CINCINNATI BENGALS (3-6-1) VS. BALTIMORE RAVENS (5-5)

WEEK 12: SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 2016 • 1 P.M. ET • M&T BANK STADIUM (71,008)

JUST THE FACTS

- The Baltimore Ravens, who are undefeated (3-0) in AFC North play this season, host the Cincinnati Bengals at M&T Bank Stadium Sunday (Nov. 27) afternoon. Kickoff for this division matchup is set for 1 p.m. and marks this year's first Baltimore-Cincinnati battle, with the second taking place in a Week 17 finale at Paul Brown Stadium.
- The all-time series between these two teams is tied, 20-20. The Bengals, however, have won five-consecutive games vs. the Ravens, who currently sit atop the AFC North standings. (Baltimore holds a head-to-head tiebreaker over Pittsburgh, who is also 5-5.)
- Last Sunday at Dallas, rookie QB Dak Prescott completed 14 of 15 passes in the second half when the Cowboys pulled away from the Ravens for a 27-17 victory after the two teams were tied, 10-10, at halftime. For the game, Prescott completed 27 of 36 passes for 301 yards and 3 TD passes, including 2 to WR Dez Bryant in the second half. The Ravens started well, taking a 7-0, first-quarter lead and forcing the Cowboys to punt on their first four possessions. At that point, Prescott was just 4-of-10 for 31 yards before going on a 23-of-26, 270-yard run the remainder of the game. The Ravens rallied behind QB Joe Flacco, who brought his team within 7 points at 24-17 with a 5-yard TD throw to WR Steve Smith Sr. with 8:16 remaining. (Smith Sr. caught 8 passes for 99 yards, with his third grab marking the 1,000th of his career.) However, the Cowboys secured their win when K Dan Bailey hit a 21-yard FG at the 1:50 mark of the fourth quarter.
- After Cincinnati, the Ravens host Miami on Dec. 4. Baltimore then travels to New England for a Monday Night Football special on Dec. 12.

HARBS SAYS

"We believe in ourselves. We believe in one another. We know that everything is right in front of us. This is our opportunity to go win the division. We won the Pittsburgh game to tie the division at 4-4. Since then, we both beat Cleveland and lost to Dallas, so we're even, and there's six games left. The same thing goes for Cincinnati, who is right behind the both of us, and we're all going to play each other over the course of the next six games. It's going to come down to that. It's probably what we knew going into the season that it was going to come down to division games, and that's what it's going to come down to. We're excited."

INJURY UPDATE

- Pro Bowler OLB Elvis Dumervil (foot, five-straight games), standout starting CB Jimmy Smith (back) and starting LG Alex Lewis (ankle) missed Sunday's game at Dallas. (Lewis will be out for several weeks with a high-ankle sprain.) Against Dallas, TE Crockett Gillmore (thigh) missed his third-consecutive game, while RB Lorenzo Taliaferro (thigh) did not play either.
- The Ravens have 14 players on Injured Reserve, including standout TE Benjamin Watson, who tore his Achilles tendon on Aug. 27. Other key contributors on IR include DT Carl Davis and TE Maxx Williams.

NOTE THE QUOTE

S ERIC WEDDLE ON THE RAVENS' OUTLOOK MOVING FORWARD:
"Everything is right there for us. I hope and I believe this team will look at each other, look at ourselves first, and realize these little things, little mistakes that you do against a good team on the road come up and bite you. Let's reel it in. Let's work at the little things. We are still a confident team. Everything is right there in front of us. Basically, my message is, 'Stay confident.' Everything is right there. It is a 16-game season. This season is going to be defined by these next six games, not what happened [Sunday vs. Dallas]."

WHAT'S GOING ON?

K Justin Tucker is the only NFL kicker to remain perfect this season, hitting on all 23 of his FG attempts. Tucker's 23 FGs made tie (four players) for the NFL's most entering Week 12, while he has also made 30-consecutive kicks, a mark ranking as the NFL's longest active streak and the third longest in Ravens franchise history. (His impressive stretch of 33-straight boots in 2013 ranks second.)

SPOTLIGHT: TAVON YOUNG

Pos: CB Ht: 5-9 Wt: 177 Exp. (NFL/Ravens): R
College: Temple Hometown: Oxon Hill, MD

You are one of the few rookies to earn a starting spot in recent weeks. What have you done to get to this point?

"It started with injuries, guys getting hurt. Jerraud [Powers] got hurt in preseason, so I had to step up and start at nickel in the preseason games. Once the regular season came, he and I were splitting reps. Then Sheldon [Price], Shareece [Wright] and Maurice [Canady] got hurt, and I had to play outside. That's how that came about, just being the next man up. Coming in, I knew I eventually wanted to play outside anyway, so when I got my chance, I locked in more knowing I had a bigger role to play for the team."

You are smaller in stature but seem fearless on the field. Where do you think that comes from? "I think that's just how I was made. I actually have a 'fearless' tattoo across my stomach. It's something I feel like I was kind of born with. As I got older, just being smaller, I realized I probably didn't have the size as everyone else, but I attacked everyone the same way. I was just taught to be a dog."

