COWBOYS & REDSKINS

Series Notables:

- * Dallas' 67 overall wins over Washington are the most victories over any other team in the league.
- * The Cowboys have faced only one team (Philadelphia - 115) more times than they have faced the Redskins (113).
- * The Cowboys won a series-high 10 straight games from 1997-02.
- * The teams played in two playoff games against each other, the 1972 and 1982 NFC Championship Game - both Redskins wins.
- * Four of the Cowboys 19 shutouts have come against the Redskins with three on the road.
- * The Cowboys have faced the Redskins seven times on Thanksgiving - more than any other opponent - and hold a 6-1 record against them.

A Cowboys Win Would:

- * Improve Dallas' record to 10-1 for only the second time (2007) in franchise history.
- * Give the Cowboys their 10th straight win for sole possession of the second-longest win streak (including combined seasons) in franchise history.
- * Mark the first time in franchise history that Dallas has started the season 0-1 and gone on to win the next 10 games.
- * Increase the Cowboys current win streak against teams from the NFC East to three and up the 2016 division record to 3-1.
- * Complete the 2016 series sweep against the Redskins - the 18th overall of the series and first since the 2013 season.
- * Snap a two-game home losing streak when facing the Redskins.
- * Up the Cowboys all-time Thanksgiving Day record to 30-18-1, 7-1 against the Redskins, and snap a two-game losing streak on Turkey Day.

UPCOMING MILESTONES AND CURRENT NOTES

With the 2016 season underway for the Dallas Cowboys, the following information pertains to the most current notes and page location in the release for the remainder of the information, as well as upcoming milestones:

2016 DALLAS COWBOYS CURRENT TEAM HIGHLIGHTS:

- * The Cowboys offense is second in the NFL with 246 total first downs and leads the league with 97 rushing first downs (FIRST DOWN COWBOYS - page 26).
- * The Dallas offense has produced the second-ranked rushing attack by averaging 156.7 yards-per-game (RUSHING TO THE TOP - page 26).
- * Dallas is second in the league with 16 rushing touchdowns (214 + 46 + 25 = RUSHING TDS - page 27).
- * The Cowboys have 45 big play runs of 10-or-more yards to rank second in the NFL. Dallas also has 10 rushes of 20+ yards to tie for third (BIG PLAY RUNS - page 28).
- * The offensive unit leads the NFL with a commanding 33:27 time of possession mark (OFFICIAL TIMEKEEPERS OF THE NFL - page 28).
- * The Cowboys offense boasts 27 drives of five-or-more minutes - 23 for scores, both tops in the NFL in 2016. The unit also has had 13 drives go five-or-more minutes and result in touchdowns, best in the league (DRIVE FOR FIVE - page 28).
- * The Cowboys have recorded 27 drives of 10-or-more plays to boast the most in the NFL (TEN PLAYS-OR-MORE - page 28).
- * The Dallas offense has scored on 51 of its 100 drives for a 51.0% scoring efficiency rate to pace the NFL, while also boasting the highest touchdown efficiency rate (32.0%) (FINISHING DRIVES WITH SCORES - page 28).
- * Dallas' offense is third in the league with a 48.4 third down percentage (60-of-124) (THIRD-AND-NO PROBLEM - page 28).
- * The Dallas defense is the only team in the NFL to not allow a 100-yard rusher in a single game (NO HUNDREDS EXCHANGED HERE - page 30).
- * The Cowboys are one-of-nine teams to give up 20-or-more points to opposing team's offenses four times-or-less this season - tied for the second-fewest games in the NFL (20 POINT LIMIT - page 30) and rank fifth in the NFL in points allowed-per-game (POINTS HARD TO COME BY - page 30).

2016 DALLAS COWBOYS UPCOMING MILESTONES - TEAM:

- * A win against the Redskins would give the Cowboys their 10th straight win to gain sole possession of the second-longest winning streak, including combined seasons, in franchise history (WINNING STREAK AT NINE - page 8).
- * With 400-plus total net yards, the Dallas offense will break a tie with New England (2007) Denver (2013) for the most consecutive games with 400-plus yards in a single season in NFL history with nine games (SERVING UP 400-YARD GAMES - page 28).

2016 DALLAS COWBOYS UPCOMING MILESTONES - INDIVIDUAL:

- * Cole Beasley (196) needs four receptions to reach 200 for his career to become the 21st player in team history to reach 200 career receptions.
Cole Beasley - WR
- * Dez Bryant (64) needs one touchdown reception to tie Michael Irvin (65) for the second-most touchdowns in franchise history (DEZZLING PERFORMANCES - page 22).
- * With two receiving touchdowns against Washington, Bryant would notch his fourth career instance of posting back-to-back multi-touchdown games and tie Bob Hayes (15) for the most multi-score games by a Cowboy (DEZZLING PERFORMANCES - page 22).
Ezekiel Elliott - RB
- * Ezekiel Elliott (9) needs one rushing touchdown to become the fourth Cowboys rookie running back - eighth overall running back - to reach 10 rushing touchdowns in a single season.
- * With two rushing touchdowns, Elliott would notch his fourth overall multi-score game of the season to establish a team rookie record (ZEKE MONSTER - page 25).
- * Elliott (223) needs 19 carries to surpass Emmitt Smith (241 - 1990) for the most carries by a rookie in team history (ZEKE MONSTER - page 25).
Dak Prescott - QB
- * By making a start against Washington, it will mark Dak Prescott's 11th game played and 11th start to tie Troy Aikman (11/11 - 1989) for the most by a rookie quarterback in team history (DAK ATTACK - page 15).
- * With a win, Prescott (9) will increase his streak of consecutive wins as the starting quarterback to 10 while extending the second-longest winning streak by a rookie quarterback during the Super Bowl era behind Ben Roethlisberger (13 - 2004) (THE DAK KNIGHT RISES - page 15).
- * Prescott (2,640) needs 360 passing yards to become the 16th NFL rookie quarterback to pass for 3,000 yards.
- * With three passing touchdowns, Prescott (17) will become the 14th NFL rookie quarterback to register 20 passing scores.
- * With a 100.0 rating, Prescott will reach his ninth game of the season to tie for the most by a rookie in NFL history and tie the third-most by any Cowboys quarterback in a single season (PRESCOTT RAINING AT 100.0 - page 16).
- * With a completion percentage of 70.0-or-better, Prescott will add his seventh of the season to establish an NFL rookie quarterback record (COOL HAND DAK - page 16).
- * Prescott (4) needs two rushing touchdowns to surpass Don Meredith (5 - 1966) for the most rushing scores by a Dallas quarterback in a single season in franchise history (RAYNE MAN - page 26).

Jason Witten - TE

- * By playing against the Redskins, it will mark Jason Witten's 218th career game played to break a tie with Bill Bates (217) for the second-most by a Cowboy (I AM IRON MAN - page 19).
- * Witten (49) needs one reception to reach 50 on the season for his 13th consecutive season (50X12 - page 17).

2016 DALLAS COWBOYS MOST RECENT NOTES VS. WASHINGTON (11/24) - TEAM:

- * The win over Baltimore gave the Cowboys their ninth straight to break a tie with the 1977 team for the longest regular season winning streak during a single season in team history (WINNING STREAK AT NINE - page 8).
- * The win also closed out the Cowboys 2016 record against the AFC North at a perfect 4-0 - the first time Dallas has gone undefeated against that division, and it is the first time the Cowboys have swept all four AFC Divisional opponents since the AFC South in 2014. They also extended the current overall win streak against the division to six and gave Dallas its 99th win against the AFC - tops in the NFC.
- * It was also the Cowboys first victory over the Ravens, the only team Dallas previously did not have a win against, while snapping a four-game losing streak against them.
- * After accumulating 417 total net yards the Cowboys reached 4,131 yards on the season. By crossing the 4,000-yard barrier in the team's 10th game, the 2016 Dallas offense became only the second team in franchise history to hit that mark in its first 10 games of the season, joining the 1966 team and the 4,131 yards are the most during that timespan between the two.

2016 DALLAS COWBOYS MOST RECENT NOTES VS. WASHINGTON (11/24) - INDIVIDUAL:

- * Dan Bailey had two field goals to give him 163 for his career and surpass Rafael Septien (162) for the most field goals made in team history (MORE RELIABLE IS BETTER - page 31).
Dan Bailey - K
- * Cole Beasley caught five passes for 59 yards to establish career-bests in a season with 53 receptions for 591 yards and five touchdowns - tied for a career-best.
Cole Beasley - WR
- * Dez Bryant hauled in two touchdowns to mark his 14th career multi-touchdown game (DEZZLING PERFORMANCES - page 22).
Dez Bryant
- * Ezekiel Elliott rushed 25 times for 97 yards to give him 1,102 for the season to surpass Tony Dorsett (1,007) for the most yards by a rookie rusher in franchise history (ZEKE MONSTER - page 25).
Ezekiel Elliott - RB
- * Elliott's 25 carries gave him 223 on the season and allowed him to pass Don Perkins (200 - 1961), Calvin Hill (204 - 1969) and Tony Dorsett (208 - 1977) for the second-most carries by a rookie runner in team history, trailing only Emmitt Smith (241 - 1990) (ZEKE MONSTER - page 25).
Chris Jones - P
- * Chris Jones had two punts downed inside the 20-yard line to become the fifth player in team history to reach 100 in a career.
Sean Lee - LB
- * Sean Lee's tackle totals allowed him to surpass 100 tackles on the season with today's defensive performance to mark his third consecutive season - fourth overall - with 100-plus tackles.
Sean Lee - LB
- * Prescott completed 27-of-36 passes for a career-high 301 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions for a 127.2 quarterback rating.
Dak Prescott - QB
- * By making his 10th start and 10th game played, he surpassed Chad Hutchinson (9/9 - 2002) for the second-most starts and second-most games played by a Cowboys rookie quarterback in team history (DAK ATTACK - page 15).
- * Prescott scored a 127.2 rating to mark his eighth game with a 100.0 rating to tie for second by a rookie quarterback in a single season in NFL history (PRESCOTT RATINGS AT 100.0 - page 16).
- * It was also Prescott's sixth game of the season completing 70.0 percent-or-better of his passes to tie for the most by a rookie quarterback in NFL history.
- * By throwing for 300-or-more yards in his second consecutive game, Prescott became the fourth quarterback - first rookie - to have a streak of two-or-more games with 300-plus passing yards in team history (DAK TO THE FUTURE - page 15).
- * Prescott became the first rookie quarterback in NFL history to pass for 300-plus yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions in consecutive games (DAK TO THE FUTURE - page 15).
- * Prescott joined Dan Marino (1983) and Russell Wilson (2012) as the only rookie quarterbacks with five consecutive games of two-plus touchdowns.
- * Prescott's 36 attempts gave him 161 on the season to surpass Troy Aikman (293 - 1989) for the most attempts by a Cowboys rookie quarterback in franchise history (DAK ATTACK - page 15).

Jason Witten - TE

- * Jason Witten had 37 receiving yards on five catches today to give him 520 on the season to mark his 13th career and 13th consecutive 500-yard season while becoming only the eighth player - second tight end - to accomplish that feat (500x13 - page 19).

COWBOYS & ALBERTSONS

Presented by Albertsons, Thursday's game will highlight the partnerships between the Dallas Cowboys, The Salvation Army and Albertsons. Together, they are giving back and doing the most good in our communities. At the game fans will enjoy 75,000 Rally Towels to use for cheering on the Cowboys. Fans will enjoy interviews, video and other exciting Albertsons highlights. Albertsons is a proud partner of The Salvation Army and the Official Supermarket and Pharmacy of the Dallas Cowboys.

HEAD COACHES

JASON GARRETT (55-45, 6th Year)

Jason Garrett was named the eighth head coach in Dallas Cowboys history on January 5, 2011. Garrett became the first former Dallas Cowboys player to become the team's head coach. As a backup quarterback during his playing career in Dallas, he started nine-of-23 games played and was a member of teams that won six division titles and three Super Bowl championships. The 2015 season was a challenge as injuries sidelined two of Dallas' top playmakers - Tony Romo and Dez Bryant - for a majority of the season and the club finished with a 4-12 record. Romo (collarbone) started only four games and finished the year on Reserve/Injured and Bryant (foot) was slowed through a majority of his nine starts, also finishing on IR. Garrett saw four different players start at quarterback for the club for only the second time in team history. Veterans Brandon Weeden (three) and Matt Cassel (seven) started the majority of games while Kellen Moore made the first two starts of his career. The running game saw a burst through the second half of the season as Darren McFadden posted his second career 1,000-yard season (1,089) to mark the first time in club history two different running backs each rushed for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons. Despite the struggles, Dallas still sent five players to the Pro Bowl - Tyron Smith (third), Travis Frederick (second), Zack Martin (second), Dan Bailey (first) and Sean Lee (first).

