TEXANS TAKE ON CARDINALS IN WEEK 11

The Houston Texans (3-6) return home to face the Arizona Cardinals (4-5) in Week 11 for the team's third matchup with an NFC West team this season. Kickoff at NRG Stadium is scheduled for noon CT on FOX as the team celebrates Homecoming presented by Palais Royal. At halftime, the Texans will induct Andre Johnson as the inaugural member of the Texans Ring of Honor. The former wide receiver spent 12 seasons with the team and signed a one-day contract on Wednesday, April 19 to officially retire as a member of the Texans. Johnson earned seven Pro Bowl berths with Houston and remains the team's all-time leader in numerous categories, including receptions (1,012), receiving yards (13,597) and receiving touchdowns (64).

The Texans are coming off a 33-7 loss on the road to the Los Angeles Rams in Week 11. Offensively, WR DeAndre Hopkins recorded his third 100-yard receiving game of the season and the 16th of his career. Hopkins finished with a team-high seven receptions for 111 yards (15.9 avg.) and passed Johnson (371 from 2003-07) for the most receptions through a player's first five seasons in franchise history (375). Hopkins also has the most receiving yards (5,290) and receiving touchdowns (31) through a player's first five seasons in Texans history.

Houston scored on a 26-yard touchdown pass from QB Tom Savage to WR Bruce Ellington, which marked the team's ninth touchdown reception of 20-or-more yards this season, tied for the NFL lead with the Lions and Jets. WR Will Fuller V has four, Hopkins has three and Ellington has two, which ties a single-season team high (nine in 2011 and 2015). Savage finished 18-of-36 passing (50.0%) for 221 yards, one touchdown, two interceptions and a 55.4 passer rating.

RB Lamar Miller continued his streak of 60-or-more scrimmage yards in every game this season and is one of three players with 60-or-more scrimmage yards in each of his team's games in 2017 (Saints RB Mark Ingram and Chiefs RB Kareem Hunt). Miller has 60-or-more scrimmage yards in 11 straight games dating back to Week 14 of the 2016 season (missed Weeks 16-17 last season), which is the second-longest active streak in the NFL (Ingram – 12 games).

Defensively, Houston was led by OLB/DE Jadeveon Clowney, who finished with three total tackles (three solo), 1.0 sack for a loss of 11 yards, three tackles for loss and one quarterback hit. Clowney tied his single-season career high in sacks with 6.0 (2016) and has 12 tackles for loss this season, which is the most in the AFC and second-most in the NFL. OLB Brennan Scarlett recorded the first two sacks of his NFL career on the same drive and became the fourth Texan with 2.0-or-more sacks in a game this season, which is tied for most in the NFL. P Shane Lechler also continued his strong season as he passed Sean Landeta (1,401) for the second-most punts in NFL history (1,403) and became the franchise's all-time leader in punts inside the 20 with 137 (Chad Stanley had 135 from 2002-06).

The Cardinals are coming off a 22-16 loss at home to the Seattle Seahawks and will face Houston in the regular season for the first time since 2013. The Texans and Cardinals haven't met in Houston in the regular season since 2005.

ANDRE JOHNSON NOTES

FROM HIS PEERS

Texans Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager Rick Smith:

"I read a quote that said, 'Greatness isn't for the chosen few. Greatness is for the few that choose.' Andre Johnson chose to be great. He chose to show up every day and work the way he did. He chose to work the way in every meeting, every practice. He chose to lead, he chose to follow. He chose to represent this organization, this city, his family and himself in a way that every other player who wears our uniform will be measured by."

Texans Head Coach Bill O'Brien:

"Andre, just personally meant a lot to me. He was a true professional. He worked very hard. Very smart, very detailed guy. Team guy. Players had a tremendous amount of respect for him. I remember when he came back into the team meeting room when he had held out for a little bit in the minicamp there, I think they gave him a standing ovation. I mean, it was incredible, just the respect that the players had for him. I had respect for him just from where I had been in New England. I can remember Bill Belichick standing up in a team meeting before 2009 when we played them out here, New England, just reading off his stats and what he's meant to this organization and the respect that he has around the league."

Texans WR DeAndre Hopkins:

"The way I go about every day, I would say honestly is due to Andre Johnson. The way I wake up and the mindset that I have going to work and approaching every day like it's my last day to do what I love is from watching him. That's the way he approached every day. He came to work and the attitude that he had was an attitude that if you didn't learn from it, you were doing yourself wrong. Not just me as a receiver, but everybody on the team. Just his attitude and his mentality, no matter what the score is, no matter what's going on around him, he's still going to go out and do his job the best he can. Nobody to me is more deserving in this franchise to have their name up there than Andre Johnson. The loyalty that he showed this organization and the loyalty that he showed his teammates throughout his years here, that's a pro's pro. His attitude, the way he approached every day. The way he embraced this city and the way this city embraced him, I don't think anyone in this city would expect anybody else's name to be up there before Andre. I can't thank him enough for everything that he showed me. I'm pretty sure I got on his nerves some days asking him questions over and over but it's only helped me. Hopefully, I can be his successor and be up there beside him."

Former Texans and Broncos Head Coach Gary Kubiak:

"Congratulations, what a tremendous honor for you and your family. You're a tremendous player and a tremendous person for the Texans. You taught them what a great player was. You taught a young organization what a great player was and what a great teammate was. More importantly, what a great person you were as well. You had tremendous accomplishments throughout your career. You're a Hall of Fame football player and a Hall of Fame person."

Former NFL WR and Hall of Famer Michael Irvin:

"His ability raised up other people to make them play great. What made him so difficult for everybody to cover is that he was that pinnacle, the perfect matchup. He was a big receiver that had the speed and he was incredible. Fast enough to get on top of you and beat you with the deep ball, but he was big enough and crafty enough to run every day down routes and beat you that way. He was a matchup nightmare for anybody."

DRE IN THE COMMUNITY

Andre Johnson's impact was not just on the field for the Houston Texans. The former wide receiver showcased an unwavering dedication to his adopted community of Houston. Johnson was a well-known community leader and advocate for youth off the field. The same year he was drafted by the Texans in 2003, he founded the Andre Johnson Foundation as a way to give back to the community and showcase the positive lifestyles and contribution of professional athletes. Over his career in Houston, Johnson established programs that make a difference in the lives of youth focusing on children from single-parent homes. SCORING MACHINE

HOPKINS

Texans WR DeAndre Hopkins is first in the NFL in receiving touchdowns with eight in nine games this season.

Hopkins scored a touchdown in five straight games (Weeks 4-9), becoming the first player in franchise history to do so and the only player in the NFL with a touchdown reception in five straight games this season. Hopkins is the first NFL player with a receiving touchown in five straight games since Dolphins WR Kenny Stills did it from Week 14 of the 2016 season to Week 2 of the 2017 season.

Hopkins's eight receiving touchdowns in 2017 are tied for the third-most in a single season in franchise history. The franchise record is 11 by Hopkins in 2015.

In Week 9 vs. Indianapolis, Hopkins finished with a team-high six receptions for 86 yards (14.3 avg.) and one touchdown. He caught a 34-yard touchdown pass from QB Tom Savage in the fourth quarter that was Savage's first touchdown pass of his career.

In Week 5 vs. Kansas City, Hopkins finished with four receptions for 52 yards (13.0 avg.) and three touchdowns. Hopkins tied a franchise single-game high and set a single-game career-high with three touchdown receptions, becoming the second player in team history with three touchdown receptions in the same game, joining Andre Johnson in Week 9 of the 2013 season vs. Indianapolis. Hopkins' 18 points scored are tied for the second-most points scored in a single game in franchise history and tied for the most by a non-kicker in team history. Hopkins also tied for the second-most points scored in a game in the NFL this season and tied for first among non-kickers.

