Setting the scene: The Cincinnati Bengals this week host the Detroit Lions on Sunday at Paul Brown Stadium. And while the Bengals will not have the hope of making the playoffs as an incentive to beat the Lions, they will have the prospect of playing the role of spoiler to use as motivation.

Cincinnati lost to the Minnesota Vikings 34-7 last week at U.S. Bank Stadium in Minneapolis. It was the third straight loss for the Bengals, dropping them to 5-9 and officially eliminating their remaining chances to qualify for postseason. Detroit, which earned their second straight win last week with a 20-10 home victory vs. Chicago, comes to town with an 8-6 record and still is very much in the hunt for an NFC Wild Card spot. The game is the 2017 home finale for the Bengals, who close out the season next week at Baltimore.

"This (losing streak) has been rough on all of us," said head coach Marvin Lewis, "but the only way out of it is to fight our way out of it. Our guys realize that the best way to turn things around is to get things in gear and go win, so let's finish this season the correct way and win these last two ballgames."

Against Minnesota, Cincinnati's starting lineup was shuffled significantly due to injuries for the second straight week, particularly on defense. As they had a week earlier in a 33-7 loss vs. the Chicago Bears, the Bengals entered the Vikings game without six regular starters, including five on defense. Minnesota, which is poised to clinch a much-coveted bye on Wild Card weekend and possibly home-field advantage throughout the NFC playoffs, capitalized on Cincinnati's depleted units and controlled much of the game in front of an enthusiastic and energized home crowd. The Vikings jumped out to 24-0 halftime lead en route to the win, and the Bengals' offense was unable to counter against a deficit which continued to grow throughout the game. Cincinnati added a late score with 6:22 left when HB Giovanni Bernard had a two-yard touchdown run for the game's final points, but it was one of few Bengals highlights.

"You don't want to play from behind against a team that is playing well," said Lewis. "That makes it tough. We struggled the last two weeks after not executing early in the games. Playing catch-up in the NFL isn't an easy thing to do."

On the final stat sheet, the Vikings held significant advantages over the Bengals in net yards (346-161), total first downs (18-8), net rushing yards (124-46) and time of possession (35:52-24:08). QB Case Keenum staged a near flawless game for Minnesota, completing 20 of 23 passes for 236 yards, two TDs and no interceptions. Vikings RB Jerick McKinnon caught seven passes for 114 yards on top of his 27 yards rushing.

"You have to find a way to stay motivated," said WR Brandon LaFell, when asked about preparing to play Detroit after three straight losses. "You can't be looking to teammates or coaches for motivation — you have to motivate yourself. You have to have pride, and you have to play for yourself and your teammates.

As hard as it is, you have to find a way."

This week's matchup with the Lions will be the third meeting between Lewis and Detroit head coach Jim Caldwell. Caldwell faced the Bengals as a head coach of the Indianapolis Colts twice — in 2010 (a 23-17 Colts win) and '11 (a 27-17 Bengals win) — but this is his first matchup against Cincinnati as head coach of the Lions.

Though it hasn't been the case thus far this season, Lewis' Bengals teams historically are bad news for the NFC North Division. Cincinnati owns a 10-5 record under Lewis against teams from the NFC North. The Bengals won the first seven of those meetings before going 3-5 in the last eight matchups. Detroit will be the last of three straight NFC North opponents for the Bengals in 2017, and the final of four overall. Cincinnati is 0-3 against the NFC North this season thus far. In addition to last week's loss to the Vikings and the Bears two weeks ago, the Bengals fell to the Green Bay Packers 27-24 in overtime in Game 3.

Against Detroit, Cincinnati will look to revive an edge they possessed over NFC teams overall for five seasons from 2011-15. During that time, the Bengals won 15 of 20 matchups with NFC opponents, going 15-4-1 (.775 winning percentage). That stretch included a 27-24 win against the Lions at Detroit in 2013. Over the past two seasons, however, the Bengals' edge over NFC foes has weakened. In seven meetings since the start of last season, NFC foes have gone 5-1-1 against Cincinnati.

The series: The Bengals have won eight of the last nine against the Lions, including five straight. Cincinnati owns an 8-3 series lead, and its .727 winning percentage against Detroit is their second-highest against any NFL foe, topped only by a .730 percentage against Philadelphia (9-3-1).

The last three Bengals wins over the Lions have been part of AFC North Division championship seasons for Cincinnati. In 2005, the Bengals won 41-17 at Detroit, clinching the AFC North title on Dec. 18. In 2009, the Bengals won 23-13 at home on Dec. 6. And on Oct. 20, 2013, the Bengals won 27-24 at Detroit.

The Bengals lead 3-2 in games at Cincinnati. Detroit's two wins at Cincinnati occurred in 1974 (23-19 at Riverfront Stadium; it was the Lions' first visit to the Queen City) and in '92 (19-13 at Riverfront). The two teams have met in Cincinnati just once since that 1992 game, in 2009.

Team bests from the series:

Bengals — MOST POINTS: 42, in a 42-7 win at Cincinnati in 1989. LARGEST VICTORY MARGIN: 35, in the 42-7 win in '89. FEWEST POINTS ALLOWED: 7, in the '89 game.

Lions — MOST POINTS: 38, in a 38-3 win at Detroit in 1970. LARGEST VICTORY MARGIN: 35, in the 38-3 game in '70. FEWEST POINTS ALLOWED: 3, in the '70 game.

The last meetings: Summaries of the last two Bengals-Lions meetings are on page 15 of this news release.

Bengals career records watch: Here is a look at potential upcoming movement in the Bengals' career records book (regular season). Team records are listed in full detail on pages 170-179 of the 2017 media guide.

- QB Andy Dalton has 22 career 300-yard passing games, one shy of QB Boomer Esiason for the Bengals' all-time lead.

- Dalton also has 3471 career passing attempts, 93 shy of Esiason (3564) for second place all-time. QB Ken Anderson (4475) is the Bengals' all-time leader. Dalton passed QB Carson Palmer (3217) for third place all-time in Game

5, Oct. 8 vs. Buffalo.

- WR A.J. Green has 31 career 100-yard receiving games, tied with WR Chad Johnson for the Bengals' all-time lead.

- Green also has 57 career receiving TDs, six shy of WR Carl Pickens (63) for second place all-time. Johnson (66) is the Bengals' all-time leader. Green passed WR Isaac Curtis (53) for third place all-time in Game 9, Nov. 12 at Tennessee.

- Green also has 57 career total TDs, seven shy of Pickens and RB James Brooks (64) for third place all-time. FB Pete Johnson (70) is the Bengals' all-time leader. Green passed WR Isaac Curtis (53) for fifth place all-time in Game 9, Nov. 12 at Tennessee.

- DE Carlos Dunlap has 62.5 career sacks, tied with LB Reggie Williams* for second place all-time. DE Eddie Edwards* (83.5) is the Bengals' all-time leader. Dunlap passed DE Ross Browner* (59) for third place all-time in Game 10, Nov. 19 at Denver.

- DT Geno Atkins has 61 career sacks, 1.5 shy of Dunlap and Williams (62.5) for second place all-time. Edwards* (83.5) is the Bengals' all-time leader.

*NOTE: The NFL has counted sacks as official statistics since 1982. However, the Bengals have sack statistics compiled since 1976 and recognize those sacks recorded from '76-81 in its records. Thus, please note that, because the NFL has sacks statistics for all teams only since 1982, the Bengals' sack statistics for players whose careers included seasons prior to '82 will not be included in league information.

Records vs. Lions: The longest rushing gain in Bengals history was 96 yards for a TD by HB Corey Dillon, at Detroit on Oct. 28, 2001.

The most interception return yards in a game occurred on Nov. 22, 1992 vs. Detroit, when LB James Francis recorded 107 return yards on two INTs.

The most kickoff return yards against the Bengals in a game has been 229 (on five returns) by Detroit's Desmond Howard in 2001. Howard did not have a return for a TD in the game.

Individually vs. Lions: Current Bengals' past offensive performances for Cincinnati against Detroit include:

- QB Andy Dalton: One game; 24-for-34 passing (70.6 percent) for 372 yards, and three TDs (135.9 rating).

- WR A.J. Green: One game; Six catches for 155 yards (25.8), with one TD.

- HB Giovanni Bernard: One game; Seven rushes for 27 yards (3.9); Five receptions for 32 yards (6.4).

- TE Tyler Eifert (Reserve/Injured): One game; Three receptions for 45 yards (15.0), with one TD.

Bengals' defense locks down the red zone: The Bengals currently rank third in the NFL in red-zone defense, allowing touchdowns on only 44.0 percent of opponents' trips into the red zone (22 of 50). Opponents have come away with points on 92.0 percent of their trips to the red zone (24 FGs, 22 TDs).

Last week at Minnesota, the Bengals allowed TDs on three of four Vikings trips to the red zone.

The Lions enter this weekend's game ranked 13th in red-zone offense, scoring 23 TDs in 40 trips.

Bengals' road offense converts in red zone: Scoring on the road can be difficult for any offense, and so is scoring TDs in the red zone.

But the Bengals have managed near perfection when combining both of those challenges, scoring TDs on 12 of their 13 trips in the red zone as the road team this season. That 92.3-percent TD conversion rate is the best in the NFL, with the Lions (12 of 18; 66.7 percent), Jets (eight of 12; 66.7 percent), Raiders (six of nine; 66.7 percent) and Redskins (12 of 18; 66.7 percent) coming closest.

Prior to Game 9 at Tennessee, the Bengals' road offense had been a perfect eight-for-eight on the year at converting red-zone trips to TDs. A fumbled snap — and Titans recovery — on the first of their two red-zone trips, though, spelled the end of the streak.

Last week at Minnesota, the Bengals scored a TD on their only trip to the red zone.

Overall, Cincinnati ranks 14th in scoring TDs in the red zone, reaching the end zone in 20 of their 35 trips (57.1 percent).

Here's a look at each of the Bengals' road games this season, along with how their offense fared in the red zone.

NFC beware of The Jungle: The Bengals are 19-7-2 (.714 winning percentage) in their last 28 games against NFC teams at Paul Brown Stadium, including a 6-1-1 mark in the last eight such games.

Cincinnati's game this weekend vs. Detroit is the second of two games against NFC teams at PBS this season (the first was Dec. 10 vs. Chicago).

Twenty-seven of the last 28 games vs. the NFC at PBS have been played under head coach Marvin Lewis (18-7-2; .704).

Here's a look at the Bengals' last eight games vs. NFC teams at Paul Brown Stadium:

DATE	OPPONENT	RESULT
9-22-13	Green Bay .....	Bengals won, 34-30
12-22-13	Minnesota .....	Bengals won, 42-14
9-14-14	Atlanta .....	Bengals won, 24-10

12-10-17	Chicago .....	Bears won, 33-7

One home game, a 27-27 tie with the Washington Redskins on Oct. 30, 2016, is not noted in these statistics because it was played in London, England.

Bengals-Lions connections: Lions WR Marvin Jones was a fifth-round draft pick (166th overall) of the Bengals in 2012 and was with Cincinnati through the '15 season ... Bengals DT Ryan Glasgow and Lions C/G Graham Glasgow are brothers, and they played together at the University of Michigan ... Lions RB Tion Green played at the University of Cincinnati ... Lions T Taylor Decker is from Vandalia, Ohio (Vandalia Butler High School) and played at Ohio State University ... Bengals HB Cedric Peerman (Reserve/Injured) was with the Lions during the 2009 season ... Bengals OT Jake Fisher (Reserve/Non-Football Illness) is from Traverse City, Michigan (Traverse City West High School) ... Bengals CB Darqueze Dennard played at Michigan State University ... Lions DT Christian Ringo was with the Bengals briefly earlier this season ... Lions TE Michael Roberts, S Rolan Milligan (practice squad) and G Zac Kerin (Reserve/Injured) played at the University of Toledo. Kerin is from Delaware, Ohio (Olentangy High School) ... Bengals assistant head coach/offensive line coach Paul Alexander coached at the University of Michigan from 1985-86, and at Central Michigan University from 1987-91 ... Lions head coach Jim Caldwell coached at the University of Louisville in 1985 ... Lions linebackers coach Bill Sheridan coached at the University of Cincinnati from 1989-91.

