THE MATCHUP

The New Orleans Saints, currently in third place in the NFC South at 5-6, but only two games behind the division-leading Atlanta Falcons entering the most important month of the regular season when the NFC South will be decided, host the NFC North-leading Detroit Lions on Sunday at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. With a win, New Orleans would improve to 6-6, heading into a stretch for their final four games where they play two against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (6-5) and the regular season finale at the division-leading Atlanta Falcons (7-4) on Jan. 3, 2017.

The Saints enter Sunday's contest following a resounding 49-21 victory over the Los Angeles Rams at the Superdome on Sunday, marking a dominant performance on both offense and defense. QB Drew Brees completed 28-of-36 for 310 yards with four touchdowns, while also scoring on a quarterback sneak, posting a 139.6 passer rating. Brees is currently ranked first in the NFL in completion percentage (71.5), passing yardage (3,587) and touchdown passes (30).

Brees has had extensive help from his perimeter group, including three players in specific in the last contest. RBs Tim Hightower and Mark Ingram accounted for 272 total yards from scrimmage and three touchdowns. Ingram carried 14 times for 146 yards (10.4 avg.) with one touchdown and also caught a screen pass where he rambled in for a 21-yard TD. Hightower added 51 yards rushing and 54 yards receiving, including grabbing a 50-yard touchdown from WR Willie Snead IV. Ingram leads players with at least 75 carries in yards per carry, rushing 136 times for 721 yards (5.3 avg.) and three TDs to go with 30 receptions for 248 yards with four scoring grabs.

Defensively, New Orleans surrendered only 247 net yards of offense to the Rams, while recovering a fumble and picking off rookie QB Jared Goff once. The Rams managed just 13 first downs, the lowest the Saints have surrendered in 2016 in a contest, including only four rushing against a stout New Orleans front. With Los Angeles only converting 2-of-10 third downs, the 20% conversion rate was the lowest by a Saints opponent this season. Rookie DT Sheldon Rankins sacked Goff to force the fumble which DE Paul Kruger recovered and S Kenny Vaccaro added his second pick of the season. The Saints have not allowed a 100-yard rusher since the third game of the season. Since their 0-3 start, a key to New Orleans' defensive resurgence has been surrendering only 80.3 rushing yards per game over the past eight contests, ranked fourth in the NFL over that period.

The Saints will be seeking to avenge close losses to the Lions in both 2014 and 2015. With the history of closely-contested games between the two clubs, Sunday's game will provide a rugged challenge for New Orleans. In a regular season series deadlocked at 11-11-1, 13 of the contests have been decided by eight points or less. The Saints have an 9-3 record in games played in New Orleans.

Around The NFC South: Atlanta (7-4) hosts Kansas City (8-3), Tampa Bay (6-5) plays at San Diego (5-6) and Carolina (4-7) plays at Seattle (7-3-1) on Sunday night.

THE COACHES

New Orleans Saints Head Coach Sean Payton has posted an 92-63 regular season record and a 6-4 postseason mark, guiding the team to the postseason five times, to the NFC Championship twice and to the Super Bowl XLIV Championship. He's the club's lone head coach to open a season with 13 straight victories and post a 13-game winning streak and has the franchise's top winning percentage (.594). Payton's 54-32 (.628) home record and 44-40 (.524) mark away from the Mercedes-Benz Superdome are the club's top all-time winning percentages in both categories. On Oct. 2, 2016 at San Diego, he captured his 94th victory as head of the New Orleans Saints, surpassing Jim Mora (93 victories from 1986-96) for the most victories by a head coach in team history despite having coached 13 fewer games than Mora. In his first season with the club in 2006, he took the Saints to the NFC Championship and was named NFL Coach of the Year by most major media outlets. The Saints are the only team to finish in the top 10 in net yards per game each season since 2006, including finishing second in 2015 with 403.8 ypg. Payton was hired as New Orleans' 14th head coach on January 18, 2006, after serving on Dallas' staff from 2003-05 under Pro Football Hall of Fame Head Coach Bill Parcells. Prior to joining the Cowboys, Payton served on the New York Giants coaching staff from 1999-2002, including the final three seasons as offensive coordinator. His tenure was highlighted by a Super Bowl berth in his first full season calling plays. Payton's prior NFL coaching experience came as quarterbacks coach for Philadelphia from 1997-98. He played quarterback at Eastern Illinois, where he passed for 10,665 yards, then the third-highest total in NCAA Division 1-AA history. The three-time Associated Press All-American selection had professional stints with Chicago of the Arena Football League, Ottawa of the Canadian Football League and the Chicago Bears in 1987. Starting his college coaching career at San Diego State, Payton wrapped two stints as an assistant with the Aztecs (1988-89 and 1992-93) around a stop at Indiana State (1990-91). He moved to Miami (Ohio), where he coached quarterbacks from 1994-95 before doing the same at the University of Illinois in 1996.

Jim Caldwell was named the Lions' 26th head coach on January 14, 2014. In 2015, his second season in Detroit, the Lions posted a 7-9 record, while closing out the season on a three-game winning streak. Caldwell spent the previous two seasons as offensive coordinator for Baltimore (2012-13). Originally the Ravens' quarterbacks coach, he was promoted to offensive coordinator with just three weeks to play in the 2012 season, and went on to help lead Baltimore to the AFC North crown and a win over San Francisco in Super Bowl XLVII in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. In the team's final seven games, including four in the postseason, the Ravens averaged 400.6 yards per game and 27.3 points per game. Caldwell coached the previous 10 seasons (2002-2011) with Indianapolis, including three as head coach (2009-2011). While there, the Colts had nine-consecutive playoff appearances that included six AFC South titles, two Super Bowl berths (XLI and XLIV) and one Super Bowl title (XLI). Caldwell has posted a 46-37 record in the regular season and a 2-2 mark in the playoffs. Caldwell began his NFL coaching career as Tampa Bay's quarterbacks coach in 2001. Prior to coming into the NFL, he served as the head coach at Wake Forest from 1993-2001.

SERIES HISTORY

This will be the sixth game overall for Head Coach Sean Payton vs. the Lions since he was hired in 2006. The Saints captured the first four contests, three in the regular season and a 45-28 win in the NFC Wild Card Playoff at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome on Jan. 7, 2012. New Orleans will be seeking their first win since that contest.

The regular season series has the series deadlocked at 11-11-1, with the first game ending in a 20-20 tie on Nov. 24, 1968 at Detroit's Tiger Stadium. The two clubs split all 10 meetings from 1970-89. 13 contests have been decided by eight points or less. The Saints are 9-3 against the Lions in New Orleans:

LAST MEETING

Detroit Lions 35, Saints 27; December 21, 2015 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – New Orleans made a push in the fourth quarter, but ultimately were unable to overcome an early 24-point deficit. Offensively, the Saints were led by a record-setting Drew Brees, who set several milestones on the night. On his 27-yard touchdown throw to WR Brandin Cooks in the third quarter, Brees eclipsed 60,000 passing yards for his career, becoming just the fourth player to reach the mark (other, Peyton Manning, Brett Favre and Dan Marino). He recorded his 94th career game of at least 300 passing yards, breaking a tie with Manning for most career 300-yard passing games in NFL history. Brees also threw three TD passes, marking the 128th multi-touchdown game of his career, moving him past Marino for sole possession of fourth place on the NFL's all-time list for multiple touchdown games. Lastly, on the Saints' last scoring drive, he posted his 45th pass attempt, putting him over 8,000 career pass attempts for his career and joining Favre, Manning and Marino as the only players in history with at least 8,000 pass attempts.

After the Saints and Lions exchanged three-and-outs to start the ballgame, Detroit was able to capitalize on exceptional field position to take an early 7-0 advantage. QB Matthew Stafford found WR Golden Tate for the one-yard TD. New Orleans would respond, as the offense put together a 12-play 56-yard drive that culminated in a 45-yard field goal. On the ensuing Lions possession, Stafford connected with TE Eric Ebron for a 45-yard gain that set Detroit up inside the Saints' 15-yard line. They would go on to score and extend their lead to 14-3. On their next drive, they would build on their early momentum, taking a 21-3 lead on another Tate touchdown grab.

On its first possession of the second half, Detroit added to their lead with a RB Ameer Abdullah 15-yard touchdown run making it 28-3. The momentum then began to slowly turn in the Saints' favor. New Orleans would start their comeback on their second drive of the second half, with Brees connecting with WR Marques Colston on a 28-yard pass, and then with Cooks on a 27-yard score. After a Saints field goal cut the lead to 28-13, LB Hau'oli Kikaha forced a fumble by Abdullah to give possession back to the Saints. New Orleans would not waste the opportunity, responding with a five-play 38-yard drive that culminated in an 11-yard touchdown grab for Colston. The score made it a one-possession game. Unfortunately, on the Lions' ensuing possession, the defense was unable to hold, as Detroit's nine-play 76-yard drive that ended in another Lions score would end the Saints' rally.

Brees answered with a 15-play 80-yard drive that ended with a TE Benjamin Watson touchdown reception, but the Saints were unable to recover the onside kick. Detroit picked up a first down on their very first play, a 36-yard Bell run to the Saints nine-yard line.

GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1: Oakland Raiders 35, Saints 34; September 11, 2016 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – In the season kickoff for both clubs, Oakland scored a touchdown with 47 seconds remaining and followed the score with a two-point conversion to prevail in a shootout in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

The Saints had taken a 34-27 lead with 6:03 remaining when RB Travaris Cadet scored on a two-yard TD throw from QB Drew Brees. But the Raiders put together an 11-play, 75-yard drive on their final possession. The march was capped by a 13-yard TD throw from QB David Carr to WR Seth Roberts and Carr drilled a successful throw to WR Michael Crabtree in the end zone for the subsequent two points to put the Raiders ahead. Brees drove New Orleans to the Oakland 43 in the game's final seconds, but a 61-yard field goal attempt went wide left.

The Raiders took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a 47-yard FG by K Sebastian Janikowski. The Saints responded by a successful 42-yard kick by rookie K Wil Lutz. Oakland took the lead back late in the opening quarter on a six-yard touchdown run by RB Latavius Murray.

New Orleans then tied the score on a nine-play, 75-yard drive that ended early in the second quarter on a one-yard touchdown pass from Brees to WR Willie Snead IV. New Orleans took a 17-10 lead going into halftime when Brees connected with WR Brandin Cooks for a 15-yard TD.

In what would seem like rough sailing, starting a drive at their own two-yard line midway through the third quarter, Brees connected with Cooks on a throw that turned into a 98-yard TD, the longest offensive play in franchise history, breaking a record that stood since the franchise's inaugural season in 1967. Following an Oakland FG, New Orleans went into the fourth quarter with a 24-13 edge.

A wild fourth quarter put the Raiders back in the contest, starting with their first drive of the period that ended with a two-yard TD run by RB Jamize Olawale. While Lutz powered a 20-yard field goal through despite getting touched by the Raiders, the 27-19 cushion wouldn't last long though as Oakland rookie RB Jalen Richard, a Louisiana native, burst through for a 75-yard TD, followed by a successful two point conversion from Carr to WR Amari Cooper. With the Saints then starting at their 16, Brees completed a pass to Snead for a gain of 43 yards to the Oakland 26, but he fumbled. Rookie WR Michael Thomas alertly recovered the ball and one play later, Brees tossed the touchdown to Cadet that gave the Saints a seven-point lead before Oakland's final rally.

WEEK 2: New York Giants 16, Saints 13; September 18, 2016 @ MetLife Stadium – Already down one starter in Delvin Breaux with a fibula injury, a trio comprised of Ken Crawley, De'Vante Harris and Sterling Moore put up a gritty performance against a New York receiving trio comprised of Odell Beckham Jr., Victor Cruz and Sterling Shepard, keeping them out of the end zone after P.J. Williams was forced to depart.

In the second quarter, S Kenny Vaccaro stripped the ball from Giants RB Shane Vereen and it was picked up by LB James Laurinaitis at the Saints 36-yard line. On the Giants' subsequent possession, QB Eli Manning completed a pass to Cruz that gave the wideout open space, but S Jairus Byrd and Crawley remained in pursuit and dislodged the ball, which was picked up by Harris at the Saints 16. With the Giants receiving a final possession in the second quarter and in a matchup of the sons of former Saints teammates, LB Michael Mauti sacked Manning up the middle and forced him to cough the ball up and it was recovered by DE Paul Kruger at the Giants 25-yard line.

