THE MATCHUP

New Orleans (4-5) looks to rebound and return to .500 as they visit Bank of America Stadium on a short week to battle the division-rival Carolina Panthers (3-6). This will be the second time over the last three seasons that the Saints visit the Panthers for a Thursday night tilt, with the last meeting coming on Oct. 30, 2014, a 28-10 New Orleans victory. The Saints have won three-consecutive contests on Thursday Night Football and own a 6-4 all-time record on Thursday.

The Saints enter Thursday night's matchup owning a 20-23 all-time record against Carolina, with the Black and Gold claiming the first game of the season series 41-38 at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome on Oct. 16.

New Orleans and Carolina each enter this division matchup having dropped their last contest on their home field in the final minutes of regulation. The Saints saw a game-tying 32-yard touchdown from QB Drew Brees to WR Brandin Cooks with 1:22 remaining go to waste as the ensuing PAT attempt by K Wil Lutz was blocked and returned for a defensive two-point conversion to give the defending Super Bowl 50 Champion Denver Broncos the 25-23 victory. It was the third blocked PAT attempt to be returned for a defensive two-point conversion since the league rule change prior to the 2015 season and the first to be converted against the Saints. The Panthers saw a 17-0 first-half lead vanish as Kansas City would score 20 unanswered points, ending with a 37-yard field goal as time expired to drop Carolina 20-17.

QB Drew Brees continued his stellar play this season, completing 21-of-29 passes for 303 yards and three touchdowns with a 111.7 passer rating. It was his fifth-consecutive contest with a passer rating of at least 100.0, marking the third stretch of his career in which he has posted a passer rating of 100.0 or better in at least five-straight games. On a three-yard scoring connection with WR Willie Snead IV, Brees collected his 450th career touchdown pass, joining Peyton Manning (539) and Brett Favre (508) as the only players with 450 scoring throws over their careers.

Defensively, New Orleans had one of its most productive outings of the 2016 season, forcing QB Trevor Siemian into two interceptions and dropping the Broncos quarterback a season-high six times. With CB Sterling Moore and S Kenny Vaccaro each posting interceptions, the Saints defense has now recorded interceptions in three-consecutive contests, doing so for the first time since they posted picks in four straight games from Oct. 5-Oct. 30, 2014. DE Cameron Jordan had a standout performance, totaling nine tackles (eight solo) with one sack. DTs Sheldon Rankins, Nick Fairley, LBs Dannell Ellerbe and Craig Robertson and Vaccaro each added takedowns of the Denver signal-caller.

THE COACHES

New Orleans Saints Head Coach Sean Payton has posted an 91-62 regular season record and a 6-4 postseason mark, guiding the team to the postseason five times, to the NFC Championship twice and to the Super Bowl XLIV Championship. He's the club's lone head coach to open a season with 13 straight victories and post a 13-game winning streak and has the franchise's top winning percentage (.595). Payton's 53-32 (.624) home record and 44-39 (.530) mark away from the Mercedes-Benz Superdome are the club's top all-time winning percentages in both categories. On Oct. 2, 2016 at San Diego, he captured his 94th victory as head of the New Orleans Saints, surpassing Jim Mora (93 victories from 1986-96) for the most victories by a head coach in team history despite having coached 13 fewer games than Mora. In his first season with the club in 2006, he took the Saints to the NFC Championship and was named NFL Coach of the Year by most major media outlets. The Saints are the only team to finish in the top 10 in net yards per game each season since 2006, including finishing second in 2015 with 403.8 ypg. Payton was hired as New Orleans' 14th head coach on January 18, 2006, after serving on Dallas' staff from 2003-05 under Pro Football Hall of Fame Head Coach Bill Parcells. Prior to joining the Cowboys, Payton served on the New York Giants coaching staff from 1999-2002, including the final three seasons as offensive coordinator. His tenure was highlighted by a Super Bowl berth in his first full season calling plays. Payton's prior NFL coaching experience came as quarterbacks coach for Philadelphia from 1997-98. He played quarterback at Eastern Illinois, where he passed for 10,665 yards, then the third-highest total in NCAA Division 1-AA history. The three-time Associated Press All-American selection had professional stints with Chicago of the Arena Football League, Ottawa of the Canadian Football League and the Chicago Bears in 1987. Starting his college coaching career at San Diego State, Payton wrapped two stints as an assistant with the Aztecs (1988-89 and 1992-93) around a stop at Indiana State (1990-91). He moved to Miami (Ohio), where he coached quarterbacks from 1994-95 before doing the same at the University of Illinois in 1996.

Ron Rivera became the fourth coach in Panthers history on Jan. 11, 2011. In 2015, his fifth year, Rivera led Carolina to their third-straight NFC South title and playoff appearance with Carolina advancing all the way to Super Bowl 50. The Panthers got off to a 14-0 start and became just the seventh team in the Super Bowl era to post a 15-1 or better record in the regular season. Rivera took over a team in 2011 that went 2-14 in 2010, with the Panthers going 6-10 in his first year, 7-9 in 2012 and 12-4 in 2013, winning their second-straight division title in 2014. Before joining the Panthers, Rivera worked with the San Diego Chargers from 2007-10, coaching inside linebackers before taking over as defensive coordinator midway through the 2008 season. In 2010, San Diego led the NFL with an average of 271.6 total yards allowed per game and gave up a league-low 177.8 passing yards per game. From 2004-06, Rivera oversaw the Chicago defense, guiding the unit to two top-five finishes in the league. In 2006, the Bears defense led the NFL with 44 takeaways, helping propel Chicago to an appearance in Super Bowl XLI. In 2005, the Bears went 43 consecutive quarters without allowing more than seven points—the longest streak in the NFL since 1969. Rivera was also linebackers coach for the Eagles (1999-2003) and defensive quality control coach for the Bears (1997-98).

LAST MEETING

Saints 41, Carolina Panthers 38; October 16, 2016 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – The Saints behind QB Drew Brees, WR Brandin Cooks and the number two ranked offense and scoring unit in the NFL, beat the Panthers, 41-38 in a shootout where New Orleans got the final edge on a 52-yard field goal by K Wil Lutz at a sold-out Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

New Orleans got the ball first and Brees drove the Saints down the field in a 12-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a two-yard TD run by TE Coby Fleener on fourth-and-one. Late in the second quarter, Brees completed a pass to Cooks that the speedy wideout converted into an 87-yard TD, the second-longest passing play of the 2016 season across the NFL, as well as the sixth-longest passing play in franchise history.

On New Orleans' next possession, Brees found WR Michael Thomas for a nine-yard touchdown with 13:47 left in the first half. After the Panthers got to within 21-10, Lutz hit a 33-yard field goal near the end of the first half to give the Saints a 24-10 halftime lead.

Midway through the third quarter, Panthers QB Cam Newton completed a one-yard pass to TE Ed Dickson to put the Panthers within seven. But on the next drive, Brees threw his third touchdown pass, a 50-yard connection with Fleener.

Carolina scored two touchdowns at the start of the fourth quarter, but missed the extra point following their second score, allowing New Orleans to hold onto a 31-30 lead. New Orleans upped the lead back to 38-30 on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Brees to TE Josh Hill, but the Panthers tied the score late on a two-yard Newton touchdown run and a successful two-point conversion. When New Orleans got the ball back, Brees led the Saints on an 11-play, 41-yard drive that ended with Lutz's successful kick. Brees finished the game 34-of-49 for 465 yards with four touchdowns and a 118.2 rating and Cooks had seven grabs for a career-high 173 yards with the scoring grab.

WEEK 1: Oakland Raiders 35, Saints 34; September 11, 2016 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – In the season kickoff for both clubs, Oakland scored a touchdown with 47 seconds remaining and followed the score with a two-point conversion to prevail in a shootout in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

The Saints had taken a 34-27 lead with 6:03 remaining when RB Travaris Cadet scored on a two-yard TD throw from QB Drew Brees. But the Raiders put together an 11-play, 75-yard drive on their final possession. The march was capped by a 13-yard TD throw from QB David Carr to WR Seth Roberts and Carr drilled a successful throw to WR Michael Crabtree in the end zone for the subsequent two points to put the Raiders ahead. Brees drove New Orleans to the Oakland 43 in the game's final seconds, but a 61-yard field goal attempt went wide left.

CONTINUED - Week One

The Raiders took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a 47-yard FG by K Sebastian Janikowski. The Saints responded by a successful 42-yard kick by rookie K Wil Lutz. Oakland took the lead back late in the opening quarter on a six-yard touchdown run by RB Latavius Murray.

New Orleans then tied the score on a nine-play, 75-yard drive that ended early in the second quarter on a one-yard touchdown pass from Brees to WR Willie Snead IV. New Orleans took a 17-10 lead going into halftime when Brees connected with WR Brandin Cooks for a 15-yard TD.

In what would seem like rough sailing, starting a drive at their own two-yard line midway through the third quarter, Brees connected with Cooks on a throw that turned into a 98-yard TD, the longest offensive play in franchise history, breaking a record that stood since the franchise's inaugural season in 1967. Following an Oakland FG, New Orleans went into the fourth quarter with a 24-13 edge.

A wild fourth quarter put the Raiders back in the contest, starting with their first drive of the period that ended with a two-yard TD run by RB Jamize Olawale. While Lutz powered a 20-yard field goal through despite getting touched by the Raiders, the 27-19 cushion wouldn't last long though as Oakland rookie RB Jalen Richard, a Louisiana native, burst through for a 75-yard TD, followed by a successful two point conversion from Carr to WR Amari Cooper. With the Saints then starting at their 16, Brees completed a pass to Snead for a gain of 43 yards to the Oakland 26, but he fumbled. Rookie WR Michael Thomas alertly recovered the ball and one play later, Brees tossed the touchdown to Cadet that gave the Saints a seven-point lead before Oakland's final rally.

WEEK 2: New York Giants 16, Saints 13; September 18, 2016 @ MetLife Stadium – Already down one starter in Delvin Breaux with a fibula injury, a trio comprised of Ken Crawley, De'Vante Harris and Sterling Moore put up a gritty performance against a New York receiving trio comprised of Odell Beckham Jr., Victor Cruz and Sterling Shepard, keeping them out of the end zone after P.J. Williams was forced to depart.

In the second quarter, S Kenny Vaccaro stripped the ball from Giants RB Shane Vereen and it was picked up by LB James Laurinaitis at the Saints 36-yard line. On the Giants' subsequent possession, QB Eli Manning completed a pass to Cruz that gave the wideout open space, but S Jairus Byrd and Crawley remained in pursuit and dislodged the ball, which was picked up by Harris at the Saints 16. With the Giants receiving a final possession in the second quarter and in a matchup of the sons of former Saints teammates, LB Michael Mauti sacked Manning up the middle and forced him to cough the ball up and it was recovered by DE Paul Kruger at the Giants 25-yard line.

Adversity would hit again when a 38-yard field goal attempt by K Wil Lutz was blocked by Giants defensive tackle Jonathan Hankins and was recovered and returned by CB Janoris Jenkins 65 yards for a touchdown. However New Orleans got the ball back and QB Drew Brees completed passes of 17- and 23-yards to help set up a 39-yard field goal by Lutz with seven seconds left in the half to trail by only four points.

The Giants got the ball at the half and advanced to the Saints 35-yard line, but a 53-yard field goal attempt went wide left. While K Josh Brown connected on a 48-yard kick later in the third quarter, Brees and the Saints got the ball back and engineered a nine-play, 74-yard drive that ended with a 17-yard connection where WR Willie Snead IV made a jumping grab in the end zone to tie the score. When the Giants got the ball back, they advanced to the one-yard line, but the Saints defense stopped them on two straight run plays and a pass attempt, forcing a 19-yard field goal. Lutz later tied the score at 13-apiece with a 45-yard kick. Following the field goal, the Giants got the ball back with 2:54 remaining at their 25-yard line. Manning completed a pass for a 34-yard gain to Cruz at the Saints-two yard line and the Giants would milk the clock until there were two seconds left and Brown drilled a 23-yard field goal to secure the home-opening victory for the Giants.

WEEK 3: Atlanta Falcons 45, Saints 32; September 26, 2016 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – New Orleans' season continued to get off to a rocky start as they fell to the Falcons on a Monday Night Football contest at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

The Saints scored first in the contest on their first drive on a two-yard touchdown pass from QB Drew Brees to TE Coby Fleener. The New Orleans defense then got off to a solid start when a three-and-out was forced, capped by a sack by DT Nick Fairley and DE Cameron Jordan on third down. However, the Falcons would get the ball back on a fumble on the punt play and three plays later, RB Tevin Coleman tied the score on a two-yard touchdown run.

The rushing TD would be the start of an offensive onslaught for Atlanta as it would mark the first of five-consecutive offensive TDs on a performance where the Falcons would rush for 217 yards, the highest total against the Saints since 2014. Atlanta added a 90-yard interception return for a TD by Falcons LB Deion Jones.