What is the best piece of advice you have received from a vet in your position group? "Whenever I have questions, I always talk to J.P. [Jerraud Powers]. He and Lardarius Webb are the guys I talk to the most. [Eric] Weddle, on the field, talks to me and tells me what to expect. 'Webby' gives me a lot of tips, because he used to be a cornerback. The best advice J.P. has given me is to just keep coming back and stay hungry. He also told me not to be afraid to make mistakes and just play ball."

You named Breshad Perriman as one of the best receivers you faced in college. What has it been like going up against him in practice? "It's been fun. The game he played against me in college, he got the best of me, so it's been payback ever since. (laughter) But we just go out there, compete and have fun."

What is your impression of the Ravens' defensive heritage? "We expect to be the No. 1 defense in the NFL. We want to stay there the whole season. We want to stay there for years to come. The mentality is just to dominate your opponent every game. That's my style, too."

Who is the most entertaining rookie? "Matthew Judon. No question about that. He's just goofy, funny and crazy. He keeps us laughing."

What has been the most surprising part of your first year in the NFL off the field? "The amount of freedom you get. In college, it was meeting after meeting after meetings and then class all day. That's the biggest thing. Here, it's your real job, so we're usually done around 4 p.m. Not as many things to juggle."

NOTE OF THE WEEK I

Without question, WR Steve Smith Sr. is one of the greatest to ever play in the NFL. Smith Sr., who this past Sunday registered his 1,000th catch, is one of four players in NFL history to record at least 14,000 receiving yards, 1,000 catches, 75 receiving touchdowns and a 14.0-yard career receiving average.

Making WR Steve Smith Sr.'s career feats even more amazing is the fact that he is the only player in league history with at least 1,000 catches (1,005), 1,000 punt return yards and 2,000 kickoff return yards. Impressively, Smith Sr. ranks seventh on the NFL's all-time combined yards chart with 18,897 yards (14,448 receiving; 2,371 KOR; 1,684 PR; 387 rushing and 7 fumble recovery).

QUOTE THE RAVENS

WR Mike Wallace on WR Steve Smith Sr., who recently made his 1,000th catch:

“Legendary player. I was just telling him after the game that he can play a couple more years if he wants to and just keep it going. Sixteen years is a long time, but if anybody can keep playing, it’s him. It’s just an honor to be on the team with him. Every day to see the way he works and see how he carries himself, I just love it. I wish I would have had more time with him. When you have greatness around you, you just take whatever you can get and absorb whatever you can. Every day, I just try to learn something from him. He’s a special player, a special person. One thousand catches don’t come easy. You have to respect anybody who gets to that milestone.”

QB Joe Flacco on if he marvels at all that WR Steve Smith Sr. has been able to accomplish, especially after his latest injury:

“Everything that guy does is incredible, athletically. Everybody should look at him, and I don’t know if they should be jealous or what, but they should definitely take notice of how special of a person that they’re watching. I think he’s going to be a guy that we remember for a while. I’m definitely very proud to say that I play with him. With the things that he’s gone through and the way that he’s come back this year, I’ll be telling stories about him for a long time, and this just adds to it.”

Cowboys WR Dez Bryant on WR Steve Smith Sr.:

“That guy is phenomenal, all the way around. He is a complete beast. He takes his life serious, and he understands his opportunities. I think if you want to be a player in this league, he is someone to look up to. He is a fiery guy. Most people misunderstand him because they hear what a lot of people say instead of doing their research and seeing what he is all about. I love the way he goes about his business.”

Cowboys head coach Jason Garrett on the culture Ozzie Newsome and John Harbaugh have established with the Ravens:

“From my perspective on the outside, competing against them and watching them play, there is no question that they have done a great job with their culture. Again, it starts with the top with the kind of people they have and the kind of people they want to bring in. They have just been a winning franchise for a long time. They are always very challenging to play, and they play the game the right way. John Harbaugh has done a fantastic job there, and they just do it the right way.”

Offensive coordinator Marty Mornhinweg on instilling confidence in the Ravens’ offense:

“Confidence is quite a little bit of what we do. I would expect our players to always have great confidence. That thing never fails. I think as a dad, one of my responsibilities is to instill confidence in my kids. Also, that is one of our responsibilities as teachers. That is what we do; we are teachers first. There are a lot of other things that go into this thing. But teachers instill confidence in those young kids, and it pays off. Yes, confidence is a big part of this – of anything we do – but certainly in this game of football.”

NFL.com’s Gregg Rosenthal on keys to the Ravens’ defense:

“The key to Baltimore’s underrated team defense is up the middle. Brandon Williams and Timmy Jernigan are very difficult to run on. ... Middle linebacker Zach Orr consistently cleans up plays, and Eric Weddle has added stability to the secondary.”

Browns head coach Hue Jackson on ILB C.J. Mosley being one of the best players in football:

“Why do I say that? Because he makes so many standout plays. He is always around the ball. He is making plays on backs, he is making plays on receivers, he is getting his hands on balls, and he is chasing balls down. He is just a tremendous football player.”

