COWBOYS & BROWNS

Series Notables:

- * Cleveland is one of only four teams that hold a series advantage over the Cowboys, (Baltimore, Denver and Oakland).
- * The Browns won 11 of the first 12 meetings (1960-66).
- * This is just the sixth time these teams have played each other since the 1991 season.
- * Four of the last six meetings have been decided by a touchdown-or-less.
- * Dallas has faced only one other AFC team more times than the 30 it has played Cleveland (Pittsburgh, 31).

A Cowboys Win Would:

- * Improve Dallas' record to 7-1 on the 2016 season - the ninth time in franchise history and first since 2007.
- * Give the Cowboys their seventh straight win - the longest winning streak during a single season since winning seven in a row during the 2007 regular season.
- * Mark the first time in franchise history that Dallas has started the season 0-1 and gone on to win the next seven games.
- * Improve the Cowboys 2016 record against the AFC North to 2-0 and extend the current overall win streak against the division to four.
- * Give Dallas its 97th win against the AFC - tops in the NFC.

Round Up

A look at this week's top storylines

DALLAS COWBOYS (6-1) AT CLEVELAND BROWNS (0-8) ● SUNDAY, NOV. 6, 2016 12:00 P.M. CST

Player Spotlight

DAK PRESCOTT

- ★ Prescott is the second rookie QB in NFL History to start a career by winning six of his first seven starts (Johnny Lujack, 1948 Chicago Bears)
- ★ Holds the Cowboys all-time rookie passing record with 1,773 yards and is tied for first with nine touchdown passes (Aikman, 1989)

Overcame a 10-point deficit in the fourth quarter of last week's game against the Eagles, the largest fourth quarter comeback by a Cowboys rookie QB in team history

- ★ Has the most rushing touchdowns among all QBs in 2016 with four

BY THE NUMBERS

23 The Cowboys are one-of-three teams to not allow more than 23 points in a single game this year, joining Denver and Minnesota in their defensive dominance.

24 The Cowboys defense has been erasing big plays from their opponents reppoirtoire in 2016, allowing only 24 plays of 20-plus yards, tied for the fifth-fewest in the league, and have allowed only one big play touchdown, tied for second.

100 After Jordan Howard rushed for 153 yards against Minnesota on Monday night, the Cowboys are now the only team in the league to not allow a 100-yard rusher or 100-yard receiver in 2016.

UPCOMING MILESTONES AND CURRENT NOTES

With the 2016 season underway for the Dallas Cowboys, the following information pertains to the most current notes and page location in the release for the remainder of the information, as well as upcoming milestones:

2016 DALLAS COWBOYS CURRENT TEAM & PLAYER HIGHLIGHTS:

2016 DALLAS COWBOYS UPCOMING MILESTONES - INDIVIDUAL:

Dan Bailey - K

- * Dan Bailey (698) needs two points to become third player in team history - second kicker (Rafael Septien) - to reach 700 career points.
- * Bailey (158) needs five field goals to surpass Septien (162) for the most field goals made in team history.

Cole Beasley - WR

- * Cole Beasley (180) needs three receptions to pass Walt Garrison (182) for 24th and four to pass Lance Rentzel (183) for 23rd on the team's all-time receptions list.

Justin Durant - LB

- * Justin Durant (795) needs five tackles to reach 800 for his career.

Dak Prescott - QB

- * Dak Prescott (144) needs 11 completions to pass Troy Aikman (155 - 1989) for most by a rookie quarterback in team history. With one touchdown, Prescott (9) will pass Troy Aikman (9 - 1989) for first (DAK ATTACK - page 14).
- * With a win, Prescott (6) will increase his streak of consecutive wins as the starting quarterback to seven for the third-longest winning streak by a rookie quarterback during the Super Bowl era (THE DAK KNIGHT RISES - page 14).
- * Prescott (4) needs two rushing touchdowns to surpass Don Meredith (5 - 1966) for for the most rushing scores by a Dallas quarterback in a single season in franchise history (RAYNE MAN - page 25).

Terrance Williams - WR

- * Terrance Williams (2,533) can pass Herschel Walker (2,556) for 19th on the team's all-time receiving yards list with 24 yards.

Jason Witten - TE

- * With a start at Cleveland, Jason Witten will make his 155th consecutive start to break a tie with Lee Roy Jordan (154) for the longest in team history (I AM IRON MAN - page 18).

2016 DALLAS COWBOYS MOST RECENT NOTES VS. PHILADELPHIA (10/30) - TEAM:

- * The win over the Packers gave the Cowboys their sixth straight victory - the longest winning streak during a single season since winning six in a row at the beginning of the 2014 regular season. Dallas improved to 6-1 on the 2016 season - the 11th time in franchise history and first since 2014.
- * It is the third time Dallas has started the season 0-1 and gone onto win the next six games (1982, 2014).
- * Dallas' record improved to 19-9 after the bye week, 8-2 at home, and 5-1 against Philadelphia after the bye.
- * It was the Cowboys third straight win at AT&T Stadium - longest streak since the team won three in a row in 2014 (9/28-10/19).
- * Dallas played in its 38th overtime game in the regular season. With the win, the Cowboys improved to 21-17 all-time in overtime games during the regular season while snapping a three-game losing streak in overtime games. Dallas last won an overtime game against New Orleans (10/5/14).
- * It was also the first non-field goal overtime win since at Kansas City (10/11/09).
- * The victory was the Cowboys second straight win on Sunday Night Football and 29th overall, most all-time.

2016 DALLAS COWBOYS MOST RECENT NOTES VS. PHILADELPHIA (10/30) - INDIVIDUAL:

Dan Bailey - K

- * Dan Bailey made three field goals to extend his franchise-best mark to 24 career games with three-or-more field goals (BAILEY'S BOOTS - page 29).

Dez Bryant - WR

- * Dez Bryant caught four passes for 113 yards - his 17th career 100-yard game - and a touchdown.
- * Bryant (6,088) became the sixth player in team history to reach 6,000 career yards. By doing so in his 88th career game, he became the third-fastest to reach that mark (DEZ 6K - page 21).

Barry Church - S

- * Barry Church reached 500 career tackles.

Tyrone Crawford - DE

- * Tyrone Crawford registered his second career multi-sack game with 1.5 takedowns while also collecting his second career fumble recovery and second of the season ("CINDERELLA MAN - page 27).

Ezekiel Elliott - RB

- * Ezekiel Elliott rushed 22 times for 96 yards and caught four passes for 52 yards.
- * Elliott's 799 rushing yards are the most by a Cowboys rookie rusher during his first seven games, and the second-highest overall by a league rusher through his first seven games in NFL history (COMPARING ROOKIE RUSHERS - page 24).

Chris Jones - P

- * Chris Jones took a fake punt in the third quarter and logged his first career rush for 30 yards and a first down on fourth-and-eight that led to a field goal. It was the third-longest rush by a Cowboys punter in team history and fourth-longest rush by an NFL punter in the last 30 season.

Sean Lee - LB

- * Sean Lee reached 600 career tackles.

Dak Prescott - QB

- * Dak Prescott became the first Cowboys rookie quarterback to start the first seven games of the season, and third rookie quarterback in the NFL drafted in the fourth round-or-later to start the team's first seven games of the season, joining Chris Weinke (Carolina, 2001) and Kyle Orton (Chicago, 2005).
- * With the win, Prescott improved to 6-1, the best to start a career by a Cowboys rookie, and only the second rookie to lead his team to a 6-1 start since Johnny Lujack (1948 Chicago Bears) (DAK TO THE FUTURE - page 14).
- * Prescott completed 19-of-39 passes for 287 yards with two touchdowns and one interception while completing a comeback win. He became the first rookie quarterback in franchise history to overcome a deficit of at least 10 points in the fourth quarter (THE DAK KNIGHT RISES - page 14).
- * His 287 passing yards allowed him to surpass Chad Hutchinson (1,555 - 2002) and Troy Aikman (1,749) for the most passing yards by a Cowboys rookie quarterback during his first pro season, while his two scores allowed him to tie Aikman (9 - 1989) for the most (DAK ATTACK - page 14).

Jason Witten - TE

- * Jason Witten made his 204th career start to pass Ed "Too Tall" Jones (203, 1974-78, 1980-89) for the most games started in franchise history while also recording his 154th consecutive start to tie Lee Roy Jordan (154) for the most in team history (I AM IRON MAN - page 18).
- * Witten caught the game-winning touchdown to break a tie with Jerry Smith (60) for sole possession of fifth on the league's all-time receiving touchdowns list amongst tight ends (TE's TDs - page 16).
- * Witten's game-winner was the first by a Cowboys tight end in overtime since Billy Joe DuPree in the franchise's first over time game against St. Louis (9/28/75) (TE's TDs - page 16).

HEAD COACHES

JASON GARRETT (52-45, 6th Year)

Jason Garrett was named the eighth head coach in Dallas Cowboys history on January 5, 2011. Garrett became the first former Dallas Cowboys player to become the team's head coach. As a backup quarterback during his playing career in Dallas, he started nine-of-23 games played and was a member of teams that won six division titles and three Super Bowl championships. The 2015 season was a challenge as injuries sidelined two of Dallas' top playmakers - Tony Romo and Dez Bryant - for a majority of the season and the club finished with a 4-12 record. Romo (collarbone) started only four games and finished the year on Reserve/Injured and Bryant (foot) was slowed through a majority of his nine starts, also finishing on IR. Garrett saw four different players start at quarterback for the club for only the second time in team history. Veterans Brandon Weeden (three) and Matt Cassel (seven) started the majority of games while Kellen Moore made the first two starts of his career. The running game saw a burst through the second half of the season as Darren McFadden posted his second career 1,000-yard season (1,089) to mark the first time in club history two different running backs each rushed for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons. Despite the struggles, Dallas still sent five players to the Pro Bowl - Tyron Smith (third), Travis Frederick (second), Zack Martin (second), Dan Bailey (first) and Sean Lee (first).

Garrett was elevated to the Cowboys top job after taking over as the team's interim head coach midway through 2010. He guided the club to a 5-3 mark to finish the season after the team started 1-7. He led Dallas to an 8-8 record, narrowly missing the playoffs and an AFC East Division title in each his first three full seasons as head coach (2011-13). With Garrett at the helm of the offense, the unit reached new heights from 2007-13, ranking among the NFL's top-10 in total offense in five of his seven years at the helm: 2013 (10th), 2012 (6th), 2010 (10th), 2009 (2nd) and 2007 (2nd). Inclusively from the start of the 2007 season, the club has averaged 364.9 total yards-per-outing (sixth in the NFL) and 24.3 points-per-game (eighth). Since his arrival in 2007, not only has the team set single-season records in numerous offensive categories, but the club's cumulative numbers for total net yards (52,540), gross passing yards (38,325) and total points (3,498) are among the best totals over a nine-year span in the history of the organization. Under Garrett's tutelage, 13 different offensive players have earned 34 total trips to the Pro Bowl.

HUE JACKSON (8-16, 2nd Year, 0-8 CLE)

Hue Jackson was named the 16th head coach in Cleveland Browns history on January 13, 2016. He brings 29 years of coaching experience, including the last 15 in the NFL. Jackson spent the past four seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals where he helped the team to two division titles and a trip to the postseason all four years. In 2012 he served as secondary/assistant special teams coach before coaching the running backs in 2013. Jackson spent the past two seasons (2014-15) as offensive coordinator as the offense finished third in the AFC in yards-per-play (5.7) and points-per-game (26.2). He was voted by the Professional Football Writers of America (PFWA) as the Co-Assistant Coach of the Year as quarterback Andy Dalton set a career-high and franchise record with a 106.3 rating, which led the AFC and was second in the NFL. After losing Dalton to injury in Week 14, Jackson guided quarterback A.J. McCarron to a 2-1 record in the final three games of the season as the Bengals clinched the AFC North title. Tight end Tyler Eifert experienced a breakout season after hauling in 13 touchdown receptions, the most by a Bengals tight end in franchise history and the most by a Cincinnati player since 2001. Wide receiver A.J. Green added 10 receiving touchdowns on 86 receptions for 1,297 yards. Eifert, Green and left tackle Andrew Whitworth were all selected to the Pro Bowl following their performances. In 2014 Dalton passed for 3,398 yards, Green totaled 1,041 receiving yards, and Jeremy Hill led all NFL rookies with 1,124 rushing yards, the second-most by a Bengals rookie in team history. After spending the 2010 season as the Raiders offensive coordinator, Jackson was promoted to head coach in 2011. Oakland finished the year 8-8 and tied for first in the AFC West but missed the postseason via tiebreaker. The 8-8 mark was the best record by any Raiders team since 2002. The Raiders finished ninth in the NFL in total offense (379.5yards-per-game) and seventh in rushing offense (131.9). Before joining the Raiders, Jackson spent two seasons (2008-09) as quarterbacks coach for Baltimore, helping the Ravens advance to the playoffs both years. He was vital in the development of Joe Flacco, who was named NFL Rookie of the Year in 2008 and became the first rookie quarterback to win two playoff games as the Ravens advanced to the AFC Championship game. From 2004-06, Jackson served as the Bengals wide receivers coach, helping develop one of the best wide receiver tandems in NFL history with Chad Johnson and T.J. Houshmandzadeh. During that span, the two combined to average 173.3 catches, 2,363.3 receiving yards and 15 touchdowns per season.