Brees completed 36-of-54 passes for 376 yards with three touchdown passes. Fleener led the team in receiving yardage with seven grabs for 109 yards, including the first quarter touchdown grab. It was the first 100-yard performance of his Saints career and the fourth of his career. RB Mark Ingram had his most productive performance of the season when he carried 15 times for 77 yards and rushed for a two-point conversion and also caught four passes for 30 yards, including the first touchdown reception of his career.

Falcons QB Matt Ryan completed 20-of-30 passes for 240 yards with two TDs and a 113.2 quarterback rating. RB Devonta Freeman had 207 total yards from scrimmage, rushing for 152 and catching 55 more on five passes, as he led the Falcons in both rushing and receiving.

WEEK 4: New Orleans Saints 35, San Diego Chargers 34; October 2, 2016 @ Qualcomm Stadium – The Saints took their first win of the season at San Diego, battling to a 35-34 victory that saw New Orleans gain three takeaways in the last 6:50 of the contest, resulting in 14 points that helped them really from a 13-point deficit.

New Orleans started off fast as QB Drew Brees, in his first game at the Chargers since playing for them from 2001-05, engineered an 11-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a one-yard TD run by RB Mark Ingram. The two clubs then traded punts, but on San Diego's final possession of the first quarter, QB Philip Rivers completed a 20-yard touchdown to TE Hunter Henry to tie the score.

The Saints got the ball back and in a drive that ran into the second quarter, New Orleans advanced 75 yards in 14 plays, ending with a four-yard touchdown pass from Brees to FB John Kuhn. But the New Orleans defense would then struggle on a 57-yard completion for a touchdown from Rivers to WR Dontrelle Inman two plays later to tie the score and the Chargers took advantage of a Brees interception and a costly defensive offside penalty to score 10 more points and go into halftime with a 24-14 lead.

In the start to the second half, after forcing San Diego to punt for the first time since their first possession of the contest, New Orleans took advantage of field position starting at the San Diego 48-yard line and Kuhn punched in a one-yard touchdown to put the Saints back within three.

At the start of the fourth quarter, a defensive holding penalty assessed to New Orleans S Vonn Bell put the Chargers at the New Orleans one, allowing RB Melvin Gordon to run for a one-yard TD. Brees then tossed an interception two plays later that was returned to the New Orleans 26-yard line. However, the New Orleans defense held the Chargers to a field goal, giving them only a 13-point lead after DE Cameron Jordan sacked Rivers on third down. After an unsuccessful New Orleans drive, San Diego got the ball back, but Bell forced Gordon to cough up the ball, which was recovered by DE Darryl Tapp at the San Diego 13-yard line. Following three running plays, Brees completed a five-yard TD to WR Michael Thomas to put New Orleans within six with 4:50 to play on fourth down. When the Chargers got the ball back, WR Travis Benjamin fumbled on the first play and the ball was picked up by LB Nate Stupar at the SD 31-yard line.

New Orleans first advanced to the Chargers 21-yard line on a nine-yard rush and on third-and-one a nine-yard completion from Brees to WR Tommy Lee Lewis put the Saints at the 13. After converting another first down, Kuhn punched the ball in from the one-yard line with his third TD and on the ensuing drive, a sack by DT Nick Fairley and interception by CB B.W. Webb extinguished San Diego's comeback hopes.

WEEK 6: Saints 41, Carolina Panthers 38; October 16, 2016 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – The Saints behind QB Drew Brees, WR Brandin Cooks and the number two ranked offense and scoring unit in the NFL, beat the Panthers, 41-38 in a shootout where New Orleans got the final edge on a 52-yard field goal by K Wil Lutz at a sold-out Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

New Orleans got the ball first and Brees drove the Saints down the field in a 12-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a two-yard TD run by TE Coby Fleener on fourth-and-one. Late in the second quarter, Brees completed a pass to Cooks that the speedy wideout converted into an 87-yard TD, the second-longest passing play of the 2016 season across the NFL, as well as the sixth-longest passing play in franchise history.

CONTINUED - Week Six

On New Orleans' next possession, Brees found WR Michael Thomas for a nine-yard touchdown with 13:47 left in the first half. After the Panthers got to within 21-10, Lutz hit a 33-yard field goal near the end of the first half to give the Saints a 24-10 halftime lead.

Midway through the third quarter, Panthers QB Cam Newton completed a one-yard pass to TE Ed Dickson to put the Panthers within seven. But on the next drive, Brees threw his third touchdown pass, a 50-yard connection with Fleener.

Carolina scored two touchdowns at the start of the fourth quarter, but missed the extra point following their second score, allowing New Orleans to hold onto a 31-30 lead. New Orleans upped the lead back to 38-30 on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Brees to TE Josh Hill, but the Panthers tied the score late on a two-yard Newton touchdown run and a successful two-point conversion. When New Orleans got the ball back, Brees led the Saints on an 11-play, 41-yard drive that ended with Lutz's successful kick. Brees finished the game 34-of-49 for 465 yards with four touchdowns and a 118.2 rating and Cooks had seven grabs for a career-high 173 yards with the scoring grab.

WEEK 7: Kansas City Chiefs 27, Saints 21; October 23, 2016 @ Arrowhead Stadium- New Orleans dropped to 2-4 as a comeback from a third quarter 21-7 deficit fell short with a 27-21 final at Arrowhead Stadium, snapping a two-game win streak.

Getting the Chiefs defense off the field quickly, New Orleans scored on their opening drive for the club-record fourth consecutive contest, as QB Drew Brees drove New Orleans down the field on a 10-play, 80-yard drive, ending with a nine-yard TD pass to WR Brandin Cooks.

The Chiefs would answer quickly with a touchdown of their own as RB Spencer Ware would take an Alex Smith screen pass 46 yards for a touchdown. The Chiefs would score again after S Daniel Sorensen returned a Brees interception that was tipped 48 yards for a touchdown. After a Saints punt, the Chiefs would add a quick score on a 38-yard touchdown pass from Smith to Tyreek Hill.

Down 21-7 coming out of halftime, the Saints fought back with a 75-yard drive, capping it with a three-yard TD pass from Brees to RB Mark Ingram to pull within seven. The Saints defense would force a punt and a 39-yard Cairo

Santos field goal making it 24-14 with 3:26 to play in the third, but after an Ingram fumble at the Kansas City 13-yard line midway through the fourth quarter, time was at a premium for the Saints. After a defensive stop, Brees threw a 10-yard TD pass to WR Brandon Coleman to pull within a field goal with 2:33 left in the fourth quarter to cut Kansas City's lead to 24-21. After an unsuccessful onside kick and being hurt by a personal foul penalty assessed to DT Nick Fairley, the best the Saints could do would be to hold the Chiefs to a 41-yard field goal by Santos, extending the lead to 27-21. With 28 seconds remaining, the Saints started their last drive at their 25-yard line and would fall short after making it to midfield as time expired.

WEEK 8: Saints 25, Seattle Seahawks 20; October 30, 2016 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – The Saints snapped the Seahawks' four-game unbeaten streak and improved to 3-4 following a 25-20 victory last Sunday at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

After the Saints and Seahawks traded punts to start the contest, RB Mark Ingram fumbled the ball on New Orleans' second offensive series and it was picked up by Seattle S Earl Thomas at the Saints 34-yard line and returned it for a touchdown. New Orleans finally started to find their groove offensively with a 15-play, 83-yard drive that featured two key third down conversions in New Orleans territory and ended with a 22-yard field goal by K Wil Lutz. The Seahawks took a 14-3 lead with 9:53 remaining in the second quarter on a two-yard rushing touchdown by RB Christine Michael. The Saints would move within one at the end of the first half when Lutz booted a 53-yard field goal and QB Drew Brees ran a one-yard quarterback sneak for a touchdown.

Getting the ball coming out of the second half, the Seahawks extended their lead to 17-13 on a 44-yard field goal by K Steven Hauschka, when they put together an 11-play, 49-yard drive, keyed by 31 rushing yards by Michael on five carries. The Saints responded with an 11-play, 74-yard drive that ended with a 21-yard field goal by Lutz. The key play came on a 38-yard completion from Brees to WR Brandon Coleman, coming on a flea flicker play which put the Saints in field goal range. After the New Orleans defense then forced a three-and-out, New Orleans got their first lead with 12:24 left in the contest on a two-yard touchdown from Brees to WR Brandin Cooks, capping a nine-play, 71-yard drive, where the signal-caller completed four-of-four passes, totaling 30 yards with a 28-yard rush by RB Tim Hightower mixed in.

CONTINUED - Week Eight

On the next drive, New Orleans would allow the Seahawks to advance as far as their three-yard line, but kept the Seahawks out of the end zone, forcing a 21-yard Hauschka field goal and keeping a 22-20 lead.

New Orleans then got the ball back with 6:38 left in the contest and on a key third-and-five play from the Seattle 44-yard line, Brees connected on a 20-yard completion to Cooks in the middle of the field that would help set up a 41-yard field goal by Lutz, his fourth of the game, extending New Orleans' lead to 25-20 with 1:57 left. On their final drive, Seattle would advance to the New Orleans 10-yard line, with Seahawks QB Russell Wilson keeping his team's hopes alive with a third-and-six completion to WR Doug Baldwin for a 27-yard gain. The Saints were not done from a defensive standpoint though as they successfully kept the Seahawks out of the end zone, as Seattle WR Jermaine Kearse failed to make a tough catch in the back of the end zone as time expired.

New Orleans failed to reach 400 yards of offense after outputs of 523 yards and 463 yards in the past two contests, but a balanced offensive approach of 35 passes and 35 runs proved to be successful as a team scored on Seattle's traditionally stingy defense on six-consecutive offensive possessions for the first time since December 27, 2009. Brees completed 27-of-35 passes for 265 yards with one touchdown, no interceptions and a 107.4 passer rating. Hightower carried 26 times for 102 yards as a Saint reached the century mark for the first time this season. It marked the sixth 100-yard rushing game of Hightower's career and second as a Saint. He fell just two carries short of matching the career-high 28 attempts he set as a Saint last season at Tampa Bay on Dec. 13, 2015.

Cooks caught four passes for 44 yards with the touchdown, while fellow WRs Willie Snead IV and Michael Thomas had six grabs apiece. LB Nate Stupar had his first-career interception, picking off Wilson in the second quarter. Lutz was four-for-four on field goal attempts, including a 53-yard conversion in the second quarter, marking his third make of 50-plus yards this season, one shy of the franchise record in a season. He also became the first Saints kicker to make four field goals in a contest since K Zach Hocker converted on four attempts at Arizona on Sept. 13, 2015.

Week 9: Saints 41, San Francisco 49ers 23; November 6, 2016 @ Levi's Stadium— The Saints continued to stay hot beating the San Francisco 49ers 41-23 using a dominant and balanced offensive attack.

After an opening drive punt for the Saints, San Francisco would strike first, with K Phil Dawson drilling a 49-yard field goal to take an early 3-0 lead. New Orleans would respond with a scoring drive of their own as RB Tim Hightower would cap a 10-play, 83-yard drive with a four-yard touchdown run to put the Saints ahead 7-3. The Saints would get the ball back quickly thanks to LB Craig Robertson interception of QB Colin Kaepernick. QB Drew Brees and the offense would capitalize quickly with Brees finding WR Michael Thomas for a one-yard touchdown. After a defensive stop on a fourth-and-one, New Orleans would again put points on the board, this time on a RB Mark Ingram five-yard touchdown reception.

However, the 49ers would answer quickly with Kaepernick connecting with RB DuJuan Harris on a 47-yard screen pass for the touchdown, bringing the score to 21-10. The prolific first half scoring would continue for the Saints as Ingram would burst through for a career-long 75-yard touchdown run giving New Orleans a commanding 28-10 lead. The 49ers would chip away at the Saints lead with Dawson converting on a 48-yard field goal. Following a Saints three-and-out, Kaepernick would find TE Vance McDonald for a 65-yard score, making it a one score game at 28-20. With 1:16 remaining in the opening half, Brees and company drove 71 yards, setting K Wil Lutz up for a 26-yard field goal to give them a 31-20 halftime lead.

After the 49ers drove 60 yards on the opening second half drive, Saints LB Nate Stupar forced a fumble of RB Mike Davis, with Stupar recovering the fumble at the New Orleans one-yard line. After the Saints were unable to capitalize on the turnover, San Francisco would add a 46-yard field goal by Dawson making it 31-23. Following a missed field goal by Lutz and a punt by San Francisco, the Saints found the end zone on a 32-yard pass from Brees to Thomas, his second scoring grab of the game. The Saints defense continued their second half resurgence when S Kenny Vaccaro recovered a Kaepernick fumble at the New Orleans eight-yard line. On San Francisco's final drive, Vaccaro forced a fumble of Harris that would be recovered by S Vonn Bell, capping a season-best +4 turnover differential for the game.

GAME SUMMARIES

Week 10: Denver Broncos 25, Saints 23; November 13, 2016 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – New Orleans was unable to take advantage of productive defensive showing as a blocked PAT attempt returned for a two-point conversion would drop the Saints to 4-5 on the season. The return for the two-point conversion was only the third such return since the rule change prior to the 2015 season and first ever against New Orleans.

