CALDWELL'S FOURTH SEASON IN DETROIT

JIM CALDWELL

Head Coach
Years with Lions: 4
Years as NFL Head Coach: 7
Years in NFL: 17

REACHING 30 WINS

With two playoff appearances in his first three years, Jim Caldwell has established himself as one of the most successful head coaches in recent franchise history. In his 52nd game as the Lions Head Coach (Week 4 at Min; 10/1/17), Caldwell led the team to a 14-7 win at Minnesota and recorded his 30th overall win since joining the Lions in 2014. By reaching 30 career wins with the club in 52 games, he became the fastest Lions head coach to reach 30 career wins since Head Coach Buddy Parker, who recorded 30 wins in 41 games (1951-54). His overall record with the Lions stands at 34-27 (.557).

Beginning his football coaching career in 1977 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, the University of Iowa, 2017 marks Caldwell's 40th consecutive season coaching football.

100 CLUB

With a 14-7 win over Minnesota in Week 4 of the 2017 season, Caldwell logged his 56th overall win in his 100th career regular season game. His career record as a head coach (34-27 in DET; 26-22 in IND) now stands at 60-49 (.550) in 109 career games.

LIONS FINISH 9-7 IN 2016, EARN PLAYOFF BERTH

The Lions finished the 2016 season with a record of 9-7 and earned the team's second playoff berth in the past three seasons. The last time the Lions made the playoffs twice in a three-year span was 1997 and 1999.

➤ By earning a playoff berth in 2016, Caldwell joins Buddy Parker (1952, 1953) and Bobby Ross (1997, 1999) as the only coaches in Lions history to lead the team to the playoffs twice in their first three seasons with the club.

EIGHT COMEBACK WINS IN 2016

The Lions finished the 2016 season with a record of 9-7. In eight of the team's nine wins, the Lions trailed in the fourth quarter and went on to win the game. Detroit set a new NFL record, surpassing the previous total of seven set by the 2009 Indianapolis Colts (also coached by Jim Caldwell), for the most wins in a season after trailing in the fourth quarter.

COACHING OVERVIEW

- Hired as head coach for the Detroit Lions January 14, 2014.
- In 16 previous NFL seasons, Caldwell has worked on coaching staffs that have led teams to 13 winning seasons and only twice finished below .500. Overall, Caldwell's teams he coached for have compiled a 172-97 regular season record, along with 14 playoff appearances, eight division titles, three conference championships and two Super Bowl wins.
- As an NFL head coach (six seasons), Caldwell has led a team to 11+ wins twice (14 with Indianapolis in 2009, 11 with Detroit in 2014). Coached in three Super Bowls with Indianapolis (XLI and XLIV) and Baltimore (XLVII) and won two Super Bowl titles (Ind and Bal).
- In his first year as head coach for IND (2009), he won the AFC Championship and led the franchise to Super Bowl XLIV. He became the first NFL coach to win his first 14 games and the fifth rookie head coach to reach the Super Bowl.
- One of four head coaches to produce 24+ regular-season wins and a Super Bowl berth in their first two career seasons as head coach.
- From 2003-09, Caldwell was the Colts quarterbacks coach and was also promoted to assistant head coach and associate head coach during that time. He worked closely with QB Peyton Manning and the team's quarterbacks. During that span, Indianapolis set NFL records with seven consecutive seasons finishing with 11+ wins (6, Dallas 1976-81) and 12+ victories (4, Dallas, 1992-95).
- After being appointed Ravens offensive coordinator in December 2012, Baltimore went on to win five of its next seven games, including Super Bowl XLVII. During that span, the offense averaged 400.6 yards per game, including an average of 410.3 yards per game during the four playoff wins.

QUINN MAKES HIS MARK

BOB QUINN
Executive Vice President and General Manager
Years with Lions: 2
Years in NFL: 18

- While working for the New England Patriots, he helped contribute to one of the most impressive stretches in NFL history, one that produced four Super Bowl titles, including the most recent championship in 2014 (Super Bowl XLIX). Since 2000, Quinn's first year with New England, the Patriots have won six AFC Championships, 13 AFC East titles, 12+ games in a season 10 times (which includes the past six years) and 10+ games in 14 of his 16 seasons.

FIRST SEASON AT THE HELM

Quinn's first season in the role of a franchise's top football executive culminated in a playoff appearance, and he became the only first-year executive among nine in the NFL to accomplish this feat since the 2013 season. In doing so, Quinn also became the Lions' first general manager to guide the team to the playoffs in his inaugural season since Nick Kerbawy in 1952.