Bengals celebrate 50th season: The Bengals are celebrating their 50th season in 2017. A commemorative logo is featured on patches the team wears on its uniforms, on the field at Paul Brown Stadium, and on the windows of the East Club Lounge facing downtown. Three-dimensional sculptures of the 50th season logo are located throughout the Cincinnati, Northern Kentucky and Dayton areas, including outside Paul Brown Stadium.

A key component of the Bengals 50th season celebration is the Bengals First 50, which recognizes the top 50 retired Bengals players as voted by fans and media. The Bengals First 50 and other Bengals legends will be recognized during halftime ceremonies at every regular-season home game, which will include video highlights and an on-field presentation.

Bengals legends being honored at Sunday's Lions game include Bruce Kozerski, Dave Lapham, Doug Pelfrey and Bob Trumpy.

Uniform watch: The Bengals are scheduled to wear black jerseys and white pants this week vs. Detroit.

Since 2004, the year of the Bengals' last significant uniform redesign, a number of color options for jerseys and pants have been available. Below are the records (regular season plus postseason) for the different combinations:

JERSEY	PANTS	W-L-T	PCT.
Orange*	Black.....	6-0-0	1.000
Orange*	White.....	15-6-1	.705
Black	Black.....	16-12-1	.569

White (CR)*	White (CR)* .....	1-1-0	.500
White	Black.....	26-30-0	.464
White	White.....	19-29-0	.396

* — Orange is designated as a "specialty jersey" with the NFL and can be worn for only two games per year. Color rush (CR) uniforms have been worn for only Thursday night games since 2016.

THE HEAD COACHES

Marvin Lewis in 2017 extends his Bengals-record head coaching tenure to 15 seasons, nearly twice that of Paul Brown (1968-75) and Sam Wyche ('84-91), who are tied for second with eight seasons each.

Lewis has led his teams to the postseason seven times, including a five-year run from 2011-15. The total number of playoff trips and the five-year streak of consecutive appearances are Bengals records, and the Bengals were one of only four NFL teams to reach the playoffs every year from 2011-15. The playoff run ended in 2016, however, as Cincinnati finished 6-9-1. The Bengals' last five losses came by a total of 16 points. Injuries were a greater-than-usual factor, and crucial missed place kicks plagued the team to an extent not seen for many years.

The Bengals' 58-36-2 record over the last six full seasons (2011-16) under Lewis gave the team a .615 winning percentage for that span, ranked sixth in the NFL.

Lewis has 123 career victories, the most in Bengals history by a margin of 59 over Wyche (64). Lewis' record now is 123-112-3 in the regular season and 123-119-3 including postseason.

Lewis in 2017 ranks second among NFL head coaches in longest current tenure with one team, trailing only Bill Belichick, who is in his 18th straight season with New England. In the category of most seasons as head coach with one or more teams, Lewis ranks fourth among active coaches, behind Belichick (23rd season in '17), Andy Reid (19) and John Fox (16).

Lewis has developed an impressive "coaching tree" during his Bengals tenure. Five of his former assistants have become NFL head coaches, and four of those are leading teams in 2017. The list, including their teams and head coaching tenures, includes former Bengals offensive coordinators Jay Gruden (Washington, 2014-present) and Hue Jackson (Cleveland, '16-present), former defensive coordinators Leslie Frazier (Minnesota, '10-13) and Mike Zimmer (Minnesota, '14-present), and former defensive backs coach Vance Joseph (Denver, '17).

Lewis was the consensus choice for NFL Coach of the Year in 2009, when the Bengals won the AFC North Division while sweeping all six division games. The Bengals also were AFC North champions under Lewis in 2005, '13 and '15.

Named the ninth head coach in Bengals history on Jan. 14, 2003, Lewis started quickly. His '03 club finished 8-8, six games better than the '02 club, good for the biggest improvement in the NFL that year.

Lewis came to the Bengals with credentials as a record-setting NFL defensive coordinator, having played a huge role in a championship season. His six seasons (1996-2001) as Baltimore Ravens coordinator included a Super Bowl victory in '00, when his defense set the NFL record for fewest points allowed in a 16-game campaign (165). That team clipped 22 points off the previous mark. The 2000 Ravens are always an entry in discussions regarding the best NFL defensive units of all time.

In 2002, the season before he joined the Bengals, Lewis led the Washington Redskins to a No. 5 NFL defensive ranking, serving as assistant head coach as well as defensive coordinator.

He had his first NFL assignment from 1992-95, as linebackers coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers. He aided the development of four Pro Bowl players — Kevin Greene, Chad Brown, Levon Kirkland and Greg Lloyd.

Lewis began his coaching career as linebackers coach at his alma mater Idaho State from 1981-84. ISU's team (also nicknamed the Bengals) finished 12-1 in Lewis' first season there and won the NCAA Division 1-AA championship.

Lewis played LB at Idaho State, earning All-Big Sky Conference honors for three consecutive years (1978-80). He also saw action at quarterback and free safety during his college career. He received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Idaho State in 1981, and earned his master's in athletic administration in '82. He was inducted into Idaho State's Hall of Fame in 2001.0

Born Sept. 23, 1958, Lewis attended Fort Cherry High School in McDonald, Pa. (near Pittsburgh), where he was an all-conference quarterback and safety. He also earned high school letters in wrestling and baseball. He and his wife, Peggy, have a daughter, Whitney, and a son, Marcus. Marcus Lewis joined the Bengals' coaching staff for 2014 and remains on the staff for '17.

Jim Caldwell was named the Lions' 26th head coach on Jan. 14, 2014. Caldwell enters his fourth season in Detroit after leading the team to the postseason in two of his first three years ('14 and '16). Including playoffs, he owns a 35-29 record as head coach of the Lions, and his career NFL coaching record is 63-53.

By earning a playoff berth in 2016, Caldwell joined Buddy Parker (1952, '53) and Bobby Ross ('97, '99) as the only coaches in Lions history to lead the team to the playoffs twice in their first three seasons with the club. In eight of the team's nine wins in '16, the Lions trailed in the fourth quarter and went on to win the game. Detroit set a new NFL record, surpassing the previous total of seven set by the 2009 Indianapolis Colts (also coached by Jim Caldwell), for the most wins in a season after trailing in the fourth quarter.

With Baltimore, Caldwell originally was Ravens' quarterbacks coach. Was promoted to offensive coordinator with just three weeks to play in the 2012 season, and went on to help lead Baltimore to the AFC North crown and a win over San Francisco in Super Bowl XLVII.

Caldwell coached the previous 10 seasons (2002-11) with the Indianapolis Colts, including three as head coach ('09-11). Colts had nine-consecutive playoff appearances that included two Super Bowl berths (XLI and XLIV) and one Super Bowl title (XLI).

Caldwell began his NFL coaching career as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' quarterbacks coach in 2001.

Caldwell was head coach at Wake Forest (1993-2000) and an assistant at Penn State (1986-1992), Louisville (1985), Colorado (1982-84), Northwestern (1981) and Southern Illinois (1978-1980). Was a four-year starter at defensive back and earned bachelor's degree in liberal arts from Iowa (1973-76).

Caldwell was born on Jan. 16, 1955 in Beloit, Wis.. He and his wife, Cheryl, have four children — sons Jimmy, Jermaine and Jared, and daughter Natalie.

Lewis vs. Lions: Lewis leads, 3-0.

Lewis vs. Caldwell: Series tied, 1-1.

Caldwell vs. Bengals: Series tied, 1-1.

BENGALS NOTES

Geno chasing another crown: With two sacks last week at Minnesota, DT Geno Atkins has opened up a lead over the rest of the field in this season's race for most sacks by an NFL interior defensive lineman. With only two games remaining, Atkins (9.0 sacks) leads Jacksonville DT Malik Jackson (8.0) by one, with Dallas's David Irving (7.0) and Carolina's Kawann Short (6.0) also in the hunt.

Atkins has finished in at least a tie for the NFL lead in sacks by an interior lineman in four of his seven previous seasons. Last year, he claimed the honor outright with nine sacks, besting DT Aaron Donald of the Los Angeles Rams, who was second with eight. No other interior lineman had more than seven.

Atkins also was the outright winner in 2012, when he had a career-best 12.5 sacks. He tied for the league lead in 2011 (7.5 sacks) and 2015 (11).

Atkins has battled through a toe injury the last two weeks that limited him to a season-low 12 snaps vs Chicago and 29 at Minnesota.

Atkins has 61 career sacks, most by a Bengals interior lineman and fourth overall.

Andy and A.J. stretch the field: Since entering the NFL together in 2011, QB Andy Dalton and WR A.J. Green have connected on more passes of 50 yards or longer (21) than any other QB-WR tandem in the league.

Dalton and Green have connected on three passes of 50 yards or longer this season — a 50-yarder vs. Houston, a 77-yard TD vs. Buffalo and a 70-yard TD at Tennessee.

The duo has started 97 of a possible 110 regular-season games together over their seven seasons.

Here's a look at QB-WR duos with the most pass plays of 50 or more yards since 2011 (regular season only).

QB	WR	TEAM	NO. OF 50+ PASS PLAYS
Andy Dalton	A.J. Green	Cincinnati	21
Aaron Rodgers	Jordy Nelson	Green Bay	19
Matthew Stafford	Calvin Johnson	Detroit	15
Matt Ryan	Julio Jones	Atlanta	14
Eli Manning	Odell Beckham	N.Y. Giants	12

Defense's 30-point streak ends at 22: The Bengals have now allowed more than 30 points in two consecutive games, an uncharacteristic stretch considering their record-setting streak that was alive just two weeks ago. Going into Game 13 vs. Chicago, the Bengals' defense, led by fourth-year defensive coordinator Paul Guenther, had held opponents under 30 points in 22 consecutive games. It was the longest such streak in team history, and at the time had been the longest active streak in the NFL.

But the Bears tallied 33 points in a winning effort in Game 13, marking the first time since Game 6 of 2016 (a 35-17 loss at New England) that the Bengals relinquished more than 30 points. That was followed by 34 given up to the Vikings last week.

The Bengals' previous record in this category was 20 consecutive games, which was accomplished twice. The first streak began in Game 3 of 1981, a 20-17 loss vs. Cleveland, and lasted through Game 5 of '82, a 23-10 win vs. Cleveland. The second instance started in Game 16 of 1988, a 20-17 OT win vs. Washington, and lasted through Game 3 of '90, a 41-7 win vs. New England. The Bengals went to the Super Bowl in both 1981 and '88.

The Bengals' streak had been the longest in the NFL since the N.Y. Giants' streak of 23 was snapped in a 51-17 loss vs. the L.A. Rams earlier this season. The Bengals also had been one of three teams, along with the Eagles and Chargers, to hold each of their 2017 opponents to fewer than 30 points. Both of those other streaks, however, have since ended.

Down five starters last week due to injuries (one more left injured in the second quarter), the Bengals have now slipped to 15th in scoring defense on the season (21.8 points per game), after ranking as high as second earlier in the year (16.6 through Week 6). Last season, they finished eighth in scoring defense (19.7), thanks in large part to a seven-game stretch to close the year in which they held opponents under 20 points six times while allowing a scoring average of 15.0. That followed a 2015 campaign in which they ranked second in scoring defense (17.4). In 2014, Guenther's first season as defensive coordinator, Cincinnati ranked 12th in scoring defense.

"My job is to limit points, period," Guenther said. "That's what I get paid to do. It's not holding them to 200 yards but have three plays be touchdowns. Regardless of where they get the ball — if we turn it over (on offense) and it's on the 10-yard line — let's go play defense. Hold them to three. I'm paid to keep them off the scoreboard."

Andy's blemish-free run ends at six: Bengals QB Andy Dalton entered Game 13 vs. Chicago riding a streak of six straight games played (Games 7-12) without an INT. But an interception on a tipped pass midway through the third quarter ended his run, marking his first interception since the third quarter of Game 6, Oct. 22 at Pittsburgh.

Dalton's streak was only the fourth in Bengals history, and the first since 1998, to reach at least six regular-season games without an INT. Neil O'Donnell has the most consecutive regular-season games in club history without an INT, with seven in 1998.

Here's a full list of Bengals QBs to go six full games without an INT, along with their yards per attempt and number of TD passes during their streaks:

PLAYER	YEAR(S)	GAMES	YDS/ATT	TD
Neil O'Donnell	1998	7	7.3	11
Ken Anderson	1973-74	6	8.7	13
Ken Anderson	1979-80	6	6.8	5
Andy Dalton	2017	6	7.3	11

The Bengals managed a 3-3 record during Dalton's streak. The team had a losing record during O'Donnell's streak (2-5). The Bengals went 6-0 during Anderson's first streak and 2-4 in his second.