After New Orleans' opening drive stalled at midfield, the Broncos would get on the scoreboard first with QB Trevor Siemian finding WR Jordan Taylor for the 14-yard score, capping a 13-play, 85-yard drive that spanned 7:15. The Saints offense continued to sputter, as on the following drive, S Darian Stewart intercepted QB Drew Brees at the Denver seven-yard line. Following a defensive stop, Brees would again be intercepted by Stewart, this time at midfield, with Stewart returning it to the New Orleans 39-yard line. K Brandon McManus would connect on a 50-yard field goal to extend the Broncos lead to 10-0.

Momentum would shift near the end of the first half when CB Sterling Moore would intercept Siemian at the Saints 38-yard line, giving New Orleans an opportunity to score before the half. The Saints would capitalize on the misstep with Brees moving the offense 50 yards in five plays to set up K Wil Lutz for the 30-yard field goal, bringing the score to 10-3 at the half.

New Orleans would carry this momentum into the second half, with Brees engineering a seven-play, 90-yard drive that culminated in a three-yard touchdown grab by WR Willie Snead IV. Following an interception by S Kenny Vaccaro, the Saints offense would again go to work, going on a four-play, 38-yard drive that ended with another Snead IV touchdown, giving the Saints their first lead of the game at 17-10.

After a fourth quarter that saw two fumbles by WR Michael Thomas that each led to Broncos field goals, New Orleans would get the ball back with 2:50 remaining in the game down 17-23. On second-and-10, Brees would find WR Brandin Cooks for a 29-yard gain, giving the Saints a first down at the Broncos 46-yard line. Brees and Cooks would again connect on an incredible end-zone game-tying 32-yard touchdown. However, on the ensuing PAT attempt, S Justin Simmons blocked the kick, which would be recovered by S Will Parks and returned 68 yards for the two-point conversion to win the game for the Broncos.

MAKING A RUN FOR IT

On Nov. 6 at San Francisco, New Orleans rushed for 248 yards, the most they've rushed for in a game in 2016 and most they've rushed for in a game since they rushed for 249 yards at Cincinnati on Nov. 4, 1990. It was the 10th-highest rushing total in franchise history. This resurgence in the running game has New Orleans ranked ninth in the NFL in rushing yards per game since Oct. 23. Over this time, they have rushed for at least 100 yards rushing in three-of-four contests.

TOP 10 RUSHING YPG LEADERS SINCE OCT. 23

TEAM NOTES

ROSTER ROLL CALL

Of the 53 players on the current Saints roster, 29 were on the active roster, a reserve list or the practice squad at the end of the 2015 season. Among newcomers, the roster includes five unrestricted free agents, seven veteran free agents, five draft picks, six rookie free agents and one veteran claimed off of waivers.

Of the 53 players, 29 have less than four years of previous NFL experience, including 11 who are in their first NFL season. Below is a breakdown of the Saints roster by years of experience (year entering): 16 years-1, 13 years-1, 11 years-5, 8 years-7, 7 years-1, 6 years-5, 5 years-4, 4 years-9, 3 years-2, 2 years-7, rookies-11.

HIGHER EDUCATION

42 colleges and universities are represented on the Saints' 53-man roster. Of that total, nine are represented by multiple Saints, with two apiece from Alabama, California, Colorado, Ohio State, Penn State, Oregon, Southern Methodist, Stanford and Texas.

MY HOMETOWN

Saints players come from 20 different states, Washington D.C., Germany and Nigeria. Of the 53 players currently on the team's active roster, the state which claims the most members of the team is Texas with nine (quarterbacks Drew Brees and Luke McCown, long snapper Justin Drescher, defensive back De'Vante Harris, running back Daniel Lasco, running back, return specialist Marcus Murphy, punter Thomas Morstead, LB Craig Robertson and safety Kenny Vaccaro).

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

A spot on the practice squad is another avenue to get onto the active roster and have the opportunity to contribute. New Orleans has 10 players on their current 53-man roster who moved up after being on a practice squad before being promoted. Below is an overview of these players with extensive practice squad experience.

WR Brandon Coleman was originally signed by New Orleans out of Rutgers following the 2014 NFL Draft. Coleman spent the majority of his rookie campaign on the practice squad before being elevated to the active roster for the regular season finale. Coleman won a roster spot on the 2015 opening day roster, going on to make 30 receptions for 454 yards (15.4 avg.) with two TD grabs. He has appeared in nine games in 2016 (two starts), catching 18 passes for 214 yards and one TD with one special teams stop.

An eight-year NFL veteran, T Tony Hills has persevered on three practice squads and after starting the 2015 season on the Baltimore practice roster, the former University of Texas standout was signed to the Saints active roster. Now in his second season with New Orleans, Hills has appeared in seven games, seeing extensive time at left tackle on Oct. 16 against Carolina in place of an injured Peat.

G/C Senio Kelemete participated on the Saints practice squad in 2013 after spending the 2012 campaign on the Arizona Cardinals active roster. In 2015, he started three games at right guard, one at left guard and started the season's final contest against Atlanta at left tackle. It was his first career start at the position. In 2016, he has played in eight contests with four starts.

S Shiloh Keo has played in 50 career games (11 starts) and six postseason contests (one start) with Houston (2011-13) and Denver (2015), originally added to the Texans practice squad after being drafted by Houston in 2011. He has totaled 68 tackles, three interceptions and eight passes defended, with 21 special teams stops. In 2016, he has played in one game for the Black and Gold.

Originally signed as an undrafted free agent out of Shippensburg University by the Pittsburgh Steelers following the 2005 NFL Draft, FB John Kuhn would begin his NFL career on the practice squad of the Steelers from 2005-06, before being elevated to the Steelers active roster. In 2016, he has rushed 10 times for 22 yards with three touchdowns and has added eight catches for 36 yards with one TD over nine games played with two starts.

Signed as an undrafted free agent out of Ferris State in 2016, WR Jake Lampman spent the first five weeks of the season on the team's practice squad, before he was signed to the active roster in Week Six, where he made an immediate impact with five special teams tackles in an Oct. 16 win vs. Carolina. Despite playing in just four games, his four special teams stops is among the team leaders.

Initially signed to the Cleveland Browns practice squad after competing on a tryout basis during his rookie season in 2011, the versatile LB Craig Robertson would seize this opportunity, making the 53-man roster the following season. In 2016 over nine starts, he has posted 89 tackles (66 solo), one sack, one interception, one fumble recovery, five passes defended and two special teams stops.

WR Willie Snead IV first entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with Cleveland in 2014 out of Ball State.

Appearing in 15 games last season, including eight starts, Snead made 69 receptions for 984 yards (14.3 avg.) and three TDs. In eight games with two starts in 2016, he has recorded 42 receptions for 522 yards and four touchdowns.

LB Nate Stupar came to the NFL as a seventh-round draft pick of the Raiders in the 2012 NFL Draft (230th overall), later signing to their practice squad. The former Penn State standout would also spend time on the practice squads of the Eagles and 49ers. In 2016, he has played in nine contests with five starts and has posted 41 tackles (29 solo), one INT, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, two passes defensed and six special teams stops.

CB B.W. Webb joined the Saints in Week Two of the 2016 season after previous stints with the Tennessee Titans (2015), Pittsburgh Steelers (2014) and Dallas Cowboys (2013). Originally drafted by the Cowboys in the fourth round (114th overall) of the 2013 NFL Draft, this fourth-year cornerback has logged 42 career games (five starts), 46 total tackles (39 solo), two interceptions, 13 pass defenses and six special teams stops. In seven games with three starts for New Orleans in 2016, he has tallied 12 tackles (10 solo), one interception and a team-best nine passes defensed.

BUCKING THE ODDS

Players whose names are not called in the NFL Draft each spring face challenging odds in sticking on a team, with every snap or drill in OTAs, minicamps and training camp under evaluation. Yet the current 2016 53-man roster features 17 undrafted players who bucked the odds, seven of whom started at least one contest for the Saints prior to this season. Undrafted players on the current Saints 53-man roster with NFL experience include CB Delvin Breaux, RB Travaris Cadet, Coleman, LS Justin Drescher, DE Kasim Edebali, LB Dannell Ellerbe, TE Josh Hill, G Tim Lelito, CB Sterling Moore, Robertson and Snead IV.

A New Orleans native who suffered a serious neck injury as a high school senior at McDonogh 35 that did not allow him to play football at LSU where he was committed, the persistent Breaux took a route through the Gridiron Developmental Football League, the AFL and the CFL.

Going on to start all 16 contests in 2015, Breaux finished with 49 tackles (38 solo), a team-high three interceptions, 23 passes defensed and one fumble recovery. Breaux was voted by his teammates as the club's 2015 Ed Block Courage Award winner. On Nov. 6 against San Francisco, he returned from a six game absence due to a broken fibula. He has made eight tackles over three starts in 2016.

Signed out of Appalachian State, Cadet has played in 57 career games (three starts) and has carried for 69 yards on 24 attempts, made 83 receptions for 693 yards with four TDs and returned 63 kickoffs for 1,531 yards (24.3 avg.). Over nine games played with one start in 2016, he has rushed twice for four yards, caught 21 passes for 134 yards with one TD and returned 10 kicks for 144 yards (14.4 avg.), also adding two special teams stops.

Signed as an undrafted free agent out of the University of Colorado in 2010 by Atlanta and picked up by New Orleans at midseason, Drescher has handled long-snapping duties for 95 consecutive games, adding four special teams stops.

A Hamburg, Germany native who started playing football in middle school prior to further developing his skills in prep school in New Hampshire, Edebali was signed following the 2014 NFL Draft out of Boston College and in two seasons has played in all 41 games with two starts, posting 46 tackles (32 solo), eight sacks, five passes defensed, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and 22 special teams stops. In 2016, he has seen action in all nine games with one start and has totaled 10 tackles (seven solo), one sack, two passes defensed and four special teams stops.

Signed as an undrafted free agent by Baltimore out of Georgia in 2009, Ellerbe has appeared in 70 games with 36 starts, posting career totals of 352 tackles (256 solo), 7.5 sacks, three interceptions, 14 passes defensed, a forced fumble, four fumble recoveries, 18 special teams stops and a coverage forced fumble. Over two starts in 2016, he has posted 14 tackles (seven solo), one sack and one pass defensed.

A 2013 undrafted free agent signing by New Orleans out of Idaho State, Hill has played in 52 career games with 19 starts and has posted 44 catches for 412 yards (9.4 avg.) with nine touchdowns and 25 special teams stops. In 2016, he has caught eight passes for 72 yards with one touchdown over six games played, all starts.

Signed as a free agent out of Grand Valley State in 2013, Lelito has appeared in 56 regular season contests and two playoff games over his four-year career while making 20 starts. He has played in nine games with five starts in 2016.

Moore comes to New Orleans after spending the 2016 offseason and preseason with Buffalo and the 2015 campaign with Tampa Bay. The 5-10, 202-pound Southern Methodist product has started 24-of-62 career games while accumulating 146 tackles, six interceptions, 32 passes defended, seven forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. Over six games played in 2016 (five starts), he has registered 22 tackles (19 solo), two interceptions, seven passes defended and one forced fumble.

Ahead is a synopsis of several returning players and newcomers through the draft, free agency and trade to the 2016 Saints offensive line:

LT Terron Armstead - The club's first third round draft choice in 2013 out of Arkansas-Pine Bluff, Armstead impressed scouts by running the fastest 40-yard dash time (4.71) by an offensive lineman in the history of the NFL Scouting Combine. He has opened 34 regular season games and two postseason contests for New Orleans. In 2016, he has opened five-of-nine games at left tackle, missing four contests due to a knee injury.

G Jahri Evans - The 2006 fourth round draft choice made a rapid ascent from his small school roots at Bloomsburg into one of the NFL's top interior linemen and the top guard in team history. Evans's been named to six Pro Bowls since 2009, as well as being named an AP first-team All-Pro selection from 2009-12 and a second-team selection in 2013. Overall, Evans has started 162 contests at right guard for New Orleans, the ninth-highest total for games played in team record books. In 2016, he has opened all nine games at right guard.

C/G Senio Kelemete - Originally a fifth round selection of the Arizona Cardinals (151st overall) in the 2012 NFL Draft, since first joining the New Orleans practice squad at the start of the 2013 season, this fourth-year offensive lineman has displayed the versatility to play every position on the offensive line. The 6-foot-3, 300-pounder played in all 16 games for the first time in his career in 2015 and opened five games, including contests at both guard positions and at right tackle. He has appeared in eight games in 2016 with four starts, last starting at LG vs. Denver on Nov. 13.

G Tim Lelito - Originally signed as an undrafted free agent out of Grand Valley State in 2013, this lineman proved the jump was not too big from Division II to the NFL as he's started at all three interior positions. In 2015, Lelito won the starting left guard slot in the preseason, but ended up seeing significant action at both guard spots. He opened 11 contests at left guard and two at right guard. He has appeared in all nine games in 2016 (five starts).