Hopkins has 31 career touchdown receptions and had seven in a five-game stretch (Weeks 4-9), the most in a five-game stretch by any player in Texans history. Hopkins also has the most receiving touchdowns by a Texan through 10 weeks in team history. He passed Owen Daniels (29) for the second-most receiving touchdowns in franchise history and third-most overall touchdowns in team history. He also passed Daniels (174) for the seventh-most total points scored in team history.

Houston's single-season franchise record for defensive touchdowns is five, which was set in 2004 and 2014. Their 2017 total (four) is the most through 10 weeks in team history.

The Texans single-season franchise record for interceptions returned for a touchdown is four, which was set in 2014, and their 2017 total (two) is tied for the second-most through 10 weeks in franchise history (three in 2012). Rookie ILB Dylan Cole had a 25-yarder in Week 4 vs. Tennessee off Titans QB Marcus Mariota and CB Johnathan Joseph had a career-long 82-yarder in Week 6 vs. Cleveland off Browns QB Kevin Hogan, which was also the fourth-longest interception return in team history.

SCARLETT FEVER

SCARLETT

In Week 10 vs. Los Angeles, Texans OLB Brennan Scarlett finished tied for second on the team with four total tackles (four solo), 2.0 sacks for a loss of 11 total yards, two quarterback hits and three tackles for loss.

Scarlett recorded the first two sacks of his NFL career on the same drive in the third quarter, sacking Rams QB Jared Goff for a loss of six yards and then for a loss of five yards just five plays later to force the Rams to punt.

Scarlett became the fourth Texan with 2.0-or-more sacks in a game this season, joining OLB/DE Jadeveon Clowney (2.0 at New England in Week 3), ILB Benardrick McKinney (2.0 at Cincinnati in Week 2) and S Eddie Pleasant (2.0 vs. Indianapolis in Week 9). The Steelers are the only other team in the NFL that have had four different players record 2.0-or-more sacks in a game this season.

BACK IN FULLER FORCE

FULLER V

Texans WR Will Fuller V missed Weeks 1-3 with a shoulder injury but has compiled 17 receptions for 326 yards (19.2 avg.) and seven touchdowns in six games since his return. He is second in the NFL with seven receiving touchdowns in 2017, trailing only teammate WR DeAndre Hopkins (eight).

Fuller scored a touchdown on seven of his first 11 receptions this year. Since 1991, no player in the NFL has reached seven receiving touchdowns on fewer receptions in a season. He is also the first player in franchise history with six-or-more receiving touchdowns in a four-game span (Week 4-8).

Fuller became the fourth player in team history with a touchdown reception in four straight games, joining Hopkins (had a five-game streak this season), Arian Foster (2014) and Andre Johnson (2007 and 2010-11). Fuller has three games with two-or-more receiving touchdowns this season, tied for the most games in a season with multiple touchdown receptions in franchise history (A.Johnson in 2009 and Hopkins in 2015). Additionally, Fuller has a team-high four receiving touchdowns of 20-or-more yards this season (Hopkins has three and Bruce Ellington has two).

In Week 8 at Seattle, Fuller finished with five receptions for 125 yards (25.0 avg.) and two touchdowns. It was his third 100-yard receiving game of his career and first this season. Fuller finished Week 5 with two receptions for 57 yards (28.5 avg.) and two touchdowns. In Week 4, Fuller finished with four receptions for 35 yards (8.8 avg.) and two touchdowns.

He became the second player in team history to record multiple touchdown receptions in consecutive games in Weeks 4 and 5 (A.Johnson - 2013) and the ninth player in franchise history to record multiple touchdown receptions in the same game.

Fuller has already set a single-season career high for touchdown receptions this season. The second-year player from Notre Dame now has 64 receptions, 961 receiving yards (15.0 avg.) and nine receiving touchdowns since the Texans drafted him 21st overall in the 2016 NFL Draft.

TURNOVER DIFFERENTIAL

Since 2015, the Texans have won all 13 games in which they had a positive turnover differential. The 100% winning percentage in those games is tied with Denver for the best in the league over that span.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE

PLEASANT

In Week 9 vs. Indianapolis, S Eddie Pleasant finished with four total tackles (three solo), 2.0 sacks for a loss of 21 total yards, two quarterback hits, one tackle for loss and one forced fumble. Pleasant is the seventh defensive back in NFL history with 2.0-or-more sacks, a forced fumble and a tackle for loss in the same game and the first since Broncos S T.J. Ward in Week 4 of 2015 vs. Minnesota.

Pleasant recorded a sack on Colts QB Jacoby Brissett on back-to-back defensive plays. He became the first defensive back to record 2.0-or-more sacks in a game for the Texans since Dunta Robinson had 2.0 in Week 14 of 2004 vs. the Colts and the first safety with 2.0-or-more sacks in a game in team history.

Pleasant's 2.0 sacks in 2017 rank as the second-most by a safety in a single season in team history and are the first two full sacks of his career. He now has 2.5 career sacks since entering the league in 2012.

Pleasant sacked and forced a fumble on Brissett in the second quarter, which was recovered by OLB Lamarr Houston and returned 34 yards for a touchdown. It was the first forced fumble of Pleasant's career and he became the 10th Texan with a forced fumble this season.

DYNAMIC DUO

HOPKINS

FULLER V

Texans WR DeAndre Hopkins (eight receiving touchdowns) and WR Will Fuller V (seven receiving touchdowns) are first and second in the NFL in touchdown receptions this season. The duo has combined for 15 receiving touchdowns, which is the most by any pair of teammates in the NFL in 2017. The Texans have only had two receivers with seven-or-more touchdown receptions in a season one other time in franchise history. In 2008, Andre Johnson and Kevin Walter each caught eight touchdowns on the year.

From Week 4-8, Fuller V and Hopkins each had a touchdown reception in four consecutive games, becoming the first set of teammates to do so since Randall Cobb and Jordy Nelson (Green Bay) in 2014, and each had six-or-more touchdown receptions in the four-game span, becoming the first set of teammates to record six-or-more touchdown receptions in a four-game span since Al Toon and Wesley Walker (New York Jets) in 1986.

In Week 8 at Seattle, Hopkins (224) and Fuller V (125) each had over 100 receiving yards and it was the first time since Week 2 of 2016 vs. Kansas City (when Hopkins had 113 and Fuller V had 104) that Houston had two players with 100-or-more receiving yards in the same game. Hopkins (224) and Fuller V (125) also combined for the most receiving yards (349) by any tandem in a single NFL game since Detroit's Calvin Johnson (329) and Kris Durham (54) tallied 383 yards vs. Dallas in Week 8 of the 2013 season.

The last teammates with combined 340-or-more yards and three-or-more receiving touchdowns in a game were Houston's Andre Johnson (273 yards, one touchdown) and Garrett Graham (82 yards, two touchdowns) in Week 11 of the 2012 season vs. Jacksonville (11/18/12).

In Week 5 vs. Kansas City, Hopkins (three) and Fuller V (two) each had multiple receiving touchdowns, marking the first time in franchise history the Texans had two players with multiple receiving touchdowns in the same game. Hopkins and Fuller also became the third and fourth players in team history with a touchdown reception in four straight games (Weeks 4-8), joining Arian Foster (2014) and Andre Johnson (2007 and 2010-11). Hopkins had a touchdown reception in five straight games (Weeks 4-9), becoming the first player in team history to accomplish the feat.

GAME CHANGER

CLOWNEY

OLB/DE Jadeveon Clowney is currently tied for second in the NFL in defensive fumble recoveries with two (Buccaneers OLB Lavonte David has four) and is third in the NFL in fumble return yards with 71 this season. The two recoveries are the first two of Clowney's NFL career.

In Week 3 at New England, Clowney recovered a fumble from Patriots QB Tom Brady and returned it 22 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter. OLB Whitney Mercilus caused the fumble on a strip-sack to set up the first touchdown of Clowney's career. In that game, Clowney became the third player in franchise history with 2.0 sacks and a fumble return for a touchdown in a game, joining DE Mario Williams and DE J.J. Watt. Clowney also scored the first defensive touchdown by any player off a fumble by Patriots QB Tom Brady since Dwan Edwards in Week 4 of 2009 against Baltimore.

