THE MATCHUP

The New Orleans Saints start the second half of their 2016 NFC South slate when they travel to the west coast of Florida to face the Buccaneers at Raymond James Stadium on Dec. 11 at 3:25 p.m. CT. The game will be regionally televised on FOX.

The Saints will be looking to improve their record to 6-7 and even up their division mark at 2-2. Currently at 5-7, New Orleans is two games behind both the Buccaneers and Atlanta Falcons who are tied for first place in the NFC South at 7-5, with New Orleans having the benefit of playing Tampa Bay twice (Sunday and at New Orleans, Dec. 24) and at Atlanta once (Jan. 1, 2017) in the season's final four weeks in an effort to make up ground. During Sean Payton's 11-year tenure as coach, the Saints are 13-5 in games played at Tampa Bay and Atlanta.

The Saints come into the contest off a 28-13 loss to the Detroit Lions at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome on Dec. 4. New Orleans was surging at the right time in the contest early in the fourth quarter, moving to within 19-13 following a one-yard touchdown run by FB John Kuhn. But on a third-and-10 situation from the Detroit 34-yard line, Lions QB Matthew Stafford completed a pass to WR Golden Tate that turned into a 66-yard touchdown, giving the Lions a 25-13 lead that New Orleans was unable to recover from.

New Orleans and Tampa Bay split the 2015 season series, with their last meeting taking place at Raymond James Stadium on Dec. 13, 2015, a 24-17 Saints victory. The victory was aided by strong performances from WR Willie Snead IV, who hauled in seven passes for 122 yards, and RB Tim Hightower, who made his first start since Oct. 23, 2011. He'd finish with 85 yards and one touchdown on a career-high 28 attempts, rushing for his first touchdown since Sept. 11, 2011. New Orleans holds a 30-18 edge in the all-time series with the Saints having won eight of the last nine contests. At Tampa Bay, New Orleans owns a 14-7 all-time mark, with the Saints having won each of the last four contests played at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay won their fourth-consecutive contest on Sunday, a 28-21 come-from-behind victory at the San Diego Chargers.

Tampa Bay ranks 22nd in the NFL in defense, 25th against the run and 15th against the pass. The Buccaneers are 12th overall in offense (17th rushing and 13th passing). New Orleans is ranked first in the NFL in total offense (first in passing with an average of 319.4 yards per game, 12th in rushing) and 26th in defense (tied for 11th vs. the run, ranked 31st against the pass).

Around the NFC South: The Atlanta Falcons (7-5) travel to the Los Angeles Rams (4-8) and the Carolina Panthers (4-8) host the San Diego Chargers (5-7).

THE COACHES

New Orleans Saints Head Coach Sean Payton has posted an 92-64 regular season record and a 6-4 postseason mark, guiding the team to the postseason five times, to the NFC Championship twice and to the Super Bowl XLIV Championship. He's the club's lone head coach to open a season with 13 straight victories and post a 13-game winning streak and has the franchise's top winning percentage (.590). Payton's 54-33 (.621) home record and 44-40 (.524) mark away from the Mercedes-Benz Superdome are the club's top all-time winning percentages in both categories. On Oct. 2, 2016 at San Diego, he captured his 94th victory as head of the New Orleans Saints, surpassing Jim Mora (93 victories from 1986-96) for the most victories by a head coach in team history despite having coached 13 fewer games than Mora. In his first season with the club in 2006, he took the Saints to the NFC Championship and was named NFL Coach of the Year by most major media outlets. The Saints are the only team to finish in the top 10 in net yards per game each season since 2006, including finishing second in 2015 with 403.8 ypg. Payton was hired as New Orleans' 14th head coach on January 18, 2006, after serving on Dallas' staff from 2003-05 under Pro Football Hall of Fame Head Coach Bill Parcells. Prior to joining the Cowboys, Payton served on the New York Giants coaching staff from 1999-2002, including the final three seasons as offensive coordinator. His tenure was highlighted by a Super Bowl berth in his first full season calling plays. Payton's prior NFL coaching experience came as quarterbacks coach for Philadelphia from 1997-98. He played quarterback at Eastern Illinois, where he passed for 10,665 yards, then the third-highest total in NCAA Division 1-AA history. The three-time Associated Press All-American selection had professional stints with Chicago of the Arena Football League, Ottawa of the Canadian Football League and the Chicago Bears in 1987. Starting his college coaching career at San Diego State, Payton wrapped two stints as an assistant with the Aztecs (1988-89 and 1992-93) around a stop at Indiana State (1990-91). He moved to Miami (Ohio), where he coached quarterbacks from 1994-95 before doing the same at the University of Illinois in 1996.

Dirk Koetter was named the 11th head coach in franchise history on January 15, 2016. He is in his second season with the team, after serving as offensive coordinator in 2015. In his first season with Tampa Bay (2015), Koetter helped pilot one of the most successful offenses in the NFL and one of the best in team history. The team set the franchise record for total yards (6,014 – 357.0 per game), while posting the second-most rushing yards (2,162 – 135.1 per game) and second-most passing yards (3,852 – 240.8 per game), along with the fifth-most total points (342 – 21.4 per game). He joined the Buccaneers after three seasons working as the offensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons (2012-14). Under Koetter, Falcons quarterback Matt Ryan posted the three of the four highest passing yardage seasons in franchise history, as well as three of the five highest completion percentage seasons. Prior to joining the Falcons, Koetter spent five seasons as the offensive coordinator of the Jacksonville Jaguars (2007-11). Before joining the Jaguars, Koetter spent 22 years at the collegiate level, the final six as the head coach at Arizona State (2001-06). Koetter's first head coaching opportunity came at Boise State, where he spent three seasons (1998-2000), finishing with a 26-10 record and two consecutive bowl wins.

LAST MEETING

Saints 24, Tampa Bay Buccaneers 17; December 13, 2015 @ Raymond James Stadium – New Orleans turned in their best defensive performance of the season, limiting the Tampa Bay offense to 291 total yards of net offense, a season low for the Saints defense. In addition to the score, New Orleans outgained Tampa Bay 388-291 and also won the time of possession battle 37:14-22:46. New Orleans set the tone early, causing a three-and-out on the Buccaneers' first offensive series.

New Orleans used this positive start to their advantage, going on to record a 10-play 60-yard opening drive on their ensuing possession that ultimately led to a three-yard touchdown throw from QB Drew Brees to WR Marques Colston. It was the 70th connection between the two, with the two becoming only the fifth QB-WR combination to connect on 70 or more scores. Brees would find Colston in the end zone again in the first half, this time on a one-yard score that extended the Saints lead to 14-0. However, the Buccaneers would answer, going on a 10-play 80-yard drive that would cut the Saints lead in half. RB Doug Martin took it from 14 yards out, after a defensive holding penalty on third down gave Tampa Bay a fresh set of downs. New Orleans and Tampa Bay would exchange field goals before halftime, with the Saints holding onto a 17-10 lead into the halftime period.

After New Orleans opened the second half with an eight-play drive that ended in a punt, Tampa Bay would get a spark from their running back, as Martin posted a 22-yard run to open the drive. After a four-yard pass to WR Mike Evans set the Bucs up at the Saints 29, K Connor Barth missed the 47-yard field goal.

New Orleans would go on to put together a 10-play drive that covered 63 yards, with RB Tim Hightower scoring on a three-yard run. It was his first rushing touchdown since Sept. 11, 2011. The Buccaneers would respond and cut the lead to a one-score game, after QB Jameis Winston found WR Adam Humphries on a six-yard score.

With New Orleans needing a clock-killing drive to put the game away, the Saints offense orchestrated a nine-play 34-yard drive that began with 4:13 on the clock. They would convert on three third downs, with Hightower recording a four-yard run on third-and-three to effectively end the game. It was a historic afternoon for the Saints signal-caller who moved ahead of Dan Marino for fourth on the all-time passing touchdowns list. He would also throw for 312 yards, reaching the 300-yard mark for a record 93rd time, a record he now shares with Peyton Manning.

ON THIS DATE

In the 50 years of Saints football, there have been five Dec. 13 games, with the Saints posting a 3-2 record on the date.

GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1: Oakland Raiders 35, Saints 34; September 11, 2016 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – In the season kickoff for both clubs, Oakland scored a touchdown with 47 seconds remaining and followed the score with a two-point conversion to prevail in a shootout in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

The Saints had taken a 34-27 lead with 6:03 remaining when RB Travaris Cadet scored on a two-yard TD throw from QB Drew Brees. But the Raiders put together an 11-play, 75-yard drive on their final possession. The march was capped by a 13-yard TD throw from QB David Carr to WR Seth Roberts and Carr drilled a successful throw to WR Michael Crabtree in the end zone for the subsequent two points to put the Raiders ahead. Brees drove New Orleans to the Oakland 43 in the game's final seconds, but a 61-yard field goal attempt went wide left.

CONTINUED - Week One

The Raiders took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a 47-yard FG by K Sebastian Janikowski. The Saints responded by a successful 42-yard kick by rookie K Wil Lutz. Oakland took the lead back late in the opening quarter on a six-yard touchdown run by RB Latavius Murray.

New Orleans then tied the score on a nine-play, 75-yard drive that ended early in the second quarter on a one-yard touchdown pass from Brees to WR Willie Snead IV. New Orleans took a 17-10 lead going into halftime when Brees connected with WR Brandin Cooks for a 15-yard TD.

In what would seem like rough sailing, starting a drive at their own two-yard line midway through the third quarter, Brees connected with Cooks on a throw that turned into a 98-yard TD, the longest offensive play in franchise history, breaking a record that stood since the franchise's inaugural season in 1967. Following an Oakland FG, New Orleans went into the fourth quarter with a 24-13 edge.

A wild fourth quarter put the Raiders back in the contest, starting with their first drive of the period that ended with a two-yard TD run by RB Jamize Olawale. While Lutz powered a 20-yard field goal through despite getting touched by the Raiders, the 27-19 cushion wouldn't last long though as Oakland rookie RB Jalen Richard, a Louisiana native, burst through for a 75-yard TD, followed by a successful two point conversion from Carr to WR Amari Cooper. With the Saints then starting at their 16, Brees completed a pass to Snead for a gain of 43 yards to the Oakland 26, but he fumbled. Rookie WR Michael Thomas alertly recovered the ball and one play later, Brees tossed the touchdown to Cadet that gave the Saints a seven-point lead before Oakland's final rally.

WEEK 2: New York Giants 16, Saints 13; September 18, 2016 @ MetLife Stadium – Already down one starter in Delvin Breaux with a fibula injury, a trio comprised of Ken Crawley, De'Vante Harris and Sterling Moore put up a gritty performance against a New York receiving trio comprised of Odell Beckham Jr., Victor Cruz and Sterling Shepard, keeping them out of the end zone after P.J. Williams was forced to depart.

In the second quarter, S Kenny Vaccaro stripped the ball from Giants RB Shane Vereen and it was picked up by LB James Laurinaitis at the Saints 36-yard line. On the Giants' subsequent possession, QB Eli Manning completed a pass to Cruz that gave the wideout open space, but S Jairus Byrd and Crawley remained in pursuit and dislodged the ball, which was picked up by Harris at the Saints 16. With the Giants receiving a final possession in the second quarter and in a matchup of the sons of former Saints teammates, LB Michael Mauti sacked Manning up the middle and forced him to cough the ball up and it was recovered by DE Paul Kruger at the Giants 25-yard line.