T Andrus Peat - A first round selection (13th overall) in the 2015 NFL Draft out of Stanford, Peat was considered one of the top college offensive linemen in 2014. In his rookie campaign, Peat saw action in 12 contests with eight starts, being inserted into several offensive packages, including two starts at left tackle in place of an injured Armstead. In 2016, he has started eight contests, opening four games at left guard, while making four starts at left tackle in place of an injured Armstead.

RT Zach Strief - This 2006 seventh round pick out of Northwestern has appeared in 149 regular season games with 85 starts and played in 10 postseason contests, four which he has opened. He has become even more durable with age, appearing in and starting 42 consecutive postseason and regular season contests at his right tackle position, before missing last season's Week 16 contest against Jacksonville with an elbow injury. He has made all nine starts at right tackle in 2016.

C Max Unger - After being acquired by the Saints via trade at the start of the 2015 offseason, Max Unger anchored the middle of the New Orleans line, including being the lone offensive linemen to open all 16 contests. Originally a second round draft pick of the Seahawks in 2009, Unger has been named a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press in 2012 and is a two-time Pro Bowler, helping the Seahawks to two Super Bowl appearances and a victory in Super Bowl XLVIII. For the 2016 season, he was voted one of two offensive team captains. Unger has opened all 92 games he has played in since 2009, including all nine in 2016.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

DEFENSIVE DRAFT

Over the last two NFL Drafts, New Orleans has shown a commitment to improving the defense, with four players selected over the last two drafts on the current Saints 53-man roster. Below is an overview of these four players:

LB Stephone Anthony, Clemson (D1b-15) - In his rookie campaign, Anthony started all 16 games at middle linebacker and led the team with a club rookie record 144 tackles (99 solo), while adding one sack, one interception, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery, one defensive touchdown, one defensive two-point conversion off of a blocked PAT attempt, five passes defended and one special teams stop. His total stops led NFL rookies and he was a consensus All-Rookie selection. In the club's Week 13 contest against Carolina, he took a blocked PAT kick attempt back 82 yards for the two-point conversion, marking the first time in NFL history that a blocked PAT kick attempt led to a two-point conversion since the rule change before the 2015 season. In six games played with two starts in 2016, he has posted five tackles (three solo), including one tackle for loss.

S Vonn Bell, Ohio State (D2b-16) - Selected by New Orleans in the second round (61st overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft, Bell was a consensus All-American and one of the top rated defensive backs in the NFL Draft. As a senior, the Rossville, Ga. native was a Jim Thorpe Award semifinalist after recording 65 tackles and adding two interceptions, one brought back for a TD, one fumble recovery and 11 passes defended. He started 28 games his final two years at Ohio State, and posted career totals of nine interceptions, 176 stops, 24 passes defended, two fumble recoveries and four tackles behind the line of scrimmage. Over nine games played with six starts in his rookie campaign, he has recorded 52 tackles (33 solo), one half sack, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery, one pass defended and five special teams stops.

DT Tyeler Davison, Fresno State (D5b-15) - This run-stopping widebody defensive lineman played in 53 career games at Fresno State and made 28.5 stops for a loss and 14.5 sacks. In 2015, Davison played in all 16 games with five starts, finishing his rookie campaign with 26 tackles (15 solo) and 1.5 sacks. In eight games played in 2016, all starts, he has totaled 18 tackles (10 solo).

DL David Onyemata (D4-16) - Possessing a unique combination of size and speed, this Lagos, Nigeria native turned in a productive college career north of the border at the University of Manitoba, as the first member of the Bisons program to be drafted. In 37 career games, he posted 166 tackles, 9.5 sacks, two passes defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. Over nine games played in 2016, he has tallied 12 tackles (seven solo).

DT Sheldon Rankins - Drafted by New Orleans 12th overall in the 2016 NFL Draft out of Louisville, Rankins played in 46 games along the defensive line at Louisville, producing 133 tackles (72 solo), 31.5 tackles for loss and 18 sacks during his collegiate career. A two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection, Rankins racked up a career-high 58 tackles, 13 tackles for loss, six sacks, one pass defended and one fumble recovery returned 46 yards for a touchdown as a senior in 2015. After a leg injury forced him to miss the first seven games of 2016, Rankins has appeared in two games, posting four tackles (three solo) with one sack.

NEW FACES ON DEFENSE

Along with the NFL Draft, New Orleans used free agency to add pieces to their defense, bringing players from other teams, as well as other leagues to help create the perfect mixture of veteran leadership and young talent in the Saints locker room. Below is an overview of those players:

DT Nick Fairley - Fairley comes to New Orleans after spending the past five seasons contributing to the defensive line rotations of the Detroit Lions (2011-14) and St. Louis Rams (2015). He has recorded 193 tackles (116 solo), 18.5 sacks, four passes defended, five forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries over 70 games played with 39 starts. Originally a first round draft pick of Detroit in 2011 out of Auburn, Fairley has started all nine games in 2016, posting 30 tackles (19 solo) and 4.5 sacks.

S Roman Harper - Re-signed this offseason with New Orleans, where he established himself as one of the NFL's most physical defensive backs, Roman Harper is the only safety in team history to have been selected to two Pro Bowls. His 18 career sacks rank first among active defensive backs and are tied for ninth all-time. The Prattville, Ala. native is now in his 11th season, after playing his first eight in New Orleans and his last two with the Carolina Panthers. In 2015, Harper started all 16 regular season games at safety, finishing with 73 tackles (58 solo), a career-high two fumble recoveries and seven passes defended as he helped Carolina advance to the Super Bowl. In 2016, he has posted seven tackles (four solo) and three special teams stop over nine games played with one start.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

DE Paul Kruger - Winning Super Bowl XLVII in New Orleans as a member of the Baltimore Ravens after the 2012 season, Kruger comes to New Orleans after spending the previous three campaigns with the Cleveland Browns. Originally drafted by the Baltimore Ravens in the second round (57th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft out of Utah, Kruger has appeared in eight games with six starts for the Black and Gold in 2016, registering 24 tackles (15 solo), 1.5 sacks, one pass defensed and one fumble recovery.

CB Sterling Moore - Signed just before the start of the 2016 season, Moore has proven to be a key acquisition for the New Orleans secondary, registering 22 tackles (19 solo), two interceptions, seven passes defensed and one forced fumble over six games played with five starts in 2016. His two interceptions lead the team.

LB Craig Robertson - Robertson joins the Saints after spending his first five NFL seasons with Cleveland. He has tallied 403 tackles (267 solo), five sacks, seven interceptions, 20 passes defensed, two forced fumbles, six fumble recoveries, one touchdown and 35 special teams stops over 67 games with 46 starts. In 2015, he appeared in 12 games with nine starts and totaled 50 tackles (30 solo), one INT, five passes defensed, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and nine special teams stops. Starting all nine contests in 2016, he has totaled a team-high 89 tackles (66 solo), one sack, one fumble recovery, five passes defensed and three special teams stops.

LB Nate Stupar - The former Penn State standout has appeared in 52 career contests with eight starts for four clubs and has posted career totals of 72 tackles (54 solo), one interception, one sack, two passes defensed, two forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries and 34 special teams stops. In his first season with the Black and Gold, he has played in nine games with five starts and has posted 41 tackles (29 solo), one interception, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and six special teams stops.

DE Darryl Tapp - Originally selected by the Seattle Seahawks in the second round (53rd overall) of the 2006 NFL Draft out of Virginia Tech, Tapp has played in 155 career NFL games with 37 starts and has recorded totals of 316 tackles (243 solo), 28.0 sacks, two interceptions, one returned for a touchdown, 20 passes defensed, 11 forced fumbles, 10 fumble recoveries and 11 special teams tackles over 11 seasons. In nine games played in 2016 (one start), he has recorded 19 tackles (eight solo), one half sack and one fumble recovery.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

Under the guidance of Greg McMahon, in his 11th season on the coaching staff and his ninth as coordinator and his assistant Stan Kwan, the Saints special teams is once again one of the team's most consistent position groups.

- K Wil Lutz is in his first season with New Orleans, joining the team after originally being signed by the Baltimore Ravens as an undrafted free agent out of Georgia State following the 2016 NFL Draft. Over his rookie campaign, he has connected on 14-of-19 (73.7 pct.) FG attempts, including a career-long 57-yard field goal against Atlanta on Sept. 26, the third-longest made field goal in franchise history, matching Kai Forbath's 57-yarder at Houston last year. He is also 29-for-30 on PAT attempts. On Oct. 16 against Carolina, he kicked a 52-yard game-winning field goal with :13 remaining to collect the first game-winning FG of his career, the longest game-winning kick by a Saint since 1984. He was named the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week, becoming the first rookie kicker in Saints team history to be recognized by the league as a Special Teams Player of the Week. On Oct. 30 against Seattle, he was four-for-four on FG attempts, including a 53-yard conversion in the second quarter, marking his third make of 50-plus yards this season, one shy of the franchise record in a season. Following his performance, he was awarded his second NFC Special Teams Player of the Week, becoming the second Saints kicker to receive the honor twice in the same season (John Carney, 2001).

- P Thomas Morstead, who has been a weapon in the field position game with his strong leg, outstanding placement abilities and booming kickoffs, returns for his eighth year with New Orleans. Over his eight-year career, the club's fifth-round draft choice (164th overall) in 2009 from Southern Methodist University, has posted a club-record career gross average of 47.0 on 444 punts, ranked third all-time in the NFL (compiled by the NFL since 1939), with a team-best career 41.2 net average, which is ranked second all-time (compiled by NFL since 1976) and has placed 150 punts inside the 20-yard line, while also booming 258 kickoffs in the end zone for touchbacks. Morstead has recorded three of the top ten all-time single-season net yardage figures (compiled by the NFL since 1976). In Week One against the Raiders, he played in his 111th career game, moving him into sole possession of 31st in club record books in games played, surpassing a tie with Tommy Barnhardt for most games played by a punter. In 2016, he has punted 34 times for 1,686 yards (49.6 avg.) and has placed 14 of his punts inside the 20-yard line.

QUARTERBACKS

BY THE NUMBERS

DREW BREES

- Since signing with the New Orleans Saints as an unrestricted free agent in 2006 from the San Diego Chargers, Drew Brees has thrown for 4,000 or more yards each season, became the only quarterback to throw for 5,000 yards four different times, set the league single-season yardage record in 2011 (broken by Peyton Manning in 2013) and ranked at or near the top in every passing category, both in single-seasons and over the 10-year period, breaking nearly every club record.

- He opened the 2016 season against Oakland going 28-of-42 for 423 yards, four TDs and a 131.3 passer rating. With 4,306 passing yards on kickoff weekend for his career, he joined Peyton Manning as the only QBs in NFL history to throw for at least 4,000 yards on opening weekend over their careers. It was also his sixth-consecutive week one game with at least 300 yards passing, surpassing a record held by Kurt Warner (1999-2003).

- Since 2006, he leads the NFL with 51,547 passing yards, 372 touchdown passes, 6,652 attempts, 4,503 completions, a 67.7% completion percentage, 95 games with at least 300 yards passing, 15 with at least 400 yards passing, 390 completions of 25 yards or more and stands at fourth in the league with a 99.5 passer rating.

- Brees has been selected to play in a club-record eight Pro Bowls as a Saint, with nine overall berths in the NFL's all-star game twice as a starter. His seven consecutive selections as a Saint is tied for first in franchise history with Pro Football Hall of Fame tackle William Roaf.

- Brees has posted a 98-69 regular season record in contests he has started since signing with the Saints in 2006. In 2015 at Atlanta, he recorded his 100th career victory as a Saints quarterback. Including his six playoff victories, his 104 total wins in a Saints uniform make him the winningest quarterback in franchise history. Overall, Brees' win total as a member of the Saints ranks fourth among all NFL QBs since 2006.

- In his 16-year NFL career where he's appeared in 226 games with 225 starts, Brees has completed 5,628-of-8,461 passes (66.5%) for 63,895 yards, 452 touchdown passes and a 96.3 passer rating. He's the NFL's all-time most accurate passer, is ranked third in completions, third in TD passes, third in passing yardage and seventh in passer rating. In Week Two at the New York Giants, he surpassed Dan Marino (61,361) to move into third place on the NFL's all-time passing yardage list.

LUKE McCOWN

• McCown is in his 13th NFL season and fourth with New Orleans. Originally a fourth round selection (106th overall) in the 2004 NFL Draft by Cleveland, the former Louisiana Tech standout has played in 63 career games with 10 starts with the Browns, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, the Jacksonville Jaguars, the Atlanta Falcons and the Saints. He has completed 216-of-356 passes for 2,070 yards with nine touchdowns and a 71.3 rating.

RUNNING BACKS

TRAVARIS CADET

• Cadet returned to New Orleans for the final two games of the 2015 season, after splitting the beginning of the year between the New England Patriots and San Francisco 49ers. Originally signed by the Saints as an undrafted free agent out of Appalachian State following the 2012 NFL Draft, Cadet spent his first three seasons with the Black and Gold, proving to be effective at running back, wide receiver and return specialist. In 2016, he has rushed for four yards on two attempts, made 21 receptions for 134 yards with one touchdown, and added 144 yards on 10 kickoff returns over nine games played with one start.

