COWBOYS & VIKINGS

Series Notables:

- * The Cowboys and Vikings have squared off 29 times with Dallas edging the series 15-14.
- * The Cowboys and Vikings have met seven times in postseason play, including two NFC Championship Games.
- * Seven of the 28 contests have been decided by less than seven points.
- * Dallas has a better record when facing Minnesota on the road (8-7, .533) than at home (7-7, .500).
- * The Cowboys logged the only shutout of the series - a 28-0 win at Minnesota (10/8/61).
- * Dallas suffered its second-worst playoff loss (34-3) in the 2009 Divisional Playoff Game.

A Cowboys Win Would:

- * Improve Dallas' record to 11-1 for only the second time (2007) in franchise history.
- * Give the Cowboys their 11th straight win to tie the longest win streak (including combined seasons) in franchise history.
- * Mark the first time in franchise history that Dallas has started the season 0-1 and gone on to win the next 11 games. They would also become the fifth team in NFL history to accomplish that feat while tying the second-most wins during that span.
- * Snap a five-game road losing streak when facing the Vikings in Minnesota, including playoffs.
- * Up the Cowboys record against the NFC North in 2016 to 3-0.

DALLAS COWBOYS (10-1) AT MINNESOTA VIKINGS (6-5) ● THURSDAY, DEC. 1, 2016 7:25 P.M. CST

Player Spotlight

DAK PRESCOTT

- ★ Dak Prescott won his 10th consecutive game with the victory over Washington on Thanksgiving, joining Ben Roethlisberger (13) as the only rookie quarterbacks in NFL history to win 10 consecutive games.

Prescott scored a 108.9 rating against Washington to mark his ninth game - fourth consecutive - with a 100.0 rating to tie Russell Wilson (9 - 2012) for the most by a rookie quarterback in a single season in NFL history.

- ★ Prescott completed 70.8% of his passes against the Redskins, his seventh game completing 70.0 percent-or-better in 2016, establishing an NFL rookie record.

BY THE NUMBERS

5 Dallas notched its fifth straight win at home to tie the 2009 team for the longest consecutive single-season win streak at AT&T Stadium by the Cowboys after their victory over the Redskins on Thanksgiving.

10 Ezekiel Elliott became the first Cowboys rookie rusher since Emmitt Smith (1990) to rush for 10 touchdowns in a season. He currently is tied for second with 11 rushing scores.

79.5 Cole Beasley has caught 79.5% of passes thrown in his direction this season, second in the NFL among qualifying players at the wide receiver position.

100 The Cowboys defense did not allow a 100-yard rusher for the 11th straight game, the only team in the NFL not to allow a 100-yard rusher in 2016.

UPCOMING MILESTONES AND CURRENT NOTES

With the 2016 season underway for the Dallas Cowboys, the following information pertains to the most current notes and page location in the release for the remainder of the information, as well as upcoming milestones:

2016 DALLAS COWBOYS CURRENT TEAM HIGHLIGHTS:

- * The Cowboys offense is second in the NFL with 270 total first downs and leads the league with 109 rushing first downs (FIRST DOWN COWBOYS - page 25).
- * The Dallas offense has produced the second-ranked rushing attack by averaging 157.3 yards-per-game (RUSHING TO THE TOP - page 25).
- * Dallas is second in the league with 19 rushing touchdowns (214 + 46 + 25 = RUSHING TDS - page 26).
- * The Cowboys have 51 big play runs of 10-or-more yards to tie for the league lead. Dallas also has 12 rushes of 20+ yards to tie for third (BIG PLAY RUNS - page 27).
- * The offensive unit leads the NFL with a commanding 32:50 time of possession mark (OFFICIAL TIMEKEEPERS OF THE NFL - page 27).
- * The Cowboys offense boasts 29 drives of five-or-more minutes - 25 for scores, both tops in the NFL in 2016. The unit also has had 14 drives go five-or-more minutes and result in touchdowns, best in the league (DRIVE FOR FIVE - page 27).
- * The Cowboys have recorded 29 drives of 10-or-more plays to boast the most in the NFL (TEN PLAYS-OR-MORE - page 27).
- * The Dallas offense has scored on 57 of its 110 drives for a 51.8% scoring efficiency rate to pace the NFL, while also boasting the highest touchdown efficiency rate (33.6%) (FINISHING DRIVES WITH SCORES - page 27).
- * Dallas offense is second in the league with a 48.5 third down percentage (64-of-132) (THIRD-AND-NO PROBLEM - page 27).

- * The Cowboys are one-of-six teams to give up 20-or-more points to opposing team's offenses five times-or-less this season and are tied for the fifth-fewest games in the NFL with five (20 POINT LIMIT - page 29) and are tied for sixth in the NFL in points allowed-per-game (POINTS HARD TO COME BY - page 29).

2016 DALLAS COWBOYS UPCOMING MILESTONES - TEAM:

- * A win against the Vikings would give the Cowboys their 11th straight win to tie the longest winning streak, including combined seasons, in franchise history (WINNING STREAK AT 10 - page 7).

2016 DALLAS COWBOYS UPCOMING MILESTONES - INDIVIDUAL:

- Dez Bryant - WR
  - * Dez Bryant (64) needs one touchdown reception to tie Michael Irvin (65) for the second-most touchdowns in franchise history (DEZZLING PERFORMANCES - page 21).
- Ezekiel Elliott - RB
  - * Ezekiel Elliott (11) needs one rushing touchdown to tie Tony Dorsett (12 - 1977) and Herschel Walker (12 - 1986) for the most rushing touchdowns by a Cowboys rookie (EAT, ZEKE, EAT - page 24). He would also break into the Cowboys top-10 most rushing touchdowns in a single season.
  - * With two rushing touchdowns, Elliott would notch his fifth multi-score game of the season to extend his team rookie record and tie the second-most by a rookie runner in NFL history (EAT, ZEKE, EAT - page 24).

Byron Jones - S

- * Byron Jones (69) needs eight tackles to surpass his rookie tally of 76 stops and establish a career-best.

Dak Prescott - QB

- * By making a start at Minnesota, it will mark Dak Prescott's 12th game played and 12th start to surpass Troy Aikman (11/11 - 1989) for the most by a rookie quarterback in team history (DAK ATTACK - page 8).
- * With a win, Prescott (10) will increase his streak of consecutive wins as the starting quarterback to 11 while extending the second-longest winning streak by a rookie quarterback during the Super Bowl era behind Ben Roethlisberger (13 - 2004) (THE DAK KNIGHT RISES - page 8).
- * Prescott (2,835) needs 165 passing yards to become the 16th NFL rookie quarterback to pass for 3,000 yards and the ninth quarterback - first rookie - in team history.
- * With two passing touchdowns, Prescott (18) will become the 14th NFL rookie quarterback to register 20 passing scores, and the eighth quarterback in franchise history to pass for 20-or-more touchdowns in a single season.
- * With a 100.0 rating, Prescott will post his 10th game of the season to establish an NFL rookie record and tie the most by any Cowboys quarterback in a single season (PRESCOTT RAINGS AT 100.0 - page 9).
- * With a completion percentage of 70.0-or-better, Prescott will add his eighth of the season to extend his NFL rookie quarterback record and tie Troy Aikman (8 - 1993) and Tony Romo (8 - 2012) for the most by a Cowboys quarterback in team history (COOL HAND DAK - page 9).
- * Prescott (5) needs one rushing touchdown to break a tie with Don Meredith (5 - 1966) for the most rushing scores by a Dallas quarterback in a single season in franchise history (RAYNE MAN - page 26).

Jason Witten - TE

- * Jason Witten (11,768) needs 137 yards to pass Michael Irvin (11,904) for the most receiving yards by a Dallas Cowboy in franchise history (QUICK WITT-ED - page 17).
- * Witten (1,072) needs seven receptions to pass Terrell Owens (1,078) for seventh on the league's all-time pass receptions list (LEADING MAN - page 16).
- * Witten (52) needs eight receptions to reach 60 on the season for the 13th consecutive season (60X12 - page 17).
- * Witten (553) needs 47 yards to reach 600 receiving yards on the season for the 13th consecutive season (600X12 - page 18).

2016 DALLAS COWBOYS MOST RECENT NOTES VS. WASHINGTON (11/24) - TEAM:

- * The win over Washington extended Dallas' franchise record regular season win streak to 10 and is now the second-longest win streak, including combined seasons, in team history (WINNING STREAK AT 10 - page 7).
- * In NFL history, the Cowboys became the fifth team to start the season 0-1 and go on to win the next 10 games - first since the 1997 San Francisco 49ers - and also reached the fifth-longest win streak in NFL history following an 0-1 start (WINNING STREAK AT 10 - page 7).
- * The win also increased the Cowboys current win streak against teams from the NFC East to three, upped the 2016 division record to 3-1 and completed the 2016 series sweep against Washington to mark the 18th overall of the series and first since the 2013 season.
- * The win also upped the Cowboys all-time Thanksgiving Day record to 30-18-1, 7-1 against the Redskins, and snapped a two-game losing streak on Turkey Day.
- * Dallas notched its fifth straight win at home to tie the 2009 team for the longest consecutive single-season win streak at AT&T Stadium by the Cowboys (AT&T STADIUM RECORD WHEN... - page 7).
- * By failing to register 400 yards, the Dallas offense's streak of games with 400-plus yards ended at eight games - tied with New England (2007) and Denver (2013) for the longest single-season streak in NFL history (SERVING UP 400-YARD GAMES - page 27).

2016 DALLAS COWBOYS MOST RECENT NOTES VS. WASHINGTON (11/24) - INDIVIDUAL:

Cole Beasley - WR

- * Cole Beasley had five catches for 56 yards to give him 201 for his career to become the 21st player in team history to reach 200 career receptions.

Ezekiel Elliott - RB

- * Ezekiel Elliott rushed 20 times for 97 yards and two touchdowns and caught two passes for 23 yards.
- * Elliott once again was the lead rusher in the game to mark his 10th straight game as the lead rusher for both teams to establish an NFL rookie record.
- * Elliott's 1,199 rushing yards are the third-most overall by an NFL player in his first 11 career games in NFL history (COMPARING ROOKIE RUSHERS - page 24).
- * Elliott's two rushing touchdowns gave him 11 on the season to become the fourth rookie - eighth overall player - in team history to reach 10 touchdowns in his first pro season, and the first since Emmitt Smith in 1990 (11) who he tied for third-most rushing scores by a rookie in team history (EAT, ZEKE, EAT - page 24).
- * It was also his fourth overall multi-score game of the season to establish a team rookie record and tie for the seventh-most by a rookie rusher in NFL history (EAT, ZEKE, EAT - page 24).
- * Elliott's 20 carries gave him 243 on the season and allowed him to pass Emmitt Smith (241 - 1990) for the most rushing attempts by a Cowboys rookie runner in team history (EAT, ZEKE, EAT - page 24).

Dak Prescott - QB

- * By making his 11th start and 11th game played, Dak Prescott tied Troy Aikman (11/11 - 1989) for the most starts and most games played by a Cowboys rookie quarterback in team history (DAK ATTACK - page 8).
- * With the win, Prescott improved to 10-1 to boast the second-most wins (10) by a rookie quarterback through his first 11 starts behind Ben Roethlisberger (11 - 2004) and the second-most wins overall by a rookie quarterback in a single season in the Super Bowl era (Roethlisberger - 13, 2004) (DAK ATTACK - page 8).
- * Prescott completed 17-of-24 passes for 195 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions for a 108.9 quarterback rating.
- * It was also Prescott's seventh game of the season completing 70.0 percent-or-better of his passes to establish an NFL rookie quarterback record (COOL HAND DAK - page 9).
- * Prescott scored a 108.9 rating to mark his ninth game - fourth consecutive - with a 100.0 rating to tie Russell Wilson (9 - 2012) for the most by a rookie quarterback in a single season in NFL history. He also tied Tony Romo (2009 and 2011) for the third-most by any Cowboys quarterback in a single season in team history (PRESCOTT RATINGS AT 100.0 - page 9).
- * Prescott also rushed eight times for 39 yards and a touchdown. His score gave him five rushing touchdowns on the season to tie for the most by a Cowboys quarterback in a single season in franchise history (RAYNE MAN - page 26).

Jason Witten - TE

- * Jason Witten made three catches for 1,072 for his career to pass Reggie Wayne (1,070) for eighth on the NFL's all-time receptions list (LEADING MAN - page 16).
- * Witten's receptions also gave him 52 on the season for his 13th straight season of 50 catches-or-more to become only the fourth player - second tight end - to reach that milestone (50X13 - page 17).
- * Witten played in his 218th career game to break a tie with Bill Bates (217) for the second-most games played by a Cowboy in team history (I AM IRON MAN - page 18).
- * Witten extended his Thanksgiving-best total with 73 receptions on Thanksgiving Day - most in NFL history

HEAD COACHES

JASON GARRETT (56-45, 6th Year)

Jason Garrett was named the eighth head coach in Dallas Cowboys history on January 5, 2011. Garrett became the first former Dallas Cowboys player to become the team's head coach. As a backup quarterback during his playing career in Dallas, he started nine-of-23 games played and was a member of teams that won six division titles and three Super Bowl championships. The 2015 season was a challenge as injuries sidelined two of Dallas' top playmakers - Tony Romo and Dez Bryant - for a majority of the season and the club finished with a 4-12 record. Romo (collarbone) started only four games and finished the year on Reserve/Injured and Bryant (foot) was slowed through a majority of his nine starts, also finishing on IR. Garrett saw four different players start at quarterback for the club for only the second time in team history. Veterans Brandon Weeden (three) and Matt Cassel (seven) started the majority of games while Kellen Moore made the first two starts of his career. The running game saw a burst through the second half of the season as Darren McFadden posted his second career 1,000-yard season (1,089) to mark the first time in club history two different running backs each rushed for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons. Despite the struggles, Dallas still sent five players to the Pro Bowl - Tyron Smith (third), Travis Frederick (second), Zack Martin (second), Dan Bailey (first) and Sean Lee (first).