Garrett was elevated to the Cowboys top job after taking over as the team's interim head coach midway through 2010. He guided the club to a 5-3 mark to finish the season after the team started 1-7. He led Dallas to an 8-8 record, narrowly missing the playoffs and an NFC East Division title in each his first three full seasons as head coach (2011-13). With Garrett at the helm of the offense, the unit reached new heights from 2007-13, ranking among the NFL's top-10 in total offense in five of his seven years at the helm: 2013 (10th), 2012 (6th), 2010 (10th), 2009 (2nd) and 2007 (2nd). Inclusively from the start of the 2007 season, the club has averaged 364.9 total yards-per-outing (sixth in the NFL) and 24.3 points-per-game (eighth). Since his arrival in 2007, not only has the team set single-season records in numerous offensive categories, but the club's cumulative numbers for total net yards (52,540), gross passing yards (38,325) and total points (3,498) are among the best totals over a nine-year span in the history of the organization. Under Garrett's tutelage, 13 different offensive players have earned 34 total trips to the Pro Bowl.

JAY GRUDEN (19-23-1, 3rd Year)

Jay Gruden was named the 29th head coach of the Washington Redskins on January 9, 2014. Gruden guided the Redskins to a 9-7 record and an NFC East title in 2015, becoming only the sixth coach in team history to lead the franchise to a playoff berth within the first two years of a coaching tenure. Excluding interim coaches, Gruden, 46, became the team's youngest head coaching hire since hiring eventual Pro Football Hall of Famer Joe Gibbs at 40 years of age in 1981. He installed an offensive system that helped the Redskins to team records in completions (364) and completion percentage (66.5) in his first season in 2014. Before joining the Redskins, Gruden spent his previous three seasons as offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals. In his tenure in Cincinnati, the Bengals averaged 10 wins a season, making three consecutive playoff appearances and earning an AFC North championship in 2013. Members of the Bengals offense accounted for seven Pro Bowl selections in his three seasons in Cincinnati. Prior to joining the Bengals, Gruden served two years with the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League from 2009-10, serving as the offensive coordinator in 2009, and in 2010, he assumed the roles of head coach and general manager, and led the Tuskers to their second consecutive championship game appearance. Gruden coached for seven seasons (2002-08) with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, earning a Super Bowl championship ring as an offensive assistant in 2002. While coaching in the Arena Football League, Gruden won six combined league championships - four as a quarterback and two as a head coach. Gruden played quarterback (2002-03) and served as head coach (2004-08) of the AFL's Orlando Predators, all while simultaneously working as an offensive assistant with the Buccaneers. In all, Gruden served as head coach of the Predators for nine seasons (1998-2001 and 2004-08), leading the Predators to four championship game appearances and two league titles as a coach. During a two-year hiatus from coaching the Predators in 2002-03, he returned to the playing field as Orlando's quarterback, leading the Predators to playoff appearances in both seasons. In his eight seasons as a player in the AFL, Gruden completed 1,673-of-2,775 passes (60.3 percent) for 21,578 yards with 398 touchdowns and 99 interceptions. In addition to his time with Orlando, he spent six seasons (1991-96) at quarterback for the Tampa Bay Storm, winning four AFL titles and being named MVP of ArenaBowl VII in 1993.

RED KETTLE KICKOFF

For the past 19 years the Jones family has dedicated the Cowboys annual Thanksgiving Day halftime performance as a national showcase to kick off The Salvation Army's iconic Red Kettle Campaign. Since the partnership began in 1997, the annual Red Kettle campaign has raised more than $2 billion, reaching over 500 million people in need. The 2015 Red Kettle Kickoff - which featured the launch of the #RedKettleReason social media campaign - raised $149.6 million alone. Thanksgiving 2016 will be the 20th anniversary of the Cowboys and Salvation Army's Red Kettle Kickoff tradition.

Under the direction of Charlotte Jones Anderson, the Cowboys have produced the annual halftime event and welcomed nationally renowned entertainers from across the musical spectrum. Previous halftime performers include Keith Urban, Daughtry, The Jonas Brothers, Kelly Clarkson, Carrie Underwood, Sheryl Crow, Destiny's Child, Toby Keith, LeAnn Rimes, Creed, Jessica Simpson, Billy Gillman, Clint Black, Randy Travis, Reba McEntire, Enrique Iglesias, Kenny Chesney, Selena Gomez, Pitbull and Luke Bryan.

This week's special performance features Luke Bryan. FOX Sports will broadcast the Kettle Kick Off extravaganza to its national television audience to help draw national attention to the 20,000 red kettles that will appear across the country to encourage the American public to give something extra to those in need while buying holiday gifts for friends and family.

The Cowboys took a chance in 1966 as one of the newer teams in the NFL and volunteered to host a game on Thanksgiving Day. In front of a record crowd of 80,259 at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, the Cowboys defeated the Cleveland Browns 26-14. Since then, the Cowboys have hosted a Thanksgiving Day game every year except for 1975 and 1977 when the NFL allowed the St. Louis Cardinals to host games. In 1978 the game returned to Dallas on an annual basis.

The Cowboys have a 29-18-1 record on Thanksgiving Day, including a six-game win streak from 1980-85. Dallas was defeated by the Carolina Panthers last year, 33-14.

Thursday marks the eighth time the Cowboys and Redskins will face each other on Thanksgiving Day - the most by any opponent against Dallas on Turkey Day.

FIRST TIME...LAST TIME, T-GIVING DAY

The first time Dallas hosted a Thanksgiving Day game was Nov. 24, 1966. Dallas hosted Cleveland at the Cotton Bowl and walked away with a 26-14 win in front of 80,259 fans to improve to 8-2-1.

Dallas' last Thanksgiving Day game came on Nov. 26, 2015 playing host to the Carolina Panthers to mark the first time the two teams have have met on the annual holiday. The Cowboys were downed 33-14 with 90,909 in attendance to fall to 3-8 on the year.

THANKSGIVING DAY TOTALS

Since 1966, the Cowboys have hosted the annual Thanksgiving Day game for 48 of the last 50 years. In 1975 and 1977, the St. Louis Cardinals played host to the game in place of Dallas. In 1978 the game returned to Dallas for good. The Cowboys have posted a 29-18-1 record in the holiday classic and a 30-18 mark the following week. Here are the Cowboys annual Thanksgiving Day results:

THANKSGIVING DAY FACTS

Since 1966, the Dallas Cowboys have been a fixture on Thanksgiving Day, having hosted the annual contest for 48 of the last 50 years. In 1975 and 1977, the St. Louis Cardinals played host to the game in place of Dallas. In 1978 the game returned to Dallas for good. The Cowboys have posted a 29-18-1 record in the holiday classic and a 30-18 mark the following week.

In the 48 Thanksgiving Day games, there has been:

- * A six-game win streak by Dallas (1980-85)
- * A four-game losing streak by Dallas (1986-89)
- * Twenty double-digit wins by Dallas
- * Nine double-digit losses by Dallas
- * Ten games decided by three-or-more touchdowns
- * Seventeen games decided by a touchdown-or-less
- * Nine games decided by three points-or-less
- * A 44-point win by Dallas - Dallas' largest margin of victory
- * A 27-point loss by Dallas - Dallas' largest margin of defeat
- * 1,181 points scored by Dallas, 955 allowed
- * Eight 300-yard passers by Dallas - four by opponents
- * Fifteen 100-yard rushers by the Cowboys - 12 by opponents
- * Twenty 100-yard receivers by Dallas - 16 by opponents
- * 6,187 rushing yards, 10,372 passing and 16,559 total yards for Dallas
- * 5,495 rushing yards, 9,107 passing and 14,602 total yards for opponents
- * A 3-4 record at AT&T Stadium

THANKSGIVING QB COMPARISON

In nine of the last 10 seasons, Tony Romo has been Dallas' starting quarterback on Thanksgiving Day. He led the club to wins in six-of-eight starts. Below is a look at how Cowboys quarterbacks have fared on Thanksgiving Day:

San Francisco ...	521	445	14	.539

* Since 1972, ties have been calculated as half-win and half loss. Prior to 1972 tie games were ignored in calculating a team's winning percentage. Ties since 1972: Dallas (0), Miami (1) Chicago (1), Minnesota (3), Green Bay (7).

A WINNING TREND

The Dallas Cowboys entered the 2016 season as one-of-12 teams in the league with at least 480 regular season wins. At the end of Week 16 in 2014, Dallas became just the 12th team with 475 all-time wins with the win against Indianapolis (12/21/14). Dallas is currently 12th on the NFL's all-time wins list:

Chicago	743	St.L/LA Rams	544
Green Bay	724	Detroit	541
N.Y. Giants	680	Arizona	539
Pittsburgh	595	San Francisco	521

WINNING HEAD COACH

Dallas Cowboys Head Coach Jason Garrett had his best season as a head coach by wrapping up the 2014 regular season with a record of 12-4 - the fifth coach to reach 12 wins-or-better in a season in team history. He also secured his first NFC East Division title as the head coach. Against the N.Y. Giants (10/19/14), Garrett passed former head coaches Bill Parcells and Wade Phillips (both with 34) with his 35th regular season win as the head coach of the Dallas Cowboys to place fourth in team history. He passed Barry Switzer (40) for third with his 41st victory at Washington (12/28/14), then tied Jimmy Johnson (44) for the second-most victories at Miami (11/22/15), and passed Johnson at Washington (12/7/15). Garrett won his 50th regular season game at Green Bay (10/16/16) to become only the second head coach in franchise history to reach 50 wins.

Following a 4-12 record in 2015, and a 9-1 start to 2016, Garrett's current regular season record as the head coach of the Dallas Cowboys stands at 54-44, with the second-most wins all-time in team history:

Most Regular Season Wins by a Cowboys Head Coach

Coach	Years	Won	Loss	Tied	Pct
Tom Landry	1960-88	250	162	6	.605

*Record under Coach Garrett includes games as interim head coach in 2010 (5-3).

DATING GAME

This week's game against the Washington Redskins is being played on Nov. 24 on Thanksgiving Day. In the 56-plus years of Cowboys football, there have been 14 Nov. 24 games - six on Turkey Day, including the very first game in 1966. The Cowboys hold a 10-4 record when playing on Nov. 24. They have faced Cleveland, Chicago, Houston, St. Louis, Philadelphia, Washington, Green Bay, the N.Y. Giants, Jacksonville, Denver and Miami on Nov. 24. Dallas' first-ever Nov. 24 game came in 1963, a 27-17 loss at Cleveland. Its last Nov. 24 game was in 2013, a 24-21 win at the New York Giants:

DALLAS LAST GAME

The Dallas Cowboys defeated the Baltimore Ravens 27-17, earning a franchise-record ninth consecutive win. Baltimore jumped out to a 7-0 lead on a Terrance West 18-yard rush. Dallas bounced back in the second quarter with a Dak Prescott-to-Cole Beasley touchdown connection from three yards out. Justin Tucker and Dan Bailey traded second quarter field goals and both teams entered halftime with the score tied at 10.

The Cowboys scored on all three of their drives in the final two frames to ice the game. Prescott threw back-to-back touchdowns to Dez Bryant (four, 13) in the third and fourth quarters, respectively, to run up a 24-17 advantage. Baltimore would add a Joe Flacco-to-Steve Smith touchdown in the middle of the fourth quarter, but Dallas then drove the ball for 6:26 to ice the game with a Bailey 21-yard field goal, keeping Dallas atop the NFL with a 9-1 record.

WASHINGTON LAST GAME

The Washington Redskins improved to 6-3-1 on the season following a 42-24 home victory over the Green Bay Packers on Sunday Night Football. Washington struck first when Kirk Cousins connected with DeSean Jackson for a 17-yard touchdown in the first quarter. Green Bay answered in the second quarter with 10 straight points behind an Aaron Rodgers-to-Jordy Nelson 13-yard passing touchdown and a 36-yard field goal by Mason Crosby. The Redskins regained a 13-10 lead before halftime on a 10-yard rushing touchdown by Robert Kelley (two point failed).

Washington added to its lead in the third quarter behind a 37-yard field goal by Dustin Hopkins and a Jamison Crowder 44-yard touchdown reception from Cousins (two point failed) to make the score 22-10. The Packers trimmed the lead to 22-17 in the fourth quarter on a 31-yard passing touchdown from Aaron Rodgers-to-James Starks, but the Redskins came right back with a 70-yard strike from Cousins-to-Pierre Garcon to bring the lead back up to 29-17. Green Bay once again cut the lead to 29-24 on a six-yard touchdown pass from Rodgers-to-Jared Cook, but Washington responded with two more rushing touchdowns by Kelley (one, four) to provide the final 42-24 score.

ON THE ROAD TO SUCCESS

Since the AFC/NFC merger in 1970, the Dallas Cowboys boast the most road wins (187) and highest win percentage (.518) in the NFL. Dallas is 5-0 in road games and one of only three teams (New England, Oakland) that remains undefeated on the road in 2016:

Most Road Wins Since 1970

Team	W	L	T	Win%
Dallas.....	187	174	0	.518
Miami.....	182	179	1	.504
San Francisco.....	180	179	1	.501
Pittsburgh.....	179	181	1	.497
New England.....	175	186	0	.485

The Cowboys finished the 2014 regular season with an undefeated 8-0 record on the road - the only squad with a perfect mark away from home in the NFL. The Cowboys eight road wins were the most in team history during the regular season since the NFL began a 16-game schedule. They were the second team in franchise history to win all road games in a season, joining the 1968 team, which won all seven of its road games during a 14-game season. In NFL history, they were the sixth team since the 1970 NFL merger to form a perfect 8-0 record on the road, joining the 2007 New England Patriots, the 2001 St. Louis Rams, the 1984, 1989 and the 1990 San Francisco 49ers.