TIM HIGHTOWER

• Originally a 2008 fifth-round pick (149th overall) of Arizona, Hightower became the lead back in 2015 after an injury to RB Mark Ingram and posted the third-highest rushing yards total in the league from his first start in the team's Week 14 matchup at Tampa Bay through the end of the season. Over nine games with one start in 2016, he has rushed for 297 yards on 76 carries, caught six passes for 55 yards and returned three kickoffs for 61 yards, adding one special teams stop. On Oct. 30 against Seattle, he carried it a season-high 26 times for a season-best 102 yards, including a long-rush of 28 yards. It was New Orleans' first 100-yard rushing performance of the season and marked the sixth 100-yard rushing game of Hightower's career and second as a Saint.

MARK INGRAM

• One of the club's two first round draft picks in 2011, the 2009 Heisman Trophy winner has been an integral part of the rushing attack since his arrival in New Orleans. Before being sidelined in 2015, Ingram rushed for 769 yards and six TDs on 166 attempts, and added a career-high 405 yards receiving on a career-best 50 catches. His 1,174 total yards from scrimmage marked a new career-high. He has started seven games in 2016, while appearing in all nine, accumulating 547 yards on 115 attempts (4.8 avg.) with two TDs and 180 yards on 26 receptions with three TDs. On Oct. 2 at San Diego, he surpassed Rueben Mays to move into fifth place on the franchise's all-time rushing yards list. On Nov. 6 at San Francisco, he recorded his first 100-yard rushing game of 2016, including a career-long 75-yard touchdown that was the fourth-longest rush in Saints history.

INGRAM'S BIG DAYS

Mark Ingram has reached 100 yards or more seven times over his Saints career, with New Orleans going 6-1 over those contests. Below is a list of those performances:

- Nov. 10, 2013 vs. Dallas Cowboys - Carried 14 times for 145 yards (10.4 avg.) with one touchdown and two receptions for 15 yards for 160 yards of total offense.
- Oct. 26, 2014 vs. Green Bay Packers - Rushed for a career-high 172 yards on 24 carries (7.2 avg.) with one TD
- Oct. 30, 2014 at Carolina Panthers - Rushed 30 times for 100 yards with two touchdowns and added a 10-yard grab.
- Nov. 9, 2014 vs. San Francisco 49ers - Became the first Saint to have 100 yards rushing in three consecutive games since 2003 with 27 carries for 120 yards.
- Nov. 30, 2014 at Pittsburgh Steelers - Rushed 23 times for 122 yards (5.3 avg.) with a season-long 31-yard carry.
- Oct. 25, 2015 at Indianapolis Colts - Carried 14 times for 143 yards (10.2 avg.) with one touchdown.
- Nov. 6, 2016 at San Francisco 49ers - Carried 15 times for 158 yards (10.5 avg.) with one touchdown.

DANIEL LASCO

• Lasco comes to New Orleans after finishing his college career with 2,395 career all-purpose yards over 41 games and 15 starts, including 1,872 rushing yards and 18 TDs on the ground to rank 10th on Cal's all-time list. Healthy after being limited due to injuries in his senior campaign, Lasco seeks a return to the form of his junior season, when he rushed for 1,115 yards and tallied 1,471 total yards from scrimmage. Appearing in six games in his rookie campaign, he has carried it 11 times for 32 yards and has made two receptions for 11 yards, while adding six special teams stops. His six special teams stops ranks second on the team.

WIDE RECEIVERS

BRANDON COLEMAN

• Originally signed by New Orleans out of Rutgers following the 2014 NFL Draft, the Forestville, Md. native won a roster spot on the 2015 opening day roster, going on to appear in all 16 games with four starts and posting 30 receptions for 454 yards and two TDs. Over nine games played with two starts in 2016, he has made 18 receptions for 214 yards and one touchdown, adding one special teams stop.

BRANDIN COOKS

• The club's first-round selection in the 2014 NFL Draft, Cooks recorded his first-career 1,000-yard season in 2015, leading the team in receiving with 84 grabs for 1,138 yards (13.5 avg.) and a team-leading nine TDs. In Week One against the Raiders, he caught a 98-yard TD, the longest pass play in franchise history and the longest scoring offensive play in franchise history. Against Carolina on Oct. 16, he recorded a career-high 173 yards receiving, including an 87-yard TD reception, the third-longest in the NFL in 2016. Overall in nine games with six starts in 2016, he has posted 44 receptions for 694 yards (15.8 avg.) with six TDs, while adding 19 yards on three rushes.

WILLIE SNEAD IV

• After concluding a collegiate career at Ball State that saw him leave the school ranked second in club record books in receptions (223) and receiving yardage (2,991), Snead then entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with Cleveland in 2014. Earning a roster spot in the 2015 preseason, the Muskegon Heights, Mich. native appeared in 15 games with eight starts and made 69 receptions for 984 yards (14.3 avg.) and three TDs. He began his second season in the NFL by catching nine passes for a career-high 172 yards and one TD in Week One against Oakland. Over eight games played with two starts in 2016, he has caught 42 passes for 522 yards (12.4) and four TDs.

EXPLOSIVE PLAYS

In Week One against Oakland, WR Brandin Cooks caught a 98-yard touchdown that was the longest pass play in franchise history and the longest offensive play in franchise history. Against Carolina on Oct. 16, Brees and Cooks connected for an 87-yard score, with Cooks owning two of the three longest receptions of 2016. Over the past two seasons, Cooks (20) and Snead (8) have combined for 28 plays of 25 yards or more, 12 of which have went for TDs.

• Signed as an undrafted free agent from Idaho State, Hill has posted 44 grabs for 412 yards with nine touchdowns, while adding 25 special teams stops over his four-year career. In 2016, he has caught eight passes for 72 yards and one touchdown over six games played, all starts.

DEFENSIVE ENDSKASIM EDEBALI

• Signed by the Black and Gold as an undrafted free agent out of Boston College, Kasim Edebali first made the club's 53-man roster out of training camp in 2014 and has played in all 41 games since, making 46 tackles (32 solo), eight sacks, five passes defensed, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and 22 special teams stops. In 2015, the Hamburg, Germany native played in all 16 games with one start, totaling 18 tackles (14 solo), a career-high five sacks, three passes defensed, one fumble recovery and six special teams stops. Over nine games played with one start in 2016, he has posted 10 tackles (seven solo), one sack, two passes defensed and four special teams stops.

CAMERON JORDAN

• New Orleans' first choice in the 2011 NFL Draft (24th overall) out of California came to the Saints after a college career where he was one of the nation's elite pass rushers. In 2015, he started all 16 games, posting 61 tackles (39 solo), 10 sacks, seven passes defensed, a forced fumble and two fumble recoveries. With 10 sacks on the season, it marked the second time in his career that he posted a double-digit sack season, becoming the ninth Saint to have multiple double-digit sack seasons. His efforts were rewarded with a Pro Bowl nomination, the second of his career. In nine games played in 2016, all starts, Jordan has tallied four sacks, 41 total tackles (21 solo), one forced fumble and two passes defensed. On Oct. 2 at San Diego, the two-time team captain's half sack forced a field goal in the red zone that kept the deficit under two touchdowns to force the stunning comeback. Against Denver on Nov. 13, he had a standout performance, totaling a team-high nine tackles (team-best eight solo) with one sack and three tackles for loss.

DEFENSIVE ENDS

- Jordan has posted 43.0 sacks since he entered the NFL in 2011 and over the past four seasons is only the second player, joining Houston's J.J. Watt to have 40 takedowns and 20 passes defended. During this time, the Saints own a 22-11 record when he corrals a signal-caller, and they boast a 7-0 mark when he tallies two or more sacks. On the season, he has posted four sacks.

PAUL KRUGER

- Kruger comes to New Orleans after spending the last three seasons with Cleveland. Originally drafted by the Baltimore Ravens in the second round (57th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft out of Utah, Kruger has posted 242 tackles (151 solo), 35.0 sacks for a total loss of 214.0 yards, two interceptions, 24 passes defended, seven forced fumbles and five fumble recoveries over 107 games played with 59 starts. Over eight games played in 2016, six starts, he has registered 24 tackles (15 solo), 1.5 sacks, one pass defended and one fumble recovery.

DEFENSIVE TACKLES

TYELER DAVISON

- After being selected in the fifth round (154th overall) of the 2015 NFL Draft, Davison quickly impressed in the preseason, earning a spot on the 53-man roster. Appearing in all 16 games with five starts in his rookie season, he posted 26 tackles (15 solo) and 1.5 sacks for a total loss of eight yards. He has started eight games in 2016, posting 18 tackles, 10 of which have been solo tackles.

NICK FAIRLEY

- With a commitment to improving the defense during the offseason, the former Auburn standout was signed as an unrestricted free agent from the Rams, after originally being drafted in the 2011 NFL Draft 13th overall by the Detroit Lions. Over his five-year career, Fairley has played in 70 games with 39 starts and has recorded 193 tackles (116 solo), 18.5 sacks, four passes defended, five forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries. The Mobile, Ala. native has started all nine games for the Black and Gold in 2016, recording 30 tackles (19 solo) and 4.5 sacks. On Oct. 2 at San Diego, he recorded a crucial takedown of QB Philip Rivers on the Chargers' final drive to help secure a Saints victory. In just nine games, he is already 1.5 sacks away from tying his career-high six sacks set in 2013.

YOUTH ALONG THE LINE

New Orleans used the 2016 NFL Draft to strengthen their defensive line, using two of their first four picks on the front four.

DAVID ONYEMATA

- Onyemata was chosen with the team's fourth round pick (120th overall) after a stellar career at the University of Manitoba of the CIS, becoming the first member of the Bisons program to be drafted. In 37 career games, he posted 166 tackles, 9.5 sacks, two passes defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. As a senior, the Lagos, Nigeria native was named a Canada West all-star for the second straight campaign, an all-Canadian for the first time and claimed the J.P. Metras Trophy as the top down lineman in CIS football. He finished second in the conference and ninth in the country with five sacks in eight league games and also ranked second in Canada West in tackles for a loss (7.5) and 12th in overall tackles (38.5). Overall in nine contests, all which he started at nose tackle, Onyemata made 50 stops, five sacks, one pass defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. Over nine games played in his rookie season, he has collected 12 tackles (seven solo).

SHELDON RANKINS

- The third defensive lineman selected in the 2016 NFL Draft (12th overall), Rankins played in 46 games along the defensive line at Louisville, producing 133 tackles (72 solo), 31.5 tackles for loss and 18 sacks during his collegiate career. In his senior campaign, the former Cardinals standout racked up a single-season career-high 58 tackles (28 solo), six sacks, one pass defended and a fumble recovery returned 46 yards for a touchdown. Rankins was named second-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference following his efforts. Missing the first seven games of his rookie season, Rankins has posted four tackles (three solo) and one sack. On Nov. 13 against Denver, he took down QB Trevor Siemian in the fourth quarter, collecting his first-career sack.

LINEBACKERS

The Saints used free agency to really revamp the linebacker corps, mixing in key offseason acquisitions with returning veterans.

STEPHONE ANTHONY

- In his rookie campaign, Anthony won a starting job at MLB during the preseason and started all 16 games. Anthony led the team with a franchise rookie-record 144 tackles, including 99 solo stops, ranked first among NFL rookies. He was a consensus All-Rookie selection. In 2015 against Carolina, he forced a fumble and returned it 31 yards for his first TD, and followed that up with an 82-yard two-point conversion return after a blocked PAT kick attempt, marking the first time in history that a PAT had been blocked for a two-point conversion since the rule change before the 2015 season. In his sophomore season, he has appeared in six games (two starts) and has posted five tackles (three solo), including one tackle for loss.

DANNELL ELLERBE

- Acquired from Miami in an offseason trade in 2015, this Georgia product enters his eighth season in the NFL and his second with New Orleans. With three clubs, he's appeared in 70 career regular season contests with 36 starts and has posted 352 tackles (256 solo), 7.5 sacks, three interceptions, 14 passes defensed, one forced fumble, four fumble recoveries, 18 special teams stops and one coverage forced fumble. In his first season with the Saints, he posted 45 tackles (39 solo), a pass defensed, his first career forced fumble and a fumble recovery over six games played with four starts. Over two starts in 2016, he has tallied 14 tackles (seven solo), one sack and one pass defensed.

