CLEVELAND BROWNS VS. BALTIMORE RAVENS

(0-1)

WEEK 2 – SUNDAY, SEPT. 17, 2017
1 P.M. ET – M&T BANK STADIUM (71,008)

JUST THE FACTS

• In their 2017 home opener, the Baltimore Ravens (1-0) will battle the Cleveland Browns (0-1) at M&T Bank Stadium on Sunday (Sept. 17). Kickoff for this AFC North division tilt is set for 1 p.m.

• Against Cleveland, the Ravens lead the all-time series, 27-9. (In Charm City, the Ravens are 14-4.) Under head coach John Harbaugh, Baltimore is 16-2 vs. the Browns, including sweeping the 2016 series.

• The Ravens emerged with a 20-0 victory in their Week 1 opener at Cincinnati last Sunday, producing the 11th shutout in franchise history (and first since 2009). Forcing 5 total turnovers, the Ravens' defense was suffocating, posting 5 sacks and 4 INTs for the first time in team history. (OLB Terrell Suggs tallied 2 QB drops.) Aided by a strong ground game (42 rushes for 157 yards), QB Joe Flacco made his 2017 debut after missing the entire preseason. Flacco needed only to complete 9 of 17 passes, including a 48-yard TD to newly-acquired WR Jeremy Maclin.

• In 2016, the Ravens finished second in the AFC North with an 8-8 record (4-2 in division play) behind the 11-5 Pittsburgh Steelers, who advanced to the AFC title game. A heartbreaking, 31-27 loss at Pittsburgh in Game 15 eliminated Baltimore from the playoffs.

• Now in their 22nd year of existence, the Ravens have earned a playoff berth in six of the past nine full seasons. Since coach Harbaugh's arrival in 2008, Baltimore has posted the NFL's fourth-most total victories (96), won the league's second-most playoff games (10), advanced to an impressive three AFC Championship contests, and in 2012, captured the World Championship in SB XLVII.

HARBS SAYS

John Harbaugh on intense AFC North Rivalries:
"All three of these teams we play in our division are big rivalry games for different reasons. But, they are all very intense. The crowds are always hyped up when you go play. Our crowd is always hyped up when they come in. That is true for the Steelers, the Browns and the Bengals – all three teams. We know each other. We know the schemes. We know the players. There is a lot of heat in all these games, and they are very important games, because they are division games. You are trying to win your division. We put them all in the same scale. They are all big."

INJURY UPDATE

NOTE THE QUOTE

S Eric Weddle on the 2017 Ravens:
"This is, by far, the closest team that I've been a part of. That's not just including the defense, but as an offense. This team is just on another level, both mentally [and] being together, competing, pushing each other, playing off each other. ... We're pushing each other and not wasting a day or a rep. I think our whole team has tried to live that way and practice that way, and I believe it's going to show this year."

SPOTLIGHT: JEREMY MACLIN

Pos: WR   Ht: 6-0   Wt: 198   Exp. (NFL/Ravens): 9/1
College: Missouri   Hometown: Kirkwood, MO

What is your main source of motivation? "The fact that I am a competitor is motivation enough. But recently being married and trying to start a family, I think that is what it's all about – being able to provide for and support them and being able to lead by example for my family. Those two together – being a competitor and my family – give me all the motivation I need."

What is your favorite sports memory as a fan? "I grew up in St. Louis, and I had a chance to go to games when 'The Greatest Show on Turf' was there with Isaac Bruce, Torry Holt, Marshall Faulk and Kurt Warner. I had just started getting big into football when that was going on, and being able to watch those guys and see how dynamic they were was really cool for me."

What is your proudest achievement outside of football? "It would have to be starting my foundation, 'J-Mac Gives Back.' It's tailored towards kids in alternative living situations, kids raised by grandparents, single mothers, single fathers and kids below the poverty line. I do anything I can to help people in situations like that. I do backpack events, Mother's Day events and camps. When I retire, I'll probably extend it even more."

If you could have witnessed any event in history, what would it be? "If I limited it to just sports history, it would be either Carl Lewis at the Olympics or Wilt Chamberlain's 100-point game."

If you could trade lives with somebody for one day, who would it be? "My dog. I just want to know what he goes through on a daily basis and what he sees and how he feels. I'm kind of curious." (laughter)

How would you describe the Ravens' culture in one word? "Respected. You can feel that all around the NFL. From a distance, you respect this organization. Even if you are on a different team, there is something about the Ravens that makes everyone respect it."