WINNING HEAD COACH

Dallas Cowboys Head Coach Jason Garrett had his best season as a head coach by wrapping up the 2014 regular season with a record of 12-4 - the fifth coach to reach 12 wins-or-better in a season in team history. He also secured his first NFC East Division title as the head coach. Against the N.Y. Giants (10/19/14), Garrett passed former head coaches Bill Parcells and Wade Phillips (both with 34) with his 35th regular season win as the head coach of the Dallas Cowboys to place fourth in team history. He passed Barry Switzer (40) for third with his 41st victory at Washington (12/28/14), then tied Jimmy Johnson (44) for the second-most victories at Miami (11/22/15), and passed Johnson at Washington (12/7/15). Garrett won his 50th regular season game at Green Bay (10/16/16) to become only the second head coach in franchise history to reach 50 wins.

Following a 4-12 record in 2015, and a 6-1 start to 2016, Garrett's current regular season record as the head coach of the Dallas Cowboys stands at 51-44, with the second-most wins all-time in team history:

Most Regular Season Wins by a Cowboys Head Coach

Coach	Years	Won	Loss	Tied	Pct
Tom Landry	1960-88	250	162	6	.605
Jason Garrett*	2010-16	51	44	0	.537
Jimmy Johnson	1989-93	44	36	0	.550
Barry Switzer	1994-97	40	24	0	.625
Bill Parcells	2003-06	34	30	0	.531
Wade Phillips	2007-10	34	22	0	.607
Chan Gailey	1998-99	18	14	0	.563
Dave Campo	2000-02	15	33	0	.313

A WINNING TREND

The Dallas Cowboys entered the 2016 season as one-of-12 teams in the league with at least 480 regular season wins. At the end of Week 16 in 2014, Dallas became just the 12th team with 475 all-time wins with the win against Indianapolis (12/21/14). Dallas is currently 12th on the NFL's all-time wins list:

Chicago	743	St.L/LA Rams	543
Green Bay	724	Detroit	539
N.Y. Giants	677	Arizona	538
Pittsburgh	594	San Francisco	521
Washington	582	Indianapolis	496
Philadelphia	547	Dallas	486

ALL-TIME WINNING TRADITION

The Dallas Cowboys currently own the league's highest all-time regular season winning percentage by current NFL teams:

Team	W	L	T	Pct.
Dallas	486	365	6	.571
Chicago	743	561	42	.568
Green Bay	724	550	37	.566
Miami	432	339	4	.560
New England	468	382	9	.550
N.Y. Giants	677	570	33	.542
Baltimore	176	150	1	.540
San Francisco	521	442	14	.540

* Since 1972, ties have been calculated as half-win and half loss. Prior to 1972 tie games were ignored in calculating a team's winning percentage. Ties since 1972: Dallas (0), Miami (1) Chicago (1), Minnesota (3), Green Bay (7).

500 WINS

With the win against New Orleans (9/28/14), the Dallas Cowboys earned their 500th team win (including postseason), becoming the 11th team in NFL history to reach that mark. They did it in 880 games, the second-fastest team to reach that total:

DATING GAME

This week's game at the Cleveland Browns is being played on Nov. 6. In the 56-plus years of Cowboys football, there have been seven Nov. 6 games. The Cowboys hold a 4-3 record when playing on Nov. 6. They have faced the L.A. Rams, Philadelphia, N.Y. Giants and Seattle on Nov. 6. Dallas' first-ever Nov. 6 game came in 1960, a 38-13 loss against the L.A. Rams. Its last Nov. 6 game was in 2011, a 23-13 home victory over Seattle:

FIRST TIME...LAST TIME

The first time these two clubs met, the Dallas Cowboys were entering their fourth week of existence. After losing their first three games by an average of seven points, the Cowboys suffered their largest margin of defeat in their inaugural season, falling to Cleveland at home 48-7 on Oct. 16, 1960 in front of 28,500 fans.

The last time these two teams met, Dallas hosted Cleveland on Nov. 18, 2012 and edged out the Browns with a 23-20 overtime victory - the first overtime matchup of the series - with 81,963 in attendance.

INSIDE THE SERIES HISTORY

The rivalry between the Dallas Cowboys and the Cleveland Browns has been around since the Cowboys entrance in the league in 1960. The two teams were in the same conference from 1961-1969. In all, the club's have faced each other 30 times, including three postseason contests.

In the 30 games of the series there have been:

- * Three season-opening games - all in Cleveland and all Dallas wins
- * Three NFL Championship Games (1967 - win by Dallas and 1968 and 1969 - both Cleveland wins).
- * 611 points scored by Dallas, 668 allowed.
- * A seven-game Cleveland win streak from 1963-66.
- * A four-game Dallas win streak from 1966-68.
- * A 4-10 record for Dallas when playing in Cleveland.
- * 19 games decided by double digits.
- * Nine games decided by 21-or-more points.
- * Nine games decided by a touchdown-or-less.
- * A 41-point loss by Dallas, tying the second-largest margin of defeat in club history.
- * A 38-point win by Dallas in the 1967 NFL Championship Game, tying the largest margin of victory in Dallas postseason history.

DALLAS LAST GAME

The Dallas Cowboys played an overtime game with the Philadelphia Eagles for the second straight season, winning 29-23 and earning their sixth straight victory on the season. Dak Prescott became only the second rookie quarterback in NFL history to win six of his first seven starts at the position, completing 19-of-39 passes for 287 yards with two touchdowns and another rushing score for Dallas. Ezekiel Elliott was again a workhorse, totaling 96 rushing yards on 22 carries and added four catches for 54 yards while Dez Bryant returned from injury to catch four passes for 113 yards and the game-tying touchdown in the fourth quarter. For only the second time in seven games this season, Dallas failed to put up points on the opening possession, and the Eagles got on the board first with a Caleb Sturgis field goal. Dallas reeled off the next 10 points on Prescott's rush and a Dan Bailey field goal, but Philadelphia tied the score on a touchdown rush of its own and added a field goal before halftime to take the lead into the break.

That pendulum swing remained firmly on the Eagles when, on their second possession of the third quarter, they found the end zone again. This time it was Carson Wentz throwing to wide receiver Jordan Matthews from five yards out to up the Philly advantage to 20-10. The Cowboys seemingly found their spark on fourth-and-8 on their own 27-yard line and punter Chris Jones took off around the left end for a big 30-yard gain. It was a gutsy call deep in their own zone that led to a Bailey field goal. After another Bailey boot, the Cowboys got the ball with 3:11 in the fourth and marched 90 yards in 11 plays and tied the game on Prescott's 22-yard fade to Bryant in the end zone. After winning the coin flip in overtime, Dallas started at its 25-yard line and proceeded to go the distance in 12 plays, the biggest a fourth-and-1 call to go for it at the Philadelphia 28. The final heroics came when Prescott evaded pressure in the pocket, rolled out to his left and found a wide open Jason Witten in the end zone for the game-winning score.

CLEVELAND LAST GAME

The Cleveland Browns fell to 0-8 on the season after a 31-28 loss at home to the New York Jets. Cleveland opened the game in the first quarter with a 10-0 lead following a five-yard touchdown pass from Josh McCown-to-Andrew Hawkins and a 41-yard field goal by Cody Parkey. New York answered in the second quarter behind a 35-yard touchdown run by Bilal Powell that cut the lead to 10-7, but the Browns struck back with 10 more points via an Isaiah Crowell one-yard scoring run and a 27-yard field goal by Parkey to give them a 20-7 advantage at halftime.

The Jets took the lead in the third quarter after two touchdowns - a Ryan Fitzpatrick 24-yard passing touchdown to Quincy Enunwa and a four-yard rushing touchdown by Matt Forte - to make the score 21-20 in their favor. New York increased its lead to 31-20 in the fourth quarter after a Forte two-yard rushing score and a 24-yard field goal by Nick Folk. The Browns trimmed the lead to 31-28 with 0:12 seconds remaining in regulation on a one-yard passing touchdown from McCown-to-Hawkins and a successful two point conversion (McCown-Terelle Pryor Sr. pass), but failed to recover an onside kick, and the Jets held on for the win.

ON THE ROAD TO SUCCESS

Since the AFC/NFC merger in 1970, the Dallas Cowboys boast the most road wins (185) and highest win percentage (.515) in the NFL. Dallas is 3-0 in road games in 2016:

Most Road Wins Since 1970

Team	W	L	T	Win%
Dallas .....	185	174	0	.515

Miami.....	180	179	1	.501
Pittsburgh.....	178	180	1	.497
New England.....	174	186	0	.483

The Cowboys finished the 2014 regular season with an undefeated 8-0 record on the road - the only squad with a perfect mark away from home in the NFL. The Cowboys eight road wins were the most in team history during the regular season since the NFL began a 16-game schedule. They were the second team in franchise history to win all road games in a season, joining the 1968 team, which won all seven of its road games during a 14-game season. In NFL history, they were the sixth team since the 1970 NFL merger to form a perfect 8-0 record on the road, joining the 2007 New England Patriots, the 2001 St. Louis Rams, the 1984, 1989 and the 1990 San Francisco 49ers.

Dallas continued its road victory streak into 2015, winning the first contest away from home at Philadelphia (9/20) before falling to the Saints at New Orleans (10/4) in overtime, ending the road run. Dating back to the Cowboys final road game of the 2013 season at Washington (12/22), Dallas won 10 consecutive regular season road games to tie a franchise-high with both the 2006-07 and 1968-69 squads for the longest road win streak in team history.

On the league level, the 10-game road streak also tied the seventh-longest streak in NFL history:

SOLD OUT STADIUMS

The Cowboys have played in front of sold out stadiums in 429 of their last 431 games (including playoffs) and in 231 consecutive games. They played in front of sold out crowds in 153 consecutive games at Texas Stadium (including playoffs) - dating back to Dec. 16, 1990 against Phoenix, their last home non-sellout. Dallas opened what is now named AT&T Stadium with the largest crowd to witness a regular season NFL game with 105,121 tickets distributed and have 62 straight sellouts (including playoffs). The Cowboys have sold out each of their last 214 home games.

On the road, Dallas has played in front of sold out crowds in 115 straight games (including playoffs), dating back to its last road non-sellout - at Arizona (10/20/02).

AT&T STADIUM RECORD WHEN...

The Dallas Cowboys are currently in their eighth season in what is now AT&T Stadium in 2016, owning a 30-30 regular season record at home. The Cowboys finished their seventh season in their home building with a 1-7 record in 2015, and are 3-1 at home in 2016.