Adversity would hit again when a 38-yard field goal attempt by K Wil Lutz was blocked by Giants defensive tackle Jonathan Hankins and was recovered and returned by CB Janoris Jenkins 65 yards for a touchdown. However New Orleans got the ball back and QB Drew Brees completed passes of 17- and 23-yards to help set up a 39-yard field goal by Lutz with seven seconds left in the half to trail by only four points.

The Giants got the ball at the half and advanced to the Saints 35-yard line, but a 53-yard field goal attempt went wide left. While K Josh Brown connected on a 48-yard kick later in the third quarter, Brees and the Saints got the ball back and engineered a nine-play, 74-yard drive that ended with a 17-yard connection where WR Willie Snead IV made a jumping grab in the end zone to tie the score. When the Giants got the ball back, they advanced to the one-yard line, but the Saints defense stopped them on two straight run plays and a pass attempt, forcing a 19-yard field goal. Lutz later tied the score at 13-apiece with a 45-yard kick. Following the field goal, the Giants got the ball back with 2:54 remaining at their 25-yard line. Manning completed a pass for a 34-yard gain to Cruz at the Saints-two yard line and the Giants would milk the clock until there were two seconds left and Brown drilled a 23-yard field goal to secure the home-opening victory for the Giants.

WEEK 3: Atlanta Falcons 45, Saints 32; September 26, 2016 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – New Orleans' season continued to get off to a rocky start as they fell to the Falcons on a Monday Night Football contest at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

The Saints scored first in the contest on their first drive on a two-yard touchdown pass from QB Drew Brees to TE Coby Fleener. The New Orleans defense then got off to a solid start when a three-and-out was forced, capped by a sack by DT Nick Fairley and DE Cameron Jordan on third down. However, the Falcons would get the ball back on a fumble on the punt play and three plays later, RB Tevin Coleman tied the score on a two-yard touchdown run.

The rushing TD would be the start of an offensive onslaught for Atlanta as it would mark the first of five-consecutive offensive TDs on a performance where the Falcons would rush for 217 yards, the highest total against the Saints since 2014. Atlanta added a 90-yard interception return for a TD by Falcons LB Deion Jones.

Brees completed 36-of-54 passes for 376 yards with three touchdown passes. Fleener led the team in receiving yardage with seven grabs for 109 yards, including the first quarter touchdown grab. It was the first 100-yard performance of his Saints career and the fourth of his career. RB Mark Ingram had his most productive performance of the season when he carried 15 times for 77 yards and rushed for a two-point conversion and also caught four passes for 30 yards, including the first touchdown reception of his career.

Falcons QB Matt Ryan completed 20-of-30 passes for 240 yards with two TDs and a 113.2 quarterback rating. RB Devonta Freeman had 207 total yards from scrimmage, rushing for 152 and catching 55 more on five passes, as he led the Falcons in both rushing and receiving.

WEEK 4: New Orleans Saints 35, San Diego Chargers 34; October 2, 2016 @ Qualcomm Stadium – The Saints took their first win of the season at San Diego, battling to a 35-34 victory that saw New Orleans gain three takeaways in the last 6:50 of the contest, resulting in 14 points that helped them really from a 13-point deficit.

New Orleans started off fast as QB Drew Brees, in his first game at the Chargers since playing for them from 2001-05, engineered an 11-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a one-yard TD run by RB Mark Ingram. The two clubs then traded punts, but on San Diego's final possession of the first quarter, QB Philip Rivers completed a 20-yard touchdown to TE Hunter Henry to tie the score.

The Saints got the ball back and in a drive that ran into the second quarter, New Orleans advanced 75 yards in 14 plays, ending with a four-yard touchdown pass from Brees to FB John Kuhn. But the New Orleans defense would then struggle on a 57-yard completion for a touchdown from Rivers to WR Dontrelle Inman two plays later to tie the score and the Chargers took advantage of a Brees interception and a costly defensive offside penalty to score 10 more points and go into halftime with a 24-14 lead.

In the start to the second half, after forcing San Diego to punt for the first time since their first possession of the contest, New Orleans took advantage of field position starting at the San Diego 48-yard line and Kuhn punched in a one-yard touchdown to put the Saints back within three.

At the start of the fourth quarter, a defensive holding penalty assessed to New Orleans S Vonn Bell put the Chargers at the New Orleans one, allowing RB Melvin Gordon to run for a one-yard TD. Brees then tossed an interception two plays later that was returned to the New Orleans 26-yard line. However, the New Orleans defense held the Chargers to a field goal, giving them only a 13-point lead after DE Cameron Jordan sacked Rivers on third down. After an unsuccessful New Orleans drive, San Diego got the ball back, but Bell forced Gordon to cough up the ball, which was recovered by DE Darryl Tapp at the San Diego 13-yard line. Following three running plays, Brees completed a five-yard TD to WR Michael Thomas to put New Orleans within six with 4:50 to play on fourth down. When the Chargers got the ball back, WR Travis Benjamin fumbled on the first play and the ball was picked up by LB Nate Stupar at the SD 31-yard line.

New Orleans first advanced to the Chargers 21-yard line on a nine-yard rush and on third-and-one a nine-yard completion from Brees to WR Tommy Lee Lewis put the Saints at the 13. After converting another first down, Kuhn punched the ball in from the one-yard line with his third TD and on the ensuing drive, a sack by DT Nick Fairley and interception by CB B.W. Webb extinguished San Diego's comeback hopes.

WEEK 6: Saints 41, Carolina Panthers 38; October 16, 2016 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – The Saints behind QB Drew Brees, WR Brandin Cooks and the number two ranked offense and scoring unit in the NFL, beat the Panthers, 41-38 in a shootout where New Orleans got the final edge on a 52-yard field goal by K Wil Lutz at a sold-out Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

New Orleans got the ball first and Brees drove the Saints down the field in a 12-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a two-yard TD run by TE Coby Fleener on fourth-and-one. Late in the second quarter, Brees completed a pass to Cooks that the speedy wideout converted into an 87-yard TD, the second-longest passing play of the 2016 season across the NFL, as well as the sixth-longest passing play in franchise history.

CONTINUED - Week Six

On New Orleans' next possession, Brees found WR Michael Thomas for a nine-yard touchdown with 13:47 left in the first half. After the Panthers got to within 21-10, Lutz hit a 33-yard field goal near the end of the first half to give the Saints a 24-10 halftime lead.

Midway through the third quarter, Panthers QB Cam Newton completed a one-yard pass to TE Ed Dickson to put the Panthers within seven. But on the next drive, Brees threw his third touchdown pass, a 50-yard connection with Fleener.

Carolina scored two touchdowns at the start of the fourth quarter, but missed the extra point following their second score, allowing New Orleans to hold onto a 31-30 lead. New Orleans upped the lead back to 38-30 on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Brees to TE Josh Hill, but the Panthers tied the score late on a two-yard Newton touchdown run and a successful two-point conversion. When New Orleans got the ball back, Brees led the Saints on an 11-play, 41-yard drive that ended with Lutz's successful kick. Brees finished the game 34-of-49 for 465 yards with four touchdowns and a 118.2 rating and Cooks had seven grabs for a career-high 173 yards with the scoring grab.

WEEK 7: Kansas City Chiefs 27, Saints 21; October 23, 2016 @ Arrowhead Stadium- New Orleans dropped to 2-4 as a comeback from a third quarter 21-7 deficit fell short with a 27-21 final at Arrowhead Stadium, snapping a two-game win streak.

Getting the Chiefs defense off the field quickly, New Orleans scored on their opening drive for the club-record fourth consecutive contest, as QB Drew Brees drove New Orleans down the field on a 10-play, 80-yard drive, ending with a nine-yard TD pass to WR Brandin Cooks.

The Chiefs would answer quickly with a touchdown of their own as RB Spencer Ware would take an Alex Smith screen pass 46 yards for a touchdown. The Chiefs would score again after S Daniel Sorensen returned a Brees interception that was tipped 48 yards for a touchdown. After a Saints punt, the Chiefs would add a quick score on a 38-yard touchdown pass from Smith to Tyreek Hill.

Down 21-7 coming out of halftime, the Saints fought back with a 75-yard drive, capping it with a three-yard TD pass from Brees to RB Mark Ingram to pull within seven. The Saints defense would force a punt and a 39-yard Cairo

Santos field goal making it 24-14 with 3:26 to play in the third, but after an Ingram fumble at the Kansas City 13-yard line midway through the fourth quarter, time was at a premium for the Saints. After a defensive stop, Brees threw a 10-yard TD pass to WR Brandon Coleman to pull within a field goal with 2:33 left in the fourth quarter to cut Kansas City's lead to 24-21. After an unsuccessful onside kick and being hurt by a personal foul penalty assessed to DT Nick Fairley, the best the Saints could do would be to hold the Chiefs to a 41-yard field goal by Santos, extending the lead to 27-21. With 28 seconds remaining, the Saints started their last drive at their 25-yard line and would fall short after making it to midfield as time expired.

WEEK 8: Saints 25, Seattle Seahawks 20; October 30, 2016 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – The Saints snapped the Seahawks' four-game unbeaten streak and improved to 3-4 following a 25-20 victory last Sunday at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

After the Saints and Seahawks traded punts to start the contest, RB Mark Ingram fumbled the ball on New Orleans' second offensive series and it was picked up by Seattle S Earl Thomas at the Saints 34-yard line and returned it for a touchdown. New Orleans finally started to find their groove offensively with a 15-play, 83-yard drive that featured two key third down conversions in New Orleans territory and ended with a 22-yard field goal by K Wil Lutz. The Seahawks took a 14-3 lead with 9:53 remaining in the second quarter on a two-yard rushing touchdown by RB Christine Michael. The Saints would move within one at the end of the first half when Lutz booted a 53-yard field goal and QB Drew Brees ran a one-yard quarterback sneak for a touchdown.

Getting the ball coming out of the second half, the Seahawks extended their lead to 17-13 on a 44-yard field goal by K Steven Hauschka, when they put together an 11-play, 49-yard drive, keyed by 31 rushing yards by Michael on five carries. The Saints responded with an 11-play, 74-yard drive that ended with a 21-yard field goal by Lutz. The key play came on a 38-yard completion from Brees to WR Brandon Coleman, coming on a flea flicker play which put the Saints in field goal range. After the New Orleans defense then forced a three-and-out, New Orleans got their first lead with 12:24 left in the contest on a two-yard touchdown from Brees to WR Brandin Cooks, capping a nine-play, 71-yard drive, where the signal-caller completed four-of-four passes, totaling 30 yards with a 28-yard rush by RB Tim Hightower mixed in.

CONTINUED - Week Eight

On the next drive, New Orleans would allow the Seahawks to advance as far as their three-yard line, but kept the Seahawks out of the end zone, forcing a 21-yard Hauschka field goal and keeping a 22-20 lead.

New Orleans then got the ball back with 6:38 left in the contest and on a key third-and-five play from the Seattle 44-yard line, Brees connected on a 20-yard completion to Cooks in the middle of the field that would help set up a 41-yard field goal by Lutz, his fourth of the game, extending New Orleans' lead to 25-20 with 1:57 left. On their final drive, Seattle would advance to the New Orleans 10-yard line, with Seahawks QB Russell Wilson keeping his team's hopes alive with a third-and-six completion to WR Doug Baldwin for a 27-yard gain. The Saints were not done from a defensive standpoint though as they successfully kept the Seahawks out of the end zone, as Seattle WR Jermaine Kearse failed to make a tough catch in the back of the end zone as time expired.

New Orleans failed to reach 400 yards of offense after outputs of 523 yards and 463 yards in the past two contests, but a balanced offensive approach of 35 passes and 35 runs proved to be successful as a team scored on Seattle's traditionally stingy defense on six-consecutive offensive possessions for the first time since December 27, 2009. Brees completed 27-of-35 passes for 265 yards with one touchdown, no interceptions and a 107.4 passer rating. Hightower carried 26 times for 102 yards as a Saint reached the century mark for the first time this season. It marked the sixth 100-yard rushing game of Hightower's career and second as a Saint. He fell just two carries short of matching the career-high 28 attempts he set as a Saint last season at Tampa Bay on Dec. 13, 2015.