Defensive coordinator Dean Pees on standout undrafted rookie free agent DT Michael Pierce:

“He has quick feet. He’s got a good motor. He plays hard. He’s obviously very strong. He has a lot of power, a lot of lower body power. He plays with really good leverage, good pad level. He’s not a really tall guy, so he can get his pads down. The other thing about it is, when guys sometimes like that are not drafted or maybe even drafted low, they are so in tune to what you’re doing that they really pay a lot of attention, because they feel like, ‘OK, I have to do all of this stuff perfect to make the team. I think that carries over. He’s a humble guy, he takes coaching, and he just does a great job that way.”

John Harbaugh on the Ravens’ mindset in stopping the run:

“Yes, we have our beliefs and our philosophy. Certainly, the Ravens, since 1996, have chased that. I think that is something that Ozzie [Newsome] certainly believes in, too. Ozzie and I have had many conversations about how we want to play and who we want to be and how to get there. That is something that has been here for quite a while. I think Ozzie has always drafted toward big, physical guys up front. We have always had them, and we have them now. We have had our lulls at times, where we have not defended the run, but we have always wanted to get back and defend the run well. We do not want to have that problem.”

ILB Zachary Orr on the defense’s mentality:

“As a defense, whenever we’re the last people on the field, we want to make plays. We emphasize throughout the whole game, throughout the whole season, that we need to make more plays. Coach [John] Harbaugh said that very clearly – we’re looking for playmakers – and that’s what we’re trying to do.”

RS/WR Devin Hester Sr. on P Sam Koch:

“He’s one of the punters you don’t want to face, because he has the leeway to do stuff that normal punters don’t do. He’s probably one of the best punters I’ve ever been around. As far as direction, he can go both ways. He can give you a hint of where he’s punting the ball, and if he sees you cheating one way, he’s got the skills to punt it the other way.”

WEEK 11 RECAP: DAL. 27, BAL. 17

Rookie QB Dak Prescott completed 14 of 15 passes in the second half when the Cowboys pulled away from the Ravens for a 27-17 victory after the two teams were tied 10-10 at halftime. The game was played last Sunday at AT&T Stadium, where Dallas won its ninth in a row to produce the NFL's best record at 9-1. In the game, Prescott completed 27 of 36 passes for 301 yards and 3 touchdown passes, including 2 to WR Dez Bryant in the second half. The Ravens started well, taking a 7-0, first-quarter lead and forcing the Cowboys to punt on their first four possessions. At that point, Prescott was just 4-of-10 for 31 yards before going on a 23-of-26, 270-yard run the remainder of the game. After RB Terrance West gave the Ravens the 7-0 lead, the Cowboys tied the game on a 3-yard Prescott-to-WR Cole Beasley TD. A 46-yard K Justin Tucker field goal in the second quarter put Baltimore up 10-7 before K Dan Bailey's 30-yarder at the end of the half tied the game at 10. Prescott directed 10- and 13-play TD drives, both ending with Bryant TDs, to give Dallas a 24-10 advantage with 11:30 left in the contest. The Ravens rallied behind QB Joe Flacco, who brought his team within 7 points at 24-17 with a 5-yard TD throw to WR Steve Smith Sr. with 8:16 remaining. (Smith Sr. caught 8 passes for 99 yards for the day, with his third grab being the 1,000th of his career.) Dallas' rookie signal caller then directed a time-consuming, 13-play, 72-yard drive that ended with a Bailey 21-yard FG at the 1:50 mark. Bryant caught 6 balls for 80 yards for the day, while rookie RB Ezekiel Elliott rushed for 97 yards on 25 carries and added 4 catches for 30 more. For the Ravens, Flacco was 23-of-35 for 269 yards, with WR Mike Wallace grabbing 5 for 62.

LAST GAME VS. BENGALS

BENGALS 24, RAVENS 16 – 1/3/16 IN CINCINNATI

The Ravens finished the 2015 season with a 24-16 loss at Cincinnati, the AFC North champions. The Bengals matched their franchise best with a 12-4 record, while the Ravens fell to 5-11, recording their first losing season since 2007 (also 5-11). A difficult third quarter, when the Bengals scored 14 unanswered points, was the difference in the game. Baltimore earned a 9-7 first-half lead on a trio of K Justin Tucker field goals – 28, 50 and 49 yards – all in the second quarter. Cincy's touchdown, also scored in the second quarter, came on a QB AJ McCarron 22-yard throw to TE Tyler Eifert. The Ravens opened the third quarter with the ball, but quickly lost it when QB Ryan Mallett threw an INT to ILB Vontaze Burfict at the Baltimore 33-yard line. Five plays later, McCarron threw his second TD pass, this one to WR A.J. Green for 5 yards and a 14-9 lead. After a Ravens' punt, the Bengals had a fourth-and-1 at Baltimore's 38 when RB Jeremy Hill split a seam and sprinted 38 yards to the end zone, giving the Bengals a 21-9 advantage. After a 52-yard Mike Nugent FG made the score 24-9, the Ravens earned the final points of the game on a Mallett-to-FB Kyle Juszczyk 2-yard TD. An onside kick by the Ravens failed with 1:47 left in the contest. While the Ravens outgained the Bengals, 341 to 292 yards, the Cincinnati defense, which led the NFL in fewest points allowed, stayed stingy once again. Remarkably, "D" defense held the Bengals to 0-for-9 on third downs, while the Ravens were proficient (12-of-20, 60%). Mallett, starting his second game after signing with the Ravens 19 days earlier, was 30-of-56 for 292 yards, including 6 each to WR Jeremy Butler, TE Maxx Williams and RB Javorius Allen.