Dallas' first game at the venue was on Sept. 20, 2009 - a 31-33 loss to the N.Y. Giants. The club's first win came a week later with a 21-7 decision over Carolina. Overall, Dallas owns a 32-30 record - 2-0 postseason - in AT&T Stadium. Below is a breakdown of the club's record on their home turf:

ALL-TIME COWBOYS QB WATCH

Tony Romo entered the 2015 season tops in club history with 33,626 passing yards and 242 touchdown passes, and second in attempts (4,255) and completions (2,779). Through his career Romo has steadily climbed the club's all-time quarterback charts, making strides in 2012 by moving into second for completions, then established the club mark in touchdown throws against Philadelphia (12/2/12) to break Aikman's old record of 165. He also moved up the ladder in all-time wins and starts amongst Cowboys quarterbacks, passing Danny White (62) in 2013 to claim the third-most wins as a Dallas quarterback, and passed Roger Staubach (114) for second-most quarterback starts in team history against the N.Y. Giants (10/19/14). He overtook Aikman (32,942) as the club's all-time passing yards leader against Indianapolis (12/21/14). ## NO PLACE LIKE HOME

In 2012 Tony Romo hit 92 home touchdowns to surpass Danny White (91) for the most in team history. By season's end, he added nine more to total 101. Romo tossed 16 scores at home in 2013 - including a club-record tying five against Denver (10/6) - to give him 117 at the conclusion of the season. In 2014 Romo had one passing touchdown in the season home opener against San Francisco (9/7), three against New Orleans (9/28), two against Houston (10/5), three against the N.Y. Giants (10/19), one against Washington (10/27) and four against Indianapolis (12/21).

He began 2015 with three scores at home against the N.Y. Giants (9/13) to up his career franchise-best total to 134 at home:

HOME SWEET HOME

In 2015, Tony Romo opened the seventh season at what is now AT&T Stadium against the N.Y. Giants (9/13), marking his 42nd game in the stadium since it opened in 2009. With Romo as the starting quarterback, Dallas holds a 25-18 record at its home venue. Romo's personal stats at the stadium are quite impressive. For his career, Romo has completed 992-of-1,493 passes for 11,787 yards, with 83 touchdowns and 46 interceptions. Below is a year-by-year look at Romo's work at AT&T Stadium:

ROMO'S ROAD

With his 78-49 record as a starter, Tony Romo has had success when playing on the road. Since being named the club's starter leading into the game at Carolina (10/29/06), Romo holds a 40-24 record away from home.

Romo began his career as a starting quarterback on the road at Carolina (10/29/06) and went on to post an 11-2 road record during his first season and a half at the reins of the Cowboys offense. He was 4-1 in his first season in 2006, then followed that up with a 7-1 record in 2007. In 2008 Romo fought through a finger injury and missed two games to finish 3-3 away from home. He finished 2009 with a 5-3 road record, then in 2010, his season ended three road games in where he was 1-2 before he fractured his left clavicle against the N.Y. Giants (10/25). Romo was 3-5 in 2011, then was 4-4 in 2012. In 2013 he was 3-5. Romo finished 2014 with a perfect 8-0 record and continued it into 2015 as he was victorious at Philadelphia (9/20), but suffered a broken clavicle to his left shoulder that forced him to miss the next seven games. He returned at Miami (11/22) and picked up the win:

In 2014 Romo had a streak of four consecutive road games with at least three passing touchdowns and no interceptions - an NFL record - at Jacksonville (11/9), at the N.Y. Giants (11/23), at Chicago (12/4) and at Philadelphia (12/14). The previous record was three games held by Nick Foles in 2013.

CONSECUTIVE TD STREAK ENDS

Tony Romo had a streak of 38 consecutive games with a touchdown pass end against Philadelphia (11/27/14) when he failed to connect on a scoring throw. His 38 games are a club record and the fifth-longest streak in NFL history that began on Oct. 1, 2012 against Chicago. He threw at least one in each of the remaining 12 games of 2012 and in each of the 15 he played in 2013. He continued it through 10 games played in 2014 before it ended:

CALL IT A COMEBACK

Since taking over as the Dallas Cowboys starting quarterback during the 2006 season, Tony Romo has been at the helm of some thrilling wins for the club. Included in his 78 wins as a starter are 24 occasions in which he led the team to a come-from-behind victory in the fourth quarter or overtime during the regular season. Romo's 24 wins are a franchise-best, and in 2012 he had three straight games in which he had a come-from-behind win and followed that up with two in 2013.

Romo had three late comebacks in 2014 highlighted by his performance at St. Louis (9/21) as the team battled back from 21 points down to overcome the most points to win a game in a non-overtime game in franchise history. He wasted no time to earn his first comeback win in the fourth quarter or overtime in 2015, coming back from a 10-point deficit in the season opening game against the N.Y. Giants (9/13)

Below is a look at each of Romo's 24 games in which he battled a deficit to pull out the win and his fourth quarter stats in those games:

DAK TO THE FUTURE

The Dallas Cowboys selected Rayne Dakota "Dak" Prescott in the fourth round of the 2016 NFL Draft (135th overall), allowing the Mississippi State product to become the first quarterback drafted by Dallas since Stephen McGee in 2009, and only the fifth since Jerry Jones bought the team in 1989. Dallas' intention was to groom Prescott for the future and slowly bring him along at the position. However, Prescott's trajectory took a quick turn, beginning in training camp after veteran and intended No. 2 backup quarterback Kellen Moore suffered a season-ending leg injury during the first week of camp on Aug. 2. Prescott then battled first-year player Jameill Showers for the No. 2 role for the right to backup Tony Romo. However, before the decision could be made, Romo went down with a back injury during the third preseason game at Seattle (8/25), forcing Prescott to enter the game with the first unit. With Romo recovering from injury, Prescott has assumed the role as the starting quarterback for Dallas in the meanwhile.

Prescott dazzled in the preseason, and in three games completed 39-of-50 passes (78.0%) for 454 yards with five touchdowns and no interceptions for a 137.8 quarterback rating to lead all NFL quarterbacks. His five scoring tosses led the NFL, while he finished second with a 78.0 completion percentage, and his 454 passing yards placed him seventh (fourth in the NFC). Prescott also added 53 yards on seven carries on the ground with two scores.

Prescott made his NFL debut against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) and became only the fourth rookie to start a season opener at quarterback in franchise history - first since Quincy Carter in 2001 - and the 11th overall Cowboys rookie quarterback to start a game at any point during the season. He completed 25-of-45 passes for 227 yards with no touchdowns and no interceptions. His yards, completions and attempts were the most by a Cowboys rookie quarterback on opening day and the most overall by a Dallas signal caller making his first career start during the season as a rookie. He completed 22-of-30 passes (73.3%) for 292 yards at Washington (9/18). Prescott became the first Cowboys rookie quarterback to win a game since Drew Henson against Chicago (11/25/04). He earned his second win of the season against Chicago (9/25/16) to become the first backup quarterback to win making a start at AT&T Stadium since Jon Kitna against Washington (12/19/10), completing 19-of-24 passes for 248 yards with his first career passing touchdown (17-yard strike to Dez Bryant) for a 123.6 rating. Prescott's rating and 79.2 completion percentage were both the highest by a Cowboys rookie quarterback in a single game in team history. He also added a one-yard rushing touchdown to mark his second rushing score of the season - most by a rookie quarterback in franchise history. At San Francisco (10/2) he completed 24-of-33 passes for 252 yards with two touchdowns for a 114.7 rating. Against Cincinnati (10/9) he made his fifth start of the season - the first Dallas rookie quarterback to start the first five games to begin a season and third rookie quarterback drafted in the fourth round-or-later in NFL history - and completed 18-of-24 passes (75.0%) for 227 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions for a 117.9 rating. He surpassed Carter for the most victories by a Cowboys rookie quarterback. His 117.9 rating marked his fourth consecutive game with a 100.0 rating - longest streak and most games in franchise history by a rookie quarterback. By completing 75.0 percent of his passes, it marked the fourth consecutive game he completed 70.0 percent-or-better of his passes for the longest streak by a Cowboys rookie quarterback and tied Romo for the longest streak by a quarterback in team history. Prescott totaled 247 yards on 18-of-27 passes (66.7%) with a season-high three touchdowns and one interception for a 117.4 rating at Green Bay (10/16). With the win, Dallas is the first team since the 1970 merger to win five-or-more out of their first six games with a rookie starting quarterback. He surpassed Tom Brady (162) with his 163rd passing attempt without an interception to establish an NFL record, but was picked off in the third quarter to end his streak at 176 pass attempts to begin a career without an interception. He extended his streak of consecutive games with a 100.0 rating-or-better to five, tied with Ben Roethlisberger (2004) and Robert Griffin III (2012) for the longest streak by a rookie quarterback in NFL history. Prescott's yardage pushed him past Walsh (1,371 - 1989) for third-most by a rookie in a single season, while his first career game with three-or-more scores - tied for second-highest by a rookie in team history - allowed him to pass Walsh (5 - 1989) and Carter (5 - 2001) and tie Chad Hutchinson (7 - 2002) for second. His completions allowed him to pass Walsh (110 - 1989) for third. Prescott passed for 287 yards on 19-of-39 passes with two touchdowns and one interception against Philadelphia (10/30). With the win he improved to 6-1 and became only the second rookie in NFL history to lead his team to a 6-1 start, joining Johnny Lujack of the 1948 Chicago Bears. His yardage total allowed him to pass Chad Hutchinson (1,555 - 2002) and Aikman (1,749 - 1989) for the most passing yards by a rookie in team history. His touchdowns gave him nine on the season to tie Aikman (9 - 1989) for the most by a rookie in team history. Prescott also added a rushing score to give him four on the season to tie for the second-most by a Cowboys quarterback in a single season in team history.

For the season, Prescott ranks fifth in the NFL in yards-per-attempt (8.0) and sixth in quarterback rating (99.6) while completing 144-of-221 passes (65.2%) for 1,773 yards with nine touchdowns and two interceptions.

DAKOTA THE DUDE

Dakota "Dak" Prescott's rookie season continues to amaze the league as the first-year NFL signal caller is proving that he belongs. Through eight weeks, he ranks in the top-10 amongst league passers as he is fifth in yards-per-attempt (8.0) and sixth in quarterback rating (99.6). Among NFL rookies, Prescott is tops in passing yards (1,773) and rating (99.6) and is tied for first in passing touchdowns (nine):

THE DAK KNIGHT RISES

Dak Prescott labored through his most challenging game during the 2016 season against Philadelphia (10/30). Down 23-13 in the fourth quarter, Prescott rallied the team to force overtime and threw the game-winning five-yard touchdown pass to Jason Witten in extra time to complete the comeback win. By doing so, he became the first Cowboys rookie quarterback to overcome a deficit of at least 10 points in the fourth quarter in franchise history. Clint Longley previously held the record by overcoming a six-point deficit against Washington (11/28/74). Prescott's victory was the sixth of his young career, most by a Cowboys rookie signal caller, and was his sixth in a row to tie the fourth-longest streak by a league rookie in the Super Bowl era:

COOL HAND DAK

Dak Prescott's accuracy has been on display since taking over the reigns of the Dallas offense, and his 65.2 completion percentage (144-of-221) currently ranks 15th in the NFL. He has already registered four games with a completion percentage of 70 percent-or-better for the most games - and longest consecutive - by a rookie in a season in team history. He had a completion percentage of 73.3 on 22-of-30 passes at Washington (9/18), the then second-highest, before topping that by going 19-of-24 on his passes for a 79.2 mark against Chicago (9/25) to set the highest mark in franchise history. Prescott completed 72.7 percent of his passes (24-of-33) at San Francisco (10/2/16), then had a 75.0 mark (18-of-24) against Cincinnati (10/9). He ended his streak at four games by not completing 70 percent of his passes at Green Bay (10/16):

PRESCOTT RATINGS AT 100.0

Through seven games, Dak Prescott has already registered five games with a quarterback rating of 100.0-or-better - most by a rookie quarterback in team history - and has set five of the top-10 single-game quarterback rating marks by a Dallas Cowboys rookie. Prescott registered a 103.7 quarterback rating in his second career game at Washington (9/18). He topped that with a 123.6 rating against Chicago (9/25) - highest in franchise history. Prescott became the seventh player in team history to record three consecutive games with a 100.0 quarterback rating - first rookie - after registering a 114.7 mark at San Francisco (10/2). He added to his streak with his fourth consecutive game with a 100.0 rating - longest streak and most games in franchise history by a rookie quarterback and tied for the third-longest streak by a Cowboys quarterback overall - with a 117.9 rating against Cincinnati (10/9). Prescott had a 117.4 rating at Green Bay (10/16) to mark his fifth straight game with at least a 100.0 rating to tie the second-longest streak in team history, but failed to record a 100.0 rating against Philadelphia (10/30) to end his streak at five games:

PASS NO PICK NFL RECORD

In his first two pro games, rookie Dak Prescott attempted an NFL-record 75 passes with no interceptions. After his 45 attempts against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) and 30 attempts at Washington (9/18), Prescott's combined number of 75 surpassed Warren Moon's (72 - 1984) for the most pass attempts through a player's first two career games without an interception in NFL history. Prescott extended his streak through his third career game with 24 attempts without an interception against Chicago (9/25), upping his total to 99 - good for fourth all-time through a player's first three games. At San Francisco (10/2) he didn't throw a pick on 32 attempts to move up to 131 passes without an interception - tied for the second-most by a player to begin his career and most by a rookie. Prescott's 131 pass attempts are also the most by a player who did not throw an interception in his first four career games. The streak continued against Cincinnati (10/9), upping his streak to 155 passes without an interception - the second-most by a quarterback to start his career, and most by a rookie. At Green Bay (10/16), Prescott surpassed Tom Brady (162) with his 163rd passing attempt without an interception to establish an NFL record. However, he was picked off in the third quarter to end his streak at 176 pass attempts to begin a career without a pick:

TDS AND ROOKIES

Through his first seven career games, Dak Prescott has thrown nine touchdowns to tie for the most by a Cowboys rookie in team history. At Green Bay (10/16) he tossed a season-high three for his first career game with three-or-more scores, while it marked only the third time in team history a rookie quarterback threw three scores in a game. Prescott's three passing touchdowns also tied for the second-most by a Dallas rookie in a single game in franchise history:

CLIMBING THE TE CHARTS

Since entering the league in 2003, Jason Witten has proven his skills as an offensive weapon. He has provided Dallas with the full package at tight end. In his 14th season, Witten has caught 1,050 passes for 11,505 yards and 61 touchdowns. He is the second all-time leading tight end in career receptions and receiving yards.

To open the 2011 season Witten became the seventh tight end in league history to reach 7,000 receiving yards. His work through the 2011 season allowed him to crack the top-five on the tight end receiving yards list. In 2012 against Tampa Bay (9/23), Witten moved into third all-time. He then crossed the 8,000-yard mark against Chicago (10/1) with his 15th career 100-yard game. He opened the 2013 season by crossing the 9,000-yard threshold.

By mid-November of 2011, Witten passed Ozzie Newsome (662) for third on the all-time receptions list. With four catches at Seattle (9/16) in 2012, he became the third tight end in league history with 700 career catches. His seven catches in the finale at Washington (12/30) made him the third tight end in league history to reach 800 career receptions. In Week 2 of 2013 at Kansas City (9/15) Witten passed Shannon Sharpe (817) for second in catches.

In 2014 he reached 10,000 career receiving yards on a 34-yard catch against Houston (10/5) to become only the third tight end in NFL history to reach that mark. The very next game at Seattle (10/12) he caught his 900th career pass on a three-yard scoring strike from Romo in the second quarter to become the second tight end in league history, the first Dallas Cowboy and the 16th overall player to reach 900. In 2015 he had 27 yards against the N.Y. Giants (10/19) to pass Sharpe (10,060) for the second-most receiving yards by an NFL tight end. Witten surpassed 11,000 career receiving yards against Carolina (11/26) to become only the second tight end in NFL history to do so. He reached 1,000 career receptions at Washington (12/7), becoming the 12th player in NFL history - second tight end - to reach that milestone.

TE's TDs

Coming off a 2010 season in which he registered a career-high and club tight end record-tying nine touchdowns, Jason Witten became the seventh Dallas Cowboy with 40 career touchdown catches in 2011. Later that same season, Witten tied Billy Joe DuPree (41) for sixth in club history. He then broke that tie in 2012 with a scoring grab against Chicago (10/1) to give him sole possession of sixth. He reached 48 against Minnesota (11/3/13) to tie Drew Pearson for fifth, then tied Frank Clarke for fourth with two more snags at the N.Y. Giants (11/24/13). Witten tied Tony Hill for third with a score at Chicago (12/9/13) and passed him with one against Green Bay (12/15/13). His 61st served as the game-winner in overtime against Philadelphia (10/30/16) to become the first game winner by a tight end in overtime since Billy Joe DuPree in the franchise's first overtime game against St. Louis (9/28/75):

MORE TE's TDs

In 2013 Jason Witten reached 50 career touchdowns - the ninth tight end in league history to reach that mark - and entered the 2014 season tied with Dave Casper for eighth amongst all league tight ends all-time. At Seattle (10/12/14) he caught a touchdown to give him 53 for his career to break a tie with Casper and tie Dallas Clark (53) for seventh. Against Washington (10/27/14) he broke a tie with Clark with one touchdown and tied Wesley Walls for sixth, then moved past Walls and tied Vernon Davis (55) at Jacksonville (11/9/14). He passed Davis with a score at the N.Y. Giants (11/23/14). He passed Jerry Smith for fifth with his 61st score against Philadelphia (10/30/16):

LEADING MAN

Already placing in the top-two in career receptions and receiving yards all-time among league tight ends, Jason Witten is climbing the NFL's all-time receptions and receiving yards charts among all position players. Witten opened 2016 ranked 10th in receptions (1,020) and 32nd in receiving yards (11,215).

In 2015 Witten reached 1,000 career receptions at Washington (12/7) - only the second tight end and 12th player overall to do so - while moving up to 10th overall in catches in NFL history.

In league all-time receiving yards, he climbed up to 30th all-time when he passed Keenan McCardell (11,373) and Rod Smith (11,389) at San Francisco (10/2), then moved past Muhsin Muhammad (11,438) for 29th against Cincinnati (10/9).

Witten began the 2016 season with nine catches in the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) to surpass Isaac Bruce (1,024) for 10th on the NFL's all-time receptions list:

THAT'S A BUNCH OF WITT

After coming into the league as Dallas' third round draft pick in 2003, Jason Witten has strung together a Hall of Fame career. He has appeared in the most Pro Bowls by a Cowboys tight end (10, seven consecutive - 2004-10 and three consecutive 2012-14), and is tied for the second-most by any Dallas player in team history, is tops on the club's all-time receptions chart and second on the receiving yards chart. In 2012 he took the top spot on the club's receptions chart from Michael Irvin at Atlanta (11/4). Witten took 151 games to reach the top of the team's receptions chart which was faster than Irvin (159). When compared to the two other NFL tight ends with at least 750 catches - Tony Gonzalez and Shannon Sharpe - Witten also reached the mark faster - Gonzalez (163 games), Sharpe (169).

Witten hit 950 career receptions after an eight catch performance against the N.Y. Giants (9/13/15). By reaching that mark in his 192nd career game, he did it faster than Gonzalez (198 games) - the only other tight end to reach 950 career receptions.

He surpassed 1,000 career receptions at Washington (12/7/15) with five catches against the Redskins, reaching that mark in his 203rd game to become the sixth-fastest NFL player to do so, and the fastest tight end.

Witten accounts for 649 catches and 7,287 yards of Tony Romo's 2,826 completions and 34,154 yards. Both numbers are more than any other player that has caught a pass from Romo.

In 2012 Witten caught 13 passes against Chicago (10/1) which was third in his career and tied for third among any Cowboys pass catcher and tied for eighth by an NFL tight end. He then bettered that with a club-record 18-catch game against the N.Y. Giants (10/28). His 18 receptions tied for third in a game in NFL history and were the most by a tight end in league history:

On his third catch against New Orleans (12/23/12), Jason Witten reached 100 receptions for the season for the first time in his career. He was the second player in franchise history to top 100 in a season (Michael Irvin, 111 in 1995) and the third tight end in league history to accomplish the feat. Witten finished with a league tight end record 110 catches:

QUICK WITT-ED

Jason Witten has steadily climbed Dallas' all-time receiving yards charts. In 2008 he became the sixth player in Cowboys history to reach 4,000 career receiving yards. In 2010 Witten became the fifth Cowboy to top 6,000 career yards. He opened 2011 with 110 yards at the N.Y. Jets (9/11) to become the fifth Cowboy to reach 7,000. His 94-yard outing against Detroit (10/2) put him past Bob Hayes (7,295) for fourth all-time in club history. He took third from Drew Pearson with four catches for 24 yards against Philadelphia (12/24). In 2012 Witten topped 8,000 yards with his 112-yard game against Chicago (10/1). Witten opened 2013 with 70 yards against the N.Y. Giants (9/8) to become the second Cowboy and third tight end to reach 9,000 career receiving yards. In 2014 he reached 10,000 career yards after a 59-yard performance against Houston (10/5) to become the third tight end - and second Cowboy - to reach that mark. In 2015 Witten became only the second NFL tight end - and second Cowboy - to reach 11,000 career receiving yards with 36 yards against Carolina (11/26/15):

40x12

With a club-record 18 catches against the N.Y. Giants (10/28/12), Jason Witten hit 51 receptions for the season for his ninth straight season of 40 catches-or-more. He was the fourth tight end in NFL history with nine 40-catch seasons and the third to do it in nine-plus straight. Nine games into 2013, Witten hit 40 catches and became the fourth tight end with at least 10 overall and the third with 10 straight. Witten once again was able to get to 40 receptions in 2014 after posting four grabs at the N.Y. Giants (11/23). By doing so, he became the fourth tight end in NFL history with 11 seasons with 40-or-more receptions, and third tight end to accomplish the feat in 11 consecutive seasons. For the 12th time - and 12th consecutive season - Witten reached 40 receptions eight games into the 2015 season with six grabs against Philadelphia (11/8/15) to become only the second tight end in NFL history (Gonzalez) to accomplish that feat:

50x12

With two catches at Miami (11/22/15), Jason Witten topped 50 catches for the 12th consecutive season. It allowed him to become only the ninth player - second tight end (Tony Gonzalez) - in NFL history to post 12 total. He is also only the fourth player - second tight end (Gonzalez) - to post 12 consecutive seasons with 50-or-more receptions:

CATCHES KEEP COMING

Dating back to Nov. 16, 2008, Jason Witten has made at least one catch in 126 consecutive games, most in franchise history. He surpassed Michael Irvin (117) with one catch at Buffalo (12/27/15) for the all-time record. The last game that Witten did not have a catch was at the N.Y. Giants (11/2/08), and since that time, he has posted 656 receptions for 6,973 yards (10.6 avg.) and 38 touchdowns during that span:

WITTEN AT 800 AND 9,000

In the 2012 season finale, Jason Witten caught his 800th career pass. He became just the third tight end in league history to reach that figure. He reached 800 in 159 games - faster than the previous two. Witten entered 2013 52 yards shy of 9,000 career yards, and he became the third tight end in NFL history to reach the mark with a touchdown catch in the second quarter of the opener. ## WITTEN AT 900 AND 10,000

On a 34-yard catch in the third quarter against Houston (10/5/14), Jason Witten hit 10,000 career receiving yards. By reaching that milestone, he became the third tight end in NFL history, the 41st overall player in league history and the second Dallas Cowboy (Michael Irvin) to reach that mark. Witten reached the 10,000-yard plateau in his 180th career game to become the second-fastest tight end to get to that point. The very next week at Seattle (10/12), Witten caught two passes to up his career total receptions to 900, becoming only the second tight end in NFL history, first Dallas Cowboy and 16th overall player to do so. He reached that mark in his 181st game, the fastest tight end - and eighth-fastest player overall - in NFL history to reach that mark. Witten also became only the 16th player in NFL history to reach both 900 career receptions and 10,000 career receiving yards:

WITTEN AT 1,000 AND 11,000

Jason Witten reached 11,000 career receiving yards after posting 36 yards against Carolina (11/26/15). He became only the second tight end in NFL history, 32nd overall player in league history and the second Cowboy (Michael Irvin) to reach that plateau. Witten reached 11,000 career yards in his 202nd game to serve as the second-fastest tight end to get to that mark. In his next game at Washington (12/7/15), Witten crossed the 1,000 career reception mark after hauling in five passes. By doing so, he became the 12th player in NFL history, second tight end and first Cowboy, while becoming the sixth-fastest player - fastest tight end - to reach that mark. He also became the 12th player in NFL history to reach both 1,000 career receptions and 11,000 career receiving yards:

BY DESIGN

After trading up in the 2010 NFL Draft to select Dez Bryant in the first round with the 24th overall pick, the Dallas Cowboys have seen nothing but production from the wide receiver. Despite his rookie season being cut short due to injury, Bryant was third on the team with 561 yards and six touchdowns and fourth with 45 catches. His reception total was second all-time among club rookies, his touchdowns were third and receiving yards fifth.