Adversity would hit again when a 38-yard field goal attempt by K Wil Lutz was blocked by Giants defensive tackle Jonathan Hankins and was recovered and returned by CB Janoris Jenkins 65 yards for a touchdown. However New Orleans got the ball back and QB Drew Brees completed passes of 17- and 23-yards to help set up a 39-yard field goal by Lutz with seven seconds left in the half to trail by only four points.

The Giants got the ball at the half and advanced to the Saints 35-yard line, but a 53-yard field goal attempt went wide left. While K Josh Brown connected on a 48-yard kick later in the third quarter, Brees and the Saints got the ball back and engineered a nine-play, 74-yard drive that ended with a 17-yard connection where WR Willie Snead IV made a jumping grab in the end zone to tie the score. When the Giants got the ball back, they advanced to the one-yard line, but the Saints defense stopped them on two straight run plays and a pass attempt, forcing a 19-yard field goal. Lutz later tied the score at 13-apiece with a 45-yard kick. Following the field goal, the Giants got the ball back with 2:54 remaining at their 25-yard line. Manning completed a pass for a 34-yard gain to Cruz at the Saints-two yard line and the Giants would milk the clock until there were two seconds left and Brown drilled a 23-yard field goal to secure the home-opening victory for the Giants.

WEEK 3: Atlanta Falcons 45, Saints 32; September 26, 2016 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – New Orleans' season continued to get off to a rocky start as they fell to the Falcons on a Monday Night Football contest at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

The Saints scored first in the contest on their first drive on a two-yard touchdown pass from QB Drew Brees to TE Coby Fleener. The New Orleans defense then got off to a solid start when a three-and-out was forced, capped by a sack by DT Nick Fairley and DE Cameron Jordan on third down. However, the Falcons would get the ball back on a fumble on the punt play and three plays later, RB Tevin Coleman tied the score on a two-yard touchdown run.

The rushing TD would be the start of an offensive onslaught for Atlanta as it would mark the first of five-consecutive offensive TDs on a performance where the Falcons would rush for 217 yards, the highest total against the Saints since 2014. Atlanta added a 90-yard interception return for a TD by Falcons LB Deion Jones.

Brees completed 36-of-54 passes for 376 yards with three touchdown passes. Fleener led the team in receiving yardage with seven grabs for 109 yards, including the first quarter touchdown grab. It was the first 100-yard performance of his Saints career and the fourth of his career. RB Mark Ingram had his most productive performance of the season when he carried 15 times for 77 yards and rushed for a two-point conversion and also caught four passes for 30 yards, including the first touchdown reception of his career.

Falcons QB Matt Ryan completed 20-of-30 passes for 240 yards with two TDs and a 113.2 quarterback rating. RB Devonta Freeman had 207 total yards from scrimmage, rushing for 152 and catching 55 more on five passes, as he led the Falcons in both rushing and receiving.

WEEK 4: New Orleans Saints 35, San Diego Chargers 34; October 2, 2016 @ Qualcomm Stadium – The Saints took their first win of the season at San Diego, battling to a 35-34 victory that saw New Orleans gain three takeaways in the last 6:50 of the contest, resulting in 14 points that helped them really from a 13-point deficit.

New Orleans started off fast as QB Drew Brees, in his first game at the Chargers since playing for them from 2001-05, engineered an 11-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a one-yard TD run by RB Mark Ingram. The two clubs then traded punts, but on San Diego's final possession of the first quarter, QB Philip Rivers completed a 20-yard touchdown to TE Hunter Henry to tie the score.

The Saints got the ball back and in a drive that ran into the second quarter, New Orleans advanced 75 yards in 14 plays, ending with a four-yard touchdown pass from Brees to FB John Kuhn. But the New Orleans defense would then struggle on a 57-yard completion for a touchdown from Rivers to WR Dontrelle Inman two plays later to tie the score and the Chargers took advantage of a Brees interception and a costly defensive offside penalty to score 10 more points and go into halftime with a 24-14 lead.

In the start to the second half, after forcing San Diego to punt for the first time since their first possession of the contest, New Orleans took advantage of field position starting at the San Diego 48-yard line and Kuhn punched in a one-yard touchdown to put the Saints back within three.

At the start of the fourth quarter, a defensive holding penalty assessed to New Orleans S Vonn Bell put the Chargers at the New Orleans one, allowing RB Melvin Gordon to run for a one-yard TD. Brees then tossed an interception two plays later that was returned to the New Orleans 26-yard line. However, the New Orleans defense held the Chargers to a field goal, giving them only a 13-point lead after DE Cameron Jordan sacked Rivers on third down. After an unsuccessful New Orleans drive, San Diego got the ball back, but Bell forced Gordon to cough up the ball, which was recovered by DE Darryl Tapp at the San Diego 13-yard line. Following three running plays, Brees completed a five-yard TD to WR Michael Thomas to put New Orleans within six with 4:50 to play on fourth down. When the Chargers got the ball back, WR Travis Benjamin fumbled on the first play and the ball was picked up by LB Nate Stupar at the SD 31-yard line.

New Orleans first advanced to the Chargers 21-yard line on a nine-yard rush and on third-and-one a nine-yard completion from Brees to WR Tommy Lee Lewis put the Saints at the 13. After converting another first down, Kuhn punched the ball in from the one-yard line with his third TD and on the ensuing drive, a sack by DT Nick Fairley and interception by CB B.W. Webb extinguished San Diego's comeback hopes.

WEEK 6: Saints 41, Carolina Panthers 38; October 16, 2016 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – The Saints behind QB Drew Brees, WR Brandin Cooks and the number two ranked offense and scoring unit in the NFL, beat the Panthers, 41-38 in a shootout where New Orleans got the final edge on a 52-yard field goal by K Wil Lutz at a sold-out Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

New Orleans got the ball first and Brees drove the Saints down the field in a 12-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a two-yard TD run by TE Coby Fleener on fourth-and-one. Late in the second quarter, Brees completed a pass to Cooks that the speedy wideout converted into an 87-yard TD, the second-longest passing play of the 2016 season across the NFL, as well as the sixth-longest passing play in franchise history.

CONTINUED - Week Six

On New Orleans' next possession, Brees found WR Michael Thomas for a nine-yard touchdown with 13:47 left in the first half. After the Panthers got to within 21-10, Lutz hit a 33-yard field goal near the end of the first half to give the Saints a 24-10 halftime lead.

Midway through the third quarter, Panthers QB Cam Newton completed a one-yard pass to TE Ed Dickson to put the Panthers within seven. But on the next drive, Brees threw his third touchdown pass, a 50-yard connection with Fleener.

Carolina scored two touchdowns at the start of the fourth quarter, but missed the extra point following their second score, allowing New Orleans to hold onto a 31-30 lead. New Orleans upped the lead back to 38-30 on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Brees to TE Josh Hill, but the Panthers tied the score late on a two-yard Newton touchdown run and a successful two-point conversion. When New Orleans got the ball back, Brees led the Saints on an 11-play, 41-yard drive that ended with Lutz's successful kick. Brees finished the game 34-of-49 for 465 yards with four touchdowns and a 118.2 rating and Cooks had seven grabs for a career-high 173 yards with the scoring grab.

WEEK 7: Kansas City Chiefs 27, Saints 21; October 23, 2016 @ Arrowhead Stadium- New Orleans dropped to 2-4 as a comeback from a third quarter 21-7 deficit fell short with a 27-21 final at Arrowhead Stadium, snapping a two-game win streak.

Getting the Chiefs defense off the field quickly, New Orleans scored on their opening drive for the club-record fourth consecutive contest, as QB Drew Brees drove New Orleans down the field on a 10-play, 80-yard drive, ending with a nine-yard TD pass to WR Brandin Cooks.

The Chiefs would answer quickly with a touchdown of their own as RB Spencer Ware would take an Alex Smith screen pass 46 yards for a touchdown. The Chiefs would score again after S Daniel Sorensen returned a Brees interception that was tipped 48 yards for a touchdown. After a Saints punt, the Chiefs would add a quick score on a 38-yard touchdown pass from Smith to Tyreek Hill.

Down 21-7 coming out of halftime, the Saints fought back with a 75-yard drive, capping it with a three-yard TD pass from Brees to RB Mark Ingram to pull within seven. The Saints defense would force a punt and a 39-yard Cairo

Santos field goal making it 24-14 with 3:26 to play in the third, but after an Ingram fumble at the Kansas City 13-yard line midway through the fourth quarter, time was at a premium for the Saints. After a defensive stop, Brees threw a 10-yard TD pass to WR Brandon Coleman to pull within a field goal with 2:33 left in the fourth quarter to cut Kansas City's lead to 24-21. After an unsuccessful onside kick and being hurt by a personal foul penalty assessed to DT Nick Fairley, the best the Saints could do would be to hold the Chiefs to a 41-yard field goal by Santos, extending the lead to 27-21. With 28 seconds remaining, the Saints started their last drive at their 25-yard line and would fall short after making it to midfield as time expired.

WEEK 8: Saints 25, Seattle Seahawks 20; October 30, 2016 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – The Saints snapped the Seahawks' four-game unbeaten streak and improved to 3-4 following a 25-20 victory last Sunday at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

After the Saints and Seahawks traded punts to start the contest, RB Mark Ingram fumbled the ball on New Orleans' second offensive series and it was picked up by Seattle S Earl Thomas at the Saints 34-yard line and returned it for a touchdown. New Orleans finally started to find their groove offensively with a 15-play, 83-yard drive that featured two key third down conversions in New Orleans territory and ended with a 22-yard field goal by K Wil Lutz. The Seahawks took a 14-3 lead with 9:53 remaining in the second quarter on a two-yard rushing touchdown by RB Christine Michael. The Saints would move within one at the end of the first half when Lutz booted a 53-yard field goal and QB Drew Brees ran a one-yard quarterback sneak for a touchdown.

Getting the ball coming out of the second half, the Seahawks extended their lead to 17-13 on a 44-yard field goal by K Steven Hauschka, when they put together an 11-play, 49-yard drive, keyed by 31 rushing yards by Michael on five carries. The Saints responded with an 11-play, 74-yard drive that ended with a 21-yard field goal by Lutz. The key play came on a 38-yard completion from Brees to WR Brandon Coleman, coming on a flea flicker play which put the Saints in field goal range. After the New Orleans defense then forced a three-and-out, New Orleans got their first lead with 12:24 left in the contest on a two-yard touchdown from Brees to WR Brandin Cooks, capping a nine-play, 71-yard drive, where the signal-caller completed four-of-four passes, totaling 30 yards with a 28-yard rush by RB Tim Hightower mixed in.

CONTINUED - Week Eight

On the next drive, New Orleans would allow the Seahawks to advance as far as their three-yard line, but kept the Seahawks out of the end zone, forcing a 21-yard Hauschka field goal and keeping a 22-20 lead.

