THE MATCHUP

The New Orleans Saints go back out on the road for their first NFC South division contest of the season when they face the Carolina Panthers at Bank of America Stadium on Sunday, September 24 at 12:00 p.m. The contest will be the start of a two-game road trip for New Orleans, which will also involve a contest the following Sunday at London's Wembley Stadium against the Miami Dolphins followed by a Week Five bye and a Week Six return home against the Detroit Lions.

In the most historically tightly contested series record-wise among the Saints' three division rivals, New Orleans is 20-24 all-time against Carolina, including a 10-11 record in Charlotte. In 2016, the two clubs split their two meetings for the third time in the last four seasons, with each team holding serve on the road. The Saints will be looking for their first win at the Panthers since a 28-10 victory on October 30, 2014.

Last Sunday, the Saints dropped a 36-20 decision to the New England Patriots. Despite the setback, several of the team's younger players enjoyed promising afternoons.

Offensively, WR Michael Thomas led New Orleans in receiving with five grabs for 89 yards. Thomas currently leads New Orleans in receiving with 10 grabs for 134 yards. WR Brandon Coleman added four catches for 82 yards, including a team-long 42-yard grab and a five-yard touchdown. RB Mark Ingram led New Orleans in rushing with eight carries for 52 yards (6.5 avg.), adding four receptions for 24 yards, as he passed George Rogers to move into second place on the franchise's all-time rushing leaders list.

Overall on offense, the Saints were hurt by struggles on third down (4-of-12), but QB Drew Brees passed for 356 yards and two touchdown throws in the red zone. The New Orleans offense is currently ranked third in the NFL, averaging 386.5 yards per game and has not turned over the ball yet this season. It marks the first time the Saints have not given the ball away to the opposition in consecutive weeks since a three-game stretch between Weeks 14-16 of the 2015 campaign.

After getting off to rocky start where the New Orleans defense surrendered touchdowns on four of New England's first five possessions, the Black and Gold subsequently settled down where they held the Patriots and their high-powered offense to field goals on their final three red zone appearances, keeping the defending Super Bowl champions out of the end zone for the final 34:47 of the contest.

Third-year defender Hau'oli Kikaha, making a return after missing the entire 2016 season with a knee injury made an impact play early in the second quarter on a third-and-eight situation, when he sacked New England QB Tom Brady to force a punt. Midway through the fourth quarter, rookie LB Alex Anzalone, one of the club's three third round picks, dropped Brady inside the 10-yard line on third down to force a field goal, part of an afternoon when he recorded five stops (four solo).

This Week In The NFC South: The Atlanta Falcons (2-0) will play at New Orleans' Week Six opponent, the Lions (??), on Sunday at 12:00 p.m. CT and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1-0) will play at the Minnesota Vikings (1-1) with a noon CT kickoff as well.

THE COACHES

New Orleans Saints Head Coach Sean Payton has posted an 94-68 regular season record and a 6-4 post-season mark, guiding the team to the postseason five times, to the NFC Championship game twice and to the Super Bowl XLIV Championship in the 2009 campaign. He's the club's lone head coach to open a season with 13 straight victories and post a 13-game winning streak and has the franchise's top winning percentage (.581). Payton's 51-30 (.630) home record and 43-38 (.531) mark away from the Mercedes-Benz Superdome are the club's top all-time winning percentages in both categories (regular season). He holds the records for most regular season wins by a head coach in team history with one more than Jim Mora (93 wins from 1986-1996). In his first season with the club in 2006, he took over a Saints team that had previously posted a 3-13 record in 2005 to the NFC Championship game and was named NFL Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and most other major media outlets. The Saints are the only team to finish in the top 10 in net yards per game each season since 2006, including finishing first in 2016, when they averaged 426.0 yards per game. Payton was hired as New Orleans' 14th head coach on January 18, 2006, after serving on the Dallas Cowboys coaching staff from 2003-05 under Pro Football Hall of Fame Head Coach Bill Parcells. Prior to joining the Cowboys in 2003, Payton served on the New York Giants coaching staff from 1999-2002, including the final three seasons as offensive coordinator. His tenure was highlighted by a Super Bowl berth in his first full season calling plays for New York. Payton's prior NFL coaching experience came as quarterbacks coach for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1997-98. He played quarterback at Eastern Illinois University, where he passed for 10,665 yards, then the third-highest total in NCAA Division 1-AA history. The three-time Associated Press All-American selection had professional stints with the Chicago Bruisers of the Arena Football League, Ottawa of the Canadian Football League and the Chicago Bears in 1987. Starting his college coaching career at San Diego State, Payton wrapped two stints as an assistant with the Aztecs (1988-89 and 1992-93) around a stop at Indiana State (1990-91). He moved to Miami (Ohio), where he coached quarterbacks from 1994-95 before doing the same at the University of Illinois in 1996.

Ron Rivera became the fourth coach in Panthers history on Jan. 11, 2011. A two-time NFL Coach of the Year, Rivera inherited a 2-14 Carolina team as a rookie head coach in 2011 and guided it back to relevance in 2015 as they won their second NFC Championship in franchise history, third consecutive NFC South division title and appeared in Super Bowl 50. Carolina finished the season with a franchise-best 17-2 record, including home playoff victories over Seattle in the Divisional Round and Arizona in the NFC Championship game. Before joining the Panthers, Rivera worked with the San Diego Chargers from 2007-10, coaching inside linebackers before taking over as defensive coordinator midway through the 2008 season. In 2010, San Diego led the NFL with an average of 271.6 total yards allowed per game and gave up a league-low 177.8 passing yards per game. From 2004-06, Rivera oversaw the Chicago defense, guiding the unit to two top-five finishes in the league. In 2006, the Bears defense led the NFL with 44 takeaways, helping propel Chicago to an appearance in Super Bowl XLI. In 2005, the Bears went 43 consecutive quarters without allowing more than seven points—the longest streak in the NFL since 1969. Rivera was also linebackers coach for the Eagles (1999-2003) and defensive quality control coach for the Bears (1997-98).

SERIES HISTORY

The Panthers initially entered the NFL as an expansion franchise in 1995 and since then, they lead the series 24-20. The clubs were in the NFC West from 1995-2001 and the rivalry has continued in the NFC South since 2002. The Saints have a 10-12 road record against Carolina. Of the 43 games in the series, 22 have been decided by eight points or less, with New Orleans winning 10. The last four meetings between the clubs have been decided by five points or less, the last three each by three points. The Saints' longest winning streak was a five-game stretch from 2000-02.

In the 44 games of the series there has been:

- 948 points scored by New Orleans, 980 allowed.
- A five-game New Orleans winning streak from 2000-02.
- A four-game New Orleans winning streak in games played at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome from 1998-2001.
- 21 games decided by double-digits.
- Six games decided by 21 or more points.
- 22 games decided by eight points or less.
- One 33-point win by New Orleans.
- A 32-point loss by New Orleans.

LAST MEETING

Carolina Panthers 23, Saints 20; November 17, 2016 @ Bank of America – New Orleans was unable to overcome a slow start as a 17-point fourth quarter output wasn't enough to claim the victory on the road in Carolina on a short week.

New Orleans would make a costly mistake early as on their first offensive possession when quarterback Drew Brees was sacked and fumbled, giving the Panthers possession at the New Orleans 32-yard line. Carolina would turn this early turnover into a 32-yard field goal by kicker Graham Gano as the Saints defense held on to limit the Panthers to just three points. On their next series, the Saints offense would gain some traction, going 71 yards in 14 plays, leading to a 27-yard field goal by kicker Wil Lutz to even the score at three apiece.

On New Orleans's second possession of the second quarter, the Saints offense committed another costly mistake as Brees was picked off by safety Kurt Coleman on a pass intended for tight end Coby Fleener. Carolina would make them pay when running back Jonathan Stewart scored from one-yard out to put Carolina up 10-3. After another Saints three-and-out, the Panthers would add on another Gano field goal, extending their lead to 13-3.