In Week 2 at Cincinnati, Clowney recovered his first career fumble and returned it 49 yards to the Bengals 20-yard line. Texans CB Kareem Jackson caused the fumble on Bengals WR John Ross. Clowney's 49-yard fumble return tied for the fifth-longest in franchise history and is the longest ever by a Texans player weighing 270-or-more pounds.

SACK ATTACK

The Texans have 23.0 sacks as a team this season and fourteen different players have recorded at least one sack in 2017.

Houston is tied with the 49ers for the most different players (14) with at least one sack this season. The Texans' franchise record for number of players with at least one sack in a season is 16, which was set in 2005.

The Steelers are the only other team in the NFL with four players recording a multi-sack game in 2017.

The Texans have had six undrafted players record 2.0-or-more sacks in a game in franchise history and three of those players are on the current roster: Scarlett, Pleasant and DE Joel Heath (Week 17 of 2016 at TEN).

TWICE IS NICE

Texans RB Lamar Miller has two games this season with a rushing and receiving touchdown in the same game. He now has three such games in his career with the Texans, which is second to RB Arian Foster (six games) in franchise history.

In Week 8 at Seattle, Miller ran for 54 yards on a team-high 21 carries (2.6 avg.) and one touchdown. He also caught three passes for 19 yards (6.3 avg.) and one touchdown. In Week 4 vs. Tennessee, Miller ran for a game-high and season-best 75 yards on 19 carries (3.9 avg.) and had one rushing touchdown. Miller also caught four passes for 56 yards (14.0 avg.) and had one receiving touchdown in the game.

Miller also had a rushing and receiving touchdown in Week 6 vs. Indianapolis last season. He is only the third player to have both a rushing and receiving touchdown in multiple games in the same season in franchise history, joining Foster (2010 and 2011) and RB Steve Slaton (2009).

HOUSTON, WE HAVE A TOUCHDOWN

From Weeks 3-8, Houston scored 30-or-more points in five straight games for the first time in franchise history and are the only team in the NFL this season to score 30-or-more points in five straight games. Houston's streak of scoring 30-or-more points was the longest by any NFL team since the Patriots, Steelers and Panthers all did it in 2015.

The Texans are seventh in the NFL in points per game (26.2) and tied for fourth in overall touchdowns scored (29) this year. Houston also gained 340-or-more yards of offense in five straight games from Week 3 to Week 8, which is tied for the fourth-longest streak of 340-or-more yards gained in team history.

In Week 11 at Los Angeles, Lechler punted six times for 281 yards (46.8 avg.), and pinned four punts inside the 20-yard line, including two punts inside the five-yard line. KICKIN' IT WITH KA'IMI

FAIRBAIRN

Texans K Ka'imi Fairbairn made 11 straight field goal attempts to start the season, the most consecutive field goals made to start a Texans career in franchise history. He is now at 11-for-13 (84.6 percent) for the season.

Fairbairn is the first player in team history to score 15 points twice in one season, which is tied for the seventh-most points scored in a game by a kicker in a game this season.

In Week 3 at New England, Fairbairn was 4-for-4 on field goals and 3-for-3 on extra points. In Week 4 vs. Tennessee, he was 3-for-3 on field goals and 6-for-7 on extra points. Fairbairn hit a career-long 50-yard field goal in Week 4 and recorded his first special teams tackle.

Fairbairn has also been successful kicking off this season with 33 touchbacks, the most ever by a Texans kicker through the first 10 weeks of a season and the fifth-most in the NFL in 2017. He also has the highest touchback percentage through 10 weeks in team history (70.2%) and the eighth-highest in the NFL this season.

Fairbairn is the first undrafted kicker to make his NFL debut with the Texans. He was born in Kailua, Hawaii and is the first kicker or punter from Hawaii to reach the NFL. His full name is John Christian Ka'iminoeauloamek a'ikeokekumupa'a Fairbairn. In Hawaiian culture, his name means 'seeker of knowledge.' Fairbairn was a consensus first-team All-American as a senior at UCLA and was awarded the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top college kicker in 2015. Fairbairn was the first Bruin to score at least 100 points in each of his four seasons at UCLA. In 2015, he hit the first 60-yard field goal in the Football Bowl Subdivision since 2012.

SIZZLING IN SEATTLE

In Week 8 at Seattle, the Texans gained 509 yards of offense, the fifth-most yards in a single game in franchise history and most since gaining 653 yards of offense in Week 11 of the 2012 season vs. Jacksonville.

Houston's 509 yards of offense are the most yards gained by a team at Seattle since the Steelers put up 538 yards of offense in Week 12 of the 2015 season against the Seahawks at CenturyLink Field.

The Texans became the first team to score a touchdown on the Seahawks in the first quarter this season when they scored 14 points in the opening frame. WR Will Fuller V caught a 59-yard touchdown on the Texans' opening drive and RB Lamar Miller ran in a touchdown.

The Texans also became the first team to score a touchdown on Seattle in the fourth quarter this season when they scored 14 points. Miller caught a two-yard touchdown from QB Deshaun Watson and then Watson threw a career-long 72-yard touchdown pass to WR DeAndre Hopkins.

Houston threw for 367 net passing yards in Week 8, the most passing yards in a game for the Texans since Week 4 of the 2015 season at Atlanta (374). Watson's 13.4 yards per attempt is the highest single-game mark in franchise history.

The Texans also averaged 21.16 yards per completion, the second-highest mark in team history and the second-highest by any team this season with a minimum of 10 pass attempts (the Rams averaged 22.21 vs. the Giants in Week 9).

HOP VS. THE 'HAWKS

HOPKINS

Texans WR DeAndre Hopkins had one of the best games of his career in Week 8 at Seattle. Hopkins finished with a game-high eight receptions for 224 yards (28.0 avg.) and one touchdown in the Texans' loss.

It was the second-most receiving yards in a game in his career and the most receiving yards in a game by any player in the NFL this season. Hopkins had 238 receiving yards in Week 13 of the 2014 season vs. Tennessee (11/30/14). He is the 10th player in NFL history to have 224-or-more receiving yards and a receiving touchdown in two career games.

It was also the most receiving yards a player has compiled on the road at Seattle ever and the second-most receiving yards the Seahawks have ever given up to an individual player.

Hopkins became just the fifth player in NFL history to post two games of 220-plus receiving yards in the first five years of his career. He is also the third-youngest player to accomplish the feat twice (trailing Isaac Bruce & Josh Gordon). Calvin Johnson and Jerry Rice hold the NFL record for 220-plus games in a career with three each.

Hopkins also became the fourth player in team history with a touchdown reception in four straight games, joining WR Will Fuller V (2017), RB Arian Foster (2014) and WR Andre Johnson (2007 and 2010-11).

Hopkins has three 100-yard receiving games this season and 16 in his career. He caught a 72-yard touchdown pass from QB Deshaun Watson vs. Seattle, which was the second-longest reception of his career.

JOSEPH

In Week 6 vs. the Browns, CB Johnathan Joseph finished with three tackles, one tackle for loss, three passes defensed and a single-game career high two interceptions. Joseph was named the AFC Defensive Player of the Week following his stellar performance.

With the Texans up 10-3 in the second quarter, Joseph intercepted a pass from Browns QB Kevin Hogan and returned it 82 yards for a touchdown. The 82-yard return was the fourth-longest interception return in team history and the longest return of Joseph's career (2006-17). It is also tied for the third-longest interception return in the NFL this season.

Joseph's second interception of the game also came in the second quarter and tied him for the second-most interceptions by any NFL player in a game in 2017. It marked Joseph's first multi-interception game as a Texan and second multi-interception game of his career. Joseph also had two interceptions in Week 11 of the 2010 season vs. Buffalo on 11/21/10.