- Along with the nearly 40-percent changeover and upgrade to the team's roster that he inherited, Quinn's changes paid dividends in 2016 when the Lions finished 9-7 on the team's way to the playoffs.
- Entering his second season, Quinn's ongoing commitment to improve all aspects of the club's football operations has included restructuring the player personnel department and scouting evaluation processes; renovating the team's weight room and practice fields along with other facility improvements; upgrading the team's football information and video technology; and instituting a comprehensive nutritional program, which included the hiring of a performance dietician for the players.

DRAFTING EXPERTISE

Quinn's initial draft class in 2016 featured the selection of six linemen on offense and defense, the most linemen in a Lions draft since 1989 and the most ever in a seven-round draft. Highlighting last year's draft class was the Lions' first-round selection T Taylor Decker, who earned all-rookie honors in 2016. Additionally, DT A'Shawn Robinson and C/G Graham Glasgow would earn starting roles during their rookie seasons.

- Of the 12 playoff teams in 2016, no team had members of its draft class play more games (108) than the Detroit Lions.

PATRIOTS PAST

During his time with New England, Quinn served a number of roles in the player personnel department, including most recently as Director of Pro Scouting from 2012-15. While he worked as Director of Pro Scouting, the Patriots won the 2014 Super Bowl and four-straight AFC East Division championships.

- From 2009-2012, Quinn was the Assistant Director of Pro Personnel. For the previous nine years, Quinn worked in several different capacities within the Patriots player personnel department, including roles in college scouting as a National Scout and Regional Scout. He played an integral role in evaluating and procuring talent for the team through the NFL draft process, free agency, trades, etc.

TAKE IT AWAY, SLAY

The Lions defense stepped up in a big way in Detroit's 24-21 win over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in Week 14, creating five turnovers, including two interceptions and three fumble recoveries. This was the first time the Lions registered five-plus takeaways in a game since the team had six vs. Minnesota December 11, 2011. Additionally, with five takeaways at Tampa Bay, the Lions have now accumulated 24 takeaways in 2017, which are the most by the Lions through 13 games since the 2011 season.

Head Coach Jim Caldwell on the defense's ability to create turnovers in Week 14: "Got a lot of turnovers. The guys hit and ran to the ball and got tipped balls and things of that nature, which were good, a lot of great effort. Gave up a few yards along the way, but that's a team that doesn't give the ball away very often. So, I commend our defense for that and we hung in there."

CB Darius Slay highlighted the defensive performance, as the veteran defensive back continued his impressive 2017 campaign by recording six tackles (five solo), two pass defenses, a fumble recovery and an interception on the day. Now with five interceptions on the season, Slay became the first Lions cornerback to record five picks in a season since CB Chris Houston in 2011. Furthermore, with his first-career fumble recovery in the first quarter, in addition to the interception, Week 14 marked just the second time in Slay's career that he generated two defensive takeaways in a game, both from this season (Atlanta 9/24).

Slay on what he saw on his interception at Tampa Bay: "I saw them rolling out, so my first guess was like, 'It's got to be some type of out route.' And I just made a play on it. I jumped it and used my football IQ and I made the play."

Slay on what allowed the defense to create five turnovers at Tampa Bay: "We just made it simple for us, man. We just went out there and played ball. A lot of guys have been thinking too much. A lot of guys are out of the position they used to be in and we're just making plays, man, smart. We just know the scheme right now. We know what we came here to do. We came here to dominate and that's what we did."

Slay has now amassed 47 total tackles, 17 pass defenses (ties a single-season career high), five interceptions and a fumble recovery through the first 14 weeks of the season. Through 13 games, he has recorded the second-most takeaways (five interceptions, one fumble) in the NFL this season and is the first Lions cornerback with six-plus takeaways in a season since CB Alphonso Smith in 2010 (five interceptions, one fumble).

Defensive Coordinator Teryl Austin on where Slay has made the biggest growth this year: "I would say the biggest area is obviously he's very comfortable with what we do and how we do it. And I think the biggest area he's made is really going after the ball and attacking the ball with no fear. A lot of times guys, if you're not sure you're going to get there, you're not quite sure, you take the safe route and knock the ball down. But you see him really going after plays and trying to get the ball this year. And I think that's a big difference, and I think that comes with confidence and obviously he's got plenty of that."

