ARIZONA CARDINALS (4-4-1) VS. MINNESOTA VIKINGS (5-4) U.S. Bank Stadium | Nov. 20, 2016 | 11:00 AM

THIS WEEK'S GAME

The Cardinals travel to Minnesota this week to take on the Vikings in the first of back-to-back road games for Arizona (Week 12 @ Atlanta). The Cardinals and Vikings are squaring off for the seventh time in the last nine years and Arizona is looking for its first road win at Minnesota since 1977.

This week's matchup against the Vikings begins a four game stretch vs. teams that currently hold a winning record and have combined for a 21-15-1 mark so far this season. Three of those contests - and five of Arizona's final seven games overall - will take place on the road. The Cardinals are making their first-ever appearance at U.S. Bank Stadium on Sunday.

Following a bye in Week 9, the Cardinals opened the second half of the 2016 schedule with a 23-20 victory over the San Francisco 49ers last week at University of Phoenix Stadium. Arizona took an early 14-0 lead and led 20-10 at the end of the first half but - aided by three second half turnovers by the Cardinals - San Francisco tied the game at 20 with just under two minutes remaining in regulation. Arizona was able to respond on the game's closing drive, going 69 yards in 12 plays in the final 1:55. K Chandler Catanzaro connected on a 34-yard FG as time expired to even the Cardinals record at 4-4-1 on the year. RB David Johnson went over 100 yards from scrimmage for the ninth consecutive game and scored both a rushing and receiving TD in a game for the first time in his career. QB Carson Palmer threw for a season-high 376 yards as a pair of Arizona WRs, Larry Fitzgerald (12 for 133) and Michael Floyd (5 for 101) went over 100 yards receiving.

The defensive effort was led by LB Chandler Jones and DT Calais Campbell. Jones took down 49ers QB Colin Kaepernick twice for his first multi-sack game as a member of the Cardinals. Campbell finished with three tackles, a sack, a tackle for loss and six QB pressures.

Minnesota fell to 5-4 on the year following a 26-20 loss to Washington at FedEx Field. Down 14-0 early in the second quarter, the Vikings fought back to take a 20-14 lead entering halftime. However, the Redskins scored the game's final 12 points on four FGs to seal the victory.

Next week Arizona travels to Atlanta to take on the NFC South-leading Falcons. Minnesota heads to Detroit for an appearance on Thanksgiving day.

Two-time NFL Coach of the Year (2012, 2014), Bruce Arians is in his fourth season in Arizona and 24th season coaching in the NFL. Arians became an NFL head coach for the first time when the Cardinals hired him on January 17, 2013. Arizona has posted a 39-20-1 record (including postseason) under Arians, who is just the 10th coach in NFL history to post three straight 10+ win seasons in his first three years as a head coach in the NFL. Including his tenure as interim head coach with Indy in 2012, Arians has posted a 47-21-1 regular season record as head coach. Among active NFL head coaches, only Bill Belichick (53) and Pete Carroll (50) have more wins in his last 69 games.

Hired as the ninth head coach in Vikings franchise history on January 15, 2014, Mike Zimmer is in his third season at the helm in Minnesota and 23rd season as a coach in the NFL. Coming off a 2015 campaign in which he led the Vikings to an 11-5 record and first division title since 2009, Zimmer has the Vikings at 5-4 and in second place in the NFC North this season. Zimmer has a 23-18 record in the regular season as head coach in Minnesota. Prior to taking over with the Vikings, Zimmer spent the previous 14 seasons as a defensive coordinator with Dallas (2000-06), Atlanta (2007) and Cincinnati (2008-13). Zimmer has been a part of 12 playoff teams in his NFL tenure and teams that have won eight division titles.

LAST WEEK'S GAME

CARDINALS 23, 49ers 20 November 13, 2016 – University of Phoenix Stadium (65,127)

Coming off their bye, the Cardinals opened the 2nd half of the season at home against the 49ers. They took a 14-0 lead early in the 2nd quarter but allowed SF to stay close and the Niners eventually tied the game at 20 with 1:55 left. However, that was enough time for AZ to move into position for a game-winning FG try and Chandler Catanzaro's 34-yarder won it as time expired. The victory upped the Cards record to 4-4-1 and kept them in the thick of the playoff race while SF dropped its 8th straight to fall to 1-8.

The 49ers seemed intent on not letting the Cards beat them on the ground which opened up AZ's passing game. Larry Fitzgerald caught 12 passes for 133 yards while fellow WR Michael Floyd also eclipsed 100 yards (5-101). Both delivered athletic and critical receptions throughout the game including on the game-winning drive. Carson Palmer threw for 376 yards while David Johnson scored 2 TDs.

The team's traded punts on the game's first 4 drives before AZ opened the scoring with a 3-yard Palmer-to-Johnson TD pass on 3rd-n-goal. Later in the 1st quarter, Jeremy Kerley fumbled a SF punt return and Gabe Martin recovered at the AZ44. A defensive pass interference call on the next snap moved it 38 yards to the SF 18 and on the next play Johnson burst down the left sideline, diving to the pylon for another TD. The Niners answered on the ensuing drive by moving 75 yards in 6 plays and Kerley's 17-yard TD catch of a Colin Kaepernick pass made it 14-7. After the teams traded FGs, AZ led 17-10 with 1:32 remaining in the 1st half and got the ball back at its own 18 and 2 timeouts. Palmer then completed 7 of 8 passes for 68 yards – including 3 for 40 yards to Floyd – as part of an 81-yard drive that ended with a 19-yard Catanzaro FG as the half expired.

The Cards were poised to add to their 20-10 lead early in the 3rd when a flea flicker to Fitzgerald picked up 33 yards to the SF7 but 2 plays later Palmer lost a fumble on a sack by LB Eli Harold. The 49ers would convert the turnover into a 53-yard Phil Dawson FG that made it a 7-point game. Late in the 3rd Palmer appeared to hit WR JJ Nelson for a key pick-up but instead the pass ricocheted off Nelson's chest to S Eric Reid for an INT. The 49ers did not capitalize and with 3:24 left, the Cards held a 20-13 lead and had it near midfield. But Palmer was INT'd by LB Gerald Hodges and the 49ers took over at their own 43 with 3:13 remaining. By the 2-minute warning they had reached the AZ4 and on 3rd-n-2 from there, Kaepernick ran it in to tie the game at 20. After the kickoff, the Cards took over at their own 15 with 1:51 left and 3 timeouts. Palmer would complete 4 of his next 6 passes for 60 yards to move into FG range. The first of those completions was a huge leaping catch by Floyd near the sideline that moved it from the AZ15 to 41. AZ ultimately advanced to the SF16 before Catanzaro hit the 34-yard game-winner at the gun.

NATIVE SONS RETURN

When the Cardinals travel to Minnesota to take on the Vikings this week, two of the most highly decorated prep athletes ever to come out of the Twin Cities - WRs Larry Fitzgerald and Michael Floyd - will be facing their hometown team in their home state. Both are natives of Minnesota, where they were also All-State and All-American WRs during their prep careers.

Floyd grew up in St. Paul and attended Cretin-Derham Hall High School, which is less than 10 miles from Fitzgerald's prep alma mater, Academy of the Holy Angels, in Minneapolis.

Prep Breakdown - Floyd and Fitzgerald

Floyd

- Two-time All-State and All-America selection
- Had 122 receptions for 2,487 yards and 33 TDs during his career
- Totaled 1,247 yards and 17 TDs during his senior season
- Also lettered in basketball

Fitzgerald

- Two-time All-State and All-America selection
- Had 127 receptions for 2,601 yards and 29 TDs during his career
- Totaled 1,254 yards and 17 TDs during his senior season
- Also lettered in basketball

BOTH HAVE TIES TO THE VIKINGS

Fitzgerald grew up around the Vikings organization, serving as a ball boy for the team during the tenure of Dennis Green. Including preseason, this week's trip will mark the seventh time Fitzgerald has played against the Vikings in Minnesota. His 172-yard performance on 11/26/06 remains his career-high for receiving yards in the regular season.

Floyd - who is making his third trip back to Minnesota (2012, 2014) - also has history with the Vikings organization. In 2007 he was named to the Vikings High School All-State team, and he served as the honorary captain for the Vikings-Bears Monday Night showdown in Week 15 that season.

FIRST TIME AT U.S. BANK STADIUM

The Cardinals will make their first appearance at the newly-opened U.S. Bank Stadium this Sunday when they take on the Vikings. That will leave the Colts Lucas Oil Stadium as the only current venue in the NFL in which the Cardinals have yet to play.

