with 10 starts with the Browns, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, the Jacksonville Jaguars, the Atlanta Falcons and the Saints. He has completed 216-of-356 passes for 2,070 yards with nine touchdowns and a 71.3 rating.

RUNNING BACKS

TRAVARIS CADET

• Cadet returned to New Orleans for the final two games of the 2015 season, after splitting the beginning of the year between the New England Patriots and San Francisco 49ers. Originally signed by the Saints as an undrafted free agent out of Appalachian State following the 2012 NFL Draft, Cadet spent his first three seasons with the Black and Gold, proving to be effective at running back, wide receiver and return specialist. Cadet has appeared in 53 games with three starts over his five-year career, rushing for 69 yards on 24 attempts and catching 77 passes for 649 yards and four TDs, while adding 58 kick returns for 1,473 yards with a long-return of 82 yards. In 2016, he has rushed for four yards on two attempts, made 15 receptions for 90 yards with one touchdown, and added 86 yards on five kickoff returns over five games played with one start.

TIM HIGHTOWER

• Originally a 2008 fifth-round pick (149th overall) of Arizona, Hightower became the lead back in 2015 after an injury to RB Mark Ingram and posted the third-highest rushing yards total in the league from his first start in the team's Week 14 matchup at Tampa Bay through the end of the season. Over eight games with three starts in 2015, he rushed for 375 yards on 96 carries (3.9 avg.), with four touchdowns. He added 129 yards on 12 receptions (10.8 avg.). For his career, he has appeared in 66 games with 44 starts, totaling 2,477 yards with 28 touchdowns on 633 attempts and 1,009 yards with one touchdown on 141 receptions. Over five games in 2016, he has rushed for 48 yards on 14 carries, caught one pass for one yard and returned one kickoff for 16 yards.

MARK INGRAM

• One of the club's two first round draft picks in 2011, the 2009 Heisman Trophy winner has been an integral part of the rushing attack since his arrival in New Orleans. Before being sidelined in 2015, Ingram rushed for 769 yards and six TDs on 166 attempts, and added a career-high 405 yards receiving on a career-best 50 catches. His 1,174 total yards from scrimmage marked a new career-high. He has started four games in 2016, while appearing in all five, accumulating 272 yards on 70 attempts (3.9 avg.) with one touchdown and 134 yards on 18 receptions with one TD. On Oct. 2 at San Diego, he surpassed Rueben Mays to move into fifth place on the franchise's all-time rushing yards list.

INGRAM'S BIG DAYS

Mark Ingram has reached 100 yards or more six times over his six-year Saints career, with New Orleans going 5-1 over those contests. Below is a list of those six performances:

- Nov. 10, 2013 vs. Dallas Cowboys - Carried 14 times for 145 yards (10.4 avg.) with one touchdown and two receptions for 15 yards for 160 yards of total offense.
- Oct. 26, 2014 vs. Green Bay Packers - Rushed for a career-high 172 yards on 24 carries (7.2 avg.) with one TD
- Oct. 30, 2014 at Carolina Panthers - Rushed 30 times for 100 yards with two touchdowns and added a 10-yard grab.
- Nov. 9 vs. San Francisco 49ers - Became the first Saint to have 100 yards rushing in three consecutive games since 2003 with 27 carries for 120 yards.
- Nov. 30, 2014 at Pittsburgh Steelers - Rushed 23 times for 122 yards (5.3 avg.) with a season-long 31-yard carry.
- Oct. 25, 2015 at Indianapolis Colts - Carried 14 times for 143 yards (10.2 avg.) with one touchdown.

DANIEL LASCO

• Lasco comes to New Orleans after finishing his college career with 2,395 career all-purpose yards over 41 games and 15 starts, including 1,872 rushing yards and 18 TDs on the ground to rank 10th on Cal's all-time list. Healthy after being limited due to injuries in his senior campaign, Lasco seeks a return to the form of his junior season, when he rushed for 1,115 yards and tallied 1,471 total yards from scrimmage. Over the first five games of his rookie campaign, he has carried it six times for 17 yards and has made two receptions for 11 yards, while adding five special teams stops.

WIDE RECEIVERS

BRANDON COLEMAN

• Originally signed by New Orleans out of Rutgers following the 2014 NFL Draft, the Forestville, Md. native won a roster spot on the 2015 opening day roster, going on to appear in all 16 games with four starts. Coleman finished the 2015 season with 30 receptions for 454 yards and two touchdowns. Over five games played with one start in 2016, he has made 12 receptions for 116 yards. On Sept. 26 against Atlanta, he posted a season-high seven receptions for a season-high 78 yards.