WHATEVER IT TAKES

Week 14 of the regular season showed continued resilience from QB Matthew Stafford. Stafford, who is currently ranks second in the NFL in passing yards this season with 3,683, had himself a day against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. The veteran quarterback helped secure a crucial team win by contributing 381 yards and one touchdown. Stafford notched his 38th career 300+-yard passing game and further proved his commitment to his teammates at a crucial point of the season despite fighting through a hand injury suffered in Week 13 at Baltimore.

Stafford on how much battling through injuries is his willingness to be competitive: "Yeah, I think for me I just want to be out there. I want to be competitive, I want to be fighting through whatever I can to play with the guys. I think, like I said, I'm not the only guy in that locker room and I think we all have a responsibility to each other to do everything we possibly can to be ready. And I think guys take it serious in that locker room and do a great job."

Stafford finished the game with a 81.8-percent completion percentage, which tied for the third-highest single-game total in NFL history by a passer with 44+ pass attempts in a game. Stafford finished the game with 36 completions on 44 attempts and became the first passer in team history to attempt 40+ passes in a game and complete over 80-percent of his passes, surpassing the 78.6 completion percentage accumulated by Stafford at Tennessee September 23, 2012.

With the win, No. 9 secured his 32nd career game-winning drive when trailing or tied in the fourth quarter or in overtime. Against the Buccaneers, Stafford guided the Lions to nine-play, 49-yard drive that positioned the team for a game-winning 46-yard field goal. Stafford tied Falcons QB Matt Ryan for the most game-winning drives by a player in his first nine seasons. Since Jim Caldwell became the Lions head coach in 2014, the Lions quarterback has now led the team to 20 game-winning drives in the fourth quarter or overtime, the most in the NFL over the past four seasons.

Caldwell on the toughness that Stafford has shown since he's been the head coach in Detroit: "Yeah, I don't think there's any question about that even before I arrived. Mentioned it here on several occasions, you probably could check those transcripts if you go back well enough, do a little research. Before I arrived, I remember visually just watching him play in a couple ball games where he had things that he had to battle his way through and you knew he was a tough, hard-nosed guy. That's, I think, one of his—He has a lot of great traits, that's one of them. I mean, he really is a little different in that regard, and I think that benefits him."

NEXT UP IN THE NFC NORTH

Since Jim Caldwell was hired as head coach in 2014, the Lions have accumulated a 14-8 record against NFC North teams. The team's winning percentage of .636 over the past four seasons is an improvement of 38.6-percent compared to the first 12 seasons (2002-13) under realignment when the Lions recorded a winning percentage of .250 (18-54). In 22 NFC North games, Detroit has a 6-1 record vs. Chicago, 5-3 record vs. Minnesota and 3-4 record vs. Green Bay.

DT Akeem Spence on pulling out a win at Tampa Bay before returning home to face another division opponent: it's the NFL. It's hard to win. Every game, there's no slouches in the NFL. I hope we didn't think we were going to come in here and roll out the red carpet and they were just going to let us come out here and win. We have to fight for everything. It was hard fought, we got the W and then on to next week. Chicago, we had a tough game up there. We know they're going to bring it, so we just got to keep fighting."

The Lions 38.6-percent improvement since 2014 against divisional opponents is the largest winning percentage increase in the NFL when comparing the past four seasons (2014-17) to the first 12 seasons (2002-13) of the current alignment structure. The Lions record of 14-8 (.636) against the NFC North since 2014 ranks as the seventh-best divisional winning percentage in the NFL during that span.

Caldwell on continuing the team's late-season push by finishing close games: "Yeah, it's always been kind of a hallmark of ours, being able to battle at the end. Our guys show great resilience and they don't get nervous in tough situations at the end of games. They find a way to win it, and not always (will) be pretty. We've always been like that, but we lost quite a few this year just the opposite side of that with Atlanta and Carolina, and a couple others that were close right there at the end. We weren't able to finish them. So, we have been uncharacteristic in the middle portion of the season. So, hopefully we can see if we can continue to do that and be a little bit better this next week."

WALTER PAYTON MAN OF THE YEAR

Twelve-year NFL veteran Haloti Ngata was recently selected as the Lions' nominee for the NFL's 2017 Walter Payton Man of the Year Award.

OFA NGATA COLLEGE PREP PROGRAM

Haloti Ngata's parents unexpectedly passed away before they could see him play a game in the NFL. They taught Haloti that being a giant in stature is nice, but being a giant in character is essential, something he conveys through work with his foundation, the Haloti Ngata Family Foundation (HNFF). To honor his mother's memory, Haloti and his wife, Christina, established a college preparation program in her name. In two years, the Ofa Ngata College Preparation Program has assisted over 600 students in six schools in two states. The program provides free college entrance exam preparation courses for students. By the end of the 2017-18 school year, the program will add three new schools and reach over 1,000 students in only three years.