Cooks caught four passes for 44 yards with the touchdown, while fellow WRs Willie Snead IV and Michael Thomas had six grabs apiece. LB Nate Stupar had his first-career interception, picking off Wilson in the second quarter. Lutz was four-for-four on field goal attempts, including a 53-yard conversion in the second quarter, marking his third make of 50-plus yards this season, one shy of the franchise record in a season. He also became the first Saints kicker to make four field goals in a contest since K Zach Hocker converted on four attempts at Arizona on Sept. 13, 2015.

Week 9: Saints 41, San Francisco 49ers 23; November 6, 2016 @ Levi's Stadium— The Saints continued to stay hot beating the San Francisco 49ers 41-23 using a dominant and balanced offensive attack.

After an opening drive punt for the Saints, San Francisco would strike first, with K Phil Dawson drilling a 49-yard field goal to take an early 3-0 lead. New Orleans would respond with a scoring drive of their own as RB Tim Hightower would cap a 10-play, 83-yard drive with a four-yard touchdown run to put the Saints ahead 7-3. The Saints would get the ball back quickly thanks to LB Craig Robertson interception of QB Colin Kaepernick. QB Drew Brees and the offense would capitalize quickly with Brees finding WR Michael Thomas for a one-yard touchdown. After a defensive stop on a fourth-and-one, New Orleans would again put points on the board, this time on a RB Mark Ingram five-yard touchdown reception.

However, the 49ers would answer quickly with Kaepernick connecting with RB DuJuan Harris on a 47-yard screen pass for the touchdown, bringing the score to 21-10. The prolific first half scoring would continue for the Saints as Ingram would burst through for a career-long 75-yard touchdown run giving New Orleans a commanding 28-10 lead. The 49ers would chip away at the Saints lead with Dawson converting on a 48-yard field goal. Following a Saints three-and-out, Kaepernick would find TE Vance McDonald for a 65-yard score, making it a one score game at 28-20. With 1:16 remaining in the opening half, Brees and company drove 71 yards, setting K Wil Lutz up for a 26-yard field goal to give them a 31-20 halftime lead.

After the 49ers drove 60 yards on the opening second half drive, Saints LB Nate Stupar forced a fumble of RB Mike Davis, with Stupar recovering the fumble at the New Orleans one-yard line. After the Saints were unable to capitalize on the turnover, San Francisco would add a 46-yard field goal by Dawson making it 31-23. Following a missed field goal by Lutz and a punt by San Francisco, the Saints found the end zone on a 32-yard pass from Brees to Thomas, his second scoring grab of the game. The Saints defense continued their second half resurgence when S Kenny Vaccaro recovered a Kaepernick fumble at the New Orleans eight-yard line. On San Francisco's final drive, Vaccaro forced a fumble of Harris that would be recovered by S Vonn Bell, capping a season-best +4 turnover differential for the game.

GAME SUMMARIES

Week 10: Denver Broncos 25, Saints 23; November 13, 2016 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – New Orleans was unable to take advantage of productive defensive showing as a blocked PAT attempt returned for a two-point conversion would drop the Saints to 4-5 on the season. The return for the two-point conversion was only the third such return since the rule change prior to the 2015 season and first ever against New Orleans.

After New Orleans' opening drive stalled at midfield, the Broncos would get on the scoreboard first with QB Trevor Siemian finding WR Jordan Taylor for the 14-yard score, capping a 13-play, 85-yard drive that spanned 7:15. The Saints offense continued to sputter, as on the following drive, S Darian Stewart intercepted QB Drew Brees at the Denver seven-yard line. Following a defensive stop, Brees would again be intercepted by Stewart, this time at midfield, with Stewart returning it to the New Orleans 39-yard line. K Brandon McManus would connect on a 50-yard field goal to extend the Broncos lead to 10-0.

Momentum would shift near the end of the first half when CB Sterling Moore would intercept Siemian at the Saints 38-yard line, giving New Orleans an opportunity to score before the half. The Saints would capitalize on the misstep with Brees moving the offense 50 yards in five plays to set up K Wil Lutz for the 30-yard field goal, bringing the score to 10-3 at the half.

New Orleans would carry this momentum into the second half, with Brees engineering a seven-play, 90-yard drive that culminated in a three-yard touchdown grab by WR Willie Snead IV. Following an interception by S Kenny Vaccaro, the Saints offense would again go to work, going on a four-play, 38-yard drive that ended with another Snead IV touchdown, giving the Saints their first lead of the game at 17-10.

After a fourth quarter that saw two fumbles by WR Michael Thomas that each led to Broncos field goals, New Orleans would get the ball back with 2:50 remaining in the game down 17-23. On second-and-10, Brees would find WR Brandin Cooks for a 29-yard gain, giving the Saints a first down at the Broncos 46-yard line. Brees and Cooks would again connect on an incredible end-zone game-tying 32-yard touchdown. However, on the ensuing PAT attempt, S Justin Simmons blocked the kick, which would be recovered by S Will Parks and returned 68 yards for the two-point conversion to win the game for the Broncos.

Week 11: Carolina Panthers 23, Saints 20; November 17, 2016 @ Bank of America – New Orleans was unable to overcome a slow start as a 17-point fourth quarter output wasn't enough to claim the victory on the road in Carolina on a short week.

New Orleans would make a costly mistake early as on their first offensive possession, QB Drew Brees was sacked and fumbled, giving the Panthers possession at the New Orleans 32-yard line. Carolina would turn this early turnover into a 32-yard K Graham Gano field goal as the Saints defense held on to limit the Panthers to just three points. On their next series, the Saints offense would gain some traction, going 71 yards in 14 plays, leading to a K Wil Lutz 27-yard field goal to even the score at three apiece.

In the second quarter, the Saints offense would commit another costly mistake as Brees was intercepted by S Kurt Coleman on a pass intended for TE Coby Fleener. Carolina would make them pay when RB Jonathan Stewart scored from one-yard out to put Carolina up 10-3. After another Saints three-and-out, the Panthers would add on another Gano field goal, extending their lead to 13-3.

With 2:50 remaining in the first half, New Orleans would get the ball back, with Brees leading the Saints to the Carolina 20-yard line. In a game-changing set of events, the 38-yard field goal attempt by Lutz was blocked by DT Vernon Butler and returned 88 yards by LB Luke Kuechly, much of it being nullified on a Panthers block in the back. Getting the ball on the New Orleans 40-yard line on the ensuing play, QB Cam Newton connected with WR Ted Ginn Jr. for a 40-yard touchdown, a play that was initially ruled out but overturned for a score on review. Carolina would go to the locker room enjoying a 20-23 advantage.

Carolina would add to their lead on the opening possession of the second half, with Newton leading the offense on a 14-play, 51-yard drive that ended in a Gano 42-yard field goal. The New Orleans offense would get things going on their ensuing possession, as a 58-yard drive that spanned 16 plays would end on a 30-yard field goal by Lutz. After forcing a Panthers three-and-out, New Orleans would once again get on the board, this time on a nine-yard touchdown strike from Brees to WR Brandon Coleman. Following two more Carolina three-and-outs, Brees would lead New Orleans on a 13-play, 76-yard drive, ultimately finding Fleener for the eight-yard score and cutting the Panthers lead to 23-20.

New Orleans would run out of time as Newton would find WR Kelvin Benjamin for 18 yards on a key third down to ice the game.

GAME SUMMARIES

Week 12: Saints 49, Los Angeles Rams 21; November 27, 2016 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – New Orleans turned in one of its most productive outings offensively as they used a balanced attack to overwhelm a Los Angeles Rams defense that came into the game allowing the sixth-lowest amount of points across the NFL. The 49-point output was New Orleans' highest of the 2016 season thus far.

However Los Angeles would strike first as QB Jared Goff, making his second-career start and first on the road, led the Rams offense on a six-play, 75 yard drive ending in a WR Tavon Austin 24-yard touchdown grab. After trading punts with Los Angeles, New Orleans would get on the board with QB Drew Brees throwing his first of four touchdown passes, this one to WR Brandon Coleman for the three-yard score. On the ensuing Saints possession however, Brees would be sack by DT Aaron Donald causing a fumble that would put the Rams offense on the New Orleans six-yard line. WR Kenny Britt would catch a six-yard touchdown on the next play giving the Rams the early 14-7 lead.

RB Mark Ingram, who would have his most productive game of the season thus far, would run it in from 10 yards out on fourth-and-one on the next Saints possession, capping a nine-play, 75-yard drive that would even the score at 14-14. On the next Rams possession, DT Sheldon Rankins made his most impactful play of 2016, sacking Goff and causing a fumble that would be recovered by DE Paul Kruger at the Los Angeles 10-yard line. On fourth-and-one, Brees would QB sneak it for the score, giving the Saints a lead they would not relinquish.

After forcing a Rams three-and-out, Brees would lead the Saints offense on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that would end with a WR Michael Thomas six-yard touchdown. However, Los Angeles would answer before the half as Goff would find TE Lance Kendricks for a 15-yard touchdown that would bring the score to 28-21 at the half.

In the second half, the New Orleans defense would turn in its most dominating half of football as the Rams offense would be held scoreless. Opening the Saints scoring in the second half was Ingram, who caught a 21-yard touchdown, followed by Thomas' second touchdown catch of the day, bringing the score to 42-21. At the start of the fourth quarter, the Saints offense would add some trickery as WR Willie Snead IV would throw a 50-yard touchdown to RB Tim Hightower, extending the New Orleans lead to 49-21.

TEAM NOTES

ROSTER ROLL CALL

Of the 53 players on the current Saints roster, 28 were on the active roster, a reserve list or the practice squad at the end of the 2015 season. Among newcomers, the roster includes five unrestricted free agents, eight veteran free agents, five draft picks, six rookie free agents and one veteran claimed off of waivers.

Of the 53 players, 29 have less than four years of previous NFL experience, including 11 who are in their first NFL season. Below is a breakdown of the Saints roster by years of experience (year entering): 16 years-1, 13 years-1, 11 years-5, 8 years-7, 7 years-1, 6 years-5, 5 years-4, 4 years-8, 3 years-2, 2 years-7, rookies-11.

HIGHER EDUCATION

44 colleges and universities are represented on the Saints' 53-man roster. Of that total, eight are represented by multiple Saints, three from Southern Methodist, and two apiece from Alabama, California, Colorado, Ohio State, Oregon, Stanford and Texas.

MY HOMETOWN

Saints players come from 20 different states, Washington D.C., Germany and Nigeria. Of the 53 players currently on the team's active roster, the state which claims the most members of the team is Texas with 10 (quarterbacks Drew Brees and Luke McCown, long snapper Justin Drescher, defensive back De'Vante Harris, running back Daniel Lasco, running back, return specialist Marcus Murphy, punter Thomas Morstead, linebacker Craig Robertson and safeties Kenny Vaccaro and Chris Banjo).

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

A spot on the practice squad is another avenue to get onto the active roster and have the opportunity to contribute. New Orleans has 11 players on their current 53-man roster who moved up after being on a practice squad before being promoted. Below is an overview of these players with extensive practice squad experience.

S Chris Banjo joined the Saints in Week 11 after beginning the 2016 season with the Green Bay Packers, in order to provide depth at the safety position while playing a role on special teams. Over 39 career games, the Sugar Land, Texas native has registered 19 tackles (16 solo), two passes defended and 37 special teams stops. Over two games played for the Saints, he has posted one special teams tackle.

WR Brandon Coleman was signed by New Orleans out of Rutgers following the 2014 NFL Draft. Coleman spent the majority of his rookie campaign on the practice squad before being elevated to the active roster for the regular season finale. Coleman won a roster spot on the 2015 opening day roster, making 30 receptions for 454 yards (15.4 avg.) with two TD grabs. He has played in 11 games in 2016 (two starts), catching 20 passes for 226 yards and a career-high three TDs with one special teams stop.

An eight-year NFL veteran, T Tony Hills has persevered on three practice squads and after starting the 2015 season on the Baltimore practice roster, the former University of Texas standout was signed to the Saints active roster. Now in his second season with New Orleans, Hills has appeared in eight games, seeing extensive time at left tackle on Oct. 16 against Carolina in place of an injured Peat.

G/C Senio Kelemete participated on the Saints practice squad in 2013 after spending the 2012 campaign on the Arizona Cardinals active roster. In 2015, he started three games at right guard, one at left guard and started the season's final contest against Atlanta at left tackle. It was his first career start at the position. In 2016, he has played in 10 contests with five starts.