With 2:50 remaining in the first half, New Orleans would get the ball back, with Brees leading the Saints to the Carolina 20-yard line. In a game-changing set of events, the 38-yard field goal attempt by Lutz was blocked by defensive tackle Vernon Butler and returned 88 yards by linebacker Luke Kuechly, much of it being nullified on a Panthers block in the back. Getting the ball on the New Orleans 40-yard line on the ensuing play, quarterback Cam Newton connected with wide receiver Ted Ginn Jr. for a 40-yard touchdown, a play that was initially ruled with Ginn being out of bounds, but overturned for a score on officials review. Carolina would go to the locker room enjoying a 20-3 advantage.

Carolina added to their lead on the opening possession of the second half, with Newton leading the offense on a 14-play, 51-yard drive that ended in a Gano 42-yard field goal. The New Orleans offense got things going on their ensuing possession, as a 58-yard drive that spanned 16 plays ending on a 30-yard field goal by Lutz. After forcing a Panthers three-and-out, New Orleans once again got on the scoreboard, this time on a nine-yard touchdown strike from Brees to wide receiver Brandon Coleman. Following two more Carolina three-and-outs, Brees led New Orleans on a 13-play, 76-yard drive, ultimately finding Fleener for the eight-yard score and cutting the Panthers lead to 23-20.

New Orleans would run out of time as Newton would find WR Kelvin Benjamin for 18 yards on a key third down to ice the game.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR

- If the Saints defeat the Panthers, it would improve their record to 21-24 against Carolina and improve Head Coach Sean Payton's record against the Panthers to 10-11 and his record against Panthers head coach Ron Rivera to 6-5.
- A Saints win would also give Payton his 101st win as Saints head coach (regular season and postseason), putting him past former Oakland Raiders and Tampa Bay Buccaneers Head Coach Jon Gruden for career wins, which would be 44th all-time.
- With 242 passing yards, QB Drew Brees would join Peyton Manning and Brett Favre as only the third NFL quarterback with 67,000 career passing yards
- With one touchdown reception on Sunday, it would mark the first time in TE Coby Fleener's career that he recorded a touchdown reception in three consecutive games.
- RB Mark Ingram II has 36 career touchdowns, ranked tenth in club record books. With one more touchdown, he would move into a tie for ninth with Danny Abramowicz. With two, he would move into sole possession of ninth
- Ingram has 5,397 total yards from scrimmage, ranked seventh in club record books. With 103 total yards from scrimmage, he would become only the seventh Saint to have 5,500 total yards from scrimmage.
- DE Cameron Jordan needs 2.5 sacks to move into a tie with DT La'Roi Glover for seventh place on the club's all-time list with 50.

FAMILY TIES

Numerous Saints players, coaches and administrators are not the only members of their families to make a name for themselves in pro football. No fewer than 15 Saints players, coaches or front office personnel have relatives who have played, coached or served in the front office in the National Football League.

Defensive Coordinator Dennis Allen - Father, Grady, played linebacker for the Atlanta Falcons from 1968-72.

Offensive Coordinator Pete Carmichael - Father, Pete, served as an assistant coach in the National Football League from 1994-2003 with the Jacksonville Jaguars and the Chicago Bears.

Quarterbacks Coach Joe Lombardi - The son of legendary National Football League head coach Vince Lombardi, who led both the Green Bay Packers and Washington Redskins and also had a long distinguished career as an assistant.

Secondary Coach Aaron Glenn - Younger brother, Jason, was a linebacker and sixth-round draft pick of the Detroit Lions in the 2001 NFL Draft, playing six seasons in the NFL with the New York Jets, Miami Dolphins and Minnesota Vikings.

Linebackers Coach Mike Nolan - Father, Dick, played safety in the NFL for nine years before becoming a coach. He led the San Francisco 49ers from 1968 to 1975 and was the head coach of the New Orleans Saints from 1978 to 1980.

Assistant General Manager/College Scouting Director Jeff Ireland - Stepson of Kansas City Chiefs Hall of Fame LB/C E.J. Holub and the grandson of former Eagles player and Bears personnel executive Jim Parmer.

National Scout Terry Wooden - Brother, JoJo, is director of player personnel for the Los Angeles Chargers.

Defensive Back Ken Crawley - Cousin, Stephon Morris, spent the 2012 season with the New England Patriots.

Running Back Trey Edmunds - Father, Ferrell Jr., enjoyed a seven-year career as a tight end with Miami and Seattle and was selected to two Pro Bowls.

Cornerback De'Vante Harris - Father, Rod, was a wide receiver, playing three seasons in the National Football League and spending the 1989 season with New Orleans where he would appear in 11 games, handling the club's kickoff and punt return duties.

Running Back Mark Ingram II - Father, Mark Ingram Sr., was a 10-year NFL veteran who played for the New York Giants, Miami, Green Bay and Philadelphia, winning Super Bowls as a member of the Giants and Packers.

Defensive End Cameron Jordan - Father, Steve, had a 13-year career as a tight end with the Minnesota Vikings, with six Pro Bowl selections.

Tackle/Guard Andrus Peat - Father, Todd, played six NFL seasons as an offensive lineman with the Phoenix Cardinals and the Los Angeles Raiders.

Linebacker Nate Stupar - Older brother, Jonathan, played two seasons in the National Football League from 2009-10, while his uncle, Jeff Hostetler, won two Super Bowl titles with the New York Giants, as part of a 12-year career in the league.

Wide Receiver Michael Thomas - Uncle, Keyshawn Johnson, is a former wide receiver, spending 11 seasons in the National Football League with the New York Jets, Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Dallas Cowboys and Carolina Panthers, earning three Pro Bowls and the Super Bowl XXXVII title.

TEAM NOTES

ROSTER ROLL CALL

Of the 53 players on the current Saints roster, 32 were on the active roster, a reserve list or the practice squad at the end of the 2016 season. Among newcomers, the roster includes seven unrestricted free agents, three veteran free agents, seven draft picks, one rookie free agent, one trade acquisition and two waiver claims.

Of the 53 players, 26 have fewer than four years of previous NFL experience, including ten players with rookie status. The following is a breakdown of New Orleans' roster by years of experience (year entering): 17 years-1, 12 years-2, 11 years-2, 9 years-3, 8 years-1, 7 years-4, 6 years-3, 5 years-10, 4 years-1, 3 years-6, 2 years-8, 1 year-2, rookies-10.

HIGHER EDUCATION

43 colleges and universities are represented on the Saints' 53-man roster. Of that total, seven are represented by multiple Saints: five are from Southern Methodist, four from Ohio State, two from Fresno State, Northwestern, Stanford, Texas and Washington.

MY HOMETOWN

Saints players come from 20 different states, Washington D.C. and Nigeria. Of the 53 on the team's active roster, the state which claims the most members of the team is Texas with 10 (S Chris Banjo, QB Drew Brees, QB Chase Daniel, CB De'Vante Harris, G Josh LeRibeus, P Thomas Morstead, DE Alex Okafor, RB Adrian Peterson, LB Craig Robertson, S Kenny Vaccaro and LS Zach Wood).

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

A spot on the practice squad is another avenue to eventually get onto the active roster and have the opportunity to contribute. Practice squad players assist the team in the lead up to games and often are activated to the main roster as the season progresses. Below is an overview of players on the roster with practice squad experience.

S Chris Banjo spent the majority of the 2014 season on the Green Bay Packers practice squad before being activated in December. Banjo took a big step in 2015, appearing in all 16 games with a start, providing valuable assistance on special teams, where he recorded 21 stops. He joined the Saints late in 2016 after being placed on Injured Reserve by the Packers. Banjo added two special stops in the season opener at Minnesota

S Rafael Bush began his career in Atlanta, where he spent the bulk of 2010 on the practice squad before being promoted to the active roster for the postseason. After seeing limited action in 2011 for the Denver Broncos, Bush showcased his talent after joining the Saints. Between 2012 and 2014, Bush appeared in 39 contests with 13 starts; the athletic member of the secondary recorded two fumble recoveries and a 40-yard interception return during that span. Bush joined the Detroit Lions in 2016, appearing in all 16 games with four starts, 53 tackles, three passes defended, two interceptions, and one defensive touchdown. Once again a Saint, Bush will add valuable experience on both defense and special teams for New Orleans.