To help raise funds for the Ofa Ngata Program and to raise awareness about the importance of education, the Ngatas host an annual luau. Guests enjoy delicious food, hear from celebrity speakers, watch Polynesian dancing and gain insights about how they can support aspiring college students.

The HNFF has also made significant donations to The Lone Survivor Foundation ($10,000), The Johns Hopkins Diabetes Research Center ($50,000), The Maryland School for the Blind ($10,000), Camp C.O.P.S., a leadership and education camp held in Maryland ($10,000), provided thousands of dollars for school supplies to individual teachers and supported other organizations and causes at the annual luaus.

IT'S NGATA DREAM

Each year the Ngatas also invite deserving youth on an all-expenses paid trip to see Haloti play in person during the "It's Ngata Dream" weekend. The recipients receive airfare, hotel accommodations, game tickets, pregame sideline passes and a chance to eat a meal with Haloti after the game.

WEEKLY RELEASE

THE NEW FORD FIELD

The Lions announced in February 2017 that the Ford Family is investing approximately $100 million into Ford Field for new video boards and several other renovations to be completed for the 2017 Detroit Lions season.

"After 15 years, we still hear what a great venue Ford Field is from our fans, visiting teams and the great acts that have performed here," said Detroit Lions Team President Rod Wood. "The Ford Family is making a substantial investment to make sure our stadium remains among the best, but ultimately it's still about winning football games. We want to get fans in the building having a great time and excited about what they're experiencing so that they can continue to help us create a home field advantage."

VIDEO BOARDS

In each end zone, the Daktronics main video displays are more than twice the size of the current displays and measure 39.5 feet high by 152 feet wide. Flanking the main displays will be four additional displays measuring 13 feet high by 59 feet wide that can be used individually or coordinated with the main displays for one continuous 270-foot presentation to show live video, instant replays, statistics, graphics and animations, and sponsorship messages.

GRIDIRON CLUB

The Gridiron Club capitalizes on Detroit's growing culinary recognition and the social scene that parallels it. Food takes center stage in this club, by the addition of several new Detroit-centric concessions manned by new local culinary sensations. Surrounding these unique concessions will be a lively dining and bar environment that has multiple large screen TVs. The highlight of this lively space is the unique lighting grid structure that hovers over all the club patrons that is a visual connection to the cooking grid iron that similarly hovers over the flames at these new culinary destinations.

SOUTH CLUB & LOGE BOXES

The South side area celebrates Detroit's tradition and takes its cues for the original Hudson's warehouse. The design aesthetic maintains this important history, and is elevated to include a greater brand presence through graphics, lighting and team colors. The furnishings and finishes will reflect a modern aesthetic while blending with existing elements.

DETROIT LIONS

THE CORNER BAR

Inspired by the memory of when the Detroit Lions and the Detroit Tigers played on the same field, in the same stadium, and at the same CORNER. This new bar will highlight the special and unique Lions moments that have been captured in the memories by the NFL's most loyal and die-hard fans; the Detroit Lions Fan. The bar's classic design is inspired by all of the old-school drinking holes that lined the Detroit streets around Briggs Stadium where the team played for nearly four decades.

TERRACE CLUB & SUITES

Social and communal gathering is the hallmark for this unique club on the north suite level. At its core are the 12 theater box-style suites where a group of people can come together and watch the game but still have the option of gathering in a communal environment directly outside of their suite.

STAFFORD'S SURGE

With his ninth NFL season underway, Lions QB Matthew Stafford has led Detroit's offense to great offensive heights. He already has set single-season and career franchise records and closed in on more Lions career passing marks last season. Additionally, Stafford has finished among the top quarterbacks in the League passing rankings the past five seasons.

START ME UP

With a start at Minnesota (10/1) in Week 4, Stafford (currently at 109) started his 100th-consecutive regular season game dating back to Week 1 of the 2011 season. He is the first quarterback in team history to start 100-consecutive games.

➤ Among all active quarterbacks, Stafford's 109 consecutive regular season starts currently rank third behind only Philip Rivers (189) and Matt Ryan (128).

Quin intercepted his third pass of the season vs. Pittsburgh (10/29). He has now recorded three interceptions in a season for the fourth time since joining the Lions in 2013, including 2013 (3), 2014 (7) and 2015 (4), and he is the first Lions player to register 3+ interceptions in four different seasons since CB Dre' Bly (2003-06).

