LAST REGULAR SEASON MEETING

New York Jets 18, Tampa Bay 17 (September 8, 2013)

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — In the 2013 regular season opener, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers faced the New York Jets at MetLife Stadium, losing a tight game that came down to the final seconds of play. The Buccaneers received the opening kickoff, but were forced to punt following technical difficulties with quarterback Josh Freeman's helmet communication system, which caused successive delay-of-game penalties to be called on Tampa Bay. The Jets also punted away their opening possession after the Buccaneers defense kept them in check, but a facemask penalty during the punt return pinned Tampa Bay at its own five-yard line. Freeman then fumbled the ball out of bounds in the end zone, resulting in a safety for the Jets. Tampa Bay remained strong defensively, holding New York to punts until the Buccaneers' offense finally found a groove as Freeman led the team on a 44-yard drive that ended with a 17-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mike Williams. New York answered with a 43-yard field goal by kicker Nick Folk on its following possession, making the score 7-5 in favor of the Buccaneers. Following the Jets field goal, the Buccaneers punted, but immediately got the ball back after linebacker Mason Foster sacked New York quarterback Geno Smith, forcing a fumble that defensive tackle Akeem Spence recovered at the Jets 5. With the Tampa Bay offense back on the field, running back Doug Martin immediately punched the ball into the end zone, giving the Buccaneers the 14-5 advantage. Linebacker Lavonte David intercepted Smith on the ensuing drive, but, upon taking the field, Freeman was also picked off. That led to a Jets touchdown when Smith connected with tight end Kellen Winslow on a seven-yard score, bringing the game to 14-12 before halftime. Despite back-and-forth drives throughout the majority of the second half of play, the Jets took a late lead with just over five minutes left in the game, as Folk connected on a 30-yard field goal, making the score 15-14. The Buccaneers appeared to have the close victory in hand after kicker Rian Lindell hit a 37-yard field goal with 34 seconds left, but the Jets took possession of the ball and — aided by a personal foul call on an out-of-bounds hit to Smith as the quarterback scrambled for yardage — Folk proceeded to put the game away, 18-17, with a successful 48-yard attempt.

Dirk Koetter was named the 11th head coach in franchise history on January 15, 2016, after serving as offensive coordinator in 2015.

In his first season as an NFL head coach, Koetter led Tampa Bay to a 9-7 record, the team's most wins since 2010 and the second-most wins by any coach in their first season with the Buccaneers (Jon Gruden – 12).

Over the past two seasons, Koetter has helped guide the Buccaneers to one of the NFL's top offenses, ranking ninth in yards per game (361.1), having the sixth-highest third-down conversion rate (42.8 pct.) and totaling the sixth-most first downs (676) during that timeframe. The Buccaneers set a franchise record for third-down conversion rate in 2016 at 43.9 pct. Tampa Bay has posted consecutive seasons with at least 5,500 yards of offense for the first time in franchise history. The team has scored at least 340 points in each of the past two seasons, the first time they have reached that mark in back-to-back years. After scoring 342 points (sixth-most in team history) and 37 touchdowns (ninth-most) in 2015, the Buccaneers increased those numbers in 2016, scoring 354 points (fourth-most) and 41 touchdowns (third-most).

In 2016, Koetter continued to help with the development of quarterback Jameis Winston, who set single-season franchise records for passing yards (4,090) and passing touchdowns (28). Winston became the youngest player to throw for 50 touchdowns in NFL history and the first player in league history to throw for at least 4,000 yards in each of his first two seasons. Winston has the second-most passing yards by any player through their first two seasons and the fifth-most passing touchdowns.

Much of Winston's success came from throwing to wide receiver Mike Evans, who earned his first career Pro Bowl nod after recording 96 catches for 1,321 yards and 12 touchdowns. His 12 touchdown receptions tied Evans' own franchise record and tied for the second-most in the NFL in 2016, while his 1,321 receiving yards were the third-most in a season in team history and the fourth-most in the league last year. Evans' 96 receptions are the second-most ever by a Buccaneer and ranked sixth in the NFL last season.

The 2016 season also saw a breakout performance from tight end Cameron Brate, who tied for the NFL lead in touchdown catches by a tight end, with eight, which matched the highest mark ever by a Buccaneers tight end (Jimmie Giles, 1985). Brate was second on the team in both receptions (57) and receiving yards (660), both of which ranked in the top 10 in Buccaneers history for tight ends.