WR Brandon Coleman was signed by New Orleans out of Rutgers following the 2014 NFL Draft. Coleman spent the majority of his rookie campaign on the practice squad before being elevated to the active roster in Week 17. Fully recovered from a nagging knee injury suffered as a red-shirt junior in 2013, Coleman took advantage of his large frame and participation in his first full offseason strength and conditioning program to win a roster spot on the 2015 opening day roster. Since then, Coleman has been a key receiver for the Saints, making eight starts and racking up 830 yards and five touchdowns on 62 receptions in the past three seasons.

QB Chase Daniel joined the Saints in 2009 and served on the practice squad as the team made its historic run to Super Bowl XLIV. He joined the 53-man roster in 2010, backing up QB Drew Brees for three seasons before joining the Kansas City Chiefs. There, Daniel made two starts over two years, including a 21-completion, 200-yard, one touchdown performance against the Chargers on Dec. 29, 2013. The experienced player now returns to New Orleans to once again support Brees and the Saints.

After originally signing with Atlanta as an undrafted free agent out of Fresno State, T Bryce Harris started his career on the Atlanta practice in 2012, but was signed to the New Orleans active roster after Week One. Harris played in two games that season at right tackle with one start and would go on to play in 16 contests in both 2013 and 2014. After spending the 2015 and 2016 seasons with Atlanta, Jacksonville and Miami, Harris returned to the Saints in the offseason where he will serve as a valuable backup to Teron Armstead, Ryan Ramczyk and Zach Strief.

G/C Senio Kelemete participated on the Saints practice squad in 2013 after spending 2012 on the Arizona Cardinals active roster. Over the past two campaigns, Kelemete has been an important part of the Saints offensive line, appearing in 33-of-34 games with 15 starts since 2015, with the ability to fill in at every position on the line, including starting at left guard on Sunday vs. New England.

CB Sterling Moore has had several stints on National Football League practice squads, with Oakland and New England in 2011 and New England again in 2012. Moore broke through in 2014 with Dallas, appearing in all 16 games with seven starts, recording 12 passes defensed. In 2016, he joined the Saints and played a critical role after early injuries to CBs P.J. Williams and Delvin Breaux. Moore started 12 games and notched a career high 55 tackles, two picks to tie for the team lead and a team-best and career-high 14 passes defensed.

LB Craig Robertson began his National Football League playing career as a member of the Cleveland Browns practice squad in 2011 before becoming a force the following year upon making the team. From 2012 to 2015, Robertson notched 336 tackles, two forced fumbles, five fumble recoveries, and six interceptions for the Browns. He joined the Saints in 2016 as an unrestricted free agent and made an immediate impact, leading the team with a career-high 131 tackles (100 solo).

LB Nate Stupar came to the National Football League as a seventh-round pick of the Oakland Raiders in the 2012 NFL Draft (230th overall), later signing to their practice squad. The former Penn State standout would also spend time on the practice squads of the Philadelphia Eagles and San Francisco 49ers over the course of his rookie season. In his first season with the Saints, he contributed on both defense and on special teams, finishing with 62 defensive tackles (38 solo) and leading the Black and Gold with a career-high 13 coverage stops.

BUCKING THE ODDS

Players whose names are not called in the NFL Draft each spring often face a steep climb to make a regular season roster, with every snap or drill in OTAs, minicamps and training camp under intense scrutiny. Yet, for the opening contest of 2016, 18-of-53 players on the Saints active roster were an undrafted athlete that had bucked the odds (34.6%). Undrafted players on the current Saints 53-man roster who have appeared in a regular season game include Banjo, Bush, WR Austin Carr, Coleman, CB Ken Crawley, Daniel, RB Trey Edmunds, Bryce Harris, CB De'Vante Harris, TE Josh Hill, QB Taysom Hill, WR Tommylee Lewis, K Wil Lutz, Moore, Robertson and LS Zach Wood.

Carr was signed as an undrafted rookie by the New England Patriots after the 2017 draft after a four-year career at Northwestern, where he enjoyed a standout senior campaign in 2016, setting the school single-season record with 1,247 receiving yards and finished tied for second with 90 receptions and tied the school mark with 12 TD receptions, he was named the Richter-Howard Big Ten Receiver of the Year and was a consensus first-team All-Big Ten. Carr will look to establish a role on both offense and special teams after a preseason for the Patriots before being picked up on waivers by the Saints, where he led New England in receiving with 14 receptions for 153 yards with two touchdowns.

Crawley was signed by the Black and Gold before the 2016 season out of the University of Colorado, where he finished ranked third in school history for career pass deflections (36). He was thrown into the spotlight early as a rookie after injuries to other defensive backs, yet he flourished, starting 5-of-15 games and accruing 50 tackles (41 solo), 10 passes defensed, a forced fumble, and a fumble recovery.

Edmunds was signed as a free agent following the NFL Draft out of Maryland, where he played for a graduate transfer season in 2016 after four years at Virginia Tech where he displayed the ability to both run with the ball and catch it. Edmunds earned a spot on the club's 53-man roster following a preseason where he rushed for 44 yards, had two receptions for 22 yards and posted two special teams stops. Through the first two games, Edmunds has made his mark on special teams where he leads the club with two stops and has also brought back three kickoffs for 71 yards.

De'Vante Harris was a standout defensive back at Texas A&M for four seasons before going undrafted in 2016. He was quickly signed by the Saints and made the 53-man roster after training camp. In 2016, he appeared in 10 contests, notching 11 tackles (nine solo), a pass defensed, and a fumble recovery and he has handled nickel corner duties in the season's first two games in 2017, recording seven solo tackles.

A 2013 undrafted free agent signing by New Orleans out of Idaho State, Josh Hill has appeared in 55 career games with 21 starts and has posted 51 career receptions for 489 yards (9.6 avg.) with nine touchdowns and 27 special teams tackles. Despite being limited due to an ankle injury in 2016, Hill put together his best receiving season since 2014 in just nine contests, finishing with 149 yards off 15 receptions (9.9 avg.) and one touchdown. In Week Two vs. New England, he finished with three receptions for 29 yards.

Taysom Hill came into the NFL in 2017 with Green Bay after the draft out of BYU. He was acquired off of waivers by New Orleans at the end of the preseason after completing 14-of-20 passes (70.0%) for 149 yards with two touchdowns, zero interceptions and a 124.8 passer rating for the Packers and will develop behind Brees and Daniel.

Lewis starred at Northern Illinois, where he accumulated 3,931 all-purpose yards (1,680 receiving, 578 rushing, 1,673 returning) and 18 TDs. He was signed as an undrafted rookie in 2016 and immediately made his mark on special teams, picking up 152 yards off eight kick returns (19.0 avg.) and 160 yards off 14 punt returns (11.4 avg.).

Lutz was a four-year kicker at Georgia State where he garnered all-conference honors en route to becoming the school's all-time leader in field goals, extra points, and points. Undrafted in 2016, he participated in the preseason with the Baltimore Ravens before becoming the Saints placekicker and kickoff specialist prior to Week One. He enjoyed a solid rookie start in 2016, smashing 28-of-34 field goals and 49-of-50 extra points.

Signed as an undrafted free agent out of Southern Methodist by the Dallas Cowboys in 2016, Wood competed for snapping duties for two seasons before being picked up by the Saints at the start of the 2017 regular season.

3. Indianapolis	307

Ahead is a synopsis of several returning players and newcomers through the draft, free agency and trade to the 2017 Saints offensive line:

LT Terron Armstead - The club's first third round draft choice in 2013 out of Arkansas-Pine Bluff, Armstead impressed scouts by running the fastest 40-yard dash time (4.71) by an offensive lineman in the history of the NFL Scouting Combine. He has opened 36 regular season games and two postseason contests for New Orleans. In 2016, he opened seven games at left tackle, missing nine contests due to a knee injury.