BRANDIN COOKS

• The club's first-round selection in the 2014 NFL Draft, Cooks recorded his first-career 1,000-yard season in 2015, leading the team in receiving with 84 grabs for 1,138 yards (13.5 avg.) and a team-leading nine TDs. His 84 receptions were the most by a Saints receiver since Marques Colston hauled in 84 in 2010. In Week One against the Raiders, he was on the receiving end of a 98-yard TD, the longest pass play in franchise history and the longest scoring offensive play in franchise history. Against Carolina on Oct. 16, he recorded a career-high 173 yards receiving, including an 87-yard TD reception, the second-longest in the NFL in 2016. Overall in five games with three starts in 2016, he has posted 25 receptions for 428 yards (17.1 avg.) with three TDs, while adding 19 yards on three rushes.

• After concluding a collegiate career at Ball State that saw him leave the school ranked second in club record books in receptions (223) and receiving yardage (2,991), Snead then entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with Cleveland in 2014. Earning a roster spot in the 2015 preseason, the Muskegon Heights, Mich. native appeared in 15 games with eight starts and made 69 receptions for 984 yards (14.3 avg.) and three TDs. He began his second season in the NFL by catching nine passes for a career-high 172 yards and one TD in Week One against Oakland. Over four games played with one start in 2016, he has caught 19 passes for 296 yards (15.6) and two TDs.

EXPLOSIVE PLAYS

In Week One against Oakland, WR Brandin Cooks caught a 98-yard touchdown that was the longest pass play in franchise history and the longest offensive play in franchise history. Against Carolina on Oct. 16, Brees and Cooks connected for an 87-yard score, with Cooks owning the two longest receptions of 2016. Over the past two seasons, Cooks (16) and Snead (8) have combined for 24 plays of 25 yards or more, 11 of which have went for touchdowns.

TIGHT ENDSCOBY FLEENER

• Originally a second-round draft pick of Indianapolis in 2012, Fleener has career totals in 65 games with 47 starts of 202 receptions for 2,391 yards (11.8 avg.) with 19 touchdowns, along with one rush for two yards and one rushing score. In his first season with the Black and Gold, he has appeared in five games with two starts, catching 19 passes for 237 yards (12.5 avg.) with two touchdowns, while adding one rush for two yards and one TD. On Oct. 16 against Carolina, Fleener recorded his first-career rushing TD on his first-career rushing attempt. It was the first rushing TD recorded by a Saints tight end since Henry Childs on October 31, 1976 against Atlanta. Fleener also became the first tight end with both a rushing TD and receiving TD in the same game since New England TE Rob Gronkowski did so on Dec. 4, 2011 against Indianapolis.

JOSH HILL

• Signed as an undrafted free agent from Idaho State, Hill has posted 38 grabs for 363 yards with nine touchdowns, while adding 24 special teams stops over his four-year career. In 2016, he has caught two passes for 23 yards and one touchdown over two games played, both starts.

DEFENSIVE ENDSKASIM EDEBALI

• Signed by the Black and Gold as an undrafted free agent out of Boston College, Kasim Edebali first made the club's 53-man roster out of training camp in 2014 and has played in all 37 games since, making 46 tackles (32 solo), eight sacks, four passes defended, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and 21 special teams stops. In 2015, the Hamburg, Germany native played in all 16 games with one start, totaling 18 tackles (14 solo), a career-high five sacks, three passes defended, one fumble recovery and six special teams stops. Over five games played with one start in 2016, he has posted 10 tackles (seven solo), one sack, one pass defended and three special teams stops.

CAMERON JORDAN

• New Orleans' first choice in the 2011 NFL Draft (24th overall) out of California came to the Saints after a college career where he was one of the nation's elite pass rushers. In 2015, he started all 16 games, posting 61 tackles (39 solo), 10 sacks, seven passes defended, a forced fumble and two fumble recoveries. With 10 sacks on the season, it marked the second time in his career that he posted a double-digit sack season, becoming the ninth Saint to have multiple double-digit sack seasons. His efforts were rewarded with a Pro Bowl nomination, the second of his career. In five games played in 2016, all starts, Jordan has tallied 2.5 sacks, 24 total tackles (nine solo), one forced fumble and one pass defended. On Oct. 2 at San Diego, the two-time team captain's half sack forced a field goal in the red zone that kept the deficit under two touchdowns to force the stunning comeback.

• Jordan has posted 41.5 sacks since he entered the NFL in 2011 and over the past four seasons is only the second player, joining Houston's J.J. Watt to have 40 takedowns and 20 passes defended. During this time, the Saints own a 21-10 record when he corrals a signal-caller, and they boast a 7-0 mark when he tallies two or more sacks. On the season, he has posted 2.5 sacks.