Garrett was elevated to the Cowboys top job after taking over as the team's interim head coach midway through 2010. He guided the club to a 5-3 mark to finish the season after the team started 1-7. He led Dallas to an 8-8 record, narrowly missing the playoffs and an NFC East Division title in each his first three full seasons as head coach (2011-13). With Garrett at the helm of the offense, the unit reached new heights from 2007-13, ranking among st the NFL's top-10 in total offense in five of his seven years at the helm: 2013 (10th), 2012 (6th), 2010 (10th), 2009 (2nd) and 2007 (2nd). Inclusively from the start of the 2007 season, the club has averaged 364.9 total yards-per-outing (sixth in the NFL) and 24.3 points-per-game (eighth). Since his arrival in 2007, not only has the team set single-season records in numerous offensive categories, but the club's cumulative numbers for total net yards (52,540), gross passing yards (38,325) and total points (3,498) are among the best totals over a nine-year span in the history of the organization. Under Garrett's tutelage, 13 different offensive players have earned 34 total trips to the Pro Bowl.

MIKE ZIMMER (24-20, 3rd Year)

Mike Zimmer was named the ninth head coach in Minnesota Vikings history on January 15, 2014. A veteran defensive coordinator, Zimmer enters his 23rd season on an NFL sideline in 2016. Zimmer led the 2015 Vikings to their first NFC North title since 2009 and a Wild Card Playoff berth in only his second season while the Vikings 11-5 mark tied for the second-best record since 2000. The Vikings defense allowed the fifth-fewest points (19.3) in the NFL while Adrian Peterson secured his third rushing title. Teddy Bridgewater continued to grow in his role as a playmaker, engineering the offense to an improvement throughout his second pro season. The defense improved to 13th in total defense, jumping from the 25th rush defense to 17th. The Vikings defense ranked fifth in the NFL by allowing only 18.9 points-per-game. It marked the fourth time in the past five seasons a Zimmer defense ranked in the top-five in NFL points allowed. Five members of the 2015 team were selected to the Pro Bowl, the most since 2012. Minnesota was the least penalized team in the NFL with 88, and lowest penalized offense in the NFL, with only 30 on the season. The 2014 Vikings turned to Bridgewater to start 12 games of his rookie season, and he responded with a 6-6 record, going 3-2 in his final five starts and set virtually every franchise record for a rookie quarterback. Defensively, the 2014 Vikings improved from 31st in total defense to 14th in the NFL with a new lineup. The Vikings ranking seventh in the NFL in passing defense was the highest finish since the 1993 season when the club was sixth. The Vikings had a 113-point improvement in offensive points allowed from 2013 to 2014, the biggest improvement in the NFL in that span. Zimmer has been a part of 12 playoff teams in his NFL tenure and teams that have won eight division titles. He coached the Cowboys defensive backs when the team won Super Bowl XXX over Pittsburgh after the 1995 season. Zimmer's arrival in Cincinnati for the 2008 season signaled a franchise turnaround on the defensive side of the ball. The Bengals notched four top-10 defensive rankings since 2008 after only cracking the NFL's top-10 once in the previous 18 seasons before Zimmer joined the team. Zimmer led top-10 defenses for Dallas in both a 4-3 and 3-4 scheme, led the league in 2003 in total defense, and the team ranked in the top-five of NFL scoring defense a total of six times. Under Zimmer's direction, 11 defensive players have been selected to the Pro Bowl a total of 26 times. Five different players have posted 10-plus sacks while working under Zimmer. In addition to 13 years in Dallas (1994-2006), he also coached with Atlanta (2007), and Cincinnati (2008-2013).

WINNING HEAD COACH

Dallas Cowboys Head Coach Jason Garrett had his best season as a head coach by wrapping up the 2014 regular season with a record of 12-4 - the fifth coach to reach 12 wins-or-better in a season in team history. He also secured his first NFC East Division title as the head coach. Against the N.Y. Giants (10/19/14), Garrett passed former head coaches Bill Parcells and Wade Phillips (both with 34) with his 35th regular season win as the head coach of the Dallas Cowboys to place fourth in team history. He passed Barry Switzer (40) for third with his 41st victory at Washington (12/28/14), then tied Jimmy Johnson (44) for the second-most victories at Miami (11/22/15), and passed Johnson at Washington (12/7/15). Garrett won his 50th regular season game at Green Bay (10/16/16) to become only the second head coach in franchise history to reach 50 wins.

Following a 4-12 record in 2015, and a 10-1 start to 2016, Garrett's current regular season record as the head coach of the Dallas Cowboys stands at 55-44, with the second-most wins all-time in team history:

Most Regular Season Wins by a Cowboys Head Coach

DATING GAME

This week's game against the Minnesota Vikings is being played on Dec. 1. In the 56-plus years of Cowboys football, there has been only one game on Dec. 1. It was against the New York Giants in 1963, a 34-27 home loss by the Cowboys.

NORTHERN NEIGHBORS

Due to scheduling for the 2016 NFL season, the Dallas Cowboys face teams from the NFC North this season. This week, the Cowboys square off at the Minnesota Vikings. Dallas is 15-14 against the Vikings in all meetings, regular season and postseason.

Overall, the Cowboys hold a 61-54 record against NFC North foes. Below is a look at Dallas' record against its foes from the North:

FIRST TIME...LAST TIME

The first time these two clubs met the Cowboys were coming off their first-ever win. Dallas claimed the second win in franchise history with a 21-7 victory over the Vikings on Sept. 24, 1961 in front of 20,500 fans at the Cotton Bowl.

The last time these two teams met, Dallas hosted Minnesota for the Vikings first trip to AT&T Stadium on Nov. 3, 2013. The Cowboys fought back from a 23-20 deficit in the fourth quarter with under 6:00 remaining. Tony Romo threw the game-winning touchdown to Dwayne Harris and with under a minute to go to claim the 27-23 victory.

DALLAS LAST GAME

Both teams moved the ball up and down the field, but the Dallas Cowboys made enough stops to get their 30th Thanksgiving win and the 10th consecutive win on the 2016 season with a 31-26 victory over the Washington Redskins. The Cowboys defense was the very definition of "bend but don't break," although they were helped early on by the struggles of Washington kicker Dustin Hopkins, who was good on only two of his four attempts on the day. He missed a 43-yard try wide left on the visitors' first possession - this coming after Washington called a timeout right before the play clock expired - and then went wide right on a 55-yard try in the second quarter. The Cowboys, meanwhile, were able to better take advantage of their opportunities, as they were four-of-four in their red zone trips. Quarterback Dak Prescott again led the way despite throwing for just 195 passing yards. But he had one touchdown toss and ran for another while again refusing to turn the ball over. For his part, fellow rookie Ezekiel Elliott again was strong on the ground as well, totaling 97 rushing yards and two scores, while a good portion of his damage came on the Cowboys very first possession of the game.

The Cowboys kicked off the scoring with a seven-play drive culminating in an Elliott four-yard touchdown run. Both teams then traded field goals before Prescott found Terrance Williams for a 10-yard, toe tapping touchdown in the corner of the end zone. Washington added another field goal before the half, but Dallas had a commanding 17-6 lead at the break. Kirk Cousins got the Redskins offense going in the second half, finding Jordan Reed for a touchdown pass, and then hitting Desean Jackson and Reed again on touchdown tosses. The Cowboys sandwiched those touchdown tosses with touchdowns of their own, however, as Prescott scrambled for a six-yard score and Elliott put the game out of reach with a one-yard plunge into the end zone late in the fourth quarter. The win gave Dallas a 3-1 record in the NFC East in 2016 and a sweep of their series with the Redskins for the first time since 2013.

MINNESOTA LAST GAME

The Minnesota Vikings fell to the Detroit Lions 16-13 on the road on Thanksgiving Day. Detroit took the first lead of the game midway through the first quarter when Anquan Boldin caught a two-yard touchdown from Matthew Stafford. Minnesota countered to tie the game 7-7 when Matt Asiata scored on a five-yard run before the end of the first quarter. The Lions went ahead 10-7 before halftime on a 29-yard field goal by Matt Prater.

The Vikings tied the game at 10-10 in the third quarter on Kai Forbath's 30-yard field goal, then jumped ahead 13-10 on Forbath's 28-yarder to start the fourth quarter. With under 2:00, the Lions tied game 13-13 on a 48-yard field goal by Prater, then following an interception of Sam Bradford by the Detroit defense, Prater hit the game-winning 40-yard field goal with 0:04 left.

ON THE ROAD TO SUCCESS

Since the AFC/NFC merger in 1970, the Dallas Cowboys boast the most road wins (187) and highest win percentage (.518) in the NFL. Dallas is 5-0 in road games and one of only three teams (New England, Oakland) that remains undefeated on the road in 2016:

| Most Road Wins Since 1970 |     |     |   |      |
|---------------------------|-----|-----|---|------|
| Team                      | W   | L   | T | Win% |
| Dallas.....               | 187 | 174 | 0 | .518 |

| Pittsburgh.....           | 180 | 181 | 1 | .499 |
| New England.....          | 176 | 186 | 0 | .486 |

The Cowboys finished the 2014 regular season with an undefeated 8-0 record on the road - the only squad with a perfect mark away from home in the NFL. The Cowboys eight road wins were the most in team history during the regular season since the NFL began a 16-game schedule. They were the second team in franchise history to win all road games in a season, joining the 1968 team, which won all seven of its road games during a 14-game season. In NFL history, they were the sixth team since the 1970 NFL merger to form a perfect 8-0 record on the road, joining the 2007 New England Patriots, the 2001 St. Louis Rams, the 1984, 1989 and the 1990 San Francisco 49ers.

Dallas continued its road victory streak into 2015, winning the first contest away from home at Philadelphia (9/20) before falling to the Saints at New Orleans (10/4) in overtime, ending the road run. Dating back to the Cowboys final road game of the 2013 season at Washington (12/22), Dallas won 10 consecutive regular season road games to tie a franchise-high with both the 2006-07 and 1968-69 squads for the longest road win streak in team history.

On the league level, the 10-game road streak also tied the seventh-longest streak in NFL history:

WINNING STREAK AT 10

Following a loss in the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11), the 2016 Dallas Cowboys have accomplished something that no other team in franchise history has done - begin the season 0-1 and go on to win the next 10 games. That historic streak is now the longest win streak during a single season in team history following the team's victory against Baltimore (11/20):

Most Consecutive Wins, Single Season - Dallas Cowboys

| Team      | Consec. Wins/Dates       |

| 1977..... | 8 (9/18/77 - 11/6/77)    |

The Cowboys current 10-game win streak is also the second-longest streak in team history, including combined seasons:

SOLD OUT STADIUMS

The Cowboys have played in front of sold out stadiums in 433 of their last 435 games (including playoffs) and in 235 consecutive games. They played in front of sold out crowds in 153 consecutive games at Texas Stadium (including playoffs) - dating back to Dec. 16, 1990 against Phoenix, their last home non-sellout. Dallas opened what is now named AT&T Stadium with the largest crowd to witness a regular season NFL game with 105,121 tickets distributed and have 64 straight sellouts (including playoffs). The Cowboys have sold out each of their last 216 home games.

On the road, Dallas has played in front of sold out crowds in 117 straight games (including playoffs), dating back to its last road non-sellout - at Arizona (10/20/02).

DAK TO THE FUTURE

The Dallas Cowboys selected Rayne Dakota "Dak" Prescott in the fourth round of the 2016 NFL Draft (135th overall), allowing the Mississippi State product to become the first quarterback drafted by Dallas since Stephen McGee in 2009, and only the fifth since Jerry Jones bought the team in 1989. Dallas' intention was to groom Prescott for the future and slowly bring him along at the position. However, Prescott's trajectory took a quick turn, beginning in training camp after veteran and intended No. 2 backup quarterback Kellen Moore suffered a season-ending leg injury during the first week of camp on Aug. 2. Prescott then battled first-year player Jameill Showers for the No. 2 role for the right to backup Tony Romo. However, before the decision could be made, Romo went down with a back injury during the third preseason game at Seattle (8/25), forcing Prescott to enter the game with the first unit. With Romo recovering from injury, Prescott assumed the role as the starting quarterback for Dallas.

Prescott dazzled in the preseason, and in three games completed 39-of-50 passes (78.0%) for 454 yards with five touchdowns and no interceptions for a 137.8 quarterback rating to lead all NFL quarterbacks. His five scoring tosses led the NFL, while he finished second with a 78.0 completion percentage, and his 454 passing yards placed him seventh (fourth in the NFC). Prescott also added 53 rushing yards on seven carries with two scores.

Amongst league quarterbacks in 2016, Prescott ranks third in yards-per-attempt (8.35), fourth in quarterback rating (108.7) and sixth in completion percentage (67.9) while completing 231-of-340 passes for 2,835 yards with 18 touchdowns and two interceptions. He leads all NFL rookies in wins (10), passing yards, completion percentage, passing touchdowns, rating, rushing touchdowns (five) and rushing yards (180).

Prescott has started all 11 games of the 2016 season for Dallas to become the first rookie quarterback in team history to accomplish that feat, while his 10-1 record is the best in franchise history. Prescott is the second rookie with a 10-game win streak since the 1970 NFL merger, behind Ben Roethlisberger (13 - Pittsburgh 2004), and only the second rookie in NFL history to win 10 of his first 11 career starts, joining Roethlisberger (11 straight - 2004).