WEEK 11 - HEISMAN WINNING QBS COLLIDE

When Arizona and Minnesota face off on Sunday, there will be a battle of former Heisman Trophy winners who were selected first overall in the NFL Draft - Cardinals QB Carson Palmer (2002 Heisman winner; 1st overall selection in 2003) and Vikings QB Sam Bradford (2008 Heisman winner; 1st overall selection in 2010).

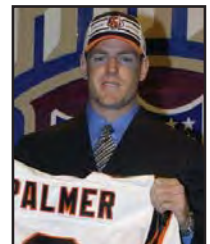

Palmer and Bradford are two of nine Heisman Trophy winners active in the NFL. They are two of just four active Heisman winners who were drafted first overall, joining Bucs QB Jameis Winston and Panthers QB Cam Newton.

After facing Bradford this week, Palmer will have faced all three other QBs in a span of nine games this season. This week's game marks the third time in the last four seasons Palmer and Bradford have squared off.

Palmer and Bradford are among 19 former Heisman winners selected first overall in the NFL Draft, dating back to the University of Chicago's Jay Berwanger in 1936.

With the retirement of DB Charles Woodson following the 2015 season, Palmer is the senior-most active Heisman Trophy winner.

A RECORD PACE CONTINUES

RB David Johnson totaled 101 yards from scrimmage (55 rushing, 46 receiving) against the 49ers last week. In doing so, he extended his franchise record for consecutive games with 100+ yards from scrimmage to nine games. Johnson's nine consecutive games with 100+ yards from scrimmage is the longest active streak in the NFL.

Rnk	Player (Team)
1	David Johnson (AZ)
2	Melvin Gordon (SD)
3t	Jordan Howard (Chi)

With his performance against the 49ers last week, Johnson became the first NFL player to post 100+ yards from scrimmage in each of the first nine games of a season since Edgerrin James did so with Indianapolis in 2005.

His 1,213 scrimmage yards in 2016 are the most in franchise history through the first nine games of a season and they also rank second in the NFL in 2016.

NFL Scrimmage Yardage Leaders (2016)

4	Melvin Gordon (SD)	1,184	838	346
5	Julio Jones (Atl)	1,105	0	1,105

Now in his second season, Johnson has made just 14 starts in his NFL career. He has posted 100+ yards from scrimmage in 13 of those contests. The lone exception was the 2015 regular season finale vs. Seattle (59 yards) when he had just two touches in the second half.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR...

WITH A WIN THIS WEEK...

- Arizona would snap a seven-game winless streak on the road at Minnesota and earn their first road win against the Vikings since 1977.
- The Cardinals would improve to 28-8 against non-division opponents under head coach Bruce Arians. That would include a 7-0 record against teams from the NFC North and a 2-0 record vs. the Vikings in that span.
- Arians would earn his 39th victory as Cardinals head coach, tying Jim Hanifan for third place on the franchise all-time wins list.

MILESTONES WITHIN REACH

WR Larry Fitzgerald

- With a reception, Fitzgerald would extend his consecutive games with a catch streak to 189 straight.
- With 9 receptions, Fitzgerald would pass Hall of Fame WR Tim Brown (1,094) for 5th place on the NFL's all-time receptions list.
- With 10 receptions, Fitzgerald would become the first player in franchise history post 10+ catches in three consecutive games.
- With 133 receiving yards, Fitzgerald would pass WR Andre Johnson (14,185) for 10th place on the NFL's all-time receiving yardage list.

RB David Johnson

- With 100+ scrimmage yards, Johnson would extend his franchise record to 10 consecutive games with 100+ scrimmage yards.
- With 100+ yards from scrimmage, Johnson would join Edgerrin James (2000 & 2005 with Indy) and Larry Brown (1972 with Washington) as the only players in NFL history to post 100+ scrimmage yards in each of the team's first 10 games in a season.
- With two TDs, Johnson would become just the fourth player in franchise history - and first since MacArthur Lane (12) in 1970 - with at least 12 TDs in the first 10 games of a season.

QB Carson Palmer

- Needs three TD passes to tie Hall of Famer Joe Montana (273) for 15th place on the NFL's all-time passing TD list.
- With 300+ passing yards, Palmer would join Kurt Warner (5 in 2008) as the only players in franchise history with at least four consecutive 300-yard games.

DT Calais Campbell

- With two sacks, Campbell would tie Simeon Rice (53.5) for second place on the franchise all-time sacks list.

CB Marcus Cooper

- With an INT, Cooper would have four INTs in 2016 and establish a new career high for a single season.

A DECADE OF DISTINCTION

The Cardinals have been in the Bidwill family since Pro Football Hall of Famer Charles Bidwill purchased the team in 1933. Charles' son Bill handled day-to-day operations for decades before passing the torch to his son, Michael, who is now in his 10th season as team President.

Since Michael Bidwill took over as President in 2007, the Cards have gone .500 or better in seven of nine seasons (just twice in previous 20 years) and posted four double-digit win seasons (none in previous 20).

The 2015 season was a banner year for the organization as the team won the NFC West, set a franchise record for wins in the regular season (13) and earned the first postseason bye in team history.

Of the Cardinals seven all-time postseason wins, five have come during Bidwill's nine years as team President. Arizona has played in nine postseason contests since Bidwill took over in 2007. The Cardinals played just seven total playoff games in their entire history prior to his tenure.

Michael spearheaded the effort that led to the creation of University of Phoenix Stadium, which preceded that aforementioned run of on-field success. The Cardinals have sold out all 112 games played (preseason and post-season included) and the stadium since it opened in 2006; in 18 years at Sun Devil Stadium, just 12 games were sold out in time to be televised locally.

The Cardinals success under Bidwill has greatly elevated the team's popularity both locally and nationally. That fact is best measured in the record-setting ratings for Cardinals game broadcasts. Locally, the team established a host of franchise record for the TV broadcasts in both 2015 and 2014. Nationally, the team's exposure is at an all-time high. Having never appeared in more than three primetime games in a single season, the Cardinals played an unprecedented five primetime games during the 2015 regular season and posted a perfect 5-0 record those matchups.

Michael was also the driving force behind the critically-acclaimed series "All Or Nothing" that debuted on Amazon Video in July of this year.

Michael was pivotal not only in helping Arizona land Super Bowl XLIX - the second in eight seasons at University of Phoenix Stadium - but he also secured the 2015 Pro Bowl. Played a week apart, the game delivered a record economic impact of $720 million to the region.

Below is a look at the organization's success in the nine seasons since Michael Bidwill was named team President.

KEIM LAYS THE FOUNDATION

The Cardinals are coming off three consecutive 10+ win seasons in Steve Keim's first three years as GM. As soon as he was elevated to the position in January of 2013, Keim began re-shaping the roster.

The overhaul during his first three years was dramatic - and resulted in a 34-14 record in that span. During his first 36 months as GM, Keim made 592 roster moves, including 182 moves in 2015 as the Cards established a franchise record for wins (13).

He was named Pro Football Talk's Executive of the Year in both 2013 and 2014, and added Sporting News Executive of the Year in 2014.

The 2015 campaign was one of the most successful seasons in franchise history. In addition to establishing a record for wins, the team also set franchise marks for total offense, points scored and total TDs. Arizona had the NFL's #1 ranked offense last season, and the Cardinals finished with a defense that ranked in the top five as well. The roster that has accomplished those feats was built from the ground up by Keim and his staff.

- Of the 53 players on the Cardinals current roster, 35 appeared in at least one game for Arizona last season.

- Of the 37 players who started at least one game for Arizona last season, 27 are on the current roster.

- Of the 53 players on the Cardinals current roster, 48 were acquired by Keim during his time as GM.

- As of this week, the Cardinals have made a total of 192 roster moves dating back to January of this year.

PUTTING TOGETHER A PRO BOWL ROSTER

All seven Arizona players selected to the Pro Bowl in 2015 - special teamer Justin Bethel, DT Calais Campbell, WR Larry Fitzgerald, G Mike Iupati, S Tyrann Mathieu, QB Carson Palmer and CB Patrick Peterson - are back this season.

In the offseason, the Cardinals acquired 2015 Pro Bowl LB Chandler Jones in a trade with the Patriots. The team also signed G Evan Mathis (2013 and 2014 Pro Bowler) in free agency.

Arizona has nine players on its roster who have been selected to the Pro Bowl, including eight who were chosen in 2015.