What did you know about John Harbaugh before signing here? "I heard about the type of man he is and the type of coach he is and how much people enjoy playing for him. He's very real and authentic. He loves to let everyone show their personality, but at the same time, he has command of the room, and when it is time to work, it is time to work. As a player, you have no choice but to respect that."

OPENING DAY SHUTOUT

Last Sunday's 20-0 victory at Cincinnati marked the Ravens' 11th all-time shutout and first since the 2009 campaign (16-0 win at Cleveland). Dating back to 2000, Baltimore's "D" owns the NFL's most shutouts (tied with Seattle), blanking opponents 10 times.

NFL SHUTOUT LEADERS / SINCE 2000

| Rk. | Team | Shutouts |
|-----|------|----------|
| 1. | Baltimore Ravens | 10 |
| | Seattle Seahawks | 10 |
| 3. | New England Patriots | 9 |

"D" DOMINATES IN WEEK 1

The Ravens' defense dominated in last Sunday's 20-0 win over Cincinnati. Here are several fast facts about Baltimore's standout performance against the Bengals:

✔ It marked the fourth time in team history the Ravens tallied 5 sacks and forced 5 turnovers in a game (last was 9/17/06 vs. Oak., with 6 QB drops, 3 INTs & 2 fumbles).

✔ For the first time in franchise history, Baltimore produced 5 sacks and 4 INTs in a single game.

✔ Only 10 times in the past 10 seasons has an NFL team posted 5 sacks and 4 interceptions in a game.

✔ Last Sunday was just the 18th time in Ravens history (and first since 2011) the defense forced 5 turnovers. (Baltimore is now 18-0 in such games).

NOTE OF THE WEEK

Under John Harbaugh (since 2008), the Ravens have produced the NFL's third-best home winning percentage (.750), going 54-18 at M&T Bank Stadium in nine seasons. During the 2016 campaign, Baltimore was 6-2 in Charm City.

NFL'S BEST REGULAR SEASON HOME RECORDS
(John Harbaugh Era / Since 2008)

The NFL Network's Peter Schrager on S Tony Jefferson & S Eric Weddle:

"[Jefferson] is a guy who might be the most underrated defensive player in the sport. Tony Jefferson has swagger; he is a personality. Him and Weddle will make up the best safety combo in the entire AFC this season. You have your Kam [Chancellor] and Earl Thomas up there in Seattle, but you go down to Baltimore, and this is like a mini 'Legion Of Boom,' what they are building down there in Baltimore on the back end. I think this Ravens defense could be outstanding this year."

C.J. Mosley on the Ravens' Week 1 defensive performance:
"It's a great start for the defense and a great start for the team. It won't mean anything if we don't come out next week and play even better, especially against another conference opponent. It's always about getting better."

OLB Terrell Suggs on the Ravens' Week 1 defensive performance and what he told S Tony Jefferson:
"We were okay. We could have been a lot better today. We're gonna enjoy it, but we have a lot of improvement to make. We're just like every team who won one game. It's one game. ... In the middle of the game today, I said to him, 'You had a great career at Arizona, but you were meant to be a Raven.'"

The Baltimore Sun*'s Childs Walker on the secondary:
"[Eric] Weddle, [Jimmy] Smith and [Tony] Jefferson are all capable of making the Pro Bowl. [Brandon] Carr is the picture of dependability. [Marlon] Humphrey, with his undeniable physical skills and Alabama pedigree, is the future. [Lardarius] Webb, who has voluntarily accepted a backup role as a jack-of-all trades, is the graying voice of Ravens wisdom. Add in versatile special teams star Anthony Levine Sr. and surprise training camp standout Jaylen Hill, and the group has an answer for every situation, even without the injured Tavon Young or Maurice Canady."

OLB Matthew Judon on the defense's togetherness:
"It's a family out there. On the practice field, we're going to fuss, we're going to fight, but in games we're going to get it right, and it helps. It helps when you can just rely and count on the person behind you, knowing he's going to get the job done, or the person to the left of you. If [Michael] Pierce is to the left of me and knowing he is going to take on the double team and be where he's supposed to be, it really helps. We're having fun. When one person makes a play, we're all right there celebrating and cheering each other on."

The Ringer*'s Robert Mays on DT Michael Pierce breaking out in 2017 after being a 2016 rookie free agent:
"To understand how the Ravens' defense is consistently great, look no further than their ability to find hidden gems like Pierce. The pairing of Pierce and [Brandon] Williams in the middle could prove overwhelming."