MICHAEL MAUTI

- Mauti, a Mandeville native who was originally selected by the Minnesota Vikings in the seventh round (213th overall) of the 2013 NFL Draft, returned to join his hometown team and made solid contributions on both defense and special teams when he was acquired off of waivers from Minnesota at the conclusion of the 2015 preseason. The son of former Saints wideout and special teams ace Rich Mauti, Michael Mauti has appeared in 47 career games with two starts in four NFL seasons and has tallied 42 tackles (27 solo), one sack, one forced fumble, 35 special teams stops and one blocked punt he recovered for a touchdown. In his first season with the Black and Gold, the Penn State alum played in all 16 contests with two starts and recorded a career-high 26 tackles (19 solo), a team-high 12 special teams stops, while also blocking a punt and recovering it for a touchdown. Over eight games played in 2016, he has registered 14 tackles (seven solo), one sack, one forced fumble and a team-best seven special teams stops.

NATE STUPAR

• Drafted by Oakland in the seventh round of the 2012 NFL Draft (230th overall) when Saints defensive coordinator Dennis Allen was the head coach of the Raiders, Stupar has appeared in nine games with five starts in his first season in New Orleans, posting 41 tackles (29 solo), one interception, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, two passes defended and six special teams stops. On Oct. 30 against Seattle, he intercepted QB Russell Wilson in the second quarter to post his first-career interception.

PICK CITY

On Nov. 6 at San Francisco, Robertson intercepted QB Colin Kaepernick in the first quarter, his first interception as a Saint and the seventh of his career. It was his first pick since Jan. 3, 2016 against Pittsburgh as a member of the Browns.

In the previous week's matchup vs. Seattle, Stupar intercepted QB Russell Wilson in the second quarter to post his first-career interception.

These two interceptions by Saints linebackers marked the first time that linebackers have recorded interceptions for the Saints in back-to-back games since Scott Shanle intercepted Matt Ryan at Atlanta on Nov. 13, 2011 and Will Herring intercepted Eli Manning against the New York Giants on Nov. 28, 2011.

With S Kenny Vaccaro and CB Sterling Moore adding interceptions of their own on Nov. 13 vs. Denver, the New Orleans defense has now recorded interceptions in three-consecutive contests, doing so for the first time since they posted picks in four straight games from Oct. 5-Oct. 30, 2014.

CORNERBACKSDELVIN BREAUX

• Over eight years after suffering a serious neck injury in a high school football game for McDonogh 35, Breaux realized his dream when he signed a contract with his hometown team following a journey that took him through the GDFL, the AFL and the CFL. In the 2015 season opener, the New Orleans native became the first Saints CB to start in his NFL debut since Tracy Porter in 2008. Overall, in 16 contests, all starts, he made 49 tackles (38 solo), three interceptions, a club-best 23 passes defended and the fumble recovery. He was voted as the team's Ed Block Courage Award winner following the season. Missing six games due to a broken fibula, he has tallied eight tackles, seven of which have been solo stops, over three starts in 2016.

KEN CRAWLEY

• Originally signed by New Orleans as an undrafted free agent out of the University of Colorado following the 2016 NFL Draft, this Washington D.C. native played in 47 games and recorded 201 tackles (165 solo), eight tackles for loss, one forced fumble, a fumble recovery, three interceptions and 36 passes defended over his collegiate career. Over nine games played with five starts in 2016, he has recorded 42 tackles (35 solo), one forced fumble and eight passes defended.

STERLING MOORE

• Moore comes to New Orleans after spending the 2016 offseason and preseason with Buffalo and the 2015 campaign with Tampa Bay. The 5-10, 202-pound Southern Methodist product has started 24-of-62 career games while accumulating 146 tackles, six interceptions, 32 passes defended, five forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. Over six games played in 2016 (five starts), he has registered 22 tackles (19 solo), two interceptions, seven passes defended and one forced fumble.

B.W. WEBB

• Originally drafted by the Cowboys in the fourth round (114th overall) of the 2013 NFL Draft, Webb has logged 12 tackles (10 solo), one interception and a team-best nine passes defended over seven games played with three starts for the Saints in 2016. On Oct. 16 against Carolina, he registered a career-high five passes defended.

SAFETIES

VONN BELL

• Drafted by New Orleans in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft (61st overall), Bell was an Associated Press, The Sporting News and SI.com first-team All-American and was voted First-team All-Big Ten (media) following his junior season at Ohio State. The Rossville, Georgia. native started 13 games as a junior, finishing with 65 tackles and two interceptions, one brought back for a TD, one fumble recovery and 11 passes defended. Over nine games played with six starts, he has totaled 52 tackles (33 solo), one half sack, one forced fumble, one pass defended, one fumble recovery and five special teams stops.

JAIRUS BYRD

• Signed by New Orleans as a free agent from the Buffalo Bills in 2014, Byrd has been selected to three Pro Bowls. He has appeared in 99 career games with 91 starts, posting totals of 488 tackles (354 solo), four sacks, 23 INTs, 38 passes defended, 14 forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries. A second round draft pick (42nd overall) in 2009, Byrd has started all nine contests in 2016, recording 48 tackles (38 solo). On Oct. 30 against Seattle, he posted 10 tackles, tying for the most tackles he has posted in any game as a Saint, while his eight solo tackles were the most solo tackles in a game for his Saints career.

NOSE FOR THE BALL

Saints safety Jairus Byrd's interception total since he entered the NFL in 2009 is tied for eighth over that span.

KENNY VACCARO

• The club's first-round draft pick in the 2013 NFL Draft after being a first-team All-American selection at the University of Texas, Vaccaro started all 16 games for the first time in his career in 2015, posting 136 tackles (87 solo), three sacks, five passes defended, two forced fumbles and his first career fumble recovery. Over eight starts in 2016, the fourth-year safety has registered 61 tackles (45 solo), one interception, one sack, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery, four passes defended and one special teams stop.

SPECIAL TEAMSK WIL LUTZ

• Lutz is in his first season with New Orleans, joining the team after originally being signed by the Baltimore Ravens as an undrafted free agent out of Georgia State following the 2016 NFL Draft. In his first eight contests with the Black and Gold, he has converted on 14-of-19 (73.7 pct.) FG attempts, including a 57-yard field goal on Sept. 26 against Atlanta, the third-longest made field goal in franchise history, matching Kai Forbath's 57-yarder at Houston last year. He is also 29-of-30 on PAT attempts. On Oct. 16 against Carolina, he connected on a 52-yard game-winning field goal with :13 remaining to collect the first game-winning field goal of his career, the longest game-winning kick by a Saint since 1984. For his efforts in Week Six, he was named the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week. Following his four-for-four performance against Seattle on Oct. 30, he was once again named the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week, joining John Carney (2001) as the only Saints kickers to receive the honor twice in the same season.

KID HAS A LEG

On Sept. 26 against Atlanta, Lutz hit a 57-yard field goal, marking the third-longest make in Saints franchise history, matching Kai Forbath's 57-yard make at Houston in 2015. Below are the four-longest field goals in Saints history:

57 Kai Forbath at Houston, 11/29/15

P THOMAS MORSTEAD

• Morstead, the club's fifth round draft pick in 2009, was among the nation's top punters at SMU and has continued that trend as a Saint where he's posted career club-best 47.0 gross and 41.2 net punting averages. In Week One against Oakland, he played in his 111th career game, moving him into sole possession of 31st in club record books in games played, surpassing a tie with Tommy Barnhardt for most games played by a punter. In 2016, he has punted 34 times for 1,686 yards (49.6 avg.) and has placed 14 of his punts inside the 20-yard line.

FOLLOW THE LEADER

Thomas Morstead is the team's all-time leader in gross and net averages. His 43.2 net in 2012 ranks sixth all-time and he also has the seventh and eighth-highest figures. Morstead's career 41.2 net average ranks second in NFL record books since the statistic was first compiled in 1976. In 2016, his 49.6 punting average and 43.7 net average each rank third in the NFL.

2014 – Appeared in all 16 games with two starts, rushing for 85 yards and a TD on 24 attempts, while adding four receptions for 23 yards. Voted to Pro Bowl and voted an AP first team All-Pro...Rushed for his only TD on season in opener at Seattle, Sept. 4. Punched it in from two yards out for his only attempt in the game...Rushed for 20 yards on season-high five carries vs. Chicago, Nov. 9...Finished with season-high 22 yards on four attempts at Tampa Bay, Dec. 21. 2013 – Played in 15 games with six starts and appeared in team's playoff contest. Rushed for 38 yards and a TD on 10 carries and caught 13 passes for 81 yards, while registering four special teams tackles. Named a Pro Bowl alternate following a season in which he helped Green Bay finish in the top 10 in both rushing (seventh) and passing (sixth) for the first time since 2004. Blocked for Eddie Lacy as he rushed for 1,178 yards, the most by a rookie in team history, as Lacy was selected to the Pro Bowl and named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year... Started vs. Washington, Sept. 15, but sustained a hamstring injury during the game that would force him to miss Week Three contest at Cincinnati, just the third game he had missed due to injury during career...Caught season-high three passes for 11 yards (3.7 avg.) at N.Y. Giants, Nov. 17, and carried once for 12 yards, his longest run since Dec. 11, 2011...Had three carries for 12 yards (4.0 avg.) and a TD vs. Pittsburgh, Dec. 22. Two of his attempts converted key third-down plays, and the other, a one-yard TD dive in the fourth quarter, tied the game at 31 with 7:14 remaining...In NFC Wild Card matchup vs. San Francisco, 1/5/14, scored on a one-yard TD run off left guard in the fourth quarter, which gave the Packers a 17-13 lead with just over 12 minutes left. The play gave him at least one TD in each of the last five postseasons (2009-13), the only NFL player to do so over that span and the second in team history (Dorsey Levens, 1993-98) to score at least one TD in five straight postseasons. In addition to the TD run, caught a pair of eight-yard passes, both converting third downs on scoring drives. 2012 – Played in 14 games with three starts and appeared in both playoff contests. Rushed for 63 yards and a touchdown on 23 carries (2.7 avg.) and matched his career high with 15 receptions for a career-best 148 receiving yards (9.9 avg.). Added three tackles on special teams...His lone carry vs. New Orleans, Sept. 30, was a meaningful one as he took a direct snap from Brett Goode at his punt-protector position on a fourth-and-one play in the second quarter, burrowing forward for a five-yard gain...Scored on a two-yard burst off left guard to open the game's scoring late in the first quarter at Indianapolis, Oct. 7...Was a gameday inactive vs. Jacksonville, Oct. 28, for just the third time in his career and the first due to injury, snapping a streak of 46 consecutive games played (including playoffs)...Posted a season-high 17 rushing yards on four attempts (4.3 avg.) and added a career-high 49 receiving yards on three grabs (16.3 avg.), highlighted by his career-long 32-yard catch-and-run in the second quarter at N.Y. Giants, Nov. 25... In the club's Wild Card contest vs. Minnesota, 1/5/13, scored TDs on back-to-back possessions sandwiched around halftime, first on a three-yard rushing touchdown that capped a two-minute drive before the break and then on a nine-yard reception that finished the offense's opening drive of the second half. With the scores, became the first player in franchise history to register a rushing touchdown and a receiving touchdown in two different postseason games (at Atlanta, Jan. 15, 2011). 2011 – Appeared in all 16 games for the fourth time in five seasons, making three starts. Also played in the team's playoff contest. Selected as the Pro Bowl starter and also earned second-team All-Pro recognition from the Associated Press. Matched his career high with six total touchdowns, the most among Green Bay's running backs, and led the team with four rushing touchdowns. Finished the season with 78 yards on 30 carries (2.6 avg.) and added 15 receptions for 77 yards (5.1 avg.). Helped clear the way for both James Starks (578) and Grant (559) to become the first Green Bay tandem to each rush for 550-plus yards since Edgar Bennett and Dorsey Levens in 1996. Registered three tackles on special teams...Carried twice for five yards (2.5 avg.), with a one-yard touchdown run, and caught two passes for seven yards (3.5 avg.) vs. New Orleans, Sept. 8...Kuhn's lone rush came on a goal-line carry in the fourth quarter that he took up the middle for a two-yard TD vs. Tampa Bay, Nov. 20...Carried a season-high 10 times for a season-best 46 yards (4.6 avg.) vs. Oakland, Dec. 11, as the offense matched its season-high rushing total with 136 yards on 24 carries (5.7 avg.)...Appeared on both offense and special teams before sustaining a knee injury in the third quarter that kept him out the remainder of the game in the team's NFC Divisional Round matchup vs. N.Y. Giants, 1/15/12. Scored the Packers' first TD with an eight-yard catch from Rodgers on the first play of the second quarter. Marked the third consecutive postseason that he scored a TD as he joined Saints WR Devery Henderson as the only players in the league to accomplish that feat from 2009-11.