New Orleans then got the ball back with 6:38 left in the contest and on a key third-and-five play from the Seattle 44-yard line, Brees connected on a 20-yard completion to Cooks in the middle of the field that would help set up a 41-yard field goal by Lutz, his fourth of the game, extending New Orleans' lead to 25-20 with 1:57 left. On their final drive, Seattle would advance to the New Orleans 10-yard line, with Seahawks QB Russell Wilson keeping his team's hopes alive with a third-and-six completion to WR Doug Baldwin for a 27-yard gain. The Saints were not done from a defensive standpoint though as they successfully kept the Seahawks out of the end zone, as Seattle WR Jermaine Kearse failed to make a tough catch in the back of the end zone as time expired.

New Orleans failed to reach 400 yards of offense after outputs of 523 yards and 463 yards in the past two contests, but a balanced offensive approach of 35 passes and 35 runs proved to be successful as a team scored on Seattle's traditionally stingy defense on six-consecutive offensive possessions for the first time since December 27, 2009. Brees completed 27-of-35 passes for 265 yards with one touchdown, no interceptions and a 107.4 passer rating. Hightower carried 26 times for 102 yards as a Saint reached the century mark for the first time this season. It marked the sixth 100-yard rushing game of Hightower's career and second as a Saint. He fell just two carries short of matching the career-high 28 attempts he set as a Saint last season at Tampa Bay on Dec. 13, 2015.

Cooks caught four passes for 44 yards with the touchdown, while fellow WRs Willie Snead IV and Michael Thomas had six grabs apiece. LB Nate Stupar had his first-career interception, picking off Wilson in the second quarter. Lutz was four-for-four on field goal attempts, including a 53-yard conversion in the second quarter, marking his third make of 50-plus yards this season, one shy of the franchise record in a season. He also became the first Saints kicker to make four field goals in a contest since K Zach Hocker converted on four attempts at Arizona on Sept. 13, 2015.

Week 9: Saints 41, San Francisco 49ers 23; November 6, 2016 @ Levi's Stadium— The Saints continued to stay hot beating the San Francisco 49ers 41-23 using a dominant and balanced offensive attack.

After an opening drive punt for the Saints, San Francisco would strike first, with K Phil Dawson drilling a 49-yard field goal to take an early 3-0 lead. New Orleans would respond with a scoring drive of their own as RB Tim Hightower would cap a 10-play, 83-yard drive with a four-yard touchdown run to put the Saints ahead 7-3. The Saints would get the ball back quickly thanks to LB Craig Robertson interception of QB Colin Kaepernick. QB Drew Brees and the offense would capitalize quickly with Brees finding WR Michael Thomas for a one-yard touchdown. After a defensive stop on a fourth-and-one, New Orleans would again put points on the board, this time on a RB Mark Ingram five-yard touchdown reception.

However, the 49ers would answer quickly with Kaepernick connecting with RB DuJuan Harris on a 47-yard screen pass for the touchdown, bringing the score to 21-10. The prolific first half scoring would continue for the Saints as Ingram would burst through for a career-long 75-yard touchdown run giving New Orleans a commanding 28-10 lead. The 49ers would chip away at the Saints lead with Dawson converting on a 48-yard field goal. Following a Saints three-and-out, Kaepernick would find TE Vance McDonald for a 65-yard score, making it a one score game at 28-20. With 1:16 remaining in the opening half, Brees and company drove 71 yards, setting K Wil Lutz up for a 26-yard field goal to give them a 31-20 halftime lead.

After the 49ers drove 60 yards on the opening second half drive, Saints LB Nate Stupar forced a fumble of RB Mike Davis, with Stupar recovering the fumble at the New Orleans one-yard line. After the Saints were unable to capitalize on the turnover, San Francisco would add a 46-yard field goal by Dawson making it 31-23. Following a missed field goal by Lutz and a punt by San Francisco, the Saints found the end zone on a 32-yard pass from Brees to Thomas, his second scoring grab of the game. The Saints defense continued their second half resurgence when S Kenny Vaccaro recovered a Kaepernick fumble at the New Orleans eight-yard line. On San Francisco's final drive, Vaccaro forced a fumble of Harris that would be recovered by S Vonn Bell, capping a season-best +4 turnover differential for the game.

GAME SUMMARIES

Week 10: Denver Broncos 25, Saints 23; November 13, 2016 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – New Orleans was unable to take advantage of productive defensive showing as a blocked PAT attempt returned for a two-point conversion would drop the Saints to 4-5 on the season. The return for the two-point conversion was only the third such return since the rule change prior to the 2015 season and first ever against New Orleans.

After New Orleans' opening drive stalled at midfield, the Broncos would get on the scoreboard first with QB Trevor Siemian finding WR Jordan Taylor for the 14-yard score, capping a 13-play, 85-yard drive that spanned 7:15. The Saints offense continued to sputter, as on the following drive, S Darian Stewart intercepted QB Drew Brees at the Denver seven-yard line. Following a defensive stop, Brees would again be intercepted by Stewart, this time at midfield, with Stewart returning it to the New Orleans 39-yard line. K Brandon McManus would connect on a 50-yard field goal to extend the Broncos lead to 10-0.

Momentum would shift near the end of the first half when CB Sterling Moore would intercept Siemian at the Saints 38-yard line, giving New Orleans an opportunity to score before the half. The Saints would capitalize on the misstep with Brees moving the offense 50 yards in five plays to set up K Wil Lutz for the 30-yard field goal, bringing the score to 10-3 at the half.

New Orleans would carry this momentum into the second half, with Brees engineering a seven-play, 90-yard drive that culminated in a three-yard touchdown grab by WR Willie Snead IV. Following an interception by S Kenny Vaccaro, the Saints offense would again go to work, going on a four-play, 38-yard drive that ended with another Snead IV touchdown, giving the Saints their first lead of the game at 17-10.

After a fourth quarter that saw two fumbles by WR Michael Thomas that each led to Broncos field goals, New Orleans would get the ball back with 2:50 remaining in the game down 17-23. On second-and-10, Brees would find WR Brandin Cooks for a 29-yard gain, giving the Saints a first down at the Broncos 46-yard line. Brees and Cooks would again connect on an incredible end-zone game-tying 32-yard touchdown. However, on the ensuing PAT attempt, S Justin Simmons blocked the kick, which would be recovered by S Will Parks and returned 68 yards for the two-point conversion to win the game for the Broncos.

Week 11: Carolina Panthers 23, Saints 20; November 17, 2016 @ Bank of America – New Orleans was unable to overcome a slow start as a 17-point fourth quarter output wasn't enough to claim the victory on the road in Carolina on a short week.

New Orleans would make a costly mistake early as on their first offensive possession, QB Drew Brees was sacked on a fumbled, giving the Panthers possession at the New Orleans 32-yard line. Carolina would turn this early turnover into a 32-yard K Graham Gano field goal as the Saints defense held on to limit the Panthers to just three points. On their next series, the Saints offense would gain some traction, going 71 yards in 14 plays, leading to a K Wil Lutz 27-yard field goal to even the score at three apiece.

In the second quarter, the Saints offense would commit another costly mistake as Brees was intercepted by S Kurt Coleman on a pass intended for TE Coby Fleener. Carolina would make them pay when RB Jonathan Stewart scored from one-yard out to put Carolina up 10-3. After another Saints three-and-out, the Panthers would add on another Gano field goal, extending their lead to 13-3.

With 2:50 remaining in the first half, New Orleans would get the ball back, with Brees leading the Saints to the Carolina 20-yard line. In a game-changing set of events, the 38-yard field goal attempt by Lutz was blocked by DT Vernon Butler and returned 88 yards by LB Luke Kuechly, much of it being nullified on a Panthers block in the back. Getting the ball on the New Orleans 40-yard line on the ensuing play, QB Cam Newton connected with WR Ted Ginn Jr. for a 40-yard touchdown, a play that was initially ruled out but overturned for a score on review. Carolina would go to the locker room enjoying a 20-23 advantage.

Carolina would add to their lead on the opening possession of the second half, with Newton leading the offense on a 14-play, 51-yard drive that ended in a Gano 42-yard field goal. The New Orleans offense would get things going on their ensuing possession, as a 58-yard drive that spanned 16 plays would end on a 30-yard field goal by Lutz. After forcing a Panthers three-and-out, New Orleans would once again get on the board, this time on a nine-yard touchdown strike from Brees to WR Brandon Coleman. Following two more Carolina three-and-outs, Brees would lead New Orleans on a 13-play, 76-yard drive, ultimately finding Fleener for the eight-yard score and cutting the Panthers lead to 23-20.

New Orleans would run out of time as Newton would find WR Kelvin Benjamin for 18 yards on a key third down to ice the game.

GAME SUMMARIES

Week 12: Saints 49, Los Angeles Rams 21; November 27, 2016 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – New Orleans turned in one of its most productive outings offensively as they used a balanced attack to overwhelm a Los Angeles Rams defense that came into the game allowing the sixth-lowest amount of points across the NFL. The 49-point output was New Orleans' highest of the 2016 season thus far.

However Los Angeles would strike first as QB Jared Goff, making his second-career start and first on the road, led the Rams offense on a six-play, 75 yard drive ending in a WR Tavon Austin 24-yard touchdown grab. After trading punts with Los Angeles, New Orleans would get on the board with QB Drew Brees throwing his first of four touchdown passes, this one to WR Brandon Coleman for the three-yard score. On the ensuing Saints possession however, Brees would be sack by DT Aaron Donald causing a fumble that would put the Rams offense on the New Orleans six-yard line. WR Kenny Britt would catch a six-yard touchdown on the next play giving the Rams the early 14-7 lead.

RB Mark Ingram, who would have his most productive game of the season thus far, would run it in from 10 yards out on fourth-and-one on the next Saints possession, capping a nine-play, 75-yard drive that would even the score at 14-14. On the next Rams possession, DT Sheldon Rankins made his most impactful play of 2016, sacking Goff and causing a fumble that would be recovered by DE Paul Kruger at the Los Angeles 10-yard line. On fourth-and-one, Brees would QB sneak it for the score, giving the Saints a lead they would not relinquish.

After forcing a Rams three-and-out, Brees would lead the Saints offense on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that would end with a WR Michael Thomas six-yard touchdown. However, Los Angeles would answer before the half as Goff would find TE Lance Kendricks for a 15-yard touchdown that would bring the score to 28-21 at the half.

In the second half, the New Orleans defense would turn in its most dominating half of football as the Rams offense would be held scoreless. Opening the Saints scoring in the second half was Ingram, who caught a 21-yard touchdown, followed by Thomas' second touchdown catch of the day, bringing the score to 42-21. At the start of the fourth quarter, the Saints offense would add some trickery as WR Willie Snead IV would throw a 50-yard touchdown to RB Tim Hightower, extending the New Orleans lead to 49-21.

Week 13: Detroit Lions 28, Saints 13; December 4, 2016 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – New Orleans was unable to recover from a sluggish start and failed to gain ground on their NFC South foes in the race for the division crown as they fell to the visiting Detroit Lions at home for the second-consecutive season. The Saints offense would be out of sync early as on their first offensive possession, QB Drew Brees would fumble the snap on third-and-one, the first of several key third-and-one struggles on the day.