Jermaine Gresham (TE)	2	2011-12

During each of his first three offseasons as GM, Keim signed a free agent who went on to make the Pro Bowl that season (Mike Iupati-2015, Antonio Cromartie-2014, John Abraham-2013). The Cardinals were the only team in the NFL to accomplish such a feat.

Long History with the Organization

Keim was promoted to General Manager on January 8, 2013 after 14 seasons in the Cardinals organization.

The 43-year old originally joined Arizona in May, 1999 as a college scout in the east. He was promoted to Director of College Scouting in 2006, Director of Player Personnel in 2008, and then was promoted to Vice President, Player Personnel in May, 2012.

NINE DAYS - TWO GREAT HIRES

In a nine-day span in January of 2013, Cardinals President Michael Bidwill hired GM Steve Keim (Jan. 8) and head coach Bruce Arians (Jan. 17). In the resulting three seasons, the Cardinals won more games (34) than any other three-year span in franchise history.

In January of 2013 there were eight head coach openings. None were hired later than Arians and four of the eight no longer hold those jobs. Keim was one of seven GMs hired in January of 2013. On the seven, only he and Carolina's Dave Gettleman had their teams in the postseason in both 2014 and 2015.

The victory over San Francisco last week was Bruce Arians' 38th win as head coach in Arizona. He sits alone in fourth place on the franchise all-time wins list.

Arians needs two wins to reach 40 with Arizona and move into third place on the franchise all-time wins list.

THREE STRAIGHT WITH 10 WINS

In leading the Cardinals to a franchise record 13 wins in 2015, Bruce Arians became just the 10th head coach in NFL history to win 10+ games in each of his first three seasons as a head coach in the league. Of the 10, Arians is one of three to inherit a team that won fewer than six games the year before.

TWO-TIME COACH OF THE YEAR

Bruce Arians was named the Associated Press 2014 NFL Coach of the Year after leading the Cardinals to an 11-5 record and a berth in the post-season.

It marked the second time in three years Arians was awarded NFL Coach of the Year honors (Indianapolis, 2012). He became the first coach in NFL history to be named Coach of the Year multiple times in a three-year span with multiple teams.

Arians is one of 12 coaches in NFL history to win the award multiple times and the sixth to be honored with multiple teams. He is also one of just six coaches in NFL history to earn AP Coach of the Year honors twice in a three-year span.

WINS BY DIVISION

The Cardinals have a 27-8 record against teams outside the division under Arians. That includes a 16-4 record against teams from the NFC East, NFC North and NFC South.

Cardinals Divisional Records Under Arians

Division	W-L	Division	W-L
NFC West	10-10-1	AFC West	3-1
NFC East	5-1	AFC East	1-2
NFC North	6-0	AFC North	3-1
NFC South	5-3	AFC South	4-0

This week the Cardinals square off against Minnesota. Arizona has a perfect 6-0 record against teams from the NFC North under Arians, including a 1-0 record against the Vikings (23-20 victory in 2015).

A STRONG 1ST IMPRESSION

Now in his fifth NFL season and fourth season with the Cardinals, James Bettcher is in his second year as the team's defensive coordinator. After he was promoted to the position in February of 2015, Bettcher led one of the league's highest-rated units.

Under their first-year coordinator the Cardinals defense was a major factor in the team's 13-3 record in 2015. Arizona finished the 2015 season with the NFL's fifth-ranked defense.

NFL Leaders – Total Defense (2015)

Rnk	Team	Y/G
1	Denver	283.1
2	Seattle	291.8
3	Houston	310.2
4	NY Jets	318.6
5	Arizona	321.7

Below are some other highlights for Bettcher's first season in charge:

Cardinals 2015 Defensive Highlights

- Ranked 6th in run def. (91.3 ypg) and 7th in pass def. (230.4 ypg)
- Ranked 2nd in the NFL with 33 total takeaways
- Tied with KC for NFL lead with 6 defensive TDs
- Tied for NFL lead with 4 INT return TDs
- Ranked 2nd in the NFL with 140 points off turnovers

A QUICK ASCENT

Bettcher was elevated to defensive coordinator in just his fourth season as an NFL coach, having entered the league in 2012. After nine years in the college ranks, he was hired by the Colts to serve as special assistant to the head coach/outside linebackers coach. When Bruce Arians was hired as head coach in Arizona in 2013, he named Bettcher his linebackers coach, a position he held for two seasons before his promotion to defensive coordinator in 2015.

FROM 32ND TO 1ST UNDER GOODY

When Harold Goodwin was named the Cardinals Offensive Coordinator in 2013, he was handed the reins of an offense that - in 2012 - finished the year as the league's 32nd ranked unit. Things changed quickly under his watch.

In 2015 - his third at the helm of the offense - the Cardinals had the top ranked offense in the NFL for the first time in franchise history. The team also set team single-season records for points (489), TDs (59), TD passes (35), total net yards (6,533), first downs (373) and first downs passing (237).

Cardinals 2015 Offensive Highlights

- Outscored opponents 489-313 in 2015. That +176 point differential was the second-best total in franchise history (+184 in 1925).
- After finishing the 2014 season ranked 31st in the NFL in rushing, ranked 8th overall in 2015. Marked the first time since 1984 (9th overall) that the Cardinals finished a season ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in rushing.
- Scored at least 30 points in a franchise record nine games in 2015. Arizona's nine games with 30+ points were the most in the NFL.
- Averaged an NFL-high 6.28 yards per play (6,533 yards on 1,041 plays). The Cards easily led the NFL in average yards per pass play (7.84) last season.
- The Cardinals gave up just 27 sacks on 562 pass attempts in 2015. Arizona's 27 sacks allowed tied for the fourth-fewest in the NFL last season.

A Decade With Arians

The 2016 season is the 10th consecutive season Goodwin has worked under Bruce Arians. The two previously coached together with Pittsburgh (2007-11) and Indianapolis (2012). Goodwin served as an offensive assistant with the Steelers and was the Colts offensive line coach.

ATHLETIC TRAINER PROGRAM IN AZ

The NFL Foundation, in collaboration with Gatorade, the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA), the Korey Stringer Institute (KSI) and the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS), recently announced the launch of a pilot program to provide funding to public high schools with football programs that have limited or no access to an athletic trainer. The program is an expansion of the athletic trainer initiatives developed and implemented by the NFL Foundation and its partners over the past two years.

The NFL Foundation will award up to 150 grants to high schools in the four pilot states – Arizona, Illinois, Oklahoma and Oregon. Each grant will be in the amount of $35,000 awarded over a three-year period to fund an athletic training program.

"This is an initiative that was originally developed at the team level in which the Cardinals participated and our community has benefitted," said Cardinals President and NFL Foundation board member Michael Bidwill. "The NFL Foundation is excited to expand the athletic trainer pilot program so that more high schools and athletes can benefit from it. NFL teams have long recognized the value and expertise of athletic trainers and this program will help provide similar support at the high school level."

YEAR 2 OF THE BIDWILL FELLOWSHIP

Prior to the 2015 season, the Cardinals established the Bill Bidwill Coaching Fellowship, a program to provide recently-retired NFL players with the opportunity to gain coaching experience at the highest level. The inaugural participant was former Pro Bowl LB Levon Kirkland, who returned for his second season in 2016 assisting LBs coach Bob Sanders as the OLBs coach.

As Cardinals owner, Bill Bidwill has long been at the forefront in providing opportunities to individuals regardless of race or gender. In 2010, he was honored with the Fritz Pollard Alliance's Paul "Tank" Younger Award for promoting diversity in the NFL. In 1978, Adele Harris became the first African American female executive in the NFL when she was hired as the Cardinals director of community relations. In 1981, Bidwill hired attorney Bob Wallace, making him the first African American to handle contract negotiations for an NFL club.

Arizona was also the first NFL team with an African American GM-head coach tandem (Rod Graves/Dennis Green, 2004), and from 2013-14 the Cardinals were the only NFL team whose offensive and defensive coordinators were both African American (Harold Goodwin & Todd Bowles).

HONORING MRS. B

For the duration of the 2016 season, the Cardinals will have the initials "NJB" on stickers on their helmets in honor of Nancy Bidwill, the late wife of owner Bill Bidwill, who passed away in August.

Nancy and Bill married in September of 1960 - in a wedding that was featured in the Chicago Tribune - and celebrated their 50th anniversary in 2010. They had five children and nine grandchildren.

Nancy was a trustee at the Columbus School of Law at the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., where team President Michael Bidwill received his law degree.

CATCHES COMING IN BUNCHES

WR Larry Fitzgerald had his biggest game of the 2016 season last week vs. San Francisco, hauling in 12 receptions for 133 yards.