DEFENSIVE ENDS

PAUL KRUGER

- Kruger comes to New Orleans after spending the last three seasons with Cleveland. Originally drafted by the Baltimore Ravens in the second round (57th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft out of Utah, Kruger has posted 231 tackles (144 solo), 34.0 sacks for a total loss of 203.0 yards, two interceptions, 24 passes defended, seven forced fumbles and five fumble recoveries over 103 games played with 56 starts. In 2015, the Orem, Utah native played in all 16 games with 15 starts and recorded 27 tackles and 2.5 sacks. Over four games played in 2016, three starts, he has registered 13 tackles (eight solo), one half sack, one pass defended and one fumble recovery.

DEFENSIVE TACKLES

TYELER DAVISON

- After being selected in the fifth round (154th overall) of the 2015 NFL Draft, Davison quickly impressed in the preseason, earning a spot on the 53-man roster. Appearing in all 16 games with five starts in his rookie season, he posted 26 tackles (15 solo) and 1.5 sacks for a total loss of eight yards. He has started four games in 2016, posting 10 tackles, six of which have been solo tackles.

NICK FAIRLEY

- With a commitment to improving the defense during the offseason, the former Auburn standout was signed as an unrestricted free agent from the Rams, after originally being drafted in the 2011 NFL Draft 13th overall by the Detroit Lions. Over his five-year career, Fairley has played in 66 games with 35 starts and has recorded 186 tackles (111 solo), 17.5 sacks, four passes defended, five forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries. The Mobile, Ala. native has started all five games for the Black and Gold in 2016, recording 23 tackles (14 solo) and 3.5 sacks. On Oct. 2 at San Diego, he recorded a crucial takedown of QB Philip Rivers on the Chargers' final drive to help secure a Saints victory. In just five games, he is already 2.5 sacks away from tying his career-high six sacks set in 2013.

JOHN JENKINS

- With Jenkins' imposing size, tremendous strength and the ability to take on multiple blockers, Jenkins has been a contributor to the Saints defensive front since originally being selected by New Orleans in the third round (82nd overall) of the 2013 NFL Draft. Over his career, the former Georgia standout has posted totals of 145 tackles (74 solo), 1.5 sacks, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one pass defended over 47 games played with 22 starts. In five games played with one start in 2016, Jenkins has tallied nine tackles (five solo).

YOUTH ALONG THE LINE

New Orleans used the 2016 NFL Draft to strengthen their defensive line, using two of their first four picks on the front four.

DAVID ONYEMATA

- Onyemata was chosen with the team's fourth round pick (120th overall) after a stellar career at the University of Manitoba of the CIS, becoming the first member of the Bisons program to be drafted. In 37 career games, he posted 166 tackles, 9.5 sacks, two passes defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. As a senior, the Lagos, Nigeria native was named a Canada West all-star for the second straight campaign, an all-Canadian for the first time and claimed the J.P. Metras Trophy as the top down lineman in CIS football. He finished second in the conference and ninth in the country with five sacks in eight league games and also ranked second in Canada West in tackles for a loss (7.5) and 12th in overall tackles (38.5). Overall in nine contests, all which he started at nose tackle, Onyemata made 50 stops, five sacks, one pass defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. Over five games played in his rookie season, he has collected 11 tackles (six solo).

SHELDON RANKINS

- The third defensive lineman selected in the 2016 NFL Draft (12th overall), Rankins played in 46 games along the defensive line at Louisville, producing 133 tackles (72 solo), 31.5 tackles for loss and 18 sacks during his collegiate career. In his senior campaign, the former Cardinals standout racked up a single-season career-high 58 tackles (28 solo), 13 stops for loss, six sacks, one pass defended and a fumble recovery returned 46 yards for a touchdown. Rankins was named second-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference following his efforts.

LINEBACKERS

The Saints used free agency to really revamp the linebacker corps, mixing in key offseason acquisitions with returning veterans.

STEPHON ANTHONY

- In his rookie campaign, Anthony won a starting job at MLB during the preseason and started all 16 games. Anthony led the team with a franchise rookie-record 144 tackles, including 99 solo stops, ranked first among NFL rookies. He was a consensus All-Rookie selection. In 2015 against Carolina, he forced a fumble and returned it 31 yards for his first TD, and followed that up with an 82-yard two-point conversion return after a blocked PAT kick attempt, marking the first time in history that a PAT had been blocked for a two-point conversion since the rule change before the 2015 season. In his sophomore season, he has appeared in five games (two starts) and has posted five tackles (three solo), including one tackle for loss.