Dallas continued its road victory streak into 2015, winning the first contest away from home at Philadelphia (9/20) before falling to the Saints at New Orleans (10/4) in overtime, ending the road run. Dating back to the Cowboys final road game of the 2013 season at Washington (12/22), Dallas won 10 consecutive regular season road games to tie a franchise-high with both the 2006-07 and 1968-69 squads for the longest road win streak in team history.

On the league level, the 10-game road streak also tied the seventh-longest streak in NFL history:

WINNING STREAK AT NINE

Following a loss in the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11), the 2016 Dallas Cowboys have accomplished something that no other team in franchise history has done - begin the season 0-1 and go on to win the next nine games. That historic streak is now the longest win streak during a single season in team history following the team's victory against Baltimore (11/20):

ALL-TIME COWBOYS QB WATCH

Tony Romo entered the 2015 season tops in club history with 33,626 passing yards and 242 touchdown passes, and second in attempts (4,255) and completions (2,779). Through his career Romo has steadily climbed the club's all-time quarterback charts, making strides in 2012 by moving into second for completions, then established the club mark in touchdown throws against Philadelphia (12/2/12) to break Aikman's old record of 165. He also moved up the ladder in all-time wins and starts amongst Cowboys quarterbacks, passing Danny White (62) in 2013 to claim the third-most wins as a Dallas quarterback, and passed Roger Staubach (114) for second-most quarterback starts in team history against the N.Y. Giants (10/19/14). He overtook Aikman (32,942) as the club's all-time passing yards leader against Indianapolis (12/21/14). Romo closed out the 2014 regular season with a 100.0 rating in each of his last four games. After posting a 103.3 rating against the N.Y. Giants (9/13/15), Romo extended his streak of consecutive games with a rating of 100.0-or-better to five - the second-longest streak of his career (seven - 2007). He was unable to repeat the performance at Philadelphia (9/20) to end the streak.

WHAT A RATING

In 2011 Tony Romo recorded a passer rating of more than 100.0 nine times to tie the then second-most in a season in club history. Romo closed out 2012 with a 100.0-or-better rating six times and had six again in 2013 before posting 10 in 2014 to tie his 2007 total for the most in team history:

In 2014 he had his first game over 100.0 at St. Louis (9/21) with a 116.8 rating, then had a 137.4 rating the next week against New Orleans (9/28). At Seattle (10/12) Romo finished with a 110.2 rating, then registered his next game against the N.Y. Giants (10/19) with a 135.7 rating. He had his fifth 100.0 rating game of 2014 at Jacksonville (11/9) with a 138.8 rating - the 10th-highest of his career and the 60th of his career. At the N.Y. Giants (11/23) he recorded a then season-high 143.4 rating for the fifth-highest of his career. He posted his seventh game with a 138.0 rating at Chicago (12/4), then racked up a 129.1 rating at Philadelphia (12/14). He posted a career-high rating of 151.7 against Indianapolis (12/21), which also ranked third in team history, for his 64th career 100.0 game. He closed out the regular season with a 100.0 rating at Washington (12/28).

Romo continued his 100.0 rating games with a 103.3 rating in the 2015 season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/13).

His franchise and career-high 113.2 rating in 2014 led the league for the first time of his career, and his career passer rating of 97.1 is third all-time in NFL history:

ROMO'S ROAD

With his 78-49 record as a starter, Tony Romo has had success when playing on the road. Since being named the club's starter leading into the game at Carolina (10/29/06), Romo holds a 40-24 record away from home.

Romo began his career as a starting quarterback on the road at Carolina (10/29/06) and went on to post an 11-2 road record during his first season and a half at the reins of the Cowboys offense. He was 4-1 in his first season in 2006, then followed that up with a 7-1 record in 2007. In 2008 Romo fought through a finger injury and missed two games to finish 3-3 away from home. He finished 2009 with a 5-3 road record, then in 2010, his season ended three road games in where he was 1-2 before he fractured his left clavicle against the N.Y. Giants (10/25). Romo was 3-5 in 2011, then was 4-4 in 2012. In 2013 he was 3-5. Romo finished 2014 with a perfect 8-0 record and continued it into 2015 as he was victorious at Philadelphia (9/20), but suffered a broken clavicle to his left shoulder that forced him to miss the next seven games. He returned at Miami (11/22) and picked up the win:

In 2014 Romo had a streak of four consecutive road games with at least three passing touchdowns and no interceptions - an NFL record - at Jacksonville (11/9), at the N.Y. Giants (11/23), at Chicago (12/4) and at Philadelphia (12/14). The previous record was three games held by Nick Foles in 2013.

CONSECUTIVE TD STREAK ENDS

Tony Romo had a streak of 38 consecutive games with a touchdown pass end against Philadelphia (11/27/14) when he failed to connect on a scoring throw. His 38 games are a club record and the fifth-longest streak in NFL history that began on Oct. 1, 2012 against Chicago. He threw at least one in each of the remaining 12 games of 2012 and in each of the 15 he played in 2013. He continued it through 10 games played in 2014 before it ended:

CALL IT A COMEBACK

Since taking over as the Dallas Cowboys starting quarterback during the 2006 season, Tony Romo has been at the helm of some thrilling wins for the club. Included in his 78 wins as a starter are 24 occasions in which he led the team to a come-from-behind victory in the fourth quarter or overtime during the regular season. Romo's 24 wins are a franchise-best, and in 2012 he had three straight games in which he had a come-from-behind win and followed that up with two in 2013.

Romo had three late comebacks in 2014 highlighted by his performance at St. Louis (9/21) as the team battled back from 21 points down to overcome the most points to win a game in a non-overtime game in franchise history. He wasted no time to earn his first comeback win in the fourth quarter or overtime in 2015, coming back from a 10-point deficit in the season opening game against the N.Y. Giants (9/13)

Below is a look at each of Romo's 24 games in which he battled a deficit to pull out the win and his fourth quarter stats in those games:

DAK TO THE FUTURE

The Dallas Cowboys selected Rayne Dakota "Dak" Prescott in the fourth round of the 2016 NFL Draft (135th overall), allowing the Mississippi State product to become the first quarterback drafted by Dallas since Stephen McGee in 2009, and only the fifth since Jerry Jones bought the team in 1989. Dallas' intention was to groom Prescott for the future and slowly bring him along at the position. However, Prescott's trajectory took a quick turn, beginning in training camp after veteran and intended No. 2 backup quarterback Kellen Moore suffered a season-ending leg injury during the first week of camp on Aug. 2. Prescott then battled first-year player Jameill Showers for the No. 2 role for the right to backup Tony Romo. However, before the decision could be made, Romo went down with a back injury during the third preseason game at Seattle (8/25), forcing Prescott to enter the game with the first unit. With Romo recovering from injury, Prescott assumed the role as the starting quarterback for Dallas.

Prescott dazzled in the preseason, and in three games completed 39-of-50 passes (78.0%) for 454 yards with five touchdowns and no interceptions for a 137.8 quarterback rating to lead all NFL quarterbacks. His five scoring tosses led the NFL, while he finished second with a 78.0 completion percentage, and his 454 passing yards placed him seventh (fourth in the NFC). Prescott also added 53 rushing yards on seven carries with two scores.

Amongst league quarterbacks in 2016, Prescott ranks third in quarterback rating (108.6) and yards-per-attempt (8.35), is sixth in completion percentage (67.7) while completing 214-of-316 passes for 2,640 yards with 17 touchdowns and two interceptions. He leads all NFL rookies in wins (nine), passing yards, completion percentage, passing touchdowns, rating, rushing touchdowns (four) and rushing yards (141).

Prescott has started all 10 games of the 2016 season for Dallas to become the first rookie quarterback in team history to accomplish that feat, while his 9-1 record is the best in franchise history. Prescott is the second rookie quarterback with a nine-game winning streak since the 1970 NFL merger, behind Ben Roethlisberger (13 - Pittsburgh 2004), and he is only the second rookie in NFL history to lead his team to a 9-1 start, joining Johnny Lujack of the 1948 Chicago Bears.

His season-highs of completions (27 - vs. Bal, 11/20), attempts (45 - vs. NYG, 9/11), passing touchdowns (3 - three times, last vs. Baltimore, 11/20), quarterback rating (141.8 - @ Cle, 11/6) and completion percentage (79.1 - vs. Chi, 9/25) are all franchise rookie single-game records. He also has eight games this season with a 100.0 rating, six games with a 70.0 completion percentage and three games with three touchdowns which are all team records by a rookie quarterback. He has also set the NFL record for most pass attempts without an interception (176) to begin a career. He established another NFL record at Cleveland (11/6) with his eighth consecutive game with at least 225-plus passing yards and is currently at 10 games.

This season he has set Cowboys single-season rookie quarterback records for wins (nine), consecutive wins (nine) - also the longest by any Cowboys quarterback - passing yards (2,640), completions (214), completion percentage (67.7), consecutive games with 225-plus passing yards (10), passing touchdowns (17), quarterback rating (108.6), games with a 100.0 rating (eight), consecutive games with a 100.0 rating (five), games with 70.0 percent (six) and rushing touchdowns (four).

DAKOTA THE DUDE

Dakota "Dak" Prescott's rookie season continues to amaze the league as the first-year NFL signal caller is proving that he belongs. Through 11 weeks, he ranks in the top-five amongst league passers as he is third quarterback rating (108.6) and yards-per-attempt (8.35). Among NFL rookies, Prescott is tops in wins (nine), passing yards (2,648), rating, completion percentage and passing touchdowns (17):

DAK ATTACK

Dallas Cowboys fourth round pick Dak Prescott has commenced his assault on the Dallas Cowboys rookie record books. Starting each of the club's first 10 games - the only Dallas rookie quarterback to do so - he has completed 214-of-316 passes (67.7%) for 2,640 yards with 17 touchdowns and two interceptions for a 108.6 rating while boasting an 9-1 record, allowing him to make his mark amongst the top-five performances by a Cowboys rookie quarterback during their first pro season:

THE DAK KNIGHT RISES

Down 23-13 in the fourth quarter against Philadelphia (10/30), Dak Prescott rallied the team to force overtime and threw the game-winning five-yard touchdown pass to Jason Witten to complete the comeback win. By doing so, he became the first Cowboys rookie quarterback to overcome a deficit of at least 10 points in the fourth quarter in franchise history. It also marked his sixth consecutive win - tied for the third-longest streak by a league rookie in the Super Bowl era. Prescott has since extended his win streak to nine following the victory against Baltimore (11/20) to rank second:

COOL HAND DAK

Dak Prescott's accuracy has been on display since taking over the reigns of the Dallas offense, and his 67.7 completion percentage (214-of-316) currently ranks sixth in the NFL. He has already registered six games with a completion percentage of 70 percent-or-better for the most games - and longest consecutive (four) - by a rookie in a season in team history. He had a completion percentage of 73.3 at Washington (9/18) before topping that with a 79.2 mark against Chicago (9/25) to set the highest mark in franchise history. Prescott completed 72.7 percent at San Francisco (10/2/16), then had a 75.0 mark against Cincinnati (10/9). He ended his streak at four games by not completing 70 percent of his passes at Green Bay (10/16). Prescott's mark of 77.8 at Cleveland (11/6) was the second-highest by a Cowboys rookie then had a 75.0% mark against Baltimore (11/20) to tie for the most by an NFL rookie all-time with six games over 70.0%:

TDS AND ROOKIES

At Green Bay (10/16) Dak Prescott tossed a season-high three touchdowns to mark only the third time a rookie threw for three-or-more scores in team history. They also tied for the second-most scores by a Dallas rookie in a single game in franchise history. He matched that mark with three at Cleveland (11/6) to establish a franchise record with the most games with three-plus passing touchdowns by a Cowboys rookie quarterback with two, then added his third game with three-plus scores against Baltimore (11/20) to tie for third-most by an NFL rookie quarterback:

PASS NO PICK NFL RECORD

After 45 attempts against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) and 30 attempts at Washington (9/18), Dak Prescott's combined number of 75 surpassed Warren Moon's (72 - 1984) for the most pass attempts through a player's first two career games without an interception in NFL history. At San Francisco (10/2) he didn't throw a pick on 32 attempts to move up to 131 passes without an interception - tied for second-most by a player to begin his career, most by a rookie and were also the most by a player in his first four career games. He upped his streak against Cincinnati (10/9) to 155 passes - second-most by a quarterback to start his career, and most by a rookie. At Green Bay (10/16), Prescott surpassed Tom Brady (162) with his 163rd passing attempt without an interception to establish an NFL record, but he was picked off in the third quarter to end his streak at 176 pass attempts:

50 YARDS-OR-MORE FOR SCORES

Dak Prescott showcased his ability to air the ball out at Pittsburgh (11/13), as he tossed an 83-yard scoring strike to Ezekiel Elliott for the longest pass by a rookie in team history, then later hit Dez Bryant for a 50-yard touchdown. With both passes traveling 50 yards-or-more, it allowed him to become the first rookie in team history to throw two scores of 50-or-more yards and the first in league history since Teddy Bridgewater (Minnesota) in 2014.