Fitzgerald joins Anquan Boldin (2 straight in 2005 and 2008) as the only players in franchise history with 10+ receptions in back-to-back games in a season.

Fitzgerald - who established a franchise single-season record with 109 receptions in 2015 - is on pace to shatter that mark in 2016, in his 13th NFL season. He ranks second in the NFL with 68 receptions in 2016.

DOMINANT IN THE POSTSEASON

During the 2008 postseason, WR Larry Fitzgerald had the most prolific playoff run of any wide receiver in NFL history. He shattered NFL records for receiving yards in a single postseason (546), receptions (30) and TDs (7). Fitzgerald recorded four 100-yard games in the postseason as well, a new NFL record for consecutive games with 100-yards receiving.

In the Divisional matchup vs. Green Bay last season, Fitzgerald looked just as dominant. He caught eight passes for 176 yards and scored the game-winning TD in the Cardinals OT victory over the Packers. His 176 receiving yards set a new franchise postseason record. Fitzgerald surpassed his own franchise record of 166 yards at Carolina (1/10/09) in the 2008 Divisional round.

Fitzgerald is the only player in NFL history to average at least 100+ receiving yards and a TD in every game played in the postseason.

Fitzgerald has more receiving yards (942) than any player in NFL history through his first nine career postseason games.

FLOYD GOES FOR 100

Fifth-year WR Michael Floyd - the Cardinals first round selection (13th overall) in the 2012 NFL Draft - caught five passes for 101 yards against the 49ers last week, including a key 26-yard reception on the Cardinals game-winning drive in the fourth quarter.

It was Floyd's 12th career 100-yard outing and first of the 2016 season.

Dating back to last season, Floyd now has 100+ receiving yards in six of his last 17 regular season games. Prior to that 17-game stretch, Floyd had posted 100+ receiving yards six times in 55 career games.

FLOYD HAULS IN 22ND TOUCHDOWN VS. THE JETS

Floyd caught his 20th career TD pass in Arizona's victory over the Buccaneers in Week 2. It was a one-yard reception from QB Carson Palmer in the second quarter, the shortest TD catch of his career.

In Week 4 vs. the Rams, Floyd hauled in TD reception #21 when he caught a 5-yarder from Palmer in the second quarter. In Week 6 vs. the Jets, Floyd hauled in his third TD reception of the season - and 22nd of his career - with a nine-yarder in the fourth quarter.

Prior to this season, Floyd had made a habit of covering long distances on his receptions in the NFL - especially his TD catches. Last season, he posted a team-high nine receptions of 30+ yards, including catches of 49, 45, 41 and 32 yards in the final four games.

Of his 22 career TD receptions, 13 have covered at least 20 yards.

NELSON HEATING UP IN 2016

Second-year WR J.J. Nelson - the team's fifth round selection (159th overall) in the 2015 NFL Draft out of Alabama-Birmingham - had one of the best games of his NFL career against the Panthers in Week 8, hauling in a career-high eight receptions for 79 yards and a career-high two TDs. Prior to his outing against the Panthers, Nelson's career-high for receptions in a game was four - and he had just two TD receptions in 17 career games.

With injuries hitting the Cardinals WR corps, Nelson has been given a bigger role in the offense and has responded with his production. He has 13 receptions for 192 yards and two TDs in the last three games - after totaling just four receptions for 35 yards in his first five games played this season (missed Week 2 with a shoulder injury).

Against Seattle in Week 7, Nelson hauled in three receptions for a game-high 84 yards, including a 40-yard reception in overtime.

For the season, Nelson has 17 receptions for 243 yards and two TDs, and is averaging 14.3 yards per catch.

Nelson Shined When Called Upon as a Rookie

Nelson seizing his opportunities this season isn't a surprise, as he did the exact same thing as a rookie in 2015, when he saw an increased role against the Bengals in Week 11 due to an injury to WR Michael Floyd. Nelson responded with four receptions for a game-high 142 yards (35.5 avg.) against Cincinnati, including a 64-yard TD catch in the third quarter. Nelson's 142 receiving yards were the most by a rookie in a game in 2015.

BROWN BREAKS OUT AGAINST THE RAMS

After missing the vast majority of training camp and preseason action due to a concussion, WR John Brown got off to a slow start in 2016. Through the first three games he totaled eight receptions for 92 yards.

That changed in Week 4 against the Rams. Brown more than equaled those totals in the first half vs. Los Angeles, when he had eight receptions for 95 yards at the halfway point. Brown finished the game having tied a career high with 10 receptions for 144 yards. It marked his fourth career 100-yard outing.

After catching just two passes total in the first two games this season, Brown has at least four receptions and 49 yards receiving in four his last six outings. When Brown missed the Cardinals Week 7 game vs. Seattle due to hamstring issues, it was the first game he has missed in his NFL career.

Brown Shines in First Two Seasons

In his first two seasons NFL seasons, Brown - the team's third round selection (91st overall) in the 2014 NFL Draft - was a potent weapon in the Arizona passing attack.

In his first 31 career games, he registered 113 receptions for 1,699 yards and 12 TDs. In franchise history, only three players had more receptions than Brown in their first two seasons (Larry Fitzgerald-161, Anquan Boldin-157, Frank Sanders-121).

For Fitzgerald, it was his seventh career 1,000-yard season. Of the five seasons in which the Cardinals had multiple 1,000-yard receivers, Fitzgerald has been involved in four of them.

He joins RBs Jim Brown, Barry Sanders and Emmitt Smith as the only players in NFL history to be chosen to five Pro Bowls before their 26th birthday. He is the only defensive player in NFL history to earn that distinction.

NO ONE LIKE #21

"By far just one of the best in the game, hands down. He's going to follow you from your house to his house, from the sideline to the cricket field and back."

- NY Giants All-Pro WR Odell Beckham, Jr. on CB Patrick Peterson

"I think Patrick Peterson definitely is my number one corner in my book. You know if you're playing the Cardinals and if you're the best receiver on your team, you know 21 is going to be lining up across from you."

- Steelers All-Pro WR Antonio Brown

The Cardinals selected CB Patrick Peterson with the fifth overall pick in the 2011 NFL Draft and in his first five NFL seasons he earned five Pro Bowl selections and was named first-team All-Pro three times. He has proven to be one of the most unique talents in NFL history. His most important role has been as a shutdown CB in the AZ secondary.

Peterson has started all 89 games at CB in his NFL career. Despite opposing QBs avoiding his side of the field, Peterson has registered 19 INTs since 2011, the third-highest total in the NFL during that span among active players.

MATHIEU OUT WITH SHOULDER INJURY

S Tyrann Mathieu had started every game this season and had just recently begun to display the form that made him a Defensive Player of the Year candidate in 2015 when he suffered a should injury against the Panthers in Week 8 that kept him out of last week's game vs. San Francisco.

Working his way back from the knee injury that ended his 2015 campaign early, Mathieu began playing his normal safety spot closer to the line of scrimmage for the first time in Week 5 at San Francisco. In the Cardinals victory over the Jets in Week 7 he led the team with six tackles, two passes defended and also recorded his first INT of the 2016 campaign.

All-Pro Season Cut Short in 2015

Mathieu had an All-Pro season in '15 despite the torn ACL he suffered while recording an INT at Philly in Week 15. Mathieu was named to his first career Pro Bowl and earned first-team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press.

In 14 games played last season, Mathieu registered 89 tackles, a team-high 16 passes defended, 5 INTs (TD), 11 tackles for loss and a forced fumble. His five INTs were tied for third in the NFC at the time of the injury.

MATHIEU'S 2015 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

NFC Player of the Month

Mathieu was named the "NFC Defensive Player of the Month" for his performance in November. He helped lead the Cardinals to an undefeated record in November (4-0) by posting 27 tackles (24 solo), two INTs and five passes defended. He became just the second player in team history to be named "Defensive Player of the Month" (Kwamie Lassiter, 2001).

Wreaking Havoc in the Division

In five division games last season, Mathieu registered four INTs (1 TD), 33 tackles, eight passes defended and a forced fumble. Mathieu finished the Cardinals Week 12 victory over San Francisco with a career-high 13 tackles, an INT, two passes defended and a tackle for loss.

Shining in Primetime

Mathieu finished the Sunday Night Football matchup against the Eagles in Week 15 with five tackles, an INT and a pass defended. In the Cardinals five primetime wins this season Mathieu had 34 tackles, four tackles for loss, a sack, two INTs and six passes defended.