His season-highs of completions (27 - vs. Bal, 11/20), attempts (45 - vs. NYG, 9/11), passing touchdowns (3 - three times, last vs. Baltimore, 11/20), quarterback rating (141.8 - @ Cle, 11/6) and completion percentage (79.1 - vs. Chi, 9/25) are all franchise rookie single-game records. He also has nine games this season with a 100.0 rating, seven games with a 70.0 completion percentage and three games with three touchdowns which are all team records by a rookie quarterback. He also set NFL records for most pass attempts without an interception (176) to begin a career, most consecutive games (10) with at least 225-plus passing yards, most consecutive games (two) with 300-plus yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions and tied the NFL record for most consecutive games (five) with two-plus passing scores.

This season he has set Cowboys single-season rookie quarterback records for wins (10), consecutive wins (10) - also the longest by any Cowboys quarterback - passing yards (2,835), completions (231), completion percentage (67.9), consecutive games with 225-plus passing yards (10), passing touchdowns (18), quarterback rating (108.7), games with a 100.0 rating (nine), consecutive games with a 100.0 rating (five), games with 70.0 percent (seven) and rushing touchdowns (five).

THE DAK KNIGHT RISES

Down 23-13 in the fourth quarter against Philadelphia (10/30), Dak Prescott rallied the team to force overtime and threw the game-winning five-yard touchdown pass to Jason Witten to complete the comeback win. By doing so, he became the first Cowboys rookie quarterback to overcome a deficit of at least 10 points in the fourth quarter in franchise history. It also marked his sixth consecutive win - tied for the third-longest streak by a league rookie in the Super Bowl era. Prescott has since extended his win streak to 10 following the victory against Washington (11/24) to rank as the second-most consecutive wins by a rookie quarterback:

COOL HAND DAK

Dak Prescott's accuracy has been on display since taking over the reigns of the Dallas offense, and his 67.9 completion percentage (231-of-340) currently ranks sixth in the NFL. He has already registered seven games with a completion percentage of 70 percent-or-better for the most games - and longest consecutive (four) in team history - by a rookie in a season in NFL history. He had a completion percentage of 73.3 at Washington (9/18) before topping a 79.2 mark against Chicago (9/25) to set the highest mark in franchise history. Prescott completed 72.7 percent at San Francisco (10/2/16), then had a 75.0 mark against Cincinnati (10/9). Prescott's mark of 77.8 at Cleveland (11/6) was the second-highest by a Cowboys rookie. He had a 75.0% mark against Baltimore (11/20), then 70.8% against Washington (11/24) to claim the most by an NFL rookie all-time with seven games over 70.0%:

Prescott registered a 103.7 quarterback rating in his second career game at Washington (9/18), then topped that with a 123.6 rating against Chicago (9/25) - the then highest in franchise history. Prescott had this third consecutive game with a 100.0 rating with a 114.7 mark at San Francisco (10/2), then his fourth with a 117.9 rating against Cincinnati (10/9). Prescott had a 117.4 rating at Green Bay (10/16) to mark his fifth straight game with at least a 100.0 rating for the longest streak, and most games in franchise history, by a rookie quarterback and tied the second-longest streak in team history by a Cowboys quarterback overall, but failed to record a 100.0 rating against Philadelphia (10/30) to end his streak at five games. He currently is on a four-game streak following 100.0 ratings at Cleveland (11/6), at Pittsburgh (11/13), against Baltimore (11/20) and against Washington (11/24). Against the Browns he registered a franchise rookie record 141.8 rating and now owns eight of the top-10 games by a rookie in team history:

RAYNE-ING 300-YARD PASSING DAYS

Rayne Dakota "Dak" Prescott notched his first career 300-yard passing game at Pittsburgh (11/13) when he reached 319 yards to record the second-highest passing yards by a Cowboys rookie quarterback while also becoming only the third rookie in team history to throw for 300 yards in a single game. He doubled up his efforts the following week against Baltimore (11/20), once again reaching the 300-yard mark with 301 yards against the Ravens to tie the third-highest mark. In total, his two 300-yard passing games are the most by a Cowboys rookie quarterback in a single season:

His two-game streak of consecutive games with 300 passing yards allowed him to become the fourth quarterback - first rookie - to have a streak of two-or-more games with 300-plus passing yards in team history. It was the 15th time that such a streak has occurred in team history, and the first since Tony Romo had a two-game streak against Pittsburgh (12/16/12) and against New Orleans (12/23/12).

In total, Prescott's performances against the Steelers (319 yards, two touchdowns, no interceptions) and the Ravens (301 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions) allowed him to become the first rookie in NFL history to pass for 300-plus yards, two-plus touchdowns and no interceptions in consecutive games.

TDS AND ROOKIES

At Green Bay (10/16) Dak Prescott tossed a season-high three touchdowns to mark only the third time a rookie threw for three-or-more scores in team history. They also tied for the second-most scores by a Dallas rookie in a single game in franchise history. He threw two more against Philadelphia (10/30), then matched his career mark with three at Cleveland (11/6) to establish a franchise record with the most games with three-plus passing touchdowns by a Cowboys rookie quarterback with two. Prescott added his third game with three-plus scores against Baltimore (11/20) to extend his team record:

50 YARDS-OR-MORE FOR SCORES

Dak Prescott showcased his ability to air the ball out at Pittsburgh (11/13), as he tossed an 83-yard scoring strike to Ezekiel Elliott for the longest pass by a rookie in team history, then later hit Dez Bryant for a 50-yard touchdown. With both passes traveling 50 yards-or-more, it allowed him to become the first rookie in team history to throw two scores of 50-or-more yards and the first in league history since Teddy Bridgewater (Minnesota) in 2014.

Overall, the 83-yard completion was the longest passing touchdown by a Cowboy since Tony Romo threw an 85-yard touchdown to Bryant against Washington (11/22/12). By making the connection with fellow rookie Elliott, it marked the longest by a rookie quarterback/rookie receiver tandem in team history, and was the longest rookie combo in the NFL since 1986, when Indianapolis Colts quarterback Jack Trudeau threw an 84-yard scoring strike to wide receiver Bill Brooks at San Francisco (10/5/86).

PASS NO PICK NFL RECORD

After 45 attempts against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) and 30 attempts at Washington (9/18), Dak Prescott's combined number of 75 surpassed Warren Moon's (72 - 1984) for the most pass attempts through a player's first two career games without an interception in NFL history. At San Francisco (10/2) he didn't throw a pick on 32 attempts to move up to 131 passes without an interception - tied for second-most by a player to begin his career, most by a rookie and were also the most by a player in his first four career games. He upped his streak against Cincinnati (10/9) to 155 passes - second-most by a quarterback to start his career, and most by a rookie. At Green Bay (10/16), Prescott surpassed Tom Brady (162) with his 163rd passing attempt without an interception to establish an NFL record, but he was picked off in the third quarter to end his streak at 176 pass attempts:

DALLAS ROOKIE QB'S ON OPENING DAY

Dallas Cowboys rookie quarterback Dak Prescott got the start in the 2016 season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) with Tony Romo sidelined with a back injury. By doing so, he became only the fourth rookie quarterback to start a season opener for the Cowboys, joining Roger Staubach (1969), Troy Aikman (1989) and Quincy Carter (2001). Prescott's completions (25), attempts (45) and yards (227) were all the most by a Cowboys rookie quarterback on opening day in team history:

THIRTY FOR 9

After four touchdown passes against Indianapolis (12/21/14), Tony Romo notched his fourth career season with 30 touchdowns. Romo is the only quarterback in franchise history to ever throw for 30 touchdowns in a single season. His 34 touchdowns in 2014 were the second-most of his career and in team history. By reaching 30 scores for the fourth time, he tied Dan Marino, Aaron Rodgers and Philip Rivers for fifth all-time in NFL history:

| Roger Staubach   | 3        |

By reaching 3,000 yards and 20 touchdowns in 2014, it marked the fourth consecutive season (2011-14) for Romo and established a club record.

ROMO 4K

With 341 passing yards against Pittsburgh (12/16/12), Tony Romo reached 4,000 passing yards for the fourth time in his career. It also marked the fourth time a Cowboys quarterback reached 4,000 yards in a season. With four seasons of 4,000-plus yards, Romo is tied with Warren Moon and Ben Roethlisberger for the 12th-most 4,000-yard seasons in NFL history. Peyton Manning has the league-high with 14:

ALL-TIME COWBOYS QB WATCH

Tony Romo entered the 2015 season tops in club history with 33,626 passing yards and 242 touchdown passes, and second in attempts (4,255) and completions (2,779). Through his career Romo has steadily climbed the club's all-time quarterback charts, making strides in 2012 by moving into second for completions, then established the club mark in touchdown throws against Philadelphia (12/2/12) to break Aikman's old record of 165. He also moved up the ladder in all-time wins and starts amongst Cowboys quarterbacks, passing Danny White (62) in 2013 to claim the third-most wins as a Dallas quarterback, and passed Roger Staubach (114) for second-most quarterback starts in team history against the N.Y. Giants (10/19/14). He overtook Aikman (32,942) as the club's all-time passing yards leader against Indianapolis (12/21/14). Below is how Romo's career numbers stack up in the storied quarterback history of the franchise:

ALL-TIME UNDRAFTED QBS

After coming into the league as an undrafted free agent in 2003, Tony Romo took the reins of the Dallas Cowboys offense in 2006. Since then, Romo has struck a note in several team and league record books. He ranks in the top-five in the major passing categories all-time among undrafted quarterbacks. Below is a look at where Romo's current career numbers compare to previously undrafted quarterbacks:

CALL IT A COMEBACK

Since taking over as the Dallas Cowboys starting quarterback during the 2006 season, Tony Romo has been at the helm of some thrilling wins for the club. Included in his 78 wins as a starter are 24 occasions in which he led the team to a come-from-behind victory in the fourth quarter or overtime during the regular season. Romo's 24 wins are a franchise-best, and in 2012 he had three straight games in which he had a come-from-behind win and followed that up with two in 2013.

Romo had three late comebacks in 2014 highlighted by his performance at St. Louis (9/21) as the team battled back from 21 points down to overcome the most points to win a game in a non-overtime game in franchise history. He wasted no time to earn his first comeback win in the fourth quarter or overtime in 2015, coming back from a 10-point deficit in the season opening game against the N.Y. Giants (9/13)

Below is a look at each of Romo's 24 games in which he battled a deficit to pull out the win and his fourth quarter stats in those games:

HOME SWEET HOME

In 2015, Tony Romo opened the seventh season at what is now AT&T Stadium against the N.Y. Giants (9/13), marking his 42nd game in the stadium since it opened in 2009. With Romo as the starting quarterback, Dallas holds a 25-18 record at its home venue. Romo's personal stats at the stadium are quite impressive. For his career, Romo has completed 992-of-1,493 passes for 11,787 yards, with 83 touchdowns and 46 interceptions. Below is a year-by-year look at Romo's work at AT&T Stadium:

CLIMBING THE TE CHARTS

Since entering the league in 2003, Jason Witten has proven his skills as an offensive weapon. He has provided Dallas with the full package at tight end. In his 14th season, Witten has caught 1,069 passes for 11,735 yards and 62 touchdowns. He is the second all-time leading tight end in career receptions and receiving yards.

To open the 2011 season Witten became the seventh tight end in league history to reach 7,000 receiving yards. His work through the 2011 season allowed him to crack the top-five on the tight end receiving yards list. In 2012 against Tampa Bay (9/23), Witten moved into third all-time. He then crossed the 8,000-yard mark against Chicago (10/1) with his 15th career 100-yard game. He opened the 2013 season by crossing the 9,000-yard threshold.

By mid-November of 2011, Witten passed Ozzie Newsome (662) for third on the all-time receptions list. With four catches at Seattle (9/16) in 2012, he became the third tight end in league history with 700 career catches. His seven catches in the finale at Washington (12/30) made him the third tight end in league history to reach 800 career receptions. In Week 2 of 2013 at Kansas City (9/15) Witten passed Shannon Sharpe (817) for second in catches.

In 2014 he reached 10,000 career receiving yards on a 34-yard catch against Houston (10/5) to become only the third tight end in NFL history to reach that mark. The very next game at Seattle (10/12) he caught his 900th career pass on a three-yard scoring strike from Romo in the second quarter to become the second tight end in league history, the first Dallas Cowboy and the 16th overall player to reach 900. In 2015 he had 27 yards against the N.Y. Giants (10/19) to pass Sharpe (10,060) for the second-most receiving yards by an NFL tight end. Witten surpassed 11,000 career receiving yards against Carolina (11/26) to become only the second tight end in NFL history to do so. He reached 1,000 career receptions at Washington (12/7), becoming the 12th player in NFL history - second tight end - to reach that mark.