Overall, the 83-yard completion was the longest passing touchdown by a Cowboy since Tony Romo threw an 85-yard touchdown to Bryant against Washington (11/22/12). By making the connection with fellow rookie Elliott, it marked the longest by a rookie quarterback/rookie receiver tandem in team history, and was the longest rookie combo in the NFL since 1986, when Indianapolis Colts quarterback Jack Trudeau threw an 84-yard scoring strike to wide receiver Bill Brooks at San Francisco (10/5/86).

CLIMBING THE TE CHARTS

Since entering the league in 2003, Jason Witten has proven his skills as an offensive weapon. He has provided Dallas with the full package at tight end. In his 14th season, Witten has caught 1,069 passes for 11,735 yards and 62 touchdowns. He is the second all-time leading tight end in career receptions and receiving yards.

To open the 2011 season Witten became the seventh tight end in league history to reach 7,000 receiving yards. His work through the 2011 season allowed him to crack the top-five on the tight end receiving yards list. In 2012 against Tampa Bay (9/23), Witten moved into third all-time. He then crossed the 8,000-yard mark against Chicago (10/1) with his 15th career 100-yard game. He opened the 2013 season by crossing the 9,000-yard threshold.

By mid-November of 2011, Witten passed Ozzie Newsome (662) for third on the all-time receptions list. With four catches at Seattle (9/16) in 2012, he became the third tight end in league history with 700 career catches. His seven catches in the finale at Washington (12/30) made him the third tight end in league history to reach 800 career receptions. In Week 2 of 2013 at Kansas City (9/15) Witten passed Shannon Sharpe (817) for second in catches.

In 2014 he reached 10,000 career receiving yards on a 34-yard catch against Houston (10/5) to become only the third tight end in NFL history to reach that mark. The very next game at Seattle (10/12) he caught his 900th career pass on a three-yard scoring strike from Romo in the second quarter to become the second tight end in league history, the first Dallas Cowboy and the 16th overall player to reach 900. In 2015 he had 27 yards against the N.Y. Giants (10/19) to pass Sharpe (10,060) for the second-most receiving yards by an NFL tight end. Witten surpassed 11,000 career receiving yards against Carolina (11/26) to become only the second tight end in NFL history to do so. He reached 1,000 career receptions at Washington (12/7), becoming the 12th player in NFL history - second tight end - to reach that mark.

TE's TDs

Coming off a 2010 season in which he registered a career-high and club tight end record-tying nine touchdowns, Jason Witten became the seventh Dallas Cowboy with 40 career touchdown catches in 2011. Later that same season, Witten tied Billy Joe DuPree (41) for sixth in club history. He then broke that tie in 2012 with a scoring grab against Chicago (10/1) to give him sole possession of sixth. He reached 48 against Minnesota (11/3/13) to tie Drew Pearson for fifth, then tied Frank Clarke for fourth with two more snags at the N.Y. Giants (11/24/13). Witten tied Tony Hill for third with a score at Chicago (12/9/13) and passed him with one against Green Bay (12/15/13). His 61st served as the game-winner in overtime against Philadelphia (10/30/16) to become the first game winner by a tight end in overtime since Billy Joe DuPree in the franchise's first overtime game against St. Louis (9/28/75):

MORE TE's TDs

In 2013 Jason Witten reached 50 career touchdowns - the ninth tight end in league history to reach that mark - and entered the 2014 season tied with Dave Casper for eighth amongst all league tight ends all-time. At Seattle (10/12/14) he caught a touchdown to give him 53 for his career to break a tie with Casper and tie Dallas Clark (53) for seventh. Against Washington (10/27/14) he broke a tie with Clark with one touchdown and tied Wesley Walls for sixth, then moved past Walls and tied Vernon Davis (55) at Jacksonville (11/9/14). He passed Davis with a score at the N.Y. Giants (11/23/14). He passed Jerry Smith for fifth with his 61st score against Philadelphia (10/30/16), then tied Shannon Sharpe for fourth all-time with his 62nd at Cleveland (11/6/16):

LEADING MAN

Already placing in the top-two in career receptions and receiving yards all-time among league tight ends, Jason Witten is climbing the NFL's all-time receptions and receiving yards charts among all position players. Witten opened 2016 ranked 10th in receptions (1,020) and 32nd in receiving yards (11,215).

In league all-time receiving yards, he climbed up to 30th all-time when he passed Keenan McCardell (11,373) and Rod Smith (11,389) at San Francisco (10/2), then moved past Muhsin Muhammad (11,438) for 29th against Cincinnati (10/9). He passed Calvin Johnson (11,619) for 28th at Cleveland (11/6).

Witten began the 2016 season with nine catches in the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) to surpass Isaac Bruce (1,024) for 10th on the NFL's all-time receptions list. He then passed Andre Johnson (1,062) for ninth all-time:

THAT'S A BUNCH OF WITT

After coming into the league as Dallas' third round draft pick in 2003, Jason Witten has strung together a Hall of Fame career. He has appeared in the most Pro Bowls by a Cowboys tight end (10, seven consecutive - 2004-10 and three consecutive 2012-14), and is tied for the second-most by any Dallas player in team history, is tops on the club's all-time receptions chart and second on the receiving yards chart. In 2012 he took the top spot on the club's receptions chart from Michael Irvin at Atlanta (11/4). Witten took 151 games to reach the top of the team's receptions chart which was faster than Irvin (159). When compared to the two other NFL tight ends with at least 750 catches - Tony Gonzalez and Shannon Sharpe - Witten also reached the mark faster - Gonzalez (163 games), Sharpe (169).

Witten hit 950 career receptions after an eight catch performance against the N.Y. Giants (9/13/15). By reaching that mark in his 192nd career game, he did it faster than Gonzalez (198 games) - the only other tight end to reach 950 career receptions.

He surpassed 1,000 career receptions at Washington (12/7/15) with five catches against the Redskins, reaching that mark in his 203rd game to become the sixth-fastest NFL player to do so, and the fastest tight end.

Witten accounts for 649 catches and 7,287 yards of Tony Romo's 2,826 completions and 34,154 yards. Both numbers are more than any other player that has caught a pass from Romo.

In 2012 Witten caught 13 passes against Chicago (10/1) which was third in his career and tied for third among any Cowboys pass catcher and tied for eighth by an NFL tight end. He then bettered that with a club-record 18-catch game against the N.Y. Giants (10/28). His 18 receptions tied for third in a game in NFL history and were the most by a tight end in league history:

On his third catch against New Orleans (12/23/12), Jason Witten reached 100 receptions for the season for the first time in his career. He was the second player in franchise history to top 100 in a season (Michael Irvin, 111 in 1995) and the third tight end in league history to accomplish the feat. Witten finished with a league tight end record 110 catches:

QUICK WITT-ED

Jason Witten has steadily climbed Dallas' all-time receiving yards charts. In 2008 he became the sixth player in Cowboys history to reach 4,000 career receiving yards. In 2010 Witten became the fifth Cowboy to top 6,000 career yards. He opened 2011 with 110 yards at the N.Y. Jets (9/11) to become the fifth Cowboy to reach 7,000. His 94-yard outing against Detroit (10/2) put him past Bob Hayes (7,295) for fourth all-time in club history. He took third from Drew Pearson with four catches for 24 yards against Philadelphia (12/24). In 2012 Witten topped 8,000 yards with his 112-yard game against Chicago (10/1). Witten opened 2013 with 70 yards against the N.Y. Giants (9/8) to become the second Cowboy and third tight end to reach 9,000 career receiving yards. In 2014 he reached 10,000 career yards after a 59-yard performance against Houston (10/5) to become the third tight end - and second Cowboy - to reach that mark. In 2015 Witten became only the second NFL tight end - and second Cowboy - to reach 11,000 career receiving yards with 36 yards against Carolina (11/26/15):

In 2008 Witten became the fifth pass catcher in team history to top 400 receptions. Four weeks into 2009, he became the fifth to reach 450. He jumped past Tony Hill (fifth) and Emmitt Smith (fourth) also in 2009. He took second from Drew Pearson with 14 catches at the N.Y. Giants (12/6/09) - second in his career. He became the second Cowboy to reach 700 receptions in Week 2 of 2012, and he added seven catches at Atlanta (11/4) to pass Michael Irvin for the top spot on Dallas' all-time receptions chart:

Jason Witten is known to be a reliable source for receptions for a quarterback. For the 12th time - and 12th consecutive season - Witten reached 40 receptions eight games into the 2015 season with six grabs against Philadelphia (11/8/15) to become only the second tight end in NFL history (Gonzalez) to accomplish that feat. Nine games into the 2016 season Witten once again hit the 40-catch mark after six receptions at Pittsburgh (11/13). It marked his 13th consecutive season with 40 catches-or-more to allow him to become the sixth player - second tight end - to reach that milestone:

CATCHES KEEP COMING

Dating back to Nov. 16, 2008, Jason Witten has made at least one catch in 128 consecutive games, most in franchise history. He surpassed Michael Irvin (117) with one catch at Buffalo (12/27/15) for the all-time record. The last game that Witten did not have a catch was at the N.Y. Giants (11/2/08), and since that time, he has posted 670 receptions for 7,166 yards (10.7 avg.) and 39 touchdowns during that span:

On a 34-yard catch in the third quarter against Houston (10/5/14), Jason Witten hit 10,000 career receiving yards. By reaching that milestone, he became the third tight end in NFL history, the 41st overall player in league history and the second Dallas Cowboy (Michael Irvin) to reach that mark. Witten reached the 10,000-yard plateau in his 180th career game to become the second-fastest tight end to get to that point. The very next week at Seattle (10/12), Witten caught two passes to up his career total receptions to 900, becoming only the second tight end in NFL history, first Dallas Cowboy and 16th overall player to do so. He reached that mark in his 181st game, the fastest tight end - and eighth-fastest player overall - in NFL history to reach that mark. Witten also became only the 16th player in NFL history to reach both 900 career receptions and 10,000 career receiving yards:

BY DESIGN

After trading up in the 2010 NFL Draft to select Dez Bryant in the first round with the 24th overall pick, the Dallas Cowboys have seen nothing but production from the wide receiver. Despite his rookie season being cut short due to injury, Bryant was third on the team with 561 yards and six touchdowns and fourth with 45 catches. His reception total was second all-time among club rookies, his touchdowns were third and receiving yards fifth.

He improved upon those numbers in his second season (2011), catching 63 passes for 928 yards and nine touchdowns before topping club receiving charts in 2012 with 1,382 yards (fourth in club history) and 12 touchdowns (tied for fifth) on 92 catches (seventh).

Bryant finished 2013 as the team leader in receptions (93) yards (1,233) and touchdowns (13). He continued in 2014 where he left off, leading the team with 88 receptions for 1,320 yards and a franchise-best 16 touchdowns. He fought through foot and ankle injuries and was limited to nine games in 2015, catching a career-low 31 passes for 401 yards and three touchdowns. In 2016 he third on the team with 28 receptions for 478 and tied for the lead with five touchdowns.

Now in his seventh season, Bryant has totaled 440 receptions for 6,303 yards and 64 touchdowns. His totals all rank amongst the top five spots in club history through a player's first seven seasons:

88, 88, 88

With the selection of Dez Bryant in the first round of the 2010 NFL Draft, the Dallas Cowboys added to their lineage of home-grown talent at wide receiver. Bryant was issued the jersey number 88 to follow in the footsteps of two of the previous 88s in club history - Drew Pearson (1973-83) and Michael Irvin (1988-99).

His progress as a rookie was slowed after landing on IR with an ankle injury suffered at Indianapolis (12/5/10). He returned in 2011 with 63 catches for 928 yards and nine touchdowns. In 2012 Bryant notched his first career 1,000-yard receiving season with a career-best 1,382 yards on 92 catches and 12 touchdowns. In 2013 Bryant led the team in receiving yards (1,233) with his second consecutive 1,000-yard season while also leading with a career-high in catches (93) and a then career-high in touchdowns (13).

Bryant came on strong in 2014, leading the team with 88 receptions for 1,320 yards and a club-record 16 touchdowns.

He looked to return to form in 2015 following a contract extension, but suffered a foot injury against in the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/13) that would linger for the rest of the season, limiting him to nine games. Bryant finished the year with 31 receptions for 401 yards and three touchdowns.

Bryant began the 2016 season with one catch for eight yards in the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11). He increased his production significantly at Washington (9/18) with seven receptions for 102 yards - his 16th career 100-yard game. Bryant caught his 60th career touchdown against Chicago (9/25) as part of a three reception, 40-yard game, then had his best game of the year to date against Philadelphia (10/30) with 113 yards on four receptions and a score while crossing the 6,000-yard threshold. Bryant made six receptions for a team-high 116 yards and a score at Pittsburgh (11/13) for his 18th career 100-yard game.