Originally added to the Texans practice squad after being drafted by Houston in 2011, S Shiloh Keo has played in 52 career games (11 starts) and six postseason contests (one start) with Houston (2011-13) and Denver (2015). He has totaled 68 tackles, three INTs and eight passes defended, with 25 special teams stops. Over three games with New Orleans in 2016, he has posted four special teams stops.

Originally signed as an undrafted free agent out of Shippensburg University by the Pittsburgh Steelers following the 2005 NFL Draft, FB John Kuhn would begin his NFL career on the practice squad of the Steelers from 2005-06, before being elevated to the Steelers active roster. In 2016, he has rushed 13 times for 29 yards with three touchdowns and has added 11 catches for 48 yards with one TD over 11 games played with two starts.

Signed as an undrafted free agent out of Ferris State in 2016, WR Jake Lampman spent the first five weeks of the season on the team's practice squad, before he was signed to the active roster in Week Six. Over five games played in his rookie campaign, he has recorded six special teams stops, good for second on the team.

Initially signed to the Cleveland Browns practice squad after competing on a tryout basis during his rookie season in 2011, the versatile LB Craig Robertson would seize this opportunity, making the 53-man roster the following season. In 2016 over 11 starts, he has posted 106 tackles (80 solo), one sack, one interception, one fumble recovery, five passes defended and three special teams stops.

WR Willie Snead IV first entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with Cleveland in 2014 out of Ball State.

Appearing in 15 games last season, including eight starts, Snead made 69 receptions for 984 yards (14.3 avg.) and three TDs. In 10 games with three starts in 2016, he has recorded 51 receptions for 593 yards and four touchdowns. On Nov. 27 vs. Los Angeles, he completed his first NFL pass attempt, a 50-yard touchdown to RB Tim Hightower.

LB Nate Stupar came to the NFL as a seventh-round draft pick of the Raiders in the 2012 NFL Draft (230th overall), later signing to their practice squad. The former Penn State standout would also spend time on the practice squads of the Eagles and 49ers. In 2016, he has played in 11 contests with five starts and has posted 48 tackles (32 solo), one sack, one INT, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, two passes defended and eight special teams stops.

CB B.W. Webb joined the Saints in Week Two of the 2016 season after previous stints with the Tennessee Titans (2015), Pittsburgh Steelers (2014) and Dallas Cowboys (2013). Originally drafted by the Cowboys in the fourth round (114th overall) of the 2013 NFL Draft, this fourth-year cornerback has tallied 17 tackles (14 solo), one interception, a team-best 11 passes defended and one special teams stop over nine games with four starts for New Orleans in 2016

BUCKING THE ODDS

Players whose names are not called in the NFL Draft each spring face challenging odds in sticking on a team, with every snap or drill in OTAs, minicamps and training camp under evaluation. Yet the current 2016 53-man roster features 18 undrafted players who bucked the odds, seven of whom started at least one contest for the Saints prior to this season. Undrafted players on the current Saints 53-man roster with NFL experience include Banjo, CB Delvin Breaux, RB Travaris Cadet, Coleman, LS Justin Drescher, DE Kasim Edebali, LB Dannell Ellerbe, TE Josh Hill, G Tim Lelito, CB Sterling Moore, Robertson and Snead IV.

A New Orleans native who suffered a serious neck injury as a high school senior at McDonogh 35 that did not allow him to play football at LSU where he was committed, the persistent Breaux took a route through the GDFL, the AFL and the CFL. Going on to start all 16 contests in 2015, Breaux finished with 49 tackles (38 solo), a team-high three INTs, 23 passes defended and one fumble recovery. Breaux was voted by his teammates as the club's 2015 Ed Block Courage Award winner. On Nov. 6 against the 49ers, he returned from a six game absence due to a broken fibula. He has made 11 tackles (nine solo) over four starts in 2016.

Signed out of Appalachian State, Cadet has played in 58 career games (three starts) and has carried for 69 yards on 24 attempts, made 83 receptions for 693 yards with four TDs and returned 63 kickoffs for 1,531 yards (24.3 avg.). Over 10 games played with one start in 2016, he has rushed twice for four yards, caught 21 passes for 134 yards with one TD and returned 10 kicks for 144 yards (14.4 avg.), also adding three special teams stops.

Signed as an undrafted free agent out of the University of Colorado in 2010 by Atlanta and picked up by New Orleans at midseason, Drescher has handled long-snapping duties for 97 consecutive games, adding four special teams stops.

A Hamburg, Germany native who started playing football in middle school prior to further developing his skills in prep school in New Hampshire, Edebali was signed following the 2014 NFL Draft out of Boston College and in two seasons has played in all 43 games with two starts. In 2016, he has seen action in all 11 games with one start and has totaled 11 tackles (seven solo), one sack, three passes defended and four special teams stops.

Signed as an undrafted free agent by Baltimore out of Georgia in 2009, Ellerbe has appeared in 72 games with 38 starts, posting totals of 362 tackles (261 solo), 9.5 sacks, three INTs, 14 passes defended, a forced fumble, four fumble recoveries, 18 special teams stops and a coverage forced fumble. Over four starts in 2016, he has posted 24 tackles (12 solo), three sacks and one pass defended.

A 2013 undrafted free agent signing by New Orleans out of Idaho State, Hill has played in 54 career games with 20 starts and has posted 50 catches for 486 yards (9.7 avg.) with nine TDs and 27 special teams stops. In 2016, he has caught 14 passes for 146 yards with one TD over eight games played with seven starts. On Nov. 27 vs. the Rams, he recorded a career-high six receptions for a career-best 74 yards, including a long-reception of 35 yards.

Signed as a free agent out of Grand Valley State in 2013, Lelito has appeared in 58 regular season contests and two playoff games over his four-year career while making 20 starts. He has played in 11 games with five starts in 2016.

Moore comes to New Orleans after spending the 2016 offseason and preseason with Buffalo and the 2015 campaign with Tampa Bay. The 5-10, 202-pound Southern Methodist product has started 26-of-64 career games while accumulating 153 tackles, six interceptions, 33 passes defended, seven forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. Over eight games played in 2016 (seven starts), he has registered 29 tackles (24 solo), two interceptions, eight passes defended and one forced fumble.

Below is the list of the 26 undrafted rookies who were signed by the Saints as free agents since 2006 who have earned spots on the club's opening day roster:

Rk. Team	Sacks
1. New Orleans	265
2. New York Giants	288
3. Indianapolis Colts	293

Ahead is a synopsis of several returning players and newcomers through the draft, free agency and trade to the 2016 Saints offensive line:

LT Terron Armstead - The club's first third round draft choice in 2013 out of Arkansas-Pine Bluff, Armstead impressed scouts by running the fastest 40-yard dash time (4.71) by an offensive lineman in the history of the NFL Scouting Combine. He has opened 35 regular season games and two postseason contests for New Orleans. In 2016, he has opened six games at left tackle, missing five contests due to a knee injury.

G Jahri Evans - The 2006 fourth round draft choice made a rapid ascent from his small school roots at Bloomsburg into one of the NFL's top interior linemen and the top guard in team history. Evans's been named to six Pro Bowls since 2009, as well as being named an AP first-team All-Pro selection from 2009-12 and a second-team selection in 2013. Overall, Evans has started 164 contests at right guard for New Orleans, the ninth-highest total for games played in team record books. In 2016, he has opened all 11 games at right guard.

C/G Senio Kelemete - Originally a fifth round selection of the Arizona Cardinals (151st overall) in the 2012 NFL Draft, since first joining the New Orleans practice squad at the start of the 2013 season, this fourth-year offensive lineman has displayed the versatility to play every position on the offensive line. The 6-foot-3, 300-pounder played in all 16 games for the first time in his career in 2015 and opened five games, including contests at both guard positions and at right tackle. He has appeared in 10 games in 2016 with five starts, last starting at LG at Carolina on Nov. 17.

G Tim Lelito - Originally signed as an undrafted free agent out of Grand Valley State in 2013, this lineman proved the jump was not too big from Division II to the NFL as he's started at all three interior positions. In 2015, Lelito won the starting left guard slot in the preseason, but ended up seeing significant action at both guard spots. He opened 11 contests at left guard and two at right guard. He has appeared in all 11 games in 2016 (five starts).

T Andrus Peat - A first round selection (13th overall) in the 2015 NFL Draft out of Stanford, Peat was considered one of the top college offensive linemen in 2014. In his rookie campaign, Peat saw action in 12 contests with eight starts, being inserted into several offensive packages, including two starts at left tackle in place of an injured Armstead. In 2016, he has started 10 contests, opening five games at left guard, while making five starts at left tackle in place of an injured Armstead.

RT Zach Strief - This 2006 seventh round pick out of Northwestern has appeared in 151 regular season games with 87 starts and played in 10 postseason contests, four which he has opened. He has become even more durable with age, appearing in and starting 42 consecutive postseason and regular season contests at his right tackle position, before missing last season's Week 16 contest against Jacksonville with an elbow injury. He has made all 11 starts at right tackle in 2016.

C Max Unger - After being acquired by the Saints via trade at the start of the 2015 offseason, Max Unger anchored the middle of the New Orleans line, including being the lone offensive linemen to open all 16 contests. Originally a second round draft pick of the Seahawks in 2009, Unger has been named a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press in 2012 and is a two-time Pro Bowler, helping the Seahawks to two Super Bowl appearances and a victory in Super Bowl XLVIII. For the 2016 season, he was voted one of two offensive team captains. Unger has opened all 94 games he has played in since 2009, including all 11 in 2016.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

DEFENSIVE DRAFT

Over the last two NFL Drafts, New Orleans has shown a commitment to improving the defense, with five players selected over the last two drafts on the current Saints 53-man roster. Below is an overview of these five players:

LB Stephone Anthony, Clemson (D1b-15) - In his rookie campaign, Anthony started all 16 games at middle linebacker and led the team with a club rookie record 144 tackles (99 solo), while adding one sack, one interception, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery, one defensive touchdown, one defensive two-point conversion off of a blocked PAT attempt, five passes defended and one special teams stop. His total stops led NFL rookies and he was a consensus All-Rookie selection. In the club's Week 13 game vs. Carolina, he took a blocked PAT kick attempt back 82 yards for the two-point conversion, marking the first time in NFL history that a blocked PAT kick attempt led to a two-point conversion since the rule change before the 2015 season. In eight games played with two starts in 2016, he has posted six tackles (three solo), including one tackle for loss and three special teams stops.

S Vonn Bell, Ohio State (D2b-16) - Selected by New Orleans in the second round (61st overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft, Bell was a consensus All-American and one of the top rated defensive backs in the NFL Draft. As a senior, the Rossville, Ga. native was a Jim Thorpe Award semifinalist after recording 65 tackles and adding two interceptions, one brought back for a TD, one fumble recovery and 11 passes defended. He started 28 games his final two years at Ohio State, and posted career totals of nine interceptions, 176 stops, 24 passes defended, two fumble recoveries and four tackles behind the line of scrimmage. Over 11 games played with eight starts in his rookie campaign, he has recorded 62 tackles (37 solo), one half sack, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery, four passes defended and five special teams stops.

DT Tyeler Davison, Fresno State (D5b-15) - This run-stopping widebody defensive lineman played in 53 career games at Fresno State and made 28.5 stops for a loss and 14.5 sacks. In 2015, Davison played 16 games (five starts), finishing his rookie campaign with 26 tackles (15 solo) and 1.5 sacks. In 10 games played in 2016, all starts, he has totaled 23 tackles (12 solo) and one pass defended.

DL David Onyemata (D4-16) - Possessing a unique combination of size and speed, this Lagos, Nigeria native turned in a productive college career north of the border at the University of Manitoba, as the first member of the Bisons program to be drafted. In 37 career games, he posted 166 tackles, 9.5 sacks, two passes defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. Over 11 games played in 2016, he has tallied 17 tackles (eight solo).

DT Sheldon Rankins - Drafted by New Orleans 12th overall in the 2016 NFL Draft out of Louisville, Rankins played in 46 games along the defensive line at Louisville, producing 133 tackles (72 solo), 31.5 tackles for loss and 18 sacks during his collegiate career. A two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection, Rankins racked up a career-high 58 tackles, 13 tackles for loss, six sacks, one pass defended and one fumble recovery returned 46 yards for a touchdown as a senior in 2015. After a leg injury forced him to miss the first seven games of 2016, Rankins has appeared in four games, posting 14 tackles (six solo), two sacks and one forced fumble. On Nov. 27 vs. Los Angeles, he posted his first forced fumble after posting his second-career sack, a takedown of QB Jared Goff.