Dalton completed 101 of 171 passes (59.1 percent) for 1246 yards and 11 TDs during his six game stretch. He had a 103.1 passer rating over that span, compared to 102.8 for O'Donnell in his seven-game streak, 123.9 for Anderson in his first six-gamer and 93.1 in his second six-gamer. Dalton topped a passer rating of 100 in four of the six contests, compared to O'Donnell's two of seven and Anderson's five of six (first streak) and one of six (second).

Dalton and Kansas City QB Alex Smith, whose streak of eight games without an INT was snapped in Week 9 at Dallas earlier this year, are the only QBs to go six consecutive games without an INT this season.

Dalton's INT-free run a career-best: Bengals QB Andy Dalton's INT in the third quarter of Game 13 vs. Chicago was his first pick since the third quarter of Game 6 at Pittsburgh, ending a career-best stretch of 193 pass attempts without an INT. The streak, which covered 27 full quarters of play, stands as the second-most consecutive pass attempts by a Bengal without an INT, behind only Neil O'Donnell's 238 in 1998. His streak also stands as the third-longest in the NFL this season, behind 287 straight by Alex Smith and 196 by Matthew Stafford.

Dalton also has INT-free streaks of 147 and 165 attempts, which he accomplished separately just last season.

Here's a look at the longest streaks of pass attempts without an INT in the NFL this season. None of the streaks listed below are currently active.

PLAYER	TEAM	PASS ATTEMPTS
Alex Smith	Kansas City	287
Matthew Stafford	Detroit	196
Andy Dalton	Cincinnati	193
Tom Brady	New England	188
Drew Brees	New Orleans	166

Lawson leads rookies in sacks: With only two weeks remaining in the NFL season, Bengals LB Carl Lawson leads all rookies in sacks, with 7.5. Lawson has been held out of the sack column in the last three contests, however he's maintained a lead of 1.5 over Pittsburgh LB T.J. Watt and Atlanta DE Takkarist McKinley, who both have 6.0. Also in the mix are Cleveland DL Myles Garrett and Philadelphia DE Derek Barnett, at 5.0. Among all players, Lawson stands in a tie for 27th, with Arizona LB Chandler Jones leading the way at 15.0.

Lawson's last sack came in Game 11 vs. Cleveland, when he recorded a game-high 1.5. That performance was topped only by his 2.5 sacks in Game 3 at Green Bay, the most by a Bengals rookie in a game since Justin Smith on Dec. 9, 2001 vs. Jacksonville (three).

Lawson has also had a knack for making sacks in key moments. In Game 7 vs. Indianapolis, his seven-yard sack of Jacoby Brissett on the Colts' final drive, as they were looking to get into range for a potential game-winning FG, helped secure a Bengals victory.

Carl eyeing Carlos' rookie record: LB Carl Lawson's impressive rookie campaign is entering rare Bengals air. Through 14 games, the pass-rushing specialist has 7.5 sacks, just two shy of Cincinnati's rookie record of 9.5 for a full season, set by DE Carlos Dunlap in 2010.

In 2010, Dunlap played in only 12 games — inactive for four of the first five contests — and didn't record a sack until the team's ninth game (Nov. 14 at Indianapolis). He finished the season on a tear though, recording at least a half sack in seven of the last eight games, including four multi-sack efforts.

Lawson, on the other hand, started hot, with a 2.5-sack effort in just his third game. He's since maintained a steady pace, with at least a shared sack in six of his 14 games this season.

Lawson leads all NFL rookies in sacks, by a margin of 1.5 over Pittsburgh LB T.J. Watt and Atlanta DE Takkarist McKinley (both with 6.0), and by a margin of 2.5 over Cleveland DL Myles Garrett and Philadelphia DE Derek Barnett (both with 5.0). In 2010, Dunlap narrowly missed out on the rookie sack crown when Detroit's Ndamukong Suh logged his 10th sack late in the fourth quarter of the Lions' finale.

As far as quarterback pressures, Lawson's team-leading 19 QB hits through 14 games already tops Dunlap's rookie season total of 14.

Marvin's youth movement: According to information released by the NFL regarding opening-week rosters, considered the baseline for comparing year-to-year roster information, the Bengals began the 2017 season with the youngest roster (average of 25.45 years old) in Marvin Lewis' 15 seasons as head coach. Lewis' next-youngest editions were in 2004 (25.7) and '11 (25.74). The Bengals' opening-week roster also ranked as the third-youngest in the NFL this year, behind Cleveland (24.17) and the L.A. Rams (25.11). The average age league-wide was 26.05.

The Bengals' 14 rookie or first-year players on the Week 1 roster were also the most ever for an opening week in the Marvin Lewis era, edging out the 2004 season (13). The total ranked as the third-highest in the NFL this year, behind Cleveland (16) and Detroit (15). League-wide, teams averaged 10.53 rookie or first-year players.

In terms of NFL experience, the Bengals' average of 3.75 years was the fourth-lowest in the Marvin Lewis era, behind the 2004 (3.57), '06 (3.6) and '08 (3.67) seasons. The Bengals this year tied for the seventh least-experienced roster in the league, with Cleveland leading the way at 2.55 years of experience. The average level of experience across the league was 4.10 years.

The Bengals also totaled only seven players aged 30 or older, which tied for the fourth-fewest in Lewis' tenure, behind the 2011 (two), '04 (six) and '12 (six) seasons. The 2009 roster also had seven players 30 or older. The Bengals' 2015 roster had the most players (11) aged 30 or older.

Eleven of the 44 players to see action in Week 1 (two were active/DNP) were making their Bengals debut, and nine of those players were making their NFL debut.

Defense leans on the 'kids': While the core of the Cincinnati's defense is no doubt recognizable with veteran stalwarts like Geno Atkins, Vontaze Burfict and Carlos Dunlap filling up the stat sheets, this edition of the Bengals' defense sports an unusually young surrounding cast. The Cincinnati defense has leaned heavily upon the 'kids,' a nickname coined by several analysts for the wave of young Bengals, and the results have been impressive.

Fourteen of the 30 Bengals players to see time on defense this season are either rookies, first- or second-year players, including eight who have been on the field for more than a quarter of the team's 1011 defensive snaps. That includes second-year LB Nick Vigil, who has played the fourth-most snaps (759 out of 1011 possible) of any defender, despite missing the last three games, as well as parts of the previous two contests, with an injury. Vigil still leads the team in tackles though, with 77.

Bengal rookie and second-year players have combined to play 3488 out of an available 11,121 snaps (1011 plays, multiplied by 11 players on the field at a time) this season, which works out to 31.4 percent. And from a production standpoint, they haven't disappointed, accounting for 10.5 of the team's 38 sacks, three of its nine INTs, 17 of its 53 passes defended, and 251 of its 881 total tackles (28.5 percent). And on special teams, rookie DE Jordan Willis has a blocked punt, and second-year CB KeiVarae Russell has a blocked FG.

Eight of the Bengals' 18 draft choices over the last two years were used on defenders, and seven of those players have seen action this season on defense, combining for 3343 snaps. The lone defensive draft selection to not appear on defense, rookie sixth-round pick Brandon Wilson, has been a contributor on special teams.

Here are the Bengals' rookie and second-year players to see time on defense this year: Vigil (759 snaps), CB William Jackson (564), LB Carl Lawson (402), DT Ryan Glasgow (365), S Clayton Fejedelem (357), DE Jordan Willis (320), DT Andrew Billings (304), LB Jordan Evans (274), LB Hardy Nickerson (56), CB KeiVarae Russell (46), Josh Tupou (19), CB Tony McRae (13), LB Brandon Bell (six) and G Alex Redmond (three). Redmond was called into action on defense in Game 13 vs. Chicago, due to injuries along the defensive line.

Dunlap the playmaker: Bengals DE Carlos Dunlap's playmaking ability has been on full display in recent weeks. In Game 12 vs. Pittsburgh, he recorded a sack, a pass defended (batted pass) and a QB hit. In Game 11 vs. Cleveland, he had a half sack and an additional QB hit. And previous week, in a win at Denver, he recorded two sacks of Brock Osweiler, including a seven-yarder on Denver's final drive as they were driving for a potential game-tying FG attempt. Two plays later, the Bengals forced the Broncos into a turnover on downs.

Earlier this season, in Game 7 vs. Indianapolis, Dunlap made perhaps the defensive play of the year so far for Cincinnati, when he tipped a Jacoby Brissett pass in the fourth quarter, hauled it in and returned it 16 yards for a touchdown. The score, which came with 6:58 remaining in the game and the Bengals trailing by six, put Cincinnati on top to stay, 24-23. It was Dunlap's third career touchdown and second pick-six. Dunlap also recorded a sack of Brissett earlier in the contest.

For the season, Dunlap has 5.5 sacks, 19 QB hits, five passes defended, 10 tackles for losses, a forced fumble and the INT for a touchdown.

Dunlap has 62.5 sacks for his career, tied for second place all-time in Bengals history with LB Reggie Williams. Dunlap passed DE Ross Browner (59 sacks) on the all-time list in Game 10, Nov. 19 at Denver.

And at 28 years old — he turns 29 after the season — all-time Bengals sack leader Eddie Edwards (83.0) is beginning to come into focus. Dunlap, now in his eighth season out of the University of Florida, has averaged 8.1 sacks over his seven previous seasons in stripes, while Edwards averaged seven sacks over 12 seasons (1977-88).

Dunlap earned his second Pro Bowl nod last season, after filling up the stat sheet with eight sacks, a team-leading 15 PDs and three FFs.

In 2015, Dunlap had 13.5 sacks, second-most in Bengals history. Besides his 62.5 sacks, his career totals include 16 FFs, eight FRs, 45 PDs, four blocked FGs and three TDs scored.

"Carlos brings us a lot, and he needs to keep bringing it for us," said defensive coordinator Paul Guenther. "The key thing for Carlos is that he's an athlete, and a very big athlete. He's explosive and he just makes plays. He has also developed into a mature guy and a team leader."

Defense's sack streak ends at 34: The Bengals were held without a sack in Game 6 at Pittsburgh, marking the first time in more than two seasons they did not record at least one sack in a game. The 34-game streak (regular season) began in Week 4 of 2015, in a 36-21 home win over Kansas City in which the defense tallied five sacks. It had been the longest active streak in the NFL and the longest since Green Bay's streak of 42 ended in 2015.

The sack streak registers as the second-longest in team history, behind a 50-gamer that stretched over parts of five seasons in the early 1980s (Nov. 8, 1981 to Sept. 15, 1985). The next-longest streak is 32, which spanned from Nov. 8, 2010 to Oct. 21, 2012.

Over Cincinnati's 34-game streak, the Bengals recorded 87 sacks for 545 yards. Twenty-one different Bengals had at least a half sack over the span, and the defense logged more than one sack in 24 of the 34 games. DT Geno Atkins totaled the most sacks during the stretch, with 22, and he recorded at least a half sack in 19 of the games. DE Carlos Dunlap was a close second, with 20, and logged at least a half sack in 16 different games.

Through 14 games this season, 12 different Bengals have recorded at least a half sack. Cincinnati has 38 sacks this season, tied for seventh in the NFL.

Geno's sack streak halted at six: Bengals DT Geno Atkins' most productive sack streak of his stellar eight-year career ended in Game 2 at Green Bay, when he was held without a sack for the first time since Game 12 of last season. Atkins had recorded at least a half sack in six consecutive games. His streak of six tied for the longest streak in Bengals history with DE Eddie Edwards (1983), LB Reggie Williams ('84) and current DE Carlos Dunlap (2010), and it had also been the longest active streak in the NFL at the time.

Over the span of the streak, Atkins recorded 7.5 sacks for 51.5 yards. He had two multi-sack efforts during the streak — two sacks for 19 yards in Game 13 at Cleveland last season (the first game in the streak), and two sacks in Game 2 of 2017 vs. Houston.

Atkins has 61 sacks for his career, fourth place all-time in team history and the most ever by a Bengals interior lineman.

Add Jackson to the list: Early in the second quarter of Game 3 at Green Bay, CB William Jackson jumped in front of Packers WR Jordy Nelson, snagged an Aaron Rodgers pass for an INT and returned it 75 yards for a TD.