Bryant is currently third on the team with 478 yards on 28 catches and five touchdowns, tied for the most on the club.

DEZ-STRUCTIVE

Since entering the league as the Dallas Cowboys first round draft choice in 2010, Dez Bryant has continued his rise each season as arguably one of the league's best receivers. He has reached the century mark in 16 career games, and has steadily improved his output in each season of his early pro career.

As a rookie in 2010 he logged his first career 100-yard game with a 104-yard output at the N.Y. Giants (11/14/10). After no 100-yard games in 2011, he returned in 2012 to log a career-best five games including a career-best 224-yard effort against New Orleans (12/23/12). It was the 10th 200-yard game in team history and was the fourth highest number in a game in franchise record books. In 2013 he turned in his first Pro Bowl campaign highlighted by four games with 100 yards, including a season-best 153 yards against Green Bay (12/15/13). He tied his effort in 2014 as he once again recorded four games north of the century mark, with his centerpiece game of 2014 coming across the pond in London, England with a 158-yard effort at Jacksonville (11/9/14) - the second-highest yardage output of his career.

After returning from a foot injury he suffered in Week 1, Bryant notched his lone 100-yard game of the 2015 season with 104 yards against Philadelphia (11/8) on five catches with one touchdown to break a tie with Miles Austin (14) for the sixth-most career 100-yard receiving games in team history.

He added his first 100-yard game of the 2016 season with 102 yards at Washington (9/18), then had his second with 113 yards against Philadelphia (10/30). Bryant's third came at Pittsburgh (11/13) with a 116-yard effort.

To date, Bryant's 18 career 100-yard outings are good for sixth in team history:

A GRAND FOR DEZ

With six catches for 82 yards at Chicago (12/4/14), Dez Bryant topped 1,000 yards on the season for the third time in his career. He accomplished the feat in 2012 with 1,382 yards, and had 1,233 in 2013. Bryant's 1,000-yard season in 2014 marks the 31st in franchise history, and he is the 12th different Cowboy to top 1,000 yards in a season. His mark of 1,320 yards in 2014 tied for seventh in a season in team history:

DEZ FOR 60, 70 & 80

Dez Bryant reached 60 receptions for the 2014 season at the New York Giants (11/23). By getting to that number, it marked the fourth consecutive season that he has reached 60 receptions after posting 63 catches in 2011, 92 in 2012 and 93 in 2013. Overall, Bryant's four seasons with at least 60 receptions ranks third in team history, and his streak of four straight seasons with 60-or-more catches ranks as the third-longest streak in team history:

DEZZLING PERFORMANCES

Dez Bryant finished 2012 with 92 receptions, a career-high 1,382 yards and 12 touchdowns. From Weeks 8-13, he opened the flood gates of production. Over that span, he led the league with six touchdown catches, was third with 475 yards and seventh with 29 catches. He logged three 100-yard games, including back-to-back 145-yarders against Cleveland (11/18) and Washington (11/22).

Bryant tied a club record with a touchdown catch in seven consecutive games. On Thanksgiving Day against Washington, he had two scoring grabs then did the same the next week against Philadelphia (12/2/12), the sixth time in team history - fifth different player - a Dallas Cowboy had back-to-back multi-touchdown games. Bryant repeated the feat in 2013 with another pair in two games - at San Diego (9/29) and against Denver (10/6). He did it again in 2014 with two at Jacksonville (11/9) and two at the N.Y. Giants (11/23) to become the first player in team history to boast three instances of back-to-back multi-touchdown games:

In 2012 Bryant had two scores against New Orleans (12/23). His two touchdown catches came on consecutive drives, both from 58 yards. Bryant became the first league pass catcher with 55-plus yard touchdown grabs on consecutive drives since Buffalo's Lee Evans (at Houston, 11/19/06) did it.

Bryant's two touchdown catches against the Saints was his fourth multi-touchdown game of the season, sixth of his career. Bryant's four in 2012 were a single-season club best, while his six career tied for sixth.

Bryant finished 2013 with three multi-score games. He had two scores at Jacksonville (11/9) for his first multi-touchdown game of 2014 to give him 10 for his career and break a tie with Frank Clarke, Tony Hill and Michael Irvin (all with nine) for sole possession of second in club history.

In 2014 he posted a career-high tying four multi-touchdown games with two at Jacksonville (11/9), two at the N.Y. Giants (11/23), a career-high three at Philadelphia (12/14) and two at Washington (12/28) to give him 13 for his career.

In 2016 Bryant notched his 14th career multi-score against Baltimore (11/20) with two touchdowns against the Ravens:

'X' MARKS THE SPOT

Dez Bryant is tied for first on the team in 2016 with five touchdowns. He caught his first score of the season against Chicago (9/25), then after missing the next three games with a knee injury, returned against Philadelphia (10/30) and caught his second score of the year. Bryant hauled in his third at Pittsburgh (11/13). He had his 14th career multi-touchdown game with two touchdowns against Baltimore (11/20).

In 2014 Bryant found the endzone a franchise-high 16 times to lead the NFL. This is beginning to be a trend for Dallas' top receiver. He finished the 2013 season with 13 scores to tie for third in the league, was third in 2012 with 12 touchdowns, tied for sixth in 2011 with nine and logged six scores in 2010 - third amongst rookies.

Since the 2012 season, Bryant's 49 scores are the most receiving touchdowns in the NFL during that timespan:

DEZ VS. THE AFC

Dez Bryant caught a 10-yard touchdown against the N.Y. Jets (12/19/15) to extend his streak of consecutive touchdowns against AFC opponents to 14 games, but his streak ended at Cleveland (11/6/16) when he was held without a score. The streak was the longest interconference streak in the NFL since the 1970 NFL merger. However, he scored once at Pittsburgh (11/13) and twice against Baltimore (11/20) to give him touchdowns in 18-of-25 total games played against AFC opponents, including two of three played in 2016.

Overall, since entering the league in 2010, Bryant has caught the most touchdowns (23) by an NFC receiver against AFC foes. He also has posted the second-most receptions (143), third-most receiving yards (1,734) and fifth-highest receiving average (13.5) during that timespan in interconference matchups:

TOTALING TEN TDs

Dez Bryant caught a franchise-record 16 touchdowns in 2014. Bryant's 10-touchdown season was the 17th time a Cowboy had 10 scoring catches in a season, and he is the ninth different Cowboy to accomplish the feat. Of the previous 17, he is one-of-four to do it multiple times:

THE REAL DEAL T-WILL

After concluding his third pro season, Terrance Williams has emerged as one of the Cowboys top receiving targets, particularly in catching touchdowns. After posting five scores as a rookie in 2013, he proved as a threat to score again in 2014 by surpassing his rookie total with eight touchdowns in 2014, good for second on the team. His three scores in 2015 tied for second on the squad, and he has one so far in 2016. Together, his 17 career touchdowns are the seventh-most by a Cowboys receiver during his first four pro seasons:

Williams caught five touchdowns as a rookie to tie for fourth in team history by a player in his first pro season. His rookie year was highlighted by a streak of four consecutive games with a touchdown pass to mark the longest streak of his career.

He increased his scoring production in 2014 with eight touchdowns, including a stretch of three straight games with a scoring grab: at St. Louis (9/21/14), against New Orleans (9/28/14) - where he had two touchdowns to tally the first multi-touchdown game of his career - and against Houston (10/5/14) to record the second-longest touchdown streak of his career. He recorded his second career multi-touchdown game with two scoring catches against Indianapolis (12/21/14).

Williams amped it up for the 2014 postseason, scoring three of the team's four receiving touchdowns while finishing second with 130 receiving yards and tied for fourth with four receptions. His three touchdowns tied for the postseason lead amongst all NFL receivers and also tied for the most by a Cowboys receiver in a single postseason in team history:

TERRANCE THE TERRIFIC

Terrance Williams serves as a deep threat option to compliment Dez Bryant. Since entering the league in 2013, Williams led all Cowboys receivers in each of his first three pro seasons in receiving average (from players with at least 15 catches). He has maintained a top average and currently ranks second on the team in 2016 with a 14.3 average. His career average of 16.2 is the seventh-highest in the league from 2013-16 among active receivers with at least 50 catches during that span:

In 2015 Williams posted nine games with an average of 15.0-or-better, and three games with an average of 20.0-or-better. He posted career-highs with eight catches for 173 yards in the season finale against Washington (1/3/16), while his 21.6 average was the third-highest number of his career (with at least three receptions). It was also Williams' second career 100-yard receiving game, and his 173 yards were the most by a Cowboys receiver since Bryant had 224 against New Orleans (12/23/12).

Against Chicago (9/25) Williams caught four passes for 88 yards for a 22.0 average - highest of the 2016 season. He then had a season-high five grabs for 70 yards and a 14.0 average against Cincinnati (10/9). Williams boasted an 18.8 average on four catches for 75 yards at Green Bay (10/16).

COLE WORLD

Cole Beasley has steadily increased his production at the receiver position since entering the league as an undrafted free agent in 2012. Since then, he has become an automatic weapon in the Cowboys passing game, collecting 196 receptions for 2,043 yards and 16 touchdowns in his career.

He finished the 2015 season with a team-best five touchdowns, tied for second with 52 receptions and third with 536 yards - all-career-highs. Included his highlight season was a breakout game against Philadelphia (11/8/15), hauling in nine passes for 112 yards - both career-highs - and a career-high tying two touchdowns. It was his first career 100-yard receiving game, while his two scores marked his second career multi-touchdown game. Beasley also tied his career-best with five first downs, including two on third down, and hauled in a 30-yard pass in the fourth quarter that was the second-longest catch of his career. He matched his career-high in the 2015 season finale against Washington (1/3/16), hauling in two scores - his third career multi-touchdown game - on five receptions for 53 yards.

Beasley continues to be one of Dallas' top options in the passing game in 2016. Through 10 games he leads the team with 53 receptions for 591 yards and is tied for the most with five touchdowns. Beasley also currently leads all Cowboys receivers with 35 first downs to tie for 14th in the NFL, including 16 on third down - tied for second in the NFL - on 19 overall receptions on third down - tied for second in the league.

He collected eight passes for 65 yards - both second on the team - with a team-high and career-high tying five first downs in the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11). Beasley was second on the team in receptions (five), yards (75) and receiving first downs (four) at Washington (9/18). He once again led the team with seven receptions - two on third down - for 73 yards against Chicago (9/25), then posted a team-high 66 yards - including a career-long catch of 47 yards - on three receptions with two first downs and one on third down at San Francisco (10/2). Beasley was second on the team with four catches for 53 yards - including four for first downs with one on third down - and his first touchdown of the season against Cincinnati (10/9). Beasley led the team with six receptions for 58 yards - including four for first downs - and two touchdowns at Green Bay (10/16). His two scores marked his fourth career multi-touchdown game. At Cleveland (11/6) Beasley caught six passes for 56 yards and one touchdown, with four of his catches going for first downs, including three on third down. He contributed five catches for 59 yards with five first downs including two on third down while also hauling in a score. He established a career-high for receiving yards with his yardage performance while also becoming the 30th player in team history to reach 2,000 career receiving yards.

'BEAS' IN THE TRAP

On third down, Cole Beasley has recorded 16 first downs to tie for second in the NFL on 19 receptions - tied for second - for 201 yards (10.6 avg.) through Week 11 in 2016. More specifically, Beasley's receiving output has accounted for 19-of-59 completions (32.0%) and 201-of-738 passing yards for Dallas Cowboys rookie quarterback Dak Prescott, who is sixth in the league with a 104.5 rating on third down.

Over the past two seasons (14 - 2015; 16 -2016), Beasley's 30 first downs on third down are tied for 10th in the NFL.

Overall, Beasley has produced his highest yards-per-catch (11.0) output, tied for his highest amount in touchdowns (seven) second-highest receiving yardage amount (771) and receptions (70) on third down throughout his career.

THE BOOK OF EZEKIEL

For only the second time in franchise history, the Dallas Cowboys used a top-five pick to choose Ezekiel Elliott out of Ohio State with the fourth overall selection in the 2016 NFL Draft. Dallas selected Tony Dorsett with the second pick in the 1977 NFL Draft. The former Buckeye has started since Week 1 as the team's feature runner.

Limited during training camp due to a hamstring injury, Elliott saw action in only one game during the preseason at Seattle (8/25). In one half against the Seahawks first team defense, Elliott rushed seven times for 48 yards (6.9 avg.).