SUPER BOWL TITLES

LB Ray Lewis - 2000 Super Bowl XXXV MVP

In a magnificent effort showcasing thrilling performances by their defense, offense and special teams units, the Baltimore Ravens won Super Bowl XXXV with a 34-7 victory over the New York Giants. Allowing the Giants a meager 152 total net yards, New York's attack crossed midfield just twice, while Baltimore's "D" posted 4 INTs. LB Ray Lewis was named the game's MVP, capping an accolade-filled season in which he was also tabbed the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year.

QB Joe Flacco - 2012 Super Bowl XLVII MVP

Baltimore defeated San Francisco, 34-31, in Super Bowl XLVII, capturing the franchise's second World Championship. After an amazing first-half performance, the Ravens took a commanding 28-6 lead. But following a bizarre, 34-minute power outage that halted play, the 49ers stormed back into contention. Clinging to a 34-29 edge late in the game, the Ravens stood firm on a pivotal goal-line stand, jamming SF on four-straight plays inside the 7-yard line. QB Joe Flacco was named the game's MVP.

RAVENS SWAT TEAM

For years, Baltimore has been especially strong at blocking kicks. Since 2014, the Ravens have produced the NFL's most blocked kicks (12), including an NFL-high 4 this season: DE Lawrence Guy's blocked PAT at Cleveland, which was returned by CB Tavon Young for 2 points; DE Brent Urban's FG block at Jacksonville, which set up K Justin Tucker's game-winning FG; DT Brandon Williams' blocked FG at the New York Jets; and RB Javorius "Buck" Allen's blocked punt vs. Pittsburgh, which was returned 14 yards for a TD by WR Chris Moore.

FOUR-STRAIGHT TOP 5s

In 2015, senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News ranked the Ravens' special teams unit No. 1 in the NFL in his annual comprehensive ratings system based on 22 categories, assigning points according to each standing — 1 for best, 32 for worst. 2015 marked the fourth-straight year in Gosselin's Top 5, as Baltimore was No. 5 in 2014, No. 5 in 2013, and in 2012, earned the No. 2 spot.

RAVENS THRIVE UNDER ROSBURG

Special teams coordinator/associate head coach Jerry Rosburg, a 38-year coaching veteran, has guided a strong special teams group since arriving in Baltimore in 2008. Here are several standout notes:

SIX PRO BOWLERS

• Six Ravens have earned Pro Bowl honors while playing for Rosburg: ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (2008), K Billy Cundiff (2010), RS Jacoby Jones (2012), K Justin Tucker (2013), LS Morgan Cox & P Sam Koch (2015).

PRIME PUNTER & KICKER

• Earning his first Pro Bowl nod in 2015, P Sam Koch's 46.7 gross average ranked No. 9 in the NFL, while his 42.9 net average was No. 2. In 2014, Koch posted the NFL's No. 3 gross (47.4) and No. 1 net (43.3) averages. Both marks are career highs and Ravens records. Pro Bowl K Justin Tucker, who Rosburg scouted and helped sign as a rookie free agent, owns the NFL's most FGs (153) since entering the NFL in 2012. With an 89.5% career success mark, "Tuck" is the second-most accurate kicker in league history (Dan Bailey, 90.6).

RAVENS BIG RETURNS

• Led by Pro Bowl RS Jacoby Jones in the 2012 Super Bowl season, Baltimore ranked first in the NFL in KOR average (27.3). Jones, who became the first player ever to record dual KORs of at least 105 yards in a career, tied for a league-leading 3 kick return TDs (2 KORs & 1 PR). He also tied an NFL record for longest KOR in a Super Bowl with his 108-yard KOR-TD. (In 2014's game at Pit., he added another 108-yarder to his resume, marking 4 total KOR-TDs over 100 yards in his career.)

ROSBURG'S PAST

• Prior to Baltimore, Rosburg built a successful NFL special teams resume with the Browns (2001-06) and Falcons (2007). Over a five-year span (2002-06), Cleveland's special teams were ranked as the top NFL unit in The Dallas Morning News' annual comprehensive report.

RAVENS BLOCK PARTY

• Dating back to 2014, the Ravens have produced 12 blocked kicks (breakdown detailed below), ranking as the NFL's No. 1 figure. In fact, Baltimore already has 4 blocks in 2016 — 1 punt, 1 PAT and 2 FGAs.

Total Blocks	12	1st Qtr.	2	When Losing	8
FG Blocks	6	2nd Qtr.	1	When Winning	2
PAT Blocks	3	3rd Qtr.	3	When Tied	2
Punt Blocks	3	4th Qtr.	6	Record w/Block	7-5

• In Games 7-11 during the 2015 season, the Ravens blocked a kick (2 PATs, 2 FGs and 1 punt) in five-straight contests, a feat that had not been accomplished since 1983 (Atlanta Falcons). Impressively, Baltimore's 5 blocked kicks in 2015 tied (Oakland) for the NFL's most.