With his two interceptions, Joseph reached 14 career interceptions as a Texan and passed Kareem Jackson and Dunta Robinson (13) for the most career interceptions in team history. Joseph also has three interceptions returned for a touchdown in his Texans career, which is tied for first in franchise history with Jackson.

Joseph has been in the league since 2006 and now has 28 career interceptions and six career interceptions returned for a touchdown. He also leads the NFL in passes defensed since entering the league with 165.

It was the first time Joseph has earned Player of the Week honors in his career and the 40th time a Texan has been named Player of the Week in franchise history. It is also the 14th time Houston has won the AFC Defensive Player of the Week award in team history.

HAL ABOUT THAT

HAL

Texans S Andre Hal recorded his first two interceptions of the season in Week 4 vs. Tennessee. It was his second career multi-interception game and first since Week 6 of the 2015 season at Jacksonville on 10/18/15.

Hal intercepted Titans QB Marcus Mariota on the opening drive of the game and returned it three yards, which led to a Houston touchdown just four plays later. Hal then intercepted Mariota again in the second quarter for his second pick of the day. Hal is tied for the team lead this season with two interceptions (Johnathan Joseph and Dylan Cole).

Hal now has eight career interceptions and leads the Texans in interceptions since joining the team in 2014. He is also tied with ILB Brian Cushing (eight) for the seventh-most interceptions in franchise history.

Hal also has the third-most passes defensed (25) on the Texans since joining the team in 2014 and passed Quintin Demps (24) for the 15th-most passes defensed in team history.

TACKLING MACHINE

This season, Texans CB Kareem Jackson is second on the team with 46 total tackles (31 solo) and tied for third with four tackles for loss. Among all NFL cornerbacks, Jackson has the fifth-most total tackles and is tied for the league-lead in tackles for loss.

Jackson has produced seven games with five-or-more total tackles this season, the second-most by a cornerback in the NFL this year and tied for the seventh-most by any defensive back in 2017.

LUCKY NUMBER SEVEN

Texans WR DeAndre Hopkins opened up this season with four straight games of seven-or-more receptions for the first time in his career.

Including Week 17 last year, Hopkins recorded seven-or-more receptions in five straight games, which was the first time in his career he has put together five consecutive games with seven-or-more receptions. Hopkins was the only receiver in the NFL this season to have seven-or-more receptions in each of the first four games and is tied for first in the NFL with six games of seven-or-more receptions (Weeks 1-4, 8 and 10). Saints WR Michael Thomas has also done it in six games this season.

In Week 4 vs. Tennessee, Hopkins finished with a season-high 10 receptions for 107 yards (10.7 avg.) and one touchdown. It was his third career game with 10-or-more receptions (first since Week 6 of 2015 at Jacksonville).

PEER PRESSURE

CLOWNEY

In Week 3 at New England, Texans OLB/DE Jadeveon Clowney compiled six total tackles (six solo), 2.0 sacks, three quarterback hits, four tackles for loss and a fumble recovery that was returned for a touchdown.

Only one other NFL player has had five-or-more total tackles, 2.0-or-more sacks, three-or-more tackles for loss, three-or-more quarterback hits and a fumble returned for a touchdown in the same game since all those stats became officially tracked by the NFL: Texans DE J.J. Watt.

WATT

Watt accomplished the milestone in Week 6 of the 2014 season against Indianapolis when he compiled seven total tackles (four solo), 2.0 sacks, four quarterback hits, three tackles for loss and a fumble recovery for a touchdown. Watt also added three passes defensed in that game.

Watt led the NFL in fumble recoveries in 2014 with five, which were the most by a defensive lineman since Justin Tuck had five for the Giants in 2010. Clowney is currently tied for second in the NFL in defensive fumble recoveries with two and is third in the NFL in fumble return yards with 71 this season.

B-MAC'S SACKS

McKINNEY

In Week 2 at Cincinnati, ILB Benardrick McKinney compiled six total tackles (four solo), including three tackles for loss and 2.0 sacks. He became just the third Texans linebacker and fifth player in team history to record six-or-more total tackles, three-or-more tackles for loss and 2.0-or-more sacks in the same game.

Among all players with 2.0-or-more sacks in the NFL this season, McKinney has the 11th-most combined tackles of the group with 53.

Last season, McKinney was the only player in the NFL and the second in Texans history with at least 100 tackles and 5.0 sacks in a season (Jamie Sharper, 2002).

TURNOVER MACHINE

In Week 4 vs. Tennessee, Houston caused the second-most turnovers in a game in franchise history with five total (four interceptions and one fumble recovery). It was the first time Houston has caused five turnovers in a game since Week 12 of 2008 at Cleveland. The Texans also tied a franchise record with four interceptions. It was the third time in team history with four interceptions and first since Week 10 of 2006 at Jacksonville.

Houston held the Titans to 195 total net yards (86 rushing and 109 passing) and just nine first downs (three rushing and six passing). They also didn't allow Tennessee to score in the second half.

COLE IN ONE

COLE

In Week 4 vs. Tennessee, Texans rookie ILB Dylan Cole compiled five total tackles (three solo), 1.0 sack and one interception returned for a touchdown.

Cole became the first rookie in NFL history with five-or-more total tackles, 1.0-or-more sacks and one interception returned for a touchdown in the same game. He also became first rookie to record an interception for a touchdown in franchise history and first Texans player with a pick-six since CB Kareem Jackson in Week 10 of the 2016 season. CB Johnathan Joseph also had one in Week 6 this year.

Cole, who the Texans signed as a college free agent following the 2017 NFL Draft, is also just the second linebacker in franchise history with a pick-six in a game, joining ILB Brian Cushing.

CAUSING PROBLEMS

In Week 3 at New England, the Texans defense had 5.0 sacks and forced four fumbles. It marked the first time in franchise history that Houston had 5.0-or-more sacks and four-or-more forced fumbles in the same game.

The Texans are the only team in the NFL this season to have 5.0-or-more sacks and four-or-more forced fumbles in the same game and just the second team in NFL history to do it at New England (Seattle had 6.0 sacks and four forced fumbles in Week 3 of the 1992 season at New England).

The four forced fumbles tied a single-game franchise record as the Texans also caused four fumbles in Week 2 of the 2014 season at Oakland and Week 13 of the 2005 season at Baltimore.

Houston's 5.0 sacks were the most in a game for the Texans since Week 1 of the 2016 season against the Bears (5.0 sacks) and four different players were able to record a sack in the game, the most players with at least one sack in a game for Houston since Week 1 of 2016 against the Bears.

PICK-SIX AND SAFETY

In Week 6 vs. Cleveland, the Texans recorded a pick-six and a safety in the same game for the second time in franchise history. CB Johnathan Joseph had a career-long 82-yard interception returned for a touchdown and ILB Benardrick McKinney led the way forcing a safety on intentional grounding by Browns QB Kevin Hogan in the end zone. The Texans had a pick-six by Joseph and a safety by OLB Connor Barwin in Week 7 of 2012 vs. Baltimore for the only other occurance in franchise history. The Texans last safety was in Week 15 of 2016 vs. Jacksonville and Houston now has 10 safeties in team history.

The Texans also had three interceptions in the first half against the Browns for the second time in franchise history. Houston had three interceptions in the first half vs. Miami in Week 1 of the 2012 season on 9/9/12.

OPENING ACT

In Week 1 vs. Jacksonville, Texans WR DeAndre Hopkins compiled seven receptions for 55 yards (7.9 avg.) and one touchdown, tying Kevin Walter (24) for the third-most receiving touchdowns in team history. Hopkins has now caught a touchdown pass in four consecutive season openers (2014-17), which is the longest active streak in the NFL.

Giants WR Brandon Marshall is the only other active NFL wide receiver with a receiving touchdown in four consecutive season openers (2012-15 with Chicago and N.Y. Jets).

HOP TO 100

WR DeAndre Hopkins has 16 career 100-yard games, including three this season. He had a career-high six in 2015. The Texans are 8-8 when he reaches the 100-yard mark.

OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION

The Texans set several offensive records in their Week 4 victory over the Tennessee Titans. They scored the most points in a game in franchise history with 57 (previous record was 45 points in Week 13 of 2014 vs. Tennessee) and scored a franchise-record seven total touchdowns.

Houston won by the largest margin of victory in franchise history with a 43-point win (previous record was 34 in a 41-7 win at Tennessee in Week 7 of 2011) and the largest point differential of any divisional matchup in AFC South history.

The 57 points were the most points in a game by an NFL team since Seattle scored 58 in Week 14 of 2012 vs. Arizona and Houston became the first NFL team to score 50-or-more points in a game since Jacksonville scored 51 in Week 14 of 2015 vs. Indianapolis. Houston's 57 points were also the third-highest single-game point total in NFL history with a rookie starting at quarterback (Tony Banks – 1996, Russell Wilson – 2012).

The Texans gained 445 yards on offense (173 rushing and 272 passing), which was the most yards gained in a game for Houston since gaining 457 yards in Week 13 of 2014 vs. Tennessee. However, Houston gained 509 yards of offense (142 rushing and 367 passing) at Seattle in Week 8 to top their Week 4 output. They also gained 33 first downs (10 rushing, 19 passing and four by penalty) in Week 4, which is the second-most first downs gained in a game in franchise history. Houston had 39 first downs in Week 11 of 2012 vs. Jacksonville.

FIRST HALF FIREPOWER

In Week 4 vs. Tennessee, the Texans had one of the best offensive first halfs in team history. Houston scored points on five-of-six possessions in the first half for a total of 30 first half points, which is the second-most points scored in the first half in franchise history (Houston scored 34 points in the first half vs. Indianapolis in 2011). The Texans' 30 first half points are tied for the third-most points scored by a team in the first half this season.

The Texans scored a touchdown on their first three offensive possessions for the first time since Week 7 of 2008 vs. Detroit and scored a touchdown on their first two offensive possessions for the first time since Week 4 of 2016 vs. Tennessee.

Houston's 289 yards in the first half are the fourth-most first half yards gained by any NFL team this season. The Texans first quarter was especially impressive as they gained 179 total yards (44 rushing and 135 passing), which is the third-most net yards gained in the first quarter in franchise history and third-most first quarter yards gained by any NFL team this season. Their 14 first quarter points tied for the third-highest-scoring first quarter in team history, which Houston did again in Week 8 at Seattle. Houston scored 17 in the first quarter in Week 14 of 2009 vs. Seattle and Week 1 of 2011 vs. Indianapolis.

RUNNING START

The Texans are averaging 127.9 rushing yards per game this season, which is sixth-highest mark in the NFL in 2017 and Houston's 1,151 rushing yards are the fifth-highest total in team history through 10 weeks.

The Texans' 4.29 yards per carry is the sixth-highest in team history through 10 weeks (1,151 yards on 268 carries). RB Lamar Miller leads the way with 543 yards on 140 carries (3.88 avg.) while QB Deshaun Watson had 269 yards on 36 carries (7.47 avg.) and RB D'Onta Foreman has 262 yards on 68 carries (3.85 avg.).

Houston ran for 120-or-more rushing yards in six straight games this season (Week 2-8), which is the longest streak in franchise history and the second-longest streak in the NFL in 2017. Jacksonville has rushed for 120-or-more yards in seven straight games (Week 3-10).

Texans QB Deshaun Watson won his first NFL start in Week 2 at Cincinnati. The rookie from Clemson completed 15-of-24 passes (62.5%) for 125 yards, no touchdowns, no interceptions and a 75.9 passer rating. Watson scored his first career rushing touchdown on a 49-yard run in the second quarter, which turned out to be the only touchdown of the game for either team.

Watson is the ninth different starting quarterback under Head Coach Bill O'Brien since 2014 and Texans quarterbacks are now 8-1 in their first start under O'Brien.

STREAK OF TIGERS

The Texans have the most players from Clemson University in the NFL, with a total of four on the current 53-man active roster. QB Deshaun Watson was placed on Injured Reserve on Nov. 3.

Houston has drafted four players from Clemson in franchise history. This year's first-round pick, Watson, and fourth-round pick, DE Carlos Watkins, join WR DeAndre Hopkins and NT D.J. Reader as former Tigers drafted by the Texans.

Watson (2017) and Hopkins (2013) also join former South Carolina Gamecocks CB Dunta Robinson (2004) and OLB/DE Jadeveon Clowney (2014) as the only Texans first-round picks from the same school. The Texans also added S Marcus Gilchrist as a free agent signing on August 1, who played at Clemson from 2007-10.

KEEPING THE CORE

At the end of training camp, 34-of-90 (37.7%) players on the Texans active 90-man roster were new to the team in 2017. Of those 34 players, 25 were rookies (seven draft picks, 18 college free agents) and nine were veterans acquired off waivers or through free agency.

In 2016, 29-of-90 (32.2%) players on Houston's roster were new to the team, the lowest percentage in Head Coach Bill O'Brien's tenure (2014-17). Of those players, 22 were rookies (six draft picks, 16 undrafted free agents) and seven were veterans (all acquired through free agency).

In 2015, approximately one-third (33-of-90) of the players on the Texans roster were new to the team at the start of training camp. Twenty-three of those players were rookies and 10 veterans were acquired through free agency.

In 2014, over half (47-of-90) of the players on the Texans roster were new to the team. The 47 players included 30 rookies, 16 veterans acquired through free agency and one through trade.

DOMINATING THE DIVISION

Under Head Coach Bill O'Brien (2014-17), the Texans are 15-6 against the AFC South (.714 pct.) in 21 games, including 6-1 vs. Tennessee, 6-1 vs. Jacksonville and 3-4 vs. Indianapolis. Houston's 15 division wins are tied for second-most in the NFL since 2014. Kansas City (AFC West) leads the NFL with 16 while Pittsburgh (AFC North) and Green Bay (NFC North) also have 15 each in that time span.

The Texans recorded a 5-1 record against AFC South opponents in 2016, which tied the best single-season winning percentage against the division in team history. Houston also registered a 5-1 record against AFC South opponents in 2012 and 2015.

Houston is one of two teams to win its division in each of the last two seasons (New England), and the Texans have now won four of the last six AFC South championships. With a division title this year, the Texans would become the first AFC South team to win the division in three straight seasons since Indianapolis captured five consecutive division crowns from 2003-07.

FULLER HOUSE

WR Will Fuller V recorded 47 receptions for 635 yards and two touchdowns in 2016. He also notched a 67-yard punt return for a touchdown.

Fuller became the first rookie in NFL history with 300 receiving yards and a punt return touchdown in his team's first four games of a season. Former 49ers RB Hugh McElhenny is the only other rookie to produce over 300 scrimmage yards and a punt return touchdown in as many games to start a season, when he did so over 60 years ago in 1952.

In the season-opening victory over Chicago in 2016, Fuller caught five passes for a team-leading 107 yards and a touchdown. He became the first rookie first-round pick to post a 100-yard receiving game in a season opener since Louis Lipps in 1984 with Pittsburgh. He also became the first Texans rookie with a 100-yard receiving game and a touchdown in a season opener.

Fuller followed his Week 1 output with four receptions for 104 yards in Week 2 against Kansas City (9/18/16), making him the third player in NFL history with back-to-back 100-yard receiving performances to open his career, joining Don Looney (1940) and DeSean Jackson (2008). He is the first player in NFL history to gain at least 200 receiving yards over his first two games while winning both. He is also the first rookie drafted in the first round with back-to-back 100-yard games in his first two games.

In Week 4 against Tennessee (10/2/16), Fuller paced the team with seven receptions for 81 yards and a touchdown, while also returning a punt 67 yards for a score, becoming the first player in Texans history with a receiving and punt return touchdown in a single game.