Elliott has come on strong to begin his pro career, as he currently leads the NFL in rushing yards (1,005) and runs of 10-plus-or-more (29), is second in attempts (198), tied for second in rushing touchdowns (nine) and is fourth in rushing average (5.1) - all tops by a rookie rusher:

Through his first season, Elliott has produced five 100-yard rushing games - most by a Cowboys rookie. Against Chicago (9/25) he rushed 30 times for 140 yards. His 140-yard rushing output marked his first career 100-yard game, and he became the 10th rookie running back in team history to reach 100. It was also the 24th time that a Cowboys rusher went over the century mark, and the first time Dallas had a rookie do it since DeMarco Murray had 135 yards against Buffalo (11/13/11). He posted 138 yards on 23 carries with one score at San Francisco (10/2) for his second 100-yard game. Against Cincinnati (10/9) Elliott rushed for 134 yards on 15 carries with two touchdowns, then rushed for a season-high 157 yards - fourth-most by a Cowboys rookie - on 28 carries at Green Bay (10/16), who entered the game with the NFL's No. 1 rushing defense. It was also the fourth game in a row that he rushed for over 100 yards - the first time that a rookie rusher accomplished that feat in team history and tied for for the second-longest streak in team history overall. By compiling 157 yards, it also marked the first time in NFL history that a rookie runner posted four consecutive games with 130-plus yards. Elliott rushed 21 times for 114 yards and two touchdowns at Pittsburgh (11/13) for his fifth career 100-yard game:

ZEKE MAKES THE LEAP

Ezekiel Elliott had a breakout game against Chicago (9/25), establishing a career-high 30 carries for a then career-high 140 yards. His 140 yards were then the eighth-most by a Cowboys rookie runner in team history, then he topped that at Green Bay (10/16) with 157 yards - good for fourth - on 28 rushes:

OFFENSIVE ROOKIE OF THE MONTH

Ezekiel Elliott put up close to historic numbers for the month of October, rushing for 525 yards on 88 carries (6.0 avg.) with three touchdowns. He rushed for 130-plus yards in three straight games in October to improve his streak to four straight 130-yard games - the first rookie in NFL history to accomplish the feat. Elliott's average of 131.2 rushing yards-per-game through the month have him on pace to edge out Eric Dickerson's rookie rushing record (1,808 in 1983). His 525 rushing yards led the league for the month, also making him one of two players to top 500 rushing yards in October. Elliott hauled in 10 passes for 125 yards to give him 650 scrimmage yards (third in the month) while his 162.5 scrimmage yards-per-game also leads the league.

This is only the third time that a Cowboy has won the NFL Rookie of The Month award, as Elliott joins Julius Jones (November 2004) and DeMarco Murray (November 2011).

COMPARING ROOKIE RUSHERS

The Dallas Cowboys selected Ezekiel Elliott with the fourth overall pick of the 2016 NFL Draft to start from day one and have an immediate impact. So far in 2016, the former Ohio State Buckeye has rushed 223 times for a league-leading 1,102 yards (4.9 avg.) and nine touchdowns.

His totals all rank amongst the top-five spots in club history through a player's first 10 games during their first pro season:

1,000 ALREADY

In only his ninth career game, rookie Ezekiel Elliott reached the 1,000-yard rushing yard mark after his 114-yard performance at Pittsburgh (11/13). By doing so, he became the first rusher of the 2016 season to do it, and tied Emmitt Smith's 1995 mark as the second-fastest rushers in team history to get to 1,000:

Fastest to 1,000 Rush Yards, Single Season - Dallas Cowboys

Player	Games	Season
DeMarco Murray	8	2014
Emmitt Smith	9	1995

Elliott also became only the third league rookie to reach 1,000 yards in his first nine career games, joining Eric Dickerson (1,096 - 1983) and Adrian Peterson (1,081 - 2007). He also became just the second rookie in team history to surpass 1,000 yards, joining Tony Dorsett (1977).

ZEKE MONSTER

Ezekiel Elliott has already cracked the top-10 best performances by a Cowboys rookie runner in his first pro season in team history. He surpassed Tony Dorsett (1,007) against Baltimore (11/20) for the most rushing yards by a rookie in franchise history and is currently second in carries (223), and fourth in touchdowns (nine):

Elliott recorded another 'monster' game against Cincinnati (10/9), rushing 15 times for 134 yards and two touchdowns. His two scores marked his first career multi-touchdown game, and he became the 12th Cowboys rookie running back to accomplish that feat - 21st time by a rookie runner - in team history. Part of his performance included a career-long 60-yard rushing touchdown in the third quarter that tied the fifth-longest rush by a Cowboys rookie and the longest since Joseph Randle had a 65-yard run and score at Washington (12/28/14):

ZEKE & DESTROY

Ezekiel Elliott became a one-man wrecking crew at Pittsburgh (11/13), contributing three of the Dallas' four touchdowns in the victory against the Steelers including two rushing scores and his first career receiving score. Elliott helped clinch the win when he scored twice in the final period, as he became the first player to score two go-ahead touchdowns in the final two minutes of the fourth quarter of the same game since Buffalo's Ahmad Rashad in 1974 at Oakland (9/16/74).

His three total scores allowed him to become the seventh Cowboys rookie to have three touchdowns in a game in team history, and the first player to rush for a touchdown (two) and catch a touchdown (one) in a single game since DeMarco Murray at Washington (12/22/13).

Elliott's receiving touchdown came on an 83-yard strike from Dak Prescott in the first quarter to serve as the second-longest scoring catch by a rookie in team history:

Combined with his 60-yard rushing touchdown against Cincinnati (10/9), Elliott became the first rookie running back in the league to boast a 60-plus touchdown run and an 80-plus touchdown catch in a single season since Gale Sayers in 1965.

Elliott also finished second on the team with 95 receiving yards against the Steelers - seventh-highest by a rookie runner in team history. His 209 combined yards (114 rush; 95 rec) allowed him to become the sixth Cowboys rookie to have at least 200 yards in a single game in team history, tied with Julius Jones for the fourth-highest tally and the most total scrimmage yards against the Steelers by a visiting opponent at Heinz Field:

OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Dallas Cowboys rookie running back Ezekiel Elliott was named the NFC's Offensive Player of the Week following Dallas' thrilling come-from-behind win at Pittsburgh (11/13) in Week 10. He rushed for 114 yards and two touchdowns while also catching two passes for 95 yards, including an 83-yard catch-and-run for a touchdown. Both of Elliott's rushing touchdowns came in the final two minutes of the game, making him the first player to score two touchdowns in the final 2:00 of the fourth quarter since Ahmad Rashad in 1974. His 83-yard scoring catch was the second-longest by a rookie in team history, and the longest by a running back since Herschel Walker had an 84-yarder in 1986. On the day, Elliott was responsible for 209 scrimmage yards (114 rush, 95 pass) - tied for fourth in team history among rookies. He is also the seventh Cowboys rookie with three touchdowns in a single game.

Elliott is the first Cowboy to win the honor since Dez Bryant in Week 15 of 2014, and the first running back since Emmitt Smith in Week 8 of 2002.

DALLAS ROOKIE RUNNERS 1ST STARTS

Dallas Cowboys rookie running back Ezekiel Elliott immediately entered the 2016 season as the team's starting running back. With his start against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) he became only the fourth rookie running back in team history to start a season opener, joining Calvin Hill (1969), Ron Springs (1979) and Derrick Lassic (1993) while his totals were the most carries (20) and the third-highest rushing yards (51) by a Cowboys rookie rusher to start a season opener:

RUSHING TO THE TOP

Over the last few seasons, the Dallas Cowboys have established an identity on offense with their rushing attack, finishing each of the previous two seasons (2014-2nd; 2015-9th) in the top-10 in the NFL in rushing. The Cowboys are out to accomplish the same feat in 2016 and are currently second in the league by averaging 156.7 yards-per-game:

RAYNE MAN

Rayne Dakota "Dak" Prescott had one rush for a six-yard touchdown - his first career score (passing or rushing) - in the third quarter at Washington (9/18). It marked only the third time a Dallas quarterback scored a rushing touchdown in a game during his rookie campaign:

Prescott had another rushing touchdown against Chicago (9/25) to mark his second consecutive game with a rushing score - first time in team history that a rookie quarterback accomplished that feat. He added his third rushing score against Cincinnati (10/9) to mark the most by a Cowboys quarterback since Danny White had four in 1983, while also tying the third-highest total by a Cowboys quarterback in a single season. Prescott added his fourth rushing score against Philadelphia (10/30) to tie for the second-most in a single season:

214 + 46 + 25 = RUSHING TDS

The Dallas Cowboys rushing attack has produced 12 touchdowns behind a stable of rushers as Ezekiel Elliott (nine), Alfred Morris (two), Lance Dunbar (one) and quarterback Dak Prescott (four) have all contributed to the running cause. The 16 total rushing touchdowns have already surpassed the eight scores that the 2015 team had all last season.

Along with Elliott and Prescott's rushing scores at Washington (9/18), former Redskin Morris added to the rushing attack with a game-clinching four-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter against his ex-team. Collectively, it marked the first time that the Dallas offense had boasted three different players with at least one rushing touchdown since Miles Austin, Marion Barber III and Tashard Choice each had one against New Orleans (11/25/10). The Cowboys repeated that feat for the second consecutive game against Chicago (9/25), as Morris, Prescott and Dunbar - who scored his first career touchdown - each got into the endzone. It marked the first time that has happened in consecutive weeks in team history since the 1983 season (11/20 against Kansas City and 11/24 against St. Louis). Elliott scored the team's lone rushing touchdown at San Francisco (10/2), before the squad added three more (Elliott - two; Prescott - one) against Cincinnati (10/9). Prescott added his fourth of the season against Philadelphia (10/30) Elliott posted two touchdowns in back-to-back games then at Cleveland (11/6) and at Pittsburgh (11/13).

Through 11 weeks of the NFL season, Dallas is second in the league with 16 rushing touchdowns:

As an unexpected surprise, the 2016 NFL Draft brought two new rookie starters on opening day. Ezekiel Elliott was drafted with the fourth overall pick with the intention of starting from day one, but fourth round selection Dak Prescott worked his way up the ladder following injuries to backup Kellen Moore in training camp and starter Tony Romo during the preseason. With Moore out for the year, and Romo mending a back injury until his return, Prescott will take the helm as the team's starting quarterback.

Due to the circumstances, the combination of number 21 (Elliott) and number 4 (Prescott) - which ironically is the area code for Dallas - allowed the Cowboys to open the season with a rookie quarterback and rookie running back for only the second time in team history when Roger Staubach and Calvin Hill started the 1969 opener. The Cowboys won that game against the St. Louis Cardinals with Staubach passing for 220 yards and a touchdown, while Hill rushed 18 times for 70 yards. Against the N.Y. Giants (9/11/16), Prescott passed for 227 yards on 25-of-45 passes with no touchdowns and no interceptions, while Elliott rushed 20 times for 51 yards and his first career touchdown.

The Cowboys also became the first team to start two rookies in the offensive backfield since the 2012 Washington Redskins rolled out rookies Robert Griffin III and Alfred Morris.

Overall, the Cowboys have featured a rookie QB/RB duo five-times in their history, and suffered their first loss in a game that featured a rookie backfield against the N.Y. Giants (9/11):

*Indicates season opener

Following the fifth game of the season which saw rookie quarterback Dak Prescott pass for 227 yards and rookie running back Ezekiel Elliott rush for 134 yards against Cincinnati (10/9), Prescott had 1,239 passing yards along with 546 rushing yards for Elliott at that point of the season. With those totals, the Cowboys became the first team in NFL history to boast a rookie quarterback with at least 1,000 passing yards and a rookie running back with at least 500 rushing yards in the first five games of a season.

At Cleveland (11/6), Prescott passed for 274 yards to reach 2,020 yards on the season, while Elliott rushed for 92 yards to give him 891 in 2016. Combined, it allowed Dallas to become the first franchise in NFL history to boast a rookie 2,000-yard passer and a rookie with 800+ rushing yards in a team's first eight games. The duo also reached another milestone against the Browns after Prescott tossed three touchdowns and Elliott had two rushing touchdowns to allow Dallas to become the second team in NFL history to have a rookie throw for three touchdowns and a rookie rush for two touchdowns in a single game since November 21, 1948, when New York Giants rookie quarterback Charlie Conerly threw three touchdown passes and rookie running back Ray Coates rushed for two touchdowns in the Giants' 49-3 win at Green Bay:

Rookie QB 3 Pass TDs, Rookie RB 2 Rush TDs - NFL

QB/RB	Date	Pass TDs	Rush TDs
Conerly/Coates.....	11/21/48 @GB	3	2
Prescott/Elliott	11/6/16 @Cle	3	2

Prescott and Elliott once again combined for a dramatic win at Pittsburgh (11/13) for the team's club-tying eighth straight victory. During the waning seconds of the first quarter, Prescott connected with Elliott for an 83-yard touchdown. The pass served as the longest by a rookie quarterback/rookie receiver tandem in team history, and was the longest from a rookie passer to a rookie teammate since the Indianapolis Colts in 1986 when Jack Trudeau connected with Bill Brooks for an 84-yard touchdown at San Francisco (10/5/86). It was longest pass and longest pass for a touchdown by a rookie quarterback in team history, the second-longest reception by a rookie and the longest scoring connection since Dez Bryant caught an 85-yard touchdown from Tony Romo against Washington (11/22/12).