A STRONG RETURN

Since 2008, when Jerry Rosburg became the Ravens' ST coordinator, Baltimore owns the NFL's No. 1 KOR average (25.4).

Williams, who was a third-round pick in 2013, played perhaps his best game of the 2016 season in Week 7 at NYJ when he racked up 8 tackles, 1 sack and 1 blocked FG attempt. This season, his 31 total tackles rank third among all NFL nose tackles entering Week 12.

- Since Williams became a starter in 2014 and helped anchor the Ravens' defensive line, Baltimore has allowed just 91.3 rushing yards per game, ranking third in the NFL.
- In 2016, the Ravens' run defense ranks No. 1 in the league, permitting 76.0 yards per game. Baltimore has allowed an NFL-low 30 rushing first downs.

NOTE THE B-DUB QUOTE

CBS Sports' Pete Prisco on ranking NT Brandon Williams the most underrated player in the NFL: "A year ago, I picked him as his team's most underrated player. But after an impressive 16 games in 2015, where he played as well as any nose [tackle] in the league, Williams shoots to the top overall honor. ... How he missed out on a Pro Bowl in 2015 is mystifying. It's tough for centers to move him in one-on-one situations, and he helps free up the linebackers to run to the football."

THE RETURN SPECIALIST

On Sept. 5, the Ravens signed four-time Pro Bowler RS/WR Devin Hester Sr., who has produced the most return TDs (20) in NFL history, to a one-year contract. Hester Sr., who is in his 11th season, is arguably the best return specialist in NFL history. Here are a few notes about his impressive career:

- He has posted the most return touchdowns (20) in NFL history, registering an NFL-record 14 punt return touchdowns, and then adding 5 kickoff return TDs and 1 missed FG return TD (108 yards).
- Seeing action in 153 career games (47 starts), he has also tallied 255 receptions for 3,311 yards (13.0 avg.) and 16 touchdowns, also posting 116 rushing yards and one touchdown on 36 carries.
- Hester Sr.'s 11.8-yard career punt return average ranks ninth in NFL history, while his 3,631 PR yards stand third. For kickoff returns, Hester Sr. owns a 25.0-yard career average, gaining 7,213 yards (12th most in NFL history).
- His four Pro Bowls occurred in 2006, 2007, 2010 and 2014. He was named to the All-Decade Team (2000s) by ESPN and The AP, and he has been tabbed All-Pro three times (2006, 2007 & 2010).

IN MEMORIAM: CLARENCE BROOKS

CB

Clarence Brooks, the Baltimore Ravens' longest-tenured assistant coach, passed away on Sept. 17 at a hospital in Weston, Fla., following a battle with esophageal and stomach cancer. He was 65. The beloved Brooks – referred to by most as “C.B.”

– originally joined the organization in 2005 and served 11 seasons as defensive line coach. This past spring, while undergoing intense treatment for his illness, he transitioned into a senior defensive assistant role, but still spent as much time as he possibly could working with players and fellow coaches, including during the Ravens' recent training camp. Brooks was a 24-year NFL coaching veteran and one of six assistant coaches retained by head coach John Harbaugh upon his 2008 Baltimore arrival.

In addition to the Ravens, “C.B.” coached for the Miami Dolphins (2000-04), Cleveland Browns (1999) and Chicago Bears (1993-98). Brooks also spent 17 years in the collegiate ranks holding coaching positions at Arizona (1990-92) – where he was instrumental in the notable “Desert Swarm” defense that led the nation in scoring defense in 1992 – Syracuse (1981-89) and his alma mater Massachusetts (1976-80).

During Brooks' Baltimore tenure as defensive line coach (2005-15), the Ravens allowed the NFL's fewest rushing touchdowns (89), second-fewest points per game (18.9) and the league's second-fewest rushing yards per game (94.2).

Head Coach John Harbaugh:

“Our heartfelt condolences and love go out to Justa and the Brooks family on the passing of Clarence. We loved that man! He is at peace now through the grace of Jesus Christ. He fought the good fight and won. One of the finest coaches I have ever met, he changed the lives and influenced players and coaches for the better. He was a great man, loving husband and devoted father. He was as tough and determined in adversity as you'll ever see and as loyal a friend as there is. ‘C.B.’ will forever walk as a loved and cherished member of the Ravens family.”

General Manager & Executive Vice President Ozzie Newsome:

“Very few, if any, coaches influenced their players – on and off the field – like Clarence Brooks. How fortunate are the Ravens to have had this special person in our lives for the past 12 years? He was a teacher, a friend, a father figure to many and a great football coach. A lot of our defensive success over the years is due to his ability to get the most out of his players on the defensive line. This is a sad, sad day for our team and extended family. Our hearts ache for Justa and the rest of Clarence's family.”

Owner Steve Bisciotti:

“The Bisciottis are so sad to hear about Clarence's passing. He was the sweetest man I've ever met in football. He was also as tough as nails and was as respected by everyone on our team as any coach who ever touched the Ravens. His impact was more than people on the outside could know. He will be so missed.”