Starting their opening drive near midfield, the Lions offense would get on the board early with New Orleans limiting them to a field goal. After a nine-play drive that spanned 44 yards, K Matt Prater connected from 27-yards out to give the Lions the 3-0 lead. On the ensuing possession, the Saints drive would again stall on third-and-one with RB Tim Hightower being stopped for no gain on the New Orleans 47-yard line. Starting their next drive on their own eight-yard line, QB Matthew Stafford would orchestrate an 11-play, 92-yard drive ending with a one-yard touchdown pass to RB Theo Riddick to put Detroit up 10-0.

After trading punts, the New Orleans offense would get going. Starting at the Detroit 48-yard line, RB Mark Ingram would gain 22 yards to the Lions 21-yard line. After a holding call assessed to LG Senio Kelemete, the Saints drive would stall, with K Wil Lutz converting from 40-yards out to make the score 10-3. After CB Sterling Moore nearly picked off Stafford, as well as a defensive pass interference call assessed to CB Delvin Breaux on third-and-three, the Lions were able to convert another field goal, extending their lead to 13-3. However, with :56 remaining, Brees would drive the Saints to the Detroit 14-yard line thanks to a 39-yard connection between Brees and WR Brandin Cooks. Lutz would connect on the 32-yard field goal making it 13-6 before halftime.

Detroit would begin the second half with a 10-play, 63-yard drive that ended on another Prater field goal, this time from 32-yards out. The drive was aided by a 36-yard strike from Stafford to WR T.J. Jones. On the next Saints drive, Brees would throw his first of three interceptions, with S Glover Quin picking off Brees at the Detroit 46-yard line. Following another Lions field goal, Brees would find TE Coby Fleener for 31 yards and then WR Michael Thomas for 16 yards. FB John Kuhn would score from one-yard out, bringing the Saints within six points at 13-19.

However, on the next Lions drive, Stafford found a wide open WR Golden Tate for a 66-yard touchdown, extending the Detroit lead to 25-13. After struggling to get anything going on their next offensive possession, the Saints defense was unable to hold as Detroit would ice the game with a Prater 52-yard field goal.

Completed 28-of-36 passes for 310 yards, four touchdowns and a 139.6 passer rating with zero interceptions. His 139.6 passer rating was his highest of 2016 and highest since he posted a passer rating of 140.0 on Nov. 30, 2014 at Pittsburgh.

NFC OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

FedEx GROUND PLAYER OF THE WEEK

WEEK 12: RB Mark Ingram

New Orleans Saints 49, Los Angeles Rams 21 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome, Nov. 27, 2016

Rushed for 146 yards on 14 carries, recording his eighth-career 100-yard rushing game and second of 2016. Added a 21-yard touchdown reception, his fourth-career touchdown grab. It was his fifth-career multiple touchdown game and second this season. Moved past Chuck Muncie and Pierre Thomas for sole possession of third place on the club's all-time rushing touchdown list.

MAKING A RUN FOR IT

On Nov. 6 at San Francisco, New Orleans rushed for 248 yards, the most they've rushed for in a game in 2016 and most they've rushed for in a game since they rushed for 249 yards at Cincinnati on Nov. 4, 1990. It was the 10th-highest rushing total in franchise history. This resurgence in the running game has New Orleans ranked fifth in the NFL in rushing yards per game since Oct. 23. Over this time, they have rushed for at least 100 yards rushing in five-of-seven contests. They've rushed for over 200 yards twice.

TEAM NOTES

ROSTER ROLL CALL

Of the 53 players on the current Saints roster, 28 were on the active roster, a reserve list or the practice squad at the end of the 2015 season. Among newcomers, the roster includes five unrestricted free agents, eight veteran free agents, five draft picks, six rookie free agents and one veteran claimed off of waivers.

Of the 53 players, 29 have less than four years of previous NFL experience, including 11 who are in their first NFL season. Below is a breakdown of the Saints roster by years of experience (year entering): 16 years-1, 13 years-1, 11 years-5, 8 years-7, 7 years-1, 6 years-5, 5 years-4, 4 years-8, 3 years-2, 2 years-7, rookies-11.

HIGHER EDUCATION

44 colleges and universities are represented on the Saints' 53-man roster. Of that total, eight are represented by multiple Saints, three from Southern Methodist, and two apiece from Alabama, California, Colorado, Ohio State, Oregon, Stanford and Texas.

MY HOMETOWN

Saints players come from 20 different states, Washington D.C., Germany and Nigeria. Of the 53 players currently on the team's active roster, the state which claims the most members of the team is Texas with 10 (quarterbacks Drew Brees and Luke McCown, long snapper Justin Drescher, defensive back De'Vante Harris, running back Daniel Lasco, running back, return specialist Marcus Murphy, punter Thomas Morstead, linebacker Craig Robertson and safeties Kenny Vaccaro and Chris Banjo).

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

A spot on the practice squad is another avenue to get onto the active roster and have the opportunity to contribute. New Orleans has 11 players on their current 53-man roster who moved up after being on a practice squad before being promoted. Below is an overview of these players with extensive practice squad experience.

S Chris Banjo joined the Saints in Week 11 after beginning the 2016 season with the Green Bay Packers, in order to provide depth at the safety position while playing a role on special teams. Over 40 career games, the Sugar Land, Texas native has registered 19 tackles (16 solo), two passes defended and 38 special teams stops. Over three games played for the Saints, he has posted two special teams tackles.

WR Brandon Coleman was signed by New Orleans out of Rutgers following the 2014 NFL Draft. Coleman spent the majority of his rookie campaign on the practice squad before being elevated to the active roster for the regular season finale. Coleman won a roster spot on the 2015 opening day roster, making 30 receptions for 454 yards (15.4 avg.) with two TD grabs. He has played in 12 games in 2016 (two starts), catching 20 passes for 226 yards and a career-high three TDs with one special teams stop.

An eight-year NFL veteran, T Tony Hills has persevered on three practice squads and after starting the 2015 season on the Baltimore practice roster, the former University of Texas standout was signed to the Saints active roster. Now in his second season with New Orleans, Hills has appeared in nine games, seeing extensive time at left tackle on Oct. 16 against Carolina in place of an injured Peat.

G/C Senio Kelemete participated on the Saints practice squad in 2013 after spending the 2012 campaign on the Arizona Cardinals active roster. In 2015, he started three games at right guard, one at left guard and started the season's final contest against Atlanta at left tackle. It was his first career start at the position. In 2016, he has played in 11 contests with six starts, last starting at LG vs. Detroit on Dec. 4.

Originally added to the Texans practice squad after being drafted by Houston in 2011, S Shiloh Keo has played in 53 career games (11 starts) and six postseason contests (one start) with Houston (2011-13) and Denver (2015). He has totaled 68 tackles, three INTs and eight passes defended, with 25 special teams stops. Over four games with New Orleans in 2016, he has posted four special teams stops.

Originally signed as an undrafted free agent out of Shippensburg University by the Pittsburgh Steelers following the 2005 NFL Draft, FB John Kuhn would begin his NFL career on the practice squad of the Steelers from 2005-06, before being elevated to the Steelers active roster. In 2016, he has rushed 15 times for 33 yards with four touchdowns and has added 12 catches for 59 yards with one TD over 12 games played with two starts.

Signed as an undrafted free agent out of Ferris State in 2016, WR Jake Lampman spent the first five weeks of the season on the team's practice squad, before he was signed to the active roster in Week Six. Over five games played in his rookie campaign, he has recorded six special teams stops.

Initially signed to the Cleveland Browns practice squad after competing on a tryout basis during his rookie season in 2011, the versatile LB Craig Robertson would seize this opportunity, making the 53-man roster the following season. In 2016 over 12 starts, he has posted 113 tackles (86 solo), one sack, one interception, one fumble recovery, five passes defended and three special teams stops.

WR Willie Snead IV first entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with Cleveland in 2014 out of Ball State.

Appearing in 15 games last season, including eight starts, Snead made 69 receptions for 984 yards (14.3 avg.) and three TDs. In 11 games with three starts in 2016, he has recorded 53 receptions for 631 yards and four touchdowns. On Nov. 27 vs. Los Angeles, he completed his first NFL pass attempt, a 50-yard touchdown to RB Tim Hightower.

LB Nate Stupar came to the NFL as a seventh-round draft pick of the Raiders in the 2012 NFL Draft (230th overall), later signing to their practice squad. The former Penn State standout would also spend time on the practice squads of the Eagles and 49ers. In 2016, he has played in 12 contests with five starts and has posted 48 tackles (32 solo), one sack, one INT, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, two passes defended and eight special teams stops.

CB B.W. Webb joined the Saints in Week Two of the 2016 season after previous stints with the Tennessee Titans (2015), Pittsburgh Steelers (2014) and Dallas Cowboys (2013). Originally drafted by the Cowboys in the fourth round (114th overall) of the 2013 NFL Draft, this fourth-year cornerback has tallied 18 tackles (14 solo), one interception, a team-best 11 passes defended and one special teams stop over 10 games with four starts for New Orleans in 2016

BUCKING THE ODDS

Players whose names are not called in the NFL Draft each spring face challenging odds in sticking on a team, with every snap or drill in OTAs, minicamps and training camp under evaluation. Yet the current 2016 53-man roster features 18 undrafted players who bucked the odds, seven of whom started at least one contest for the Saints prior to this season. Undrafted players on the current Saints 53-man roster with NFL experience include Banjo, CB Delvin Breaux, RB Travaris Cadet, Coleman, LS Justin Drescher, DE Kasim Edeballi, LB Dannell Ellerbe, TE

Josh Hill, G Tim Lelito, CB Sterling Moore, Robertson and Snead IV.

A New Orleans native who suffered a serious neck injury as a high school senior at McDonogh 35 that did not allow him to play football at LSU where he was committed, the persistent Breaux took a route through the GDFL, the AFL and the CFL. Going on to start all 16 contests in 2015, Breaux finished with 49 tackles (38 solo), a team-high three INTs, 23 passes defended and one fumble recovery. Breaux was voted by his teammates as the club's 2015 Ed Block Courage Award winner. On Nov. 6 against the 49ers, he returned from a six game absence due to a broken fibula. He has made 20 tackles (16 solo) over five starts in 2016.

Signed out of Appalachian State, Cadet has played in 59 career games (three starts) and has carried for 69 yards on 24 attempts, made 88 receptions for 746 yards with four TDs and returned 63 kickoffs for 1,531 yards (24.3 avg.). Over 11 games played with one start in 2016, he has rushed twice for four yards, caught 26 passes for 187 yards with one TD and returned 10 kicks for 144 yards (14.4 avg.), also adding three special teams stops.

Signed as an undrafted free agent out of the University of Colorado in 2010 by Atlanta and picked up by New Orleans at midseason, Drescher has handled long-snapping duties for 98 consecutive games, adding four special teams stops.

A Hamburg, Germany native who started playing football in middle school prior to further developing his skills in prep school in New Hampshire, Edeballi was signed following the 2014 NFL Draft out of Boston College and in two seasons has played in all 44 games with two starts. In 2016, he has seen action in all 12 games with one start and has totaled 11 tackles (seven solo), one sack, three passes defended and four special teams stops.

Signed as an undrafted free agent by Baltimore out of Georgia in 2009, Ellerbe has appeared in 73 games with 39 starts, posting totals of 371 tackles (268 solo), 10.5 sacks, three INTs, 14 passes defended, a forced fumble, four fumble recoveries, 18 special teams stops and a coverage forced fumble. Over five starts in 2016, he has posted 33 tackles (19 solo), four sacks and one pass defended.