HEAD COACH BILL O'BRIEN MONDAY PRESS CONFERENCE - NOV. 13

Now that you've watched the tape, is there any chance that QB T.J. Yates will play on Sunday?
"Well first of all, I'm not done watching the tape. We got in at 2:00 a.m. There were obviously a lot of things to learn from on the tape. Tom (Savage) will start the game against Arizona. Like I said after the game, we all have to do better."

What are one or two things you would like to do better?
"We have to finish drives. I think it was five or six games in a row where we were scoring a bunch of points. I know that there was a different quarterback in there but it seemed like we were finishing drives pretty well. We've got to get back to finishing drives in the end zone, not with field goals and obviously not turnovers. I think we just have to be more consistent in running the football. I just think consistency's really the key theme. Unless we had a six-hour press conference, there's just too many things to cover. Just really, overall, it's the theme of consistency."

Did you see any mechanical flaws with QB Tom Savage or maybe he was throwing off his back foot a little bit?
"Well, yeah. A couple of times he only had a second to get the ball off. So yeah, by physical force he was throwing off his back foot. There were a couple times where he didn't even have a chance to get the ball out. If you guys are really going to study the tape, which I know you do, you're able to watch the tape and stuff, you've got to really look at it in all phases of the offense. It starts with coaching. We've all got to coach better, starting with me, but it's never about one guy, it's never been about one guy. Football's about 11 guys trying to do the right thing on every play. How many times do you think that happens in a game? Very rarely, but that's what you're striving to get done. If one or two guys break down, including the quarterback, but if one or two guys break down, the play's not going to be successful, and that happened obviously a lot yesterday."

While you said you have to coach better yesterday, all the players said there is only so much you can do and that they have to play better.
"The way that I was brought up in coaching is I never worked for or played for a successful coach that pointed fingers. I think the thing that I've always tried to do is look in the mirror. A coach is being a teacher. A coach is trying to get the most out of your players, trying to get your players to produce at a high level and play at a high level, and when that's not getting done, then you have to look in the mirror and think about how you're teaching it, how you're practicing it, how you're implementing it, how you're calling it, whatever it is. Obviously at times this year it's looked really good, but lately it has not. I think it all comes down to that. In my opinion, you're not a coach worth your salt if you just stand up here and blame players. That's not going to get you anywhere and that's not going to get the team improved. The players play very hard. We have a great group of guys in that locker room. We've dealt with a lot of different things this year, it's not an excuse, but these guys are playing hard. I've told you time and time again, I'm 100 percent behind these players. I love these players, I enjoy coaching them and I think it starts with me. I just need to figure out how to do a better job."

You mentioned trying to get all 11 players on the same page at the same time, but when you get to practice, what's the balance of preparing for the opponent but also continuing to develop the skills you want your guys to have?
"Well that's a huge question. I mean that's a great question, and that's really what it comes down to today and tomorrow as we head to Arizona. What are our players doing the best schematically, tempo-wise? Sometimes you need to follow the KISS theory, keep it simple, and I think that's something that we have to look at. I think that yesterday's game plan, I don't think it was a real complex game plan but I think we have to go back to looking at what our players do really well, what they have confidence in and get back to doing that."

Even though the players don't believe that you're to blame, do you still blame yourself?
"I believe the players believe me. I think I've earned their respect in that regard through my work ethic and the way I speak to the team. Like I said, coaching is about teaching and trying to get the best out of your players in a consistent manner. And if we're not doing that, and the players are giving really good effort, then where do you start? Well, you start with yourself. Now look, if a guy's consistently jumping offside, making the same mental mistakes, poor attitude, poor body language, all those different things, you're going to make a change with a player. But that's not the case. These guys are playing hard. Everybody makes mistakes. We've got to eliminate some of the mistakes and we have to do a better job of coaching. That's the same answer you're going to get from me from now until however long I'm the head coach here, that's the answer you're going to get from me when we don't play well."

In the midst of a losing streak, is it difficult to always look ahead and not look back?
"It's definitely hard to move past, especially a loss. It's a lot easier moving past a win, but with the losses, you're always looking at the could've, should've, would've part of the game. I think that you also understand how much of that carries over to Arizona and you better turn the page pretty quickly. Like I said, we're not done kind of grinding on this tape right here, but we'll be done pretty soon and we'll move on to Arizona and we'll try to figure out what carries over to Arizona, what we have to do better that relates to the Arizona game."

Was it something the Rams did or something you all did that prevented you from running better in the second half after some success in the first?
"I don't know. I came out and I ran a weakside lead and Aaron Donald blew us up in the backfield and that wasn't a real good start to the running game. I don't know. That's what I'm kind of saying about me. I think I just have to figure out how to do a better job in those situations and try to call some better plays."

Was this one of CB Kevin Johnson's better games since coming back from his injury earlier this season?
"Yeah, he played pretty well. There's no doubt about it. He was decent in coverage, he was quick to trigger in the running game. (He) really made a nice play on (Tavon) Austin, outside play on the sideline, made a nice hit. Yeah, he definitely played a good game."

Former Texans WR Andre Johnson is going to be inducted into the Ring of Honor at the game this Sunday. What are your thoughts on him and the honor he is getting?
"Andre, just personally meant a lot to me, and when I first came here, especially – you know, he was out for a little bit there in the spring, but then he came to training camp and he was a true professional. He was obviously in the latter part of his career, but he was a true professional. He worked very hard. Very smart, very detailed guy. Team guy. Players had a tremendous amount of respect for him. I remember when he came back into the team meeting room when he had held out for a little bit in the minicamp there, I think they gave him a standing ovation. I mean, it was incredible, just the respect that the players had for him. I had respect for him just from where I had been in New England. I can remember Bill Belichick standing up in a team meeting before 2009 when we played them out here, New England, just reading off his stats and what he's meant to this organization and the respect that he has around the league. I've gotten to know Andre a little bit as the years have gone by. I wish he could've ended his career here. I know maybe he wishes that too, but it didn't work out that way, and I think that the fact that we're doing what we're doing for him is a credit to us and obviously a huge honor for him to be honored that way. I'll be glad to be a very, very small part of it."

HEAD COACH BILL O'BRIEN MONDAY PRESS CONFERENCE - NOV. 13

In terms of preparation this week, do you handle QB Tom Savage the same way that you did last week? Do you have to pump him up or how do you prepare him mentally?
"No, this is pro football. If you have to pump guys up, I mean, you got a problem. So, I think it's about correcting, ball security, reads, correcting people around him, making sure that people around him – like I said, it's not just him. But it's not like, I'm not going to come into the quarterback room with two pom-poms and do handstands and try to pump him up and say, 'You're the best, you can do it,' like the little engine that could. That's not what I do. I just try to coach him, try to get him to play better."

Is G Jeff Allen hurt very badly?
"Jeff Allen's a tough guy, so I think he'll be all right. But, I think everybody's pretty banged up at this time of the year, but I think he'll be all right. I don't think it's going to alter whether he can play or not."

Do you see teams handling OLB/DE Jadeveon Clowney the same way they did DE J.J. Watt?
"Oh yeah, they've definitely focused a lot of attention on JD (Jadeveon Clowney). I mean, you have to. He's an explosive player. TFLs, sacks, chases the ball down, plays very hard. And so, yeah, there's a lot of attention paid to him on the front, and that's what gives some other guys a chance to make a play."

WR Will Fuller V seemed optimistic that he wasn't hurt too badly.
"Yeah, I mean, he took a pretty good shot. So, we'll have to – he's a tough guy. He's a Philly (Philadelphia) guy. Very tough guy, especially for the way he's built. He's one of our better receivers when it comes to blocking. He does a lot of different things for us that people probably don't even notice. But he's slightly built, so I don't know. We'll have to see how that goes during the week."

RB Lamar Miller looked really explosive in the first half, how do you guys get that to happen so quickly like it did in this past game?
"Lamar (Miller) ran well. I started D'Onta (Foreman) and he pounded it in there a couple times, got a nice third-and-1 for us. Lamar went in there and did a nice job. I got to figure out what to do on my end of things to keep that running game going."