President Dick Cass:

“Clarence had a special rapport with his players. He was both beloved as coach and as a person. His infectious laugh and welcoming smile will be greatly missed, not by just the players and his fellow coaches, but by everyone in our building.”

DT Brandon Williams:

“Coach Brooks was like a father figure to me and every other player he coached. He made me the player I am today, but more importantly, helped me to be the man I am today. He always got the best out of you. He saw the potential in every player and did everything in his power to help you be the best you could be – on and off the field. Every day I walked in this building, no matter what was going on, he could always make me smile. I will miss him, and my heart goes out to the entire Brooks family.”

DE Lawrence Guy:

“Coach Brooks was a heck of a coach, but an even better man. He cared so much about all of us and could always pull the best out of you in any situation. Through him, I learned how to prepare better, practice better and play better. I will truly miss his coaching, his fellowship and his mentorship. Rest well, ‘C.B.’”

OLB Terrell Suggs:

“Clarence Brooks was a rare, special coach. We had a relationship that became more than football; he was family. He was every bit the definition of the word ‘coach.’ He was firm and demanding when he needed to be, but was a father figure and caring at the same time. I will definitely miss my friend.”

Linebackers Coach Don Martindale:

“Clarence Brooks is one of the finest human beings I have ever met. Selfishly speaking, you would like to say he was your best friend, but he was really everybody's best friend. We are happy he is not suffering anymore. I love him like a brother, and I am going to miss him terribly.”

Former Ravens Head Coach Brian Billick (Who Hired Brooks in 2005):

“Whew, this hurts. What a man, what a coach, what an inspiration. Beyond being one of the best position coaches in the league, Clarence was one of the most respected people in the NFL. He was a great teacher and friend. His positive and upbeat, yet stern, way was special. The proof is in the pudding. Look at how players improved under him. It would be tough to find a more respected assistant in the NFL. My heart reaches out to Justa and his family.”

Former Ravens DT Haloti Ngata:

“I am deeply saddened by the news of ‘C.B.’ passing away. I hope that I can help continue his legacy by the way I live and play. I played under ‘C.B.’ for nine years. In that time, he helped me go to five Pro Bowls and win a Super Bowl ring. He deserves a lot of that credit. He worked so hard with me and my Ravens teammates. This is tough news to swallow. I will miss you, Coach. Thank you for everything you taught me through the years – on and off the field. I love you, Clarence.”

Former Browns, Ravens & Dolphins DE Rob Burnett:

“I cried a few weeks ago when I found out about Clarence and his fight against cancer, and I immediately reached out to Justa and ‘C.B.’ His death rips at my heart. I loved Clarence. He was more than my coach. He was my friend, a mentor and a motivator. This is a sad day for all of those fortunate enough to have known this great person.”

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

GIANT FOOD DRIVE - #FEEDTHEFLOCK

The Baltimore Ravens are joining the Maryland Food Bank and Giant Food once again in the fight against hunger with the 21st Annual Family Food & Funds Drive. In 2016, fans are encouraged to #FeedTheFlock and donate food or funds at the Ravens vs. Bengals game on Nov. 27 for those who are hungry and in need. Donations can also be given online through the virtual food drive. Every donation counts, as it only takes $1 to provide four meals. In Maryland alone, more than 750,000 people suffer from food insecurity. Nearly half of that number, including 99,000 children, are in Baltimore City and Baltimore, Howard and Anne Arundel counties. Join the Ravens, Giant Food and the Maryland Food Bank in food collection efforts to #FeedTheFlock.

SOUTHWEST AIRLINES: TRADING PLACES 2016

On Nov. 14, two players tested out a new occupation on their day off. The Ravens surprised travelers by taking on the role of Southwest Airlines customer service representatives and operations agents. Passengers in the terminal were greeted by Ravens CB Jeraud Powers and G/C John Urschel at Baltimore/Washington International Thurgood Marshall Airport. Southwest Airlines invited the two to trade places with staff, making them responsible for onboarding passengers and giving pre-flight announcements on the plane. Ravens mascot, Poe and Ravens Cheerleaders were also in on the fun.

JOHN HARBAUGH MONDAY PRESS CONFERENCE: WEEK 12 VS. BENGALS

Opening statement: “Good to see you guys. Obviously, we’ve been hard at work, really, since the game yesterday. We got a lot of work done on the plane coming back. We’re getting ready for Cincinnati – divisional game, a very important game for us. We look at the rest of the season as a six-game season. In some ways, this is like our opener. All eyes are really looking forward to become the best team we can be over the next six games. That’s our attention. That’s our focus.”

You have had a day to look at the film. What did see from G Marshal Yanda at left guard? (Joe Platania) “He played well. He kind of looked like he’s played it all long. He didn’t have any problems in there. It was a good move for us.”

Do you think he got out of it OK? I know it’s a pain tolerance thing with him, but is he OK? (Luke Jones) “He got out of it well. I talked to him this morning, and he felt really good – felt strong. He got a lift in this morning, so that was a good sign. He got out of it 100 percent.”