G/C Senio Kelemete - Originally a fifth round selection of the Arizona Cardinals (151st overall) in the 2012 NFL Draft, since first joining the New Orleans practice squad at the start of the 2013 season, this fourth-year offensive lineman has displayed the versatility to play every position on the offensive line. The 6-foot-3, 300-pounder saw action in 33-of-34 games over the past three seasons with 14 starts and has become an invaluable piece of the Black and Gold line. In 2017, Kelemete has already played at right tackle in the season opener and started at left guard in Week Two vs. New England.

T/G Andrus Peat - A first round selection (13th overall) in the 2015 NFL Draft out of Stanford, Peat was considered one of the top college offensive linemen in 2014. In his final season in Palo Alto as a junior, Peat started all 13 games at left tackle for the Cardinal, anchoring the left side of an offensive line ranked 18th nationally in fewest tackles for loss allowed (4.62/game) and 42nd in fewest sacks allowed (1.77/game), blocking for an offense that averaged 158.8 yards per game on the ground. Peat was named a first-team All-American by ESPN.com, The Sporting News and SI.com and received second-team honors from the Associated Press. In his rookie campaign, Peat saw action in 12 contests with eight starts, being inserted into several offensive packages, including two starts at left tackle in place of an injured Armstead. In 2016, Peat took a massive step forward, starting 15 contests at left guard, left tackle and as an extra tight end and blocking for the most productive offense in the NFL (426.0 ypg.). Headed into his third season, Peat now possesses both a veteran's experience and youthful athleticism, making him key to the Saints' future success, starting at both left guard and tackle in 2017.

T Ryan Ramczyk - The Black and Gold used their second first round selection in the 2017 NFL Draft to snag Ramczyk, viewed by many as one of the best offensive linemen in the entire draft. The 6-6, 314 lb. tackle moved from Division III Wisconsin-Stevens Point to the University of Wisconsin, and in just one season with the Badgers, he flourished. Ramczyk started all 14 games in 2016 and was a consensus All-American, blocking for an offense that gained 203.1 rushing yards per game and allowing just a single sack. Ramczyk figures to make an immediate impact for the Black and Gold, adding valuable depth to the outside of the offensive line, starting the season opener at left tackle and Week Two at right tackle.

RT Zach Strief - This 2006 seventh round draft pick out of Northwestern has appeared in 158 regular season games with 94 starts and played in 10 postseason contests, four which he has opened. The longtime offensive team captain has become even more durable with age, appearing in and starting 42 consecutive postseason and regular season contests at his right tackle position, before missing 2015's Week 16 contest against Jacksonville with an elbow injury. He continued to showcase consistency and durability in 2016, opening all 16 contests once again, proving his continuing value to the Black and Gold.

C Max Unger - Since being acquired by the Saints via trade at the start of the 2015 offseason, Max Unger has anchored the middle of the Saints offensive line, opening 32-of-33 contests, missing only one game in 2016 due to a foot injury. Originally a second round draft pick of the Seahawks in 2009, Unger has been named a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press in 2012 and is a two-time Pro Bowler, helping the Seahawks to two Super Bowl appearances and a victory in Super Bowl XLVIII. Unger has opened all 100 games he has played in since 2009. Sideline in the offseason and some of the preseason by a foot injury, Unger returned to his spot by the Season opener.

G Larry Warford - A third-round pick by the Detroit Lions in 2013, Warford has been one of the best offensive linemen in the NFL since his arrival. In 2013, he was named Pro Football Focus Rookie of the Year after starting all 16 games without surrendering a sack. This offseason, the 6-3, 317 lb. guard joined the Saints, and he will play a critical role in the team's efforts to repeat as the National Football League's top offense.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

DEFENSIVE DRAFT

Over the last three NFL Drafts, New Orleans has shown a commitment to improving the defense, spending 14-of-21 picks on that side of the ball. With nine picks in the 2015 NFL Draft, the Saints picked six defensive players, the most taken since New Orleans chose nine defensive players in a 12-round selection meeting in 1990. Below is an overview of the 12 players selected by New Orleans since 2015 still with the club:

LB Stephone Anthony, Clemson (D1b-15) - Despite an injury-limited 2016, Anthony has already proven himself to be a talented linebacker. In his 2015 rookie campaign, Anthony started all 16 games at middle linebacker and led the team with a club rookie record 144 tackles (99 solo), including a career-high 21 stops in the team's Week Eight matchup vs. the New York Giants. On the season, he added one sack, one interception, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery, one defensive touchdown, one defensive two-point conversion off of a blocked PAT attempt, five passes defended and one special teams stop. His total stops led NFL rookies and he was a consensus All-Rookie selection. In the club's Week 13 contest against Carolina, he took a blocked PAT kick attempt back 82 yards for the two-point conversion, marking the first time in NFL history that a blocked PAT kick attempt led to a two-point conversion since the rule change before the 2015 season. His 144 total tackles on the season surpassed LB Rickey Jackson's 125 in 1981 for most tackles by a rookie in franchise history.

LB Alex Anzalone, Florida (D3b-17) - A 6-3, 241 lb. linebacker, Anzalone showcased plenty of potential at Florida. As a senior, he started the fight eight games for the Gators until a broken forearm ended his campaign. Despite the shortened season, Anzalone still ranked third on the team with 53 tackles and racked up three sacks and one fumble recovery. The three-time SEC Academic Honor Roll recipient plays with both physicality and intelligence and is expected to make an immediate impact in both run and pass coverage and on special teams.

S Vonn Bell, Ohio State (D2b-16) - Selected by New Orleans in the second round (61st overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft, Bell was a consensus All-American and one of the top rated defensive backs in the NFL Draft. As a senior, the Rossville, Ga. native was a Jim Thorpe Award semifinalist after recording 65 tackles and adding two interceptions, one brought back for a touchdown, one fumble recovery and 11 passes defended. During his 2016 rookie season, Bell translated that collegiate success to the NFL with ease, starting 14 games and finishing second on the team with 98 tackles (59 solo) and first on the team with two forced fumbles. Now a proven asset, Bell will look to enter the upper echelon of NFL safeties in 2017.

DT Tyeler Davison, Fresno State (D5b-15) - This run-stopping widebody defensive lineman played in 53 career games at Fresno State and made 28.5 stops for a loss and 14.5 sacks. In 2015, Davison played in all 16 games with five starts, finishing his rookie campaign with 26 tackles (15 solo) and 1.5 sacks. Last season, he assumed greater responsibility with the club, starting 15 contests and recording 29 stops and two passes defended.

DE Trey Hendrickson, Florida Atlantic (D3c-17) - A product of Florida Atlantic University, Trey Hendrickson joins the Black and Gold in 2017 hoping to add depth to the defensive line. The four-year letterman for the Owls dominated in his final two seasons; as a senior, he was named Conference-USA Defensive Most Valuable Player and led the nation with four blocked kicks. As a junior in 2015, Hendrickson recorded 13 sacks, second-best in the nation, and five forced fumbles. Powerful, agile, and with an eye for getting to the football, Hendrickson will be a welcome addition to the defensive front.

LB Hau'oli Kikaha, Washington (D2-15) - Though a pre-season knee injury prematurely ended his 2016 campaign, Kikaha still enters 2017 as a key member of the Saints' front seven and pass rush. He came to New Orleans after a senior season at Washington in 2014 where he was the nation's leader with 19 sacks. In his rookie campaign, Kikaha played in 15 games with 10 starts and recorded 56 tackles (41 solo), one pass defended, four sacks and four forced fumbles to tie for sixth in takedowns and first in forced fumbles among rookies. The Hawaii native finished the season tied for second in the league in forced fumbles, the lone rookie with four.

CB Marshon Lattimore, Ohio State (D1a-17) - The 11th pick in the 2017 draft and the first cornerback taken, Lattimore possesses all the traits of a future lockdown defender. In 2016 at Ohio State, he was named first team All-Big Ten after recording four interceptions during the year. With his agile, fluid style of play, Lattimore has the ability to shut down even the best receivers. He will play a critical role in the Black and Gold pass defense in 2017.