➤ Quin's interception was his 19th pick since joining the Lions in 2013, and he tied DB Gary Lowe (1957-64) and CB Dre' Bly (2003-06) for 16th on the team's all-time interceptions list. He now has 24 career interceptions.

➤ Quin now has 16 interceptions since 2014 and 19 since joining the Lions in 2013.

TAKE IT AWAY

At Tampa Bay, the Lions secondary registered two interceptions (Darius Slay and Quandre Diggs), two fumble recoveries (Darius Slay, DJ Hayden) and two forced fumbles (Quandre Diggs, Glover Quin). The last time an NFL team's secondary recorded at least 2 interceptions, 2 fumble recoveries and 2 forced fumbles in the same game was the San Diego Chargers at Denver January 3, 2016. This is the first time the Lions secondary has recorded at least 2 in each of those three defensive categories since at least 1991.

➤ As a unit, the Lions defensive backs lead the NFL in both forced fumbles (8) and fumble recoveries (5) and they are tied for seventh with 11 interceptions. The last time the Lions defensive backs combined for 11+ interceptions, 8+ forced fumbles and 5+ fumble recoveries was 2006 (11 Int, 8 FF, 6 Fum).

SAFETY PATROL

Since 2016, only Philadelphia (14) has more interceptions by safeties than the Lions. Detroit also leads the NFL in interceptions by safeties since 2014 with 29.

➤ In 2016, the Lions were one of only two teams (Tampa Bay) in the NFL with three safeties who recorded two interceptions and one of five teams who featured four safeties with at least one interception.

DESTRUCTIVE D-LINE

Over the past seven seasons, few defensive line units have disrupted opponents in both the passing and running games as the Detroit Lions have. The Lions, under the direction of Defensive Line Coach Kris Kocurek since 2010, feature an attack upfront that first concentrates on stopping the run and then applies heavy pressure on the quarterback.

DOMINANT SINCE 2010

Since 2010, the Lions rank fourth in the NFL in sacks by defensive linemen with 242. During that span under Kocurek's guidance, the Lions also rank in the top five for defensive line tackles for loss (376, 2nd) and QB hits (604, 1st).

- In front of a Ford Field record crowd (67,861), Detroit defeated the Bears 24-13 on ESPN's Monday Night Football (10/10/11). It was the Lions' first appearance on MNF since 2001. The game was highlighted by a 73-yard touchdown bomb from QB Matthew Stafford to WR Calvin Johnson and the second-longest rush in team history by RB Jahvid Best (88-yards). The crowd was so electric that their noise played a large part in Chicago committing nine false start penalties throughout the game.
- With two receiving touchdowns in the Lions' 21-19 win at Chicago on (11/10/13), WR Calvin Johnson recorded his 62nd and 63rd career touchdowns and set a new Lions career record for receiving touchdowns. He broke the record of 62 previously set by WR Herman Moore. Detroit's road victory marked the first win at Soldier Field since a 16-7 win on 10/29/07.
- In the Lions 75th Thanksgiving game (11/27/14), Detroit defeated the Chicago Bears 34-17. With 146 receiving yards against Chicago, WR Calvin Johnson surpassed 10,000 career yards and became the first player in Lions history with 10,000 yards. He accomplished this feat in 115 games and set a new NFL record for the fewest games to record 10,000 receiving yards.
- With a 20-14 win at Chicago (12/21/14), the Lions reached 11 wins on the season for the fourth time in franchise history and the first since 1991. Head Coach Jim Caldwell became the first Lions head coach in his first season with the club to win 11 games since Patsy Clark led the Portsmouth Spartans to an 11-3 record in 1931. By reaching 11 wins, Caldwell has tied Clark for the most wins by a head coach in his first year with the Lions.
- With 74 receiving yards at Chicago on 10/2/16, WR Marvin Jones Jr. (482) registered the most receiving yards by any player in Lions history through the first four games of a season. Jones passed WR Calvin Johnson's previous best of 423 yards in the first quarter of the 2012 season.
- In Week 14 vs. Chicago (12/11/16), QB Matthew Stafford completed 21-of-35 passes (60.0 pct) for 223 yards and 1 touchdown in the Lions' 20-17 win over the Bears. Stafford led the Lions on a fourth-quarter comeback as he completed the game-winning drive with a 7-yard scramble for a touchdown with 3:17 left to play in the game. It was Stafford's eighth game-winning drive in the fourth quarter or OT in 2016, an NFL record.