NEW FACES ON DEFENSE

Along with the NFL Draft, New Orleans used free agency to add pieces to their defense, bringing players from other teams, as well as other leagues to help create the perfect mixture of veteran leadership and young talent in the Saints locker room. Below is an overview of those players:

DT Nick Fairley - Fairley comes to New Orleans after spending the past five seasons contributing to the defensive line rotations of the Detroit Lions (2011-14) and St. Louis Rams (2015). He has recorded 200 tackles (121 solo), 18.5 sacks, four passes defended, five forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries over 72 games played with 41 starts. Originally a first round draft pick of Detroit in 2011 out of Auburn, Fairley has started all 11 games in 2016, posting 37 tackles (24 solo) and 4.5 sacks.

S Roman Harper - Re-signed this offseason with New Orleans, where he established himself as one of the NFL's most physical defensive backs, Roman Harper is the only safety in team history to have been selected to two Pro Bowls. His 18 career sacks rank first among active defensive backs and are tied for ninth all-time. The Prattville, Ala. native is now in his 11th season, after playing his first eight in New Orleans and his last two with the Carolina Panthers. In 2016, he has posted eight tackles (four solo) and three special teams stop over 11 games played with one start.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

DE Paul Kruger - Winning Super Bowl XLVII in New Orleans as a member of the Baltimore Ravens after the 2012 season, Kruger comes to New Orleans after spending the previous three campaigns with the Cleveland Browns. Originally drafted by the Baltimore Ravens in the second round (57th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft out of Utah, Kruger has appeared in 10 games with eight starts for the Saints in 2016, registering 26 tackles (15 solo), 1.5 sacks, one pass defensed and two fumble recoveries.

CB Sterling Moore - Signed just before the start of the 2016 season, Moore has proven to be a key acquisition for the New Orleans secondary, registering 29 tackles (24 solo), two interceptions, eight passes defensed and one forced fumble over eight games played with seven starts in 2016. His two interceptions are tied for the team lead.

LB Craig Robertson - Robertson joins the Saints after spending his first five NFL seasons with Cleveland. He has tallied 420 tackles (281 solo), five sacks, seven interceptions, 20 passes defensed, two forced fumbles, six fumble recoveries, one touchdown and 35 special teams stops over 69 games with 48 starts. In 2015, he appeared in 12 games with nine starts and totaled 50 tackles (30 solo), one INT, five passes defensed, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and nine special teams stops. Starting all 11 contests in 2016, he has totaled a team-high 106 tackles (80 solo), one sack, one fumble recovery, five passes defensed and three special teams stops.

LB Nate Stupar - The former Penn State standout has appeared in 54 career contests with eight starts for four clubs and has posted career totals of 79 tackles (57 solo), one interception, two sacks, three passes defensed, two forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries and 35 special teams stops. In his first season with the Black and Gold, he has played in 11 games with five starts and has posted 48 tackles (32 solo), one sack, one INT, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and eight special teams stops.

DE Darryl Tapp - Originally selected by the Seattle Seahawks in the second round (53rd overall) of the 2006 NFL Draft out of Virginia Tech, Tapp has played in 157 career NFL games with 37 starts and has recorded totals of 323 tackles (247 solo), 28.0 sacks, two interceptions, one returned for a touchdown, 22 passes defensed, 11 forced fumbles, 10 fumble recoveries and seven special teams tackles over 11 seasons. In 11 games played in 2016 (one start), he has recorded 26 tackles (12 solo), one half sack and one fumble recovery.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

Under the guidance of Greg McMahon, in his 11th season on the coaching staff and his ninth as coordinator and his assistant Stan Kwan, the Saints special teams is once again one of the team's most consistent position groups.

- K Wil Lutz is in his first season with New Orleans, joining the team after originally being signed by the Baltimore Ravens as an undrafted free agent out of Georgia State following the 2016 NFL Draft. Over his rookie campaign, he has connected on 16-of-22 (72.7 pct.) FG attempts, including a career-long 57-yard field goal against Atlanta on Sept. 26, the third-longest made field goal in franchise history, matching Kai Forbath's 57-yarder at Houston last year. He is also 38-for-39 on PAT attempts. On Oct. 16 against Carolina, he kicked a 52-yard game-winning field goal with :13 remaining to collect the first game-winning FG of his career, the longest game-winning kick by a Saint since 1984. He was named the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week, becoming the first rookie kicker in Saints team history to be recognized by the league as a Special Teams Player of the Week. On Oct. 30 against Seattle, he was four-for-four on FG attempts, including a 53-yard conversion in the second quarter, marking his third make of 50-plus yards this season, one shy of the franchise record in a season. Following his performance, he was awarded his second NFC Special Teams Player of the Week, becoming the second Saints kicker to receive the honor twice in the same season (John Carney, 2001).

- P Thomas Morstead, who has been a weapon in the field position game with his strong leg, outstanding placement abilities and booming kickoffs, returns for his eighth year with New Orleans. Over his eight-year career, the club's fifth-round draft choice (164th overall) in 2009 from Southern Methodist University, has posted a club-record career gross average of 47.0 on 451 punts, ranked third all-time in the NFL (compiled by the NFL since 1939), with a team-best career 41.1 net average, which is ranked third all-time (compiled by NFL since 1976) and has placed 153 punts inside the 20-yard line, while also booming 258 kickoffs in the end zone for touchbacks. Morstead has recorded three of the top ten all-time single-season net yardage figures (compiled by the NFL since 1976). In Week One against the Raiders, he played in his 111th career game, moving him into sole possession of 31st in club record books in games played, surpassing a tie with Tommy Barnhardt for most games played by a punter. In 2016, he has punted 41 times for 2,006 yards (48.9 avg.) and has placed 17 of his punts inside the 20-yard line.

QUARTERBACKS

DREW BREES

- Since signing with the New Orleans Saints as an unrestricted free agent in 2006 from the San Diego Chargers, Drew Brees has thrown for 4,000 or more yards each season, became the only quarterback to throw for 5,000 yards four different times, set the league single-season yardage record in 2011 (broken by Peyton Manning in 2013) and ranked at or near the top in every passing category, both in single-seasons and over the 10-year period, breaking nearly every club record.

- He opened the 2016 season against Oakland going 28-of-42 for 423 yards, four TDs and a 131.3 passer rating. With 4,306 passing yards on kickoff weekend for his career, he joined Peyton Manning as the only QBs in NFL history to throw for at least 4,000 yards on opening weekend over their careers. It was also his sixth-consecutive week one game with at least 300 yards passing, surpassing a record held by Kurt Warner (1999-2003).

- Since 2006, he leads the NFL with 52,142 passing yards, 378 touchdown passes, 6,732 attempts, 4,566 completions, a 67.8% completion percentage, 96 games with at least 300 yards passing, 15 with at least 400 yards passing, 393 completions of 25 yards or more and stands at fourth in the league with a 99.7 passer rating.

- Brees has been selected to play in a club-record eight Pro Bowls as a Saint, with nine overall berths in the NFL's all-star game twice as a starter. His seven consecutive selections as a Saint is tied for first in franchise history with Pro Football Hall of Fame tackle William Roaf.

- Brees has posted a 99-70 regular season record in contests he has started since signing with the Saints in 2006. In 2015 at Atlanta, he recorded his 100th career victory as a Saints quarterback. Including his six playoff victories, his 105 total wins in a Saints uniform make him the winningest quarterback in franchise history. Overall, Brees' win total as a member of the Saints ranks fourth among all NFL QBs since 2006.

- In his 16-year NFL career where he's appeared in 228 games with 227 starts, Brees has completed 5,691-of-8,541 passes (66.6%) for 64,490 yards, 458 touchdown passes and a 96.6 passer rating. He's the NFL's all-time most accurate passer, is ranked third in completions, third in TD passes, third in passing yardage and sixth in passer rating. In Week Two at the New York Giants, he surpassed Dan Marino (61,361) to move into third place on the NFL's all-time passing yardage list.

LUKE McCOWN

• McCown is in his 13th NFL season and fourth with New Orleans. Originally a fourth round selection (106th overall) in the 2004 NFL Draft by Cleveland, the former Louisiana Tech standout has played in 63 career games with 10 starts with the Browns, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, the Jacksonville Jaguars, the Atlanta Falcons and the Saints. He has completed 216-of-356 passes for 2,070 yards with nine touchdowns and a 71.3 rating.

RUNNING BACKS

TRAVARIS CADET

• Cadet returned to New Orleans for the final two games of the 2015 season, after splitting the beginning of the year between the New England Patriots and San Francisco 49ers. Originally signed by the Saints as an undrafted free agent out of Appalachian State following the 2012 NFL Draft, Cadet spent his first three seasons with the Black and Gold, proving to be effective at running back, wide receiver and return specialist. In 2016, he has rushed for four yards on two attempts, made 21 receptions for 134 yards with one touchdown, and added 144 yards on 10 kickoff returns over 10 games played with one start.

TIM HIGHTOWER

• Originally a 2008 fifth-round pick (149th overall) of Arizona, Hightower became the lead back in 2015 after an injury to RB Mark Ingram and posted the third-highest rushing yards total in the league from his first start in the team's Week 14 matchup at Tampa Bay through the end of the season. Over 11 games with one start in 2016, he has rushed for 417 yards and one TD on 103 carries, caught 16 passes for 166 yards and one TD and returned three kickoffs for 61 yards, adding one special teams stop. On Oct. 30 against Seattle, he carried it a season-high 26 times for a season-best 102 yards, including a long-rush of 28 yards. On Nov. 27 vs. Los Angeles, he was on the receiving end of a 50-yard touchdown, marking his second-career touchdown reception and first since Sept. 26, 2011 at Dallas as a member of the Washington Redskins.

MARK INGRAM

• One of the club's two first round draft picks in 2011, the 2009 Heisman Trophy winner has been an integral part of the rushing attack since his arrival in New Orleans. Before being sidelined in 2015, Ingram rushed for 769 yards and six TDs on 166 attempts, and added a career-high 405 yards receiving on a career-best 50 catches. He has appeared in all 11 games (nine starts), accumulating 721 yards on 136 attempts (5.3 avg.) with three TDs and 248 yards on 30 receptions with four TDs. On Nov. 17 at Carolina, he surpassed Pierre Thomas to move into fourth place on the franchise's all-time rushing yards list. On Nov. 6 at San Francisco, he recorded his first 100-yard rushing game of 2016, including a career-long 75-yard TD that was the fourth-longest rush in Saints history. On Nov. 27 vs. the Rams, Ingram rushed for 146 yards on 14 carries, recording his eighth-career 100-yard rushing game.

INGRAM'S BIG DAYS

Mark Ingram has reached 100 yards or more eight times over his Saints career, with New Orleans going 7-1 over those contests. Below is a list of those performances:

- Nov. 10, 2013 vs. Dallas Cowboys - Carried 14 times for 145 yards (10.4 avg.) with one touchdown and two receptions for 15 yards for 160 yards of total offense.
- Oct. 26, 2014 vs. Green Bay Packers - Rushed for a career-high 172 yards on 24 carries (7.2 avg.) with one TD
- Oct. 30, 2014 at Carolina Panthers - Rushed 30 times for 100 yards with two touchdowns and added a 10-yard grab.
- Nov. 9, 2014 vs. San Francisco 49ers - Became the first Saint to have 100 yards rushing in three consecutive games since 2003 with 27 carries for 120 yards.
- Nov. 30, 2014 at Pittsburgh Steelers - Rushed 23 times for 122 yards (5.3 avg.) with a season-long 31-yard carry.
- Oct. 25, 2015 at Indianapolis Colts - Carried 14 times for 143 yards (10.2 avg.) with one touchdown.
- Nov. 6, 2016 at San Francisco 49ers - Carried 15 times for 158 yards (10.5 avg.) with one touchdown.
- Nov. 27, 2016 vs. Los Angeles Rams - Carried 14 times for 146 yards (10.4 avg.) with one touchdown.