DE Al-Quadin Muhammad, Miami (Fla.) (D6-17) - Muhammad joins the Saints in 2017 after showing potential as a pass rusher at the University of Miami. While he did not play in 2016, in 2015 he notched 54 tackles, good for third on the squad, while leading the team in tackles for loss and sacks with 8.5 and 5, respectively. He also forced a fumble and broke up one pass. Muhammad's strength on the line should be a valuable asset for a Saints front looking to improve on its 30-sack mark from 2016.

DT David Onyemata, Manitoba (D4-16) - Possessing a unique combination of size and speed, this Lagos, Nigeria native had an impressive rookie year after becoming the first player from the University of Manitoba to be drafted into the NFL. Despite being extraordinarily new to football, the fourth round pick appeared in all 16 games in 2016, notching 32 tackles on the year. Now with experience under his belt, Onyemata looks to become a critical member on the interior of the Saints defensive front.

DT Sheldon Rankins, Louisville (D1-16) - Selected by New Orleans 12th overall in the first round of the 2016 NFL Draft, the Covington, Ga. native played in 46 games along the defensive line at Louisville from 2012-15, producing 133 total tackles (72 solo), 31.5 tackles for loss and 18 sacks during his collegiate career. A broken leg delayed his National Football League debut last season until Week Nine, but he made the most of his limited action, still finishing tied for third on the club with four sacks. In year two, Rankins will move into the starting lineup on the interior and will be counted on to make an impact both against the run and the pass.

S Marcus Williams, Utah (D2-17) - A three-year starter at Utah, Williams was twice named All-Pac 12 and earned second-team All-American honors as a junior before declaring for the NFL Draft. In 2016, he tied for second in the conference with five interceptions, even after missing two games due to injury. The defender boasts a dangerous mix of speed, fluidity, and instinct that allows him to read the offense and make breaks on the ball.

CB P.J. Williams, Florida State (D3b-15) - One of the most gifted athletes among the Black and Gold, Williams' career has been limited due to injuries so far. After missing most of training camp, Williams was placed on reserve/injured (hamstring) prior to the start of the 2015 season. In 2016, Williams appeared in two games before a concussion cut his season short. An experienced starter from Florida State University who developed into one of the nation's top cover corners as a junior in 2014, Williams finished his college career with 123 tackles (82 solo), four interceptions and 18 passes defended. In year three, Williams will return to the starting lineup position he had initially earned in the 2016 preseason.

NEW FACES ON DEFENSE

Along with the NFL Draft, New Orleans used free agency to add pieces to its defense, bringing players from other teams, as well as other leagues to help create the perfect mixture of veteran leadership and young talent in the Saints locker room. Below is an overview of those players:

S Rafael Bush (UFA-17 DET) - The six-year NFL veteran returns to the Saints after spending the 2016 campaign in Detroit. Bush joined the Saints following the 2012 preseason and was a significant contributor both in the secondary and on special teams for four seasons. In his only season in Detroit, he appeared in all 16 games with four starts and finished fifth on the team with 48 tackles (31 solo) and added one sack, two picks and three passes defended. In 62 career games, he has accrued 18 starts, 182 tackles (116 solo), one sack, three interceptions, 13 passes defended, 28 special teams stops, and one coverage fumble recovery. In 2017, Bush will contribute to the Saints both in multiple defensive back packages and on special teams.

LB A.J. Klein (UFA-17 CAR) - Klein joined the Saints in 2017 at the start of unrestricted free agency, after spending his first four NFL seasons in Carolina. The 2013 fifth-round draft choice out of Iowa State has appeared in 62 games with 25 starts, posting 168 tackles (130 solo), four sacks, one interception, two passes defended, three forced fumbles, and 27 special teams stops. In 2016, he played in 15 games for the Panthers with seven starts and made 31 tackles (26 solo), one sack, a career-high two forced fumbles and two special teams stops. Experienced, intelligent, and athletic, he leads the linebackers with 13 stops, one pass defense and one forced fumble in 2017.

DE Alex Okafor (UFA-17 ARI) - Okafor, a fourth-round selection in 2013 by the Arizona Cardinals out of Texas, enters the fifth year of his career and his first with the Saints. After making only one appearance in his rookie year, Okafor took a leap forward in 2014, starting 12-of-13 games and notching 30 tackles (28 solo), eight sacks, and an interception. As a situational pass rusher in 2016, he chipped in 3.5 quarterback takedowns and one forced fumble and also added two special teams stops and a fumble recovery on coverage units. In the past five seasons, Okafor has totaled 84 tackles (71 solo), 13.5 sacks, four passes defended, an interception, a forced fumble, and two fumble recoveries.

LB Manti Te'o (UFA-17 SD) - The 2012 Heisman Trophy runner-up joins the Black and Gold this season after four years as a San Diego Charger. In his career, he has appeared in 40 games with 35 starts, recording 298 tackles (175 solo), 1.5 sacks, nine passes defended, and two picks. In 2017, Te'o has nine stops through the first two contests.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

JUST KICKING IT

Between deep passes for touchdowns and athletic interceptions, players often use their hands to produce the game's flashiest plays. However, the players who use their feet often make the difference between winning and losing, between drilling clutch field goals or flipping the field with a well-executed punt.

K Wil Lutz went undrafted in 2016, joining the Baltimore Ravens for training camp. Prior to the start of the regular season, Lutz joined the Black and Gold and immediately took on the role of starting kicker. Lutz drilled 28-of-34 field goals (82.4%) on the year, including his final 13. That percentage was the best by a Saints kicker since 2011. In Week Three, Lutz nailed a 57-yard field goal as time expired in the first half, tied for the third-longest in franchise history. Against Carolina on Oct. 16, Lutz booted a 52-yard field goal with 0:16 remaining in the contest to give the Black and Gold a 41-38 win. He converted 49-of-50 PATs (98.0%), ranking sixth in the league in accuracy and second in number of PATs made. Lutz also took over kickoff duties in 2016, launching 49-of-89 kicks for touchbacks (55.1%).

P Thomas Morstead was the first punter drafted by the Saints since 1984. Taken in the fifth-round of the 2009 NFL draft out of Southern Methodist, Morstead has proven himself to be one of the best punters in both franchise and league history. He ranks second all-time in punting average (47.0) and third all-time in net punting average (41.6). Morstead is no stranger to big moments, having been tasked with executing a surprise onside kick in Super Bowl XLIV, where he did to perfection. Morstead has accuracy to go with his big leg, putting 22 of his 57 punts inside the 20-yard line in 2016, including four against Kansas City on Oct. 23.

RETURN TO SENDER

WR Tommy Lee Lewis has found an important role on special teams, returning the majority of punts for the Black and Gold in 2016. He averaged 11.4 yards per return last year on 14 returns, including a 59-yard return against the Panthers which he brought from the New Orleans 12-yard line all the way to the Carolina 29. In 2017, he will compete for the role with WR Ted Ginn Jr., who in his nine-year NFL career has brought back three kickoff returns and four punt returns for a touchdown. Also in the mix is 2017 third round draft pick RB Alvin Kamara who has return experience from his tenure at Tennessee.