Koetter's first season also saw a defensive improvement, with the Buccaneer recording 29 takeaways, the third-highest mark in the NFL and an improvement from 23 the previous season. After allowing 26.1 points per game in 2015 (26th in the league), the 2016 team allowed only 23.1 points per game (15th in the league). Tampa Bay punter Bryan Anger also had the best punting season in team history in 2016, setting franchise records for punts inside the 20 (37 – tied for the third-most in the NFL) and net punting average (42.7, the fourth-best mark in the NFL).

In his first season with Tampa Bay (2015), Koetter helped pilot one of the most successful offenses in the NFL and one of the best in team history. The team set the franchise records for total yards (6,014 – 357.0 per game), while posting the second-most rushing yards (2,162 – 135.1 per game), the then-second-most passing yards (3,852 – 240.8 per game), along with the then-fifth-most total points (342 – 21.4 per game). Tampa Bay ranked fifth in the NFL in yards per game (375.9), fifth in rushing yards per game (135.1) and second in the league in rush average (4.75). It marked the first time in franchise history that the Buccaneers have finished in the top five in total offense.

Much of Tampa Bay's offensive success in 2015 came at the hands of rookie quarterback Jameis Winston, who accounted for 28 total touchdowns (22 passing, six rushing). Koetter also helped guide Winston to 4,042 passing yards, which were the second-most in a single season in team history and the third-most by a rookie in NFL history. Winston's 22 passing touchdowns were tied for the fourth-most in a single season in team history and the fourth-most by a rookie in NFL history. His six rushing touchdowns and 28 combined touchdowns were the most in a single season by a Buccaneers quarterback, while his 28 total touchdowns were tied for the third-most by a rookie in NFL history.

Prior to Koetter's arrival, the Buccaneers ranked 29th in rushing and tied for 29th in sacks allowed in 2014. In 2015, under Koetter's guidance, the unit completed an impressive turnaround. Despite starting two rookies on the offensive line, Tampa Bay still managed to block for the NFL's second-leading rusher (Doug Martin – 1,402 yards) and tied for the fourth-fewest sacks in the league. While Martin was a large part of the team's success running the ball, he was aided by running back Charles Sims, who totaled 1,090 scrimmage yards (107 rushes for 529 yards, 51 catches for 561 yards). Sims averaged 6.9 yards per touch, the most by any player in the NFL with at least 150 touches since 2011 (Darren Sproles in 2011, 7.6 avg.). Martin and Sims' combined 2,566 yards from scrimmage were the most by a running back duo in the NFL in 2015 and set a franchise record for backfield teammates.

Koetter also played a key role in revamping the Buccaneers' passing game. Part of the team's success passing the ball came from targeting top wide receiver Mike Evans, who caught 74 passes for 1,206 yards. His 1,206 yards are the seventh-most in a single season in team history and stood as the 11th-most in the league in 2015. Sims' 561 receiving yards were the fourth-most by a running back in the NFL in 2015, while his four receiving touchdowns set a franchise record and tied for the second-most in the league by a running back.

DIRK KOETTER

Koetter joined the Buccaneers after three seasons working as the offensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons (2012-14). During his three seasons with Atlanta, the team cumulatively ranked second in the NFL in completion percentage (67.4), third in third-down conversion percentage (44.1), fourth in passing yards (277.2 per game), ninth in passing touchdowns (86), ninth in passer rating (93.9), 10th in points (24.0 per game) and 10th in total yardage (363.5 per game), while posting the second-fewest penalties (243) and penalty yards (2,043), seventh-fewest turnovers (69) and the ninth-lowest interception percentage (2.4) in the league. Koetter was part of the Falcons staff that went 13-3 in 2012 and played in the NFC Championship Game.

Under Koetter, Falcons quarterback Matt Ryan posted three of the four highest passing yardage seasons in franchise history to that point, as well as three of the five highest completion percentage seasons. In 2012, Ryan set then-franchise records and personal bests in passing yards (4,719), completion percentage (68.6) and passing touchdowns (32), while recording the second-highest passer rating mark in Falcons history (99.1). Atlanta wide receivers also flourished under Koetter, with Julio Jones setting a then-franchise record and ranking third in the NFL in receiving yards in 2014 with 1,593 yards. In those three seasons, the Falcons had a different player lead the team in receiving yards each season (Roddy White, 2012; Harry Douglas, 2013; Jones, 2014).