G Marshal Yanda on the Ravens' run game and being a winning offense that executes:
"I'm excited. We're all excited. It's a fresh start, and I think the word I think of is 'commitment.' I think we're going to be committed to it more this year than we ever have. We understand, too, that we're going to have to pass the ball. I tell the offensive line that it doesn't matter to us in the end – you can't look at it that way. When a pass is called, a pass is called. When a run is called, a run is called. It doesn't matter. You have to run the play that's called and execute that. If we have to throw the ball 60 times on Sunday to win the game, who knows what happens? You might have to do that. You have to be prepared. It doesn't matter – run or pass – you execute your job at a high level – run or pass – no matter what."

QB Joe Flacco on his expectations for the offense:
"The expectations are as they always are. We want to go out there, and we want to run the ball, and we want to hurt people down the field and put points on the board. Just because we have a couple of new guys and there have been some injuries and things like that, your expectations do not change. The expectation is to go out there and play winning football. That is to go out there and put as many points on the board until the 60 minutes are up."

Offensive coordinator Marty Mornhinweg on the impact of WR Jeremy Maclin:
"He's gifted, talented. He's smart. He's natural. He's smooth. He has outstanding hands. He's tough. He has a lot of great qualities. The one that popped into my mind first when asked the question was 'consistency.' He plays at a high level, consistent basis. He plays like a Raven. That's the way we want to play. He's a physical dude."

New Orleans Saints K Wil Lutz on K Justin Tucker:
"He has definitely set a standard for everybody that everybody is trying to get to. He's one of the best – if not the best – at what we do. Everybody wants to aim to be the best, and right now, it's tough to argue that he's not the best. It's cool to watch for me, because I was there with him [as a rookie free agent in 2016]. He gives me something to chase."

WEEK 1 RECAP: AT CINCINNATI

RAVENS 20, BENGALS 0 • SEPT. 10 AT CINCINNATI

For the first time since 2011, the Ravens won in Cincinnati, drubbing the host Bengals, 20-0, in the season opener last Sunday. (It was the Ravens' first shutout since 11/16/09 when Baltimore won, 16-0, at Cleveland.) The Ravens turned over the Bengals 5 times with all errors coming from QB Andy Dalton, who threw 4 interceptions and lost a fumble. Twice the Ravens turned Cincinnati over in the red zone. The first of these came in the second quarter with the Bengals at the Ravens' 9-yard line. LB C.J. Mosley then intercepted a Dalton pass in the end zone. The second red zone theft came after OLB Terrell Suggs stripped Dalton from the Ravens' 6-yard-line, and DT Michael Pierce recovered. The Ravens took a 17-0 halftime lead on a 25-yard K Justin Tucker field goal and touchdowns by WR Jeremy Maclin (48 yards from QB Joe Flacco) and RB Terrance West (2-yard run.) Following the Pierce recovery (at the Ravens' 6) early in the third quarter, the Ravens' offense produced a 17-play, 81-yard FG drive (Tucker 25 yards) that consumed nine minutes and 38 seconds. CB Brandon Carr, playing in his first game as a Raven, provided the initial turnover of the contest when he intercepted Dalton in the first quarter. DB Lardarius Webb, off a Suggs' deflection, and CB Jimmy Smith also posted interceptions. Baltimore sacked Dalton 5 times, with 2 of those coming from Suggs, who started his 15th season with the Ravens. Flacco, who did not practice in training camp or play in a preseason game, was 9-of-17 for 121 yards. The Ravens rushed for 157 yards, with West gaining 80 and RB Javorius Allen adding 71. Cincinnati was limited to 221 yards. WR A.J. Green caught 5 passes for 74 yards, while Dalton was 16-of-31 for 170.

SUPER BOWL CHAMPIONS

LB Ray Lewis - 2000
Super Bowl XXXV MVP

In a magnificent effort showcasing thrilling performances by their defense, offense and special teams units, the Baltimore Ravens won Super Bowl XXXV with a 34-7 victory over the New York Giants. Allowing the Giants a meager 152 total net yards, New York's attack crossed midfield just twice, while Baltimore's "D" posted 4 INTs. LB Ray Lewis was named the game's MVP, capping an accolade-filled season in which he was also tabbed the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year.