QUARTERBACKS

DREW BREES

- Since signing with the New Orleans Saints as an unrestricted free agent in 2006 from the San Diego Chargers, quarterback Drew Brees has thrown for 4,000 or more yards each season, became the only NFL signal-caller to throw for 5,000 yards five different times, set the league single-season yardage record in 2011 (broken by Peyton Manning in 2013) and ranked at or near the top in every passing category, both in single-seasons and over the 11-year period, breaking virtually every club passing record.
- In 2016, Brees completed 471-of-673 passes (70.0%) for 5,208 yards with 37 touchdowns, two rushing touchdowns, 15 interceptions and a 101.7 passer rating. Brees led the league in passing yards for the seventh time, breaking the 5,000-yards passing barrier for the fifth time in his illustrious career (no other player has surpassed the mark more than once).
- Since signing with New Orleans in 2006, Brees leads the National Football League with 54,410 passing yards, 389 touchdown passes, 7,031 attempts, 4,765 completions, a 67.8% completion percentage, 100 games with at least 300 yards passing, 15 with at least 400 yards passing, 414 passes of 25 yards or more and stands at fourth in the league with a 99.4 passer rating.
- Brees has been selected to play in a franchise-record nine Pro Bowls as a member of the Saints, with ten overall berths in the National Football League's all-star game, twice as a starter, including a selection following the 2016 season. His seven consecutive selections as a Saint is tied for first in franchise history with Pro Football Hall of Fame tackle William Roaf.
- Brees has posted a 101-75 regular season record in contests he has started since signing with the Saints in 2006. In Week 15 of the 2016 campaign, Brees earned his 100th regular season victory in a Saints uniform. Including his six playoff victories, his 107 total wins as a member of the Saints make him the winningest quarterback in franchise history.
- In his 17-year National Football League career during which he has appeared in 235 games with 234 starts, Brees has completed 5,890-of-8,840 passes (66.6%) for 66,758 yards, 468 touchdown passes and a 96.4 passer rating. He stands as the NFL's all-time most accurate passer, is ranked third in completions, third in touchdown passes, third in passing yardage and seventh in passer rating.

BREES BY THE NUMBERS

3 – Number of NFC Offensive Player of the Month awards won by Brees in his 15-year career, the most monthly awards won by a Saint in team history.

4 – Brees, Dan Marino, Peyton Manning, and Aaron Rodgers are the only four NFL players to throw for 40 or more touchdowns twice. Also, the National Football League-record number of consecutive games that Brees threw for 350 yards in 2011.

5 – National Football League-record number of seasons (2008, 2011-13, 2016) that Brees has thrown for over 5,000 yards.

7 – The National Football League-record number of regular season contests where Brees has thrown five TDs and zero interceptions. Also the league-record number of times Brees has led the league in passing, including in 2016 (5,208).

8 – The National Football League-record number of times he reached the 350-yard mark in 2011.

9 – National Football League-record stretch of consecutive games with at least 300 yards passing, which he's accomplished twice. Brees' nine-game winning streak (11/24/08-9/30/13) as a starter on Monday Night Football is tied for second all-time. Also, the franchise record number of seasons that Brees has been selected to the Pro Bowl. Also, the number of seasons overall and NFL-record consecutive campaigns (2008-16) that Brees has thrown for at least 30 touchdowns.

11 – Number of consecutive seasons Brees has thrown 25 touchdown passes, making him only the second player in history to do so, joining Peyton Manning.

12 – Number of seasons Brees has thrown 25 or more touchdown passes, tied for second in NFL record books with Tom Brady.

13 – 2016 was Brees' 13th consecutive season with 3,000 yards passing, a feat equaled only by Peyton Manning and surpassed only by Brett Favre (18). Also, with 13 300-yard passing games in 2011, Brees set the National Football League single-season record, surpassing the one he previously tied with 10 in 2008.

14 – In 2016, Brees became only the fourth player to have 14 3,000-yard passing seasons, joining Favre (18), Manning (16), and Brady (14).

15 – National Football League-record number of regular season contests where Brees has thrown for at least 400 yards.

16 – On November 29, 2016 against the Los Angeles

BREES BY THE NUMBERS

Rams, Brees scored on a quarterback sneak, recording the 16th rushing touchdown of his career.

20 – Franchise-record NFC Player of the Week awards won by Brees as a member of the Saints and the most conference Player of the Week honors since 2006. Including his five-year tenure with the San Diego Chargers, his 22 conference Player of the Week awards rank third all-time behind Manning (27) and Brady (26).

30 – Number of successful drives in the fourth quarter or overtime engineered by Brees for a touchdown or field goal in the regular season to lead the Saints to victory since joining the club in 2006.

31 – Regular season contests by Brees with at least four touchdown passes, ranked second all-time behind Manning (35).

45 – Consecutive regular season contests between 2012-15 with at least one touchdown pass, fifth-best in league history. The streak ended on November 29, 2015 at Houston.

52 – Consecutive regular season contests from Dec. 8, 2013 to Jan. 1 2017, when he has thrown for at least 200 yards, a span of over three seasons. This streak is still active.

54 – Consecutive regular season contests between 2009-12 with at least one touchdown pass, the longest streak in history, surpassing the record previously held by Johnny Unitas (47). It was set on October 7, 2012 vs. San Diego. It ended on Nov. 29, 2012 after a touchdown-free outing at Atlanta.

56 – National Football League-record number of games with at least 30 completions, ahead of Peyton Manning (38).

57 – Players that Brees' 468 career touchdown passes have gone to with both the Saints and the San Diego Chargers. During last season's Week Four contest in San Diego, fullback John Kuhn became the 57th player and the 41st Saint to catch a touchdown from Brees. Also, the NFL-record number of consecutive regular season contests where Brees threw at least 20 completions until Oct. 13, 2013 at New England.

66.6 – Career completion percentage, ranked first in National Football League record books.

67.8 – Franchise-record completion percentage as a Saint, ranked first in the National Football League during this 12-season period.

BREES BY THE NUMBERS

89 – Number of regular season games by Brees as a Saint where he’s posted a rating of 100 or more (min. 10 attempts) owning a 70-19 record in these contests. Overall, in his 16-year career with both the Saints and Chargers, he’s reached the milestone 105 times.

100 – Number of club-record regular season contests by Brees with 300 yards or more passing as a Saint, the highest total since 2006. Brees has reached the 300-yard mark 107 times, ahead of Manning (93) for the most all-time.

101 – Club-record regular season victories as a starting QB. Including the playoffs, Brees has compiled a 107-79 record as the Saints’ starter.

141 – Regular season games Brees has with two or more TDs in his 17-year career, the second-most by an active player behind Tom Brady (148). Since joining the Saints in 2006, Brees has 115 contests with multiple touchdown passes, first in the NFL.

205 – October 4, 2015 vs. Dallas, with an 80-yard touchdown pass to running back C.J. Spiller, Brees reached 400 TD passes in his 205th career game, the quickest a player has reached 400 TD passes, eclipsing the record previously held by Peyton Manning (Indianapolis, 209 games).

388 – Touchdown passes as a Saint, ranked first in club records and in the NFL during this time period, including seven in the team’s 2015 contest vs. the New York Giants to tie an NFL record. With 468 career TD passes, he’s third.

4,765 – Completions since 2006, the NFL’s highest total over this 10-season period.

66,758 – In 2016 at Tampa Bay, Brees eclipsed 65,000 passing yards for his career, becoming just the third player to reach the mark, as well as the fastest.

RUNNING BACKS

MARK INGRAM II

• One of the club's two first round draft picks in 2011, the 2009 Heisman Trophy winner has been an integral part of the rushing attack since his arrival in New Orleans. In 2016, Ingram had the most productive season of his six-year career, rushing for 1,043 yards on 205 carries (5.1 yards per attempt) and six touchdowns. This was the first time Ingram had broken the 1,000 yard barrier in his career. He became the first Black and Gold back to hit the mark since Deuce McAllister ran for 1,057 in 2006 and the seventh back to do so in franchise history. On Nov. 6 at San Francisco, Ingram carried the ball 15 times for 158 yards, including a 75-yard touchdown run, the longest run of his career. On Nov. 27 vs. the Los Angeles Rams, Ingram picked up 146 yards on 14 carries, including a 61-yard run, the third longest of his career.

INGRAM'S BIG DAYS

New Orleans Saints RB Mark Ingram has reached 100 rushing yards nine times over his Saints career, including three times in 2016. New Orleans has posted a 7-2 record in those games.

• November 10, 2013 vs. Dallas Cowboys - Carried 14 times for 145 yards (10.4 avg.) with one touchdown and two receptions for 15 yards for 160 yards of total offense.

• October 26, 2014 vs. Green Bay Packers - Rushed for a career-high 172 yards on 24 carries (7.2 avg.) with one TD

• October 30, 2014 at Carolina Panthers - Rushed 30 times for 100 yards with two touchdowns and added a 10-yard grab.