He improved upon those numbers in his second season (2011), catching 63 passes for 928 yards and nine touchdowns before topping club receiving charts in 2012 with 1,382 yards (fourth in club history) and 12 touchdowns (tied for fifth) on 92 catches (seventh).

Bryant finished 2013 as the team leader in receptions (93) yards (1,233) and touchdowns (13). He continued in 2014 where he left off, leading the team with 88 receptions for 1,320 yards and a franchise-best 16 touchdowns. He fought through foot and ankle injuries and was limited to nine games in 2015, catching a career-low 31 passes for 401 yards and three touchdowns.

Now in his seventh season, Bryant has totaled 427 receptions for 6,088 yards and 61 touchdowns. His totals all rank amongst the top five spots in club history through a player's first seven seasons:

88, 88, 88

With the selection of Dez Bryant in the first round of the 2010 NFL Draft, the Dallas Cowboys added to their lineage of home-grown talent at wide receiver. Bryant was issued the jersey number 88 to follow in the footsteps of two of the previous 88s in club history - Drew Pearson (1973-83) and Michael Irvin (1988-99).

His progress as a rookie was slowed after landing on IR with an ankle injury suffered at Indianapolis (12/5/10). He returned in 2011 with 63 catches for 928 yards and nine touchdowns. In 2012 Bryant notched his first career 1,000-yard receiving season with a career-best 1,382 yards on 92 catches and 12 touchdowns. In 2013 Bryant led the team in receiving yards (1,233) with his second consecutive 1,000-yard season while also leading with a career-high in catches (93) and a then career-high in touchdowns (13).

Bryant came on strong in 2014, leading the team with 88 receptions for 1,320 yards and a club-record 16 touchdowns.

He looked to return to form in 2015 following a contract extension, but suffered a foot injury against in the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/13) that would linger for the rest of the season, limiting him to nine games. Bryant finished the year with 31 receptions for 401 yards and three touchdowns.

Bryant began the 2016 season with one catch for eight yards in the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11). He increased his production significantly at Washington (9/18) with seven receptions for 102 yards - his 16th career 100-yard game. Bryant caught his 60th career touchdown against Chicago (9/25) as part of a three reception, 40-yard game, then had his best game of the year to date against Philadelphia (10/30) with 113 yards on four receptions and a score while crossing the 6,000-yard threshold.

Below is a comparison between the Cowboys 88s after 88 games:

A GRAND FOR DEZ

With six catches for 82 yards at Chicago (12/4/14), Dez Bryant topped 1,000 yards on the season for the third time in his career. He accomplished the feat in 2012 with 1,382 yards, and had 1,233 in 2013. Bryant's 1,000-yard season in 2014 marks the 31st in franchise history, and he is the 12th different Cowboy to top 1,000 yards in a season. His mark of 1,320 yards in 2014 tied for seventh in a season in team history:

'X' MARKS THE SPOT

Dez Bryant is second on the team in 2016 with two touchdowns. He caught his first score of the season against Chicago (9/25), then after missing the next three games with a knee injury, returned against Philadelphia and caught his second score of the year.

In 2014 Bryant found the endzone a franchise-high 16 times to lead the NFL. This is beginning to be a trend for Dallas' top receiver. He finished the 2013 season with 13 scores to tie for third in the league, was third in 2012 with 12 touchdowns, tied for sixth in 2011 with nine and logged six scores in 2010 - third amongst rookies.

Since the 2012 season, Bryant's 46 scores are the second-most receiving touchdowns in the NFL:

DEZ-STRUCTIVE

Since entering the league as the Dallas Cowboys first round draft choice in 2010, Dez Bryant has continued his rise each season as arguably one of the league's best receivers. He has reached the century mark in 16 career games, and has steadily improved his output in each season of his early pro career.

As a rookie in 2010 he logged his first career 100-yard game with a 104-yard output at the N.Y. Giants (11/14/10). After no 100-yard games in 2011, he returned in 2012 to log a career-best five games including a career-best 224-yard effort against New Orleans (12/23/12). It was the 10th 200-yard game in team history and was the fourth highest number in a game in franchise record books. In 2013 he turned in his first Pro Bowl campaign highlighted by four games with 100 yards, including a season-best 153 yards against Green Bay (12/15/13). He tied his effort in 2014 as he once again recorded four games north of the century mark, with his centerpiece game of 2014 coming across the pond in London, England with a 158-yard effort at Jacksonville (11/9/14) - the second-highest yardage output of his career.

After returning from a foot injury he suffered in Week 1, Bryant notched his lone 100-yard game of the 2015 season with 104 yards against Philadelphia (11/8) on five catches with one touchdown to break a tie with Miles Austin (14) for the sixth-most career 100-yard receiving games in team history.

He added his first 100-yard game of the 2016 season with 102 yards at Washington (9/18), then had his second with 113 yards against Philadelphia (10/30).

To date, Bryant's 17 career 100-yard outings are good for sixth in team history:

DEZZLING PERFORMANCES

Dez Bryant finished 2012 with 92 receptions, a career-high 1,382 yards and 12 touchdowns. From Weeks 8-13, he opened the flood gates of production. Over that span, he led the league with six touchdown catches, was third with 475 yards and seventh with 29 catches. He logged three 100-yard games, including back-to-back 145-yarders against Cleveland (11/18) and Washington (11/22).

Bryant tied a club record with a touchdown catch in seven consecutive games. On Thanksgiving Day against Washington, he had two scoring grabs then did the same the next week against Philadelphia (12/2/12), the sixth time in team history - fifth different player - a Dallas Cowboy had back-to-back multi-touchdown games. Bryant repeated the feat in 2013 with another pair in two games - at San Diego (9/29) and against Denver (10/6). He did it again in 2014 with two at Jacksonville (11/9) and two at the N.Y. Giants (11/23) to become the first player in team history to boast three instances of back-to-back multi-touchdown games:

In 2012 Bryant had two scores against New Orleans (12/23). His two touchdown catches came on consecutive drives, both from 58 yards. Bryant became the first league pass catcher with 55-plus yard touchdown grabs on consecutive drives since Buffalo's Lee Evans (at Houston, 11/19/06) did it.

Bryant's two touchdown catches against the Saints was his fourth multi-touchdown game of the season, sixth of his career. Bryant's four in 2012 were a single-season club best, while his six career tied for sixth.

Bryant finished 2013 with three multi-score games. He had two scores at Jacksonville (11/9) for his first multi-touchdown game of 2014 to give him 10 for his career and break a tie with Frank Clarke, Tony Hill and Michael Irvin (all with nine) for sole possession of second in club history.

In 2014 he posted a career-high tying four multi-touchdown games with two at Jacksonville (11/9), two at the N.Y. Giants (11/23), a career-high three at Philadelphia (12/14) and two at Washington (12/28) to give him 13 for his career:

DEZ VS. THE AFC

Dez Bryant caught a 10-yard touchdown against the N.Y. Jets (12/19/15) to extend his streak of consecutive touchdowns against AFC opponents to 14 games. It is the longest interconference streak in the NFL since the 1970 NFL merger.

Overall since entering the league in 2010, Bryant has caught the most touchdowns (20) by an NFC player against AFC foes. He also has posted the fourth-most receptions (130) and fifth-most receiving yardage total (1,715) during that timespan in interconference matchups:

DEZ FOR 60, 70 & 80

Dez Bryant reached 60 receptions for the 2014 season at the New York Giants (11/23). By getting to that number, it marked the fourth consecutive season that he has reached 60 receptions after posting 63 catches in 2011, 92 in 2012 and 93 in 2013. Overall, Bryant's four seasons with at least 60 receptions ranks third in team history, and his streak of four straight seasons with 60-or-more catches ranks as the third-longest streak in team history:

THE REAL DEAL T-WILL

After concluding his third pro season, Terrance Williams has emerged as one of the Cowboys top receiving targets, particularly in catching touchdowns. After posting five scores as a rookie in 2013, he proved as a threat to score again in 2014 by surpassing his rookie total with eight touchdowns in 2014, good for second on the team. His three scores in 2015 tied for second on the squad, and he has one so far in 2016. Together, his 17 career touchdowns are the seventh-most by a Cowboys receiver during his first four pro seasons:

Terrance Williams (2013-16).....	17

Williams caught five touchdowns as a rookie to tie for fourth in team history by a player in his first pro season. His rookie year was highlighted by a streak of four consecutive games with a touchdown pass to mark the longest streak of his career.

He increased his scoring production in 2014 with eight touchdowns, including a stretch of three straight games with a scoring grab: at St. Louis (9/21/14), against New Orleans (9/28/14) - where he had two touchdowns to tally the first multi-touchdown game of his career - and against Houston (10/5/14) to record the second-longest touchdown streak of his career. He recorded his second career multi-touchdown game with two scoring catches against Indianapolis (12/21/14).

Williams amped it up for the 2014 postseason, scoring three of the team's four receiving touchdowns while finishing second with 130 receiving yards and tied for fourth with four receptions. His three touchdowns tied for the postseason lead amongst all NFL receivers and also tied for the most by a Cowboys receiver in a single postseason in team history:

TERRANCE THE TERRIFIC

Terrance Williams serves as a deep threat option to compliment Dez Bryant. Since entering the league in 2013, Williams led all Cowboys receivers in each of his first three pro seasons in receiving average (from players with at least 15 catches). He has maintained a top average and currently ranks second on the team in 2016 with a 15.3 average. His career average of 16.3 is the eighth-highest in the league from 2013-16 among receivers with at least 50 catches during that span:

In 2015 Williams posted nine games with an average of 15.0-or-better, and three games with an average of 20.0-or-better. He posted career-highs with eight catches for 173 yards in the season finale against Washington (1/3/16), while his 21.6 average was the third-highest number of his career (with at least three receptions). It was also Williams' second career 100-yard receiving game, and his 173 yards were the most by a Cowboys receiver since Bryant had 224 against New Orleans (12/23/12).

Against Chicago (9/25) Williams caught four passes for 88 yards for a 22.0 average - highest of the 2016 season. He then had a season-high five grabs for 70 yards and a 14.0 average against Cincinnati (10/9). Williams boasted an 18.8 average on four catches for 75 yards at Green Bay (10/16).

COLE WORLD

Cole Beasley has steadily increased his production at the receiver position since entering the league as an undrafted free agent in 2012. Since then, he has become an automatic weapon in the Cowboys passing game, collecting 180 receptions for 1,895 yards and 14 touchdowns in his career.

He finished the 2015 season with a team-best five touchdowns, tied for second with 52 receptions and third with 536 yards - all-career-highs. Included his highlight season was a breakout game against Philadelphia (11/8/15), hauling in nine passes for 112 yards - both career-highs - and a career-high tying two touchdowns. It was his first career 100-yard receiving game, while his two scores marked his second career multi-touchdown game. Beasley also tied his career-best with five first downs, including two on third down, and hauled in a 30-yard pass in the fourth quarter that was the second-longest catch of his career. He matched his career-high in the 2015 season finale against Washington (1/3/16), hauling in two scores - his third career multi-touchdown game - on five receptions for 53 yards.

Beasley continues to be one of Dallas' top options in the passing game in 2016. Through seven games he leads the team with 37 receptions for 443 yards and three touchdowns. Beasley also currently leads all Cowboys receivers with 25 first downs - tied for 19th in the league - including 11 on third down, tied for eighth in the NFL, while his 14 overall receptions on third down are tied for seventh in the league.