The Lions started the season with a victory over Arizona in the season-opener 35-23. Both teams exchanged turnovers on their opening drives of the season, soon after Lions S Tavon Wilson's interception. Lions QB Matthew Stafford threw an interception on Detroit's first possession caught by Cardinals CB Justin Bethel who would return it 82 yards for a touchdown, putting the Cardinals up 7-0. Cardinals K Phil Dawson would later convert on a 24-yard field goal attempt, making it 10-0. After a few stalled drives from both teams, the Lions would get their first touchdown of the season, which was set up nicely by S Glover Quin's interception. It came with 4:30 left in the first half as Stafford found WR Marvin Jones Jr. for a 6-yard touchdown, capping off an 11 play, 42-yard drive. Just before time expired in the first half, Lions K Matt Prater knocked through a 58-yard field goal putting the score at 10-9 going into halftime. Out of the half, it was Arizona scored first following an impressive 94-yard drive from the Cardinals offense, as RB Kerwynn Williams took a handoff from Palmer up the middle for a 3-yard score, making it 17-9. However, the Lions defense once again would step up for the Lions, as DT A'Shawn Robinson would force a fumble while bringing down Cardinals RB David Johnson. The Lions made good on their opportunity, as Matthew Stafford found RB Theo Riddick in the middle of the field for a 7-yard touchdown to finish off a drive that took the Lions only two plays and 45 seconds to complete, closing the score to 17-15 in favor of the Cardinals. The ensuing Cardinals drive stalled thanks in part to a sack from DE Anthony Zettel, and the Lions once again able to respond as WR Kenny Golladay found the end zone on a 10-yard pass from Stafford for his first-career touchdown, giving the Lions a 21-17 lead with 9:33 left in the fourth quarter. It would not take Stafford long to once again connect with Golladay for a score, after another stalled Cardinals drive, Golladay was hit in stride and leaped into the air to bring down his second touchdown of the day on a 45-yard deep ball, once again extending the Lions lead to 28-17. The Lions defense would continue the already impressive performance. On the first play of the Cardinals ensuing drive, S Miles Killebrew picked off Palmer's pass intended for RB Andre Ellington for a 45-yard interception touchdown return upping the lead to 35-17 in favor of the Lions with 4:13 left to play in the game. It was the Lions third interception and fourth turnover created on the day. The Cardinals however would come down the field and score one last time, as Palmer finished off a 75-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown pass to Cardinals J.J. Nelson, narrowing the Lions lead to 35-23. After a failed onside kick attempt, Stafford closed the win by taking a knee.

NYG – A. Rosas(25)

The Detroit Lions improved to 2-0 for the first time since 2011 after defeating the New York Giants 24-10 at MetLife Stadium on Monday Night Football. The first score of the game came after both offenses exchanged stalled drives, as QB Matthew Stafford was able to lead his offense down the field 54 yards to set up a 27-yard touchdown strike to WR Marvin Jones Jr. On the very next drive, Giants QB Eli Manning drove down the field for a score, leading his offense to an 8-play, 75-yard drive capped off by an 18-yard touchdown pass to rookie TE Evan Engram to tie things up at 7-7 at the start off the second quarter. The teams then exchanged turnovers on back-to-back plays. A Stafford fumble gave the Giants possession of the ball, but Lions LB Tahir Whitehead was able to pick off a Manning pass intended for Engram on the ensuing possession. The Lions were then able to take advantage of the short field in front of them, as Stafford found the end zone for the second time of the night, this time connecting with TE Eric Ebron on a 7-yard touch pass to put the Lions up 14-7 with 8:43 left in the second quarter. With :30 seconds left in the first half, K Matt Prater was able to knock a 56-yard field goal off the bottom post, giving the Lions the 17-7 lead into halftime. The Giants struck first in the second half, as K Aldrick Rosas connected on a 25-yard attempt, capping off a 10 play, 68-yard drive and cutting the Lions' lead down to 17-10 with 4:58 left in the third quarter. The final scoring play of the game was generated off of special teams, as Lions rookie CB Jamal Agnew returned a Brad Wing punt 88-yards for a Lions touchdown, increasing the lead to 24-10 with 12:56 remaining in the fourth quarter. Agnew became the first player in Lions history to return a punt for a touchdown on Monday Night Football.

On the ensuing drive, Falcons QB Matt Ryan would once again lead an offensive drive down the field, as RB Davonte Freeman took a handoff and found the end zone, making the score 17-3 in favor of the Falcons with 5:00 minutes left in the first half.