• November 9, 2014 vs. San Francisco 49ers - Became the first Saint to have 100 yards rushing in three consecutive games since 2003 with 27 carries for 120 yards.

• November 30, 2014 at Pittsburgh Steelers - Rushed 23 times for 122 yards (5.3 avg.) with a season-long 31-yard carry.

• October 25, 2015 at Indianapolis Colts - Carried 14 times for 143 yards (10.2 avg.) with one touchdown.

• November 6, 2016 at San Francisco 49ers - Carried 15 times for 158 yards (10.5 avg.) with one touchdown.

• November 27, 2016 vs. Los Angeles Rams - Carried 14 times for 146 yards (10.4 avg.) with one touchdown.

January 1, 2017 at Atlanta Falcons - Carried 20 times for 103 yards (5.2 avg.) with one touchdown.

CLIMBING THE CHARTS

Following a 2016 campaign, where he became the club's first 1,000 yard rusher since the 2006 season and the seventh in club record books, Ingram is ranked third in club record books in rushing yardage. With 52 yards against New England on Sunday, he moved into second place on the club's all-time rushing yardage list.

ADRIAN PETERSON

• Adrian Peterson joins the New Orleans Saints in 2017 after a decade-long career with the Minnesota Vikings, during which time he proved himself one of the most productive running backs in National Football League history. A seven-time Pro Bowler, four-time First-Team All-Pro, and the 2012 NFL MVP and Offensive Player of the year, Peterson has led the league in rushing yards on three separate occasions. In 2012, Peterson dominated defenses, rushing for 2,097 yards, becoming just the seventh player to cross the 2,000 yard threshold and coming eight yards short of Eric Dickerson's NFL-record 2,105 yards in 1984. As recently as 2015, Peterson led the league with 1,485 rushing yards. In New Orleans, he will team with Ingram and rookie Alvin Kamara.

TED GINN JR.

- Ginn joins the Saints in 2017 as he enters his 11th NFL season. He has been a member of four teams since 2007, and appearing in 153 games with 62 starts over that period. In his long career, he has accumulated 4,362 yards off 316 catches, recording 25 touchdowns. Over the past two years, Ginn has seen his production increase despite his veteran status, recording 1,544 yards and 14 touchdowns from 2015-16 in Carolina.

BRANDON COLEMAN

- Originally signed by New Orleans out of Rutgers following the 2014 NFL Draft, Coleman won a roster spot on the 2015 opening day roster after spending most of his rookie campaign on the practice squad, appearing in all 16 games with four starts. Coleman finished the 2015 season with 30 receptions for 454 yards and two touchdowns. In 2016, again appeared in all 16 games with four starts, tacking in 281 yards through the air and scoring three touchdowns.

TIGHT ENDSCOBY FLEENER

- A combination of athleticism, strength and speed, Coby Fleener's sure hands and ability to get open are an important facet of the New Orleans offense. Originally a second round draft pick of the Indianapolis Colts in 2012, he came to New Orleans as an unrestricted free agent after being a potent weapon in the Colts passing game for his first four seasons. In 2016, he appeared in all 16 games with eight starts, hauling in 50 passes for 631 yards (12.6 avg) and three touchdowns. He also had one rush for two yards and a score. Over his six-year career, he has played in 78 games with 53 starts, made 241 catches for 2,872 yards, and scored 23 total touchdowns.

JOSH HILL

- Signed as an undrafted free agent from Idaho State in 2013, Hill's combination of hands, speed and special teams acumen have served him well in his first five NFL seasons where he has posted 54 grabs for 518 yards with nine touchdowns, while adding 27 special teams stops. In 2016, the Blackfoot, Idaho native appeared in all nine games with eight starts, recording 149 yards and a score before suffering an ankle injury vs. Detroit that left him on Injured Reserve.

MICHAEL HOOMANAWANUI

- Brought to New Orleans in Week Four of the 2015 season after a trade with the New England Patriots, Hoomanawanui appeared in 12 games for the Black and Gold before spending the 2016 campaign on Injured Reserve. In his 12 games with the club in 2015, he recorded eight starts, 11 catches, 76 yards, and three touchdowns. During his entire career, he has appeared in 75 games with 49 starts, recording 602 yards and seven total touchdowns on 52 catches.

DEFENSIVE ENDSCAMERON JORDAN

- New Orleans' first choice in the 2011 NFL Draft (24th overall) out of California, 2016, Saints defensive end Cameron Jordan started all 16 games for the five consecutive year, posting 66 tackles (39 solo), 7.5 sacks, four passes defended, and a forced fumble. With 47.5 sacks in seven seasons with the Black and Gold, Jordan is eighth on the Saints career sack list. Jordan has also proven to be one of the NFL's best run defenders, known for generating pressure on quarterbacks that doesn't always show up on the stat sheet.

JORDAN SACK NOTES

Since Week Eight of the 2014 season, Cameron Jordan has played among the NFL's elite defensive ends. He's ranked 13th in the league since Oct. 26, 2014 with 25 sacks, including four multi-sack games.

ALEX OKAFOR

- Selected by the Arizona Cardinals in the fourth round of the 2013 NFL Draft, Okafor joins the Saints in 2017 where he will add valuable depth on the defensive line. Okafor has appeared in 44 games with 27 starts in five years, collecting 13.5 sacks, an interception, a forced fumble, two fumble recoveries, and four passes defended.

AL-QUADIN MUHAMMAD

- Muhammad comes to the Saints after the club selected him in the sixth round of the 2017 Draft. A two-year letterman at Miami (Fla.), Muhammad had an impressive 2015 campaign, during which he recorded 54 tackles, 8.5 tackles for loss, five sacks, a forced fumble, and a pass defended.

DEFENSIVE TACKLES

TYELER DAVISON

- The Fresno State product followed up a solid rookie season with an even better season in 2016, helping to improve the 31st ranked run defense in 2015 to the 14th best in the league in 2016. Starting 15 games, the disruptive defensive tackle finished the 2016 campaign with 29 tackles (14 solo) and two pass deflections. In 2015, Davison became a key Saints defender while still a rookie, appearing in all 16 games with five starts and attacking for 18 tackles (10 solo) and 1.5 sacks. This year, Davison looks to continue to grow as a member of a youthful and improving Saints defensive line.

SHELDON RANKINS

- Rankins was limited by injury in 2016, yet he nonetheless produced an impressive campaign. After a broken fibula delayed his NFL debut, the rookie exploded for 20 tackles (15 solo) in nine games, adding four sacks and a forced fumble. The third defensive lineman selected in the 2016 NFL Draft (12th overall), Rankins played in 46 games along the defensive line at Louisville, producing 133 tackles (72 solo), 31.5 tackles for loss and 18 sacks during his collegiate career. In his senior campaign, the former Cardinals standout racked up a single-season career-high 58 tackles (28 solo), 13 stops for loss, six sacks, one pass defended and a fumble recovery returned 46 yards for a touchdown. Rankins was named second-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference following his efforts.

DAVID ONYEMATA

- Onyemata was chosen with the team's fourth round pick (120th overall) in 2016 after a stellar career at the University of Manitoba of the CIS, becoming the first member of the Bisons program to be drafted. Over the course of his rookie campaign, Onyemata shined, appearing in all 16 games and recording 32 tackles (15 solo). In 37 career games at Manitoba, he posted 166 tackles, 9.5 sacks, two passes defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. As a senior, the Lagos, Nigeria native was named a Canada West all-star for the second straight campaign, an all-Canadian for the first time and claimed the J.P. Metras Trophy as the top down lineman in CIS football. He finished second in the conference and ninth in the country with five sacks in eight league games and also ranked second in Canada West in tackles for a loss (7.5) and 12th in overall tackles (38.5).

LINEBACKERS

Key free agent acquisitions combined with an extra year of growth have rendered the 2017 Saints linebacking corps a young, hard-hitting squad that looks to wreak havoc on opposing offenses this season.