WILLIE SNEAD IV

• After concluding a collegiate career at Ball State that saw him leave the school ranked second in club record books in receptions (223) and receiving yardage (2,991), Snead then entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with Cleveland in 2014. Earning a roster spot in the 2015 preseason, the Muskegon Heights, Mich. native appeared in 15 games with eight starts and made 69 receptions for 984 yards (14.3 avg.) and three TDs. Over 10 games played with three starts in 2016, he has caught 51 passes for 593 yards (11.6) and four TDs. On Nov. 27 vs. the Rams, he completed his first NFL pass attempt, a 50-yard scoring strike to RB Tim Hightower, becoming the first non-QB to throw a touchdown pass for New Orleans since Deuce McAllister on Dec. 9, 2001 at Atlanta.

EXPLOSIVE PLAYS

In Week One against Oakland, WR Brandin Cooks caught a 98-yard touchdown that was the longest pass play in franchise history and the longest offensive play in franchise history. Against Carolina on Oct. 16, Brees and Cooks connected for an 87-yard score, with Cooks owning two of the three longest receptions of 2016. Over the past two seasons, Cooks (20) and Snead (8) have combined for 28 plays of 25 yards or more, 12 of which have went for TDs.

• New Orleans' first choice in the 2011 NFL Draft (24th overall) out of California came to the Saints after a college career where he was one of the nation's elite pass rushers. In 2015, he started all 16 games, posting 61 tackles (39 solo), 10 sacks, seven passes defensed, a forced fumble and two fumble recoveries. With 10 sacks on the season, it marked the second time in his career that he posted a double-digit sack season, becoming the ninth Saint to have multiple double-digit sack seasons. His efforts were rewarded with a Pro Bowl nomination, the second of his career. In 11 games played in 2016, all starts, Jordan has tallied five sacks, 48 total tackles (26 solo), one forced fumble and three passes defensed. On Oct. 2 at San Diego, the two-time team captain's half sack forced a field goal in the red zone that kept the deficit under two touchdowns to force the stunning comeback. Against Denver on Nov. 13, he had a standout performance, totaling a team-high nine tackles (team-best eight solo) with one sack and three tackles for loss.

DEFENSIVE ENDS

- Jordan has posted 44.0 sacks since he entered the NFL in 2011 and over the past four seasons is only the second player, joining Houston's J.J. Watt to have 40 takedowns and 20 passes defended. During this time, the Saints own a 23-11 record when he corrals a signal-caller, and they boast a 7-0 mark when he tallies two or more sacks. On the season, he has posted a team-best five sacks.

PAUL KRUGER

- Kruger comes to New Orleans after spending the last three seasons with Cleveland. Originally drafted by the Baltimore Ravens in the second round (57th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft out of Utah, Kruger has posted 244 tackles (151 solo), 34.5 sacks for a total loss of 214.0 yards, two interceptions, 24 passes defended, seven forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries over 109 games played with 61 starts. Over 10 games played in 2016, eight starts, he has registered 26 tackles (15 solo), 1.5 sacks, one pass defended and two fumble recoveries.

DEFENSIVE TACKLES

TYELER DAVISON

- After being selected in the fifth round (154th overall) of the 2015 NFL Draft, Davison quickly impressed in the preseason, earning a spot on the 53-man roster. Appearing in all 16 games with five starts in his rookie season, he posted 26 tackles (15 solo) and 1.5 sacks for a total loss of eight yards. He has started 10 games in 2016, posting 23 tackles (12 solo) and one pass defended.

NICK FAIRLEY

- With a commitment to improving the defense during the offseason, the former Auburn standout was signed as an unrestricted free agent from the Rams, after originally being drafted in the 2011 NFL Draft 13th overall by the Detroit Lions. Over his five-year career, Fairley has played in 72 games with 41 starts and has recorded 200 tackles (121 solo), 18.5 sacks, four passes defended, five forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries. The Mobile, Ala. native has started all 11 games for the Black and Gold in 2016, recording 37 tackles (24 solo) and 4.5 sacks. On Oct. 2 at San Diego, he recorded a crucial takedown of QB Philip Rivers on the Chargers' final drive to help secure a Saints victory. In just 11 games, he is already 1.5 sacks away from tying his career-high six sacks set in 2013.

YOUTH ALONG THE LINE

New Orleans used the 2016 NFL Draft to strengthen their defensive line, using two of their first four picks on the front four.

DAVID ONYEMATA

- Onyemata was chosen with the team's fourth round pick (120th overall) after a stellar career at the University of Manitoba of the CIS, becoming the first member of the Bisons program to be drafted. In 37 career games, he posted 166 tackles, 9.5 sacks, two passes defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. As a senior, the Lagos, Nigeria native was named a Canada West all-star for the second straight campaign, an all-Canadian for the first time and claimed the J.P. Metras Trophy as the top down lineman in CIS football. He finished second in the conference and ninth in the country with five sacks in eight league games and also ranked second in Canada West in tackles for a loss (7.5) and 12th in overall tackles (38.5). Overall in nine contests, all which he started at nose tackle, Onyemata made 50 stops, five sacks, one pass defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. Over 11 games played in his rookie season, he has collected 17 tackles (eight solo).

SHELDON RANKINS

- The third defensive lineman selected in the 2016 NFL Draft (12th overall), Rankins played in 46 games along the defensive line at Louisville, producing 133 tackles (72 solo), 31.5 tackles for loss and 18 sacks during his collegiate career. In his senior campaign, the former Cardinals standout racked up a single-season career-high 58 tackles (28 solo), six sacks, one pass defended and a fumble recovery returned 46 yards for a touchdown. Rankins was named second-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference following his efforts. Missing the first seven games of his rookie season, Rankins has posted 14 tackles (six solo), two sacks and one forced fumble over four games played. On Nov. 13 against Denver, he took down QB Trevor Siemian in the fourth quarter, collecting his first-career sack. On Nov. 27 vs. the Rams, he recorded his first-career forced fumble, causing a fumble of QB Jared Goff in the second quarter that would give the Saints possession at the Los Angeles 10-yard line. It was his second-career quarterback takedown.

LINEBACKERS

The Saints used free agency to really revamp the linebacker corps, mixing in key offseason acquisitions with returning veterans.

STEPHON ANTHONY

- In his rookie campaign, Anthony won a starting job at MLB during the preseason and started all 16 games. Anthony led the team with a franchise rookie-record 144 tackles, including 99 solo stops, ranked first among NFL rookies. He was a consensus All-Rookie selection. In 2015 against Carolina, he forced a fumble and returned it 31 yards for his first TD, and followed that up with an 82-yard two-point conversion return after a blocked PAT kick attempt, marking the first time in history that a PAT had been blocked for a two-point conversion since the rule change before the 2015 season. In his second season, he has appeared in eight games (two starts) and has posted six tackles (three solo) and three special teams stops.

DANNELL ELLERBE

- Acquired from Miami in an offseason trade in 2015, this Georgia product enters his eighth season in the NFL and his second with New Orleans. With three clubs, he's appeared in 72 career regular season contests with 38 starts and has posted 362 tackles (261 solo), 9.5 sacks, three interceptions, 14 passes defended, one forced fumble, four fumble recoveries, 18 special teams stops and one coverage forced fumble. In his first season with the Saints, he posted 45 tackles (39 solo), a pass defended, his first career forced fumble and a fumble recovery over six games played with four starts. Over four starts in 2016, he has tallied 24 tackles (12 solo), three sacks and one pass defended. On Nov. 27 vs. Los Angeles, he posted a sack of Goff in the fourth quarter, marking his third-consecutive game with a QB takedown, posting a sack in three-straight games for the first time in his career

CRAIG ROBERTSON

- This former North Texas standout, in his first season with the Saints, has totaled 420 tackles (281 solo), five sacks, seven interceptions, 20 passes defended, two forced fumbles, five fumble recoveries, one TD and 35 special teams stops over 69 games with 48 starts. In 2015, he appeared in 12 games with nine starts and totaled 50 tackles (30 solo), one INT, five passes defended, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and nine special teams stops. In 2016, he has started 11 games and has posted a team-leading 106 tackles (80 solo), one sack, one interception, five passes defended, one fumble recovery and three special teams stops.

TACKLING MACHINE

On Nov. 27 vs. Los Angeles, Robertson recorded his 100th tackle on the season, making 2016 his first-career 100-tackle season. He has posted 10 total tackles or more in four of the Saints' 11 games this season. The following is a chart on Robertson's 10-plus tackle games in 2016.

NATE STUPAR

- Drafted by Oakland in the seventh round of the 2012 NFL Draft (230th overall) when Saints defensive coordinator Dennis Allen was the head coach of the Raiders, Stupar has appeared in 11 games with five starts in his first season in New Orleans, posting 48 tackles (32 solo), one sack, one interception, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, two passes defended and eight special teams stops. On Oct. 30 against Seattle, he intercepted QB Russell Wilson in the second quarter to post his first-career interception.

STOPPING THE RUN

Following an 0-3 start, the Saints defense has recovered to be among the league's best at stopping the run, allowing just 80.3 yards rushing per game in the eight contests since, the fourth-best mark in the NFL over that time.

UNDER 70

After allowing Los Angeles to gain just 69 yards on the ground on Nov. 27, the New Orleans defense posted its second-consecutive contest with under 70 rushing yards allowed. Under Sean Payton, the Saints have held an opposing offense to under 70 yards rushing in consecutive games on three occasions. If they hold Detroit to under 70 rushing yards on Sunday, it will mark the first time that they've accomplished the feat in three-consecutive contests.

CORNERBACKSDELVIN BREAUX

- Over eight years after suffering a serious neck injury in a high school football game for McDonogh 35, Breaux realized his dream when he signed a contract with his hometown team following a journey that took him through the GDFL, the AFL and the CFL. In the 2015 season opener, the New Orleans native became the first Saints CB to start in his NFL debut since Tracy Porter in 2008. Overall, in 16 contests, all starts, he made 49 tackles (38 solo), three interceptions, a club-best 23 passes defended and the fumble recovery. He was voted as the team's Ed Block Courage Award winner following the season. Missing six games due to a broken fibula, he has tallied 11 tackles (nine solo) over four starts in 2016.

KEN CRAWLEY

- Originally signed by New Orleans as an undrafted free agent out of the University of Colorado following the 2016 NFL Draft, this Washington D.C. native played in 47 games and recorded 201 tackles (165 solo), eight tackles for loss, one forced fumble, a fumble recovery, three interceptions and 36 passes defended over his collegiate career. Over 11 games played with five starts in 2016, he has recorded 43 tackles (35 solo), one forced fumble and 10 passes defended.

STERLING MOORE

- Moore comes to New Orleans after spending the 2016 offseason and preseason with Buffalo and the 2015 campaign with Tampa Bay. The 5-10, 202-pound Southern Methodist product has started 26-of-64 career games while accumulating 153 tackles, six interceptions, 33 passes defended, five forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. Over eight games played in 2016 (seven starts), he has registered 29 tackles (24 solo), two interceptions, eight passes defended and one forced fumble.

B.W. WEBB

- Originally drafted by the Cowboys in the fourth round (114th overall) of the 2013 NFL Draft, Webb has logged 17 tackles (14 solo), one interception and a team-best 11 passes defended over nine games played with four starts for the Saints in 2016. On Oct. 16 against Carolina, he registered a career-high five passes defended.

SAFETIES

• Drafted by New Orleans in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft (61st overall), Bell was an Associated Press, The Sporting News and SI.com first-team All-American and was voted First-team All-Big Ten (media) following his junior season at Ohio State. The Rossville, Georgia, native started 13 games as a junior, finishing with 65 tackles and two interceptions, one brought back for a TD, one fumble recovery and 11 passes defended. Over 11 games played with eight starts, he has totaled 62 tackles (37 solo), one half sack, one forced fumble, four passes defended, one fumble recovery and five special teams stops.

JAIRUS BYRD

• Signed by New Orleans as a free agent from the Buffalo Bills in 2014, Byrd has been selected to three Pro Bowls. He has appeared in 101 career games with 93 starts, posting totals of 506 tackles (360 solo), four sacks, 23 INTs, 38 passes defended, 14 forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries. A second round draft pick (42nd overall) in 2009, Byrd has started all 11 contests in 2016, recording 56 tackles (43 solo). On Oct. 30 against Seattle, he posted 10 tackles, tying for the most tackles he has posted in any game as a Saint, while his eight solo tackles were the most solo tackles in a game for his Saints career.