QB Joe Flacco - 2012
Super Bowl XLVII MVP

Baltimore defeated San Francisco, 34-31, in Super Bowl XLVII, capturing the franchise's second World Championship. After an amazing first-half performance, the Ravens took a commanding 28-6 lead. But following a bizarre, 34-minute power outage that halted play, the 49ers stormed back into contention. Clinging to a 34-29 edge late in the game, the Ravens stood firm on a pivotal goal-line stand, jamming SF on four-straight plays inside the 7-yard line. QB Joe Flacco was named the game's MVP.

I think offensively and with quarterback play, I'm right there with him. But I've got a ways to go in terms of special teams and understanding defense the way he does. I'm half as good as John is, but I'm trying."*

ROSBURG LEADS RAVENS SPECIALISTS

SEASONS
RAVENS: 10TH
NFL: 17TH

Special teams coordinator/associate head coach Jerry Rosburg has guided a strong special teams group since arriving in Baltimore in 2008. Below are several standout notes about the coach and his successful group of specialists:

SIX PRO BOWLERS
• Six Ravens have earned eight combined Pro Bowl honors while playing for Rosburg: ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (2008), K Billy Cundiff (2010), RS Jacoby Jones (2012), K Justin Tucker (2013 & 2016), LS Morgan Cox (2015 & 2016) and P Sam Koch (2015).

PRIME KICKER & PUNTER
• Two-time Pro Bowl K Justin Tucker, who Rosburg scouted and helped sign as a rookie free agent, owns the NFL's most FGs (170) since entering the NFL in 2012. With an 89.9% career success mark, "Tuck" is the most accurate kicker in league history (170-of-189 on FGAs). Earning his first Pro Bowl nod in 2015, P Sam Koch's 46.7 gross average ranked No. 9 in the NFL that season, while his 42.9 net average was No. 2. In 2014, Koch posted the NFL's No. 3 gross (47.4) and No. 1 net (43.3) averages, both career highs and Ravens records.

RAVENS' BIG RETURNS
• Led by Pro Bowl RS Jacoby Jones in the 2012 Super Bowl season, Baltimore ranked first in the NFL in KOR average (27.3). Jones, who became the first player ever to record dual KORs of at least 105 yards in a career, tied for a league-leading 3 kick return TDs (2 KORs & 1 PR). He also tied an NFL record for longest KOR in a Super Bowl with his 108-yard KOR-TD. (In 2014's game at Pit., he added another 108-yarder to his resume, marking 4 total KOR-TDs over 100 yards in his career.)

ROSBURG'S PAST
• Prior to Baltimore, Rosburg built a successful NFL special teams resume with the Browns (2001-06) and Falcons (2007). Over a five-year span (2002-06), Cleveland's special teams were ranked as the top NFL unit in The Dallas Morning News' annual comprehensive report.

"Of the many traits that have marked Yanda as a great player over the years, one is his ability to shift positions without losing effectiveness. That versatility is a product of his intelligence and his underappreciated athleticism. He's also a straight-up tough dude, much like Terrell Suggs on the other side of the ball. Only the elite of the elite guards earn serious Hall of Fame consideration. Yanda belongs in that realm."

"The MLB position is not about splash plays, and it's not about stats. It's about being the heartbeat of a team defense. Ever since C.J. came into the NFL three seasons ago, Baltimore's defense has been in the Top 8. You have to respect that, because when you're the MLB, you're the anchor. You're like the symphony conductor. To come in and run a defense like that at 22 years old is special. Ask any guy in the league, and they'd tell you. C.J. has the potential to make that defense click for a long time."

DROPPIN' FOR LOSS

23 JEFFERSON
5TH SEASON
5-11, 215
SAFETY

In 2016, while playing for Arizona, S Tony Jefferson's 13 tackles for loss led all NFL defensive backs (NYG's Landon Collins was next with 9). The 13 TFL rank as the NFL's most by a DB in a season since the stat began being tracked in 2008.

MOST TACKLES FOR LOSS / NFL DEFENSIVE BACKS / 2016 SEASON

| Rk. | Player | Tackles for Loss |
|-----|--------|------------------|
| 1. | Tony Jefferson (Ari.) | 13 |
| 2. | Landon Collins (NYG) | 9 |
| 3. | Brandon Flowers (SD) | 6 |
| | T.J. McDonald (LAR) | 6 |

"No disrespect to any of the guys I've played with, but it's nice not to have to explain why I do certain things or why I'm doing this in this coverage. From Day One, [Jefferson] already had a feel for how I play and how to work off me. … It frees me up a lot more mentally. I don't have to tell him after each play why I did this or, before the snap, say, 'Let's do this.' He already knows. That is just light years ahead of most guys I've played with. I've loved every guy I've played with, but he's just on another level."