CRAIG ROBERTSON

- In just his first year with the Saints, Robertson quickly became one of the most important members of the young defense. After four seasons with Cleveland, Robertson joined the Saints looking to contribute on defense and special teams, yet his production outpaced even the highest expectations. Starting 15 games, Robertson led the Saints with 131 tackles (100 solo), while adding a sack, four passes defended, and interception, and two fumble recoveries. Robertson will continue to be a leader Saints defenders look to during the upcoming campaign.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

STEPHONE ANTHONY

- Though leg injuries hampered his 2016 productivity, Anthony remains a young, hungry defender. Last year, he appeared in 10 games with three starts, racking up 16 tackles while fighting off hamstring and knee injuries that landed him on Injured Reserve. In his rookie campaign, Anthony won a starting job at MLB and started all 16 games. Anthony led the team with 144 tackles, including 99 solo stops, ranked first among NFL rookies. He was a consensus All-Rookie selection. His 144 total tackles on the season surpassed LB Rickey Jackson's 125 tackles in 1981 for the most tackles by a rookie in team history.

ALEX ANZALONE

- One of three third round picks in 2017, Anzalone comes to the Saints after a solid career at Florida. In 2016, he started the first eight games of the season for the Gators before a broken forearm ended his campaign. Before his exit, he racked up three sacks, two passes defended, and a fumble recovery. In 2017, Anzalone has moved into a starting spot as a rookie, recording seven tackles (six solo), one sack and one pass defended.

NATE STUPAR

- Originally drafted by Oakland in the seventh round of the 2012 NFL Draft (230th overall), Stupar came to New Orleans as part of a revamped linebacker group in 2016. After three seasons spent with four teams, he found a home with the Black and Gold, appearing in all 16 games with 6 starts while setting or tying career-highs in all major categories. He finished the season with 62 tackles (38 solo), one sack, two passes defended, an interception, two forced fumbles, and two fumble recoveries.

MANTI TE'O

- Coming to New Orleans as a free agent in 2017, Te'o has used his four seasons in San Diego to become a talented, linebacker. A second round pick in 2013 out of Notre Dame where he finished second in the voting for the 2012 Heisman Trophy, Te'o quickly became a leader for the Chargers, starting all 13 games he appeared in in 2013 en route to 61 tackles (41 solo) and four passes defended. In 2014, he started 6-of-10 games, notched 60 tackles (39 solo) and had both a sack and an interception. In 2015, he started all 12 games he appeared in, recording a career-high 83 tackles (63 solo), a half-sack, an interception, and a forced fumble. Last year, he started the first three games of the season, before an Achilles injury ended his campaign. In 2017, he ranks among team leaders with nine tackles.

P.J. WILLIAMS

- After being sidelined for the majority of his first two NFL seasons, this third-season defender is primed for a big jump in 2017. An experienced starter from Florida State University, who developed into one of the nation's top cover corners as a junior in 2014, Williams finished his college career with 123 tackles (82 solo), four interceptions and 18 passes defended. As a junior in 2014, he started all 13 games he played in, finishing with 74 tackles (52 solo), one sack, 6.5 tackles for loss, one interception, 10 passes defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery, as he was a USA Today All-America second-team selection and a first-team All-ACC selection.

KEN CRAWLEY

- A former standout at Colorado, Ken Crawley came to the Saints as an undrafted free agent in 2016. During his rookie year, he appeared in 15 games with five starts, recording 50 stops (41 solo), 10 passes defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. His 2016 campaign was ended before it began after being placed on Injured Reserve prior to Week One. A corner who played in all 47 games at Colorado with his 36 passes defended ranked third in school history, Crawley will look to continue his development in 2017.

De'VANTE HARRIS

- A former standout at Texas A&M, De'Vante Harris came to the Saints as an undrafted free agent in 2016. During his rookie year, he appeared in 10 games with one start, recording 11 stops (nine solo), one pass defended, one fumble recovery and three special teams stops. Harris continues to develop along with another 2016 free agent in Crawley and is expected to play in all defensive packages for New Orleans in 2017.

STERLING MOORE

- Entering his seventh National Football League campaign, Sterling Moore will remain an active participant in the Saints defensive backfield. In 2016, his first season with the Black and Gold, Moore was phenomenal, starting 12-of-13 games with 55 tackles (47 solo), 14 passes defended, and two interceptions, all career-highs. Over his seven seasons with New Orleans, Tampa Bay, Dallas, and New England, Moore has notched 182 tackles (150 solo), six picks, 39 passes defended, seven forced fumbles, and three fumble recoveries.

MARSHON LATTIMORE

• Taken 11th overall in the 2017 NFL Draft from Ohio State, Lattimore possesses the physicality, speed, and intelligence to impact the Saints secondary. Despite appearing in just 20 games during his college career, Lattimore wowed NFL scouts. As a redshirt sophomore in 2016, he started all 13 games and was named first-team All-Big Ten. He notched four interceptions on the year, one of which he returned for a touchdown. Lattimore figures to become a critical component of the Saints secondary.

VONN BELL

• Bell left onlookers impressed with his 2016 rookie campaign, alerting the NFL to his arrival through his hard-hitting play. Appearing in every game with 14 starts, he totaled 98 tackles (59 solo) both of which were second on the team. He also added four passes defensed, a sack, two forced fumbles, and a fumble recovery. Drafted by New Orleans in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft (61st overall), Bell was a consensus first-team All-American, was voted First-team All-Big Ten and was also a Jim Thorpe Award semifinalist following his junior season at Ohio State, when he started all 13 games he appeared in at safety, finishing with 65 tackles and two interceptions, one brought back for a TD, a fumble recovery and 11 passes defensed.

RAFAEL BUSH

• A Saint from 2012 to 2015, Bush returns to New Orleans after spending 2016 with Detroit. Last season, he appeared in all 16 games with four starts, recording 53 tackles (34 solo), a sack, three passes defensed, and two interceptions, one of which he returned for a touchdown vs. Jacksonville in Week 11. Over his first four seasons with the Saints, Bush appeared in 40 games with 14 starts, totaling 118 tackles (90 solo), eight passes defensed, an interception, a forced fumble, and three fumble recoveries.

MARCUS WILLIAMS

• Drafted in the second round of the 2017 NFL Draft, Williams is coming off a brilliant career at Utah, where he was a three-year starter. In 2016, he was named a second-team All-American by Pro Football Focus after starting all 11 games he played. He came in second in the Pac-12 in interceptions (five). The year prior, he started all 13 games as a free safety, again taking in five picks. His freshman year, he started six of 13 contests, notching an interception and two forced fumbles. During his sophomore and junior years, he was named a first-team Pac-12 All-Academic selection.

SPECIAL TEAMS

P THOMAS MORSTEAD

• Morstead has established himself as one of the National Football League’s top punters, where he’s posted career club-best 47.0 gross and 41.2 net punting averages. In 2016 over 16 games, he punted 57 times for 2,751 yards, putting 22 of his punts inside the 20-yard line, with five touchbacks. He posted a 48.3 gross average with a net average of 42.4.

FOLLOW THE LEADER

Thomas Morstead is the team’s all-time leader in both gross and net punting averages. His 43.2 net in 2012 ranks ninth all-time and he has the 10th and 11th-best. His career 41.2 net ranks third in NFL records since the statistic was first compiled in 1976.

K WIL LUTZ

- Lutz came to the Saints in Week One of 2016 and immediately made an impact. The rookie out of Georgia State was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in Weeks Six and Eight, after drilling a game-winning 52-yard field goal with 0:11 remaining vs. Carolina in the former and after converting all four field goal attempts, including a 53-yard attempt, during a 25-20 victory over Seattle in the latter. Lutz was 28-of-34 on field goals and 49-of-50 on PATs in 2016, and was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team for his efforts.

In a Week Three loss to the Atlanta Falcons, Lutz lined up for and converted a 57-yard field goal with no time remaining in the first half; that successful effort tied him for the third longest field goal in franchise history, behind only legends Tom Dempsey and Morten Andersen. Lutz took over kickoff duties from Morstead in 2016 and was successful in that area as well. On 89 kickoffs, Lutz forced touchbacks on 49 of them, allowing only 40 returns.