It was a big play for the Bengals at the time, giving the Bengals a 21-7 lead, though Cincinnati eventually lost to the Packers in overtime. Despite the loss, that INT stood out from a historical perspective, not only because it was a TD, but because it also was the first INT of Jackson's career.

Jackson, a second-year player, became just the 14th Bengal to score on his first career INT and the first since DE Carlos Dunlap did it in 2012. Jackson was the first defensive back to do it since CB Johnathan Joseph scored on his first INT in 2007.

Jackson, from the University of Houston, was the Bengals' first-round pick in the 2016 NFL Draft. He spent his entire rookie season on the Reserve/Injured list with a pectoral muscle tear, thus he recorded the INT for a TD in just his third career game.

Here is a complete list of the Bengals players who scored a TD on their first career INT:

Dre's INT a historical oddity: In the first quarter of the Bengals' Game 10 win at Denver, with the Broncos facing a third-and-three at the Cincinnati four-yard line, CB Dre Kirkpatrick picked off a Brock Osweiler pass in the end zone and sprinted down the field toward what would've been his third career pick-six. But, with about 15 yards to go before reaching the end zone, Kirkpatrick fumbled the ball without any apparent disruption by a Bronco. He did manage to recover his own fumble at the Denver one-yard line, but before the Bengals punched it into the end zone three plays later on a one-yard Tyler Kroft TD reception, the blooper had already spread around the internet like wildfire.

Kirkpatrick's 101-yard return, which he shared a laugh about after the game, now stands as the longest INT return in NFL history to not result in a TD. The next-longest INT without a TD was 98 yards, by Cleveland CB Brandon McDonald on Dec. 15, 2008, in a game at Philadelphia.

Jamie Erdahl of the CBS broadcast reported shortly after the play that a visibly exhausted Kirkpatrick became sick upon returning to the sideline, a victim of exhaustion and the Denver altitude (he did not miss any game time).

"They were coming from both ends and I was running this way," Kirkpatrick told reporters after the game. "[WR Emmanuel] Sanders and [WR Demaryius] Thomas were coming. I tried to catch the ball, and I thought they poked it out. I have to hold on to the ball. I didn't know where they were, it was just an act of the moment. I have to hold on to the ball, no excuses for it. I have to put that in."

Since the play, Kirkpatrick has been the subject of good-natured ribbing by teammates and fans. And he's not above self-deprecation, either. After the game, he posted a photo on his Instagram account (drepic6) of a gift someone had left on his seat on the Bengals' charter back to Cincinnati — an oxygen tank, with a note attached that read, "Who Dey. Great game."

Dalton looks to go seven-for-3000: A season passing total of 3000 yards is not in itself a stupendous NFL feat — 25 passers reached it in 2016, and 15 have already reached it in 2017. But hitting 3000 in the first seven seasons of an NFL career still is an event worth noting. Bengals QB Andy Dalton, who currently has 2860 passing yards this season, stands 140 shy of doing just that. The only other QB in NFL history to go seven-for-3000 was cinch Hall-of-Famer Peyton Manning, who reeled off 13 straight 3000-yarders before missing the 2011 season due to injury.

Dalton and Carolina's Cam Newton, who was chosen first overall in the same 2011 draft in which the Bengals claimed Dalton at No. 35, joined Manning last year as the only QBs to ever reach 3000 yards in their first six seasons. Seattle's Russell Wilson, who entered the NFL in 2012, joined the same club in Week 12 this season.

Dalton chasing Kenny in TDs: Although he has been held out of the end zone so far this season, QB Andy Dalton's 19 total TDs are just one short of the franchise record for touchdowns by a QB, held at 20 by Ken Anderson. Dalton is in his seventh season, while Anderson played 16 Bengals seasons (1971-86).

All of Anderson's 20 TDs were rushing scores. Dalton has 18 rushing TDs, and he has 19 total by virtue of being the only Bengals QB ever to catch a touchdown pass. He scored on an 18-yard gadget connection from WR Mohamed Sanu vs. Tennessee in 2014.

The next-most TDs by a Bengals QB is 10, by Jeff Blake.

Dalton and Jack Thompson share the Bengals season record for touchdowns by a QB, at five. Dalton had five in 2014, tying the record first set by Thompson in 1979.

'Crazy Legs' Andy: QB Andy Dalton's 18 career rushing TDs not only puts him in rare company in team history, he's also among the best when compared to his current NFL peers. In the category of rushing TDs by a QB, only Carolina's Cam Newton, whose 53 rushing TDs are beyond similarity, ranks higher than Dalton since 2011. Dalton and Newton both entered the NFL in '11.

Russell Wilson (16) Tyrod Taylor (15) and Andrew Luck (14) round out the top five.

Dalton piles up the wins: Of the many things QB Andy Dalton has proven in his NFL career thus far, perhaps none is more valued than his knack for earning victories. And he has done so at a rate on-par, or better, than some of the game's best passers.

Here's a look at the most wins by QBs through their first six seasons. Dalton had 56 wins through the 2016 season, his sixth, which ties him for sixth place.

PLAYER	TEAM	WINS
Russell Wilson	Seattle	63
Joe Flacco	Baltimore	62
Ben Roethlisberger	Pittsburgh	60
Matt Ryan	Atlanta	60
Tom Brady	New England	58
Andy Dalton	Cincinnati	56
Donovan McNabb	Philadelphia	56

An Andy roundup: Other records and notable accomplishments in QB Andy Dalton's career include:

- He is one of only three QBs in the Super Bowl era to lead a team to the postseason in each of his first five campaigns. Dalton did that from 2011-15, while Baltimore's Joe Flacco did it from '08-12 and Seattle's Russell Wilson has done it from '12-16.
- Dalton has posted 42 career games with a passer rating of 100 or more, and the Bengals are 35-7 (.833) in those contests.
- Dalton's .579 winning percentage is the best of any Bengals QB with 10 or more starts.
- Dalton holds club season records for passing yards (4293) and TD passes (33), both set in 2013.
- He is the only Bengals passer to throw for 300-plus yards in four consecutive games (2013).
- He opened his career with 77 consecutive regular-season starts, a Bengals record for quarterbacks at any point during a career. The previous mark had been 61, posted by Boomer Esiason from 1985-89. Dalton's streak ranks tied for fourth in NFL history for the start of a career by a QB, trailing only Peyton Manning of Indianapolis (208), Joe Flacco of Baltimore (122) and Russell Wilson of Seattle (94 and counting). Dalton is tied with Miami QB Ryan Tannehill, whose streak of 77 ended last year due to an injury.

Joe's 2016 among the best: The University of Oklahoma's backfield has seen it's share of exemplary rushing seasons throughout history. Nine College Football Hall of Fame ball-carriers have cycled through Norman over the years, and over the last decade, players like Adrian Peterson and DeMarco Murray reached stardom there to add to the rich running back tradition.

That makes Joe Mixon's 2016 campaign all the more impressive. Only three times in school history has a back averaged better than Mixon's 6.8 yards per carry in 2016. College Football Hall of Famer Greg Pruitt, who also played 12 years in the NFL, was first to do it when he averaged 8.98 in 1971. Marcus Dupree was next, when in 1982, at the peak of his famously stellar but injury shorted football career, he averaged 7.84. The only other Oklahoma back to best Mixon's 2016 mark was Billy Sims, another College Football Hall of Famer and NFL standout, who averaged 7.41 during his Heisman Trophy-winning season of 1978.

Through Cincinnati's first 13 games, Mixon has rushed 157 times for 518 yards (3.3) and four TDs. Mixon has missed the last two games due to a concussion suffered in Game 12 vs. Pittsburgh. His status for this week's game is unknown as of the time of this release.

Willis earns praise from a legend: Earning praise from a 77-year-old College Football Hall of Fame coach may not be easy, but that's precisely what rookie DE Jordan Willis received from legendary Kansas State head coach Bill Snyder last year.

"Jordan is the epitome of what our program is all about," Snyder said in 2016, his 25th season as KSU head coach. "He comes to practice exactly the same way he goes to a ballgame. If you were unaware of the setting, you couldn't tell the difference between what he does on the practice field and what he does on the game field. Like I have said so many times, he is a young guy who gives you his very best of every second of every minute of every hour of every day of every week. He has learned the value of that and (realized) what it has meant to him. He has allowed that to carry over into every aspect of his life. He is going to be a highly successful young guy in a lot of ways, because he is that committed to doing the best that he can."

Willis invades the stat sheet: Rookie DE Jordan Willis has played in all 14 games this year, including a start at RDE in Week 2 in place of injured starter Michael Johnson. He's been on the field for 320 of the defense's 1011 total plays (31.65 percent) and has totaled 21 tackles and a sack (one more was wiped away when the Bengals accepted an offensive penalty in Game 11 vs. Cleveland). He also blocked a punt in Game 7 vs. Indianapolis.

Willis turned heads this preseason with his pass rush and playmaking ability, tying for the NFL lead in sacks, with four, while also adding a forced fumble. But gaudy numbers are nothing new for the former Kansas State Wildcat.

Last year, while KSU head coach Bill Snyder was heaping praise on Willis as one of the top people to ever pass through KSU's program (see previous item), the statistics ID'd him as one of the school's best-ever defensive players.

Willis' 17.5 tackles for losses in 2016 set a school record, and he also led the conference and tied another school record with 11.5 sacks. He recorded at least one sack in eight of KSU's 13 games last year, including four games where he logged multiple sacks. He also forced three fumbles and had one fumble recovery. Willis was named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year (AP and coaches), first team All-Big 12 (AP and coaches) and Big 12 Lineman of the Year (coaches). And that was just his senior season.

Over his four-year career, Willis totaled 114 tackles, 40.5 of which were for losses and 26 for sacks. That sack total ranked third in KSU history and tied for seventh in Big 12 history. He closed his career at KSU with a sack in 11 of his last 17 games, and at least a shared TFL in 15 of his last 17. And on top of it all, he proved to be durable, starting every game his last three seasons (39 straight).

Lawson joins rare company: In Week 2 vs Green Bay, rookie Carl Lawson wreaked havoc in the Packers' backfield, recording 2.5 sacks on the day. Another sack was wiped off the stat sheet by an unrelated penalty. With the outstanding performance, Lawson joined DE Justin Smith as the only Bengal rookies ever to reach the 2.5-sack plateau in a game (Smith had three on Dec. 9, 2001 vs. Jacksonville). He also became only the second NFL rookie since 2013 to reach 2.5 in a game, joining Washington's Preston Smith, who had three on Dec. 26, 2015 at Philadelphia.

Lawson cut his teeth at Auburn as a defensive end, playing with his hand on the ground and developing a reputation as one of the Southeastern Conference's most feared pass rushers. Since being drafted this spring though, Bengals coaches have added linebacker duties to his plate. Lawson is listed on the Bengals' depth chart as the No. 2 SLB.

But with great speed, quickness and strength — his 35 bench press reps of 225 pounds at the 2017 NFL Combine tied for the top mark overall — Bengals coaches have found a way to get him on the field in a fashion that suits his strength as a pass rusher. Throughout his rookie season, Lawson's time on defense has come exclusively with his hand on the ground, as an edge rusher with the No. 1 nickel defensive unit. He has 12 tackles on the year, including a team-leading 7.5 sacks for 48 yards. He started Game 4 at Cleveland, when the defense opened the game in a nickel defensive package, and has played in 403 of a possible 1011 snaps on defense this season.

Lawson battled injuries while at Auburn — he lost 2014 to a torn ACL, and a hip injury cost him six games and limited him thereafter in '15 — but he still managed 14 career sacks among his 24 tackles for losses. Last year, while healthy, Lawson started 13 games for the Tigers and recorded nine sacks among his 13.5 tackles for losses, earning All-SEC First Team honors.

Willie praises Lawson: Bengals rookie LB Carl Lawson, a noted leader and two-time team captain in college, earned high praise from former Bengals OT and fellow Auburn alum Willie Anderson earlier this year. Anderson, whose son attended Milton High School with Lawson in Alpharetta, Ga., offered this ringing endorsement of the rookie:

"He's a great kid. A leader. He worked his way up. (He had) no college offers before his senior year, and he and his dad worked hard to make him (one of the top recruits in the country). He dominated high school linemen and continued in college. He had the injuries, but now he knows how to train and take care of himself. He'll give you Takeo-like (former Bengals LB Takeo Spikes) effort and intensity. He's been a captain at both levels and has always been a positive guy that other young players like my son looked up to. Every coach he's ever played for absolutely loves him. No one says a bad word about Carl. He's a warrior."