While Koetter was in charge of the Falcons' offense, he coached three players to Pro Bowl appearances (Julio Jones, 2012, 2014; Tony Gonzalez, 2012-13; Matt Ryan, 2012), with Gonzalez earning first-team All-Pro honors in 2012. In his first season with Koetter in 2012, Gonzalez set a franchise record for receiving yards by a tight end, recording 93 catches for 930 yards – the most he had recorded in either category since 2008. That same season, Jones and White combined for 2,549 receiving yards, the most by a duo in the NFL.

Prior to joining the Falcons, Koetter spent five seasons as the offensive coordinator of the Jacksonville Jaguars (2007-11). In his five years with the Jaguars, the team cumulatively ranked third in the NFL in rushing yards (132.0 per game) and sixth in rushing average (4.41). Koetter's Jacksonville offenses also showed a penchant for taking care of the football, tallying the seventh-fewest turnovers in the league during that time.

Koetter had immediate success in Jacksonville, with his 2007 team setting franchise records in points (25.7 per game, sixth in the NFL) and total offense (357 yards per game, seventh in the NFL). In his first season as the starter, quarterback David Garrard ranked third in the NFL and set a franchise record in passer rating (102.2), throwing a league-low three interceptions, while leading the team to a Wild Card playoff berth and a win over the Pittsburgh Steelers. In 2008, Garrard threw for a career-best 3,620 yards and in 2010 he tossed 23 touchdowns, a career high and a franchise record.

While with the Jaguars, Koetter coached four different players to six Pro Bowl selections, including running back Maurice Jones-Drew, who earned three trips to the Pro Bowl and led the NFL in rushing in 2010 en route to earning an All-Pro selection. Koetter also helped tight end Mercedes Lewis earn a Pro Bowl berth following the 2010 season, when Lewis caught 10 touchdown passes, then tied for the most in a season in Jaguars history.

Before joining the Jaguars, Koetter spent 22 years at the collegiate level, the final six as the head coach at Arizona State (2001-06). In his six seasons with the Sun Devils, Koetter led the team to four bowl games, posting a 40-34 record. Working as both the head coach and offensive coordinator, he helped Arizona State average nearly 30 points per game over six seasons, while ranking in the top 20 in the nation in passing offense in five of his six years. In addition, five of the six Sun Devil teams during Koetter's tenure produced a 1,000-yard receiver and quarterbacks that threw for 20 or more touchdowns in five of six seasons.

Koetter's first head coaching opportunity came at Boise State, where he spent three seasons (1998-2000), finishing with a 26-10 record and two consecutive bowl wins. He was a two-time Big West Coach of the Year and two-time conference champion.

A native of Pocatello, Idaho, Koetter played collegiately at Idaho State (1978-81), helping his team to a Division I-AA national championship as a senior. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education and earned a master's in athletic administration a year later. After getting his master's, he became the head coach at Highland (Idaho) High School, where he worked from 1983-84, going 19-4 and winning the 1984 state championship.

In 1985, Koetter worked as the offensive coordinator at San Francisco State and from 1986-88 was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Texas El-Paso. He then served as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Missouri from 1989-93 and offensive coordinator at Boston College (1994-95) and Oregon (1996-97).

Koetter, 58, and his wife, Kim, have two daughters, Kaylee and Kendra, and two sons, Derek and Davis.

TODD BOWLES

Todd Bowles is in his third season as head coach of the New York Jets, the franchise where he began his NFL coaching career in 2000. Over his first two seasons, the Jets defensive unit ranked in the top five in rushing yards per game, third-down conversion rate and red zone touchdown percentage.

Bowles led the Jets to a 10-6 mark in 2015. The team finished 10th in the league in total offense and fourth in total defense, one of just five teams in the league with a top 10 finish on both sides of the ball. The Jets also established a new franchise record mark for the fewest rushing yards allowed per game in a single season.

Prior to rejoining the Jets, Bowles served as the defensive coordinator for the Cardinals (2013-14), earning Assistant Coach of the Year recognition in 2014 from both the Pro Football Writers of America and The Associated Press, the first ever recipient of the AP award.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Bowles coached in Philadelphia (2012), Miami (2008-11), Dallas (2005-07) and Cleveland (2001-04) after his start with the Jets (2000). With the Eagles, he began the season coaching the team's defensive backs for the first six games before being appointed interim defensive coordinator for the final 10 contests.