TE's TDs

Coming off a 2010 season in which he registered a career-high and club tight end record-tying nine touchdowns, Jason Witten became the seventh Dallas Cowboy with 40 career touchdown catches in 2011. Later that same season, Witten tied Billy Joe DuPree (41) for sixth in club history. He then broke that tie in 2012 with a scoring grab against Chicago (10/1) to give him sole possession of sixth. He reached 48 against Minnesota (11/3/13) to tie Drew Pearson for fifth, then tied Frank Clarke for fourth with two more snags at the N.Y. Giants (11/24/13). Witten tied Tony Hill for third with a score at Chicago (12/9/13) and passed him with one against Green Bay (12/15/13). His 61st served as the game-winner in overtime against Philadelphia (10/30/16) to become the first game winner by a tight end in overtime since Billy Joe DuPree in the franchise's first overtime game against St. Louis (9/28/75):

MORE TE's TDs

In 2013 Jason Witten reached 50 career touchdowns - the ninth tight end in league history to reach that mark - and entered the 2014 season tied with Dave Casper for eighth amongst all league tight ends all-time. At Seattle (10/12/14) he caught a touchdown to give him 53 for his career to break a tie with Casper and tie Dallas Clark (53) for seventh. Against Washington (10/27/14) he broke a tie with Clark with one touchdown and tied Wesley Walls for sixth, then moved past Walls and tied Vernon Davis (55) at Jacksonville (11/9/14). He passed Davis with a score at the N.Y. Giants (11/23/14). He passed Jerry Smith for fifth with his 61st score against Philadelphia (10/30/16), then tied Shannon Sharpe for fourth all-time with his 62nd at Cleveland (11/6/16):

LEADING MAN

Already placing in the top-two in career receptions and receiving yards all-time among league tight ends, Jason Witten is climbing the NFL's all-time receptions and receiving yards charts among all position players. Witten opened 2016 ranked 10th in receptions (1,020) and 32nd in receiving yards (11,215).

In league all-time receiving yards, he climbed up to 30th all-time when he passed Keenan McCardell (11,373) and Rod Smith (11,389) at San Francisco (10/2), then moved past Muhsin Muhammad (11,438) for 29th against Cincinnati (10/9). He passed Calvin Johnson (11,619) for 28th at Cleveland (11/6).

Witten began the 2016 season with nine catches in the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) to surpass Isaac Bruce (1,024) for 10th on the NFL's all-time receptions list. He then passed Andre Johnson (1,062) for ninth at Pittsburgh (11/13) and moved into eighth place after passing Reggie Wayne (1,070) against Washington (11/24):

THAT'S A BUNCH OF WITT

After coming into the league as Dallas' third round draft pick in 2003, Jason Witten has strung together a Hall of Fame career. He has appeared in the most Pro Bowls by a Cowboys tight end (10, seven consecutive - 2004-10 and three consecutive 2012-14), and is tied for the second-most by any Dallas player in team history, is tops on the club's all-time receptions chart and second on the receiving yards chart. In 2012 he took the top spot on the club's receptions chart from Michael Irvin at Atlanta (11/4). Witten took 151 games to reach the top of the team's receptions chart which was faster than Irvin (159). When compared to the two other NFL tight ends with at least 750 catches - Tony Gonzalez and Shannon Sharpe - Witten also reached the mark faster - Gonzalez (163 games), Sharpe (169).

Witten hit 950 career receptions after an eight catch performance against the N.Y. Giants (9/13/15). By reaching that mark in his 192nd career game, he did it faster than Gonzalez (198 games) - the only other tight end to reach 950 career receptions.

He surpassed 1,000 career receptions at Washington (12/7/15) with five catches against the Redskins, reaching that mark in his 203rd game to become the sixth-fastest NFL player to do so, and the fastest tight end.

Witten accounts for 649 catches and 7,287 yards of Tony Romo's 2,826 completions and 34,154 yards. Both numbers are more than any other player that has caught a pass from Romo.

In 2012 Witten caught 13 passes against Chicago (10/1) which was third in his career and tied for third among any Cowboys pass catcher and tied for eighth by an NFL tight end. He then bettered that with a club-record 18-catch game against the N.Y. Giants (10/28). His 18 receptions tied for third in a game in NFL history and were the most by a tight end in league history:

100

On his third catch against New Orleans (12/23/12), Jason Witten reached 100 receptions for the season for the first time in his career. He was the second player in franchise history to top 100 in a season (Michael Irvin, 111 in 1995) and the third tight end in league history to accomplish the feat. Witten finished with a league tight end record 110 catches:

QUICK WITT-ED

Jason Witten has steadily climbed Dallas' all-time receiving yards charts. In 2008 he became the sixth player in Cowboys history to reach 4,000 career receiving yards. In 2010 Witten became the fifth Cowboy to top 6,000 career yards. He opened 2011 with 110 yards at the N.Y. Jets (9/11) to become the fifth Cowboy to reach 7,000. His 94-yard outing against Detroit (10/2) put him past Bob Hayes (7,295) for fourth all-time in club history. He took third from Drew Pearson with four catches for 24 yards against Philadelphia (12/24). In 2012 Witten topped 8,000 yards with his 112-yard game against Chicago (10/1). Witten opened 2013 with 70 yards against the N.Y. Giants (9/8) to become the second Cowboy and third tight end to reach 9,000 career receiving yards. In 2014 he reached 10,000 career yards after a 59-yard performance against Houston (10/5) to become the third tight end - and second Cowboy - to reach that mark. In 2015 Witten became only the second NFL tight end - and second Cowboy - to reach 11,000 career receiving yards with 36 yards against Carolina (11/26/15):

All-Time Cowboys Receiving Yards List

1. Michael Irvin ..... 11,904 (1988-99)
2. Jason Witten ..... 11,768 (2003-16)
3. Tony Hill ..... 7,988 (1977-86)
4. Drew Pearson ..... 7,822 (1973-83)
5. Bob Hayes ..... 7,295 (1965-74)

Among his 11,768 yards are 21 games in which he reached 100 yards - a club tight end record. His 21 100-yard outings are tied for fourth all-time among league tight ends since 1970:

| Cowboys Tight End            | 100-yard Games | NFL Tight End          | 100-yard Games |

In 2008 Witten became the fifth pass catcher in team history to top 400 receptions. Four weeks into 2009, he became the fifth to reach 450. He jumped past Tony Hill (fifth) and Emmitt Smith (fourth) also in 2009. He took second from Drew Pearson with 14 catches at the N.Y. Giants (12/6/09) - second in his career. He became the second Cowboy to reach 700 receptions in Week 2 of 2012, and he added seven catches at Atlanta (11/4) to pass Michael Irvin for the top spot on Dallas' all-time receptions chart:

40x13

Jason Witten is known to be a reliable source for receptions for a quarterback. For the 12th time - and 12th consecutive season - Witten reached 40 receptions eight games into the 2015 season with six grabs against Philadelphia (11/8/15) to become only the second tight end in NFL history (Gonzalez) to accomplish that feat. Nine games into the 2016 season Witten once again hit the 40-catch mark after six receptions at Pittsburgh (11/13). It marked his 13th consecutive season with 40 catches-or-more to allow him to become the sixth player - second tight end - to reach that milestone:

CATCHES KEEP COMING

Dating back to Nov. 16, 2008, Jason Witten has made at least one catch in 130 consecutive games, most in franchise history. He surpassed Michael Irvin (117) with one catch at Buffalo (12/27/15) for the all-time record. The last game that Witten did not have a catch was at the N.Y. Giants (11/2/08), and since that time, he has posted 678 receptions for 7,236 yards (10.7 avg.) and 39 touchdowns during that span:

I AM IRON MAN

Jason Witten has played in a team-record 214 consecutive games out of a possible 218 games in his career, missing just one game due to a broken jaw against Arizona (10/5/03). At Miami (11/22/15) he surpassed Bob Lilly for the most in team history, and it is currently the second-longest streak amongst all active NFL players:

WITTEN AT 800 AND 9,000

In the 2012 season finale, Jason Witten caught his 800th career pass. He became just the third tight end in league history to reach that figure. He reached 800 in 159 games - faster than the previous two. Witten entered 2013 52 yards shy of 9,000 career yards, and he became the third tight end in NFL history to reach the mark with a touchdown catch in the second quarter of the opener. He again did it faster than the previous two:

WITTEN AT 900 AND 10,000

On a 34-yard catch in the third quarter against Houston (10/5/14), Jason Witten hit 10,000 career receiving yards. By reaching that milestone, he became the third tight end in NFL history, the 41st overall player in league history and the second Dallas Cowboy (Michael Irvin) to reach that mark. Witten reached the 10,000-yard plateau in his 180th career game to become the second-fastest tight end to get to that point. The very next week at Seattle (10/12), Witten caught two passes to up his career total receptions to 900, becoming only the second tight end in NFL history, first Dallas Cowboy and 16th overall player to do so. He reached that mark in his 181st game, the fastest tight end - and eighth-fastest player overall - in NFL history to reach that mark. Witten also became only the 16th player in NFL history to reach both 900 career receptions and 10,000 career receiving yards:

WITTEN AT 1,000 AND 11,000

Jason Witten reached 11,000 career receiving yards after posting 36 yards against Carolina (11/26/15). He became only the second tight end in NFL history, 32nd overall player in league history and the second Cowboy (Michael Irvin) to reach that plateau. Witten reached 11,000 career yards in his 202nd game to serve as the second-fastest tight end to get to that mark. In his next game at Washington (12/7/15), Witten crossed the 1,000 career reception mark after hauling in five passes. By doing so, he became the 12th player in NFL history, second tight end and first Cowboy, while becoming the sixth-fastest player - fastest tight end - to reach that mark. He also became the 12th player in NFL history to reach both 1,000 career receptions and 11,000 career receiving yards:

BY DESIGN

After trading up in the 2010 NFL Draft to select Dez Bryant in the first round with the 24th overall pick, the Dallas Cowboys have seen nothing but production from the wide receiver. Despite his rookie season being cut short due to injury, Bryant was third on the team with 561 yards and six touchdowns and fourth with 45 catches. His reception total was second all-time among club rookies, his touchdowns were third and receiving yards fifth.

He improved upon those numbers in his second season (2011), catching 63 passes for 928 yards and nine touchdowns before topping club receiving charts in 2012 with 1,382 yards (fourth in club history) and 12 touchdowns (tied for fifth) on 92 catches (seventh).

Bryant finished 2013 as the team leader in receptions (93) yards (1,233) and touchdowns (13). He continued in 2014 where he left off, leading the team with 88 receptions for 1,320 yards and a franchise-best 16 touchdowns. He fought through foot and ankle injuries and was limited to nine games in 2015, catching a career-low 31 passes for 401 yards and three touchdowns. In 2016 he is third on the team with 33 receptions for 550 and tied for the lead with five touchdowns.

Now in his seventh season, Bryant has totaled 445 receptions for 6,375 yards and 64 touchdowns. His totals all rank amongst the top five spots in club history through a player's first seven seasons:

88, 88, 88

With the selection of Dez Bryant in the first round of the 2010 NFL Draft, the Dallas Cowboys added to their lineage of home-grown talent at wide receiver. Bryant was issued the jersey number 88 to follow in the footsteps of two of the previous 88s in club history - Drew Pearson (1973-83) and Michael Irvin (1988-99).

His progress as a rookie was slowed after landing on IR with an ankle injury suffered at Indianapolis (12/5/10). He returned in 2011 with 63 catches for 928 yards and nine touchdowns. In 2012 Bryant notched his first career 1,000-yard receiving season with a career-best 1,382 yards on 92 catches and 12 touchdowns. In 2013 Bryant led the team in receiving yards (1,233) with his second consecutive 1,000-yard season while also leading with a career-high in catches (93) and a then career-high in touchdowns (13).

Bryant came on strong in 2014, leading the team with 88 receptions for 1,320 yards and a club-record 16 touchdowns.

He looked to return to form in 2015 following a contract extension, but suffered a foot injury against in the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/13) that would linger for the rest of the season, limiting him to nine games. Bryant finished the year with 31 receptions for 401 yards and three touchdowns.

Bryant began the 2016 season with one catch for eight yards in the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11). He increased his production significantly at Washington (9/18) with seven receptions for 102 yards - his 16th career 100-yard game. Bryant caught his 60th career touchdown against Chicago (9/25) as part of a three reception, 40-yard game, then had his best game of the year to date against Philadelphia (10/30) with 113 yards on four receptions and a score while crossing the 6,000-yard threshold. Bryant made six receptions for a team-high 116 yards and a score at Pittsburgh (11/13) for his 18th career 100-yard game, then hauled in two touchdowns for his 14th career multi-score game on six receptions with 80 yards against Baltimore (11/20).

Bryant is currently third on the team with 550 yards on 33 catches and five touchdowns, tied for the most on the club.

Below is a comparison between the Cowboys 88s after 92 games:

DEZ-STRUCTIVE

Since entering the league as the Dallas Cowboys first round draft choice in 2010, Dez Bryant has continued his rise each season as arguably one of the league's best receivers. He has reached the century mark in 16 career games, and has steadily improved his output in each season of his early pro career.

As a rookie in 2010 he logged his first career 100-yard game with a 104-yard output at the N.Y. Giants (11/14/10). After no 100-yard games in 2011, he returned in 2012 to log a career-best five games including a career-best 224-yard effort against New Orleans (12/23/12). It was the 10th 200-yard game in team history and was the fourth highest number in a game in franchise record books. In 2013 he turned in his first Pro Bowl campaign highlighted by four games with 100 yards, including a season-best 153 yards against Green Bay (12/15/13). He tied his effort in 2014 as he once again recorded four games north of the century mark, with his centerpiece game of 2014 coming across the pond in London, England with a 158-yard effort at Jacksonville (11/9/14) - the second-highest yardage output of his career.

After returning from a foot injury he suffered in Week 1, Bryant notched his lone 100-yard game of the 2015 season with 104 yards against Philadelphia (11/8) on five catches with one touchdown to break a tie with Miles Austin (14) for the sixth-most career 100-yard receiving games in team history.

He added his first 100-yard game of the 2016 season with 102 yards at Washington (9/18), then had his second with 113 yards against Philadelphia (10/30). Bryant's third came at Pittsburgh (11/13) with a 116-yard effort.