A 2013 undrafted free agent signing by New Orleans out of Idaho State, Hill has played in 55 career games with 21 starts and has posted 51 catches for 489 yards (9.6 avg.) with nine TDs and 27 special teams stops. In 2016, he has caught 15 passes for 149 yards with one TD over nine games played with eight starts. On Nov. 27 vs. the Rams, he recorded a career-high six receptions for a career-best 74 yards, including a long-reception of 35 yards.

Signed as a free agent out of Grand Valley State in 2013, Lelito has appeared in 59 regular season contests and two playoff games over his four-year career while making 20 starts. He has played in 12 games with five starts in 2016.

Moore comes to New Orleans after spending the 2016 offseason and preseason with Buffalo and the 2015 campaign with Tampa Bay. The 5-10, 202-pound Southern Methodist product has started 27-of-65 career games while accumulating 160 tackles, six interceptions, 35 passes defended, seven forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. Over nine games played in 2016 (eight starts), he has registered 36 tackles (29 solo), two interceptions, 10 passes defended and one forced fumble.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

A DECADE OF SUCCESS

Since 2006, the New Orleans Saints offense has ranked among the league's top 10 each season, becoming just the third team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to post at least 10 consecutive seasons of ranking in the top 10. Below are the offenses with the most consecutive top 10 seasons:

CONSECUTIVE SEASONS FINISHING IN TOP 10 IN OFFENSE SINCE 1970

Ahead is a synopsis of several returning players and newcomers through the draft, free agency and trade to the 2016 Saints offensive line:

LT Terron Armstead - The club's first third round draft choice in 2013 out of Arkansas-Pine Bluff, Armstead impressed scouts by running the fastest 40-yard dash time (4.71) by an offensive lineman in the history of the NFL Scouting Combine. He has opened 35 regular season games and two postseason contests for New Orleans. In 2016, he has opened six games at left tackle, missing six contests due to a knee injury.

G Jahri Evans - The 2006 fourth round draft choice made a rapid ascent from his small school roots at Bloomsburg into one of the NFL's top interior linemen and the top guard in team history. Evans's been named to six Pro Bowls since 2009, as well as being named an AP first-team All-Pro selection from 2009-12 and a second-team selection in 2013. Overall, Evans has started 165 contests at right guard for New Orleans, the ninth-highest total for games played in team record books. In 2016, he has opened all 12 games at right guard.

C/G Senio Kelemete - Originally a fifth round selection of the Arizona Cardinals (151st overall) in the 2012 NFL Draft, since first joining the New Orleans practice squad at the start of the 2013 season, this fourth-year offensive lineman has displayed the versatility to play every position on the offensive line. The 6-foot-3, 300-pounder played in all 16 games for the first time in his career in 2015 and opened five games, including contests at both guard positions and at right tackle. He has appeared in 11 games in 2016 with six starts, last starting at LG vs. Detroit on Dec. 4.

G Tim Lelito - Originally signed as an undrafted free agent out of Grand Valley State in 2013, this lineman proved the jump was not too big from Division II to the NFL as he's started at all three interior positions. In 2015, Lelito won the starting left guard slot in the preseason, but ended up seeing significant action at both guard spots. He opened 11 contests at left guard and two at right guard. He has appeared in all 12 games in 2016 (five starts).

T Andrus Peat - A first round selection (13th overall) in the 2015 NFL Draft out of Stanford, Peat was considered one of the top college offensive linemen in 2014. In his rookie campaign, Peat saw action in 12 contests with eight starts, being inserted into several offensive packages, including two starts at left tackle in place of an injured Armstead. In 2016, he has started 11 contests, opening five games at left guard, while making six starts at left tackle in place of an injured Armstead.

RT Zach Strief - This 2006 seventh round pick out of Northwestern has appeared in 152 regular season games with 88 starts and played in 10 postseason contests, four which he has opened. He has become even more durable with age, appearing in and starting 42 consecutive postseason and regular season contests at his right tackle position, before missing last season's Week 16 contest against Jacksonville with an elbow injury. He has made all 12 starts at right tackle in 2016.

C Max Unger - After being acquired by the Saints via trade at the start of the 2015 offseason, Max Unger anchored the middle of the New Orleans line, including being the lone offensive linemen to open all 16 contests. Originally a second round draft pick of the Seahawks in 2009, Unger has been named a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press in 2012 and is a two-time Pro Bowler, helping the Seahawks to two Super Bowl appearances and a victory in Super Bowl XLVIII. For the 2016 season, he was voted one of two offensive team captains. Unger has opened all 95 games he has played in since 2009, including all 12 in 2016.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

DEFENSIVE DRAFT

Over the last two NFL Drafts, New Orleans has shown a commitment to improving the defense, with five players selected over the last two drafts on the current Saints 53-man roster. Below is an overview of these five players:

LB Stephone Anthony, Clemson (D1b-15) - In his rookie campaign, Anthony started all 16 games at middle linebacker and led the team with a club rookie record 144 tackles (99 solo), while adding one sack, one interception, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery, one defensive touchdown, one defensive two-point conversion off of a blocked PAT attempt, five passes defended and one special teams stop. His total stops led NFL rookies and he was a consensus All-Rookie selection. In the club's Week 13 game vs. Carolina, he took a blocked PAT kick attempt back 82 yards for the two-point conversion, marking the first time in NFL history that a blocked PAT kick attempt led to a two-point conversion since the rule change before the 2015 season. In nine games played with two starts in 2016, he has posted eight tackles (six solo), including one tackle for loss and three special teams stops.

S Vonn Bell, Ohio State (D2b-16) - Selected by New Orleans in the second round (61st overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft, Bell was a consensus All-American and one of the top rated defensive backs in the NFL Draft. As a senior, the Rossville, Ga. native was a Jim Thorpe Award semifinalist after recording 65 tackles and adding two interceptions, one brought back for a TD, one fumble recovery and 11 passes defended. He started 28 games his final two years at Ohio State, and posted career totals of nine interceptions, 176 stops, 24 passes defended, two fumble recoveries and four tackles behind the line of scrimmage. Over 12 games played with nine starts in his rookie campaign, he has recorded 66 tackles (40 solo), one half sack, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery, four passes defended and five special teams stops.

DT Tyeler Davison, Fresno State (D5b-15) - This run-stopping widebody defensive lineman played in 53 career games at Fresno State and made 28.5 stops for a loss and 14.5 sacks. In 2015, Davison played 16 games (five starts), finishing his rookie campaign with 26 tackles (15 solo) and 1.5 sacks. In 11 games played in 2016, all starts, he has totaled 23 tackles (12 solo) and one pass defended.

DL David Onyemata (D4-16) - Possessing a unique combination of size and speed, this Lagos, Nigeria native turned in a productive college career north of the border at the University of Manitoba, as the first member of the Bisons program to be drafted. In 37 career games, he posted 166 tackles, 9.5 sacks, two passes defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. Over 12 games played in 2016, he has tallied 21 tackles (nine solo).

DT Sheldon Rankins - Drafted by New Orleans 12th overall in the 2016 NFL Draft out of Louisville, Rankins played in 46 games along the defensive line at Louisville, producing 133 tackles (72 solo), 31.5 tackles for loss and 18 sacks during his collegiate career. A two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection, Rankins racked up a career-high 58 tackles, 13 tackles for loss, six sacks, one pass defended and one fumble recovery returned 46 yards for a touchdown as a senior in 2015. After a leg injury forced him to miss the first seven games of 2016, Rankins has appeared in five games, posting 18 tackles (10 solo), three sacks and one forced fumble. On Nov. 27 vs. Los Angeles, he posted his first forced fumble after posting his second-career sack, a takedown of QB Jared Goff.

NEW FACES ON DEFENSE

Along with the NFL Draft, New Orleans used free agency to add pieces to their defense, bringing players from other teams, as well as other leagues to help create the perfect mixture of veteran leadership and young talent in the Saints locker room. Below is an overview of those players:

DT Nick Fairley - Fairley comes to New Orleans after spending the past five seasons contributing to the defensive line rotations of the Detroit Lions (2011-14) and St. Louis Rams (2015). He has recorded 201 tackles (121 solo), 18.5 sacks, four passes defended, five forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries over 73 games played with 42 starts. Originally a first round draft pick of Detroit in 2011 out of Auburn, Fairley has started all 12 games in 2016, posting 38 tackles (24 solo) and 4.5 sacks.

S Roman Harper - Re-signed this offseason with New Orleans, where he established himself as one of the NFL's most physical defensive backs, Roman Harper is the only safety in team history to have been selected to two Pro Bowls. His 18 career sacks rank first among active defensive backs and are tied for ninth all-time. The Prattville, Ala. native is now in his 11th season, after playing his first eight in New Orleans and his last two with the Carolina Panthers. In 2016, he has posted nine tackles (five solo) and five special teams stop over 12 games played with one start.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

DE Paul Kruger - Winning Super Bowl XLVII in New Orleans as a member of the Baltimore Ravens after the 2012 season, Kruger comes to New Orleans after spending the previous three campaigns with the Cleveland Browns. Originally drafted by the Baltimore Ravens in the second round (57th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft out of Utah, Kruger has appeared in 11 games with nine starts for the Saints in 2016, registering 28 tackles (16 solo), 1.5 sacks, one pass defensed and two fumble recoveries.

CB Sterling Moore - Signed just before the start of the 2016 season, Moore has proven to be a key acquisition for the New Orleans secondary, registering 35 tackles (29 solo), two interceptions, 10 passes defensed and one forced fumble over nine games played with eight starts in 2016. His two interceptions are tied for the team lead.

LB Craig Robertson - Robertson joins the Saints after spending his first five NFL seasons with Cleveland. He has tallied 427 tackles (287 solo), five sacks, seven interceptions, 20 passes defensed, two forced fumbles, six fumble recoveries, one touchdown and 35 special teams stops over 70 games with 49 starts. In 2015, he appeared in 12 games with nine starts and totaled 50 tackles (30 solo), one INT, five passes defensed, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and nine special teams stops. Starting all 12 contests in 2016, he has totaled a team-high 113 tackles (86 solo), one sack, one fumble recovery, five passes defensed and three special teams stops.

LB Nate Stupar - The former Penn State standout has appeared in 55 career contests with eight starts for four clubs and has posted career totals of 79 tackles (57 solo), one interception, two sacks, three passes defensed, two forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries and 35 special teams stops. In his first season with the Black and Gold, he has played in 12 games with five starts and has posted 48 tackles (32 solo), one sack, one INT, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and eight special teams stops.

DE Darryl Tapp - Originally selected by the Seattle Seahawks in the second round (53rd overall) of the 2006 NFL Draft out of Virginia Tech, Tapp has played in 158 career NFL games with 37 starts and has recorded totals of 325 tackles (248 solo), 28.0 sacks, two interceptions, one returned for a touchdown, 22 passes defensed, 11 forced fumbles, 10 fumble recoveries and seven special teams tackles over 11 seasons. In 12 games played in 2016 (one start), he has recorded 28 tackles (13 solo), one half sack and one fumble recovery.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

Under the guidance of Greg McMahon, in his 11th season on the coaching staff and his ninth as coordinator and his assistant Stan Kwan, the Saints special teams is once again one of the team's most consistent position groups.