Before his time with the Eagles, he spent four seasons with the Dolphins, serving as the team's assistant head coach/secondary. In 2011, Bowles was named interim head coach for the final three games, leading the club to a 2-1 record.

Prior to his time with Miami, he reunited with Head Coach Bill Parcells (who, as the director of football operations for the Jets in 2000 hired Bowles to his first coaching job in the NFL) as the secondary coach for the Cowboys from 2005-07.

From 2001-04, Bowles was a defensive assistant for Cleveland, serving as the secondary coach (2004) and defensive nickel package coach (2001-03).

Before beginning his NFL coaching career, Bowles was recruited by his former Redskins teammate, quarterback Doug Williams, despite never having coached at any level, to serve as the defensive coordinator/secondary coach at Morehouse College in 1997 and then as the defensive coordinator/secondary coach at Grambling State from 1998-99.

After his retirement as a player, Bowles spent two seasons (1995- 96) with the Green Bay Packers player personnel department under General Manager Ron Wolf.

Despite going undrafted in the 1986 NFL Draft, Bowles, the four-year letterman and team captain out of Temple (1982-85), played in 117 regular-season games at cornerback and safety and registered 15 interceptions and seven fumble recoveries in his eight-year career playing for the Washington Redskins (1986-90, 1992-93) and the San Francisco 49ers (1991).

The New Jersey native, Bowles grew up 22 miles from the Atlantic Health Jets Training Center. He and his wife, Taneka, have three sons, Todd Jr., Troy and Tyson.

Per Stats, Inc., Baker has 64.5 combined quarterback knockdowns and hurries over the past two seasons. Dating back to 2015, Baker is one of six NFL players to post 100+ tackles, 9+ sacks, and 5+ forced fumbles, joining Khalil Mack, Von Miller, Carlos Dunlap, Melvin Ingram and Brandon Graham.

WR DeSean Jackson comes to Tampa Bay after spending the past three seasons with the Washington Redskins (2014-16). Prior to his time with Washington, Jackson spent six seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles (2008-13). In his nine-year career, Jackson has started 123-of-126 regular season games played, catching 498 passes for 8,819 yards and 46 touchdowns.

A three-time Pro Bowl selection (2009, 2010, 2013) and a 2009 second-team Associated Press All-Pro selection (kick returner), Jackson's 8,819 receiving yards are the fifth-most since he entered the league in 2008 (Calvin Johnson, Brandon Marshall, Larry Fitzgerald, Andre Johnson). Among players with 100 career games played, Jackson ranks 15th in league annals with a 70.0 receiving yards per game average. A veteran of postseason play, Jackson has also started all seven playoff contests he has played, catching 21 passes for 338 yards and two touchdowns.

Known for his big-play ability, Jackson is one of five players since the 1970 merger to account for 26 career touchdowns of 50+ yards, joining Jerry Rice (36), Randy Moss (29), Terrell Owens (26) and Steve Smith (26). Only Rice (23) has more than Jackson's 22 touchdowns of 60+ yards.

Since 2008, Jackson's 112 receptions of 25+ yards, 37 receptions of 50+ yards and 17.7 yards per reception average (min. 60 career catches) all lead the NFL. The 37 catches of 50+ yards are 14 more than any other player during that span, while his five 1,000-yard receiving seasons and 32 100-yard receiving games are each tied for the fifth-most. Additionally, his per catch averages in 2010 (22.5) and 2014 (20.9) rank second and fourth, respectively, among all single seasons over that nine-year period.

Ward originally entered the NFL as a second-round pick (38th overall) of the Cleveland Browns in 2010. ## BUCCANEERS TO KICK OFF SUNDAY'S SALUTE TO SERVICE GAME WITH $25,000 DONATION TO CENTRAL FLORIDA USO

This Sunday, Nov. 12, fans will join together in an annual tradition at Raymond James Stadium to honor those who have sacrificed and served our nation: the Buccaneers' Salute to Service Game, presented by USAA. Prior to the team's 1:00 p.m. kickoff versus the New York Jets, Glazer Family Foundation Co-President Darcie Glazer Kassewitz will present USO Central Florida with a $25,000 donation to support its programs and services. USO Central Florida serves as the team's primary charitable conduit to the local military community, working closely with the Buccaneers on a wide variety of military appreciation initiatives. Since 2013, the Bucs Care Foundation has donated a total of $125,000 to USO Central Florida, one of more than 160 USO centers worldwide that deliver high-quality programs and services to men and women in uniform.