A Career Performance Against the Niners in Week 3

Mathieu played the best game of his NFL career against the 49ers in Week 3, finishing with five tackles, a tackle for loss and two INTs. He returned the first of his two INTs 33 yards for a TD. Mathieu was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his effort against the Niners.

COOPER MATCHES CAREER TOTAL

On September 2nd the Cardinals acquired fourth-year CB Marcus Cooper in a trade with the Kansas City Chiefs. Just 16 days later, seeing his first action at CB vs. Tampa Bay (played 5 snaps on special teams in the season opener), Cooper established a career-high with two INTs against the Buccaneers and earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the first time in his career.

He returned his second INT 60 yards for a TD in the third quarter to give the Cardinals a 33-7 lead.

After hauling in his third INT of the season in the fourth quarter of the Cardinals win in San Francisco in Week 5, Cooper has as many INTs in his last eight games (3) as he had in his entire NFL career (40 games).

Cooper is one of 12 players with at least three INTs this season.

In acquiring Cooper earlier this season, the Cardinals sent a conditional seventh round pick in the 2018 NFL Draft to the Chiefs. Cooper originally entered the league as a seventh round selection (252nd overall) by the 49ers in the 2013 NFL Draft. He was released and claimed on waivers by the Chiefs where he appeared in 39 games (11 starts) between 2013-15.

JONES HAVING AN ALL-PRO YEAR

When the Cardinals completed a trade with the Patriots to acquire Pro Bowl LB Chandler Jones in March, they acquired one of the NFL's premier pass rushers. Through the first nine games this season, Jones has more than lived up to his billing as one of the league's premiere perimeter defenders.

Through nine games, Jones has 32 tackles, nine tackles for loss, a team-high 7.0 sacks, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, nine QB pressures and a team-high 17 QB hits. According to ProFootballReference.com, Jones is the only player in the NFL this season with at least 7.0 sacks, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

In the Cardinals victory over the 49ers last week, Jones recorded four tackles, 2.0 sacks, two tackles for loss and two QB hits. It marked his 11th career multi-sack performance and first as a member of the Cardinals.

AMONG THE NFL SACK LEADERS

Since entering the NFL in 2012, Jones has collected 43.0 sacks, 12 forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries and 247 tackles.

He joins Houston's J.J. Watt, Denver's Von Miller, Washington's Ryan Kerrigan and Cincinnati's Carlos Dunlap as the only five players in the NFL with 200+ tackles, 40+ sacks and 10+ forced fumbles since 2012.

Dating back to the 2013 season, his second in the NFL, Jones now has 37.0 sacks. That is the fifth-best total in the NFL during that span.

2	Justin Houston (KC)	40.5
3	Von Miller (Den)	39.5

5	Chandler Jones (AZ)	37.0

With the Cardinals in 2016, Jones had at least one sack in each of the first four games of a season for the first time in his career.

A VERSATILE DEFENDER

When the Cardinals selected Deone Bucannon in the first round (27th overall) of the 2014 NFL Draft, he became just the second safety ever selected by the team in the first round - and first since 1978.

As a rookie in 2014, Bucannon was named the PFWA's All-Rookie team at safety after recording 75 tackles, 2.0 sacks, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. What made Bucannon so unique during his inaugural season was his ability to play inside the box as a dollar linebacker.

Bucannon flourished in that role again last season as the team utilized a player with a rare combination of size and speed.

In his second NFL season, Bucannon led the team with 127 total tackles. He also tied for the team lead with 17 tackles for loss, while adding three forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, three sacks and an INT he returned 39 yards for a TD. Bucannon led or tied for the team lead in tackles in eight of 16 games last season and he had at least seven tackles in 12 of 16 games.

According to Stats, Inc., Bucannon and Carolina first-team All-Pro LB Thomas Davis were the only players in the NFL last season with 100+ tackles, 3.0+ sacks, an INT, and at least three forced fumbles.

In Week 5 at San Francisco this season, Bucannon established a new career high with 15 total tackles. Two games later he matched that total, as he finished the game against the Seahawks in Week 7 with 15 tackles. After totaling 21 tackles through the first four games, Bucannon now has 53 tackles in the last five contests - including three games with 10+ tackles.

GOLDEN BEGINS ON A SACK SPREE

Second-year LB Markus Golden registered 2.0 sacks of 49ers QB Blaine Gabbert in Week 5, giving him at least one sack in each of the first five games this season. That represents the longest streak in franchise history to begin a season and it tied the second-longest streak in franchise history overall.

The streak came to an end in Week 6 vs. the Jets.

Through the first nine games this season, Golden has totaled 40 tackles, nine tackles for loss, 6.0 sacks, a pass defended, two forced fumbles, 14 QB pressures and 11 QB hits.

CAMPBELL'S HISTORIC PERFORMANCE

DT Calais Campbell posted one of the best games of his NFL career in the Cardinals victory over San Francisco in Week 5. His final tally was four tackles, 2.0 sacks, two tackles for loss, two QB hits, an INT and a safety.

Since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982, Campbell became just the second player with 2.0+ sacks, an INT and a safety in a game, joining Baltimore's Adalius Thomas (2.0 sacks, INT, safety) who did so on 9/17/06 vs. Oakland.

Campbell Adds to 49er Sack Total in Week 10

After taking down 49ers QB Colin Kaepernick in the third quarter last week, Campbell now has 8.0 career sacks against the 49ers, including 3.0 sacks in two games this season.

Campbell has 51.5 sacks for his career and now sits alone in third place on the franchise career sacks list.

ONE OF THE BEST IN THE GAME

In December of 2015, CB Justin Bethel signed a three-year contract extension that keeps the three-time Pro Bowler in Arizona through the 2018 season.

The Cardinals sixth-round selection (177th overall) in the 2012 NFL Draft, Bethel has been named to the Pro Bowl as a special teamer each of the last three seasons. During his first three NFL seasons, Bethel registered 54 special teams tackles, a fumble recovery and three blocked FGs. He led the team with 14 special teams tackles again last season. No other player on the team had more than seven.

REACTION TO CARDINALS AND ALL-OR-NOTHING SERIES

"The entire series reaches its hilt with Fitzgerald's catch-and-run, but most of my favorite parts of All or Nothing happen in those quiet moments when the players get together. These take place everywhere — from the practice field to the locker room to various meetings — and are tiny pieces of football nerdery that fans rarely get to see." - Robert Mays, TheRinger.com

"After watching the new All or Nothing series from the Arizona Cardinals, NFL Films, and Amazon.com, one word best describes the most appropriate reaction: More. All or Nothing cements the Cardinals as a team that will attract a lot attention far beyond its home market." - Mike Florio, ProFootballTalk.com

"It has long been established that NFL Films is one of the best things the league has going for it. Along those lines, "Hard Knocks," the now-annual behind-the-scenes look at one team's training camp and preseason has become an incredibly popular franchise. But now NFL Films has taken things one step further, giving viewers an all-access pass for an entire season. The franchise to agree to such a thing? The Arizona Cardinals. Whether you're a fan of the Cardinals or not, if you love "Hard Knocks," "All or Nothing" is even better." - Shalise Manza Young, Yahoo!Sports.com

"All or Nothing" is "Hard Knocks" on steroids. Covers every game like a movie. I was blown away. - Peter Schragger, @PSchraggs

Would've loved to have played for this man @BruceArians. #NoRiskIt #NoBiscuit - Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson, @TheRock

This new Amazon show is really great. Highly recommend it. No doubt the future of Sports TV. - Ariel Helwani, @arielhelwani

I'm three episodes into Amazon's "All of Nothing" series on the @AZCardinals & it is absolutely superb. Can't recommend it enough. - Jimmy Traina, @JimmyTraina

Mannnnn, I can't wait for you guys to see #AllOrNothing. Incredible story and even better storytelling. - Rand Getlin, @Rand_Getlin

It's great in the summer to disconnect & take a break from football ... or watch @NFLFilms' #AllorNothing. So good. - Ian Rapoport, @RapSheet

Just finished All Or Nothing. Fantastic job, NFL Films. Steve and Ed would be proud. - Paul Domowitch, @pdomo

About to hit @amazon - a series about @AZCardinals 2015 March to the NFC Champ gm - it's fantastic. Fans get to see way behind the curtain!!! - Joe Buck, @Buck

Game 1

Patriots 23, CARDINALS 21

September 11, 2016 – University of Phoenix Stadium (64,864)

Facing the Patriots on Sunday Night Football, the Cardinals suffered a season-opening loss at home after missing a go-ahead FG try from 47 yards out with 41 seconds remaining. Arizona had clawed back from an early deficit to take a 1-point 4th quarter lead on the second of Larry Fitzgerald's two TDs. They were the 99th and 100th career scores for the future Hall of Famer who finished with 81 yards on 8 catches. But the Patriots answered. Making his 1st career start while filling in for a suspended Tom Brady, QB Jimmy Garoppolo led the Pats on a scoring drive and they went ahead 23-21 on a FG with 3:44 to go. When AZ could not convert its FG try on the ensuing drive, the game was decided in favor of the undermanned Pats, who were without Brady, TE Rob Gronkowski and a number of others.