- K Wil Lutz is in his first season with New Orleans, joining the team after originally being signed by the Baltimore Ravens as an undrafted free agent out of Georgia State following the 2016 NFL Draft. Over his rookie campaign, he has connected on 18-of-24 (75.0 pct.) FG attempts, including a career-long 57-yard field goal against Atlanta on Sept. 26, the third-longest made field goal in franchise history, matching Kai Forbath's 57-yarder at Houston last year. He is also 39-for-40 on PAT attempts. On Oct. 16 against Carolina, he kicked a 52-yard game-winning field goal with :13 remaining to collect the first game-winning FG of his career, the longest game-winning kick by a Saint since 1984. He was named the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week, becoming the first rookie kicker in Saints team history to be recognized by the league as a Special Teams Player of the Week. On Oct. 30 against Seattle, he was four-for-four on FG attempts, including a 53-yard conversion in the second quarter, marking his third make of 50-plus yards this season, one shy of the franchise record in a season. Following his performance, he was awarded his second NFC Special Teams Player of the Week, becoming the second Saints kicker to receive the honor twice in the same season (John Carney, 2001).

- P Thomas Morstead, who has been a weapon in the field position game with his strong leg, outstanding placement abilities and booming kickoffs, returns for his eighth year with New Orleans. Over his eight-year career, the club's fifth-round draft choice (164th overall) in 2009 from Southern Methodist University, has posted a club-record career gross average of 46.9 on 455 punts, ranked third all-time in the NFL (compiled by the NFL since 1939), with a team-best career 41.1 net average, which is ranked third all-time (compiled by NFL since 1976) and has placed 155 punts inside the 20-yard line, while also booming 258 kickoffs in the end zone for touchbacks. Morstead has recorded three of the top ten all-time single-season net yardage figures (compiled by the NFL since 1976). In Week One against the Raiders, he played in his 111th career game, moving him into sole possession of 31st in club record books in games played, surpassing a tie with Tommy Barnhardt for most games played by a punter. In 2016, he has punted 45 times for 2,168 yards (48.2 avg.) and has placed 19 of his punts inside the 20-yard line.

QUARTERBACKS

DREW BREES

- Since signing with the New Orleans Saints as an unrestricted free agent in 2006 from the San Diego Chargers, Drew Brees has thrown for 4,000 or more yards each season, became the only quarterback to throw for 5,000 yards four different times, set the league single-season yardage record in 2011 (broken by Peyton Manning in 2013) and ranked at or near the top in every passing category, both in single-seasons and over the 10-year period, breaking nearly every club record.

- He opened the 2016 season against Oakland going 28-of-42 for 423 yards, four TDs and a 131.3 passer rating. With 4,306 passing yards on kickoff weekend for his career, he joined Peyton Manning as the only QBs in NFL history to throw for at least 4,000 yards on opening weekend over their careers. It was also his sixth-consecutive week one game with at least 300 yards passing, surpassing a record held by Kurt Warner (1999-2003).

- Since 2006, he leads the NFL with 52,468 passing yards, 378 touchdown passes, 6,776 attempts, 4,597 completions, a 67.8% completion percentage, 97 games with at least 300 yards passing, 15 with at least 400 yards passing, 395 completions of 25 yards or more and stands at fourth in the league with a 99.5 passer rating.

- Brees has been selected to play in a club-record eight Pro Bowls as a Saint, with nine overall berths in the NFL's all-star game twice as a starter. His seven consecutive selections as a Saint is tied for first in franchise history with Pro Football Hall of Fame tackle William Roaf.

- Brees has posted a 99-71 regular season record in contests he has started since signing with the Saints in 2006. In 2015 at Atlanta, he recorded his 100th career victory as a Saints quarterback. Including his six playoff victories, his 105 total wins in a Saints uniform make him the winningest quarterback in franchise history. Overall, Brees' win total as a member of the Saints ranks fourth among all NFL QBs since 2006.

- In his 16-year NFL career where he's appeared in 229 games with 228 starts, Brees has completed 5,722-of-8,585 passes (66.7%) for 64,816 yards, 458 touchdown passes and a 96.4 passer rating. He's the NFL's all-time most accurate passer, is ranked third in completions, third in TD passes, third in passing yardage and sixth in passer rating. In Week Two at the New York Giants, he surpassed Dan Marino (61,361) to move into third place on the NFL's all-time passing yardage list.

BY THE NUMBERS

3 – Brees, Dan Marino and Peyton Manning are the only three NFL players to throw for 40 or more touchdowns twice. Also the number of NFC Offensive Player of the Month awards won by Brees in his 15-year career, the most monthly awards won by a Saint in team history.

4 – NFL-record number of consecutive games that Brees threw for 350 yards in 2011. Also the NFL-record number of seasons that Brees has thrown for at least 5,000 yards (2008, 2011-13), throwing for 5,162 yards in 2013.

6 – NFL-record number of seasons Brees has led the NFL in passing yardage, including 2015 (4,870). Also, the streak of consecutive games in which Brees did not throw an INT between 2015-16, matching a franchise record. The streak was broken on Sept. 26 against Atlanta.

7 – NFL-record number of regular season contests where Brees has thrown five TDs and zero INTs. Also, current career-long streak of games with at least a 70% comp. pct.

8 – NFL-record number of times he reached the 350-yard mark in 2011. Also the franchise-record number of seasons that Brees has been selected to the Pro Bowl.

9 – NFL-record stretch of consecutive games with at least 300 yards passing, which he's accomplished twice. Also the number of consecutive wins for Brees as a starter on Monday Night Football, tied for second all-time. LUKE McCOWN

• McCown is in his 13th NFL season and fourth with New Orleans. Originally a fourth round selection (106th overall) in the 2004 NFL Draft by Cleveland, the former Louisiana Tech standout has played in 63 career games with 10 starts with the Browns, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, the Jacksonville Jaguars, the Atlanta Falcons and the Saints. He has completed 216-of-356 passes for 2,070 yards with nine touchdowns and a 71.3 rating.

RUNNING BACKS

TRAVARIS CADET

• Cadet returned to New Orleans for the final two games of the 2015 season, after splitting the beginning of the year between the New England Patriots and San Francisco 49ers. Originally signed by the Saints as an undrafted free agent out of Appalachian State following the 2012 NFL Draft, Cadet spent his first three seasons with the Black and Gold, proving to be effective at running back, wide receiver and return specialist. In 2016, he has rushed for four yards on two attempts, made 26 receptions for 187 yards with one touchdown, and added 144 yards on 10 kickoff returns over 11 games played with one start.

TIM HIGHTOWER

• Originally a 2008 fifth-round pick (149th overall) of Arizona, Hightower became the lead back in 2015 after an injury to RB Mark Ingram and posted the third-highest rushing yards total in the league from his first start in the team's Week 14 matchup at Tampa Bay through the end of the season. Over 12 games with one start in 2016, he has rushed for 422 yards and one TD on 105 carries, caught 17 passes for 170 yards and one TD and returned three kickoffs for 61 yards, adding one special teams stop. On Oct. 30 against Seattle, he carried it a season-high 26 times for a season-best 102 yards, including a long-rush of 28 yards. On Nov. 27 vs. Los Angeles, he was on the receiving end of a 50-yard touchdown, marking his second-career touchdown reception and first since Sept. 26, 2011 at Dallas as a member of the Washington Redskins.

MARK INGRAM

• One of the club's two first round draft picks in 2011, the 2009 Heisman Trophy winner has been an integral part of the rushing attack since his arrival in New Orleans. Before being sidelined in 2015, Ingram rushed for 769 yards and six TDs on 166 attempts, and added a career-high 405 yards receiving on a career-best 50 catches. He has appeared in all 12 games (10 starts), accumulating 758 yards on 143 attempts (5.3 avg.) with three TDs and 264 yards on 35 receptions with four TDs. On Nov. 17 at Carolina, he surpassed Pierre Thomas to move into fourth place on the franchise's all-time rushing yards list. On Nov. 6 at San Francisco, he recorded his first 100-yard rushing game of 2016, including a career-long 75-yard TD that was the fourth-longest rush in Saints history. On Nov. 27 vs. the Rams, Ingram rushed for 146 yards on 14 carries, recording his eighth-career 100-yard rushing game.

INGRAM'S BIG DAYS

Mark Ingram has reached 100 yards or more eight times over his Saints career, with New Orleans going 7-1 over those contests. Below is a list of those performances:

- Nov. 10, 2013 vs. Dallas Cowboys - Carried 14 times for 145 yards (10.4 avg.) with one touchdown and two receptions for 15 yards for 160 yards of total offense.
- Oct. 26, 2014 vs. Green Bay Packers - Rushed for a career-high 172 yards on 24 carries (7.2 avg.) with one TD
- Oct. 30, 2014 at Carolina Panthers - Rushed 30 times for 100 yards with two touchdowns and added a 10-yard grab.
- Nov. 9, 2014 vs. San Francisco 49ers - Became the first Saint to have 100 yards rushing in three consecutive games since 2003 with 27 carries for 120 yards.
- Nov. 30, 2014 at Pittsburgh Steelers - Rushed 23 times for 122 yards (5.3 avg.) with a season-long 31-yard carry.
- Oct. 25, 2015 at Indianapolis Colts - Carried 14 times for 143 yards (10.2 avg.) with one touchdown.
- Nov. 6, 2016 at San Francisco 49ers - Carried 15 times for 158 yards (10.5 avg.) with one touchdown.
- Nov. 27, 2016 vs. Los Angeles Rams - Carried 14 times for 146 yards (10.4 avg.) with one touchdown.

WIDE RECEIVERS

BRANDON COLEMAN

• Originally signed by New Orleans out of Rutgers following the 2014 NFL Draft, the Forestville, Md. native won a roster spot on the 2015 opening day roster, going on to appear in all 16 games with four starts and posting 30 receptions for 454 yards and two TDs. Over 12 games played with two starts in 2016, he has made 20 receptions for 226 yards and a career-high three touchdowns, adding one special teams stop.

BRANDIN COOKS

• The club's first-round selection in the 2014 NFL Draft, Cooks recorded his first-career 1,000-yard season in 2015, leading the team in receiving with 84 grabs for 1,138 yards (13.5 avg.) and a team-leading nine TDs. In Week One against the Raiders, he caught a 98-yard TD, the longest pass play in franchise history and the longest scoring offensive play in franchise history. Against Carolina on Oct. 16, he recorded a career-high 173 yards receiving, including an 87-yard TD reception, the third-longest in the NFL in 2016. Overall in 12 games with nine starts in 2016, he has posted 58 receptions for 809 yards (13.9 avg.) with six TDs, while adding 30 yards on six rushes.

WILLIE SNEAD IV

• After concluding a collegiate career at Ball State that saw him leave the school ranked second in club record books in receptions (223) and receiving yardage (2,991), Snead then entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with Cleveland in 2014. Earning a roster spot in the 2015 preseason, the Muskegon Heights, Mich. native appeared in 15 games with eight starts and made 69 receptions for 984 yards (14.3 avg.) and three TDs. Over 11 games played with three starts in 2016, he has caught 53 passes for 631 yards (11.9) and four TDs. On Nov. 27 vs. the Rams, he completed his first NFL pass attempt, a 50-yard scoring strike to RB Tim Hightower, becoming the first non-QB to throw a touchdown pass for New Orleans since Deuce McAllister on Dec. 9, 2001 at Atlanta.