To date, Bryant's 18 career 100-yard outings are good for sixth in team history:

DEZ 6K

Dez Bryant crossed the 6,000-yard receiving plateau after recording 113 yards against Philadelphia (10/30), becoming the sixth player in team history to reach that mark. Bryant did so in his 88th career game to check in as the third-fastest player in team history to reach 6,000 career receiving yards:

A GRAND FOR DEZ

With six catches for 82 yards at Chicago (12/4/14), Dez Bryant topped 1,000 yards on the season for the third time in his career. He accomplished the feat in 2012 with 1,382 yards, and had 1,233 in 2013. Bryant's 1,000-yard season in 2014 marks the 31st in franchise history, and he is the 12th different Cowboy to top 1,000 yards in a season. His mark of 1,320 yards in 2014 tied for seventh in a season in team history:

DEZ FOR 60, 70 & 80

Dez Bryant reached 60 receptions for the 2014 season at the New York Giants (11/23). By getting to that number, it marked the fourth consecutive season that he has reached 60 receptions after posting 63 catches in 2011, 92 in 2012 and 93 in 2013. Overall, Bryant's four seasons with at least 60 receptions ranks third in team history, and his streak of four straight seasons with 60-or-more catches ranks as the third-longest streak in team history:

60-plus catch seasons by a Cowboys player

FASTEST TO 400

After hauling in four passes at Miami (11/22/15), Dez Bryant moved past the 400 career receptions plateau. By doing so, he became the sixth player in team history to reach that mark and by doing it in his 80th career game, he became the fastest player in team history to get there:

DEZZLING PERFORMANCES

Dez Bryant finished 2012 with 92 receptions, a career-high 1,382 yards and 12 touchdowns. From Weeks 8-13, he opened the flood gates of production. Over that span, he led the league with six touchdown catches, was third with 475 yards and seventh with 29 catches. He logged three 100-yard games, including back-to-back 145-yarders against Cleveland (11/18) and Washington (11/22).

Bryant tied a club record with a touchdown catch in seven consecutive games. On Thanksgiving Day against Washington, he had two scoring grabs then did the same the next week against Philadelphia (12/2/12), the sixth time in team history - fifth different player - a Dallas Cowboy had back-to-back multi-touchdown games. Bryant repeated the feat in 2013 with another pair in two games - at San Diego (9/29) and against Denver (10/6). He did it again in 2014 with two at Jacksonville (11/9) and two at the N.Y. Giants (11/23) to become the first player in team history to boast three instances of back-to-back multi-touchdown games:

In 2012 Bryant had two scores against New Orleans (12/23). His two touchdown catches came on consecutive drives, both from 58 yards. Bryant became the first league pass catcher with 55-plus yard touchdown grabs on consecutive drives since Buffalo's Lee Evans (at Houston, 11/19/06) did it.

Bryant's two touchdown catches against the Saints was his fourth multi-touchdown game of the season, sixth of his career. Bryant's four in 2012 were a single-season club best, while his six career tied for sixth.

Bryant finished 2013 with three multi-score games. He had two scores at Jacksonville (11/9) for his first multi-touchdown game of 2014 to give him 10 for his career and break a tie with Frank Clarke, Tony Hill and Michael Irvin (all with nine) for sole possession of second in club history.

In 2014 he posted a career-high tying four multi-touchdown games with two at Jacksonville (11/9), two at the N.Y. Giants (11/23), a career-high three at Philadelphia (12/14) and two at Washington (12/28) to give him 13 for his career.

In 2016 Bryant notched his 14th career multi-score against Baltimore (11/20) with two touchdowns against the Ravens:

SCORING MACHINE

In the fourth quarter against Chicago (9/25), Dez Bryant caught a 17-yard touchdown from Dak Prescott for his 60th career score to become the fourth player in franchise history to reach that milestone. By getting there in his 87th game, Bryant is the second-fastest player in team history to reach that mark behind Bob Hayes' 76 games:

'X' MARKS THE SPOT

Dez Bryant is tied for first on the team in 2016 with five touchdowns. He caught his first score of the season against Chicago (9/25), then after missing the next three games with a knee injury, returned against Philadelphia (10/30) and caught his second score of the year. Bryant hauled in his third at Pittsburgh (11/13). He had his 14th career multi-touchdown game with two touchdowns against Baltimore (11/20).

In 2014 Bryant found the endzone a franchise-high 16 times to lead the NFL. This is beginning to be a trend for Dallas' top receiver. He finished the 2013 season with 13 scores to tie for third in the league, was third in 2012 with 12 touchdowns, tied for sixth in 2011 with nine and logged six scores in 2010 - third amongst rookies.

Since the 2012 season, Bryant's 49 scores are the most receiving touchdowns in the NFL during that timespan:

DEZ VS. THE AFC

Dez Bryant caught a 10-yard touchdown against the N.Y. Jets (12/19/15) to extend his streak of consecutive touchdowns against AFC opponents to 14 games, but his streak ended at Cleveland (11/6/16) when he was held without a score. The streak was the longest interconference streak in the NFL since the 1970 NFL merger. However, he scored once at Pittsburgh (11/13) and twice against Baltimore (11/20) to give him touchdowns in 18-of-25 total games played against AFC opponents, including two of three played in 2016.

Overall, since entering the league in 2010, Bryant has caught the most touchdowns (23) by an NFC receiver against AFC foes. He also has posted the second-most receptions (143), third-most receiving yards (1,734) and fifth-highest receiving average (13.5) during that timespan in interconference matchups:

TOTALING TEN TDs

Dez Bryant caught a franchise-record 16 touchdowns in 2014. Bryant's 10-touchdown season was the 17th time a Cowboy had 10 scoring catches in a season, and he is the ninth different Cowboy to accomplish the feat. Of the previous 17, he is one-of-four to do it multiple times:

THE REAL DEAL T-WILL

After concluding his third pro season, Terrance Williams has emerged as one of the Cowboys top receiving targets, particularly in catching touchdowns. After posting five scores as a rookie in 2013, he proved as a threat to score again in 2014 by surpassing his rookie total with eight touchdowns in 2014, good for second on the team. His three scores in 2015 tied for second on the squad, and he has two so far in 2016. Together, his 18 career touchdowns are tied for fifth-most by a Cowboys receiver during his first four pro seasons:

Most Rec. TDs in First Four Seasons - Dallas Cowboys

| Alvin Harper (1991-94).....             | 18        |
| Terrance Williams (2013-16)..... | 18 |

Williams caught five touchdowns as a rookie to tie for fourth in team history by a player in his first pro season. His rookie year was highlighted by a streak of four consecutive games with a touchdown pass to mark the longest streak of his career.

He increased his scoring production in 2014 with eight touchdowns, including a stretch of three straight games with a scoring grab: at St. Louis (9/21/14), against New Orleans (9/28/14) - where he had two touchdowns to tally the first multi-touchdown game of his career - and against Houston (10/5/14) to record the second-longest touchdown streak of his career. He recorded his second career multi-touchdown game with two scoring catches against Indianapolis (12/21/14).

Williams amped it up for the 2014 postseason, scoring three of the team's four receiving touchdowns while finishing second with 130 receiving yards and tied for fourth with four receptions. His three touchdowns tied for the postseason lead amongst all NFL receivers and also tied for the most by a Cowboys receiver in a single postseason in team history:

Williams notched three scores in 2015. He hauled in his first score of 2016 on a 20-yard reception at San Francisco (10/2), then added his second on an acrobatic, toe-tapping reception for a score against Washington (11/24).

TERRANCE THE TERRIFIC

Terrance Williams serves as a deep threat option to compliment Dez Bryant. Since entering the league in 2013, Williams led all Cowboys receivers in each of his first three pro seasons in receiving average (from players with at least 15 catches). He has maintained a top average and currently ranks second on the team in 2016 with a 14.1 average. His career average of 16.1 is the eighth-highest in the league from 2013-16 among active receivers with at least 50 catches during that span:

In 2015 Williams posted nine games with an average of 15.0-or-better, and three games with an average of 20.0-or-better. He posted career-highs with eight catches for 173 yards in the season finale against Washington (1/3/16), while his 21.6 average was the third-highest number of his career (with at least three receptions). It was also Williams' second career 100-yard receiving game, and his 173 yards were the most by a Cowboys receiver since Bryant had 224 against New Orleans (12/23/12).

Against Chicago (9/25) Williams caught four passes for 88 yards for a 22.0 average - highest of the 2016 season. He then had a season-high five grabs for 70 yards and a 14.0 average against Cincinnati (10/9). Williams boasted an 18.8 average on four catches for 75 yards at Green Bay (10/16).

COLE WORLD

Cole Beasley has steadily increased his production at the receiver position since entering the league as an undrafted free agent in 2012. Since then, he has become an automatic weapon in the Cowboys passing game, collecting 201 receptions for 2,099 yards and 16 touchdowns in his career.

He finished the 2015 season with a team-best five touchdowns, tied for second with 52 receptions and third with 536 yards - all-career-highs. Included his highlight season was a breakout game against Philadelphia (11/8/15), hauling in nine passes for 112 yards - both career-highs - and a career-high tying two touchdowns. It was his first career 100-yard receiving game, while his two scores marked his second career multi-touchdown game. Beasley also tied his career-best with five first downs, including two on third down, and hauled in a 30-yard pass in the fourth quarter that was the second-longest catch of his career. He matched his career-high in the 2015 season finale against Washington (1/3/16), hauling in two scores - his third career multi-touchdown game - on five receptions for 53 yards.

Beasley continues to be one of Dallas' top options in the passing game in 2016. Through 11 games he leads the team with 58 receptions for 647 yards and is tied for the most with five touchdowns. Beasley also currently leads all Cowboys receivers with 39 first downs to tie for 14th in the NFL, including 17 on third down - tied for second in the NFL - on 20 overall receptions on third down - tied for second in the league.

He collected eight passes for 65 yards - both second on the team - with a team-high and career-high tying five first downs in the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11). Beasley was second on the team in receptions (five), yards (75) and receiving first downs (four) at Washington (9/18). He once again led the team with seven receptions - two on third down - for 73 yards against Chicago (9/25), then posted a team-high 66 yards - including a career-long catch of 47 yards - on three receptions with two first downs and one on third down at San Francisco (10/2). Beasley was second on the team with four catches for 53 yards - including four for first downs with one on third down - and his first touchdown of the season against Cincinnati (10/9). Beasley led the team with six receptions for 58 yards - including four for first downs - and two touchdowns at Green Bay (10/16). His two scores marked his fourth career multi-touchdown game. At Cleveland (11/6) Beasley caught six passes for 56 yards and one touchdown, with four of his catches going for first downs, including three on third down. He contributed five catches for 59 yards with five first downs including two on third down while also hauling in a score against Baltimore (11/20). He established a career-high for receiving yards with his yardage performance against the Ravens while also becoming the 30th player in team history to reach 2,000 career receiving yards. Beasley made five grabs for 56 yards against Washington (11/24) to allow him to become the 21st player in team history to reach 200 career receptions.

'BEAS' IN THE TRAP

On third down, Cole Beasley has recorded 17 first downs to rank third in the NFL on 20 receptions - tied for fifth - for 219 yards (11.0 avg.) through Week 12 in 2016. More specifically, Beasley's receiving output has accounted for 20-of-62 completions (32.2%) and 219-of-796 passing yards for Dallas Cowboys rookie quarterback Dak Prescott, who is seventh in the league with a 103.2 rating on third down.

Over the past two seasons (14 - 2015; 17 - 2016), Beasley's 31 first downs on third down are tied for ninth in the NFL.

Overall, Beasley has produced his highest yards-per-catch (11.1) output, tied for his highest amount in touchdowns (seven) second-highest receiving yardage amount (789) and receptions (71) on third down throughout his career.

THE BOOK OF EZEKIEL

For only the second time in franchise history, the Dallas Cowboys used a top-five pick to choose Ezekiel Elliott out of Ohio State with the fourth overall selection in the 2016 NFL Draft. Dallas selected Tony Dorsett with the second pick in the 1977 NFL Draft. The former Buckeye has started since Week 1 as the team's feature runner.

Limited during training camp due to a hamstring injury, Elliott saw action in only one game during the preseason at Seattle (8/25). In one half against the Seahawks first team defense, Elliott rushed seven times for 48 yards (6.9 avg.).

Elliott has come on strong to begin his pro career, as he currently leads the NFL in rushing yards (1,199), attempts (243), rushing touchdowns (11) and runs of 10-plus-or-more (35) and is seventh in rushing average (4.9) - all tops by a rookie rusher:

Through his first season, Elliott has produced five 100-yard rushing games - most by a Cowboys rookie. Against Chicago (9/25) he rushed 30 times for 140 yards. His 140-yard rushing output marked his first career 100-yard game, and he became the 10th rookie running back in team history to reach 100. It was also the 24th time that a Cowboys rusher went over the century mark, and the first time Dallas had a rookie do it since DeMarco Murray had 135 yards against Buffalo (11/13/11). He posted 138 yards on 23 carries with one score at San Francisco (10/2) for his second 100-yard game. Against Cincinnati (10/9) Elliott rushed for 134 yards on 15 carries with two touchdowns, then rushed for a season-high 157 yards - fourth-most by a Cowboys rookie - on 28 carries at Green Bay (10/16), who entered the game with the NFL's No. 1 rushing defense. It was also the fourth game in a row that he rushed for over 100 yards - the first time that a rookie rusher accomplished that feat in team history and tied for the second-longest streak in team history overall. By compiling 157 yards, it also marked the first time in NFL history that a rookie runner posted four consecutive games with 130-plus yards. Elliott rushed 21 times for 114 yards and two touchdowns at Pittsburgh (11/13) for his fifth career 100-yard game:

OFFENSIVE ROOKIE OF THE MONTH

Ezekiel Elliott put up close to historic numbers for the month of October, rushing for 525 yards on 88 carries (6.0 avg.) with three touchdowns. He rushed for 130-plus yards in three straight games in October to improve his streak to four straight 130-yard games - the first rookie in NFL history to accomplish the feat. Elliott's average of 131.2 rushing yards-per-game through the month have him on pace to edge out Eric Dickerson's rookie rushing record (1,808 in 1983). His 525 rushing yards led the league for the month, also making him one of two players to top 500 rushing yards in October. Elliott hauled in 10 passes for 125 yards to give him 650 scrimmage yards (third in the month) while his 162.5 scrimmage yards-per-game also leads the league.