The Patriots scored on their first two possessions of the game to take a 10-0 lead. First Garoppolo capped an 8-play, 74-yard drive with a 37-yard TD pass to an open WR Chris Hogan down the left sideline. Then Steven Gostkowski's 47-yard FG on the next drive made it 10-0. Arizona's first 3 offensive possessions ended in punts before momentum turned with an Arizona takeaway. With 10:30 to go before half and AZ trailing 10-0, LB Markus Golden sacked Garoppolo forcing a fumble that former Patriot Chandler Jones recovered in NE territory. A celebration penalty pushed it back to the AZ46 but the Cards were still in business. They moved to the NE3 in 10 plays - 6 of which were David Johnson runs - before Palmer connected with Fitzgerald on a TD to make it 10-7 at the half.

New England opened the 3rd quarter by moving 75 yards in 9 plays and went ahead 17-7 on an 8-yard LeGarrette Blount TD run. A Cards punt turned it back to NE with 7:00 to go in the 3rd. However, a Blount fumble forced by DT Frostee Rucker on the next snap was recovered by DT Calais Campbell at the NE33. Five plays later, David Johnson punched it in from a yard out to trim the deficit to 17-13. A 53-yard Gostkowski FG with 12:35 remaining made it 20-14. On the next drive, an incredible run from Johnson covered 45 yards to the NE 12; he initially was stopped at the line of scrimmage, spun outside, steadied himself with a hand on the ground and raced down the right sideline. Four plays later, a sliding, over-the-shoulder TD catch from Fitzgerald in the corner of the end zone put AZ up 21-20 with 9:46 left. The Pats, who were 10-16 on 3rd down in the game, converted 3 straight on the next drive as they moved 61 yards for a go-ahead FG that proved to be the game-winner.

Game 2

CARDINALS 40, Buccaneers 7

September 18, 2016 – University of Phoenix Stadium (64,230)

The Cardinals evened their record at 1-1 thanks to a 33-point home win over Tampa Bay. It was scoreless after one quarter but AZ exploded for 24 straight in the 2nd thanks to Carson Palmer TD passes to 3 different receivers and a FG. In all the Cards enjoyed a 5-0 edge in takeaways (4 Jameis Winston INTs and a fumble). The defensive hero was CB Marcus Cooper, who was acquired by the Cards in a trade with KC 16 days earlier. The 4th year player recorded a pair of INTs, including one that he returned 60 yards for a TD. Larry Fitzgerald led all receivers with 6 catches for 81 yards and a TD while David Johnson had 143 scrimmage yards (98 receiving & 45 rushing). Palmer recorded win #30 in his 40th game as Cardinals starter and moved into 16th on the NFL's all-time passing yardage list passing Joe Montana.

The first of AZ's 5 total takeaways came on Tampa's opening drive of the game when Patrick Peterson picked a Winston deep pass intended for Mike Evans at the goal-line. Six seconds into the 2nd quarter, Fitzgerald's 4-yard TD catch opened the scoring. On the 2nd play of the next series, Winston's pass intended for Vincent Jackson was INT'd by Cooper who returned it to the TB19 and set-up a 22-yard Chandler Catanzaro FG. Down 10-0, the Bucs advanced to the AZ29 with 3:06 left before halftime and faced a 2nd-n-9. However Winston had the ball jarred loose in the pocket by a teammate and S Tony Jefferson recovered at the AZ32. A key 27-yard completion to WR Jaron Brown on 3rd-n-10 took it to the TB40, a 16-yard David Johnson run took it to the 25, and a 24-yard pass to Fitzgerald - initially ruled a TD - took it to the one. Palmer's TD pass to WR Michael Floyd on 3rd down made it 17-0 with 1:30 til intermission. Three Tampa incompletions ran just :17 off the clock and after the punt, AZ took over at its own 16 with 1:05 left. It was more than enough time for another TD as Palmer connected deep with WR Jaron Brown on a 51-yard scoring strike that made it 24-0 at the half.

Tampa opened the 3rd quarter with an 11-play, 75-yard drive that ended with their lone score of the day, a 19-yard TD pass from Winston to Evans. On the next play from scrimmage, David Johnson gathered in a short check-down from Palmer and took it 58 yards to the TB17. It led to another Catanzaro FG that made it 27-7. Tampa then moved to the AZ41 before Cooper struck again; he caught a Winston pass deflected by DT Josh Mauro and returned it 60 yards for a TD. Arizona added another TD early in the 4th when Chris Johnson's 3-yard run capped a 65-yard drive and provided the game's final score.

Game 3
Bills 33, CARDINALS 18
September 25, 2016 – New Era Field (68,647)

In a week 3 road game against Buffalo, the Cardinals fell behind early and could never catch up. The Bills notched their first win of the year with the 33-18 victory while Arizona fell to 1-2.

After the teams exchanged punts on the game's first 4 series, Buffalo took over at its own 22. On the first play, QB Tyrod Taylor rushed 49 yards to the AZ29 setting up a 19-yard Dan Carpenter FG. Buffalo's next drive started near midfield and one play after a 24-yard completion to WR Robert Woods took it to the AZ24, LeSean McCoy ran 24 yards for a TD. Leading 10-0, the Bills took over at the AZ 39 following a 31-yard Brandon Tate return of a Drew Butler punt; Butler injured his ankle on the play and K Chandler Catanzaro had to handle punting duties the rest of the way. The Bills could not capitalize on that field position though, as Patrick Peterson's 1-handed INT while tip-toeing down the right sideline ended the threat. AZ couldn't stop Buffalo on its next drive that also began with a short field. After taking over at their own 48, the Bills went up 17-0 when McCoy's 5-yard TD run capped a 6-play, 52-yard scoring drive. To that point, the Cardinals offense had failed to pick up a first down on its first 6 possessions of the game. However AZ would trim the deficit to 17-7 late in the 2nd with a lengthy 17-play drive that consumed 9:34 and ended with David Johnson's 4-yard scoring run.

While AZ got the ball to start the 3rd, it was the Bills who got the first points when Taylor scrambled for a 20-yard TD on 3rd-n-4. Now trailing 23-7, the Cards advanced to the BUF7 but could not convert on 2nd-n-1 or 3rd-n-1. On the ensuing FG try, a high snap was ultimately recovered but Buffalo's Aaron Williams at the 47 and he reced 53 yards for a TD to make it 30-7 with 2:25 left in the 3rd. Forced to go no-huddle, the Cards quickly moved 83 yards in 6 plays and David Johnson's 22-yard TD run made it 30-16 after the 2-point try was unsuccessful. Catanzaro then hit a 60-yard FG - one yard shy of the club record - that made it a 14-point game with 10:36 remaining. Four plays into the next Bills drive, AZ let a golden opportunity slip through its hands when Tyrann Mathieu forced a Taylor fumble but could not gather the loose ball before it went out of bounds. Another Carpenter FG with just inside of 5 minutes to play made it 33-16 and while a late Arizona safety and long return on the free kick would make it interesting, the Cards would not seriously threaten.

Game 4
Rams 17, CARDINALS 13
October 2, 2016 – University of Phoenix Stadium (64,622)

In week 4, Arizona hosted the Rams for the first time since their move to Los Angeles. Like most match-ups between the clubs, it was a close, physical affair that came down to the wire. AZ led in most statistical categories (26-12 in 1st downs, 420-288 in total yards) but it was the Rams who made more pivotal plays and secured a win that upped their record to 3-1 and dropped the Cards to 1-3. WR John Brown led all receivers (10-144) and RB David Johnson had 124 scrimmage yards (83 rushing/41 receiving), becoming the 1st player in franchise history with 100+ in each of the season's 1st 4 games.