Malone goes long: Nine games into his young pro career, Bengals rookie WR Josh Malone has worked his way into the Bengals' rotation at wide receiver, with starts five consecutive games. And during that time, he's shown flashes of the potential that earned him the reputation as one of the most explosive players in the 2017 Draft. In Game 7 vs. Indianapolis, his second career game played, Malone caught his first career pass — a 10-yarder in the first quarter — and then followed it up with his first career TD reception — a 25-yarder in the third quarter, when he adjusted to an underthrown ball in the end-zone, putting the Bengals on top 17-13.

In Game 12 vs. Pittsburgh, Malone caught two passes for nine yards. For the season, he has six receptions for 63 yards and a TD. He's played in nine games, with five starts as a third WR (Games 9-13).

Last year, the 6-3, 208-pound wideout wrapped up his three-year career at the University of Tennessee with a record-setting campaign, totaling 50 receptions for 972 yards on the season and setting a school record for yards per reception, at 19.4. That mark topped the previous best of 18.3, set by Robert Meachem in 2006.

Malone also displayed a nose for the end zone, scoring 11 receiving TDs in the Vols' 13 games. Six of those 11 went for longer than 40 yards.

The former Mr. Football in Tennessee finished his collegiate career with 104 catches for 1608 yards (15.5 average) and 14 TDs. At the 2017 NFL Combine, his 4.40 40-yard dash ranked third among wide receivers and eighth overall.

"He's big and long and runs fast," said WRs coach James Urban. "He had a fine year (in 2016), and we think he can stretch the field at this level as well."

Green and some gold jackets: Though a hamstring injury cost him all but two plays of 2016's final seven games, A.J. Green finished his sixth season with nine career games with at least 150 receiving yards and a touchdown catch. The only players to have more such games in their first six seasons were Hall of Famers Lance Alworth (13) and Jerry Rice (11), and prime HOF candidate Randy Moss (10).

And in 2017, Green added a 10th game of 150-plus and a TD — he had 189, with a 77-yard TD, in Game 5, Oct. 8 vs. Buffalo.

Here's a look at the list of players with 10 or more games of 150-plus receiving yards and a TD through their first seven seasons.

PLAYER	TEAM	NO. OF GAMES
Lance Alworth	San Diego Chargers	16
Jerry Rice	San Francisco 49ers	13
A.J. Green	Cincinnati Bengals	10
Torry Holt	St. Louis Rams	10
Calvin Johnson	Detroit Lions	10
Randy Moss	Minnesota Vikings	10

Only A.J.: Cincinnati's A.J. Green had his 2016 season cut short by a hamstring injury, which halted his bid for a sixth-straight 1000-yard season to start his career (he finished with 964). Green did, however, still manage a sixth nomination to the Pro Bowl (he did not play in the game due to the injury).

While 2016 marked the first time in his stellar career that Green did not accomplish both of those feats, he still stands as the only NFL receiver since the 1970 merger to start his career with five consecutive 1000-yard seasons (averaging more than 1200 yards) and five trips to the Pro Bowl. The last pass-catcher to start his career with five consecutive Pro Bowl appearances was Hall of Fame TE Mike Ditka (1961-65).

A.J. vying to join rare company: With only two games remaining in his seventh NFL season, Bengals WR A.J. Green stands only three TDs shy of joining yet another list of prestigious names. Only six players in NFL history have reached both 8000 receiving yards and 60 TDs in their first seven NFL seasons. Green currently stands at 8115 receiving yards and 57 TDs.

Here's the list of players with 8000 receiving yards and 60 TDs.

PLAYER	REC. YDS	TD
Calvin Johnson .....	9328	66
Randy Moss .....	9142	90
Jerry Rice .....	9072	93
Marvin Harrison .....	8800	73
Larry Fitzgerald .....	8204	65
Sterling Sharpe .....	8134	65

Dunlap's PD frenzy — unprecedented: In the first 40 seasons (1976-2015) in which Bengals defensive statistics were recorded, no defensive lineman ever led the team in passes defended for a season. None were even close, really. But it happened last season, and it wasn't close.

DE Carlos Dunlap in 2016 had five more PDs — 15 — than anyone else on the team last season. And he had seven more PDs than any other NFL defensive lineman. The players ahead of Dunlap in the NFL were all cornerbacks, led at 24 by Brent Grimes of Miami.

The next-highest total by an NFL D-lineman was eight, by DE Jason Pierre-Paul of the Giants. The next-highest total by a Bengal was 10, by CB Dre Kirkpatrick.

"Carlos has those long, long arms," says defensive coordinator Paul Guenther, "and of course he gets good pressure. So I'm not surprised he's one of the best we've had in that area."

"Passes defended" include interceptions as well as passes broken up. When a player makes an INT, he also is credited with a PD. Dunlap had no INTs in '16, and in the category of passes broken up without counting INTs, only four players were ahead of Dunlap, led by Grimes at 20.

The NFL has no team or league statistics to offer in terms of "most PDs ever by a D-lineman" or "highest league ranking ever by a D-lineman in passes defended," because the statistic has been officially compiled league-wide only for a few years.

Through 14 games in 2017, Dunlap has five passes defended, including a tipped pass in Game 7 vs. Indianapolis that he also intercepted and returned for a TD.

Recovered Gio sets sights on Brooks: HB Giovani Bernard missed the last six games in 2016, down with a major knee injury (ACL) suffered late in the fourth quarter of Game 10, Nov. 20 vs. Buffalo. But Bernard reported to training camp in July fully recovered from the injury and was a full participant in practice from the first snap.

And through 14 games this year, he hasn't missed a beat. Bernard has played in every game this season and leads the team in yards per carry, at 4.0 (minimum five carries). He also has 609 scrimmage yards and three total TDs (two receiving, one rushing), including his 61-yard catch-and-run in Cleveland.

Bernard's return has allowed him to re-start his long pursuit of the all-time Bengals leads in both receptions and receiving yards by a running back. With 217 receptions, Bernard stands 80 short of James Brooks' record of 297. And with 1990 receiving yards, Bernard is 1022 short of Brooks' record of 3012. Brooks played eight seasons with the Bengals (1984-91), while Bernard in 2017 is playing his fifth.

Bernard has made his mark as both a rusher and receiver throughout his career. He averaged 1147 yards from scrimmage over his first three seasons, and his injury-shortened 2016 campaign ended with 673 yards in 10 games. Bernard in '16 was 91-for-337 rushing (3.7), with two TDs, and 39-for-336 receiving, with one TD.

Bernard last season caught a career-best nine passes for 100 yards in Game 2 at Pittsburgh. It marked the second time he has been in triple digits in receiving yards. His 128 yards at Arizona in 2015 is the franchise record for receiving yards by a RB in a game. His 56 receptions as a rookie in 2013 is the Bengals season record for catches by a running back.

The Huber roundup: Already a considerable presence in the Bengals record book, P Kevin Huber in '16 passed Lee Johnson for most career inside-20 punts in Bengals history. Johnson, who punted for more than 11 Bengals seasons (1988-98), had 186 career inside-20 punts, while Huber, now in his ninth season, currently stands at 236. A Bengals fifth-round selection in the 2009 draft, Huber also owns the franchise's all-time best ratio of inside-20 kicks to touchbacks (4.00-to-1, with 236 inside-20s and 59 touchbacks).

Huber's other top accomplishments with the Bengals include:

- He is the franchise leader in career gross average (45.26) and net average (39.75).

- He holds the top three Bengals season averages in gross and the top five Bengals season averages in net. His gross record is 46.84 in 2014, and his net record is 42.10, also in '14.

- He shares the team record for longest punt (75 yards) with Kyle Larson.

- His 33 inside-20 punts in 2012 is a franchise record.

Huber was an initial-ballot Pro Bowl selection in 2014 and also was named first-team All-Pro by The Sporting News that year.

Some very good rushing numbers: In Game 11 vs. Cleveland, Bengals rookie HB Joe Mixon had become the Bengals' first 100-yard rusher of the season, when he gained 114 yards on 23 carries (5.0).

That performance brought the Bengals' record under Marvin Lewis with a 100-yard rusher to an impressive 45-7-1 (.858). What's more, their record with a rusher who hits the 25-carry plateau is 39-2 (951). Reaching 30 rushes as a team usually spells success under Lewis as well. So far in 2017, the Bengals are 2-1 when rushing 30 times as a team, with wins in Game 4 at Cleveland (30 rushes for 86 yards) and Game 12 vs. Cleveland (30 rushes, 152 yards). Last year, Cincinnati was 5-1-1 (.786) with 30 or more rushes as a team.

"It's not always the rushing yardage total that's most important," Lewis has said. "When you're running the ball a lot, it's a sign that even though the yardage will vary, you're controlling the ball, controlling the clock, and keeping your defense off the field. As it shows for us, that is going to be a winning combo."

"We love seeing a guy get 100 yards, but sometimes he can break one big gain and then get to 100 even though you may not be running as consistently well and controlling the game like you do when you get high-carry numbers."

A stat that matters: During the full term of head coach Marvin Lewis (2003-present), a plus-differential in turnovers is linked to a big plus in wins. And the reverse has gone for a minus.

The Bengals are 76-19-1 in the regular season under Lewis with a plus (.797 winning percentage), but they are only 18-69-2 with a minus (.213).

"It makes a huge difference," Lewis says. "You see it game after game. You have to possess the football to win. If you possess the football, good things happen. If you turn the ball over to opponents, you have a much harder day."

The Bengals' experience with turnovers under Lewis is backed up by league numbers. Since the start of the 2003 season, Lewis' first as head coach, here are the records of teams with varying turnover differentials.

(NOTE: Minus differentials are not included because they are the exact reverse of the plus figure for the same numbers.)

DIFFERENTIAL	W-L-T	PCT.
Plus 1 .....	925-430-4	.682
Plus 2 .....	745-156	.826
Plus 3 .....	412-40-1	.911
Plus 4 .....	220-6	.973
Plus 5 .....	99-3	.971

Plus teams so far this season have gone 133-37 (.782 winning percentage).

And when it's even? The Bengals are 29-24 in head coach Marvin Lewis' full tenure in games when the turnover differential has been even, for a winning percentage of .547. The Bengals have won 12 of their last 20 with an even differential (.600), dating back to 2012, but they have lost four of their last six, including a 2-2 record in '17.

Turnover tables are turned: During the tenure of head coach Marvin Lewis (2003-present), the Bengals rank ninth in the NFL in turnover differential, at plus-42.

The Bengals are minus-nine in differential in 2017, with 12 takeaways (nine INTs, three via fumbles) and 21 giveaways (11 INTs, 10 FL).

Last week vs. Chicago, the Bengals had were minus-one, with two giveaways (both INTs) and one takeaway (an INT).

Prior to Lewis' tenure, the Bengals had posted a minus turnover differential for five straight years (1998-2002).

Since 2003, NFL teams with just a plus-one differential have won 68.2 percent of those games. At plus-two, the percentage has been 82.6. Teams with any plus have won at a 79.0 percent clip.

Here are the top six teams in differential since 2003:

TEAM	TAKEAWAYS	GIVEAWAYS	DIFFERENTIAL
New England Patriots	440	272	+168
Green Bay Packers	408	343	+65
Kansas City Chiefs	393	333	+60
Seattle Seahawks	403	345	+58
Carolina Panthers	436	379	+57
Indianapolis Colts	379	328	+51
Baltimore Ravens	429	379	+50
Atlanta Falcons	389	344	+45
Cincinnati Bengals	414	372	+42

Since 2003, the Bengals rank sixth in takeaways (414) and 10th in points off turnovers (1251).