This is only the third time that a Cowboy has won the NFL Rookie of The Month award, as Elliott joins Julius Jones (November 2004) and DeMarco Murray (November 2011).

COMPARING ROOKIE RUSHERS

The Dallas Cowboys selected Ezekiel Elliott with the fourth overall pick of the 2016 NFL Draft to start from day one and have an immediate impact. So far in 2016, the former Ohio State Buckeye has rushed 243 times for a league-leading 1,199 yards (4.9 avg.) and 11 touchdowns.

His totals all rank amongst the top-five spots in club history through a player's first 10 games during their first pro season:

1,000 ALREADY

In only his ninth career game, rookie Ezekiel Elliott reached the 1,000-yard rushing yard mark after his 114-yard performance at Pittsburgh (11/13). By doing so, he became the first rusher of the 2016 season to do it, and tied Emmitt Smith's 1995 mark as the second-fastest rushers in team history to get to 1,000:

| Player                       | Games    | Season      |

| Emmitt Smith.....            | 9        | 1995        |

Elliott also became only the third league rookie to reach 1,000 yards in his first nine career games, joining Eric Dickerson (1,096 - 1983) and Adrian Peterson (1,081 - 2007). He also became just the second rookie in team history to surpass 1,000 yards, joining Tony Dorsett (1977).

EAT, ZEKE, EAT

Ezekiel Elliott's appetite for running the football has already allowed him to crack the top-10 best performances by a Cowboys rookie runner in team history. He surpassed Tony Dorsett (1,007) against Baltimore (11/20) for the most rushing yards by a rookie in franchise history, moved past Emmitt Smith (241) for the most carries (243) by a rookie against Washington (11/24) and is tied for third in touchdowns (11):

Elliott recorded another 'monster' game against Cincinnati (10/9), rushing 15 times for 134 yards and two touchdowns. His two scores marked his first career multi-touchdown game, and he became the 12th Cowboys rookie running back to accomplish that feat - 21st time by a rookie runner - in team history. Part of his performance included a career-long 60-yard rushing touchdown in the third quarter that tied the fifth-longest rush by a Cowboys rookie and the longest since Joseph Randle had a 65-yard run and score at Washington (12/28/14):

Elliott rushed 18 times for 92 yards and two touchdowns for his second career multi-score game at Cleveland (11/6), then added two more rushing scores at Pittsburgh (11/13) on 21 carries for 114 yards to become the seventh Cowboys running back - second rookie (Julius Jones, 2004) - to post consecutive games with two-or-more rushing touchdowns, and the first league rookie to accomplish that feat since Trent Richardson (Cleveland) in 2012. It was also his third multi-touchdown game of the season to tie for the most by a rookie runner in team history before he set the rookie mark for the Cowboys, and tie for seventh overall by an NFL rookie rusher, with his fourth game against Washington (11/24) with two touchdowns on 20 carries for 97 yards:

ZEKE & DESTROY

Ezekiel Elliott became a one-man wrecking crew at Pittsburgh (11/13), contributing three of the Dallas' four touchdowns in the victory against the Steelers including two rushing scores and his first career receiving score. Elliott helped clinch the win when he scored twice in the final period, as he became the first player to score two go-ahead touchdowns in the final two minutes of the fourth quarter of the same game since Buffalo's Ahmad Rashad in 1974 at Oakland (9/16/74).

His three total scores allowed him to become the seventh Cowboys rookie to have three touchdowns in a game in team history, and the first player to rush for a touchdown (two) and catch a touchdown (one) in a single game since DeMarco Murray at Washington (12/22/13).

Elliott's receiving touchdown came on an 83-yard strike from Dak Prescott in the first quarter to serve as the second-longest scoring catch by a rookie in team history:

Combined with his 60-yard rushing touchdown against Cincinnati (10/9), Elliott became the first rookie running back in the league to boast a 60-plus touchdown run and an 80-plus touchdown catch in a single season since Gale Sayers in 1965.

Elliott also finished second on the team with 95 receiving yards against the Steelers - seventh-highest by a rookie runner in team history. His 209 combined yards (114 rush; 95 rec) allowed him to become the sixth Cowboys rookie to have at least 200 yards in a single game in team history, tied with Julius Jones for the fourth-highest tally and the most total scrimmage yards against the Steelers by a visiting opponent at Heinz Field:

OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Dallas Cowboys rookie running back Ezekiel Elliott was named the NFC's Offensive Player of the Week following Dallas' thrilling come-from-behind win at Pittsburgh (11/13) in Week 10. He rushed for 114 yards and two touchdowns while also catching two passes for 95 yards, including an 83-yard catch-and-run for a touchdown. Both of Elliott's rushing touchdowns came in the final two minutes of the game, making him the first player to score two touchdowns in the final 2:00 of the fourth quarter since Ahmad Rashad in 1974. His 83-yard scoring catch was the second-longest by a rookie in team history, and the longest by a running back since Herschel Walker had an 84-yarder in 1986. On the day, Elliott was responsible for 209 scrimmage yards (114 rush, 95 pass) - tied for fourth in team history among rookies. He is also the seventh Cowboys rookie with three touchdowns in a single game.

Elliott is the first Cowboy to win the honor since Dez Bryant in Week 15 of 2014, and the first running back since Emmitt Smith in Week 8 of 2002.

DALLAS ROOKIE RUNNERS 1ST STARTS

Dallas Cowboys rookie running back Ezekiel Elliott immediately entered the 2016 season as the team's starting running back. With his start against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) he became only the fourth rookie running back in team history to start a season opener, joining Calvin Hill (1969), Ron Springs (1979) and Derrick Lassic (1993) while his totals were the most carries (20) and the third-highest rushing yards (51) by a Cowboys rookie rusher to start a season opener:

RUSHING TO THE TOP

Over the last few seasons, the Dallas Cowboys have established an identity on offense with their rushing attack, finishing each of the previous two seasons (2014-2nd; 2015-9th) in the top-10 in the NFL in rushing. The Cowboys are out to accomplish the same feat in 2016 and are currently second in the league by averaging 157.3 yards-per-game:

RAYNE MAN

Rayne Dakota "Dak" Prescott had one rush for a six-yard touchdown - his first career score (passing or rushing) - in the third quarter at Washington (9/18). It marked only the third time a Dallas quarterback scored a rushing touchdown in a game during his rookie campaign. He had another rushing touchdown against Chicago (9/25) to mark his second consecutive game with a rushing score - first time in team history that a rookie quarterback accomplished that feat. He added his third rushing score against Cincinnati (10/9) to mark the most by a Cowboys quarterback since Danny White had four in 1983, while also tying the third-highest total by a Cowboys quarterback in a single season. Prescott added his fourth rushing score against Philadelphia (10/30) to tie for the second-most in a single season. He notched his fifth rushing score of the season against Washington (11/24) to tie Don Meredith (5 - 1966) for the most by a Cowboys quarterback in a single season in franchise history:

214 + 46 + 25 = RUSHING TDS

The Dallas Cowboys rushing attack has produced 12 touchdowns behind a stable of rushers as Ezekiel Elliott (nine), Alfred Morris (two), Lance Dunbar (one) and quarterback Dak Prescott (four) have all contributed to the running cause. The 16 total rushing touchdowns have already surpassed the eight scores that the 2015 team had all last season.

Along with Elliott and Prescott's rushing scores at Washington (9/18), former Redskin Morris added to the rushing attack with a game-clinching four-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter against his ex-team. Collectively, it marked the first time that the Dallas offense had boasted three different players with at least one rushing touchdown since Miles Austin, Marion Barber III and Tashard Choice each had one against New Orleans (11/25/10). The Cowboys repeated that feat for the second consecutive game against Chicago (9/25), as Morris, Prescott and Dunbar - who scored his first career touchdown - each got into the endzone. It marked the first time that has happened in consecutive weeks in team history since the 1983 season (11/20 against Kansas City and 11/24 against St. Louis). Elliott scored the team's lone rushing touchdown at San Francisco (10/2), before the squad added three more (Elliott - two; Prescott - one) against Cincinnati (10/9). Prescott added his fourth of the season against Philadelphia (10/30). Elliott posted two touchdowns in back-to-back games at Cleveland (11/6) and at Pittsburgh (11/13). Elliott notched his fourth multi-touchdown game with two against Washington (11/24) while Prescott also contributed with his fifth rushing score of the season.

Through 12 weeks of the NFL season, Dallas is second in the league with 19 rushing touchdowns:

214

As an unexpected surprise, the 2016 NFL Draft brought two new rookie starters on opening day. Ezekiel Elliott was drafted with the fourth overall pick with the intention of starting from day one, but fourth round selection Dak Prescott worked his way up the ladder following injuries to backup Kellen Moore in training camp and starter Tony Romo during the preseason. With Moore out for the year, and Romo mending a back injury until his return, Prescott will take the helm as the team's starting quarterback.

Due to the circumstances, the combination of number 21 (Elliott) and number 4 (Prescott) - which ironically is the area code for Dallas - allowed the Cowboys to open the season with a rookie quarterback and rookie running back for only the second time in team history when Roger Staubach and Calvin Hill started the 1969 opener. The Cowboys won that game against the St. Louis Cardinals with Staubach passing for 220 yards and a touchdown, while Hill rushed 18 times for 70 yards. Against the N.Y. Giants (9/11/16), Prescott passed for 227 yards on 25-of-45 passes with no touchdowns and no interceptions, while Elliott rushed 20 times for 51 yards and his first career touchdown.

The Cowboys also became the first team to start two rookies in the offensive backfield since the 2012 Washington Redskins rolled out rookies Robert Griffin III and Alfred Morris.

Overall, the Cowboys have featured a rookie QB/RB duo five-times in their history, and suffered their first loss in a game that featured a rookie backfield against the N.Y. Giants (9/11):

*Indicates season opener

Following the fifth game of the season which saw rookie quarterback Dak Prescott pass for 227 yards and rookie running back Ezekiel Elliott rush for 134 yards against Cincinnati (10/9), Prescott had 1,239 passing yards along with 546 rushing yards for Elliott at that point of the season. With those totals, the Cowboys became the first team in NFL history to boast a rookie quarterback with at least 1,000 passing yards and a rookie running back with at least 500 rushing yards in the first five games of a season.

At Cleveland (11/6), Prescott passed for 274 yards to reach 2,020 yards on the season, while Elliott rushed for 92 yards to give him 891 in 2016. Combined, it allowed Dallas to become the first franchise in NFL history to boast a rookie 2,000-yard passer and a rookie with 800+ rushing yards in a team's first eight games. The duo also reached another milestone against the Browns after Prescott tossed three touchdowns and Elliott had two rushing touchdowns to allow Dallas to become the second team in NFL history to have a rookie throw for three touchdowns and a rookie rush for two touchdowns in a single game since November 21, 1948, when New York Giants rookie quarterback Charlie Conerly threw three touchdown passes and rookie running back Ray Coates rushed for two touchdowns in the Giants' 49-3 win at Green Bay:

Rookie QB 3 Pass TDs, Rookie RB 2 Rush TDs - NFL

| Prescott/Elliott | 11/6/16 @Cle | 3 | 2 |

Prescott and Elliott once again combined for a dramatic win at Pittsburgh (11/13) for the team's club-tying eighth straight victory. During the waning seconds of the first quarter, Prescott connected with Elliott for an 83-yard touchdown. The pass served as the longest by a rookie quarterback/rookie receiver tandem in team history, and was the longest from a rookie passer to a rookie teammate since the Indianapolis Colts in 1986 when Jack Trudeau connected with Bill Brooks for an 84-yard touchdown at San Francisco (10/5/86). It was longest pass and longest pass for a touchdown by a rookie quarterback in team history, the second-longest reception by a rookie and the longest scoring connection since Dez Bryant caught an 85-yard touchdown from Tony Romo against Washington (11/22/12).

With Elliott surpassing 1,000 yards against the Steelers, combined with Prescott passing for 2,000 yards, the duo became only the second rookie quarterback and rookie running back teammates in NFL history with at least 2,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in a season, joining Robert Griffin III (3,200 passing yards) and Alfred Morris (1,613 rushing yards) who did so with Washington in 2012.

BIG PLAY RUNS

After only three combined runs of 10+ yards in the first two games, the Cowboys ground game has since made longer runs throughout the course of a game. Against Chicago (9/25) the offense produced five runs of 10-plus, including one run over 20 yards. They added four more at San Francisco (10/2) including two 20+ runs by Ezekiel Elliott (23, 26). Against Cincinnati (10/9) the offense tacked on five more including a 60-yard romp by Elliott - the longest run from scrimmage since 2014. At Green Bay (10/16) the offense tallied six 10-plus runs, including three 20-plus runs. Dallas ripped off a season-high nine runs of 10+ against Philadelphia (10/30), with one for 20-plus. At Cleveland (11/6) the offense ripped off seven runs of 10-plus, then they had two at Pittsburgh (11/13) that both went for scores. Against Baltimore four went for 10-or-more, including one for a score, before the offense reeled off six of 10-plus, including two of 20-plus, against Washington (11/24).