SAINTS POSTGAME NOTES

- With the loss, New Orleans drops to 4-5. The Saints return to action this Thursday, Nov. 17 when they visit Bank of America Stadium to face the Carolina Panthers. Kickoff is 7:25 p.m.
- The New Orleans defense forced two interceptions of Broncos QB Trevor Siemian, recording two picks in the same game for the first time this season and first time since Dec. 27, 2015 vs. Jacksonville.
- The Saints' five sacks were a season-high and most since they tallied five takedowns vs. Atlanta on Oct. 15, 2015.
- QB Drew Brees made his 226th-career start, completing 21-of-29 passes for 303 yards and three touchdowns with two interceptions. The 300-yard game was his 102nd-career game with at least 300 passing yards, an NFL-best.
- On a three-yard touchdown connection with WR Willie Snead IV, Brees reached 450 touchdown passes for his career, joining Peyton Manning (539) and Brett Favre (508) as the only players in NFL history with at least 450 scoring throws.
- WR Brandin Cooks caught a game-tying 32-yard touchdown in the closing minutes of the game, his sixth touchdown reception this season and 18th of his career. He totaled 98 yards on three receptions with the touchdown. With the scoring grab, he moved into sole possession of sixth place on the list of Brees touchdown targets. He also returned one punt for two yards.
- Snead IV caught five passes for 47 yards with two touchdown receptions, posting his second-career multi-touchdown game.
- S Kenny Vaccaro posted a team-leading nine tackles, including seven solo stops and added an interception of Siemian in the third quarter that set up the Saints' go-ahead touchdown. It was his first interception of 2016, first since Nov. 30, 2014 at Pittsburgh, and fourth of his career. He finished with two passes defended.
- CB Sterling Moore made his 24th-career start, intercepting a Siemian pass in the closing minute of the first half, his second as a Saint and sixth of his career. His two interceptions this season tie a career-high he set in 2011 as a member of the New England Patriots. He finished with five solo tackles and two passes defended.
- LB Dannell Ellerbe made the start, his second of 2016, and recorded seven tackles (two solo) and one pass defended. In the second quarter, he sacked Siemian to record his first sack as a Saint and first since Nov. 11, 2013 at Tampa Bay as a member of the Miami Dolphins.
- DE Cameron Jordan recorded a sack of Siemian in the first quarter, his fourth sack of the 2016 season. He registered a team-high nine tackles, with a team-best eight solo stops.
- DT Nick Fairley collected a sack of Siemian in the first quarter and now has 4.5 sacks on the season, 1.5 sacks away from his career-high six sacks set in 2013. He totaled four tackles (three solo) to go along with the sack.
- DT Sheldon Rankins played in his second-career game, recording two solo tackles, including a sack of Siemian in the fourth quarter, his first-career sack.

- LB Craig Robertson posted a team-leading nine tackles (four solo) and added one sack, his fifth-career QB takedown and first since Oct. 27, 2013 at Kansas City.
- In making his Saints debut, S Shiloh Keo played in his 50th-career game.
- P Thomas Morstead played in his 119th-career game, moving him into sole possession of 29th place on the club's all-time games played list. He punted four times for 163 yards, pinning two of his punts inside the 20-yard line.
- T Zach Strief appeared in his 149th-career game, moving him into a tie with DB Dave Waymer (1980-89) for 12th place on the club's all-time games played list.

DENVER BRONCOS VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 2016 • MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME
SAINTS HEAD COACH SEAN PAYTON

Opening Statement: “Obviously, it's a tough loss, a tough way to lose at the end like that. I thought there were a number of things that were encouraging defensively where we did a really good job, considering some of the short field positions (they were handed). The turnovers in a game like that are significant, especially when you end up with four like we had. We were fortunate to be in the game in the end.”

On if he thinks Will Parks stepped out of bounds on the blocked PAT return: “It's hard to tell. I think those guys (officials) are doing their best to look at it. He has white shoes on and sidelines are white so there is not a really good picture, at least I did not see one.”

On if there was anything illegal about Justin Simmons' blocked PAT: “No, you're allowed to jump. It's a strategy that most teams have. At a certain point, in order to make it illegal, the center has to rise up a little bit and catch some contact with the player that is jumping. We should have been able to see it. It is one of those situations where you either change up your snap count, but the timing by him (Simmons) was good and we weren't able to recognize the look. We should have.”

On Michael Thomas' fourth quarter fumbles: “Ball security is poor, especially the first one.”

On what you say to a rookie like Michael Thomas so that the fumbles don't become an issue or even a mental issue: “It won't become a mental thing. Some lessons in our league are learned the hard way. You hope that ball security is not one of them, but that doesn't just happen to rookies either so we have to get that corrected or it will continue to repeat itself.”

On what you tell your team in a loss like this: “It's disappointing but we've had tough losses and the sky is not falling today. I think the key is we have a quick turnaround, a quick week, so it is important that it does not affect the next game.”

On if he thinks the result of the game would be different if the defense could get off the field on more third and long situations: “You mean stay on the field offensively, I thought the defense played well. I think we, offensively, early in the game struggled on third down. They made some plays, but it seemed like a lot of the game was spent on our side of the 50 and that is a result of the turnovers.”

On making adjustments at halftime: “One of the challenges is they do a good job playing their man-to-man scheme and you really have to get into some tight looks, formationally, to create some leverage. When we were able to do that, we had some success. If you spread out it is a little bit more challenging.”

On Cam Jordan's impact: “It appeared to be, based on watching the game, that he was doing well. But we will have a chance to see it quickly and then move on.”

On if he is encouraged by the pass rush today: “I thought it was important. We were able to disrupt the quarterback some. In a lot of areas, when we watch the tape (we'll see) we did enough good things to give us a chance to win and yet, enough things that kept us from winning.”

BRONCOS HEAD COACH GARY KUBIAK

Opening comments: “I am very proud of our team. We fought. We fought all day long. That was our message last night in our team meeting. I just want to see everybody fight; coaches, players, and everybody laid it on the line. It was a great football game. We made a big play at the end. Obviously, (Justin) Simmons (made the block) and a great call by (Special Teams Coach) Joe (DeCamillas) and us executing and getting it done (was big). (It was) a really big win for our football team.”

On if the team worked on the extra point block “It’s something you work on all of the time. It’s risky to do because if you touch somebody, you know that it’s a penalty. There are certain situations in games where you say that it’s worth the risk. That was one of them. I’m sitting there thinking about us having to go kick a field goal. I hear everybody go crazy and I look up and there goes Will (Parks). It definitely worked and panned out. I give Joe (DeCamillis) credit for always keeping grinding on it, making the guys work, and getting it done.”

On what he was thinking about when he was looking down as the extra point attempt was being blocked “I’m sitting there thinking about what we’ve got to do next with the possession. I knew what Joe (DeCamillas) was doing, but I was talking on the headset, trying to think about where we go and try to get ourselves in field goal range.”

On winning time of possession and the running game “We got off to a good start as a team. We got ahead. The turnover right before the half hurt. What it boils down to is (production on) third downs. I think that we were 11 or 12 for 19, so that gives you plays. We didn’t run the ball well, but we ran the ball. It gives you a chance to run the ball. We’ve got to protect our quarterback better. That’s where the (extra) snaps came from. Obviously, defensively, we stopped the run.”

On his thoughts on the extra point return official review “They said upstairs, ‘Coach, he has got a white shoe on. It’s really, really close. The fact that they called it one way, I think that it’ll stand.’ They felt that way. I don’t know. I haven’t seen a replay, but that’s what they told me.”

On if he was worried that the call would be reversed “Oh yeah, you are always worried. There are defining moments in your season. That’s a big one.”

On the timing of the bye week “We need it. That’s 14 in a row for us if you count the preseason. That’s about 19 weeks of straight football for us. I need to freshen this organization up, the players, the coaches. We will get some of these guys back after the bye. We will work our young guys here. We’ll be smart. I have to get this team fresh for the last six because we are really going to play in six playoff games. We are going to play in a lot of big games here down at the end of the season. I think that the first 10 weeks worked. Obviously, we’ve got to get better. I am really proud of how hard we fought and where we are at right now. We just have to freshen up and get ready to go.”

SAINTS PLAYER QUOTES

S Kenny Vaccaro

(On if they were trying different schemes on defense today) “Yeah, things were a little bit different today, but the plan of attack has been different every game.”

(On his overall reaction to the loss) “It has happened before to other teams, but hey, that is why you praise defense, offense and special teams. It all works together. You need the perfect snap, the perfect protection and the perfect kick every time, and it works the same way on offense and defense. That is why Coach Payton works so hard. When we take a special teams rep, we take it very seriously.”

(On the personal foul penalty for hitting Trevor Siemian out of bounds) “We held them to a field goal that drive, so it didn’t bother me that much to have that penalty. He didn’t step out of bounds, and I launched before he had reached the sideline. We’re taught to not let quarterbacks just run out of bounds. I don’t think I’m a dirty player. I rarely get any personal foul penalties; you can check my track record. We are taught that if the guy is on the sideline, but not out of bounds, to launch. It was a bang bang play, and one that ended up not determining the outcome of the game.”

(On his interception) “They [Denver] lined Demaryius [Thomas] up in the slot. I have watched tape, and I know they like the inside cuts with him, so I kind of baited the quarterback a little bit and stepped right into the hole. Fortunately, [Trevor] Siemian threw it right to where I was standing. That was just film study, and Sterling [Moore] did a good job by playing outside leverage, knowing that I was going to cut under that defense.”

DE Cameron Jordan

(On taking over the game today in the run game and pass rush) “At some point, your job’s to disrupt the quarterback and make him uncomfortable. I really took that to heart this game. We knew that we weren’t dealing with a quarterback who was going to blaze us with his feet, so that makes your rushing job (defending the run) a little bit easier. That being said, we clearly didn’t do enough to get the win and that’s what we have to focus on.”

(On having short turnaround before playing Carolina) “That’s a great thing. It’s a blessing, so we can get this bad taste out of our mouth, go to Carolina, and hopefully get a win.”

(On confidence of the defense) “It’s all about the team. We may have played well today, but the team wants a win and that team needs a win. We have to find that resolve.”

LB Craig Robertson

(On whether he thought Will Parks stepped out of bounds on the run back) “That’s above my pay grade. I let the people in New York decide that.”

(On a tough loss after things seem to finally be clicking for the team) “It’s the league. You aren’t going to win every game, but it’s how you come back the next week that shows who you are as a team. It’s rare when a team goes undefeated; it’s special, it’s history, but the way a team battles after a loss is the definition of a team.”

(On if it helps to have a short week after a game like this) “No matter whether this one was a win or a loss, we know going in that we were playing Carolina next. The chips fell, we got a loss, and now we have to go back and earn ourselves a win to get back on track on the route that we were going.”

CB Sterling Moore

(On his interception before the end of the half) “It was a three-step drop. He ran a slant route right into the second window of the coverage that we were in. I tried to show like I was in man coverage, and when he looked out, I knew what was coming. I saw the receiver go in, read his eyes, and jumped it.”

(On if that interception led to a momentum shift) “Definitely. That was huge for us. They were definitely in field goal range at that time. It was big to make it 10-3 and make it a one score game was huge for us. The fans were definitely into it at that point, and the offense goes out there and does their job. That's a big momentum shift, especially when, as a defense, we have to go out there to start the second half. That was big for us."

(On improvement of defense reflecting today) "We are so resilient. Everyone is out there for each other right now. Everyone on the defensive group is back and healthy, and it just shows what we can do. Obviously, we have to eliminate some mistakes, as we do in every game, but I think we are all coming together and we are playing as the defense that we are supposed to be."

K Wil Lutz

(On what he saw on the last extra point) "I'm not really sure. I know there was a jumper. It was a blocked kick that got returned back for two points."

(On if he has seen a game decided like that) "I don't really know. I'm just trying to take it all in right now."

(On if it's a tough loss) "It's tough."

LS Justin Drescher

(On the blocked extra point late in the fourth quarter) "I will have to watch it on film, but we have a jumper call. I don't really know what happened. I know we had a good snap, hold and kick. He just timed that perfect and got up on top of me. It is what it is. More power to them. They had a good scheme in tying me up. I should have tried to knock him down, flip him or whatever I could do."

(On if they held him down) "I'm going to have to watch it on film, but it felt like their defensive tackles kind of pulled me forward and down, so I really couldn't pop up as fast. That is what I felt in the time and the moment. I do not know what exactly happened, but I will watch it on film tomorrow and understand better so I can get that guy."

(On if he saw him coming) "I didn't. When I first looked up I didn't see him line up over the snapper. He must have moved over when I got my target line in my snap and I put my head between my legs. More power to them. They had a great scheme. It's frustrating because it is a hard way to lose."

WR Brandin Cooks

(On his catches during the final drive) "It's one of those things where you have to keep your head in the game. You never know when it is going to come your way. You need to take advantage of opportunities. Drew (Brees) threw two great balls at the end. It's frustrating to get into that position and see the way things happen. We just have to come back to work now."

(On the game's emotions) "It's one of those things that happened so fast. I didn't even get to see it from the standpoint of seeing it live. It just shows you that we all need to be on point. We all have to connect."

(On advice to Michael Thomas) "The great ones put it behind them. Michael Jordan says that he missed way more shots than he made. That's something that I talked to him about. I'm his big brother. I'll probably have him over today to chill out and get his mind right. He's a great player."

WR Willie Snead

(On how having a short week coming up affects the team's mindset after the loss today) "It depends upon what kind of guys we have in the locker room. We need to have a strong mindset to where we have to be able to look past this. We need to answer the questions and move on. It's going to hurt for 24 hours, but I think once Tuesday comes, then we'll be ready to go."