Bengal bites: Marvin Lewis' winningest month has been November (33-26-1, .558), followed closely by September (27-23-0, .540). His teams are also above .500 in December/January (36-33-0, .522 [regular season]). Lewis' only losing month has been October (27-30-2, .475) ... The attendance of 91,653 on Oct. 9, 2016, at Dallas was the largest ever for a Bengals regular-season game, topping a house of 87,786 for a 2004 visit to FedEx Field in Washington. The largest crowd for any Bengals game remains 92,045, for a 1990 season playoff game against the Los Angeles Raiders at the L.A. Coliseum ... The Bengals' tallest player is DE Michael Johnson, who is 6-7. K Randy Bullock and HB Giovani Bernard are tied for the shortest. Both are 5-9 ... DT Josh Tupou is the heaviest Bengal, at 350 pounds ... CBs Dre Kirkpatrick and Tony McRae are the lightest players, at 185 pounds ... Eric Winston, who turned 34 on Nov. 17, is the oldest player ... The youngest player is HB Joe Mixon, who turned 21 on July 24.

BENGALS QUOTES

Bengals president Mike Brown, on the Bengals' 50th season in 2017:

"For me, it has been more than 50 years. I was working on things five years or so before we even were awarded the franchise. It has been a lifetime for me. It's what I do. It's what I like. I have been very lucky to be involved with it."

Head coach Marvin Lewis, on the Bengals evolving from an older roster to a younger roster:

"Our approach has changed this year. We've had more competition since we started (offseason activities) back in April, because we knew we were going to be in this situation. This was what I envisioned, and I feel good about it — we wanted to put these young guys in situations where they would be ready to go, and now they're proving they are. We said back in April that there had to be a changing of the guard — it's inevitable in the NFL — and we've got some young, emerging guys, which is great to have."

QB Andy Dalton, on shaking off a bad game:

"That's how you have to play quarterback. You never know what's going to happen. You want to play well every week, but if you don't, you have to bounce back. Same thing series to series — if you have a bad play or give up an INT, you have to bounce back. You have to be resilient to play this position."

Lewis, on QB Andy Dalton:

"He's a fine, fine player. He's a tough man, and he shows it. He's got the inner drive to just keep going, to overcome mistakes, to move on to the next play. That's a great quality that he has."

Former Bengals WR Chad Johnson, on WR A.J. Green:

"To me, he's the greatest (Bengals WR) of all time because he can do things I wasn't able to do. He's a much more consistent pass-catcher than I was."

Baltimore Ravens coach John Harbaugh, on WR A.J. Green:

"I think I was the first coach to go on record saying he was the best in the league. That was maybe five or six years ago, and I stand by that today. I think he's a great player, and he has proven it."

Dalton, on TE Tyler Kroft as the No. 1 TE, with Tyler Eifert is on R/I:

"He's a guy who works really hard. I think everyone is sees what he can do now. He's a reliable player, and that has shown up a lot."

RBs coach Kyle Caskey, on HB Joe Mixon:

"His skills are top notch. They're the type of skills you can trust. He can catch the ball — he brings it in with his hands — and he (holds it tightly) when he's running the ball. He can make people miss in space, and he can run people over. He's 228 pounds, he ran a mid-4.4 (second 40-yard dash), and in space he has the agility of a much smaller back."

G Clint Boling, on HB Joe Mixon:

"He brings a lot of energy, and he's obviously talented. You get him in space and it's fun to watch him run. He's taken over that (starting) role, and he's done well with it. He brings a lot of momentum to the table when he starts running the ball the way he does."

Director of Player Personnel Duke Tobin, on HB Joe Mixon adjusting to the pro level:

"He has really taken to it, and our coaches have done a great job getting him up to speed. There's a lot to learn at that position — running backs have to be worthy in pass protection. Obviously, his run skills and his instincts are natural. He's got all the physical qualities you look for."

Lewis, on DT Geno Atkins:

"He's a man of few words, but he goes out and performs. He's productive against the pass and the run, week in and week out."

Defensive coordinator Paul Guenther, on DT Geno Atkins mentoring the younger players:

"One thing about Geno this year is that he has done a great job of being a mentor, more so than any other year I've been around him. Everyone knows him as a quiet guy, and he is generally quiet. But I've seen him taking Billings, Glasgow, Lawson, Willis and all of the other young guys aside and talking to them about protections, opponents and everything else. Any time the young players can receive feedback like that from a guy that's been around here for years — a player they respect — is tremendous. They get tired of listening to me all the time."

Lewis, on all the young Bengals players on defense:

"They've done a really good job. There are times when we have three (rookies or second-year players) on the defensive line, one at linebacker and one in the secondary on the field together at the same time. That's huge when we're getting such positive plays out of those younger guys. And they aren't missing a beat. A coach's instinct is to throw vets like Michael (DE Michael Johnson) or Carlos (DE Carlos Dunlap) back in there. But then you see (rookie DE) Jordan Willis, or Glasgow (rookie DT Ryan Glasgow), or Carl (rookie LB Carl Lawson), or Nick (second-year LB Nick Vigil), or (second-year DT) Andrew Billings or William (second-year CB William Jackson) making the types of plays their making, time and time again. They're earning their opportunities."

Guenther, on playing young players:

"In my first year in coaching, the AD told me that for every freshman you play, you're going to lose one ballgame. That always stuck in my mind. At this point in the NFL, the way contracts are constructed, you have to get young players out there and playing. If they can play, you've got to let them go. I felt good enough (about this group) in the preseason. We played a lot of them early in games against good players (on other teams) in the preseason, so we felt good about them. They get it."

Lewis, on DT Andrew Billings:

"Andrew has played increasingly better. He's done a really good job of playing physical. He's been able to penetrate — that's what his responsibility is. He's been disruptive. He's still trying to put it all together, but he keeps making positive plays."

Guenther, on DE Jordan Willis:

"He's learning how we do some things here — our techniques, and how to use his legs and his back. We're asking him to do things a little bit different here than he did in college. But he understands, and he's getting better every day."

Lewis, on LB Carl Lawson:

"He's been the early-to-work guy, and the late-at-work guy. He wants to do everything correctly. He may not seem like someone who talks a lot, but he talks out there on the field, and he comes into my office and wants to sit down and watch film with me. I really like that about him."

LB Vontaze Burfict, on rookies Jordan Willis and Carl Lawson:

"They come off the edge, and they don't even think about it — they just go after it. They're young, hungry and fast. Jordan (Willis) is going to be somebody to reckon with. He comes off the edge fast. And Carl — Carl's pretty good at getting to the quarterback."

Lewis, on Nick Vigil:

"He has been very special. He keeps getting better, and he improves each week. He's very coachable, and he understands the finer points of things, both with coverage and assignments we have at the line of scrimmage."

Lewis, on Jordan Evans:

"Since he's been here, when he has been put in situation to have an opportunity, Jordan has shown the ability to make plays. For the most part, he's pretty sound on his assignments. He just has to keep making sure that way we can depend on him that way. That's important. When we've put him in there, he has responded with good plays — every time he gets an opportunity, he's been great. Part of his role here is being a stalwart on special teams, with his speed, athleticism, size and stature. He just has to continue to do that."

DE Carlos Dunlap, on knocking down passes at the line of scrimmage:

"The quarterback has a clock, too. If I can't get there before he throws it, then I jump and get the hand up."

Lewis, on CB William Jackson:

"He's done some things that have been stellar. There are other things that we're just trying to get him caught up on a little bit — get him up to speed. That's part of being a young player. We know he has the athletic tools and the intellect to play the position, now it's just (refining) the nuances of things that you do within the scheme. We're going to make sure that he's good to go."

Lewis, on Jackson's ability to cover receivers:

"He's as good a guy at that as I've had an opportunity to be around. I said that last year. I've been around a lot of guys that are very good at that, and William, as a young player, has that ability."

Lewis, on players needing to contribute on special teams:

"We need to have the best offensive and defensive players, and a part of it is that they have to be a part of special teams. From the day they walk in through this door, they're beat over their heads with it. They're a part of 'teams' all the time, and that means everybody. They may not have done it at their college, but they all are a part of it now in some capacity."

POSITION BY POSITION

Quarterbacks: Seventh-year pro Andy Dalton threw for 113 yards on 11-of-22 passing in Game 14 vs. Minnesota, bringing his 2017 totals to 247 of 411 passing (60.1 percent) for 2860 yards, 21 TDs and 11 INTs (rating of 87.0). Dalton's career passer rating now stands at 88.8, the best in Bengals history, topping Carson Palmer's mark of 86.9. His 61-44-2 regular-season record as a starter also works out to the best winning percentage (.579) of any Bengals QB with 10 or more starts (next-best is Virgil Carter, who was 12-10, for a .545 percentage). His 300-yard outing in Game 5 vs. Buffalo was the 22nd of his career, the second-most in Bengals history and one behind Boomer Esiason's all-time team record. In Game 9 vs. Tennessee, Dalton passed Palmer for third in team history in passing TDs, where he currently stands at 163. Prior to Game 13 vs. Chicago, Dalton had not thrown an INT in six games (176 pass attempts), which was the longest string of pass attempts without an INT in the NFL. In 2016, Dalton completed 364 of 563 passes (64.7 percent), with 18 TDs and eight INTs. His 4206 yards passing in 2016 were the second most in team history, surpassed only by his own mark of 4293, posted in '13. Dalton also holds the club record for TD passes in a season (33, also in '13). Though the Bengals missed the playoffs in his sixth season in 2016, Dalton still is only the third NFL QB in the Super Bowl era to lead his team to the playoffs in each of his first five seasons, from '11-15. Third-year pro AJ McCarron entered late in the fourth quarter of Game 14 vs. Minnesota, throwing for 19 yards on three-of-six passing. On the season, he has 66 yards on seven-of-14 passing (66.3 rating). McCarron showed much promise while filling in for Dalton after Dalton's thumb injury in 2015, logging a 101.1 passer rating for his three regular-season starts (2-1 record) and leading a dramatic comeback in the Wild Card playoff vs. Pittsburgh, only to see the Steelers prevail 18-16 on a late FG. As a collegian, McCarron led Alabama to a pair of national championships.

Running backs: Rookie HB Joe Mixon, a second-round pick out of Oklahoma and the Bengals' leading rusher through 14 games, missed both Game 13 vs. Chicago and Game 14 vs. Minnesota with a concussion, and his status for this week's game is uncertain. Mixon had a breakout performance in Game 11 vs. Cleveland, grabbing a season-high in carries (23), and rushing yards (114). He has topped 100 scrimmage yards three times this season — in Game 3 against the Packers (101 total yards, on 62 yards rushing and 39 receiving), in Game 7 vs. Indianapolis (109 total yards, on 18 yards rushing and 91 receiving), and in Game 11 vs. Cleveland (165 totally yards, on 114 yards rushing and 51 receiving). Mixon also picked up his fourth rushing TD of 2017 in Game 11 vs. Cleveland, finding the end zone from 11 yards out and putting the finishing touch on the Bengals victory. Mixon's four rushing TDs this season lead the team and put him third in TDs overall. In 2016 at Oklahoma, Mixon posted a school-record 2331 all-purpose yards (194.3 per game). For his collegiate career, he totaled 300 carries for 2027 yards (6.8) and 17 TDs, as well as 65 receptions for 894 yards (13.8) and nine TDs. Fifth-year player Giovani Bernard leads the Bengals' backfield in yards per carry this season (4.0), having worked his way completely back from an ACL tear a season ago. Bernard has started in place of the injured Mixon two consecutive weeks, racking up over 100 scrimmage yards (130 total yards, on 62 rushing and 68 receiving) for the first time this season in Game 13 vs. Chicago, and scoring his first rushing TD of the season in Game 14 vs. Minnesota. He has 72 carries for 290 yards and the TD this season as well as 30 receptions for 319 yards and two TDs. Bernard had his best rushing performance of the season in Game 12 vs. Pittsburgh, carrying the ball 13 times for 77 yards (5.9) after Mixon left with a concussion. In Game 4 vs. Cleveland, Bernard flashed some of his signature speed and agility, taking a screen pass 61 yards for the score. In his 10 games before the injury last season, Bernard racked up 673 yards from scrimmage, a total that stood fourth on the team at year's end. Rookie HB Brian Hill was signed off of Atlanta's practice squad prior to Game 10 vs. Denver, adding depth to the HB position and contributing on special teams. A fifth-round pick out of Wyoming in April's draft, Hill has seven carries for 20 yards (2.9) on the year. Another rookie HB, Jarveon Williams, was signed off of the practice squad prior to Game 14 vs. Minnesota. Williams signed with Cincinnati as a college free agent out of Texas-San Antonio, where he enjoyed a record-setting career.