With Elliott surpassing 1,000 yards against the Steelers, combined with Prescott passing for 2,000 yards, the duo became only the second rookie quarterback and rookie running back teammates in NFL history with at least 2,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in a season, joining Robert Griffin III (3,200 passing yards) and Alfred Morris (1,613 rushing yards) who did so with Washington in 2012.

BIG PLAY RUNS

After only three combined runs of 10+ runs in the first two games, the Cowboys ground game has begun to make longer runs throughout the course of a game. Against Chicago (9/25) the offense produced five runs of 10-plus, including one run over 20 yards. They added four more at San Francisco (10/2) including two 20+ runs by Ezekiel Elliott (23, 26). Against Cincinnati (10/9) the offense tacked on five more including a 60-yard romp by Elliott - the longest run from scrimmage by a Cowboy since Joseph Randle had a 65-yard run at Washington (12/28/14). At Green Bay (10/16) the offense tallied six 10-plus runs, including three 20-plus runs. Dallas ripped off a season-high nine runs of 10+ against Philadelphia (10/30), with one for 20-plus. At Cleveland (11/6) the offense ripped off seven runs of 10-plus, then they had two at Pittsburgh (11/13) that both went for scores.

For the 2016 season, Dallas' 45 runs of 10-plus yards rank second in the NFL, led by Elliott's league-high 32:

OFFICIAL TIMEKEEPERS OF THE NFL

Over the last few seasons, the Dallas Cowboys offense has made a focal point in time of possession, controlling the clock for a season average of 32:26 in 2014 - highest in the NFL - and tied for 11th in the league with an average of 30:59 per-game in 2015.

Dallas is continuing its trend in 2016, as the offensive unit currently leads the NFL with a 33:27 mark:

Highest Time of Possession - NFL, 2016

Team	Avg. Poss. Time
Dallas	33:27
Philadelphia	32:29
Oakland	32:07
Arizona	31:59
Carolina	31:25

The unit has posted eight games with at least 30:00 minutes of possession to tie for the most in the NFL in 2016.

Dallas' offense clocked in at 36:43 against the N.Y. Giants (9/11), including a season-high 8:25 on the opening drive. At Washington (9/18) the offense had a 32:51. Against Chicago (9/25) the unit clocked in at 35:19 to mark its third consecutive game to go over 30:00. The unit dialed in at 36:27 at San Francisco (10/2). They grinded out a final tally of 33:57 against Philadelphia (10/30). The offense had a season-high mark of 39:39 at Cleveland (11/6). The offense had its seventh game at Pittsburgh (11/13) with a 30:24 time of possession, and its eighth against Baltimore (11/20) with 35:39.

DRIVE FOR FIVE

While the Dallas Cowboys offense continues to be atop the league in time of possession, the squad also boasts 27 drives of five-or-more minutes with 23 going for scores, both tops in the NFL in 2016. Specifically, the unit also has had 13 drives go five-or-more minutes and result in touchdowns, best in the league:

Team	Off Poss.	5 Min Drives	5 Min Scores	5 Min TDs	5 Min Points
Dallas	100	27	23	13	119
Detroit	96	21	18	10	93
Philadelphia	116	20	17	8	83
Indianapolis	114	18	15	7	73
Three teams		17

Against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) Dallas had four drives of five-or-more minutes, including a season-high 8:25 on the opening drive. They had four more at Washington (9/18), with all four ending with scores (three touchdowns and one field goal). Against Chicago (9/25) the team had three - all touchdowns. The offense had three at Cleveland (11/6) - two for touchdowns. The unit had four against Baltimore (11/20) with three for scores.

TEN PLAYS-OR-MORE

Along with the timing of their drives, the Dallas Cowboys of-fense has also consistently put together drives of 10-or-more plays, as the unit's 27 in 2016 are the most in the NFL:

Team	Off Poss.	10-Play Drives	10-Play Scores	10-Play TDs	10-Play Points
Dallas	100	27	25	13	125
New Orleans	114	24	21	11	107
Detroit	96	22	18	9	89
Indianapolis	114	22	19	9	93

Dallas had four drives of 10+ plays against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) including two drives that each went 15 plays to mark a season-high. They had four again at Washington (9/18), then three against Chicago (9/25), at San Francisco (10/2) and against Philadelphia (10/30). At Cleveland (11/6) the offense added two, then three more at Pittsburgh (11/13) and against Baltimore (11/20).

FINISHING DRIVES WITH SCORES

The Dallas offense has scored on 51-of-100 drives for a 51.0% scoring efficiency rate to lead the league in 2016:

Highest Scoring Efficiency Rate - NFL 2016

Team	Poss.	Scores	Score%
Dallas	100	51	51.0
Atlanta	110	56	50.9
Washington	108	49	45.4
New Orleans	114	50	43.9
San Diego	117	50	42.7

Dallas also owns the highest touchdown efficiency rate in the NFL in 2016, finishing drives with a touchdown 32.0% of the time, and have the fifth-most touchdown drives (32):

Most TD Drives - NFL 2016

Team	Poss.	TD	TD%

New Orleans	114	34	29.8
Tennessee	127	35	27.6

SERVING UP 400-YARD GAMES

The Dallas Cowboys offense established a team record with its fifth consecutive game with 400-plus total net yards with a season-high 460 yards against Philadelphia (10/30). The unit extended its current streak to eight games against Baltimore (11/20) to tie for the longest single-season streak in NFL history:

THIRD-AND-NO PROBLEM

The Dallas Cowboys offense has been able to maintain its drives by establishing an efficient conversion rate on third downs. Through 11 weeks of the 2016 season, Dallas is third in the NFL with a 48.4 third down percentage (60-of-124):

2016 Team Third Down Efficiency Leaders

Team	Conv	Att	Pct
New Orleans	70	139	50.4
New England	65	134	48.5
Dallas	60	124	48.4
Washington	61	129	47.3
Tennessee	69	147	46.9

Dallas' offense is tied for second by recording six games with 50.0 percent-or-better on third downs in 2016.

Dallas produced a 59.0% third down conversion rate in the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11), including a season-best 10 first downs on 17 attempts. They produced their second consecutive game at Washington (9/18) after going six-of-12 (50.0), then were four-of-eight (50.0) against Cincinnati (10/9). At Cleveland (11/6) the unit was successful on a season-high 66.7% (eight-of-12). They added their fifth game with a 53.8% mark (seven-of-13) at Pittsburgh (11/13), and their sixth against Baltimore (11/20) with a 58.3% mark (seven-of-12).

FOLLOW THE LEE-DER

Dallas Cowboys linebacker Sean Lee returned to the field in 2015, this time coming back from a torn ACL he suffered in a spring practice that took away his 2014 season. Before that, Lee had bounced back in 2013 to tally a team-best 123 tackles after landing on Reserve/Injured with a toe injury in 2012.

Having manned the middle linebacker spot since his rookie season, Lee moved to a new position in 2015 with a shift over to the weakside spot to further utilize his speed and playmaking ability in the Cowboys 4-3 defense. Lee led the squad with a career-high 156 tackles along with his first career sacks (2.5), a team and career-high 11 tackles for loss, six pressures, an interception and five pass breakups. He was named to his first Pro Bowl as an injury replacement for Justin Houston (Kansas City).

Known to always be around the ball, Lee has collected 12 interceptions since entering the league as Dallas' 2010 second round draft choice to mark the most on the team and is tied for the most amongst league linebackers in the NFL during that span. His 12 are also fifth among linebackers in team history. Lee has intercepted a career-high four passes twice in season during his career - leading the team in 2013 and tying for the team lead in 2011 - to tie for sixth-most in a single-season in team history:

Lee leads the 2016 team with 103 tackles and seven tackles for loss, while also adding two pass breakups.

In the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11), Lee led the team with 15 tackles. He topped the defense again with 10 stops at Washington (9/18) along with a breakup. Lee made seven tackles and a tackle for loss against Chicago (9/25). He tied for the team lead with 10 stops at San Francisco (10/2) along with a tackle for loss. Lee made a season-high tying 15 tackles against Cincinnati (10/9), then notched 14 stops and a breakup at Green Bay (10/16). Lee had 10 tackles including two for loss against Philadelphia (10/30). He made eight stops and a tackle for loss at Cleveland (11/6), then had nine tackles, including two for loss, at Pittsburgh (11/13). Lee posted five stops against Baltimore (11/20) to give him 103 tackles on the year to mark his third consecutive season - fourth overall - with 100-plus stops:

"CINDERELLA MAN"

Tyrone Crawford, dubbed "Cinderella Man" by Dallas Cowboys Defensive Coordinator Rod Marinelli, leads the team in 2016 with 3.5 sacks and a career-best two fumble recoveries, is second with a career-high tying four tackles for loss and is tied for second with eight pressures and has logged 16 tackles. He spent the previous two seasons (2014-15) playing defensive tackle, including last season where he logged a career-high 5.0 sacks, but has moved back to defensive end in 2016 where he was originally slotted to play as a 2012 draft pick by the Cowboys.

Crawford collected his first sack of the season at Washington (9/18) along with a pressure, then posted two tackles, two tackles for loss, a pressure and recovered his first career fumble against Chicago (9/25). He had his second sack of the season at San Francisco (10/2) along with two quarterback hurries and four stops. Crawford registered his second career multi-sack game with 1.5 takedowns against Philadelphia (10/30) while also collecting his second career fumble.

CHURCH IN SESSION

Barry Church has consistently been one of Dallas' top defensive performers and leaders. He has posted over 100+ tackles in each of the last three seasons (2013-15) - the longest such streak since Bradie James recorded six seasons (2005-10) with 100+ tackles - while finishing as either the leading and second-leading tackler in each of those seasons.

Church made his mark on the Cowboys defense in 2013, turning in a team-leading, and career-best 147 tackles, bouncing back after missing the majority of the 2012 season after suffering a ruptured Achilles tendon three weeks into the season. He posted eight games with 10-or-more tackles in 2013 - most on the defense - including a career-high 17 at New Orleans (11/10/13). Overall, his tackle totals were the third-most by a Cowboys safety, and the 11th-most overall by any Cowboys defender, dating back to 1989:

Most Tackles by a Cowboys Safety - Single Season

Player	Tackles
Brock Marion, 1997	158
Darren Woodson, 1993	155
Barry Church, 2013	147

He finished 2014 atop Dallas' defense with 110 tackles - his second consecutive season with 100+ stops - to become the first player to lead the team in tackles in back-to-back seasons since James' six seasons streak (2005-10). It was also the first time a Dallas defender posted consecutive 100+ tackle seasons since James had six in a row from 2005-10.

In 2015, Church finished second on the team with 136 tackles to mark his third consecutive 100-plus tackle season, the longest streak since James' six (2005-10).

He began 2016 not unlike the past few seasons, amassing 12 stops in the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) - good for second on the squad. Church made six stops, a pass breakup and an interception - fourth of his career - at Washington (9/18). He had 13 tackles and two pass breakups - both season-highs - to lead the team against Chicago (9/25). Church made 10 stops and two tackles for loss at San Francisco (10/2), then had 11 tackles against Cincinnati (10/9). He totaled eight stops, his second interception of the season - tied a career-high - and also had a breakup and a forced fumble. Church made four stops to surpass 500 tackles for his career against Philadelphia (10/30) before leaving the game with an arm injury and missed the games at Cleveland (11/6) and at Pittsburgh (11/13) with a fractured forearm.

Church currently leads the team with two interceptions, is second with 64 tackles, is tied for fourth with four pass breakups, and also has two tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

BYRON THE BREAKUP ARTIST

Byron Jones was a standout defensive player in the Cowboys secondary as a rookie in 2015, finishing the season fifth on the team with 76 tackles, adding two tackles for loss, and first on the defense with 12 passes defended. Jones was the first Cowboys rookie defender to lead the team in pass breakups since Derek Ross (12) in 2002, and is the only rookie defender in Cowboys history to finish the season with 75-plus tackles and lead the team in breakups (Cowboys did not track PBUs before 1984):

Cowboys Rookies to Lead Defense in PBUs - Single Season

Player	PBUs
Derek Ross, 2002	12
Byron Jones, 2015	12

Jones returned to swatting passes to start 2016, breaking up one pass against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) in the season opener along with seven tackles. He had six stops and a breakup at Washington (9/18). Jones made five tackles, a breakup and a forced fumble against Chicago (9/25). He had six stops and a breakup against Cincinnati (10/9), then at Green Bay (10/16) contributed four stops and a breakup. Jones posted nine tackles - good for second on the team - against Philadelphia (10/30). He led the team at Pittsburgh (11/13) with a career-high 12 tackles and tackle for loss.

For the 2016 season, Jones currently is tied for second on the team in pass breakups with five. He also is third on the team with 58 tackles.

UNLEASH MALIEK

Maliek Collins had 2.0 sacks against Cody Kessler at Cleveland (11/6) to mark the first time a rookie defender recorded two-plus sacks in a single game since DeVonte Holloman had 2.0 against Philadelphia (12/29/13). DeMarcus Ware owns the rookie record with 3.0 sacks against Carolina (12/24/05).