How difficult is it to switch from one side of the offensive line to the other? (Jamison Hensley) “I don’t know if it’s quite as drastic as this, but in some ways, it’s like you’re a lefty all of those years, and now, you have to go over to the right of the plate and hit. You’re going to play golf the other way. You’re going to play tennis the other way. I don’t think it’s that drastic, but it’s different. You have your other hand down. You have your other foot back and everything is backwards; you’re setting to the left instead of to the right. All the plays are flipped. I think for him to do it ... I was weary of it early in the week. I was just watching him in individual and seeing how he moved, but he did look natural doing it. I think he’s been on the left side at times during college and things like that. It just shows you what a phenomenal athlete he is and how determined he is and really what a good football player he is.”

Was this something that he suggested, or did a coach suggest it? (Jamison Hensley) “It was something that he suggested. He felt like it would be better for his situation with his shoulder to be on the other side, and that that would give him the best chance to be strong and stay healthy. We said, ‘Yeah, let’s do it. Let’s try it.’”

Is that because his first punch is with that right arm? (Ryan Mink) “I think that would be a good question for him. He would probably have a better feel for that than I would. I’m not sure how it reacts exactly.”

John, was there a time when you thought you might not have Yanda for the rest of the season? Did it ever get that severe? (Jeff Zrebiec) “I don’t know. I think that that’s always a concern. You worry about everything like that when it comes to things like that. Shoulders and knees and hip joints, you always wonder about stuff like that. I’m just happy to have him out there right now. He played well.”

S Eric Weddle talked after the game about how he hopes that guys come out of the Cowboys game with some confidence, knowing that everything is right in front of them. How much is that the attitude that you guys need to take through the rest of the season? (Jeff Zrebiec) “I think that’s exactly it. Exactly what you’re saying is exactly the way we need to look at it. If you look at the big picture, you just work hard to do as well as you can and be as good as you can. Confidence is a big part of that, and confidence is reflected, a lot of times, in success. You do things well, you build confidence. It’s that simple, but also, you work hard. That’s builds confidence as well. Our guys have done that, and they have also had a lot of success at times. They have done a lot of good things, especially our defense and our special teams. I feel like our offense is improving. I feel like we’re getting better at the things we’re trying to do right now. It’s all about the next game. It’s all about getting ready to play the next game and going out there and playing as well as we can. I don’t think we need to ask our guys, ‘Please, be confident.’ Our guys are professional football players. They know they’re good football players. We believe in ourselves. We believe in one another. We know that everything is right in front of us. This is our opportunity to go win the division. We won the Pittsburgh game to tie the division at 4-4. Since then, we both beat Cleveland and lost to Dallas, so we’re even, and there’s six games left. The same thing goes for Cincinnati, who is right behind the both of us, and we’re all going to play each other over the course of the next six games. It’s going to come down to that. It’s probably what we knew going into the season that it was going to come down to division games, and that’s what it’s going to come down to. I’m excited about that. Our guys are as well.”

John, how do you address the issues with penalties differently than you already have this year? (Mike Preston) “[Be] very specific. I think you talk to ... Jeremy [Zuttah] had the three penalties. Each one is different. Each one you try to address specifically. I think, in the end, the thing that he recognizes is that three is too many. Those are drive-killing penalties. To me, that’s the same thing that happened earlier in the year. The first four or five games – the first three or four games – were about penalties on offense. It can’t be about penalties on offense. That’s going to slow us down. We’re going to be moving the ball and have a penalty. That’s not the idea. You can look at the officiating all you want. You can look at the calls. You can ask yourself whether the calls are being made on both sides all you want. That’s not going to fix anything. We just have to find a way to do it our way, play in such a way that we don’t have penalties. I think it comes down to every coach and every player. I think it’s a reflection of the coaches. It’s what we need to do as coaches to get the job done to make sure our guys play without the flags flying.”

You have had glimpses of dominance this year, but are you still chasing a full 60 minutes of dominant football this year? We have seen solid halves, but there hasn’t been one game where you can say you have played a complete football game this year. Is there any reason why? (Jerry Coleman) “I think you said it. That’s the fact. That’s the way it’s been, and I think it’s well stated on your part.”

You have not been able to pinpoint why? (Jerry Coleman) “Everything we talk about every time is [that it] is a number of things. We talk about it every single week. If you are looking for one thing ... If you are looking for the ‘pin point’ – there is no pin point. It is not one thing. If it was one thing, that would be easy. Look all across the league. Look at every team; it is football. Every game is different. Every game stands on its own two feet. [There are] 22 guys out there playing, special teams are playing. It is a play here, it is a play there. It is getting the job done. No, there is no one thing. There is going out the next week and competing and fighting and doing everything you can to overcome the challenges that you face and the opponent that you face and trying to win what ends up being ... In a lot of ways – it is sports – but it is kind of like an epic struggle. I have said that before. That premise that you are dealing with; that is not our world. That is not the world we live in. That is not how football works. As you well know, that is not how life works. We will just keep fighting and try to find a way to win the next game.”

Do you feel good about getting CB Jimmy Smith and OLB Elvis Dumervil back for Sunday? (Jeff Zrebiec) “We will see. I don’t really know. It is up to the doctors.”

With OLB Elvis Dumervil practicing fully on Wednesday and Thursday and then limited Friday, did he have a setback? (Ed Lee) “No he didn’t. Like I said, it is up to the doctors. It is the medical staff that makes those decisions. That is how it works.”