NOSE FOR THE BALL

Saints safety Jairus Byrd's interception total since he entered the NFL in 2009 is tied for eighth over that span.

Over 10 starts in 2016, the fourth-year safety has registered 74 tackles (51 solo), two interceptions, one sack, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery, six passes defended and one special teams stop. On Nov. 27 vs. the Rams he collected an INT of QB Jared Goff, marking his fifth-career interception and second of 2016. His two picks this season match a career high set in 2014.

SPECIAL TEAMS

K WIL LUTZ

• Lutz is in his first season with New Orleans, joining the team after originally being signed by the Baltimore Ravens as an undrafted free agent out of Georgia State following the 2016 NFL Draft. In his first 11 contests with the Black and Gold, he has converted on 16-of-22 (72.7 pct.) FG attempts, including a 57-yard field goal on Sept. 26 against Atlanta, the third-longest made field goal in franchise history, matching Kai Forbath's 57-yarder at Houston last year. He is also 38-of-39 on PAT attempts. On Oct. 16 against Carolina, he connected on a 52-yard game-winning field goal with :13 remaining to collect the first game-winning field goal of his career, the longest game-winning kick by a Saint since 1984. For his efforts in Week Six, he was named the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week. Following his four-for-four performance against Seattle on Oct. 30, he was once again named the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week, joining John Carney (2001) as the only Saints kickers to receive the honor twice in the same season.

KID HAS A LEG

On Sept. 26 against Atlanta, Lutz hit a 57-yard field goal, marking the third-longest make in Saints franchise history, matching Kai Forbath's 57-yard make at Houston in 2015. Below are the four-longest field goals in Saints history:

P THOMAS MORSTEAD

• Morstead, the club's fifth round draft pick in 2009, was among the nation's top punters at SMU and has continued that trend as a Saint where he's posted career club-best 47.0 gross and 41.1 net punting averages. In Week One against Oakland, he played in his 111th career game, moving him into sole possession of 31st in club record books in games played, surpassing a tie with Tommy Barnhardt for most games played by a punter. In 2016, he has punted 41 times for 2,006 yards (48.9 avg.) and has placed 17 of his punts inside the 20-yard line.

FOLLOW THE LEADER

Thomas Morstead is the team's all-time leader in gross and net averages. His 43.2 net in 2012 ranks sixth all-time and he also has the seventh and eighth-highest figures. Morstead's career 41.1 net average ranks third in NFL record books since the statistic was first compiled in 1976. In 2016, his 48.9 punting average ranks third while his 42.6 net average ranks fifth in the NFL.

2014 – Appeared in all 16 games with two starts, rushing for 85 yards and a TD on 24 attempts, while adding four receptions for 23 yards. Voted to Pro Bowl and voted an AP first team All-Pro...Rushed for his only TD on season in opener at Seattle, Sept. 4. Punched it in from two yards out for his only attempt in the game...Rushed for 20 yards on season-high five carries vs. Chicago, Nov. 9...Finished with season-high 22 yards on four attempts at Tampa Bay, Dec. 21. 2013 – Played in 15 games with six starts and appeared in team's playoff contest. Rushed for 38 yards and a TD on 10 carries and caught 13 passes for 81 yards, while registering four special teams tackles. Named a Pro Bowl alternate following a season in which he helped Green Bay finish in the top 10 in both rushing (seventh) and passing (sixth) for the first time since 2004. Blocked for Eddie Lacy as he rushed for 1,178 yards, the most by a rookie in team history, as Lacy was selected to the Pro Bowl and named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year... Started vs. Washington, Sept. 15, but sustained a hamstring injury during the game that would force him to miss Week Three contest at Cincinnati, just the third game he had missed due to injury during career...Caught season-high three passes for 11 yards (3.7 avg.) at N.Y. Giants, Nov. 17, and carried once for 12 yards, his longest run since Dec. 11, 2011...Had three carries for 12 yards (4.0 avg.) and a TD vs. Pittsburgh, Dec. 22. Two of his attempts converted key third-down plays, and the other, a one-yard TD dive in the fourth quarter, tied the game at 31 with 7:14 remaining...In NFC Wild Card matchup vs. San Francisco, 1/5/14, scored on a one-yard TD run off left guard in the fourth quarter, which gave the Packers a 17-13 lead with just over 12 minutes left. The play gave him at least one TD in each of the last five postseasons (2009-13), the only NFL player to do so over that span and the second in team history (Dorsey Levens, 1993-98) to score at least one TD in five straight postseasons. In addition to the TD run, caught a pair of eight-yard passes, both converting third downs on scoring drives. 2012 – Played in 14 games with three starts and appeared in both playoff contests. Rushed for 63 yards and a touchdown on 23 carries (2.7 avg.) and matched his career high with 15 receptions for a career-best 148 receiving yards (9.9 avg.). LOS ANGELES RAMS AT NEW ORLEANS SAINTS
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 2016 • MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME
SAINTS POSTGAME NOTES

- With the win, New Orleans improves to 5-6. The Saints return to action on Sunday, Dec. 4, when they host the Detroit Lions at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. Kickoff is 12:00 p.m.
- New Orleans has improved their all-time record at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, both regular season and postseason, to 163-162. In 2016, they have gone 3-3 at home.
- New Orleans' 49-point output was its highest of 2016 and most since they scored 52 points against the New York Giants on Nov. 1, 2015. It also marked the most points scored by any team during the 2016 season.
- The Saints accumulated 555 total net yards of offense, reaching the 500-yard mark for the fourth time this season, going 3-1 in those games.
- The Saints defense surrendered 247 yards of total offense, surrendering under 300 yards for their second-consecutive game. It marks the first time they've given up under 300 total net yards in two consecutive games since they did so for the final two games of the 2013 season.
- Making his 228th-career start, QB Drew Brees completed 28-of-36 passes for 310 yards, four touchdowns and a 139.6 passer rating with zero interceptions. His 139.6 passer rating was his highest of 2016 and highest since he posted a passer rating of 140.0 on Nov. 30, 2014 at Pittsburgh. It was his 103rd game with at least 300 yards passing, extending his NFL record.
- With his four scoring throws, Brees has now thrown 30 touchdown passes for the 2016 season, doing so for the ninth time in his career, tying Brett Favre and Peyton Manning as only the third player to have nine seasons of at least 30 touchdowns. He is the only quarterback in history to accomplish the feat in an NFL-record nine-consecutive seasons.
- It was also Brees' 30th-career four touchdown game, as he joins Manning (35) as only the second player in NFL history to have 30 four touchdown games.
- Today's game marked Brees' 20th game with at least four touchdowns while throwing 0 interceptions, second in NFL history to Tom Brady's 21 such games.
- On his three-yard touchdown throw to WR Brandon Coleman in the first quarter, Brees posted his 60th-consecutive home game with at least one touchdown pass, extending his NFL record.
- In the second quarter, Brees scored a one-yard touchdown run, the 16th rushing touchdown of his career and his second of 2016. His two rushing touchdowns in 2016 are his most since he rushed for three scores in 2013.
- In the second quarter, RB Mark Ingram scored from 10 yards out, posting his 29th-career rushing touchdown, moving him past Chuck Muncie and Pierre Thomas for sole possession of third place on the club's all-time rushing touchdown list.
- Ingram rushed for 146 yards on 14 carries, recording his eighth-career 100-yard rushing game and second of 2016. In the third quarter, he was on the receiving end of a 21-yard touchdown, his fourth-career touchdown grab, with all four coming this season. He has now posted at least one touchdown reception and one touchdown run in the same game for the second time in his career. It was his fifth-career multiple touchdown game and second this season.
- With Brees' and Ingram's touchdown runs both coming on fourth down, New Orleans became the first team in 2016 to score two touchdowns on fourth down in the same game. They are now 8-for-9 on fourth down this season. It was the third time in franchise history that New Orleans scored twice on fourth down in the same game (other, Sept. 24, 1995 at New York Giants – two receiving touchdowns, Sept. 9, 2012 vs. Washington – two receiving touchdowns).

- WR Michael Thomas caught his sixth and seventh touchdown passes of the season, finishing with 108 yards and the two scoring grabs on a game-high nine receptions. He now has 65 catches on the season, joining RB Reggie Bush and WR Marques Colston as only the third Saint to record at least 60 grabs as a rookie. It was his second-career game with at least 100 receiving yards.
- WR Willie Snead IV connected with RB Tim Hightower on a 50-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter, marking his first-career NFL touchdown throw. He became the first non-QB to throw a touchdown pass for New Orleans since Deuce McAllister on Dec. 9, 2001 at Atlanta.
- Snead caught five passes for 38 yards along with the 50-yard scoring throw.
- Hightower rushed for 51 yards on 15 carries, adding 54 yards on two receptions and the 50-yard scoring catch. It marked his second-career touchdown reception and first since Sept. 26, 2011 at Dallas as a member of the Washington Redskins.
- TE Josh Hill recorded a career-high six receptions for a career-high 74 yards, including a long-reception of 35 yards.
- TE Coby Fleener caught four passes for 59 yards, including a long-reception of 31 yards in the first quarter.
- S Kenny Vaccaro collected an interception of QB Jared Goff in the third quarter, marking his fifth-career interception and second of 2016. His two picks this season match a career high set in 2014. He added four solo tackles.
- DT Sheldon Rankins collected a sack of QB Jared Goff in the second quarter, causing a fumble that would be recovered by DE Paul Kruger. It was his second-career sack and first-career forced fumble. He added two solo tackles.
- LB Dannell Ellerbe posted a sack of Goff in the fourth quarter, marking his third-consecutive game with a QB takedown, posting a sack in three-straight games for the first time in his career. He has three sacks this season and 9.5 sacks over his career. He added five tackles, four of which were solo tackles.
- LB Craig Robertson tallied six total tackles (three solo) and now has a team-leading 104 tackles in 2016, reaching the century mark for the first time in his five-year NFL career.
- DE Cameron Jordan recorded a takedown of Goff in the third quarter, his fifth sack of the season and 44th of his career. He added four tackles (three solo).
- DE Paul Kruger recovered the Goff fumble in the second quarter, his sixth-career fumble recovery and second as a Saint.
- P Thomas Morstead made his 121st-career appearance, moving into sole possession of 28th place on the club's all-time games played list. He punted four times for 179 yards, placing two of his punts inside the 20-yard line.
- T Zach Strief played in his 151st-career game, moving him into a tie with G/T Jim Dombrowski (1986-96) for 11th place on the club's all-time games played list. He is now tied for third among Saints offensive linemen, behind T Stan Brock (186) and G Jahri Evans, who appeared in his 164th-career contest today.

LOS ANGELES RAMS VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

SAINTS HEAD COACH SEAN PAYTON

Opening Statement: “There were a lot of things, as that game progressed, that were encouraging. I thought the guys did a lot of things well. We had good balance. Defensively, we did a good job on third downs.”

On Mark Ingram’s play today: “He played well. He ran hard and had some big, explosive runs. It was good to see. It was good to see the offensive line, who I thought won that battle up front, clearly.”

On how much game planning was based on the run to counteract the Rams’ run game: “In the early part of the openers we were (playing) a little bit more heavy pass, but a lot of it was just from the coverage and what they (opposing team) are playing, if they are playing two-high or single-high. Part of it (run game) was just as the game went on. I think we did a good job throwing it and with the balance we had; you get those balanced games when you convert third downs. The games when you don’t have as many snaps you say, ‘well, we didn’t get to the 30-rushing mark’ but there is a reason for that. I thought we had good balance and won the battle of being the most physical team, that was clear.”

On decisions to go for it on fourth down twice today: “Only because we felt like we had a really good short yardage (situations). The couple of calls, we felt really good call-wise, and we felt like the down-and-distance was strong in regards to our plan. We felt confident in it.”

On how the defense responded after the first half: “I think (they responded) well. They (Rams) have some good players on their team that are explosive and talented, and they have been in some close battles. When you watch their 4-6 coming into our game, just like our 4-6, that is a team that has played really good football.”

On being more animated on the sidelines today: “I was a little excited. It was an important win for us.”