EXPLOSIVE PLAYS

In Week One vs. Oakland, WR Brandin Cooks caught a 98-yard TD that was the longest offensive play in franchise history. On Oct. 16 vs. Carolina, Brees and Cooks connected on an 87-yard score. Over the past two seasons, Cooks (21) and Snead (8) have combined for 29 plays of 25 yards or more, 12 of which have went for TDs.

MICHAEL THOMAS

• A talented wide receiver with a large 6-3, 212-pound frame who emerged as one of Ohio State's top weapons over his final two seasons, Thomas played in 39 games and caught 113 passes for 1,602 yards (14.2-average) with 18 TDs. Over 12 games played with nine starts in his rookie season, the Woodland Hills, Calif. native has made a team-leading 69 receptions for 831 yards with seven touchdowns. On Oct. 23 at Kansas City, Thomas posted his first-career 100-yard receiving game. With 10 receptions for 130 yards, he became the third Saints rookie wide receiver to post a 10-catch, 130-yard receiving game, joining Marques Colston (Nov. 12, 2006 at Pittsburgh) and Danny Abramowicz (Oct. 29, 1967 vs. Pittsburgh). On Nov. 27 vs. Los Angeles, he reached 60 receptions, joining RB Reggie Bush and WR Marques Colston as only the third Saint to record at least 60 grabs as a rookie.

In 2016, he has caught 15 passes for 149 yards and one touchdown over nine games played with eight starts. On Nov. 27 vs. Los Angeles, Hill produced the most productive outing of his career, making a career-high six receptions for a career-best 74 yards, including a long-reception of 35 yards.

DEFENSIVE ENDSKASIM EDEBALI

• Signed by the Black and Gold as an undrafted free agent out of Boston College, Kasim Edebali first made the club's 53-man roster out of training camp in 2014 and has played in all 44 games since, making 47 tackles (32 solo), eight sacks, six passes defensed, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and 22 special teams stops. In 2015, the Hamburg, Germany native played in all 16 games with one start, totaling 18 tackles (14 solo), a career-high five sacks, three passes defensed, one fumble recovery and six special teams stops. Over 12 games played with one start in 2016, he has posted 11 tackles (seven solo), one sack, three passes defensed and four special teams stops.

CAMERON JORDAN

• New Orleans' first choice in the 2011 NFL Draft (24th overall) out of California came to the Saints after a college career where he was one of the nation's elite pass rushers. In 2015, he started all 16 games, posting 61 tackles (39 solo), 10 sacks, seven passes defensed, a forced fumble and two fumble recoveries. With 10 sacks on the season, it marked the second time in his career that he posted a double-digit sack season, becoming the ninth Saint to have multiple double-digit sack seasons. His efforts were rewarded with a Pro Bowl nomination, the second of his career. In 12 games played in 2016, all starts, Jordan has tallied five sacks, 53 total tackles (30 solo), one forced fumble and four passes defensed. On Oct. 2 at San Diego, the two-time team captain's half sack forced a field goal in the red zone that kept the deficit under two touchdowns to force the stunning comeback. Against Denver on Nov. 13, he had a standout performance, totaling a team-high nine tackles (team-best eight solo) with one sack and three tackles for loss.

DEFENSIVE ENDS

- Jordan has posted 44.0 sacks since he entered the NFL in 2011 and over the past four seasons is only the second player, joining Houston's J.J. Watt to have 40 takedowns and 20 passes defended. During this time, the Saints own a 23-11 record when he corrals a signal-caller, and they boast a 7-0 mark when he tallies two or more sacks. On the season, he has posted a team-best five sacks.

PAUL KRUGER

- Kruger comes to New Orleans after spending the last three seasons with Cleveland. Originally drafted by the Baltimore Ravens in the second round (57th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft out of Utah, Kruger has posted 246 tackles (152 solo), 34.5 sacks for a total loss of 214.0 yards, two interceptions, 24 passes defended, seven forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries over 110 games played with 62 starts. Over 11 games played in 2016, nine starts, he has registered 28 tackles (16 solo), 1.5 sacks, one pass defended and two fumble recoveries.

DEFENSIVE TACKLES

TYELER DAVISON

- After being selected in the fifth round (154th overall) of the 2015 NFL Draft, Davison quickly impressed in the preseason, earning a spot on the 53-man roster. Appearing in all 16 games with five starts in his rookie season, he posted 26 tackles (15 solo) and 1.5 sacks for a total loss of eight yards. He has started 11 games in 2016, posting 23 tackles (12 solo) and one pass defended.

NICK FAIRLEY

- With a commitment to improving the defense during the offseason, the former Auburn standout was signed as an unrestricted free agent from the Rams, after originally being drafted in the 2011 NFL Draft 13th overall by the Detroit Lions. Over his five-year career, Fairley has played in 73 games with 42 starts and has recorded 201 tackles (121 solo), 18.5 sacks, four passes defended, five forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries. The Mobile, Ala. native has started all 12 games for the Black and Gold in 2016, recording 38 tackles (24 solo) and 4.5 sacks. On Oct. 2 at San Diego, he recorded a crucial takedown of QB Philip Rivers on the Chargers' final drive to help secure a Saints victory. In just 12 games, he is 1.5 sacks away from tying his career-high six sacks set in 2013.

YOUTH ALONG THE LINE

New Orleans used the 2016 NFL Draft to strengthen their defensive line, using two of their first four picks on the front four.

DAVID ONYEMATA

- Onyemata was chosen with the team's fourth round pick (120th overall) after a stellar career at the University of Manitoba of the CIS, becoming the first member of the Bisons program to be drafted. In 37 career games, he posted 166 tackles, 9.5 sacks, two passes defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. As a senior, the Lagos, Nigeria native was named a Canada West all-star for the second straight campaign, an all-Canadian for the first time and claimed the J.P. Metras Trophy as the top down lineman in CIS football. He finished second in the conference and ninth in the country with five sacks in eight league games and also ranked second in Canada West in tackles for a loss (7.5) and 12th in overall tackles (38.5). Overall in nine contests, all which he started at nose tackle, Onyemata made 50 stops, five sacks, one pass defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. Over 12 games played in his rookie season, he has collected 21 tackles (nine solo).

SHELDON RANKINS

- The third defensive lineman selected in the 2016 NFL Draft (12th overall), Rankins played in 46 games along the defensive line at Louisville, producing 133 tackles (72 solo), 31.5 tackles for loss and 18 sacks during his collegiate career. In his senior campaign, the former Cardinals standout racked up a single-season career-high 58 tackles (28 solo), six sacks, one pass defended and a fumble recovery returned 46 yards for a touchdown. Rankins was named second-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference following his efforts. Missing the first seven games of his rookie season, Rankins has posted 18 tackles (10 solo), three sacks and one forced fumble over five games played. On Nov. 13 against Denver, he took down QB Trevor Siemian in the fourth quarter, collecting his first-career sack. On Nov. 27 vs. the Rams, he recorded his first-career forced fumble, causing a fumble of QB Jared Goff in the second quarter that would give the Saints possession at the Los Angeles 10-yard line. It was his second-career quarterback takedown.

LINEBACKERS

The Saints used free agency to really revamp the linebacker corps, mixing in key offseason acquisitions with returning veterans.

STEPHONE ANTHONY

- In his rookie campaign, Anthony won a starting job at MLB during the preseason and started all 16 games. Anthony led the team with a franchise rookie-record 144 tackles, including 99 solo stops, ranked first among NFL rookies. He was a consensus All-Rookie selection. In 2015 against Carolina, he forced a fumble and returned it 31 yards for his first TD, and followed that up with an 82-yard two-point conversion return after a blocked PAT kick attempt, marking the first time in history that a PAT had been blocked for a two-point conversion since the rule change before the 2015 season. In his second season, he has appeared in nine games (two starts) and has posted eight tackles (six solo) and three special teams stops.

DANNELL ELLERBE

- Acquired from Miami in an offseason trade in 2015, this Georgia product enters his eighth season in the NFL and his second with New Orleans. With three clubs, he's appeared in 73 career regular season contests with 39 starts and has posted 371 tackles (268 solo), 10.5 sacks, three interceptions, 14 passes defended, one forced fumble, four fumble recoveries, 18 special teams stops and one coverage forced fumble. In his first season with the Saints, he posted 45 tackles (39 solo), a pass defended, his first career forced fumble and a fumble recovery over six games played with four starts. Over five starts in 2016, he has tallied 33 tackles (19 solo), four sacks and one pass defended. On Nov. 27 vs. Los Angeles, he posted a sack of Goff in the fourth quarter, marking his third-consecutive game with a QB takedown, posting a sack in three-straight games for the first time in his career

CRAIG ROBERTSON

- This former North Texas standout, in his first season with the Saints, has totaled 427 tackles (287 solo), five sacks, seven interceptions, 20 passes defended, two forced fumbles, five fumble recoveries, one TD and 35 special teams stops over 70 games with 49 starts. In 2015, he appeared in 12 games with nine starts and totaled 50 tackles (30 solo), one INT, five passes defended, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and nine special teams stops. In 2016, he has started 12 games and has posted a team-leading 113 tackles (86 solo), one sack, one interception, five passes defended, one fumble recovery and three special teams stops.

TACKLING MACHINE

On Nov. 27 vs. Los Angeles, Robertson recorded his 100th tackle on the season, making 2016 his first-career 100-tackle season. He has posted 10 total tackles or more in four of the Saints' 12 games this season. The following is a chart on Robertson's 10-plus tackle games in 2016.

NATE STUPAR

- Drafted by Oakland in the seventh round of the 2012 NFL Draft (230th overall) when Saints defensive coordinator Dennis Allen was the head coach of the Raiders, Stupar has appeared in 12 games with five starts in his first season in New Orleans, posting 48 tackles (32 solo), one sack, one interception, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, two passes defended and eight special teams stops. On Oct. 30 against Seattle, he intercepted QB Russell Wilson in the second quarter to post his first-career interception.

STOPPING THE RUN

After ranking 31st against the run in 2015 and 32nd through the first three games of the 2016 season, defensive coordinator Dennis Allen and his unit have underwent a startling turnaround. Since Oct. 2, New Orleans has surrendered only 80.8 rushing yards per game, ranked third in the NFL during this stretch, while not one play. Only three times during this nine game stretch, has an opponent rushed for at least 100 yards, with 112 being the largest figure and no single individual has reached the century mark.

CORNERBACKS

DELVIN BREAUX

- Over eight years after suffering a serious neck injury in a high school football game for McDonogh 35, Breaux realized his dream when he signed a contract with his hometown team following a journey that took him through the GDFL, the AFL and the CFL. In the 2015 season opener, the New Orleans native became the first Saints CB to start in his NFL debut since Tracy Porter in 2008. Overall, in 16 contests, all starts, he made 49 tackles (38 solo), three interceptions, a club-best 23 passes defended and the fumble recovery. He was voted as the team's Ed Block Courage Award winner following the season. Missing six games due to a broken fibula, he has tallied 20 tackles (16 solo) over five starts in 2016.