With six games left in the regular season, what are you expecting in terms of production from OLB Elvis Dumervil? (Ed Lee) “I’m expecting ... I have no expectations. I am hoping he gets out there and plays, and I hope he has 10 sacks. That is what I am hoping for. I am hoping he just lights it up and dominates. I am hoping he is the difference. I am hoping he is the ‘pinpoint’ that Jerry [Coleman] is looking for. (laughter) That would be great. It is a fair question; I get where you are coming from on it. But, I just don’t have the answer for it. If he is out there, I expect him to play great.”

You have six games left and two are against Cincinnati. They are a team that has had its share of injuries, but also is very desperate at this point. How do you look at the Bengals knowing that you have to face them two times in this six-week stretch? (Dave Ginsburg) “We respect the Bengals, obviously. We have not beat them for a while. It is a big game for us. It is a big challenge for us. They have always been tough for us as long as I have been here. I’m sure [they were tough] before that as well. It is a rivalry game, a division game. [They have] a very aggressive defense, a very hard-nosed, tough, fly-around-type of defense. [They have] a big, physical offensive line, an excellent quarterback – Pro Bowl guy. We have to find a way to beat them. If we do not start beating the Bengals, then we are not going to win any division championships. That is especially true this year. To me, the whole thing goes through Cincinnati and Pittsburgh. We are going to have to win a couple other games, too, but it is the division. This is a division game. It is as simple as that.”

You have said many times that you enjoy challenges and you get excited about building towards a challenge. There is probably no bigger challenge in the division than covering WR A.J. Green. It looks like he may not be there. How do you balance relishing that challenge with the fact that he may not be there and it might help you? (Joe Platanica) “We have had to play without players. Everyone has to play without players. So, they have to play without players. That is just the way it goes. We just look at the players that are going to be out there, which will be plenty of good players that they have. We will have to defend them. That is really it. There is no really relishing or not relishing or anything like that. There is no way that goes into our thinking as much as we just have to go win the game against the team that they run out there. It is going to be a really good football team that is going to come out of that tunnel, and our job is to be better. They are going to look at it like their job is to be better for three hours on Sunday. It is going to be one heck of a tussle. I can't wait. But I can't wait for tomorrow when the players come back and we start going to work on the meetings. I can't wait for that."

RB Kenneth Dixon had some strong runs again yesterday. How have you seen him evolving over the past couple of weeks? (Todd Karpovich) "Yes, he has some explosiveness, he makes people miss – quickness. I think he is getting better. I would like to get him the ball more. That is the goal – to get him and Terrance [West] the ball more. To do that, we have to score points and extend drives and get the lead and do all those kinds of things. But I like what we see in both of those guys."

You were asked yesterday about the situation with the lack of runs in the second half, and you said the circumstances dictated that. After having a chance to review everything, are you comfortable or uncomfortable with the lack of runs? How do you feel about that? Was it the circumstances and the possession that they had? (Jerry Coleman) "Clearly it was [the circumstances]. I do not think that is even hard to figure out. I want more runs, because if you have more runs, then you have more plays. We had 51 plays. If you have more plays in the second half, you are going to run the ball more, especially if you have the lead. That is on us. We have to get off the field, and we have to extend drives and score points. If you do that, you are going to have more runs."

WR Mike Wallace talked yesterday of trying to maybe convince WR Steve Smith Sr. to come back for another year. Has that thought crossed your mind at all? (Jamison Hensley) "It has crossed my mind, of course. That is one that has crossed my mind that I will actually admit to. (laughter) I don't know, I am just thinking about Sunday really. Are you asking me if I have talked to Steve about it?" (Reporter: "No, if it has crossed your mind.") "Yes it has crossed my mind."

Last year, WR Steve Smith Sr. announced that it was his final season. Has he indicated to you that this is going to be his final season? (Jamison Hensley) "Yes. That is what he has told me. I think he has pretty much told everybody that."

Will you lobby and maybe make a speech [to get Steve Smith Sr. to come back]? (Jerry Coleman) "If he wants to come back, he is welcome, absolutely. You like every good football player you can get, but I don't want to speak for Steve. He has had an unbelievably awesome career. He got his 1000th catch, so he needs to be commended for that. Congratulations to Steve on that accomplishment. I am looking for many more this year."

What are your plans with TE Nick Boyle this week? I assume he is going to get back at practice and then you will make a decision Saturday? (Jeff Zrebiec) "Yes, that is probably it. I think we have a week to make the decision, so it is not for this game that we have to make the decision. It could be after this game, is my understanding, unless I am wrong about that, which is certainly possible. He will be back practicing this week. We will see how he looks. He has not been here for 10 weeks, so it has been quite a while."

Is the constant shuffling at tight end and needing to use T James Hurst there and TE Darren Waller ... Has that been difficult, because that is a position that you guys rely on and QB Joe Flacco obviously loves involving tight ends? (Jeff Zrebiec) "It has not been ideal. We had a number of tight ends to start the season, and we ended up being thin there the last four or five weeks. I feel like Darren [Waller] has done a good job; he has actually blocked pretty darn well. [We] just play the guys we have and go win games with the guys we have."