He collected eight passes for 65 yards - both second on the team - with a team-high and career-high tying five first downs in the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11). Beasley was second on the team in receptions (five), yards (75) and receiving first downs (four) at Washington (9/18). He once again led the team with seven receptions - two on third down - for 73 yards against Chicago (9/25), then posted a team-high 66 yards - including a career-long catch of 47 yards - on three receptions with two first downs and one on third down at San Francisco (10/2). Beasley was second on the team with four catches for 53 yards - including four for first downs with one on third down - and his first touchdown of the season against Cincinnati (10/9). Beasley led the team with six receptions for 58 yards - including four for first downs - and two touchdowns at Green Bay (10/16). His two scores marked his fourth career multi-touchdown game.

'BEAS' IN THE TRAP

On third down, Cole Beasley has recorded 11 first downs to tie for the eighth in the NFL on 14 receptions - tied for seventh - for 151 yards (10.8 avg.) through Week 8 in 2016. More specifically, Beasley's receiving output has accounted for 14-of-44 completions (31.8%) and 151-of-517 passing yards for Dallas Cowboys rookie quarterback Dak Prescott, who ranks ninth in the league with a 91.7 rating on third down.

Over the past two seasons (14 - 2015; 11 - 2016), Beasley's 25 first downs on third down are tied for 16th in the NFL.

Overall, Beasley has produced his highest yards-per-catch (11.1) output, second-highest receiving yardage amount (721) and receptions (65) and touchdowns (five) on third down throughout his career.

THE BOOK OF EZEKIEL

For only the second time in franchise history, the Dallas Cowboys used a top-five pick to choose Ezekiel Elliott out of Ohio State with the fourth overall selection in the 2016 NFL Draft. Dallas selected Tony Dorsett with the second pick in the 1977 NFL Draft. The former Buckeye has started since Week 1 as the team's feature runner.

Limited during training camp due to a hamstring injury, Elliott saw action in only one game during the preseason at Seattle (8/25). In one half against the Seahawks first team defense, Elliott rushed seven times for 48 yards (6.9 avg.).

Elliott has come on strong to begin his pro career, as he currently leads the NFL in 2016 in rushing yards (799) and runs of 10-plus-or-more (22), is fourth in attempts (159), sixth in rushing average (5.0) and is tied for eighth in rushing touchdowns (five) - all tops by a rookie rusher:

Elliott made his NFL debut against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) and became only the fourth rookie running back in team history to start a season opener, joining Calvin Hill (1969), Ron Springs (1979) and Derrick Lassie (1993). He rushed 20 times for 51 yards and his first career touchdown as his totals were the most carries and the third-highest rushing yardage by a Cowboys rookie rusher to start a season opener. At Washington (9/18) he upped his effort to amass 83 yards on 21 carries with a touchdown, although he had two fumbles with one lost. However, his score allowed him to become the first rookie running back for the Cowboys to rush for a touchdown in each of the first two games of the season and the seventh league rookie rusher to accomplish that feat since 1999. Elliott turned in his best game to date against Chicago (9/25), rushing 30 times for 140 yards and eight first downs. His 140-yard rushing output marked his first career 100-yard game, and he became the 10th rookie running back in team history to reach 100. It was also the 24th time that a Cowboys rusher went over the century mark, and the first time Dallas had a rookie do it since DeMarco Murray had 135 yards against Buffalo (11/13/11). His 140 yards were good for eighth by a Cowboys rookie runner while his 30 carries tied the second-highest number by a rookie rusher in a single game in team history. He posted 138 yards on 23 carries with one score at San Francisco (10/2). It was Elliott's second consecutive game to rush for 100 yards to mark the fourth time in team history that a rookie accomplished that feat, and the first player with back-to-back 100-yard games since Darren McFadden last season (12/13/15-12/19/15). Against Cincinnati (10/9) Elliott rushed for 134 yards on 15 carries with two touchdowns. His two scores marked his first career multi-touchdown game, it was the 21st time in team history that a rookie rusher recorded two-or-more touchdowns, and he was the 12th Cowboys rookie running back to accomplish that feat. He had a career-long 60-yard rushing touchdown in the third quarter that tied the fifth-longest rush by a Cowboys rookie and the longest since Joseph Randle had a 65-yard run and score at Washington (12/28/14). It was also his third consecutive game to rush for 100 yards - the first time in team history that a rookie runner had three straight games over the century mark - and the first time a Cowboys rusher had three consecutive games over 130 yards rushing in a single season. It was also only the third time in NFL history that a rookie runner posted three consecutive games of 130+ yards, and the first time it has happened by a running back overall since Adrian Peterson had three consecutive games with 130+ yards (12/2/12-12/16/12). Elliott rushed for 157 yards - fourth-most by a Cowboys rookie - on 28 carries at Green Bay (10/16), who entered the game with the NFL's No. 1 rushing defense. It was also the fourth game in a row that he rushed for over 100 yards - first time that a rookie rusher accomplished that feat in team history and tied for the second-longest streak in team history overall. By compiling 157 yards, it also marked the first time in NFL history that a rookie runner posted four consecutive games with 130-plus yards. Elliott toted the ball 22 times for 96 yards against Philadelphia (10/30).

ZEKE MAKES THE LEAP

Ezekiel Elliott had a breakout game against Chicago (9/25), establishing a career-high 30 carries for a then career-high 140 yards. His 140 yards were then the eighth-most by a Cowboys rookie runner in team history, then he topped that at Green Bay (10/16) with 157 yards - good for fourth - on 28 rushes:

MORE RUSHING COMPARISONS

Ezekiel Elliott has totaled 799 yards on 159 carries to lead the NFL thus far in 2016 through the Cowboys first seven games played this season. Comparing Cowboys rushers all-time through the first seven games of a season, Elliott's yards rank third in team history:

ZEKE MONSTER

Ezekiel Elliott recorded another 'monster' game against Cincinnati (10/9), rushing 15 times for 134 yards and two touchdowns. His two scores marked his first career multi-touchdown game, and he became the 12th Cowboys rookie running back to accomplish that feat - 21st time by a rookie runner - in team history. Part of his performance included a career-long 60-yard rushing touchdown in the third quarter that tied the fifth-longest rush by a Cowboys rookie and the longest since Joseph Randle had a 65-yard run and score at Washington (12/28/14):

Elliott's performance against the Bengals also marked Elliott's third consecutive game to rush for 100 yards - the first time in team history that a rookie runner had three straight games over the century mark. It was also the first time a Cowboys rusher had three consecutive games over 130+ yards rushing in a single season, following his 140-yard performance against Chicago (9/25) and 138-yard mark at San Francisco (10/2). It was only the third time in NFL history that a rookie runner posted three consecutive games of 130+ yards, then he topped that with 157 yards at Green Bay (10/16) to establish an NFL rookie record with his fourth consecutive game with 130-plus yards:

RAYNE MAN

Rayne Dakota "Dak" Prescott had one rush for a six-yard touchdown - his first career score (passing or rushing) - in the third quarter at Washington (9/18). It marked only the third time a Dallas quarterback scored a rushing touchdown in a game during his rookie campaign:

Prescott had another rushing touchdown against Chicago (9/25) to mark his second consecutive game with a rushing score - first time in team history that a rookie quarterback accomplished that feat. He added his third rushing score against Cincinnati (10/9) to mark the most by a Cowboys quarterback since Danny White had four in 1983, while also tying the third-highest total by a Cowboys quarterback in a single season. Prescott added his fourth rushing score against Philadelphia (10/30) to tie for the second-most in a single season:

214 + 46 + 25 = RUSHING TDS

The Dallas Cowboys rushing attack has produced 12 touchdowns behind a stable of rushers as Ezekiel Elliott (five), Alfred Morris (two), Lance Dunbar (one) and quarterback Dak Prescott (four) have all contributed to the running cause. The 12 total rushing touchdowns have already surpassed the eight scores that the 2015 team had all last season, and are tied for the fourth-most by a Cowboys offense through its first seven games of a season.

Along with Elliott and Prescott's rushing scores at Washington (9/18), former Redskin Morris added to the rushing attack with a game-clinching four-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter against his ex-team. Collectively, it marked the first time that the Dallas offense had boasted three different players with at least one rushing touchdown since Miles Austin, Marion Barber III and Tashard Choice each had one against New Orleans (11/25/10). The Cowboys repeated that feat for the second consecutive game against Chicago (9/25), as Morris, Prescott and Dunbar - who scored his first career touchdown - each got into the endzone. It marked the first time that has happened in consecutive weeks in team history since the 1983 season (11/20 against Kansas City and 11/24 against St. Louis). Elliott scored the team's lone rushing touchdown at San Francisco (10/2), before the squad added three more (Elliott - two; Prescott - one) against Cincinnati (10/9). Prescott added his fourth of the season against Philadelphia (10/30).

With the 2016 season through the first eight weeks, Dallas is second in the league with 12 rushing touchdowns:

214

As an unexpected surprise, the 2016 NFL Draft brought two new rookie starters on opening day. Ezekiel Elliott was drafted with the fourth overall pick with the intention of starting from day one, but fourth round selection Dak Prescott worked his way up the ladder following injuries to backup Kellen Moore in training camp and starter Tony Romo during the preseason. With Moore out for the year, and Romo mending a back injury until his return, Prescott will take the helm as the team's starting quarterback.

Due to the circumstances, the combination of number 21 (Elliott) and number 4 (Prescott) - which ironically is the area code for Dallas - allowed the Cowboys to open the season with a rookie quarterback and rookie running back for only the second time in team history when Roger Staubach and Calvin Hill started the 1969 opener. The Cowboys won that game against the St. Louis Cardinals with Staubach passing for 220 yards and a touchdown, while Hill rushed 18 times for 70 yards. Against the N.Y. Giants (9/11), Prescott passed for 227 yards on 25-of-45 passes with no touchdowns and no interceptions, while Elliott rushed 20 times for 51 yards and his first career touchdown.

The Cowboys also became the first team to start two rookies in the offensive backfield since the 2012 Washington Redskins rolled out rookies Robert Griffin III and Alfred Morris.

Overall, the Cowboys have featured a rookie QB/RB duo five-times in their history, and suffered their first loss in a game that featured a rookie backfield against the N.Y. Giants (9/11):

The rookie combo made waves once again in Week 2 at Washington (9/18). Both Elliott and Prescott each contributed rushing touchdowns in the first win of the 2016 season for the Cowboys, marking the first time a rookie running back and a rookie quarterback each scored a rushing touchdown in a single game in team history. Elliott had a one-yard run - his second of the season - in the first quarter to give Dallas a 10-0 lead, then Prescott notched his first career touchdown on a six-yard rush in the third quarter to give the Cowboys a 20-17 advantage. Prescott added his second career rushing score against Chicago (9/25). Both Elliott and Prescott contributed with rushing scores against Cincinnati (10/9), with the running back adding two - his first career multi-touchdown game - and Prescott adding his third of the season to mark the most by a Cowboys rookie quarterback in team history. Prescott added his fourth rushing score of the season against Philadelphia (10/30).

ROOKIE RAMPAGE

Following the fifth game of the season which saw rookie quarterback Dak Prescott pass for 227 yards and rookie running back Ezekiel Elliott rush for 134 yards against Cincinnati (10/9), Prescott had 1,239 passing yards along with 546 rushing yards for Elliott this season. With those totals, the Cowboys became the first team in NFL history to boast a rookie quarterback with at least 1,000 passing yards and a rookie running back with at least 500 rushing yards in the first five games of a season.

RUSHING TO THE TOP

Over the last few seasons, the Dallas Cowboys have established an identity on offense with their rushing attack, finishing each of the previous two seasons (2014-2nd; 2015-9th) in the top-10 in the NFL in rushing. The Cowboys are out to accomplish the same feat in 2016 and currently boast the league's best rushing offense, averaging 164.9 yards-per-game:

BIG PLAY RUNS

After only three combined runs of 10+ runs in the first two games, the Cowboys ground game has begun to make longer runs throughout the course of a game. Against Chicago (9/25) the offense produced five runs of 10-plus, including one run over 20 yards. They added four more at San Francisco (10/2) including two 20+ runs by Ezekiel Elliott (23, 26). Against Cincinnati (10/9) the offense tacked on five more including a 60-yard romp by Elliott - the longest run from scrimmage by a Cowboy since Joseph Randle had a 65-yard run at Washington (12/28/14). At Green Bay (10/16) the offense tallied six 10-plus runs, including three 20-plus runs. Dallas ripped off a season-high nine runs of 10+ against Philadelphia (10/30), with one for 20-plus.