The scoring began when LA struck late in the 1st quarter. On 3rd-n-7 from his own 35, Rams QB Case Keenum threw a 13-yard pass to WR Brian Quick who broke a tackle and took it the rest of the way for a 65-yard TD. On Arizona's next series, a pair of Larry Fitzgerald receptions (22 yards) and Chris Johnson runs (26) along with a Rams personal foul took it to the LA13. Chris Johnson then ran it in from there but the TD was negated by a holding penalty. As a result, Chandler Catanzaro's 25-yard FG made it 7-3. On the next drive, a 23-yard reception by TE Lance Kendricks took it to the LA48 and on 3rd-n-12 from the LA46, Keenum found an open Kenny Britt on a 34-yarder to the AZ20. That led to a 29-yard Greg Zuerlein FG that extended the LA lead to 10-3. With 3:00 to go in the 1st half, the Cards had advanced to the LA33 but Palmer's deep pass was INT'd in the end zone by CB Trumaine Johnson. The Cards forced a 3-n-out on the subsequent Rams drive and regained possession at their own 20 with 1:48 left before intermission. Thanks largely to three John Brown receptions (15, 20, 18 yards) the Cards moved 80 yards in 8 plays and Palmer capped the drive with a 5-yard TD pass to WR Michael Floyd that tied the game at 10.

The Rams got the ball to start the 3rd quarter. After reaching the AZ43, Chandler Jones sacked Keenum forcing a fumble that he recovered himself. The Cards soon returned the favor. After they had reached the LA26, Palmer was sacked forcing a fumble recovered by the Rams at their own 31. Late in the 3rd, the Cards again marched deep into LA territory. The biggest play came on 3rd-n-3 from the AZ39 when Palmer lofted a 24-yard pass to WR JJ Nelson who tapped his toes at the LA37. A 24-yard David Johnson catch-n-run took it to the LA4 but AZ had to settle for another short Catanzaro FG that put the Cards up 13-10 on the last play of the 3rd quarter. Early in the 4th, the Rams went for it on 4th-n-5 at the AZ39 but turned it over on downs when Patrick Peterson knocked down a deep pass attempt. Three plays later though a David Johnson fumble turned it back over to the Rams at their own 41. LA would punt it back to the Cards but on 3rd-n-6 at the AZ39, Palmer was sacked and suffered a head injury that would sideline him for the rest of the day. Adding insult to the injury, Tavon Austin returned the ensuing punt 47 yards to the 34 and a tacked-on facemask penalty took it to the AZ19 with 5:09 left. Five plays later, Keenum's 4-yard TD pass to Quick made it 17-13 with 2:36 left. Drew Stanton came on to replace Palmer but on his 6th play was INT'd by S Mark Barron. After a 3-n-out and 3 AZ timeouts, the Cards took over at their own 31 with 1:01 left but they could not advance further than the LA37.

Game 5
CARDINALS 33, 49ers 21
October 6, 2016 – Levi's Stadium (70,178)

This Thursday night tilt in San Fran was a match-up of 1-3 teams desperate for a win. The Cardinals were on the road with just three days of preparation and without starting QB Carson Palmer who suffered a concussion the previous Sunday. But Arizona came through with a series of game-changing plays and again relied heavily on the combination of 13th-year WR Larry Fitzgerald and 2nd-year RB David Johnson. Those two combined for 266 of AZ's 296 yards from scrimmage and scored all 4 Cardinals TDs. Defensively, AZ sacked 49ers QB Blaine Gabbert 7 times – 2 each for DT Calais Campbell & LB Markus Golden - and also came up with 3 key takeaways. Cards back-up QB Drew Stanton delivered a mistake-free, 2-TD game and was sacked just once. All of it added up to a 33-21 Cardinals victory.

While the teams would ultimately combine to score 54, points were hard to come by early as the game's first 9 possessions ended in punts. San Fran got on the scoreboard late in the 2nd quarter thanks to a 10-play, 87-yard TD drive that ended with a 9-yard Gabbert TD pass to WR Jeremy Kerley; it was the 4th connection between the two on the drive. San Fran held onto that 7-0 at the 2:00 warning and faced a 3rd-n-10 at its own 24. But Cards LB Chandler Jones then batted Gabbert's pass in the air and Campbell snatched it for an INT that gave AZ the ball at the SF21. On the very next snap, Stanton and Fitzgerald hooked up on a 21-yard TD pass that tied the game going into intermission.

On the opening kickoff of the 2nd half, TE Ifeanyi Momah delivered an impressive and athletic play on kick coverage when he forced and recovered a fumble by Niners KR Chris Davis setting AZ up at the SF14. It appeared AZ would have to settle for a FG but a running-into-the-kicker penalty gave the Cards a fresh set of downs. They quickly took advantage on the next snap when Johnson ran it in from 4 yards out to give AZ a 14-7 lead. After a San Fran 3-n-out, the Cards moved 71 yards in 6 plays and went up 21-7 midway through the 3rd on a 21-yard Stanton pass to Fitzgerald. San Fran responded with its own lengthy drive, an 11-play, 82-yarder that ended with Carlos Hyde's 1-yard TD run. Down just 7, the 49ers soon got the ball back but on the 1st play of the 4th quarter, CB Marcus Cooper recorded his 3rd INT in 4 games and returned it to the SF24. That led to a 36-yard Catanzaro FG that again made it a two-score game. Another 3-n-out by the Niners was followed by a long AZ drive that consumed nearly half of the 4th quarter. On it the Cards passed once - a 21-yard catch-n-run by Johnson - and rushed 11 times including Johnson's 2-yard TD plunge that made it 31-14. The Niners added a late TD on a 1-yard Gabbert run but the Cards added the game's final points with 1:17 left when Campbell sacked Gabbert in the end zone for a safety.

Game 6
CARDINALS 28, Jets 3
October 17, 2016 – University of Phoenix Stadium (64,709)

In a Monday night home game against the Jets and former coordinator Todd Bowles, the Cards controlled the game from beginning to end. NY entered the night with the NFL's #2 ranked run defense, allowing just 68.4 rushing yards/game and had surrendered just 1 rushing TD in 5 games. But despite starting 2 back-up guards, the Cards offense was committed to the run and RB David Johnson rushed for 111 yards and 3 TDs. Overall, AZ enjoyed a 171-33 edge in rushing yards and did not give up a sack or commit a turnover. The defense surrendered just 230 total yards while recording a pair of takeaways and limiting the Jets to 2 for 13 on third down. It all added up to a decisive 25-point win that evened Arizona's record at 3-3 and gave the Cards their first win since 1975 over the Jets, who fell to 1-5 after dropping their 4th straight.

The Cards opened the scoring on their 2nd offensive possession of the game. On the first play after taking over at their own 42 following a Jets punt, Johnson patiently picked his way past several tackles at the line of scrimmage and exploded for a 58-yard TD jaunt down the left sideline. His run gave AZ its first points in the 1st quarter in 2016. The Jets trimmed it to 7-3 early in the 2nd quarter when Nick Folk's 39-yard FG capped a 7-play, 50-yard drive. On the ensuing drive, AZ moved 75 yards in 11 plays and punctuated it with a 2-yard Johnson TD run. The Cards took that 14-3 lead into the halftime locker room.

After the Jets opened the 3rd quarter with a 3-n-out, AZ took over at its own 32. The Cards would chew more than half of the 3rd quarter off the clock with a 14-play drive that ended with Johnson's 3rd rushing TD of the game, this one from 2 yards out. Down 21-3, the Jets moved deep into AZ territory on their next possession but on 3rd-n-7 from the AZ14, safety DJ Swearinger INT'd a Ryan Fitzpatrick pass in the end zone to kill the threat. For the 2nd straight possession, the Cards would launch a 14-play drive, this time moving 89 yards thanks in large part to four John Brown receptions that gained 47 yards. It ultimately ended when Carson Palmer and WR Michael Floyd connected on a 9-yard TD pass. Fitzpatrick was then pulled in favor of Geno Smith for what would be NY's final possession of the game. It ended when safety Tyrann Mathieu intercepted Smith to cap the complete team win.

Palmer returned to action after missing the previous game (concussion) and completed 23 of 34 passes for 213 yards; he had a TD but no INTs and was not sacked. Larry Fitzgerald was again the game's leading receiver with 6 catches for 49 yards. Referee Jerome Boger and his crew also played a prominent role in the game, marching off 19 total penalties for 147 yards.

Game 7
CARDINALS 6, Seahawks 6 (OT)

October 23, 2016 – University of Phoenix Stadium (65,089)

The Cards hosted Seattle in a pivotal week 7 showdown on Sunday Night Football. A Seahawks win would give them a 5-1 record and commanding lead atop the NFC West. An AZ win would pull the Cards to within half a game of the division lead approaching the season's midway point. But in one of the most unusual and unbelievable games in recent memory, the teams would leave University of Phoenix Stadium with neither a victory nor defeat. They fought to a 3-3 tie through 4 quarters before each squad hit a FG on its opening possession of overtime. Improbably, though, the teams would trade misses on short game-winning FG tries to close the extra period and the contest ended in a rare 6-6 tie. It was the first tie in Seahawks history and Arizona's first since 1986.