Since he entered the NFL in 2009, RB Danny Woodhead is one of four players (Jamaal Charles, Matt Forte & Darren Sproles) to produce at least 15 rushing TDs and 15 receiving TDs. (He has 15 rushing and 17 receiving scores in his career.)

✔ Danny Woodhead      ✔ Jamaal Charles
✔ Matt Forte      ✔ Darren Sproles

WOODHEAD QUICK HITS

✔ Compiling 4,717 yards from scrimmage during his career, Woodhead has tallied 2,186 rushing yards (on 504 attempts) and 2,531 receiving yards (on 270 receptions).

"Really, ever since we lost Ray Rice, we haven't had a type of back that's quite like how Ray was and quite like how Danny is in the passing game. They just have a very good feel for when they're open and how to get open, how to sit in holes, how to find my eyes, and you can already see that. You can see he has a really good feel for those kinds of things. If you remember back, obviously, Ray was really good at doing that, and that gives a lot to your offense for sure."

NOTE THE QUOTE

ESPN.com's Kevin Seifert on Sam Koch's arsenal of punts:

"Some are designed to hook toward the sideline with maximum hang time. Others use an intentionally low trajectory to aid coverage teams. He has a knuckler and one kick that drops, from the returner's perspective, roughly in the shape of the letter "S." He's debuted a "boomerang" punt that does just what you would imagine it might. Most, but not all, of these punts are intended to discourage a clean catch and minimize the return.

"It's not unusual for NFL punters to develop a "changeup" of sorts, but no one has ever had multiple options at the ready. ... The NFL changes every day, but there are only a few moments in each generation when it transforms. This is one of them. In plain sight, Sam Koch and the Ravens have introduced a new way to punt."

A TREMENDOUS 2016

In 2016, All-Pro K Justin Tucker connected on 38 of 39 FGAs (lone miss was a block), posting the fifth-best percentage in NFL single-season history. In addition to making 35-straight FGs at one point (tied for fifth-best streak ever), here are several facts about his remarkable season, which is arguably the best ever by a kicker:

✔ Tucker's 38 FGs made ranked No. 1 in the NFL. He was also 27-of-27 on PATs. An NFL single-season record 24 of Tucker's 38 FGs made in 2016 came from 40 yards or beyond.

✔ Tucker's 10 FGs of 50-plus yards are a Ravens' single-season record. They tie (Blair Walsh, 2012) for the most in NFL history. (Tucker was a perfect 10-for-10 from 50 yards and out during the 2016 season.)

✔ Tucker's 141 points ranked second in the league only behind Atlanta's Matt Bryant (158).

✔ In Week 12 vs. Cincy, Tucker became just the ninth kicker in league history to make 3 FGs of 50-plus yards in a single game (52, 57 & 54). He is also the first kicker in NFL history to make 3 FGs of 50-plus yards in the first half of a game. (These feats earned him AFC ST POW honors.)

KICKOFF FESTIVITIES

To kick off the 2017 campaign, the Baltimore Ravens hosted a week of events to excite fans about the season opener against the Bengals. Festivities began on Sept. 7, when Ravens staff, cheerleaders and mascot Poe painted the town purple by spray painting the Ravens logo on fans' car windows. Hundreds of fans flocked to M&T Bank Stadium to have their cars painted. To round out the week, the Ravens hosted their annual Countdown to Kickoff event, which was highlighted by visits from Ravens DT Brandon Williams and RB Terrance West before a musical performance by rock band Shinedown. Finally, fans will celebrate the home opener with the Purple Pep Rally on Sept. 15, where they will be joined at Harbor Market by Ravens cheerleaders and alumni players LB Brad Jackson and WR Jermaine Lewis.

PURPLE FRIDAY CARAVAN

The Ravens continued their tradition of spreading team pride around the community with their annual Purple Friday Caravan. On Sept. 8, Ravens cheerleaders, members of the Marching Ravens and mascots Rise and Conquer visited students at two Carroll County elementary schools. The caravan made its first stop at Friendship Valley Elementary School before continuing its travels to Westminster Elementary School. At each location, students were surprised when the Ravens Caravan took over their campus performing stunts and routines for all in attendance.