For the 2016 season, Dallas' 32 runs of 10-plus yards are tied for third in the NFL, led by Elliott's league-high 22:

OFFICIAL TIMEKEEPERS OF THE NFL

Over the last few seasons, the Dallas Cowboys offense has made a focal point in time of possession, controlling the clock for a season average of 32:26 in 2014 - highest in the NFL - and tied for 11th in the league with an average of 30:59 per-game in 2015.

Dallas is continuing its trend in 2016, as the offensive unit currently leads the NFL with a 32:42 mark:

Highest Time of Possession - NFL, 2016

Team	Avg. Poss. Time
Dallas .....	32:42
Arizona .....	32:04
Philadelphia .....	31:52
N.Y. Jets .....	31:43
Tennessee .....	31:42

The unit has posted five games with at least 30:00 minutes of possession to tie for the third in the NFL in 2016.

Dallas' offense clocked in at 36:43 in the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11), including a season-high 8:25 on the opening drive. At Washington (9/18) the offense logged its second consecutive game of 30:00-or-more with a 32:51 mark which was highlighted by a 94-yard touchdown drive on nine plays on its second possession of the game to mark the longest scoring drive since going 95 yards at Seattle (9/16/12). Against Chicago (9/25) the unit clocked in at 35:19 to mark its third consecutive game to go over 30:00. The unit dialed in at 36:27 - second-highest of the season - at San Francisco (10/2). They grinded out a final tally of 33:57 against Philadelphia (10/30).

DRIVE FOR FIVE

While the Dallas Cowboys offense continues to be atop the league in time of possession, the squad also boasts 18 drives of five-or-more minutes with 17 going for scores, both tops in the NFL in 2016. Specifically, the unit also has had nine drives go five-or-more minutes and result in touchdowns, best in the league:

Team	Off Poss.	5 Min Drives	5 Min Scores	5 Min TDs	5 Min Points
Dallas .....	72	18	17	9	86

Indianapolis .....	92	16	14	6	66
Philadelphia .....	76	15	12	6	60
Arizona .....	100	14	10	8	62

Against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) Dallas had four drives of five-or-more minutes, with each drive ending in field goal, including a season-high 8:25 on the opening drive. They had four more at Washington (9/18), with all four ending with scores (three touchdowns and one field goal). Against Chicago (9/25) the team had three - all touchdowns. They had two more at San Francisco (10/2), against Cincinnati (10/9) and against Philadelphia (10/30).

TEN PLAYS-OR-MORE

Along with the timing of their drives, the Dallas Cowboys offense has also consistently put together drives of 10-or-more plays, as the unit's 20 in 2016 is tied for the most in the NFL:

Team	Off Poss.	10 Play Drives	10 Play Scores	10 Play TDs	10 Play Points

Detroit .....	74	18	14	7	70
New Orleans .....	77	17	15	8	77
Four teams .....		16

Dallas had four drives of 10+ plays against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) including two drives that each went 15 plays to mark a season-high. They had four again at Washington (9/18), then three against Chicago (9/25) and at San Francisco (10/2). The offense notched two against Cincinnati (10/9) and one at Green Bay (10/16), then three against Philadelphia (10/30).

FINISHING DRIVES WITH SCORES

The Dallas offense has scored on 35-of-72 drives for a 48.6% scoring efficiency rate to rank second in the the league in 2016:

Highest Scoring Efficiency Rate - NFL 2016

THIRD-AND-NO PROBLEM

The Dallas Cowboys offense has been able to maintain its drives by establishing an efficient conversion rate on third downs. Through eight weeks of the 2016 season, Dallas is sixth in the NFL with a 43.7 third down percentage (38-of-87):

2016 Team Third Down Efficiency Leaders

Team	Conv	Att	Pct
Green Bay .....	49	95	51.6

Washington .....	46	103	44.7
Dallas .....	38	87	43.7

Dallas' offense is tied for the fifth by recording three games with 50.0 percent-or-better on third downs in 2016.

Dallas produced a season-high 59.0% third down conversion rate in the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11), including a season-best 10 first downs on 17 attempts. The Cowboys produced their second consecutive game with a 50.0 percent conversion mark, going six-of-12 (50.0) at Washington (9/18), then were four-of-eight (50.0) against Cincinnati (10/9).

RETURN OF THE LEE-DER

Dallas Cowboys linebacker Sean Lee returned to the field in 2015, this time coming back from a torn ACL he suffered in a spring practice that took away his 2014 season. Before that, Lee had bounced back in 2013 to tally a team-best 123 tackles after landing on Reserve/Injured with a toe injury in 2012.

Having manned the middle linebacker spot since his rookie season, Lee moved to a new position in 2015 with a shift over to the weakside spot to further utilize his speed and playmaking ability in the Cowboys 4-3 defense. Lee led the squad with a career-high 156 tackles along with his first career sacks (2.5), a team and career-high 11 tackles for loss, six pressures, an interception and five pass breakups. He was named to his first Pro Bowl as an injury replacement for Justin Houston (Kansas City).

Lee leads the 2016 team with 81 tackles while also adding four tackles for loss and two pass breakups.

In the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11), Lee led the team with 15 tackles. He topped the defense again with 10 stops at Washington (9/18) along with a breakup. Lee made seven tackles and a tackle for loss against Chicago (9/25). He tied for the team lead with 10 stops at San Francisco (10/2) along with a tackle for loss. Lee made a season-high tying 15 tackles against Cincinnati (10/9), then notched 14 stops and a breakup at Green Bay (10/16). Lee had 10 tackles including two for loss against Philadelphia (10/30).

Known to always be around the ball, Lee has collected 12 interceptions since entering the league as Dallas' 2010 second round draft choice to mark the most on the team and is tied for the most amongst league linebackers in the NFL during that span. His 12 are also fifth among linebackers in team history. Lee has intercepted a career-high four passes twice in season during his career - leading the team in 2013 and tying for the team lead in 2011 - to tie for sixth-most in a single-season in team history:

"CINDERELLA MAN"

Tyrone Crawford, dubbed "Cinderella Man" by Dallas Cowboys Defensive Coordinator Rod Marinelli, leads the team in 2016 with 3.5 sacks, is tied for the team lead with a career-high tying four tackles for loss and is tied for second with seven pressures. He spent the previous two seasons (2014-15) playing defensive tackle, including last season where he logged a career-high 5.0 sacks, but has moved back to defensive end in 2016 where he was originally slotted to play as a 2012 draft pick by the Cowboys.

Crawford collected his first sack of the season at Washington (9/18) along with a pressure, then posted two tackles, two tackles for loss, a pressure and recovered his first career fumble against Chicago (9/25). He had his second sack of the season at San Francisco (10/2) along with two quarterback hurries and four stops. Crawford registered his second career multi-sack game with 1.5 takedowns against Philadelphia (10/30) while also collecting his second career fumble.

CHURCH IN SESSION

Barry Church has consistently been one of Dallas' top defensive performers and leaders. He has posted over 100+ tackles in each of the last three seasons (2013-15) - the longest such streak since Bradie James recorded six seasons (2005-10) with 100+ tackles - while finishing as either the leading and second-leading tackler in each of those seasons.

Church made his mark on the Cowboys defense in 2013, turning in a team-leading, and career-best 147 tackles, bouncing back after missing the majority of the 2012 season after suffering a ruptured Achilles tendon three weeks into the season. He posted eight games with 10-or-more tackles in 2013 - most on the defense - including a career-high 17 at New Orleans (11/10/13). Overall, his tackle totals were the third-most by a Cowboys safety, and the 11th-most overall by any Cowboys defender, dating back to 1989:

Most Tackles by a Cowboys Safety - Single Season

Player	Tackles
Brock Marion, 1997.....	158
Darren Woodson, 1993.....	155
Barry Church, 2013.....	147

He finished 2014 atop Dallas' defense with 110 tackles - his second consecutive season with 100+ stops - to become the first player to lead the team in tackles in back-to-back seasons since James' six seasons streak (2005-10). It was also the first time a Dallas defender posted consecutive 100+ tackle seasons since James had six in a row from 2005-10.

In 2015, Church finished second on the team with 136 tackles to mark his third consecutive 100-plus tackle season, the longest streak since James' six (2005-10).

He began 2016 not unlike the past few seasons, amassing 12 stops in the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) - good for second on the squad. Church made six stops, a pass breakup and an interception - fourth of his career - at Washington (9/18). He had 13 tackles and two pass breakups - both season-highs - to lead the team against Chicago (9/25). Church made 10 stops and two tackles for loss at San Francisco (10/2), then had 11 tackles against Cincinnati (10/9). He totaled eight stops, his second interception of the season - tied a career-high - and also had a breakup and a forced fumble. Church made four stops to surpass 500 tackles for his career against Philadelphia (10/30) before leaving the game with an arm injury.

Church currently leads the team with two interceptions, is second with 64 tackles, fourth with four pass breakups, is tied for fifth with two tackles for loss and has forced a fumble.

BYRON THE BREAKUP ARTIST

Byron Jones was a standout defensive player in the Cowboys secondary as a rookie in 2015, finishing the season fifth on the team with 76 tackles, adding two tackles for loss, and first on the defense with 12 passes defended. Jones was the first Cowboys rookie defender to lead the team in pass breakups since Derek Ross (12) in 2002, and is the only rookie defender in Cowboys history to finish the season with 75-plus tackles and lead the team in breakups (Cowboys did not track PBUs before 1984):

Byron Jones, 2015.....	12

Jones returned to swatting passes to start 2016, breaking up one pass against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) in the season opener along with seven tackles. He had six stops and a breakup at Washington (9/18). Jones made five tackles, a breakup and a forced fumble against Chicago (9/25). He had six stops and a breakup against Cincinnati (10/9), then at Green Bay (10/16) contributed four stops and a breakup. Jones posted a season-high nine tackles - good for second on the team - against Philadelphia (10/30).

For the 2016 season, Jones currently is tied for the team lead in pass breakups with five. He also is fifth on the team with 37 tackles.

MO BETTER BLUES

Morris Claiborne came through for the defense at San Francisco (10/2). He made two big plays in the fourth quarter with an interception of Blaine Gabbert - his first since at St. Louis (9/21/14) - then on the 49ers next offensive possession, he stopped the receiver short of the first down on 4th-and-6 to allow the Cowboys offense to run out the clock for the win. He finished the day with six tackles, a tackle for loss, an interception and a pass breakup. Against Cincinnati (10/9) he deflected a season-high two passes while also contributing six tackles. At Green Bay (10/16) he added three stops and recovered a fumble. Claiborne contributed five stops and a breakup against Philadelphia (10/30) before leaving the game with a groin injury.

On the year, Claiborne is tied for the team lead with five pass breakups, is tied for fifth with two tackles for loss, is sixth on the team with 36 tackles, and also has an interception and a fumble recovery.

NFC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

The Dallas Cowboys added David Irving via the Kansas City Chiefs practice squad last season as a rookie. In 12 games in 2015 he became a rotational player on the defensive line, summing up 14 tackles, a half sack, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and a blocked field goal.

He returned in 2016 to contribute more to the defense and thus far leads the team with eight quarterback pressures and three forced fumbles, is tied for third with three tackles for loss and has also made four tackles, a sack, two pass breakups and a fumble recovery.

In the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) he posted three tackles and a tackle for loss. Irving led the team with a career-high four pressures against Chicago (9/25). He had his best game to date at Green Bay (10/16), notching a tackle, a sack, a tackle for loss, a breakup, a fumble recovery and three forced fumbles. His three forced fumbles tied for third-most all-time in a single game in NFL history, and he became the second Cowboy to do accomplish that feat, joining DeMarcus Ware (2005).

For his efforts against the Packers, Irving was named the NFC Defensive Player of The Week for Week 6, becoming the first Dallas defender to win the award since Sean Lee did it last season (Week 2 - 2015) and the first defensive lineman since Leon Lett (Week 5 - 1996).