By nearly every statistical measure, the Cardinals dominated the game. They ran 90 offensive plays to Seattle's 57, owned a huge time of possession advantage (46:21-28:39) and against the league's #1 defense had a 443-257 edge in total yards. RB David Johnson carried much of the offensive load with 113 rushing yards and 58 receiving. Defensively, Arizona was completely dominant. AZ forced punts on the 1st nine Seattle possessions and didn't allow Seattle to cross midfield until a 4th quarter blocked punt set them up at the 22. But the Cardinals could not capitalize and let multiple opportunities for points slip away. The first of those came early in the 2nd quarter when they reached the SEA21 but Chandler Catanzaro's 39-yard FG try was blocked by LB Bobby Wagner who leapt over the long snapper. It was initially penalized but the flag was picked up by referee Terry McAulay. A 46-yard Catanzaro FG on the next AZ possession would put the Cards up 3-0. They had a chance to add to the lead right before the half after reaching the SEA25 but a Seattle sack resulted in the half expiring before the Cards could try a FG.

On their opening drive of the 3rd quarter, the Cards advanced to the SEA18 and opted to go for it on 4th-n-1 but Johnson was stopped for no gain. As the Arizona D continued to shut down the Seahawks dangerous offense, the Cards clung to that 3-0 lead late into the game. But with 4:44 to go and the Cards stalled at their own 38, Seattle's Tanner McEvoy blocked Ryan Quigley's punt and the Seahawks took over at the AZ22. The Cards D forced them to settle for a 40-yard Steven Hauschka FG that tied it with 4:00 remaining. Each team would get the ball back one more time in regulation but neither could get into scoring position and the game went to overtime.

The Cards won the toss and got the ball first. They would move to the 27 but couldn't convert on a 3rd-n-5 from there and Catanzaro's 45-yard FG made it 6-3. The Seahawks had a chance to respond and did. After moving 57 yards in 9 plays to the AZ18, Hauschka's 36-yarder tied it at 6-6. The next score by either team would win it and it looked that would be AZ. A 27-yard completion to TE Ifeanyi Momah took it to the SEA48 and then on 3rd-n-7 from the 45, JJ Nelson's catch-n-run took it to the 5. A Johnson sweep appeared to score but was marked out at the 1. After a delay of game penalty, Catanzaro was sent out for a 24-yard game-winner but his try hit the left upright. Seattle then took over at its own 20 with 3:19 left. A deep pass to Jermaine Kearse gained 31 yards to the AZ43 and two plays later, a 27-yard completion to Doug Baldwin took it to the 9. It appeared Seattle would escape with the victory but Hauschka's 28-yard FG try with just seconds remaining was wide left and the game ended deadlocked at 6.

Game 8
Panthers 30, CARDINALS 20

October 30, 2016 – Bank of Stadium (74,088)

A week after battling the Seahawks for 75 minutes in a 6-6 Sunday night tie, the Cardinals traveled across the country for an early Sunday game against the Panthers who were coming off a bye. A rematch of the previous year's NFC Championship Game, Carolina scored the game's initial 24 points. The first 7 of them came on the contest's opening drive when officials mistakenly awarded Carolina a 46-yard fumble return TD on a play that was actually an incomplete forward pass. Two short Jonathan Stewart TD runs and a Graham Gano FG made it 24-0 with 2:45 left in the 1st half. But the Cards gamely battled back and while they outscored the Panthers 20-6 the rest of the way, it was not enough to make up the entire deficit. The loss dropped AZ to 3-4-1 at the season's midway point while Carolina improved to 2-5.

On the 5th play of the game, Carson Palmer was under pressure and tossed a short pass forward to David Johnson that fell incomplete. However, referee Walt Coleman and umpire Carl Paganelli ruled it a fumble that LB Thomas Davis returned 46 yards for a TD. Despite a technical issue that kept the network feed from the instant replay booth, replay official Lou Nazzaro chose to confirm the ruling on the field rather than stop the game for Coleman to review it. The Cards would then pick up just 2 first downs on their next 4 possessions - all of which ended in punts - while the Panthers added to their early lead. With 2:45 left in the 1st half and down 24-0, the Cards moved 75 yards in 9 plays as Palmer's 5-yard TD pass to WR JJ Nelson made it 24-7 at intermission.

The Panthers added Gano FGs on their opening 2 drives of the 3rd quarter to go up 30-7. Late in the quarter, Palmer again capped a 75-yard drive with a TD pass to a wide receiver, this time a 17-yarder to John Brown that made it 30-14. After a Panther 3-n-out, AZ found itself with a 1st-n-10 at the Carolina 46 to start the 4th quarter. But Coleman and his crew flagged the Cards on 3 straight plays to kill that drive. Their next would start at their own 8 but Palmer moved them 92 yards in 14 plays and with 5:01 left, another TD pass to Nelson made it 30-20 after the 2-point try failed. With 3:19 left, a Stewart fumble forced and recovered by S Tony Jefferson gave it to AZ at the CAR40. However, on the next play Palmer was INT'd at the line by DT Kony Ealy to dash any comeback hopes. Palmer would finish with 363 yards passing and 3 TDs but was under duress much of the afternoon and was sacked 8 times. AZ was also hampered by 10 total penalties flagged by Coleman and his mates.

Game 9
CARDINALS 23, 49ers 20
November 13, 2016 – University of Phoenix Stadium (64,709)

Coming off their bye, the Cardinals opened the 2nd half of the season at home against the 49ers. They took a 14-0 lead early in the 2nd quarter but allowed SF to stay close and the Niners eventually tied the game at 20 with 1:55 left. However, that was enough time for AZ to move into position for a game-winning FG try and Chandler Catanzaro's 34-yarder won it as time expired. The victory upped the Cards record to 4-4-1 and kept them in the thick of the playoff race while SF dropped its 8th straight to fall to 1-8.

The 49ers seemed intent on not letting the Cards beat them on the ground which opened up AZ's passing game. Larry Fitzgerald caught 12 passes for 133 yards while fellow WR Michael Floyd also eclipsed 100 yards (5-101). Both delivered athletic and critical receptions throughout the game including on the vital game-winning drive. Carson Palmer threw for 376 yards while David Johnson scored 2 TDs.

The team's traded punts on the game's first 4 drives before AZ opened the scoring with a 3-yard Palmer-to-Johnson TD pass on 3rd-n-goal. Later in the 1st quarter, Jeremy Kerley fumbled a SF punt return and Gabe Martin recovered at the AZ44. A defensive pass interference call on the next snap moved it 38 yards to the SF 18 and on the next play Johnson burst down the left sideline, diving to the pylon for another TD. The Niners answered on the ensuing drive by moving 75 yards in 6 plays and Kerley's 17-yard TD catch of a Colin Kaepernick pass made it 14-7. After the teams traded FGs, AZ led 17-10 with 1:32 remaining in the 1st half and got the ball back at its own 18 and 2 timeouts. Palmer then completed 7 of 8 passes for 68 yards – including 3 for 40 yards to Floyd – as part of an 81-yard drive that ended with a 19-yard Catanzaro FG as the half expired.

The Cards were poised to add to their 20-10 lead early in the 3rd when a flea flicker to Fitzgerald picked up 33 yards to the SF7 but 2 plays later Palmer lost a fumble on a sack by LB Eli Harold. The 49ers would convert the turnover into a 53-yard Phil Dawson FG that made it a 7-point game. Late in the 3rd Palmer appeared to hit WR JJ Nelson for a key pick-up but instead the pass ricocheted off Nelson's chest to S Eric Reid for an INT. The 49ers did not capitalize and with 3:24 left, the Cards held a 20-13 lead and had it near midfield. But Palmer was INT'd by LB Gerald Hodges and the 49ers took over at their own 43 with 3:13 remaining. By the 2-minute warning they had reached the AZ4 and on 3rd-n-2 from there, Kaepernick ran it in to tie the game at 20. After the kickoff, the Cards took over at their own 15 with 1:51 left and 3 timeouts. Palmer would complete 4 of his next 6 passes for 60 yards to move into FG range. The first of those completions was a huge leaping catch by Floyd near the sideline that moved it from the AZ15 to 41. AZ ultimately advanced to the SF16 before Catanzaro hit the 34-yard game-winner at the gun.