Nobody wants to be in this position, and you've had a couple years where you've turned things around. Are you someone that enjoys coaching with your back against the wall like this where you know there's so much pressure to keep getting wins now?
"No. I would much rather be 9-0. I can honestly tell you that. I don't enjoy being 3-6."

Can you talk about WR Braxton Miller and what you were hoping to get out of him when he was in at quarterback?
"Just trying to mix it up a little bit. I just felt like it didn't really help the rhythm of the offense. It wasn't Braxton's (Miller) fault. It just didn't really help what we were trying to do. It didn't have the effect that I thought it was going to have."

You mentioned some of the extra attention that OLB/DE Jadeveon Clowney is getting, and after the game, he mentioned the Rams 94-yard touchdown play as an example of that. What can be done for a guy like OLB/DE Jadeveon Clowney or what can he do to get the referee's to see when certain things might be happening to him?
"This is a great question, and I have to be very careful the way I answer it. On that particular play, he beat the guy and he was running toward the quarterback, and that's where I'll kind of end because you guys can watch the tape. Look, it is what it is. They made a play, we didn't get the call, so that's just kind of how it is when you're not winning."

THE HEAD COACHES

TEXANS HEAD COACH BILL O'BRIEN

Bill O'Brien was named the third head coach in Houston Texans franchise history on January 3, 2014. O'Brien, who owns 24 years of collegiate and NFL coaching experience, led the Texans to a second straight AFC South Division championship in 2016 and third straight winning season for the first time in franchise history, which made O'Brien just the 14th coach in the NFL since 1978 to begin his head coaching career with three consecutive winning seasons.

In 2016, Houston also won its first postseason game and advanced to the AFC Divisional Round for the first time since 2012. The Texans finished the season with the NFL's top-ranked defense for the first time in franchise history, surrendering an average of only 301.3 total net yards per game. The team also posted a 7-1 record at home during the regular season, which set a single-season franchise record and tied for the best home record in the NFL.

In 2015, Houston became the first NFL team since 1950 to earn a trip to the postseason with four different starting quarterbacks winning at least one regular season game and the Texans defense set the franchise single-season record for sacks (45.0).

Under O'Brien in 2014, Houston's seven-win improvement led the NFL and made the Texans the sixth team since 1978 to post a winning season following a season in which it won two or less games.

Prior to Houston, O'Brien was head coach at Penn State from 2012-13 and led the storied program through one of the greatest periods of strife any major college program has endured. He was named the Bear Bryant, Maxwell Football Club and ESPN National Coach of the Year as well as the Big Ten Coach of the Year by media and coaches.

From 2007-2011, O'Brien helped lead the New England Patriots to a pair of Super Bowl berths, rising from offensive assistant his first season to wide receivers coach in 2008 and then quarterbacks coach from 2009-2010 prior to his promotion to offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 2011. That season, the Patriots ranked third in the NFL in scoring, second in total offense and advanced to Super Bowl XLVI.

CARDINALS HEAD COACH BRUCE ARIANS

Became an NFL head coach for the first time when hired by Arizona on January 17, 2013. The Cardinals have more wins in the resulting four seasons (41) than they had in any other four-year span in team history. Since Arians took over in Arizona, the Cardinals (41) have the fourth-highest win total in the NFL– New England (50), Denver (46), Seattle (45) and Kansas City (43). Including his 9-3 record as an interim head coach with Indy in 2012, Arians is 25 games over .500 as an NFL head coach (50-25-1). Among active coaches, only Bill Belichick (60), Pete Carroll (54) and Mike McCarthy (51) have more wins than Arians (50) in his last 76 games.

Led Arizona to 10-6 record in 2013 and the following year was selected as AP NFL Coach of the Year after leading Arizona to an 11-5 mark in 2014. The Cardinals put up a team record 13 wins in 2015 and won their first division title since 2009 while advancing to their second-ever appearance in the NFC Championship Game. Having been named AP NFL Coach of the Year with Indy in 2012 and with Arizona in 2014, became the first coach in NFL history to be named Coach of the Year multiple times in a three-year span with multiple teams.

Came to Arizona after working as offensive coordinator for the Indianapolis Colts in 2012, while also serving 12 games as interim head coach during Chuck Pagano's absence while being treated for leukemia. Guided Indianapolis to a 9-3 record and helped the Colts clinch a playoff berth.

Previously coached at the pro level with the Steelers (2004-2011), Browns (2001-03), Colts (1998-2000), Saints (1996) and Chiefs (1989-1992).

GAME SUMMARY

Houston dropped its seventh-straight game for the first time in franchise history, falling to the Arizona Cardinals 27-24.

After a disastrous start for the Texans' offense that resulted in a Cardinal touchdown on the first play of the game, QB Case Keenum threw for three touchdowns, including two to WR Andre Johson. Houston's defense forced a season-high three turnovers. DE J.J. Watt had one sack and forced and recovered two fumbles. Rookie SS D.J. Swearinger had his first career NFL interception.

The Texans struggled to move the ball offensively in the second half. After a dismal third quarter with no first downs and zero net yards on offense, big plays gave the Texans a jump-start in the fourth quarter. Watt's second fumble recovery gave the Texans possession in the red zone and led to a 5-yard touchdown pass to Johnson .

Mounting injuries also plagued Houston. Without starting RB Arian Foster, a banged-up Ben Tate started and finished with 56 yards on 15 carries and three catches for 8 yards. More injuries took place as CB Kareem Jackson left with a rib injury in the first half after recording four solo tackles. ILB Joe Mays suffered an oblique injury and rookie TE Ryan Griffin took a hit on the opening kickoff of the second half and was ruled out with a concussion.

On the first play of the game, Keenum was sacked and had the ball stripped by LB John Abraham. LB Matt Shaughnessy recovered the fumble and returned it 6 yards to give the Cardinals a 7-0 lead.

Two drives later, Johnson caught the 60th touchdown of his career on a 7-yard pass from Keenum. The Texans offense moved the ball 49 yards on eight plays for its first score.

The Cardinals found the end zone again in the second quarter as QB Carson Palmer threw a 12-yard touchdown to TE Rob Housler.

Houston fired back with 10 unanswered points in the second quarter. The ensuing 80-yard drive ended in Griffin's first career NFL touchdown. Keenum completed passes to four different receivers on the drive: Andre Johnson, WR DeAndre Hopkins, Tate, and RB Dennis Johnson.

Two plays later, Swearinger had his first career interception off Palmer to give Houston possession at the Arizona 45-yard line. K Randy Bullock's 48-yard field goal tied his career high and gave the Texans their first lead of the game, 17-14 with 6:36 remaining in the second quarter.

Watt's sack on Palmer forced a fumble with 0:43 remaining in the first half. The Texans, however, were unable to capitalize on their second turnover. Bullock's second field goal attempt, a 40-yarder, was deflected by Justin Bethel as time expired in the half.

Houston struggled in the second half on both sides of the ball. The offense had a net gain of zero yards in the third quarter. Tate was sidelined but returned in the fourth quarter. The defense allowed the Cardinals to put up points on their next three drives. Arizona added two field goals in the third quarter with kicks from 35 and 20 yards. Palmer's 19-yard touchdown pass to WR Andre Roberts capped off a nine-play, 67-yard drive that consumed 4:48. Houston trailed 27-17 in the fourth quarter for its largest deficit of the day.

On the Cardinals' next offensive series, RB Rashard Mendenhall's fumble gave Houston some much-needed momentum. Recovered by Watt for his second of the game, the Texans took over at the Arizona 5-yard line. Twelve seconds later, Keenum's 5-yard touchdown pass to Johnson closed in on Arizona to get Houston to within three points.

With no timeouts remaining, Houston regained possession in the final two minutes. On fourth-and-three, Keenum was unable to complete a pass to Hopkins. Arizona would take over on downs and run out the clock.

GAME SUMMARY

The Houston Texans fell 36-33 on Sunday in a hard-fought loss to the New England Patriots in Foxborough.