STOP AT 23 POINTS

Through six games played, the Dallas Cowboys defensive unit is allowing only 18.6 points-per-game to place seventh in the league. Additionally, Dallas is one of only eight teams to give up 20-or-more points to opposing team's offenses three times or less this season - tied for third-fewest games in the NFL. The defense had a streak of not allowing a team to score more than 17 points in four consecutive games (9/25/16-10/30/16) to mark the longest such streak in a single season since the 2009 team had a streak of five games in 2009 (11/1-11/26). Additionally, Dallas is one of three teams to not allow more than 23 points in a single game this season, joining Denver and Minnesota.

TAKEAWAYS FROM "MIGHTY ORPHANS"

Dallas Cowboys Defensive Coordinator Rod Marinelli has dubbed his defense "The Mighty Orphans" in respect of his group of defenders that are made up of "castaways" in the NFL that are not top draft picks or major free agent signees. Instead, they are a core group of men who will fight on every snap, a mantra that Marinelli distills upon his unit.

The nickname, one that Marinelli gives with respect, is based on the book the "Twelve Mighty Orphans" written by Jim Dent, which tells the story of the Masonic Orphanage in Fort Worth, TX. During the 1930s and '40s, the orphanage, under coach Rusty Russell, played high school football with a limited enrollment of 150 and little to no budget as they went on to tie Corsicana in the 1932 high school state championship game.

With that nickname and mantra, the defense has been opportunistic with 10 takeaways (6 fumble recoveries; 4 INTs) in the team's first seven games to tie for 12th in the NFL.

The unit had two takeaways (two fumble recoveries) against Chicago (9/25). At Green Bay (10/16) the defense gathered a season-high four takeaways (3 fum; 1 INT) to mark the most in a single game since four at Washington (12/28/14).

SHUTOUTS AND SACKS

The Dallas Cowboys defense turned in its best performance against Cincinnati (10/9). The unit held the Bengals offense scoreless through through the third quarter to mark the first shut-out through three quarters since at Philadelphia (9/20/15). It was also the fifth consecutive game that the Cowboys have held their opponent scoreless during at least one quarter in 2016 to join the 1975 team as the only two times that has happened in franchise history. The defense extended that streak at Green Bay (10/16), holding the Packers offense scoreless in the third quarter to match the 1975 defense as the only two teams to accomplish that feat through the first six games.

The defense also logged four sacks on Cincinnati's Andy Dalton - the most since logging five against New England (10/11/15) - with Terrell McClain leading the way with a career-high 1.5, while Benson Mayowa and Cedric Thornton each had one and Jack Crawford had a half sack. The unit produced three sacks against Philadelphia (10/30) with Tyrone Crawford producing his second career multi-sack game with 1.5 takedowns while Orlando Scan-drick added one and Thornton had a 0.5 sack.

On the year, the defensive unit has produced 14.0 sacks with Tyrone Crawford leading the way with 3.5.

NO HUNDREDS EXCHANGED HERE

Through eight weeks of the 2016 season the defense of the Dallas Cowboys is the only unit in the National Football League to not allow a 100-yard rusher or 100-yard receiver in 2016. This is the longest such streak since the team had nine-straight games in 2009 (9/28/09-11/26/09).

The only other team to not allow a 100-yard receiver is Minnesota.

BAILEY FROM 50

For his career, Dan Bailey is 23-of-31 (74.2) from 50-plus yards, and sits atop the club's charts for 50-yarders in a season (six - 2013) and career, while he also tied a franchise-long 56-yard field goal twice - at Seattle (10/12/14) and against the N.Y. Giants (9/11/16).

Bailey has hit two 50+ field goals in a game four times (three times in 2013), including most recently in the 2016 season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11), to tie Eddie Murray (at Minnesota, 12/12/93) for the most in a single game.

At Kansas City (9/15/13) Bailey was true on three tries, including a pair from 50-plus yards (51 and a career-long 53). Bailey's two 50-yard field goals marked the second time in team history a kicker hit two 50-plus tries in the same game. The first was Eddie Murray at Minnesota, 12/12/93 (51 and 52 yards). Bailey did it twice more after nailing two 53-yarders at Detroit (10/27) and two 50-yarders against Green Bay (12/15).

In 2014, Bailey finished five-of-seven (71.4) on field goals from 50 yards-or-more during the regular season for the second-most field goals made in a single season in team history.

He was five-of-six from 50 yards in 2015, the second-highest percentage (83.3) in team history in a single season from 50-yards, and tied for the second-most made in a single season.

Bailey opened 2016 with four field goals against the N.Y. Giants (9/11), with two from 50 yards (including a career and franchise-high to tying 56-yarder) to tie for the most 50-yard field goals in a single game in team history.

GAME-WINNING KICKS

In his rookie season, Dan Bailey was called upon six times to win or tie the game with his foot. Four times he came through for Dallas. Bailey's four game-winning field goals were the most by a Dallas Cowboy in a single season and the most by a rookie in NFL history.

In 2012 Bailey had four opportunities to do the same, and he came through in three games including two in overtime. He added one game-winner in 2013 with a 35-yarder at the N.Y. Giants (11/24).

Bailey was one-of-two during the 2014 season.

His only game-winner of the 2015 season came at Washington (12/7) where he nailed a 54-yarder - tied for the second-longest kick of his career, and the longest game-winner of his career.

In team history, there have now been 39 instances in which a kicker was true on a game-winning field goal with 2:00-or-less left in the fourth quarter or in overtime.

Bailey has rang true with 10 game-winners - and a franchise-best five in overtime - to serve as the most in team history:

BAILEY'S BOOTS

Since joining the Dallas Cowboys as an undrafted free agent in 2011 as the club's kicker, Dan Bailey has recorded 23 games with three-or-more field goals - the most in team history. He also has seven games with four-or-more field goals - tops in team history.

Bailey had five games with three-or-more field goals as a rookie in 2011, including his first game with four-or-more when he struck a career-best six against Washington (9/26/11). He matched that total with five games in 2012, while also adding one game with four field goals at Carolina (10/21/12). For the third consecutive season in 2013 he notched five games with three-or-more field goals, with a season-high five field goals made against Green Bay (12/15/13). In 2014 and 2015 he recorded three each, while he added one four field goal game in 2014 and a career-high two in 2015.

Bailey began 2016 with a bang, connecting on all four field goal attempts against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) to break a tie with Rafael Septien for his 22nd game with three-or-more field goals to establish a team record, while also extending his team record with his seventh career game with four-or-more field goals made: On the season he has recorded three games with three-or-more field goals, and one game with four-plus:

MORE RELIABLE IS BETTER

Dan Bailey came to Dallas in 2011 as a rookie free agent and immediately earned his spot as the club's place kicker, finishing the season 32-of-37 (86.5%) on field goals for the second-best field goal percentage by a rookie in franchise history. His 32 field goals made were also a club rookie record. He had a streak of 26 consecutive made which were the most by a rookie in NFL history.

In his second season he finished with a 93.5 (29-of-31) field goal percentage - second in team history. He went 28-of-30 (93.3) in 2013, hitting 30 consecutive field goals from 2013 into 2014 to establish a team record. Bailey finished 2014 25-of-29 (86.2) with a career-high 56 extra points to tie the third-most in team history. He was 30-of-32 with field goal tries and hit all 25 PATs in 2015, and is 14-of-16 on field goals while connecting on all 20 PATs for 62 points in 2016.

For his career, Bailey has converted 158-of-175 tries (90.3%), and his field goals made are second in team history. Bailey has also hit all 224 PAT tries - second in franchise history:

MAKING THE POINT

Dan Bailey has been a scoring machine since entering the league in 2011 as the former undrafted free agent has totaled 698 points to rank third in team history:

All-Time Cowboys Points Leaders

1. Emmitt Smith, RB..... 986 (1990-02)
2. Rafael Septien, K..... 874 (1978-86)
3. Dan Bailey, K..... 698 (2011-16)
4. Tony Dorsett, RB..... 516 (1977-87)
5. Bob Hayes, WR..... 456 (1965-74)

In 2014 Bailey passed Michael Irvin (392), Bob Hayes (456) and Tony Dorsett (516) for third on Dallas' all-time points list. He also reached 400 points during the season to become the second kicker (Rafael Septien - 874) in team history - fifth player overall - to do so. At Philadelphia (12/14/14) he reached 500 career points, becoming the fourth player - second kicker - in team history to get to that plateau. Bailey reached 500 points in his 62nd game to become the second-fastest kicker in NFL history to hit that mark. He reached 600 points against Carolina (11/26/15) to become the third player - second kicker - in team history to do so.

CAN'T MISS KICKER

The Dallas Cowboys feature one of the league's most dependable kickers, as the former 2011 undrafted free agent has hit true on 150-of-165 field goals for his career. During that time, Dan Bailey has challenged some of the franchise's longest consecutive field goal records, including 26 in a row in his first season to tie the second-longest streak in team history and mark the longest streak of field goals made by a rookie in team and NFL history. He then hit 21 in a row in between his second and third seasons (2012-13) - the third-longest in team history.

However, after that streak was snapped, Bailey quickly embarked on a new field goals streak in 2013 and extended it into the 2014 season. He opened the season with one field goal made against San Francisco (9/7) to extend his streak to 22 straight field goals made and move to the third-longest streak. Bailey then hit all four of his tries at Tennessee (9/14/14) to extend his field goals made to 26 in a row, tying Chris Boniol (1995) and his 2011 total for the second-longest streak in team history. He had two field goals at St. Louis (9/21/14) to reach 28 in a row and pass Boniol's 1995 total of 27 to establish the longest streak of field goals made in team history. He continued that streak up to 30 successful kicks before missing a 53-yarder against Houston (10/5/14).

Bailey had a streak of 21 consecutive field goals made - tied for fifth-longest in team history - that began with three made at Washington (12/28/14) in 2014 and continued with 18 straight in 2015 until he missed his first one at Tampa Bay (11/15) to end the streak:

ACCURATE & DEADLY

After connecting on his first field goal at Seattle (10/12/14), Dan Bailey reached 100 career field goals made. His trek to 100 was made during his 54th career game, allowing him to become the second-fastest kicker in NFL history to get to that milestone:

In 2015, Bailey made 30-of-32 field goals (career-high 93.8) to tie for the league lead in field goal percentage, tied for fifth in field goals made and was 12th with 115 total points.

He is 14-of-16 on field goals (87.5%) with 20 PATs in 2016 to tie for sixth in PATs, rank ninth in points (62), tie for ninth in field goals made and tie for 11th in field goal percentage.

THIRTY-SOMETHING

After connecting on two-of-three field goals at Buffalo (12/27/15), Dan Bailey reached 30 field goals on the season for the second time of his career. It was also only the fourth time a Dallas kicker had reached 30 field goals made and the first since his 2011 season when he made 32 field goals:

Player	Year	FGM	FGA	PCT

JONES-ING TO PUNT

Dallas Cowboys punter Chris Jones had a career year in 2015. The fourth-year pro ranked third with a career-high 42.5 net average and was 20th with a 45.2 gross while his 27 punts downed inside opponents' 20-yard line tied for 14th.

In 2016, Jones is 10th with a 47.4 gross average and is 25th with a 39.0 net average and has eight punts downed inside the 20-yard line.

He logged a career-best 55.3 gross average along with a season-long punt of 63 yards on four boots at San Francisco (10/2).

For his career, Jones boasts a 45.3 gross average and a net average of 40.3, with 96 punts downed inside the 20-yard line - good for fifth all-time in team history.

2016 DRAFT CLASS

The Dallas Cowboys drafted nine players - five defensive, four offensive - in the 2016 NFL Draft. It was the third consecutive season the team leaned more towards defense, as 17 of the last 26 picks by Dallas in the last three drafts (2014-16) have been on that side of the ball. The new class started off with Dallas' first round choice - running back Ezekiel Elliott - who was selected with the fourth overall pick to mark just the second time in team history that the club has selected a running back with a top-five pick (Tony Dorsett, No. 2 overall - 1977).

Of the nine players chosen by Dallas, eight made the final roster entering Week One while one (Rico Gathers) was signed to the club's practice squad.