Wide receivers: Leading the Bengals in receiving through 14 games is A.J. Green, who stands 20 yards short of his sixth 1000-yard season in seven years. Green is eighth in the AFC in receiving yards (980) and is tied for third in the NFL in receiving TDs (eight). Green passed Carl Pickens for the second-most receptions in team history in Game 11 vs. Cleveland, when he hauled in No. 531. Two weeks prior, in Game 9 vs. Tennessee, Green tied Chad Johnson for most 100-yard receiving games in a Bengal uniform (31) with his 115-yard outing. A 70-yard TD catch in the fourth quarter at Tennessee was Green's second TD reception of at least 70 yards this season. The last time a Bengal had two TD receptions of at least 70 yards in one season was in 2014, when Green had TD receptions of 77 and 81 yards. Through the first nine games of 2016, before a hamstring injury ended his season, Green was averaging 107.1 yards receiving per game. He finished the 2016 regular season with 964 receiving yards on 66 catches. Green's 549 career receptions rank second in Bengals history, and his 8115 receiving yards rank second. Green's 57 career receiving TDs rank third, and his 31 games of 100 or more receiving yards ties him for first with Johnson, whose total of 31 was recorded over a 10-year career. Veteran Brandon LaFell lines up opposite Green as the other starting WR, and has grabbed 46 receptions for 505 yards and three TDs through the first 14 games. LaFell's third TD came in Game 13 vs. Chicago, when he hauled in a 14-yard reception to give the Bengals an early lead. LaFell had his best game of the season in Game 9 vs. Tennessee, with a season-high in receptions (six) and yards (95), while pulling in a 37-yard TD pass. In the 2016 season, LaFell logged 64 catches for 862 yards and six TDs (all receiving), ranking second on the team in all three categories. Second-year man Tyler Boyd has missed considerable time this season, mostly due to injury, appearing in just eight contests this season. Boyd hauled in his first TD of the season in Game 11 vs. Cleveland, converting from eight-yards out to give the Bengals an early lead. Boyd led all NFL rookies last season with 22 third-down receptions and has 12 receptions for 95 yards and the TD on the current campaign. Josh Malone, the second of two Bengals fourth-round selections (No. 128 overall out of Tennessee) in this year's draft, was known for his ability to stretch the field in college. Malone has played in nine games this season, with starts as a 3rd WR in five of them. For the season, he has six receptions for 63 yards and one TD — a 25-yarder from Dalton in Game 7 vs. Indianapolis, the first of his career. In 2016 at Tennessee, Malone averaged a school-record 19.4 yards per reception to go with 11 receiving TDs in 13 games. His 4.40-second 40-yard dash at the NFL Combine in March was third best among participating wide receivers. Second-year pro Alex Erickson, a 2016 college free agent out of Wisconsin, posted career-highs in receptions and receiving yards in Game 2 against the Texans, nabbing four receptions for 62 yards. In Game 10 vs. Denver, Erickson hauled in his first career TD reception, catching a Dalton pass in stride for a 29-yard score. Though gaining a larger role in the offense this season, Erickson has made his mark as the Bengals' primary kick returner over the last two seasons, having led the AFC in kick return average in 2016 (27.9 yards on 29 KORs). This season, Erickson ranks sixth in the conference in kick return average (21.3). Erickson also handled most of the team's punt return duties, with 34 returns for 250 yards (7.4) in 2017 thus far. WR Cody Core, a sixth-round Bengals draft choice out of Mississippi in 2016, provides depth at wide receiver this season. He has been targeted four times and has four special teams tackles.

Tight ends/H-backs: Now in his third Bengals season, TE Tyler Kroft has become more of a factor in the Bengals offense as the season has progressed, particularly since star TE Tyler Eifert was placed on Reserve/Injured on Oct. 12. Kroft has 35 receptions for 348 yards (9.9) on the season and is currently third in the conference in TD receptions by a tight end (five), including a one-yard TD reception in Game 11 vs. Cleveland that extended a Cincinnati lead in the second half. Kroft had a memorable outing in Game 4 vs. Cleveland, grabbing his first two TDs of the season as well as a career-high in receptions (six). In Game 8 vs. Jacksonville, Kroft had a career-long 59-yard catch and run to the Jacksonville 19 that helped set up a Bengals touchdown, and it was the major play that led to his career-high 79 receiving yards. Fellow third-year pro C.J. Uzomah had his best game of the season in Game 14 vs. Minnesota, with a season-high in receptions (four) and yards (24). Uzomah has eight receptions for 84 yards on the current campaign, and has started four games this season as the second TE. Known for his blocking ability, fourth-year pro Ryan Hewitt has manned the H-back position since joining the Bengals in 2014 as a college free agent out of Stanford. Despite missing three games with a knee injury this season, Hewitt has played in 58 of 62 possible regular-season games since joining the team, with 37 starts, and has two catches for 22 yards on the year. Joining Hewitt at H-back is Cethan Carter, who made a successful roster bid as a college free agent out of Nebraska. Carter has carved out a role on special teams, finding himself third on the team in special teams tackles (seven). In his four years at Nebraska, Carter had 59 receptions for 744 yards and four TDs.

Offensive linemen: G Clint Boling, the longest consecutively tenured lineman on the roster, is in his seventh season in Cincinnati. Boling has started every game at LG this season, and has only missed six games since taking over the starting LG spot in 2012. C Russell Bodine, who has been the Bengals' starting C since his rookie year in 2014, has started all 14 games at C this season. Bodine has not missed a start in his Bengals career, covering 62 regular-season games and two postseason games. G Trey Hopkins, a new addition to the starting unit, battled injuries early this season, with a knee injury holding him out of Games 2-4. The second-year pro out of Texas first joined Cincinnati as a CFA in 2014, and he's spent most of his time since between Reserve/Injured and the practice squad. The starting LOT for 13 of the first 14 games of 2017, Cedric Ogbuehi, is a 2015 Bengals first-round draft selection out of Texas A&M. Ogbuehi left Game 14 vs. Minnesota with a shoulder injury, and his status for this week's contest is uncertain. Re-joining the Bengals' offensive line for 2017 is a familiar face — Andre Smith. A first-round Bengals draft pick in 2009, Smith was a mainstay at ROT until '16, when he signed with Minnesota as an unrestricted free agent. Now in his second Bengals' stint after opting to re-join the team, Smith has assumed the starting ROT duties in the wake of ROT Jake Fisher's season-ending illness. Fourth-year pro T.J. Johnson was placed on Reserve/Injured on Dec. 16 with a pectoral injury. Johnson has played in 45 games (including playoffs) in his career, with five starts. First-year G Alex Redmond, a 2016 college free agent out of UCLA, made a successful preseason roster bid this year after spending all of his rookie season on the Bengals' practice squad. Redmond adds depth to the interior of the line and has even been used on the defensive front in goal-line situations in the past two contests. Veteran Eric Winston re-joined the team prior to Game 9 vs. Tennessee, adding depth at both tackle positions in Fisher's absence.

Winston was in Cincinnati from 2014-16 prior to being cut before the '17 regular season, and subbed in for Ogbuehi after his injury. G Christian Westerman, a fifth-round Bengals draft selection out of Arizona State in 2016, brings depth to the interior of the Bengals' line. Westerman has been inactive for 13 of the first 14 games, and was an active-DNP in Game 2 vs. Houston.

Defensive linemen: Pro Bowl DT Geno Atkins, now in his eighth season, has recorded a team-leading nine sacks in 2017, including two in Game 14 at Minnesota. The Minnesota game marked the second two-sack game of the season for Atkins, as he recorded a pair of sacks back in Week 2 vs. Houston. The two sacks in the Houston game marked the sixth-consecutive game in which Atkins had recorded at least one sack, a streak that came to an end against the Packers in Game 3. Atkins finished last season with a team-leading nine sacks, a total that also finished tops among NFL interior linemen (one ahead of Rams DT Aaron Donald). It's the fourth time Atkins has finished in at least a tie for that crown, and last season marked the second time for him to win the title outright (also in 2012). Atkins has 61 sacks in his career, placing him third in team history. Prior to the Game 14 vs. Minnesota, Atkins had been in a tie for fourth place all-time with former Bengals DE Ross Browner at 59 career sacks. Just ahead of him on that list DE Carlos Dunlap with 62.5 career sacks, including 5.5 this season. Dunlap's career total is tied with LB Reggie Williams for second all-time in Bengals history. Dunlap was the star in Game 7 against the Colts, as he tipped a ball at the line and ran it back for a go-ahead touchdown with just under seven minutes remaining in the contest. The touchdown marked the first score by a Bengals defensive lineman since Dunlap recorded a 14-yard interception return touchdown in Game 17 of the 2012 season. Dunlap earned a trip to the Pro Bowl last year, his second selection, after he led the team with a remarkable 15 passes defended. That total was seven more than any other NFL defensive lineman and it was the first time a Bengals defensive lineman has ever led the team in passes defended. For his career, Dunlap has 16 forced fumbles, eight fumble recoveries, 46 passes defended, four blocked field goals, two interceptions and three touchdowns scored. DE Michael Johnson currently stands fourth on the team in sacks (five), after recording his second multi-sack game of the season in Game 13 vs. Chicago, where he took down Bears QB Mitchell Trubisky twice. His first two-sack outing of the season came in Game 5 vs. Buffalo, which marked his first two-sack game in a Bengals uniform since Game 17 of the 2012 season. Now in his ninth NFL season, eight of which have been as a Bengal (spent 2014 with Tampa Bay), Johnson has spent more time in the interior of the defensive line, showing his versatility while opening up playing time for some of Cincinnati's young edge rushers. DE Chris Smith, a third-year pro who the Bengals acquired in an April 11 trade with Jacksonville, added half of a sack to his sack total in Game 11 vs. Cleveland, giving him three on the season. Smith also forced a fumble in Game 8 at Jacksonville, when he halted the Jaguars' opening drive of the game by hitting RB T.J. Yeldon in the backfield and jarring the ball loose (Bengals recovered). Currently at the top of the depth chart at NT is second-year DT Andrew Billings, a 2016 fourth-round Bengals draft selection out of Baylor who spent all of his rookie season on the Reserve/Injured list due to a knee injury suffered in training camp. Billings has started the last six contests and has 13 tackles on the season. The Bengals re-signed Pat Sims on Nov. 21, after waiving him prior to Game 10 at Denver. In Game 11 vs. Cleveland, Sims recorded half of a sack, his first of the season, dropping QB DeShone Kizer for nine yards. On the season, Sims has 22 tackles and the half of a sack. Rookie DE Jordan Willis, who recorded his first sack in Game 5 vs. Buffalo, has 21 tackles on the season. Willis made his mark early in Game 7 vs. Indianapolis, recording a blocked punt that set up a Bengals field goal drive. The Bengals' third-round draft choice this year and 2016 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year out of Kansas State, Willis finished his four-year college career widely considered one of the top defensive players in Kansas State history. He totaled 114 tackles, including 40.5 for losses, and 26 sacks (third in school history). Willis tied for the preseason NFL lead in sacks, with four — one in each game — while also adding a forced fumble. In the rotation of the Bengals' interior defensive line is rookie Ryan Glasgow of Michigan, a fourth-round Bengals draft choice (No. 138 overall). Glasgow has shown a lot of production in his limited snaps, totaling 21 tackles in his rookie campaign. A former walk-on for the Wolverines, Glasgow developed into a key contributor on one of college football's top rush defenses over the last two years. He played in 45 games (33 starts) at Michigan over five seasons (one redshirt), recording 91 tackles, including 18.5 for losses, and five sacks, two forced fumbles and a fumble return. DT Josh Tupou is now on his second stint on the 53-man roster, having spent most of the season on the practice squad. Tupou is a rookie out of Colorado who signed with the team as a college free agent.