DANNELL ELLERBE

- Acquired from Miami in an offseason trade in 2015, this Georgia product enters his eighth season in the NFL and his second with New Orleans. Over his career, he has played both on the inside and the outside in 3-4 and 4-3 defenses and possesses the speed to pursue on the outside and the size to stop the run on the interior. With three clubs, he's appeared in 68 career regular season contests with 34 starts and has posted 338 tackles (249 solo), 6.5 sacks, three interceptions, 13 passes defended, one forced fumble, four fumble recoveries, 18 special teams stops and one coverage forced fumble. In his first season with the Saints, he posted 45 tackles (39 solo), a pass defended, his first career forced fumble and a fumble recovery over six games played with four starts.

JAMES LAURINAITIS

- The only player in the NFL with 15 or more sacks and 10 or more INTs since coming into the league in 2009, the former Ohio State standout came to the Saints after starting every game of his professional career over seven years with the St. Louis Rams. Over 115 games, he has posted 1,039 tackles, 16.5 sacks, 10 interceptions, 38 passes defended, four forced fumbles and eight fumble recoveries. Over three starts in his first season with New Orleans, he has tallied 24 tackles (14 solo), one pass defended and one fumble recovery. He missed his first-career game at San Diego on Oct. 2 with a quad injury.

PLAYMAKER

Laurinaitis has shown to have a nose for the football since arriving in the NFL, ranking tied for sixth in interceptions among active linebackers.

LB MICHAEL MAUTI

• After being picked up off of waivers prior to the start of the 2015 regular season, the Mandeville native felt right at home on the club's special teams units, leading the team with 12 stops in 2015. He also blocked a punt that he recovered for a touchdown vs. Atlanta in Week Six, making both he and his father Rich, the only father-son combination in franchise history to each score a touchdown, each having one on a blocked punt. In 2016, Mauti has continued his stellar play on special teams, leading the club with six special teams stops.

73 JAHRI EVANS G

HEIGHT: 6-4 WEIGHT: 318

COLLEGE: BLOOMSBURG

JOINED SAINTS: D4-06

NFL EXPERIENCE: 11

BORN: 8/22/1983

NFL CAREER – Originally a fourth-round pick (108th overall) in 2006 out of Bloomsburg, Evans has been voted to the Pro Bowl in six of his last seven seasons and is widely regarded as among the NFL's top linemen, with the Saints finishing in the top 10 offensively in each of his 10 seasons, leading the league five times. Since Evans' first Pro Bowl selection in 2009, no guard has been selected to as many Pro Bowls and tackle Joe Thomas is the only offensive lineman to have been selected more (seven). A powerful run blocker and polished in pass protection, Evans has started all 153 games he's appeared in for the Saints at right guard, ranking 10th on the club's all-time games played list. Evans' 153 games played are the second-most games played by a Saints offensive lineman, behind only Stan Brock (186). In 2015, he opened 11-of-16 contests for the NFL's second-ranked offense, missing five games throughout the season with knee and ankle injuries.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Re-signed by New Orleans Saints, 9/7/16; Released by Seahawks, 9/3/16; Signed by Seattle Seahawks, 8/6/16; Contract Terminated, 2/12/16; Signed to a one-year contract extension, 4/1/15; Re-signed to a seven-year contract, 5/11/10; Re-signed to a one-year contract (RFA), 4/21/09; Signed to a three-year contract, 7/25/06; Selected in the fourth round (108th overall) of the 2006 NFL Draft by the Saints.

HONORS – 2014: Pro Bowl; 2013: Pro Bowl, Associated Press second-team All-Pro, USA Football All-Fundamentals Team; 2012: Pro Bowl (starter), Associated Press first-team All-Pro; 2011: Pro Bowl (starter), Associated Press first-team All-Pro; PFWA/Pro Football Weekly All-NFL and All-NFC; The Sporting News All-Pro; Madden Most Valuable Protectors of the Year (Offensive Line Award); Madden Most Valuable Protectors Award (Week Nine, Offensive Line); 2010: Pro Bowl (starter), Associated Press first-team All-Pro; PFWA/Pro Football Weekly All-NFL and All-NFC; The Sporting News All-Pro, 100 Greatest Players (No. 42); Madden Most Valuable Protectors Award (Week Six, Offensive Line). 2009: Pro Bowl (starter), Associated Press first-team All-Pro; PFWA/