On Sunday morning, the Buccaneers and USO Central Florida will once again host the USO Central Florida Military Appreciation Tailgate. The free pre-game tailgate experience in Parking Lot 5, between Gates C and D outside Raymond James Stadium, will host more than 500 pre-registered military members and their families as they gear up for kickoff. Note: All pre-registered guests who have received USO Central Florida Tailgate tickets must still present the tailgate ticket as well as their military ID (U.S. Department of Defense Card, U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs Card, or DD-214) to attend.

Throughout the day, the Buccaneers will host a variety of military appreciation events, including:

Pre-game Ceremonies, presented by USAA: Player Introductions, Color Guard, National Anthem and Flyover: When the Buccaneers are introduced, Technical Sergeant Mark Butterfield, an Aerospace Repair Craftsman assigned to the 927th Maintenance Squadron at MacDill Air Force Base, will lead them out of the tunnel. Tech Sergeant Butterfield was most recently deployed to Incirlik Air Base, Turkey in support of Operation INHERENT RESOLVE. While deployed, he diagnosed and prevented a potentially catastrophic in-flight emergency on board a KC-135 tanker aircraft, enabling aircrews to maintain air superiority and protect our U.S. and allied forces on the ground. . . The Buccaneers will be welcomed to the field by a flag team comprised of 50 representatives from USAA. . . US Special Operations Command Color Guard will present the colors, and the national anthem will be performed by The United States Army Chorus. . . A pre-game flyover will be carried out by four F-22 jets from the 525th Fighter Squadron in Anchorage, Alaska.

Honorary Guest of the Game (Coin Toss): Major General Edward Dorman III will serve as the Buccaneers' honorary Guest of the Game. Major General Dorman III will join the Buccaneers team captains at midfield for the coin toss. USAA has supplied a special Military Appreciation Coin that will be used for the toss.

Salute to Service Moment, presented by USAA: During a break in play, the public address announcer will ask all military members in attendance to stand and be honored for the game's Salute to Service Moment, presented by USAA, the Official Military Appreciation Sponsor of the Buccaneers.

Buccaneers Salute to Service Suite: At every Buccaneers home game, the team honors a distinguished group of military members in the Salute to Service Suite. Fans are encouraged to join players and coaches during a break in play in the second quarter to thank local servicemen and servicewomen for their sacrifices, as they are recognized aboard the Pirate Ship in Raymond James Stadium. On Sunday, the Buccaneers will recognize this year's General H Norman Schwarzkopf Military Family of the Year Award recipients.

Front Row Fans: Over 200 military and their families will enjoy the game from exclusive end zone seats at Raymond James Stadium, compliments of Buccaneers players and coaches, as part of the Front Row Fans program.

Halftime: During the game's halftime intermission, the Buccaneers will host a Military Enlistment Ceremony for 200 inductees of all service branches, conducted by Lieutenant General Joseph Osterman. The team will also recognize honorary flag runner Tech Sergeant Butterfield and five airmen from the 927th Maintenance crew from MacDill Air Force Base during halftime.

Nominee for the 2017 NFL Salute to Service Award, presented by USAA: Buccaneers defensive tackle Clinton McDonald is once again the team's nominee for the NFL's Salute to Service Award, presented by USAA. With a deep family history of military service, including his grandfather who served in the Korean War; his father, a former Air Force engineer and Vietnam War veteran; his uncle, also a Vietnam veteran; and his brother, currently active duty Air Force, it is no surprise that a passion for supporting military families is at the heart of McDonald's community outreach.

McDonald, a proud USAA member, was selected as a 2017 NFL spokesperson in the "USAA Member Voices" commercial campaign, as he believes the company shares the same qualities he stands for: loyalty, honor, and respect. Being raised in a military household, the same core principles are instilled in his family. For the past two years, McDonald has served as an honorary guest speaker at the Buccaneers General H Norman Schwarzkopf Military Family of the Year Awards at One Buccaneer Place. McDonald's outreach has also included participating in events at James A. Haley Veterans' Hospital and visiting troops at MacDill Air Force Base, amongst other outreach efforts.

Finalists for the Salute to Service Award presented by USAA will be announced in January 2018, and the recipient will be recognized during the week of Super Bowl LII in Minneapolis. USAA is the Official Military Appreciation Sponsor of the NFL.