KEN CRAWLEY

- Originally signed by New Orleans as an undrafted free agent out of the University of Colorado following the 2016 NFL Draft, this Washington D.C. native played in 47 games and recorded 201 tackles (165 solo), eight tackles for loss, one forced fumble, a fumble recovery, three interceptions and 36 passes defended over his collegiate career. Over 12 games played with five starts in 2016, he has recorded 43 tackles (35 solo), one forced fumble and 10 passes defended.

STERLING MOORE

- Moore comes to New Orleans after spending the 2016 offseason and preseason with Buffalo and the 2015 campaign with Tampa Bay. The 5-10, 202-pound Southern Methodist product has started 27-of-65 career games while accumulating 159 tackles, six interceptions, 35 passes defended, five forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. Over nine games played in 2016 (eight starts), he has registered 35 tackles (29 solo), two interceptions, 10 passes defended and one forced fumble.

B.W. WEBB

- Originally drafted by the Cowboys in the fourth round (114th overall) of the 2013 NFL Draft, Webb has logged 18 tackles (14 solo), one interception and a team-best 11 passes defended over 10 games played with four starts for the Saints in 2016. On Oct. 16 against Carolina, he registered a career-high five passes defended.

SAFETIES

VONN BELL

• Drafted by New Orleans in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft (61st overall), Bell was an Associated Press, The Sporting News and SI.com first-team All-American and was voted First-team All-Big Ten (media) following his junior season at Ohio State. The Rossville, Georgia. native started 13 games as a junior, finishing with 65 tackles and two interceptions, one brought back for a TD, one fumble recovery and 11 passes defended. Over 12 games played with nine starts, he has totaled 66 tackles (40 solo), one half sack, one forced fumble, four passes defended, one fumble recovery and five special teams stops.

JAIRUS BYRD

• Signed by New Orleans as a free agent from the Buffalo Bills in 2014, Byrd has been selected to three Pro Bowls. He has appeared in 102 career games with 94 starts, posting totals of 517 tackles (368 solo), four sacks, 23 INTs, 39 passes defended, 14 forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries. A second round draft pick (42nd overall) in 2009, Byrd has started all 12 contests in 2016, recording 67 tackles (51 solo) and one pass defended. On Oct. 30 against Seattle, he posted 10 tackles, tying for the most tackles he has posted in any game as a Saint.

NOSE FOR THE BALL

KENNY VACCARO

• The club's first-round draft pick in the 2013 NFL Draft, Vaccaro started all 16 games for the first time in his career in 2015, posting 136 tackles (87 solo), three sacks, five passes defended, two forced fumbles and his first career fumble recovery. Over 11 starts in 2016, the fourth-year safety has registered 80 tackles (56 solo), two interceptions, one sack, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery, six passes defended and one special teams stop. On Nov. 27 vs. the Rams he collected an INT of QB Jared Goff, marking his fifth-career interception and second of 2016. His two picks this season match a career high set in 2014.

SPECIAL TEAMSK WIL LUTZ

• Lutz is in his first season with New Orleans, joining the team after originally being signed by the Baltimore Ravens as an undrafted free agent out of Georgia State following the 2016 NFL Draft. In his first 12 contests with the Black and Gold, he has converted on 18-of-24 (75.0 pct.) FG attempts, including a 57-yard field goal on Sept. 26 against Atlanta, the third-longest made field goal in franchise history, matching Kai Forbath's 57-yarder at Houston last year. He is also 39-of-40 on PAT attempts. On Oct. 16 against Carolina, he connected on a 52-yard game-winning field goal with :13 remaining to collect the first game-winning field goal of his career, the longest game-winning kick by a Saint since 1984. For his efforts in Week Six, he was named the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week. Following his four-for-four performance against Seattle on Oct. 30, he was once again named the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week, joining John Carney (2001) as the only Saints kickers to receive the honor twice in the same season.

KID HAS A LEG

On Sept. 26 against Atlanta, Lutz hit a 57-yard field goal, marking the third-longest make in Saints franchise history, matching Kai Forbath's 57-yard make at Houston in 2015. Below are the four-longest field goals in Saints history:

FOUR LONGEST FIELD GOALS IN NEW ORLEANS SAINTS HISTORY

63 Tom Dempsey vs. Detroit, 11/8/70

60 Morten Andersen vs. Chicago, 10/27/91

57 Wil Lutz vs. Atlanta, 9/26/16

57 Kai Forbath at Houston, 11/29/15

P THOMAS MORSTEAD

• Morstead, the club's fifth round draft pick in 2009, was among the nation's top punters at SMU and has continued that trend as a Saint where he's posted career club-best 46.9 gross and 41.1 net punting averages. In Week One against Oakland, he played in his 111th career game, moving him into sole possession of 31st in club record books in games played, surpassing a tie with Tommy Barnhardt for most games played by a punter. In 2016, he has punted 45 times for 2,168 yards (48.2 avg.) and has placed 19 of his punts inside the 20-yard line.

FOLLOW THE LEADER

Thomas Morstead is the team's all-time leader in gross and net averages. His 43.2 net in 2012 ranks sixth all-time and he also has the seventh and eighth-highest figures. Morstead's career 41.1 net average ranks third in NFL record books since the statistic was first compiled in 1976. In 2016, both his 48.2 punting average and his 42.6 net average rank fifth in the NFL.

JOINED SAINTS: D4-06

NFL EXPERIENCE: 11

BORN: 8/22/1983

NFL CAREER – Originally a fourth-round pick (108th overall) in 2006 out of Bloomsburg, Evans has been voted to the Pro Bowl in six of his last seven seasons and is widely regarded as among the NFL's top linemen, with the Saints finishing in the top 10 offensively in each of his 10 seasons, leading the league five times. Since Evans' first Pro Bowl selection in 2009, no guard has been selected to as many Pro Bowls and tackle Joe Thomas is the only offensive lineman to have been selected more (seven). A powerful run blocker and polished in pass protection, Evans has started all 153 games he's appeared in for the Saints at right guard, ranking 10th on the club's all-time games played list. Evans' 153 games played are the second-most games played by a Saints offensive lineman, behind only Stan Brock (186). In 2015, he opened 11-of-16 contests for the NFL's second-ranked offense, missing five games throughout the season with knee and ankle injuries.

2014 – Appeared in all 16 games with two starts, rushing for 85 yards and a TD on 24 attempts, while adding four receptions for 23 yards. Voted to Pro Bowl and voted an AP first team All-Pro...Rushed for his only TD on season in opener at Seattle, Sept. 4. Punched it in from two yards out for his only attempt in the game...Rushed for 20 yards on season-high five carries vs. Chicago, Nov. 9...Finished with season-high 22 yards on four attempts at Tampa Bay, Dec. 21. 2013 – Played in 15 games with six starts and appeared in team's playoff contest. Rushed for 38 yards and a TD on 10 carries and caught 13 passes for 81 yards, while registering four special teams tackles. Named a Pro Bowl alternate following a season in which he helped Green Bay finish in the top 10 in both rushing (seventh) and passing (sixth) for the first time since 2004. Blocked for Eddie Lacy as he rushed for 1,178 yards, the most by a rookie in team history, as Lacy was selected to the Pro Bowl and named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year... Started vs. Washington, Sept. 15, but sustained a hamstring injury during the game that would force him to miss Week Three contest at Cincinnati, just the third game he had missed due to injury during career...Caught season-high three passes for 11 yards (3.7 avg.) at N.Y. Giants, Nov. 17, and carried once for 12 yards, his longest run since Dec. 11, 2011...Had three carries for 12 yards (4.0 avg.) and a TD vs. Pittsburgh, Dec. 22. Two of his attempts converted key third-down plays, and the other, a one-yard TD dive in the fourth quarter, tied the game at 31 with 7:14 remaining...In NFC Wild Card matchup vs. San Francisco, 1/5/14, scored on a one-yard TD run off left guard in the fourth quarter, which gave the Packers a 17-13 lead with just over 12 minutes left. The play gave him at least one TD in each of the last five postseasons (2009-13), the only NFL player to do so over that span and the second in team history (Dorsey Levens, 1993-98) to score at least one TD in five straight postseasons. In addition to the TD run, caught a pair of eight-yard passes, both converting third downs on scoring drives. 2012 – Played in 14 games with three starts and appeared in both playoff contests. Rushed for 63 yards and a touchdown on 23 carries (2.7 avg.) and matched his career high with 15 receptions for a career-best 148 receiving yards (9.9 avg.). Added three tackles on special teams...His lone carry vs. New Orleans, Sept. 30, was a meaningful one as he took a direct snap from Brett Goode at his punt-protector position on a fourth-and-one play in the second quarter, burrowing forward for a five-yard gain...Scored on a two-yard burst off left guard to open the game's scoring late in the first quarter at Indianapolis, Oct. 7...Was a gameday inactive vs. Jacksonville, Oct. 28, for just the third time in his career and the first due to injury, snapping a streak of 46 consecutive games played (including playoffs)...Posted a season-high 17 rushing yards on four attempts (4.3 avg.) and added a career-high 49 receiving yards on three grabs (16.3 avg.), highlighted by his career-long 32-yard catch-and-run in the second quarter at N.Y. Giants, Nov. 25... In the club's Wild Card contest vs. Minnesota, 1/5/13, scored TDs on back-to-back possessions sandwiched around halftime, first on a three-yard rushing touchdown that capped a two-minute drive before the break and then on a nine-yard reception that finished the offense's opening drive of the second half. With the scores, became the first player in franchise history to register a rushing touchdown and a receiving touchdown in two different postseason games (at Atlanta, Jan. 15, 2011). 2011 – Appeared in all 16 games for the fourth time in five seasons, making three starts. Also played in the team's playoff contest. Selected as the Pro Bowl starter and also earned second-team All-Pro recognition from the Associated Press. Matched his career high with six total touchdowns, the most among Green Bay's running backs, and led the team with four rushing touchdowns. Finished the season with 78 yards on 30 carries (2.6 avg.) and added 15 receptions for 77 yards (5.1 avg.). Helped clear the way for both James Starks (578) and Grant (559) to become the first Green Bay tandem to each rush for 550-plus yards since Edgar Bennett and Dorsey Levens in 1996. Registered three tackles on special teams...Carried twice for five yards (2.5 avg.), with a one-yard touchdown run, and caught two passes for seven yards (3.5 avg.) vs. New Orleans, Sept. 8...Kuhn's lone rush came on a goal-line carry in the fourth quarter that he took up the middle for a two-yard TD vs. Tampa Bay, Nov. 20...Carried a season-high 10 times for a season-best 46 yards (4.6 avg.) vs. Oakland, Dec. 11, as the offense matched its season-high rushing total with 136 yards on 24 carries (5.7 avg.)...Appeared on both offense and special teams before sustaining a knee injury in the third quarter that kept him out the remainder of the game in the team's NFC Divisional Round matchup vs. N.Y. Giants, 1/15/12. Scored the Packers' first TD with an eight-yard catch from Rodgers on the first play of the second quarter. Marked the third consecutive postseason that he scored a TD as he joined Saints WR Devery Henderson as the only players in the league to accomplish that feat from 2009-11.