B-MORE WITH B-WILLIAMS

Ravens DT Brandon Williams gave back to the Baltimore community when he hosted a back to school drive on Sept. 1. In partnership with Under Armour, volunteers worked to stuff over 200 backpacks with school supplies that were donated to members of the Westport Boys and Girls Club. These donations will help to promote the mission of the B-More with B-Williams program, which encourages strong academic performance, school attendance and youth literacy.

HOUSTON STRONG

In light of the overwhelming devastation left behind by Hurricane Harvey, Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti announced on Aug. 31 that the team would be making a $1 million dollar donation to help support the ongoing relief efforts in Houston. The gift was given to the United Way Relief Fund for Hurricane Harvey, with the funds distributed to the United Way of Greater Houston, the Salvation Army of Houston and the Red Cross.

JOHN HARBAUGH MONDAY PRESS CONFERENCE: WEEK 2

Opening statement: "It is good to see everybody. Thank you for being here. It was a very good win – a team win, a very valuable win in Cincinnati. We are very proud of it. We will put that behind us – coaches, in terms of all the work we do on our previous opponent. It is done now, and we are on to prepping and preparing for Cleveland. Players will be in starting tomorrow afternoon, and we will be in full Cleveland mode. Once the players get in, we will have our game plans ready. I just want to say about our fans in Cincinnati – it was great. We had a lot of fans there. At the end of this game, they were ringing the whole lower bowl there, and they were smiling; they were fired up. It was great to see our fans. Then, just the last thing: Thank you and a salute to the first responders in Florida for the job they have been doing. We see it on the news all the time, and they are just amazing people. We have a very generous and amazing, courageous country. Thank you to all those folks down there doing a great job."

What were you happiest about in the victory yesterday? (Stan Charles) "I was happiest about the victory, in all honesty. That is the goal. It is a team game, a team win. You try to find a way to win the game by whatever means necessary. I was happy that we found the means to win the game, in all honesty. That is what it boils down to."

Along those lines – and QB Joe Flacco joked about this after the game – did you ever think that in all the different ways you might have to win a game, your starting quarterback might not have to complete a pass in the second half? (Luke Jones) "No I didn't. I did not think about that. But, it is a good way to win. If you don't have to complete a pass in the second half of the game to win a game, I guess that is a real positive thing. I am happy about it, and I am looking forward to moving on."

How did QB Joe Flacco come out? Did he appear stiff at times with his back with the long ball and maybe the ability to go downfield? Were there some limitations? (Jerry Coleman) "No. There were no limitations. He is good. He feels good. I have not seen him yet today, but as far as I know, he is good. I have not heard anything."

Are there any updates on OLB Za'Darius Smith and RB Danny Woodhead? (Jamison Hensley) "Nothing until tomorrow, probably, definitive. Danny has a hamstring issue, though, so we will just have to see what the timeline for that is going to be after he gets his MRIs and different things like that. But I think there will be timeline there on that, because it is a hamstring. I have not heard about Za'Darius in detail; he was not out of the MRI yet. We will see. We know it is not a structural knee thing. I think I know that. We think we know that, but we will know for sure once he gets out of the MRI."

How did you assess the timing with the offensive line and QB Joe Flacco, as far as blocking and snaps? (Todd Karpovich) "The timing? That is a complicated question. Generally, I think timing was good. But as far as operation, we had some issues. We had a couple delay of games, we had a couple of false starts. I am not really surprised by that. I think that is something that we anticipated being an issue going in with the way we were running the offense and the fact that they have not been together. It is something that needs to improve and should improve."

The delay of game penalties in the fourth period, the last two QB Joe Flacco had. Were they from getting plays in too late or just him not recognizing the time on the clock? (Mike Preston) "I think it is all a combination of things. Something like that shouldn't really happen, so it is hard to put your finger on it. Whether the plays were not in quick enough, which really was not the problem in those two … Maybe an earlier one. We kind of got snagged up on a conversion one. It was … We had to take a timeout in that drive earlier. We got into a situation where we did not know if it was a first down or not. It looked like it was going to be a first down, and they ended up spotting it back half a yard. By the time they spotted the ball, there were 20 seconds left on the play clock and we did not get a reset. We had to call a timeout on that one. There were a lot of reasons for that stuff. We just have to clean it up."