Additional Salute to Service Game features:

- Players wearing helmet decals honoring military branches as well as the NFL Salute to Service ribbon;
- Salute to Service ribbon footballs, gloves, goal post wraps, pylons, wall banners and the words NFL Salute to Service written in the back of the end zone;
- Camouflage equipment for players, coaches and sideline personnel;
- Camouflage metal lapel pins for coaches and team executives; and a Salute to Service coin for the coin toss.

Game-worn Salute to Service merchandise and footballs will be auctioned at NFL.com/Auction. Special camouflage merchandise will be available at NFLShop.com and in select stadium retail stores, with 100 percent of the NFL's proceeds donated to the league's military non-profit partners. The NFL does not profit from the sale or auction of Salute to Service merchandise. For more information, visit nfl.com/salute.

STRENGTH OF THE SOUTH

Over the previous 15 seasons, one could argue that the toughest division in the NFL is the NFC South. Since realignment in 2002, the NFC South is the only division to not only have each of its teams make a conference championship appearance, but have all four teams make it to the Super Bowl. The NFC East, NFC West and AFC West are the only other divisions to have all four teams earn a division championship since realignment.

The NFC South has also been represented nine times in a conference championship game, the best in the NFC and the second-most in the NFL. The NFC South is also tied for the second-most appearances in the Super Bowl (5), tied for the most by any NFC division. In 2016, The NFC South became the first division since realignment to have all four of its teams play in the Super Bowl, with Tampa Bay (XXXVII), Atlanta (LI), Carolina (XXXVIII & 50) and New Orleans (XLIV) all making it.

SUPER BOWL APPEARANCES & WINS SINCE 2002

Division	Appearances	Wins
AFC East	6	4
NFC South	5	2
NFC West	5	1
AFC North	4	3
NFC East	3	2
AFC South	2	1
NFC North	2	1
AFC West	3	1

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP GAME APPEARANCES SINCE 2002

Division	Number
AFC East	12
NFC South	9
NFC West	8
AFC North	7
NFC East	6
NFC North	6
AFC South	5
AFC West	5

The NFC South is also one of only two divisions to have more than one team win a Super Bowl (Tampa Bay, New Orleans), since 2002, joining the AFC North. The NFC South has had a very even split of division champions, with all four of the teams having captured at least three division titles.

NFC SOUTH DIVISION TITLES SINCE 2002

Team	Number
Carolina	5
Atlanta	4
Tampa Bay	3
New Orleans	3

In 2010, the NFC South recorded another impressive feat, as they were the only division to have three teams finish with a winning record, with three of the four teams finish with a double-digit win total (Atlanta – 13-3; New Orleans – 11-5; Tampa Bay – 10-6). It marked just the second time, dating back to realignment in 2002, that a division has had three teams with double-digit wins in the same season (also the AFC South in 2007). The feat was matched by the NFC North in 2012, the NFC West in 2013 and the AFC North in 2014.

In 2008, the NFC South again showed its overall strength, as it finished as one of only three divisions in the League to have three of its four teams with a record of 9-7 or better (also AFC East and NFC East) and is one of two divisions to have all of its teams at 8-8 or better (also NFC East). The NFC South also finished with a remarkable 27-5 overall home record in 2008, the best combined home winning percentage by a division in NFL history (.844), with the next best division last season, the NFC East, holding an 23-9 record at home. The South was also a near-perfect 11-1 at home when facing other South division opponents in 2008. The Bucs contributed significantly to that mark, as they finished 6-2 at home, winning their first six games at Raymond James Stadium in 2008.

BEST COMBINED HOME RECORD BY A DIVISION IN NFL HISTORY

2008	NFC South	27-5	.844

BUCCANEERS AND THE NFL CELEBRATE 10 YEARS OF GETTING KIDS ACTIVE AND HEALTHY THROUGH NFL PLAY 60

This fall, the NFL celebrates 10 years of getting kids active and healthy through NFL PLAY 60. As part of the celebrations, and as kids get back to sports, NFL teams will host PLAY 60-themed games and community activities during Weeks 3 and 4 of the 2017 season. From building fitness zones and playgrounds to hosting youth football clinics, NFL teams will help members of their community and children of all abilities get active for 60 minutes a day all year long.

In August, Jameis Winston hosted a Bucs Academy PLAY 60 clinic, welcoming 100 students from the team's Bucs Academy initiative to training camp where children exercised and enjoyed football drills after practice.