For the 2016 season, Dallas' 51 runs of 10-plus yards are tied for the NFL lead, led by Elliott's league-high 35:

OFFICIAL TIMEKEEPERS OF THE NFL

Over the last few seasons, the Dallas Cowboys offense has made a focal point in time of possession, controlling the clock for a season average of 32:26 in 2014 - highest in the NFL - and tied for 11th in the league with an average of 30:59 per-game in 2015.

Dallas is continuing its trend in 2016, as the offensive unit currently leads the NFL with a 32:50 mark:

Highest Time of Possession - NFL, 2016

| Team                | Avg. Poss. Time |
|---------------------|-----------------|
| Dallas ..... | 32:50    |

| New Orleans.....    | 31:25           |
| Arizona.....        | 31:22           |

The unit has posted eight games with at least 30:00 minutes of possession to tie for the second-most in the NFL in 2016.

Dallas' offense clocked in at 36:43 against the N.Y. Giants (9/11), including a season-high 8:25 on the opening drive. At Washington (9/18) the offense had a 32:51. Against Chicago (9/25) the unit clocked in at 35:19 to mark its third consecutive game to go over 30:00. The unit dialed in at 36:27 at San Francisco (10/2). They grinded out a final tally of 33:57 against Philadelphia (10/30). The offense had a season-high mark of 39:39 at Cleveland (11/6). The offense had its seventh game at Pittsburgh (11/13) with a 30:24 time of possession, and its eighth against Baltimore (11/20) with 35:39.

DRIVE FOR FIVE

While the Dallas Cowboys offense continues to be atop the league in time of possession, the squad also boasts 29 drives of five-or-more minutes with 25 going for scores, both tops in the NFL in 2016. Specifically, the unit also has had 14 drives go five-or-more minutes and result in touchdowns, best in the league:

Against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) Dallas had four drives of five-or-more minutes, including a season-high 8:25 on the opening drive. They had four more at Washington (9/18), with all four ending with scores (three touchdowns and one field goal). Against Chicago (9/25) the team had three - all touchdowns. The offense had three at Cleveland (11/6) - two for touchdowns. The unit had four against Baltimore (11/20) with three for scores.

TEN PLAYS-OR-MORE

Along with the timing of their drives, the Dallas Cowboys offense has also consistently put together drives of 10-or-more plays, as the unit's 29 in 2016 are the most in the NFL:

| Team                | Off Poss.  | 10-Play Drives | 10-Play Scores | 10-Play TDs | 10-Play Points |

Dallas had four drives of 10+ plays against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) including two drives that each went 15 plays to mark a season-high. They had four again at Washington (9/18), then three against Chicago (9/25), at San Francisco (10/2) and against Philadelphia (10/30). At Cleveland (11/6) the offense added two, then three more at Pittsburgh (11/13) and against Baltimore (11/20).

FINISHING DRIVES WITH SCORES

The Dallas offense has scored on 57-of-110 drives for a 51.8% scoring efficiency rate to lead the league in 2016:

Highest Scoring Efficiency Rate - NFL 2016

SERVING UP 400-YARD GAMES

The Dallas Cowboys offense established a team record with its fifth consecutive game with 400-plus total net yards with a season-high 460 yards against Philadelphia (10/30). The unit extended its current streak to eight games against Baltimore (11/20) to tie for the longest single-season streak in NFL history, but failed to record 400-plus yards against Washington (11/24) to end the streak:

THIRD-AND-NO PROBLEM

The Dallas Cowboys offense has been able to maintain its drives by establishing an efficient conversion rate on third downs. Through 12 weeks of the 2016 season, Dallas is second in the NFL with a 48.5 third down percentage (64-of-132):

2016 Team Third Down Efficiency Leaders

| Green Bay.....      | 64        | 137        | 46.7        |

Dallas' offense is tied for the league lead by recording seven-games with 50.0 percent-or-better on third downs in 2016.

Dallas produced a 59.0% third down conversion rate in the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11), including a season-best 10 first downs on 17 attempts. They produced their second consecutive game at Washington (9/18) after going six-of-12 (50.0), then were four-of-eight (50.0) against Cincinnati (10/9). At Cleveland (11/6) the unit was successful on a season-high 66.7% (eight-of-12). They added their fifth game with a 53.8% mark (seven-of-13) at Pittsburgh (11/13), and their sixth against Baltimore (11/20) with a 58.3% mark (seven-of-12). Dallas hit its seventh game of the season with a 50.0% mark (four-of-eight) against Washington (11/24).

FOLLOW THE LEE-DER

Dallas Cowboys linebacker Sean Lee returned to the field in 2015, this time coming back from a torn ACL he suffered in a spring practice that took away his 2014 season. Before that, Lee had bounced back in 2013 to tally a team-best 123 tackles after landing on Reserve/Injured with a toe injury in 2012.

Having manned the middle linebacker spot since his rookie season, Lee moved to a new position in 2015 with a shift over to the weakside spot to further utilize his speed and playmaking ability in the Cowboys 4-3 defense. Lee led the squad with a career-high 156 tackles along with his first career sacks (2.5), a team and career-high 11 tackles for loss, six pressures, an interception and five pass breakups. He was named to his first Pro Bowl as an injury replacement for Justin Houston (Kansas City).

Known to always be around the ball, Lee has collected 12 interceptions since entering the league as Dallas' 2010 second round draft choice to mark the most on the team and is tied for the most amongst league linebackers in the NFL during that span. His 12 are also fifth among linebackers in team history. Lee has intercepted a career-high four passes twice in season during his career - leading the team in 2013 and tying for the team lead in 2011 - to tie for sixth-most in a single-season in team history:

Lee leads the 2016 team with 124 tackles and eight tackles for loss, while also adding two pass breakups and a pressure.

In the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11), Lee led the team with 15 tackles. He topped the defense again with 10 stops at Washington (9/18) along with a breakup. Lee made seven tackles and a tackle for loss against Chicago (9/25). He tied for the team lead with 10 stops at San Francisco (10/2) along with a tackle for loss. Lee made a season-high tying 15 tackles against Cincinnati (10/9), then notched 14 stops and a breakup at Green Bay (10/16). Lee had 10 tackles including two for loss against Philadelphia (10/30). He made eight stops and a tackle for loss at Cleveland (11/6), then had nine tackles, including two for loss, at Pittsburgh (11/13). Lee posted five stops against Baltimore (11/20) to give him 103 tackles on the year to mark his third consecutive season - fourth overall - with 100-plus stops. He notched a season-high 20 tackles - his third career game with 20-plus stops - against Washington (11/24) along with a tackle for loss and a pressure:

"CINDERELLA MAN"

Tyrone Crawford, dubbed "Cinderella Man" by Dallas Cowboys Defensive Coordinator Rod Marinelli, leads the team in 2016 with 3.5 sacks, 13 quarterback pressures and a career-best two fumble recoveries, is second with a career-high six tackles for loss and has logged 18 tackles. He spent the previous two seasons (2014-15) playing defensive tackle, including last season where he logged a career-high 5.0 sacks, but has moved back to defensive end in 2016 where he was originally slotted to play as a 2012 draft pick by the Cowboys.

Crawford collected his first sack of the season at Washington (9/18) along with a pressure, then posted two tackles, two tackles for loss, a pressure and recovered his first career fumble against Chicago (9/25). He had his second sack of the season at San Francisco (10/2) along with two quarterback hurries and four stops. Crawford registered his second career multi-sack game with 1.5 takedowns against Philadelphia (10/30) while also collecting his second career fumble. He recorded a season-high four pressures against Washington (11/24) along with a tackle for loss.

CHURCH IN SESSION

Barry Church has consistently been one of Dallas' top defensive performers and leaders. He has posted over 100+ tackles in each of the last three seasons (2013-15) - the longest such streak since Bradie James recorded six seasons (2005-10) with 100+ tackles - while finishing as either the leading and second-leading tackler in each of those seasons.

Church made his mark on the Cowboys defense in 2013, turning in a team-leading, and career-best 147 tackles, bouncing back after missing the majority of the 2012 season after suffering a ruptured Achilles tendon three weeks into the season. He posted eight games with 10-or-more tackles in 2013 - most on the defense - including a career-high 17 at New Orleans (11/10/13). Overall, his tackle totals were the third-most by a Cowboys safety, and the 11th-most overall by any Cowboys defender, dating back to 1989:

Most Tackles by a Cowboys Safety - Single Season

| Player                    | Tackles    |
|---------------------------|------------|
| Brock Marion, 1997        | 158        |
| Darren Woodson, 1993      | 155        |
| Barry Church, 2013 | 147 |

He finished 2014 atop Dallas' defense with 110 tackles - his second consecutive season with 100+ stops - to become the first player to lead the team in tackles in back-to-back seasons since James' six seasons streak (2005-10). It was also the first time a Dallas defender posted consecutive 100+ tackle seasons since James had six in a row from 2005-10.

In 2015, Church finished second on the team with 136 tackles to mark his third consecutive 100-plus tackle season, the longest streak since James' six (2005-10).

He began 2016 not unlike the past few seasons, amassing 12 stops in the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) - good for second on the squad. Church made six stops, a pass breakup and an interception - fourth of his career - at Washington (9/18). He had 13 tackles and two pass breakups - both season-highs - to lead the team against Chicago (9/25). Church made 10 stops and two tackles for loss at San Francisco (10/2), then had 11 tackles against Cincinnati (10/9). He totaled eight stops, his second interception of the season - tied a career-high - and also had a breakup and a forced fumble. Church made four stops to surpass 500 tackles for his career against Philadelphia (10/30) before leaving the game with an arm injury and missed the games at Cleveland (11/6), at Pittsburgh (11/13), against Baltimore (11/20) and against Washington (11/24) with a fractured forearm.

Church currently leads the team with two interceptions, is third with 64 tackles, is tied for fifth with four pass breakups, and also has two tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

BYRON THE BREAKUP ARTIST

Byron Jones was a standout defensive player in the Cowboys secondary as a rookie in 2015, finishing the season fifth on the team with 76 tackles, adding two tackles for loss, and first on the defense with 12 passes defended. Jones was the first Cowboys rookie defender to lead the team in pass breakups since Derek Ross (12) in 2002, and is the only rookie defender in Cowboys history to finish the season with 75-plus tackles and lead the team in breakups (Cowboys did not track PBUs before 1984):

Cowboys Rookies to Lead Defense in PBUs - Single Season

| Player                   | PBUs      |
|--------------------------|-----------|
| Derek Ross, 2002         | 12        |
| Byron Jones, 2015 | 12 |

Jones returned to swatting passes to start 2016, breaking up one pass against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) in the season opener along with seven tackles. He had six stops and a breakup at Washington (9/18). Jones made five tackles, a breakup and a forced fumble against Chicago (9/25). He had six stops and a breakup against Cincinnati (10/9), then at Green Bay (10/16) contributed four stops and a breakup. Jones posted nine tackles - good for second on the team - against Philadelphia (10/30). He led the team at Pittsburgh (11/13) with a career-high 12 tackles and tackle for loss. Jones finished second on the squad against Washington (11/24) with 11 stops, a tackle for loss and a breakup.

For the 2016 season, Jones currently is second on the team in pass breakups with six. He also is second on the team with 69 tackles.

UNLEASH MALIEK

Maliek Collins had 2.0 sacks against Cody Kessler at Cleveland (11/6) to mark the first time a rookie defender recorded two-plus sacks in a single game since DeVonte Holloman had 2.0 against Philadelphia (12/29/13). DeMarcus Ware owns the rookie record with 3.0 sacks against Carolina (12/24/05).

On the season, Collins is tied for third with 2.0 sacks and is third with nine quarterback pressures while he also has 19 tackles and a tackle for loss in his first pro season.

NFC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

The Dallas Cowboys added David Irving via the Kansas City Chiefs practice squad last season as a rookie. In 12 games in 2015 he became a rotational player on the defensive line, summing up 14 tackles, a half sack, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and a blocked field goal.

He returned in 2016 to contribute more to the defense and thus far leads the team with a career-high three forced fumbles and is second on the team with 12 quarterback pressures, is third with four tackles for loss and has also made five tackles, a sack, three pass breakups and a fumble recovery.

In the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) he posted three tackles and a tackle for loss. Irving led the team with a career-high four pressures against Chicago (9/25). He had his best game to date at Green Bay (10/16), notching a tackle, a sack, a tackle for loss, a breakup, a fumble recovery and three forced fumbles. His three forced fumbles tied for third-most all-time in a single game in NFL history, and he became the second Cowboy to do accomplish that feat, joining DeMarcus Ware (2005).

For his efforts against the Packers, Irving was named the NFC Defensive Player of The Week for Week 6, becoming the first Dallas defender to win the award since Sean Lee did it last season (Week 2 - 2015) and the first defensive lineman since Leon Lett (Week 5 - 1996).

20 POINT LIMIT

Through 10 games played, the Dallas Cowboys defensive unit is allowing only 18.7 points-per-game to tie for fifth in the league. The defense had a streak of not allowing a team to score more than 17 points in four consecutive games (9/25/16-10/30/16) to mark the longest such streak in a single season since the 2009 team had a streak of five games in 2009 (11/1-11/26).

Additionally, Dallas is one of six teams to give up 20-or-more points to opposing team's offenses five times-or-less this season - tied for the second-fewest games in the NFL.