Do you chalk a lot of that stuff up to it being the first game with some of the penalties? (Jerry Coleman) "I don't know. Yes, sure that is part of it. The false starts and the delay of games are operational that we need to get better at, and we should get better at that. We are working together with an offense that is new to us, and the group hasn't been together, sure. The holding penalties – not really. The holding penalties, to me, are technique penalties. That should not happen. They were all legitimate calls, and we just have to clean that up, and we have to block better in those situations. We blocked too well throughout the whole game … I'll tell you, our offense was very physical. There were some guys coming off the ball; I am talking about offensive line, tight ends, running backs – Terrance [West] and 'Buck' [Allen] running hard – wide receivers were blocking downfield. We had way too many really good [blocks] – a really good blocking outing – to have holding penalties bring those plays back. To me, that is something that, just from a technique standpoint, we have to clean up."

OLB Terrell Suggs said after the game, "We had a great performance, but we can do better." He also pointed out his own one flaw. Do you look at the film and see areas of improvement, and are you optimistic after Game 1 that this defense will get better and has time to? (David Ginsburg) "Yes, we are going to get better at everything we do. Defense … I saw two things for Suggs. He said one, I saw two. You know, coach's eye. (laughter) But, he played a tremendous game. He was all over the field. He played with tremendous effort, tremendous heart. I will tell you, the level of effort in the game by both sides in all three phases was A-plus. We can build on that, and we can always work on the things that we need to work on to chase perfection. I think they had half their yards on five plays. They popped a couple runs against us, a couple zone runs. They hit a seven-route pass on us and a screen. Those are five plays that they got most of the yards. Those are plays that we look at real hard and try to clean those things up while we anticipate what is coming next from our next opponent."

When you talk about OLB Terrell Suggs, to have a game like he did at the age of 35 … (Jamison Hensley) "What does it say about Terrell Suggs to have that kind of game at this stage of his career? You don't look at him like that. You don't think about that when you watch him play. I'm sure our opponents do not care how long he has been playing. They just look at the player and how he is playing. It has been fun to watch. He has been a real leader – by example and vocally. We really appreciate him. I am really glad he is on our team."

The way the first half went, and how well you played and the defense played, did that afford you the opportunity – not just to establish the run game – but to take a little bit off QB Joe Flacco's plate in the second half? (Peter Schmuck) "Yes, we had the lead. We were playing with a lead. Are you asking me why we didn't throw the ball more? Are you ticked off we didn't throw the ball enough? (laughs) Last year, it was, 'We didn't run the ball enough.'" (Reporter: "Well, I just wondered if it was fortuitous or if it was his ability for why you did that because of how the team played in the first half. And also, because it wasn't a close game and Joe had a good first half.") "I'm not really tying all that together. You can look back on it and think all that, but it's good to be able to run the ball in the second half, because if you're able to run the ball in the second half, you probably have the lead. If you can run the ball well enough to keep the lead, or to extend the lead, that's the whole goal. You know? We're not trying to chase any kinds of stats or get anybody ready for next week. We're just trying to finish that game and win that game. When you're not ahead, you don't throw the ball or you don't run the ball as much in the second half, because it's hard to score points just running the ball. I think that goes as to why sometimes numbers go the other way. You just try to do what you can do to win the game. That was the idea. Was it fortuitous, not fortuitous? I'd say yes, it was good because we had the lead. We'd love to play every game like that. That'd be the goal. But, Joe [Flacco] is fully capable when it goes the other way, and when we have to score points, which could very easily be this week. Or if the defense dictates that to us, which probably defenses are going to do. We're going to have to be able to – and we're fully capable with the players we have, including Joe and the wide receivers – of throwing the ball all over the place if we have to do that to win the games. So, we have to develop all parts of our game, really, in every phase."

LB Kamalei Correa and LB Patrick Onwuasor split time fairly evenly yesterday. How did you think they played? Is it a case where you would like to see one of them seize the opportunity, or do you like being able to use two different guys and match up, play a little more situational? (Luke Jones) "It depends on how they're playing. If they're both playing at a Pro Bowl level, then you play them both. If one of them starts to separate from the other, then one would take the job. I'd like to see one of them playing at a Pro Bowl level. Neither of them are doing that right now. But, they're both playing well enough to win. I'd put Bam Bradley in the mix there, too. He's an up-and-comer. We'll just let all those young guys play. They'll play defense, they will play special teams, they will be in their packages. Hopefully, they'll all continue to grow as players and all three of them will become great players. They all have the ability, they all have the mindset. We'll see where it goes."

CB Marlon Humphrey got in the game. What did you see from him? (Ed Lee) "I thought Marlon played really well. He definitely earned more snaps. He played nine plays on defense and played really well on special teams. I would say he earned more snaps. He played well. All corners played exceptionally well – all three corners [Brandon Carr, Marlon Humphrey and Jimmy Smith], plus 'Webby' [Lardarius Webb] in the nickel, played very well."