Despite five touchdown passes by Tom Brady, the Texans nearly pulled off an upset against Bill Belichick and the Patriots, leading 33-28 lead with 0:29 remaining. But, Brady's final touchdown drive clinched the win for New England.

In his second NFL start, Deshaun Watson threw two touchdown passes while Jadeveon Clowney scored his first career NFL touchdown on a fumble recovery. Ka'imi Fairbairn was a perfect 4-for-4 on field goals for the day.

Watson completed 22-of-33 passes for 301 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions, one of which came on the final Hail Mary play to end the game. Watson also rushed for 41 yards on eight carries. DeAndre Hopkins caught a team-high seven passes for 76 yards. Ryan Griffin and Bruce Ellington each snagged touchdown passes.

The Texans defense recorded five sacks, eight quarterback hits, seven tackles for loss, four forced fumbles and had one fumble recovery. Clowney had two sacks, three quarterback hits, four TFLs and one fumble recovery. J.J. Watt had two quarterback hits and three TFLs.

The Patriots took an early 7-0 lead after Brady's five-yard touchdown pass to Rob Gronkowski on New England's first possession.

Two drives later, Houston's defense pinned the Patriots deep in their own territory. Jadeveon Clowney was credited with a sack for a loss of nine yards and the Patriots were forced to punt from their own endzone after a three-and-out.

Houston's offense converted the short field into points. The Texans took an early 10-7 lead after Deshaun Watson threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to Ellington.

Brady added his second touchdown of the day after the Patriots defense picked off Watson. Cornerback Stephon Gilmore intercepted Watson's pass, intended for DeAndre Hopkins and returned it 39 yards. One play later, Chris Hogan scored on a seven-yard touchdown reception to give the Patriots a 14-10 lead with 12:33 left in the second quarter.

The Texans scored ten unanswered points in the second quarter. On the Patriots ensuing possession, Whitney Mercilus recorded a strip-sack on Brady. Clowney recovered the fumble and returned it 22 yards for a touchdown. The Texans took a 20-14 lead. Brady responded with a 47-yard touchdown pass to Chris Hogan and New England regained its lead, up 21-20 at halftime.

Both teams scored on their first possessions of the second half.

For the Texans, Watson connected with Ryan Griffin on a 12-yard touchdown pass. Griffin also made a 35-yard catch on 2nd-and-22 to extend the 10-play, 70-yard drive. The Texans trailed 28-27 with 7:16 left in the third quarter.

In the fourth quarter, D'Onta Foreman's 31-yard catch-and-run put the Texans in field-goal range. Watson escaped several defenders to make the play. Fairbairn's 31-yard kick gave Houston a 30-28 lead with 12:17 left in the game.

The Texans defense did not allow a single first down in the fourth quarter until the Patriots final possession of the game. Brady orchestrated an eight-play, 75-yard drive that ended in a 25-yard touchdown pass to Cooks. The Patriots successfully converted a two-point conversion on a pass attempt to Cooks and took a 36-33 lead.

Houston regained possession with 0:23 left in the game. Watson completed a 21-yard pass to Hopkins and ended the game on a Hail Mary pass in the endzone that was picked off by Duron Harmon.

WEEK 9: Houston 14 vs. Indianapolis 20

71,709 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas • Nov. 5, 2017

GAME SUMMARY

The Houston Texans fell to the Indianapolis Colts, 20-14, in the team's first game without rookie quarterback Deshaun Watson after he suffered a season-ending injury at practice days before.

Tom Savage started his first game since the season opener and finished 19-of-44 for 219 yards and one touchdown. DeAndre Hopkins scored the lone offensive touchdown for the Texans and led the team with six receptions for 86 yards.

Filling in for Andrew Luck who was recently placed on injured reserve, Jacoby Brissett threw a 45-yard touchdown pass to T.Y. Hilton, putting the Colts on the board in the first quarter. The Colts extended their lead in the second quarter with a 22-yard field goal by Adam Vinatieri.

The Texans avoided a scoreless first half after a missed 39-yard field goal by Ka'imi Fairbairn in the second quarter when Lamarr Houston scored a defensive touchdown with just 1:05 remaining. Eddie Pleasant recorded a strip-sack on Brissett at the Indianapolis 49-yard line allowing Houston to recover the fumble and return it 34 yards for a touchdown. The Texans trailed 10-7 at halftime.

Pleasant would add a second sack on the next play from scrimmage, making him the first Texans defensive back with 2.0 sacks in a game since Dunta Robinson in 2004. The Texans defense has now forced a fumble in every game this season, a feat that no other team has managed. Jadeveon Clowney finished the game with a sack, a tackle for loss and four tackles. The third-quarter sack was his fifth of the season and 15th of his career.

Brissett threw a second touchdown pass to Hilton, this time for 80 yards, near the end of the third quarter. With less than 10 minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, the Colts extended their lead 20-7 with a 53-yard field goal by Vinatieri.

Savage threw his first career touchdown pass with 6:11 remaining in the fourth quarter when he connected with Hopkins on a 34-yard score to cap off a six-play, 65-yard scoring drive. With the touchdown, Hopkins extended his streak of games with a touchdown grab to five, making him the first player in franchise history to do so.

The Texans began their final drive at the Houston 20-yard line and gained three first downs following back-to-back completions to Stephen Anderson for 16 and 14 yards, respectively, and then a 10-yard pass to Hopkins over the middle. Savage nearly pulled off another touchdown drive, but fell short at the Indianapolis 7-yard line as the game ended on strip sack on fourth down.

The Texans fall to 3-5 on the season and will travel to Los Angeles to face the Rams in Week 10.

WEEK 10: Houston 7 at Los Angeles Rams 33

60,032 • Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum • Los Angeles, Calif. • Nov. 12, 2017

GAME SUMMARY

Sunday's loss by the Texans was a tale of halves and halves not.

In the first half, the Houston battled with the Rams and went into the locker room trailing by a 9-7 margin.

After the intermission, Los Angeles pounced, scoring 21 points in the third quarter and adding a fourth quarter field goal, while holding the Texans scoreless.

In the end, Houston went down 33-7, despite making a game of it early. Head coach Bill O'Brien pinned the defeat on himself, and said he "didn't do a good enough job."

The Texans were up 7-6, with 6:31 remaining in the second quarter, after quarterback Tom Savage hit Bruce Ellington for a 26-yard touchdown.

On the whole, Houston had 11 first downs before the break, compared to just six for the Rams. They were 57 percent on third down conversions, while limiting Los Angeles to 33 percent. They rolled up 78 rushing yards in the first half, while limiting the Rams to just 32.

"It wasn't like we were lighting up the world," Savage said. "But we were executing what we needed to do. Offensive line did a great job and receivers were getting open."

Wide receiver Will Fuller V, who exited the game with a ribs injury just before the Ellington score, like what he saw from running backs Lamar Miller and D'Onta Foreman, who averaged 4.6 yards per carry in the first 30 minutes. Miller gained 64 of those yards on nine carries.

"We were running the ball really well early on," Fuller said. "Every time I looked up we were getting good gains. The running game worked real well."

After coming out of the locker room, the Texans defense allowed a 19-yard completion from Jared Goff to Cooper Kupp, but otherwise stiffened, forcing a Johnny Hekker punt. The Texans offense answered with a few first downs and a Shane Lechler punt, which was downed at the Rams' 4-yard line.

Two plays and 94 yards later, the dam broke, and Los Angeles was up 16-7 after a Goff-to-Robert Woods 94-yard touchdown pass. Los Angeles would find the end zone two more times in the third to put the game out of reach.

"They started making some plays," cornerback Kareem Jackson said. "It happened so fast."

O'Brien said he knows what needs to be done for the Texans to get back in the win column in the weeks to come.

"Keep grinding," O'Brien said. "We just gotta go back and correct the mistakes. We've got a lot of football left."

The Texans return home and will host the Cardinals next Sunday at NRG Stadium.