On the season, Collins is tied for third with 2.0 sacks and is tied for second with eight quarterback pressures while he also has 16 tackles and a tackle for loss in his first pro season.

NFC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

The Dallas Cowboys added David Irving via the Kansas City Chiefs practice squad last season as a rookie. In 12 games in 2015 he became a rotational player on the defensive line, summing up 14 tackles, a half sack, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and a blocked field goal.

He returned in 2016 to contribute more to the defense and thus far leads the team with a career-high three forced fumbles and is tied for the team lead with eight quarterback pressures, is tied for third with three tackles for loss and has also made four tackles, a sack, two pass breakups and a fumble recovery.

In the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) he posted three tackles and a tackle for loss. Irving led the team with a career-high four pressures against Chicago (9/25). He had his best game to date at Green Bay (10/16), notching a tackle, a sack, a tackle for loss, a breakup, a fumble recovery and three forced fumbles. His three forced fumbles tied for third-most all-time in a single game in NFL history, and he became the second Cowboy to do accomplish that feat, joining DeMarcus Ware (2005).

For his efforts against the Packers, Irving was named the NFC Defensive Player of The Week for Week 6, becoming the first Dallas defender to win the award since Sean Lee did it last season (Week 2 - 2015) and the first defensive lineman since Leon Lett (Week 5 - 1996).

20 POINT LIMIT

Through 10 games played, the Dallas Cowboys defensive unit is allowing only 18.7 points-per-game to tie for fifth in the league. The defense had a streak of not allowing a team to score more than 17 points in four consecutive games (9/25/16-10/30/16) to mark the longest such streak in a single season since the 2009 team had a streak of five games in 2009 (11/1-11/26).

Additionally, Dallas is one of six teams to give up 20-or-more points to opposing team's offenses four times-or-less this season - tied for the second-fewest games in the NFL.

NO HUNDREDS EXCHANGED HERE

Through 10 weeks of the 2016 season the defense of the Dallas Cowboys are the only unit in the National Football League to not allow a 100-yard rusher.

TAKEAWAYS FROM "MIGHTY ORPHANS"

Dallas Cowboys Defensive Coordinator Rod Marinelli has dubbed his defense "The Mighty Orphans" in respect of his group of defenders that are made up of "castaways" in the NFL that are not top draft picks or major free agent signees. Instead, they are a core group of men who will fight on every snap, a mantra that Marinelli distills upon his unit.

The nickname, one that Marinelli gives with respect, is based on the book the "Twelve Mighty Orphans" written by Jim Dent, which tells the story of the Masonic Orphanage in Fort Worth, TX. During the 1930s and '40s, the orphanage, under coach Rusty Russell, played high school football with a limited enrollment of 150 and little to no budget as they went on to tie Corsicana in the 1932 high school state championship game.

With that nickname and mantra, the defense has been opportunistic with 10 takeaways (6 fumble recoveries; 4 INTs) in the team's first eight games to tie for 23rd in the NFL.

The unit had two takeaways (two fumble recoveries) against Chicago (9/25). At Green Bay (10/16) the defense gathered a season-high four takeaways (3 fum; 1 INT) to mark the most in a single game since four at Washington (12/28/14).

SHUTOUTS AND SACKS

The Dallas Cowboys defense turned in its best performance against Cincinnati (10/9). The unit held the Bengals offense scoreless through through the third quarter to mark the first shut-out through three quarters since at Philadelphia (9/20/15). It was also the fifth consecutive game that the Cowboys have held their opponent scoreless during at least one quarter in 2016 to join the 1975 team as the only two times that has happened in franchise history. The defense extended that streak at Green Bay (10/16), holding the Packers offense scoreless in the third quarter to match the 1975 defense as the only two teams to accomplish that feat through the first six games. At Cleveland (11/6), the defense shut out the Browns offense in the second half while also limiting their offense to 33 yards.

The defense also logged four sacks on Cincinnati's Andy Dalton - the most since logging five against New England (10/11/15) - with Terrell McClain leading the way with a career-high 1.5, while Benson Mayowa and Cedric Thornton each had one and Jack Crawford had a half sack. The unit produced three sacks against Philadelphia (10/30) with Tyrone Crawford producing his second career multi-sack game with 1.5 takedowns while Orlando Scan-drick added one and Thornton had a 0.5 sack. The defense tied its season high with four quarterback takedowns at Cleveland (11/6) led by the first two of Maliek Collins' career, while Justin Durant (1.0), Anthony Hitchens (0.5) and Damien Wilson (0.5) also contributed.

On the year, the defensive unit has produced 20.0 sacks with Tyrone Crawford leading the way with 3.5.

LIMITING BIG PLAYS

The defense of Dallas has made it a point of emphasis of limiting opposing team's offenses on big plays. Through 10 weeks of the 2016 NFL season, the Cowboys are tied for the eighth-fewest plays of 10-plus runs allowed (21) and tied for the 13th-fewest plays of 20-plus passes allowed (30):

BAILEY FROM 50

For his career, Dan Bailey is 24-of-32 (75.0) from 50-plus yards, and sits atop the club's charts for 50-yarders in a season (six - 2013) and career, while he also tied a franchise-long 56-yard field goal twice - at Seattle (10/12/14) and against the N.Y. Giants (9/11/16). He also boasts the second-highest percentage of field goals from this range in NFL history with a 75.0 clip.

Bailey has hit two 50+ field goals in a game four times (three times in 2013), including most recently in the 2016 season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11/16), to tie Eddie Murray (at Minnesota, 12/12/93) for the most in a single game.

At Kansas City (9/15/13) Bailey was true on three tries, including a pair from 50-plus yards (51 and a career-long 53). Bailey's two 50-yard field goals marked the second time in team history a kicker hit two 50-plus tries in the same game. The first was Eddie Murray at Minnesota, 12/12/93 (51 and 52 yards). Bailey did it twice more after nailing two 53-yarders at Detroit (10/27) and two 50-yarders against Green Bay (12/15).

In 2014, Bailey finished five-of-seven (71.4) on field goals from 50 yards-or-more during the regular season for the second-most field goals made in a single season in team history.

He was five-of-six from 50 yards in 2015, the second-highest percentage (83.3) in team history in a single season from 50-yards, and tied for the second-most made in a single season.

Bailey opened 2016 with four field goals against the N.Y. Giants (9/11), with two from 50 yards (including a career and franchise-long to tying 56-yarder) to tie for the most 50-yard field goals in a single game in team history. He is three-of-three in 2016 from 50 yards.

GAME-WINNING KICKS

In his rookie season, Dan Bailey was called upon six times to win or tie the game with his foot. Four times he came through for Dallas. Bailey's four game-winning field goals were the most by a Dallas Cowboy in a single season and the most by a rookie in NFL history.

In 2012 Bailey had four opportunities to do the same, and he came through in three games including two in overtime. He added one game-winner in 2013 with a 35-yarder at the N.Y. Giants (11/24).

Bailey was one-of-two during the 2014 season.

His only game-winner of the 2015 season came at Washington (12/7) where he nailed a 54-yarder - tied for the second-longest kick of his career, and the longest game-winner of his career.

In team history, there have now been 39 instances in which a kicker was true on a game-winning field goal with 2:00-or-less left in the fourth quarter or in overtime.

Bailey has rang true with 10 game-winners - and a franchise-best five in overtime - to serve as the most in team history:

BAILEY'S BOOTS

Since joining the Dallas Cowboys as an undrafted free agent in 2011 as the club's kicker, Dan Bailey has recorded 23 games with three-or-more field goals - the most in team history. He also has seven games with four-or-more field goals - tops in team history.

Bailey had five games with three-or-more field goals as a rookie in 2011, including his first game with four-or-more when he struck a career-best six against Washington (9/26/11). He matched that total with five games in 2012, while also adding one game with four field goals at Carolina (10/21/12). For the third consecutive season in 2013 he notched five games with three-or-more field goals, with a season-high five field goals made against Green Bay (12/15/13). In 2014 and 2015 he recorded three each, while he added one four field goal game in 2014 and a career-high two in 2015.

Bailey began 2016 with a bang, connecting on all four field goal attempts against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) to break a tie with Rafael Septien for his 22nd game with three-or-more field goals to establish a team record, while also extending his team record with his seventh career game with four-or-more field goals made: On the season he has recorded four games with three-or-more field goals, and one game with four-plus:

MORE RELIABLE IS BETTER

Dan Bailey came to Dallas in 2011 as a rookie free agent and immediately earned his spot as the club's place kicker, finishing the season 32-of-37 (86.5%) on field goals for the second-best field goal percentage by a rookie in franchise history. His 32 field goals made were also a club rookie record. He had a streak of 26 consecutive made which were the most by a rookie in NFL history.

In his second season he finished with a 93.5 (29-of-31) field goal percentage - second in team history. He went 28-of-30 (93.3) in 2013, hitting 30 consecutive field goals from 2013 into 2014 to establish a team record. Bailey finished 2014 25-of-29 (86.2) with a career-high 56 extra points to tie the third-most in team history. He was 30-of-32 with field goal tries and hit all 25 PATs in 2015, and is 19-of-21 on field goals while connecting on all 30 PATs for 87 points in 2016.

For his career, Bailey has converted 163-of-180 tries (90.6%), and his field goals made are the most in team history. Bailey has also hit all 234 PAT tries - second in franchise history:

MAKING THE POINT

Dan Bailey has been a scoring machine since entering the league in 2011 as the former undrafted free agent has totaled 714 points to rank third in team history:

All-Time Cowboys Points Leaders

1. Emmitt Smith, RB..... 986 (1990-02)
2. Rafael Septien, K..... 874 (1978-86)
3. Dan Bailey, K..... 723 (2011-16)
4. Tony Dorsett, RB..... 516 (1977-87)
5. Bob Hayes, WR..... 456 (1965-74)

In 2014 Bailey passed Michael Irvin (392), Bob Hayes (456) and Tony Dorsett (516) for third on Dallas' all-time points list. He also reached 400 points during the season to become the second kicker (Rafael Septien - 874) in team history - fifth player overall - to do so. At Philadelphia (12/14/14) he reached 500 career points. Bailey in his 62nd game to become the second-fastest kicker in NFL history to hit that mark. He reached 600 points against Carolina (11/26/15). Bailey crossed off 700 points at Cleveland (11/6/16) to become the third Cowboy - second kicker (Septien) - to reach that number.

CAN'T MISS KICKER

The Dallas Cowboys feature one of the league's most dependable kickers, as the former 2011 undrafted free agent has hit true on 150-of-165 field goals for his career. During that time, Dan Bailey has challenged some of the franchise's longest consecutive field goal records, including 26 in a row in his first season to tie the second-longest streak in team history and mark the longest streak of field goals made by a rookie in team and NFL history. He then hit 21 in a row in between his second and third seasons (2012-13) - the third-longest in team history.

However, after that streak was snapped, Bailey quickly embarked on a new field goals streak in 2013 and extended it into the 2014 season. He opened the season with one field goal made against San Francisco (9/7) to extend his streak to 22 straight field goals made and move to the third-longest streak. Bailey then hit all four of his tries at Tennessee (9/14/14) to extend his field goals made to 26 in a row, tying Chris Boniol (1995) and his 2011 total for the second-longest streak in team history. He had two field goals at St. Louis (9/21/14) to reach 28 in a row and pass Boniol's 1995 total of 27 to establish the longest streak of field goals made in team history. He continued that streak up to 30 successful kicks before missing a 53-yarder against Houston (10/5/14).

Bailey had a streak of 21 consecutive field goals made - tied for fifth-longest in team history - that began with three made at Washington (12/28/14) in 2014 and continued with 18 straight in 2015 until he missed his first one at Tampa Bay (11/15) to end the streak:

JONES-ING TO PUNT

Dallas Cowboys punter Chris Jones had a career year in 2015. The fourth-year pro ranked third with a career-high 42.5 net average and was 20th with a 45.2 gross while his 27 punts downed inside opponents' 20-yard line tied for 14th.

In 2016, Jones is 10th with a 46.6 gross average, is 23rd with a 39.3 net average and has 12 punts downed inside the 20-yard line.

He logged a career-best 55.3 gross average along with a season-long punt of 63 yards on four boots at San Francisco (10/2).

For his career, Jones boasts a 45.3 gross average and a net average of 40.3, with 100 punts downed inside the 20-yard line - good for fifth all-time in team history.

2016 DRAFT CLASS

The Dallas Cowboys drafted nine players - five defensive, four offensive - in the 2016 NFL Draft. It was the third consecutive season the team leaned more towards defense, as 17 of the last 26 picks by Dallas in the last three drafts (2014-16) have been on that side of the ball. The new class started off with Dallas' first round choice - running back Ezekiel Elliott - who was selected with the fourth overall pick to mark just the second time in team history that the club has selected a running back with a top-five pick (Tony Dorsett, No. 2 overall - 1977).

Of the nine players chosen by Dallas, eight made the final roster entering Week One while one (Rico Gathers) was signed to the club's practice squad.

Below is a look at each of Dallas' picks in the 2016 Draft:

Round	#	Player	Position	College