On October 1, when the Tampa Bay Buccaneers hosted the New York Giants at Raymond James Stadium, the organization celebrated PLAY 60 throughout the game. Local "Fuel Up to PLAY 60" Student Ambassadors from the Florida Dairy Council participated in pre-game activities, serving as honorary guests of the game during the coin toss and honorary flag runners to lead the Buccaneers onto the field. During halftime, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers also hosted two youth football games on-field. In addition, the Buccaneers and NFL PLAY 60 games throughout the league featured: team-customized PLAY 60 eye black for community groups and NFL PLAY 60 field stencils, banners and goal post wraps around the stadium.

"For the past decade, NFL PLAY 60 has been an important tool in ensuring that youth get the recommended amount of daily physical activity. It's important that young fans understand the benefits of exercise and have the resources to build a foundation for a lifetime of good health," said NFL Commissioner ROGER GOODELL. "We are proud of the achievements over the past decade and look forward to advancing progress through the implementation of innovative programs and new play spaces for youth in partnership with our teams, players and partner organizations."

Since 2007, the NFL has committed more than $350 million to youth health and fitness through PLAY 60 programming, grants and media time for public service announcements. With the help of NFL teams, players and partner organizations, more than 2,000 PLAY 60 events are held annually, and more than 250 NFL Youth Fitness Zones have been constructed nationwide, providing millions of kids with access and resources to play. Thousands of NFL players have served as PLAY 60 Ambassadors and dedicate their time to getting youth in their communities more active through youth football clinics, school assemblies, PSAs and other community outreach activities.

Fans are encouraged to join the PLAY 60 celebration and show how they get active for 60 minutes a day using the hashtag #PLAY60 and tagging @NFLPLAY60 on Twitter for a chance to be featured on NFL.com/PLAY60.

On Sunday, the Buccaneers will once again host local youth football teams for a halftime scrimmage on the field at Raymond James Stadium.

In May 2017, linebacker Cameron Lynch, safeties Keith Tandy and Chris Conte, and defensive tackle Clinton McDonald visited Bing Elementary School to congratulate students and teachers for winning the 2017 Buccaneers PLAY 60 Challenge

BUCS CARE TREASURE CHESTS FINISH AT THE 50, POWERED BY JABIL

On Saturday, October 7, nearly 4,000 participants enjoyed perfect Florida weather for the fifth annual Bucs Care Treasure Chests Finish at the 50, powered by Jabil. The annual event has become an October tradition for the Buccaneers and helps kick off the NFL's A Crucial Catch: Intercept Cancer initiative in support of the team's commitment to raise funds for patient services and breast cancer research in the Tampa Bay area.

Glazer Family Foundation Co-President
Darcie Glazer Kassewitz

Buccaneers defensive end Will Gholston served as honorary starter for the race and was joined by his mother, Dawn Ward, a breast cancer survivor. "My mother and mentors of mine are breast cancer survivors and it's important to me to get the message out," said Gholston "This is a great cause and I am happy to support others in the fight and to bring more awareness."

Whether in honor of families, in honor of friends, or in honor of the Tampa Bay community, each participant shared one goal: Finish at the 50-yard line of Raymond James Stadium. This year's event featured the fan-favorite 5K, a new 1-Mile Fun Run and a 10K, with every participant running out of the tunnel and onto the field of their Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Every step offered more resources, awareness and hope for patients and families.

Glazer Family Foundation Co-President, Darcie Glazer Kassewitz, spoke on the continuing need for research and education. "Every two minutes a woman will be told she has breast cancer," said Glazer Kassewitz. "Today is meaningful to my family and we're happy to be able to support everybody on their path."

The Treasure Chests race has now contributed over $180,000 from the Bucs Care Foundation with funds being utilized for breast cancer research and patient services through the American Cancer Society, Florida Cancer Specialists Foundation, Moffit Cancer Center and Florida Hospital Foundation.

In addition to the race, each entry included a game ticket to watch the Buccaneers host the Carolina Panthers on October 29 for the Crucial Catch game. The first 500 race entries get even closer to the action, as they will take part in an on-field halftime experience. The game will feature pink game apparel worn by players, coaches and referees.

The Bucs Care Foundation is focused on enhancing the lives of Bay Area residents through engaging programming and initiatives; including breast cancer awareness with the annual Treasure Chest Finish at the 50: 5K, 10K, Fun Run & Corporate Challenge.