RB "Buck" [Javorius] Allen is another guy that seemed to have a good outing. How have you liked the way he's come on over the past preseason, training camp and now? (Garrett Downing) "'Buck' has really seized the opportunity. He's running hard north and south, breaking tackles, making people miss, putting his pads down when he has to, and he's also really good in pass protection. He has good hands. He's kind of an all-around type of guy, and he's doing a good job. I would also add Terrance West played very well. He ran hard, very physical – made a difference in the game."

It doesn't always show up in the stat sheet, but the interior defensive pressure that you got – when you watch the tape – what did you see from some of those guys? (Ryan Mink) "I saw interior defensive pressure – just like you said. Seriously, we were pushing the pocket, getting our hands up, batting balls. One of them resulted in the ball at the 3-yard line. [Terrell] Suggs got that one. Then, 'Webby' [Lardarius Webb] kind of caught a punt, which was good to see he caught a lot of that. We had a good push inside the whole game. We made it very uncomfortable for the quarterback to step up and see his reads."

The defense caused five turnovers yesterday. Is that the type of thing that can be contagious if it starts out the season this way? (Stan Charles) "I hope so. I mean, you probably can. I don't know if it's contagious – it probably is, in a sense. You gain some confidence, some momentum. I do think we have that kind of a group that can get a lot of turnovers in a hurry. Teams are really going to have to think about what they want to do against us, because we can create turnovers and turn the game around pretty fast that way. That's a good thing."

I think the offensive line was a big story league-wide. I think eight teams allowed four sacks or more. Beyond the penalties, were you pleased with how that group sort of established the tempo and got better as the game wore on? (Jeff Zrebiec) "I was. That's a great point. They have not played together – to your guys' point – they haven't been together much as a group. But, they've been practicing really hard individually. Then they practiced as a group the last week or so. They played well. They were very physical, very minimal assignment errors. The technique was solid, for the most part. They put out a good front yesterday. So, those guys stepped up and played really good football."

In Cleveland, you're going against a rookie quarterback early in the season. Does that set up different challenges because of the limited game film? How much of college film will you watch, even though it is a different offense? (Jamison Hensley) "I don't think we'll watch too much college tape. We have our division of labor. We have our different coaches that go back and look at everything, and we'll pull some of that and have a report on it. But, we'll spend our time looking at DeShone Kizer and what he's doing with Cleveland – what he's doing in the preseason, what he did against Pittsburgh. It looked like he played a solid game against Pittsburgh from what I could see so far, just watching a little bit of it, for a rookie. He's only going to get better. I mean, he's in there for a reason. Hue Jackson knows what he's doing when it comes to quarterbacks. He believes in his rookie quarterback – talent, head, poise, all those things. He believes he has a great quarterback there, so that's the quarterback we're going to prepare for."

The tight ends didn't get very many catches, but were there other things on tape that were good from your perspective? (Ed Lee) "They blocked really well. Yes, the tight ends blocked very well. I thought Ben Watson – I mean, talk about ageless – here he is out there, and he's in the trenches, blocking gap schemes and getting up on linebackers and doing a great job. They weren't really targeted that much. I think Nick [Boyle] had the one on the boot play. All three of those guys [Watson, Boyle and Maxx Williams] were a big factor blocking. That's what we asked them to do yesterday. We only threw it 17 times, so they're not going to get targeted too much, but they blocked well."

What's the difference in the blocking scheme compared to a year ago? (Mike Preston) "As you know, we were a wide-zone, stretch-zone type of emphasis for the last three years. Now, we're more multiple, I'd say. We run all the different schemes: gap schemes, lead schemes, counters. Those are all part of the offense in the past, but we run more of a downhill type of running style now."

Is this something linemen prefer more than what you've had? (Mike Preston) "Is that a rhetorical question? (laughs) I think it is. Yes, they do. I think linemen like to block the run, right? I mean, lineman like to run-block. So, that's something they always want to do. They like to change up the schemes a little bit, too. Every type of a system … No one has done a better job in the wide zone and spread zone stuff than Gary Kubiak. He's done a great job with it. That stuff has done great success over the years. I think he, and Kyle Shanahan, Mike Shanahan, have kind of built that thing into something that's pretty historic in the National Football League. But, there are a lot of ways to skin a cat. I think for our guys and for our backs and for our personality, this is what we want to do right now."