2014 – Appeared in all 16 games with two starts, rushing for 85 yards and a TD on 24 attempts, while adding four receptions for 23 yards. Voted to Pro Bowl and voted an AP first team All-Pro...Rushed for his only TD on season in opener at Seattle, Sept. 4. Punched it in from two yards out for his only attempt in the game...Rushed for 20 yards on season-high five carries vs. Chicago, Nov. 9...Finished with season-high 22 yards on four attempts at Tampa Bay, Dec. 21. 2013 – Played in 15 games with six starts and appeared in team's playoff contest. Rushed for 38 yards and a TD on 10 carries and caught 13 passes for 81 yards, while registering four special teams tackles. Named a Pro Bowl alternate following a season in which he helped Green Bay finish in the top 10 in both rushing (seventh) and passing (sixth) for the first time since 2004. Blocked for Eddie Lacy as he rushed for 1,178 yards, the most by a rookie in team history, as Lacy was selected to the Pro Bowl and named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year... Started vs. Washington, Sept. 15, but sustained a hamstring injury during the game that would force him to miss Week Three contest at Cincinnati, just the third game he had missed due to injury during career...Caught season-high three passes for 11 yards (3.7 avg.) at N.Y. Giants, Nov. 17, and carried once for 12 yards, his longest run since Dec. 11, 2011...Had three carries for 12 yards (4.0 avg.) and a TD vs. Pittsburgh, Dec. 22. Two of his attempts converted key third-down plays, and the other, a one-yard TD dive in the fourth quarter, tied the game at 31 with 7:14 remaining...In NFC Wild Card matchup vs. San Francisco, 1/5/14, scored on a one-yard TD run off left guard in the fourth quarter, which gave the Packers a 17-13 lead with just over 12 minutes left. The play gave him at least one TD in each of the last five postseasons (2009-13), the only NFL player to do so over that span and the second in team history (Dorsey Levens, 1993-98) to score at least one TD in five straight postseasons. In addition to the TD run, caught a pair of eight-yard passes, both converting third downs on scoring drives. 2012 – Played in 14 games with three starts and appeared in both playoff contests. Rushed for 63 yards and a touchdown on 23 carries (2.7 avg.) and matched his career high with 15 receptions for a career-best 148 receiving yards (9.9 avg.). open the game's scoring late in the first quarter at Indianapolis, Oct. 7...Was a gameday inactive vs. Jacksonville, Oct. 28, for just the third time in his career and the first due to injury, snapping a streak of 46 consecutive games played (including playoffs)...Posted a season-high 17 rushing yards on four attempts (4.3 avg.) and added a career-high 49 receiving yards on three grabs (16.3 avg.), highlighted by his career-long 32-yard catch-and-run in the second quarter at N.Y. Giants, Nov. 25... In the club's Wild Card contest vs. Minnesota, 1/5/13, scored TDs on back-to-back possessions sandwiched around halftime, first on a three-yard rushing touchdown that capped a two-minute drive before the break and then on a nine-yard reception that finished the offense's opening drive of the second half. With the scores, became the first player in franchise history to register a rushing touchdown and a receiving touchdown in two different postseason games (at Atlanta, Jan. 15, 2011). 2011 – Appeared in all 16 games for the fourth time in five seasons, making three starts. Also played in the team's playoff contest. Selected as the Pro Bowl starter and also earned second-team All-Pro recognition from the Associated Press. Matched his career high with six total touchdowns, the most among Green Bay's running backs, and led the team with four rushing touchdowns. Finished the season with 78 yards on 30 carries (2.6 avg.) and added 15 receptions for 77 yards (5.1 avg.). Helped clear the way for both James Starks (578) and Grant (559) to become the first Green Bay tandem to each rush for 550-plus yards since Edgar Bennett and Dorsey Levens in 1996. Registered three tackles on special teams...Carried twice for five yards (2.5 avg.), with a one-yard touchdown run, and caught two passes for seven yards (3.5 avg.) vs. New Orleans, Sept. 8...Kuhn's lone rush came on a goal-line carry in the fourth quarter that he took up the middle for a two-yard TD vs. Tampa Bay, Nov. 20...Carried a season-high 10 times for a season-best 46 yards (4.6 avg.) vs. Oakland, Dec. 11, as the offense matched its season-high rushing total with 136 yards on 24 carries (5.7 avg.)...Appeared on both offense and special teams before sustaining a knee injury in the third quarter that kept him out the remainder of the game in the team's NFC Divisional Round matchup vs. N.Y. Giants, 1/15/12. Scored the Packers' first TD with an eight-yard catch from Rodgers on the first play of the second quarter. Marked the third consecutive postseason that he scored a TD as he joined Saints WR Devery Henderson as the only players in the league to accomplish that feat from 2009-11.