Fewest Games to Allow 20-or-more Points - 2016 NFL

| Buffalo       | 5        |
| Los Angeles   | 5        |

POINTS HARD TO COME BY

The Dallas Cowboys defense has allowed 19.4 points-per-game (213 points) by opposing offenses in the NFL in 2016 to tie for sixth in the league:

NO HUNDREDS EXCHANGED HERE

Through 10 weeks of the 2016 season the defense of the Dallas Cowboys are the only unit in the National Football League to not allow a 100-yard rusher.

TAKEAWAYS FROM "MIGHTY ORPHANS"

Dallas Cowboys Defensive Coordinator Rod Marinelli has dubbed his defense "The Mighty Orphans" in respect of his group of defenders that are made up of "castaways" in the NFL that are not top draft picks or major free agent signees. Instead, they are a core group of men who will fight on every snap, a mantra that Marinelli distills upon his unit.

The nickname, one that Marinelli gives with respect, is based on the book the "Twelve Mighty Orphans" written by Jim Dent, which tells the story of the Masonic Orphanage in Fort Worth, TX. During the 1930s and '40s, the orphanage, under coach Rusty Russell, played high school football with a limited enrollment of 150 and little to no budget as they went on to tie Corsicana in the 1932 high school state championship game.

With that nickname and mantra, the defense has been opportunistic with 10 takeaways (6 fumble recoveries; 4 INTs) through 12 weeks to tie for 26th in the NFL.

The unit had two takeaways (two fumble recoveries) against Chicago (9/25). At Green Bay (10/16) the defense gathered a season-high four takeaways (3 fum; 1 INT) to mark the most in a single game since four at Washington (12/28/14).

SHUTOUTS AND SACKS

The Dallas Cowboys defense turned in its best performance against Cincinnati (10/9). The unit held the Bengals offense scoreless through the third quarter to mark the first shut-out through three quarters since at Philadelphia (9/20/15). It was also the fifth consecutive game that the Cowboys have held their opponent scoreless during at least one quarter in 2016 to join the 1975 team as the only two times that has happened in franchise history. The defense extended that streak at Green Bay (10/16), holding the Packers offense scoreless in the third quarter to match the 1975 defense as the only two teams to accomplish that feat through the first six games. At Cleveland (11/6), the defense shut out the Browns offense in the second half while also limiting their offense to 33 yards.

The defense also logged four sacks on Cincinnati's Andy Dalton - the most since logging five against New England (10/11/15) - with Terrell McClain leading the way with a career-high 1.5, while Benson Mayowa and Cedric Thornton each had one and Jack Crawford had a half sack. The unit produced three sacks against Philadelphia (10/30) with Tyrone Crawford producing his second career multi-sack game with 1.5 takedowns while Orlando Scan-drick added one and Thornton had a 0.5 sack. The defense tied its season high with four quarterback takedowns at Cleveland (11/6) led by the first two of Maliek Collins' career, while Justin Durant (1.0), Anthony Hitchens (0.5) and Damien Wilson (0.5) also contributed.

On the year, the defensive unit has produced 20.0 sacks with Tyrone Crawford leading the way with 3.5.

LIMITING BIG PLAYS

The defense of Dallas has made it a point of emphasis of limiting opposing team's offenses on big plays. Through 12 weeks of the 2016 NFL season, the Cowboys are tied for the seventh-fewest plays of 10-plus runs allowed (26):

Big Rush Plays Allowed, 10+ Yards - 2016 NFL Defense

BAILEY FROM 50

For his career, Dan Bailey is 24-of-32 (75.0) from 50-plus yards, and sits atop the club's charts for 50-yarders in a season (six - 2013) and career, while he also tied a franchise-long 56-yard field goal twice - at Seattle (10/12/14) and against the N.Y. Giants (9/11/16). He also boasts the second-highest percentage of field goals from this range in NFL history with a 75.0 clip.

Bailey has hit two 50+ field goals in a game four times (three times in 2013), including most recently in the 2016 season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/11/16), to tie Eddie Murray (at Minnesota, 12/12/93) for the most in a single game.

At Kansas City (9/15/13) Bailey was true on three tries, including a pair from 50-plus yards (51 and a career-long 53). Bailey's two 50-yard field goals marked the second time in team history a kicker hit two 50-plus tries in the same game. The first was Eddie Murray at Minnesota, 12/12/93 (51 and 52 yards). Bailey did it twice more after nailing two 53-yarders at Detroit (10/27) and two 50-yarders against Green Bay (12/15).

In 2014, Bailey finished five-of-seven (71.4) on field goals from 50 yards-or-more during the regular season for the second-most field goals made in a single season in team history.

He was five-of-six from 50 yards in 2015, the second-highest percentage (83.3) in team history in a single season from 50-yards, and tied for the second-most made in a single season.

Bailey opened 2016 with four field goals against the N.Y. Giants (9/11), with two from 50 yards (including a career and franchise-long to tying 56-yarder) to tie for the most 50-yard field goals in a single game in team history. He is three-of-three in 2016 from 50 yards.

GAME-WINNING KICKS

In his rookie season, Dan Bailey was called upon six times to win or tie the game with his foot. Four times he came through for Dallas. Bailey's four game-winning field goals were the most by a Dallas Cowboy in a single season and the most by a rookie in NFL history.

In 2012 Bailey had four opportunities to do the same, and he came through in three games including two in overtime. He added one game-winner in 2013 with a 35-yarder at the N.Y. Giants (11/24).

Bailey was one-of-two during the 2014 season.

His only game-winner of the 2015 season came at Washington (12/7) where he nailed a 54-yarder - tied for the second-longest kick of his career, and the longest game-winner of his career.

In team history, there have now been 39 instances in which a kicker was true on a game-winning field goal with 2:00-or-less left in the fourth quarter or in overtime.

Bailey has rang true with 10 game-winners - and a franchise-best five in overtime - to serve as the most in team history:

BAILEY'S BOOTS

Since joining the Dallas Cowboys as an undrafted free agent in 2011 as the club's kicker, Dan Bailey has recorded 23 games with three-or-more field goals - the most in team history. He also has seven games with four-or-more field goals - tops in team history.

Bailey had five games with three-or-more field goals as a rookie in 2011, including his first game with four-or-more when he struck a career-best six against Washington (9/26/11). He matched that total with five games in 2012, while also adding one game with four field goals at Carolina (10/21/12). For the third consecutive season in 2013 he notched five games with three-or-more field goals, with a season-high five field goals made against Green Bay (12/15/13). In 2014 and 2015 he recorded three each, while he added one four field goal game in 2014 and a career-high two in 2015.

Bailey began 2016 with a bang, connecting on all four field goal attempts against the N.Y. Giants (9/11) to break a tie with Rafael Septien for his 22nd game with three-or-more field goals to establish a team record, while also extending his team record with his seventh career game with four-or-more field goals made: On the season he has recorded four games with three-or-more field goals, and one game with four-plus:

MORE RELIABLE IS BETTER

Dan Bailey came to Dallas in 2011 as a rookie free agent and immediately earned his spot as the club's place kicker, finishing the season 32-of-37 (86.5%) on field goals for the second-best field goal percentage by a rookie in franchise history. His 32 field goals made were also a club rookie record. He had a streak of 26 consecutive made which were the most by a rookie in NFL history.

In his second season he finished with a 93.5 (29-of-31) field goal percentage - second in team history. He went 28-of-30 (93.3) in 2013, hitting 30 consecutive field goals from 2013 into 2014 to establish a team record. Bailey finished 2014 25-of-29 (86.2) with a career-high 56 extra points to tie the third-most in team history. He was 30-of-32 with field goal tries and hit all 25 PATs in 2015, and is 20-of-22 on field goals while connecting on all 34 PATs for 94 points in 2016.

For his career, Bailey has converted 164-of-181 tries (90.6%), and his field goals made are the most in team history. Bailey has also hit all 238 PAT tries - second in franchise history:

MAKING THE POINT

Dan Bailey has been a scoring machine since entering the league in 2011 as the former undrafted free agent has totaled 730 points to rank third in team history:

All-Time Cowboys Points Leaders

- Emmitt Smith, RB..... 986 (1990-02)
- Rafael Septien, K..... 874 (1978-86)
- Dan Bailey, K..... 730 (2011-16)
- Tony Dorsett, RB..... 516 (1977-87)
- Bob Hayes, WR..... 456 (1965-74)

In 2014 Bailey passed Michael Irvin (392), Bob Hayes (456) and Tony Dorsett (516) for third on Dallas' all-time points list. He also reached 400 points during the season to become the second kicker (Rafael Septien - 874) in team history - fifth player overall - to do so. At Philadelphia (12/14/14) he reached 500 career points. Bailey in his 62nd game to become the second-fastest kicker in NFL history to hit that mark. He reached 600 points against Carolina (11/26/15). Bailey crossed off 700 points at Cleveland (11/6/16) to become the third Cowboy - second kicker (Septien) - to reach that number.

CAN'T MISS KICKER

The Dallas Cowboys feature one of the league's most dependable kickers, as the former 2011 undrafted free agent has hit true on 150-of-165 field goals for his career. During that time, Dan Bailey has challenged some of the franchise's longest consecutive field goal records, including 26 in a row in his first season to tie the second-longest streak in team history and mark the longest streak of field goals made by a rookie in team and NFL history. He then hit 21 in a row in between his second and third seasons (2012-13) - the third-longest in team history.

However, after that streak was snapped, Bailey quickly embarked on a new field goals streak in 2013 and extended it into the 2014 season. He opened the season with one field goal made against San Francisco (9/7) to extend his streak to 22 straight field goals made and move to the third-longest streak. Bailey then hit all four of his tries at Tennessee (9/14/14) to extend his field goals made to 26 in a row, tying Chris Boniol (1995) and his 2011 total for the second-longest streak in team history. He had two field goals at St. Louis (9/21/14) to reach 28 in a row and pass Boniol's 1995 total of 27 to establish the longest streak of field goals made in team history. He continued that streak up to 30 successful kicks before missing a 53-yarder against Houston (10/5/14).

Bailey had a streak of 21 consecutive field goals made - tied for fifth-longest in team history - that began with three made at Washington (12/28/14) in 2014 and continued with 18 straight in 2015 until he missed his first one at Tampa Bay (11/15) to end the streak:

Consecutive Field Goals Made by a Dallas Kicker

| Player       | FGs | Year    |
|--------------|-----|---------|
| Dan Bailey   | 30  | 2013-14 |
| Chris Boniol | 27  | 1996    |
| Chris Boniol | 26  | 1995    |
| Dan Bailey   | 26  | 2011    |
| Dan Bailey   | 21  | 2012-13 |
| Dan Bailey   | 21  | 2014-15 |

ACCURATE & DEADLY

After connecting on his first field goal at Seattle (10/12/14), Dan Bailey reached 100 career field goals made. His trek to 100 was made during his 54th career game, allowing him to become the second-fastest kicker in NFL history to get to that milestone:

Fastest to 100 Career Field Goals Made - NFL

| Player            | Games     |
|-------------------|-----------|
| Jan Stenerud      | 53        |

| Mike Vanderjagt   | 55        |
| Robbie Gould      | 55        |

By reaching 100 career field goals made, Bailey's stats qualified amongst league record books for accuracy. He is now 164-of-181 on field goals for a connection percentage of 90.6 that makes him the most accurate kicker in NFL history:

In 2015, Bailey made 30-of-32 field goals (career-high 93.8) to tie for the league lead in field goal percentage, tied for fifth in field goals made and was 12th with 115 total points to earn his first trip to the Pro Bowl.

He is 20-of-22 on field goals (90.9%) with 34 PATs in 2016 to tie for third in PATs, tied for fifth in field goal percentage, tied for sixth in points (94) and tied for 11th in field goals made.

THIRTY-SOMETHING

After connecting on two-of-three field goals at Buffalo (12/27/15), Dan Bailey reached 30 field goals on the season for the second time of his career. It was also only the fourth time a Dallas kicker had reached 30 field goals made and the first since his 2011 season when he made 32 field goals:

| Player            | Year | FGM | FGA | PCT  |
|-------------------|------|-----|-----|------|
| Richie Cunningham | 1997 | 34  | 37  | 91.9 |

JONES-ING TO PUNT

Dallas Cowboys punter Chris Jones had a career year in 2015. The fourth-year pro ranked third with a career-high 42.5 net average and was 20th with a 45.2 gross while his 27 punts downed inside opponents' 20-yard line tied for 14th.

In 2016, Jones is 10th with a 46.5 gross average, is tied for 20th with a 39.6 net average and has 14 punts downed inside the 20-yard line.

He logged a career-best 55.3 gross average along with a season-long punt of 63 yards on four boots at San Francisco (10/2).

For his career, Jones boasts a 45.2 gross average and a net average of 40.3, with 102 punts downed inside the 20-yard line - good for fifth all-time in team history.

| Jason Witten     | Tight End  |

2016 DRAFT CLASS

The Dallas Cowboys drafted nine players - five defensive, four offensive - in the 2016 NFL Draft. It was the third consecutive season the team leaned more towards defense, as 17 of the last 26 picks by Dallas in the last three drafts (2014-16) have been on that side of the ball. The new class started off with Dallas' first round choice - running back Ezekiel Elliott - who was selected with the fourth overall pick to mark just the second time in team history that the club has selected a running back with a top-five pick (Tony Dorsett, No. 2 overall - 1977).

Of the nine players chosen by Dallas, eight made the final roster entering Week One while one (Rico Gathers) was signed to the club's practice squad.

Below is a look at each of Dallas' picks in the 2016 Draft:

| Round         | #          | Player                 | Position  | College            |