(On the difficult emotions of the game)

"Absolutely, most of the games have been like that this season. We are battle-tested for sure. We hate to lose like this, but I know that it is going to make us stronger. We are going to come out Thursday ready to go."

RB Mark Ingram

(On his thoughts after the last turnover) "I thought the defense would stop them. They would get a field goal. Then, we were going to go down the field and score a touchdown. I didn't get the extra point right."

(On combatting their pass rush) "We've known all along that they have two elite pass rushers. We wanted to make sure that we protected and helped out these tackles. They did a great job. It's just great to drop back and have some added protection when you have elite rushers like that.

(On their second half adjustments) “We just had to stop shooting ourselves in the foot. We had to get some drives going. We had to get some first downs. We had to get some momentum.”

(On Michael Thomas’s two fumbles and how he will help him as a teammate move beyond it) “I will tell him to keep his head up and don’t worry about it. It sucks. It sucks bad. He is a great player. He’s a great, great player. We need him. He just has to bounce back and work hard at it. It just sucks. When you play offense in this league and you carry the ball enough times, it’s bound to happen eventually. It sucks. It’s the worst. You never want to put the ball on the ground because you feel bad and you feel bad that you let your teammates down. That dude is a young talent. He is mentally strong. We got his back. Despite the two fumbles, we had a chance to win the game. It’s not on him. This is a team game. We overcame that and had a chance to win the game.”

T Zach Strief

(On if he thought they had the win) “Yes.”

(On how hard it will be to bounce back) “We’ll be fine. We’ll get back in there tomorrow. We’ll get back on it.”

(On Michael Thomas) “Guys make mistakes. Mike will come back. We have a lot of faith in Mike.”

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS VS. DENVER BRONCOS
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 2016 • MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME
SAINTS QB DREW BREES

(On the loss) “Still in disbelief, a little bit. Especially when you score at the end, you think that’s, I don’t want to say the game-winner, but listen, it puts you up by a point, then, ‘Hey let’s see what happens.’ The minute the guy jumped over and it got blocked and the other guy got it there was nobody to catch him so at that point I was like, OK we’re going to get the ball back (on an onside kick), 1:22, we got time. Go down get a field goal and win it again, but yes, it’s tough. To play a game like that on both sides of the ball and fight the way that we all did and then for it come down to something like that. Listen, great individual play by 31 (Justin Simmons) and 34 (Will Parks), their safety, who jumped over and blocked it and then, obviously, the caravan to the end zone. Hate to see a game like that come down to just a simple play.”

(On the replay of the run down the field after the blocked extra-point) “It doesn’t matter. It doesn’t matter. Let’s not even get to that point.”

(On what was said to Michael Thomas after the second turnover) “First off, I was just making sure he was alright because he took a big hit so I was just making sure he was OK. Just saying keep his head up. He’s a young guy. Made a bunch of big plays for us this year and unfortunately had two that the guy coughed up today. He’s such a competitive guy. Such a conscientious guy. Taking it hard. But I just tell him to keep his head up, we’re going to need to make some plays down the stretch. And we will. Those guys that care so much. I think that’s the reason why you tell them, ‘Hey, just let it go. Let’s move on.’”

(On how he thinks Michael Thomas felt about his performance) “He’s hard on himself. Just like I’m hard on myself. (Brandin) Cooks (is hard on himself) and everybody else (is hard on themselves). We take a lot of pride in what we do so if there’s a mistake made, especially a costly one, we’re going to be hard on ourselves and yet, we also know that we’re going to have another opportunity and we did. I knew we would. I felt like the defense was going to come out, stop them, kick a field goal and now we’ve got to go down and score a touchdown which doesn’t really change anything because that’s what we were planning on doing anyway when we had the ball except instead of three minutes left and two timeouts, we had two minutes left and no timeouts, but that’s what we do.”

(On the offensive line) “I thought they did a great job. Those guys were geeked up to start the game. Got a few hits early, but then it was solid there for a long time. At the end, listen, that’s what pass rushers live for, guaranteed passing situations where they just pin their ears back and go. I thought all our guys, all across the board, did a phenomenal job today.

(On difficulty to win when your team commits four turnovers) “If we win this game, then we sit there and go, we’re lucky. The four turnovers, they cost us the game. It made it a lot closer than it probably should have been. Obviously, had we not, but listen, our defense did a great job and got two from them. I think they got thirteen points off of turnovers and we got ten so it was almost a wash, but obviously, you want to eliminate those because it really reduces your chances of winning.”

(On strong personal performance at the end of the game) “I think we just got into a rhythm. I think we just started clicking a little bit. Made some big plays. Kind of had a read on them a little bit. The balance was good. We got some big plays in the passing game which was good. Guys just making plays and then you just grab hold of that momentum and you don’t want to let it go.”

(On throwing to Brandin Cooks today for some completions for big gains today) “It felt we got some good looks for what we’re trying to do and he got by all those guys so at that point, you are wanting a completion. (I) was not wanting to overthrow any of those. Let’s get the completion and make sure we secure the big play. Brandin (Cooks) came up with three huge catches today.”

(On completing twelve passes in a row and his feelings on his own performance) “Well, the two turnovers bug me. The first one was just a great play by that safety, screaming over the top and listen, that’s on me. I’ve got to hold it or if he’s playing over the top fast enough. Can’t let that happen in the red zone, we got points. The other one is unfortunate because put the ball exactly where we wanted it, but that’s one of those where it kind of gets looped up in the air as opposed to getting knocked down. It looked like Mike (Michael Thomas) had it in his hands and he was going to tuck it and then there was a little movement, balls up in the air. That's going to happen sometimes."

(On if he has ever experienced other games like this in his career that he did today with emotional swings and crazy plays) "Yes, unfortunately, I've probably had two or three moments just like that. Listen, it's unfortunate, but life goes on. We've got a short week here so we've got to bounce back and find a way to win this week at Carolina (Panthers)."

(On if the short week is a good thing or a bad thing after a tough loss like today) "I think it is a good thing because all you want to do is get back on the field as fast as you can. Obviously, we've got four days here so it's a quick turnaround. We'll have a good (game)plan together, but we've got to lose this one and move on to the next one."

BRONCOS PLAYER QUOTES

#13 QB TREVOR SIEMIAN

“This game had a lot of ups and downs. Our defense really bailed us out a couple of times and played real well by turning the ball over. I think overall the group played really hard and there’s something to be said about that. We just made one more play than they did it seems.”

“When the game got tied, we started to talk about two-minute (offense) plays at that point. It was kind of a crazy deal there. But then we were kind of in disbelief just like everybody else when he blocked it first and then he was running it all the way back; I didn’t have any idea who had the ball; but it was a pretty cool deal.”

“It was huge, for us to come back the way we did. Our team really knows how to bounce back, and that’s something that’s been a staple of this team ever since I’ve been here the last two years. We have a great knack for overcoming negative plays. It wasn’t perfect – I mean we screwed up a few times no doubt; I’ve had my fair share of those – but the group really responded well and turned the negatives into points.”

#87 TE JORDAN TAYLOR

(responding to question about his touchdown in the first quarter that was reviewed) “I thought I was in for sure, definitely I thought my feet were in. And that is what the video showed, so it is all good. For us to score on the very first drive was huge. Just to know we went down and executed and took the lead early; that was big because we knew with the lead we can rely on our defense to hold them (Saints). Hopefully we can continue that after the bye.”

“Obviously we have a lot of things to work on. But to come out here and win on the road in a tough environment – it’s huge. It was a big win for us and shows the fight this team has.”

#31 S JUSTIN SIMMONS

(on blocking extra point at end of game) “I was inching into near where the center was as I was trying to get as close as I could to the center as possible before they snapped it. I hope I had enough room; obviously I did as they didn’t call anything. My adrenaline was going so fast and all I was trying to do was to clear him (center) and block the kick. Like I said, it all worked out.”

“When the game is on the line, and I am the guy responsible for trying to block the kick, I’m just trying to rush in there and make a play regardless of the ball is low or high or whatever; it doesn’t really matter. We just picked up on a few things from them (Saints) by watching film during the week and executed the play.”

#34 S WILL PARKS

(On the defensive two-point conversion after block in the fourth quarter) “It’s something we work on in practice all of time. Usually he (Justin Simmons) goes about 42 inches in the air but this time he jumped about 45 inches to get the block! And I was just sitting there and grabbed the ball and all of my teammates just told me to run and I did. I was just running so fast I couldn’t control my feet so I don’t know how close I was (to the sideline); I was just moving.”

“I don’t know, I must be living right. This team must be living right. Words cannot describe how I am feeling right now. I mean when we are out there and we have to score and the number one thing is to do that knowing we are down? It was amazing how this game ended.”

#26 S DARIAN STEWART

“The Saints offense is real tough and we knew that coming in. And then we had a lot of guys out injured which only made the challenge more difficult. But we had a lot of guys who stepped in and made contributions. That was huge and led us to victory.”

(on his two interceptions): “I just tried to make a play after the deflection on the first one. And then the second one I just went after the ball. I said after that, ‘keep them coming,’ as hey why not get three! But I was just out there trying to make plays to help the team win.”

“That play right there, at the end, what you saw were two rookies stepping up and making a big play for our team to win this game. It was huge. I’m just glad he had the right cleats on.”

#94 OLB DeMARCUS WARE

“I’ve never had an ending like that; especially on special teams. It was just big, a big victory. I mean usually a game ends from the defense because of a forced fumble or interception or something like that. But seeing it happen from special teams, you never see that.”

“This was a huge victory for us, especially coming off a bad loss last week to the Raiders. First of all, we addressed all week defensively to stop the run, and I thought we did that out there today. But there is always room for improvement. But the thing is this was one of those games where we needed the win. And now we go into the bye and get some of our banged up guys back and we should be ready to go the rest of the season.”

#29 CB BRADLEY ROBY

(comment about forcing fumble on Saints WR Michael Thomas in the fourth quarter): “That’s a play we work on as a defense all of the time. The receiver caught the ball and it’s just he and I and we got tangled up and I stripped the ball out. In that situation you have to say to yourself, you’ve got to go for the ball. And luckily for us, the ball just punched out and we got a turnover.”

New Orleans Saints Head Coach Sean Payton
Conference Call with New Orleans Media
Monday, November 14, 2016

When you watched the film, what did you see out of Cameron Jordan?

“I thought he played exceptionally well. It was probably one of his best games of the year. The pressure was significant and I think it really helped us in a lot of ways, coverage-wise and obviously with some of the sudden changes we had.”

Overall, how did you think the team played defensively? The Denver offense had about 39 minutes of ball possession and the defense played about 80-plus snaps; how concerned are you about recovery for a short week?

“The last few weeks it has been flipped, the time of possession, for us. San Francisco, even in Kansas City (and) Seattle was slanted the other way heavy on offense and lighter on defense. Part of that was a little bit of a reflection of our third down numbers in the early part of the game offensively. I think the challenge for both clubs any time you are in a short week is getting the recovery, getting the mental part of the game plan and then getting ready to go again here in a very short period of time.”

Did you have any issues with any of the calls on that blocked PAT and the defensive two-point conversion?

“I think the timing in which he hits it was clean. Obviously, you can’t see a clear enough picture on the sideline or it appears that you can’t. I know there are a handful of pictures after the fact but it’s kind of what I thought it was after the game.”

What about that technique of pushing down on the long snapper’s helmet?

“You are not allowed to pull him down and I don’t see a strong push down. We’ve just got to be better in that situation of recognizing a jumper and being able to see it. It is an easy penalty to draw if you just come up at all. Watching that, it didn’t look to be anything egregious.”

Should the National Football League revisit the use of fixed cameras on the boundary line in your opinion?

“Well, it was a subject last offseason. The technology exists right now for the ball crossing the plane of the goal line. The group that does all of our player tracking can do that right now. I’m sure at some point we’ll have those angles you look for. I’ll be honest with you, it’s 12:25 in the afternoon here on Monday and we’re well into the Carolina game and well past the game we just played. I know that you guys are wanting to ask questions about the game we just played but that’s where we are at.”

Have you gotten an update from the league on Kenny Vaccaro’s status?

“No, no updates.”

You guys have had struggles defensively on third down-and-longer; why is that and how is that different than third-and-short?

“You look at those numbers sometimes and pay attention to them because sometimes the quarterback breaks the pocket and then it becomes a different type of play. I think the same thing exists offensively. I think every once in a while you look at your third down numbers and be it they’re real good, you look at one situation and you say, these numbers tell us we’re better off offensively being third-and-seven-to-10 than third-and-four-to-six. I think you look closely in your coverage. You look at your rush plan. You really want to pay attention to the tape because sometimes they’ll be some plays that maybe are a little bit of an anomaly.”

Was there something you saw yesterday that allowed them to do that? I think they had six conversions where they were third-and-seven or longer.

“They made plays down the field obviously. They extended a few plays. But I thought, by and large, that defensively we did a real good job.”