On the Willie Snead IV touchdown pass call decision: “There are tendencies and it had been installed earlier in the week and just coming up at the right time. I thought Tim (Hightower) did a good job of chasing it down. We had that play seven or eight years ago, and every time we wanted to run it at practice (Marques) Colston would go to the restroom, he wasn’t really excited about it. He had a good arm, he just wasn’t fired up about it and then Lance (Moore) tried it one year and about three different guys intercepted it (in practice). We cleaned up some of the things we were doing and we got the right look.”

On if he was calling plays tonight: “Yes, Pete (Carmichael) and I, both. Pete was calling a lot of situational stuff and went back and forth, it is easy to work together because if one of us is on with the regular calls the other one is getting ready for a third down or red zone call and it just works well.”

On if the productivity from the tight end position early on was a result of something that he saw on the Rams’ defense: “It doesn’t work like that. You want to go in with certain plans and yet, there are some coverages that may force a different primary. I think, in their case, both of them made some plays and sometimes they’re primary, but a lot of is dictated by the looks we are getting. Those guys both made some plays that kept the chains moving.”

On Michael Thomas’ growth: “He high points the ball well, and what I mean by that is he catches it early as opposed to when the ball gets on him. He is able to locate and track the ball well. I think he is pretty good after the catch so he made a few guys miss, had some hidden yardage and he is physical when he gets the ball. He is a tough guy to tackle. He came up with some big plays.”

On if it helps to know a defensive coordinator well when calling plays against him: “I don’t know, I think that is a little bit overrated. Either way, you receive all the film on these teams and you have to go out and execute, you have to go out and block, and you have to be quick off the ball. You have to be able to make a few plays in the passing game on third down. We got a year-and-a-half of film on Los Angeles that you look at and yet, you get some looks that are different. The first series we got a ton of man coverage and that was a little unexpected, and then it settled down and we got a mix like we anticipated. I don't think so. I thought the players did a good job of going out and executing."

On the defense in the second half: "Good. I thought we had pressure on the quarterback. We had a hand full of near turnovers so we had other opportunities, but I thought we played with speed and energy. We will look at the tape tomorrow and make the corrections, but they played hard."

On the defense's increased consistency of late: "We're healthier, number one. Delvin's (Breaux) back, (Dannell) Ellerbe's back, Sheldon Rankins is back; so, having a lot of your starters back in the lineup, I think number one, has helped. I think part of it's a little bit of momentum and you start playing well and that bar gets a little higher. It wasn't a perfect game by any means today. There will be some things that we look at on the tape and we will want to clean up and correct."

SAINTS PLAYER QUOTES

QB Drew Brees

(On the Snead to Hightower touchdown play) “Tim (Hightower) made a heck of a catch. He was able to stop, find it and catch it. Overall, it was an impressive play.”

(On Mark Ingram’s play) “He made a lot of big runs. Tim (Hightower) came in too and did a phenomenal job. Both those guys did amazing against a really good defensive front. They are one of the better ones in the league. That was just an impressive performance all away around by our offensive line and the running backs.”

(On the early plays to the tight ends helping to open up the offense) “It is good because it opens up things in (both) the run game and the pass game and it helps out of defense. It helps us become very flexible from a personnel standpoint.”

(On doing anything extra preparing for Gregg Williams) “It’s just how our brand of football can work best to attack these guys. We can create all we want in the passing game, but if you can’t protect, then it’s going to be a long day. You find out how they are going to cover you from a coverage perspective and take advantage of the opportunities that are presented.”

S Kenny Vaccaro

(On his interception) “I was glad that I was able to come up with the ball. Anytime we can take the ball away and give Drew (Brees) the ball back, then we are going to win the game.”

(On the defense’s play this afternoon) “I have a bad taste in my mouth because we gave up too many plays in the first half. It wasn’t really them. It was us doing things that our coaches preach during the week. We just didn’t execute. We are going to face better offenses. That’s nothing against them. We need to correct those mistakes if we want to be the defense that we want to be.”

(On what he thought of Jared Goff) “I think he has pretty good arm talent. He’s young. He was on the road in a hostile environment. His book is just starting. Each day, each month, each year is a new chapter for him. I hope that he keeps growing.”

WR Willie Snead IV

(On his touchdown pass) “It was a great play call. Tim (Hightower) made a great catch. I just threw it up there and he hauled it in. It was a great play call and a great play. I’m glad that it happened that way.”

(On his thoughts prior to the touchdown pass) “I was caught off guard a little bit. I told coach to give me a head’s up throughout the game. I didn’t think he was going to call it this late in the game. I just looked up at the safety and just launched it. Tim made a great catch and ran into the end zone.”

(On his last touchdown pass) “High school. My last touchdown pass was a long time ago.”

T Zach Strief

(On the production of the running game today) “There were some things that were done. They had a good plan for side protection. We got some big chunks of yardage. It was great to get Mark (Ingram) going. For a guy who has faced adversity this year, he has responded as well as you could have ever asked for. He has to be amongst the lead leaders in yards per carry He has been real effective for us and so has Tim (Hightower).”

RB Mark Ingram

(On the success of the run game against the Rams today) “They have a great front. They have a great defense. They haven’t allowed a 100-yard rusher in who knows when. My offensive line did a great job of opening up big holes. I just had to take care of the rest. Coach (coaches Payton and Carmichael) called great plays and we put together a great run game. It was a great effort.”

(On facing his old defensive coordinator) “Your old coordinator is going to try to come back here and spoil the day. We had a great week of preparation and practice. I tried to do everything I could to make sure that coming back here wasn’t going to be a good experience. We did a great job of coming out the second half and finishing off the game.”

(On Coach Payton’s animation on the sidelines) “He was excited. Anytime we put up 49 points and the defense is forcing turnovers, then he is going to be excited. We are all going to be excited.”

DE Cameron Jordan

(On carrying the momentum of this into next week) “In my mind, we need to win the next five games. We need to win the next five out and finish without a loss. You can’t always be perfect in this game. We must overcome all adversity.”

(On feeding off the offense) “At some point, you must realize that the offense is firing on all cylinders and we must play to our ability. We must have the mindset that we’re going to be the better defense on the field. In the first half, we weren’t doing our job. In the second half, we turned it up.”

RAMS HEAD COACH JEFF FISHER

Opening Comments: “For the last four weeks, or so, our defense has been hanging in there, giving up 17, 10, 13 (points). We thought today was going to be the day for our offense to break out. That’s how the game started. This one came down to our lack of ability on defense to get the ball back and stop them. You’re talking about 550 (555) yards of total offense (by the Saints). It’s difficult to overcome, especially in addition to the points (given up). That’s the big difference here today. I’m disappointed. There were some flashes. There were some good things. Our special teams unit, again, was outstanding. I thought that Jared (Goff) did a really nice job in the first half, especially in the two minute drive. I thought that he got better, which is encouraging. I am really disappointed (we didn’t play as a complete unit). When you are relying on your defense week after week after week; and you wait for the offense to step up, sometimes these things happen. It just wasn’t a good day for us defensively.”

On injuries: “Injury-wise, probably the biggest concern is Rodger (Saffold). We will see how he is. He did not return to the game. We’ve got normal bumps and bruises (elsewhere). I did make a decision during the week to give Greg Robinson a break, a week off, because he needed it. There was just a lot going on and too many mental errors and penalties. We made the decision to go with Rodger (Saffold) at the left tackle. We will just adjust this week depending on how Rodger’s hand is. I expect Greg will return back to the lineup. It is kind of one of those things that I’ve dealt with before with young players. He just needed a moment. He needed a break. We will get him back and get him going.”

On the mental status of this team after six losses over their last seven games: “Every game is different. Every win is different. Every loss is different. We contribute to the lack of offensive production to the losses. Today, we couldn’t get it going defensively. We will get back there. They are practicing hard. You guys are out there, you see it. They are having fun. They’re working hard. We’ve had a lot of unfortunate things happen. Credit the Saints. They had an extra three or four days to prepare for us, having played last Thursday night. They did a really good job. Sean (Payton) is an outstanding play-caller and offensive mind. This was the number one offense in the league today and Drew (Brees) showed that.”

On the Saints running gadget plays such as the Willie Snead IV-Tim Hightower touchdown with a big lead in the fourth quarter: “I do not take that personal. That is what they chose to call. They did it. I fully expected Sean (Payton) to get 56 (points) on us today on the last drive. We have to do a better job defensively. We’ve got to do a better job coaching. We’ve got to do a better job with the plan. When you are in this business long enough there is challenges every single week. We’ve got challenges ahead of us. We’ve got Tom Brady and Matt Ryan ahead of us. We’ve got to put this one behind them and answer.”

On Gregg Williams this week returning to New Orleans: “It’s a normal week for Gregg in terms of preparation is concerned. There were no distractions. He coached the way that he normally coaches, on the field and in meeting rooms. He motivated the guys. We just had a bad day.”

RAMS PLAYER QUOTES

#16 QB Jared Goff

“It’s never easy to lose; it is real tough. We want to win, but there are things we have to fix. We’ve got to do a lot of things better. We learned that today. We kind of got our butts kicked in every facet of the game – all around, and we know that. We need to come back this week, and get back to work and get better and continue to support each other as a group.”

“I thought we played real well in the first half. We played real well; we were moving the ball and executing. But in the second half we just couldn’t get it going again. We couldn’t get that momentum back we had in the first half going. And their (Saints) offense was playing lights out. And their defense was playing well too.”

“I don’t think there are any moral victories. For me, I felt a lot more comfortable in my second game. From my experience, I just felt better out there and was just able to see it a lot better. The game slowed down for me a lot more today. But at the same time, I just wanna win. I don’t want to be out here saying I’m happy with what we did, or what I did, or anything in between; cause I’m really not if we don’t win. And that’s the bottom line.”

#88 TE Lance Kendricks

“He’s (Goff) is improving a lot, and that’s all anyone can ask of a young quarterback. I thought the offense handled the crowd noise really well and we moved the ball great; especially in the first half. We understood coming in that we were going to play against a good defense.”

On his second quarter touchdown: “I was just trying to make a play and luckily I was able to catch the ball down along the sideline and finish off that drive. I felt we were able to compete with them scoring wise - at least in the first half. We were just out there trying to get the ball into the end zone. It was great to see that; especially with how we’ve preformed these last few weeks.”

“They have good players too and they showed that on their defense, especially in the second half. Jared was under a lot of pressure as the game went on. They have a lot of players who can make plays. Cameron Jordan is a great player and he disrupted what we were trying to do. We expected them to make plays. And for us, we have to find a way to be more consistent. If they make a play, we have to respond. We did that in the first half but as the game went on we didn’t and that was the difference.”

#68 G Jamon Brown

“We just did not do enough. I can sit here and try to talk about the positive things we did out there which is good, but we’ve got to pay more attention to the things we did bad so that we can get them fixed so this team can move forward. You cannot sit here and question where this team’s heart is at. I feel that everyone played with a purpose. But things just didn’t go our way. And in order to get things working our way we’ve got to work harder. We can’t let a loss like this affect us because we have a lot of tough games ahead on the schedule.”

#25 S T.J. McDonald

“It’s really tough. They (Saints) did some good stuff. You’ve got to tip your hat off to them, but a lot of stuff are things we have to correct. We can’t keep beating ourselves like that on defense. This loss is going to sit heavy on us. We are definitely going to look at the film so we can learn from this and get better for next week.”

“It was just one of those days. I mean, everyone on the defense took turns on things we normally do real well. But its real obvious we just didn’t get it done today.”

“The one (trick) play they had’s (flea-flicker) something we prepared for. We knew what to expect. But we just cannot give something like that up. Everybody was running to the ball, and the running back for them slipped out, and we just were not able to find him. It is their offense, I mean they are trying to score points. We don’t see it as them doing that (trying to run up the score). We always accept the challenge whenever we are on the field that we are going to stop them. But we just didn’t get it done.”

#90 DT Michael Brockers

“It was just one of those days. There was a lot of miscommunications on the back end – it was all the way around. It was just a bad day at the office. I mean, they (Saints) made a lot of big plays, and Drew (Brees) just did what he did. We’ve just got to do a better job of preventing them from doing that.”

His and his team’s reaction to Gregg Williams coming back to New Orleans for the first time: “The whole week was very mellow. He didn’t get too high on it and he didn’t get very low. He was just even keel. He looked at it as the next game. He didn’t put any impression on himself getting ready for this week. I mean during the week he is fiery; he’s always in your ear. But during the actual game he lets the players play. He’s out there making the adjustments as the game is going on and that’s pretty much it.”