Linebackers: Sixth-year pro Vontaze Burfict has missed the last two games with a concussion, and his status for this week's contest is uncertain. Burfict, who also missed games 1-3 this season due to a league suspension, currently sits fifth on the team in tackles (66), with 1.5 sacks and two passes defended. Burfict had his best game of the season in Game 10 vs. Denver, recording half of a sack, a forced fumble in the fourth quarter that led to a Cincinnati touchdown, as well as 11 solo tackles. The 11 solo-tackles are tied for the second-most in a single game in Burfict's career, and tied for the most since he had 13 in Game 7 of the 2012 season. Despite missing five games last season, Burfict still finished second on the team in tackles. He led the team in tackles by wide margins in 2012 and '13, and was a Pro Bowl selection in '13. Perhaps one of the most impressive second-year players in football this season is Nick Vigil, who missed his third consecutive game in Game 14 vs. Minnesota with an ankle injury. His status for this week's contest is uncertain. Vigil recorded his first career interception in Game 1 vs. Baltimore and his first career sack in Game 4 vs. the Browns, and is the team's leading tackler thus far (77). A third-round 2016 draft choice out of Utah State, Vigil played in all 16 games a season ago, primarily on special teams. Fifth-year LB Kevin Minter was placed on the Reserve/Injured list on Dec. 15, finishing the season with 32 tackles in seven starts. Seventh-year pro Vincent Rey left Game 14 vs. Minnesota with an injury, and his status for this week's contest is uncertain. Rey is the team's third-leading tackler through the first 14 games (72), and has showcased her versatility this season while filling in for Burfict and Minter. Rey can play all the LB positions, and led the Bengals in tackles in both 2014 and '15. A promising new addition to the Bengals' LB corps comes in the form of rookie fourth-round pick Carl Lawson of Auburn, who posted 2.5 sacks in Game 3 against the Packers. Lawson's 2.5 sacks were the first few sacks of his career and the most sacks in a single game by a Bengals player since Carlos Dunlap had three sacks against the Broncos in Game 16 of the 2015 season. Lawson added 1.5 sacks to his total in Game 11 vs. Cleveland, his second multi-sack game of the season. At 7.5 sacks on the season, Lawson is the leader amongst all NFL rookies in that category. Lawson is also two sacks away from tying Carlos Dunlap's single season rookie record, as Dunlap recorded 9.5 sacks in the 2010 campaign. A defensive end in college, Bengals coaches have added LB to his repertoire, in addition to duties as an edge rusher in the defense's No. 1 nickel package. At Auburn, Lawson played in 33 games in three years of action, with 20 starts, and notched 67 tackles, including 24 for losses and 14 sacks. Rookie LB Jordan Evans of Oklahoma, a sixth-round Bengals draft choice, recorded his second start in three weeks in Game 14 vs. Minnesota, filling in for the injured Vigil. Evans left the contest with an injury himself (forearm), and his status for this week's contest is uncertain. Evans has 30 tackles on the campaign, which leads all Cincinnati rookies. In 2016 at Oklahoma, Evans recorded four INTs and returned two for TDs. His 16 career breakups tied for second in school history among LBs. LB Hardy Nickerson successfully made the team to open the season as a college free agent out of Illinois, and is now on his third stint on the 53-man roster. Nickerson nabbed his first career start in Game 14 vs. Minnesota, recording four tackles. Brandon Bell, a rookie out of Penn State, was signed off of the practice squad prior to Game 14 vs. Minnesota. Bell was thrust into defensive action due to the amount of injuries at LB for the Bengals, but recorded no statistics.

Defensive backs: Sixth-year pro George Iloka left Game 14 vs. Minnesota with a shoulder injury, and his status for this week's contest is uncertain. Iloka has been a staple of the Cincinnati secondary since joining the starting unit at the beginning of the 2013 campaign. He recorded his first interception of the season in Game 5 vs. Buffalo, forcing a turnover with time expiring and the Bengals owning just a six-point lead. Iloka is currently fifth on the team in tackles (67), with the one INT and five passes defended. For his career, Iloka has nine INTs. Sixth-year CB Dre Kirkpatrick, who now is in his third season as the Bengals' full-time starter at the No. 1 LCB position, missed Games 13 and 14 with a concussion, and his status for this week's contest is uncertain. The 2012 Bengals first-round draft choice has 49 tackles, nine PDs, an INT, a sack and a forced fumble on the 2017 campaign. The INT came in Game 10 vs. Denver, with Kirkpatrick jumping a route and taking the ball 101 yards before fumbling at the Denver goal line. Kirkpatrick recovered his own fumble, and the Bengals scored three plays later. Kirkpatrick's 101-yard INT return is the longest INT return in NFL history that did not result in a TD. In Game 9 vs. Tennessee, Kirkpatrick recorded the first forced fumble of his career. Kirkpatrick knocked the ball out of the hands of Titans WR Corey Davis, who was reaching for the goal line, and instead fumbled the ball out of bounds in the end zone. That gave the Bengals the ball and prevented the Titans from taking a two-possession lead. For his career, Kirkpatrick has 10 INTs, two of which he returned for TDs, and 47 passes defended. Fifth-year pro Shawn Williams has run into injury problems this season, missing Game 1 with an elbow injury, and Games 9, 11, 12, and 13 with a hamstring injury. He returned to action in Game 14 vs. Minnesota, recording his first INT of the season, which set up the Bengals lone TD of the day. Williams is fourth in the secondary in tackles this season (40), and has the Bengals only two fumble recoveries of 2017. Williams first fumble recovery in Game 8 vs. Jacksonville marked the Bengals' first fumble recovery in 18 games, and the second one came in the fourth quarter of Game 10 vs. Denver, with the Bengals owning just a three-point lead. The Bengals scored on the possession following Williams' recovery. 2014 first-round pick Darqueze Dennard is turning in the best season of his career, as he leads the secondary in tackles (75) and sacks (two) so far this season, with one interception and five passes defended. Dennard's interception in Game 9 vs. Tennessee came with the Titans backed up in their own territory, and gave way to a Joe Mixon TD run just one play later. Another Bengals first-round draft pick, CB William Jackson was a headline-grabber in Game 3 after recording his first career INT on Packers QB Aaron Rodgers and returning it 75 yards for a TD. The last Bengal to score a TD on his first career INT was DE Carlos Dunlap on Dec. 30, 2012 against Baltimore. Through 14 games, Jackson is the team leader in passes defended, with 10. He nabbed his first career sack in Game 9 vs. Tennessee and has started three games this season. CB Josh Shaw, who can play both S and CB, is in his third season in Cincinnati and acts as a versatile piece of the Bengals' secondary. Shaw has played in every game this season, with one start, and has 31 tackles on the year. Second-year S Clayton Fejedelem, who started in place of Williams during his absences, was a seventh-round Bengals draft choice in 2016 out of Illinois. Fejedelem recorded his first career interception in Game 4 vs. the Browns, coming down with a tipped pass as Cleveland was entering the red zone. Fejedelem has turned into a special teams ace this season, leading the team with 13 special teams stops to go along with 39 defensive tackles. Adding depth to the CB room is second-year CB KeiVarae Russell, who has seen action in eight games this season. In Game 10 vs. Denver, Russell blocked a Brandon McManus FG attempt right before halftime, marking Cincinnati's first blocked FG of the season. S Brandon Wilson, a rookie out of the University of Houston, has been active for six consecutive games after spending most of the season on the Bengals' practice squad. Wilson was a Bengals sixth-round selection in the 2017 draft after excelling in college as a S, RB and kick returner. CB Tony McRae was signed off the practice squad prior to Game 13 vs. Chicago, providing depth in the secondary and contributing on special teams. McRae is a first-year player out of North Carolina A&T who spent parts of 2016 on the Bengals' practice squad.

Special teams: Sixth-year pro Randy Bullock, who has been a reliable leg for the Bengals thus far, missed Game 8 vs. Jacksonville with a back injury before returning to his kicking duties in Game 9 vs. Tennessee. Bullock has drilled 13 of his 15 FG attempts so far this season, one of which was blocked, with the longest coming from 49 yards. Now in his sixth NFL season out of Texas A&M, Bullock owns a career 82.1 percent average (96 for 117) on FGs and 95.3 percent average (122 for 128) on PATs. P Kevin Huber, the top Bengals punter in history in terms of gross average (45.26) and net average (39.75), now owns the top three seasons in Bengals history for gross average and the top five for net average. Huber boasts the franchise's all-time best ratio of inside-20 kicks to touchbacks (4.00-to-1, with 236 inside-20s and 59 touchbacks). LS Clark Harris, the ninth-year player out of Rutgers, has handled all 1261 snaps in his Bengals career without an unplayable delivery. On Oct. 16, Harris was signed to a one-year contract extension. WR Alex Erickson, a college free agent out of Wisconsin in 2016, is picking up right where he left off last season in the kick return department, where he finished second in the NFL and first in the AFC in kickoff return average, at 27.9 yards on 29 returns. Erickson had returns of 65, 72, and 84 yards last season, and his 84-yarder in Game 9 at the N.Y. Giants stands as the longest Bengals KOR since CB Adam Jones' 97-yarder vs. Carolina in 2014. He is the only Bengal to ever post three KORs of 65-plus yards in a season. Erickson also serves as the team's primary punt returner, averaging 7.4 yards on 34 punt returns. S Clayton Fejedelem leads the Bengals in special teams tackles this season with 13 (10 solo).

THE LAST BENGALS-LIONS MEETINGS

2009 SEASON
WEEK 13, GAME 12

Cincinnati Bengals 23, Detroit Lions 13
Sunday, Dec. 6, 2009 at Paul Brown Stadium

Detroit scored a TD on its second possession on a 54-yard pass from QB Matt Stafford to WR Calvin Johnson. On a slow-starting offensive day, the Bengals did not even get the score until DE Jonathan Fanene scored on a 45-yard INT return with 11:50 remaining in the second quarter. The INT was set up by a deflection by rookie DE Michael Johnson. The Bengals went ahead to stay on a 36-yard TD pass from QB Carson Palmer to WR Chad Johnson later in the quarter, and K Shayne Graham's three FGs gave the Bengals a 23-7 edge before Detroit added a TD with just 1:20 to play. Chad Johnson had a season-high 137 receiving yards, and HB Cedric Benson rushed for 110 after missing the two previous games with a hip injury. The Bengals became the first team since the 1993 Seattle Seahawks to have three different backs post 100-yard rushing games in a span of three weeks, as HBs Bernard Scott and Larry Johnson each had a 100-yard game while Benson was out. The Bengals improved to 9-3 on the season, posting more than 38:00 possession time for the third straight game. The Lions fell to 2-10.

2013 SEASON
WEEK 7, GAME 7

Cincinnati Bengals 27, Detroit Lions 24
Sunday, Oct. 20, 2013 at Ford Field

For the second straight week on the road, the Bengals ended a victory with a FG by K Mike Nugent. At Detroit, the offense used two short pass completions in the waning seconds to put the ball at the Lions' 36-yard line with four seconds left, and Nugent responded with a 54-yarder. It was one yard short of the two FGs tied for longest in Bengals history — both 55-yarders, by Nugent in 2012 and former K Chris Bahr in 1979 — and it tied for the longest game-ending FG in franchise history (former K Doug Pelfrey also had a 54-yard game winner in '95). The special teams were instrumental in setting up Nugent's winning kick. Late in the fourth quarter, P Kevin Huber pinned the Lions at their six-yard line with a 45-yard punt, and after the defense forced a Lions punt, Detroit P Sam Martin managed only a 28-yarder to the Cincinnati 49, giving the Bengals' offense the chance to quickly move into position for Nugent. Nugent's kick ended a back-and-forth contest that saw the Bengals lead 7-0, trail 10-7, lead 21-10 and then allow the Lions to tie 24-24. QB Andy Dalton completed 24 of 34 passes for 372 yards, three TDs and no INTs to post a 135.9 passer rating. WR A.J. Green had 155 yards on six catches. The Bengals improved to 5-2 and took a two-game lead in the AFC North race. The Lions fell to 4-3.

2017 GAME SUMMARIES

Baltimore Ravens 20, Cincinnati Bengals 0 Sunday, Sept. 10, 2017 at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals had looked forward to their first regular-season opener at home in eight seasons (the last opener at home had been in 2009), but the Ravens made sure that Cincinnati's three-game winning streak in openers ended in front of the team's home crowd at Paul Brown Stadium. Turnover differential and drives inside the opponent's 20-yard line proved to be the major differences in this game. The Bengals were minus-four in turnover differential (four INTs and one fumble to the Ravens' one INT) and failed to score on any of their three drives inside the Ravens' 20-yard line (those drives ended on an INT, a fumble, and on downs). Meanwhile, on three drives inside the Bengals' 20-yard line, the Ravens came away with three scores (one TD and two FGs). QB Andy Dalton recorded his lowest passer rating since November of 2014, though two of his four interceptions occurred on deflected passes. The shutout was just the second in a regular-season opener in Bengals history, and the first since 1979.

WEEK 2, GAME 2

Houston Texans 13, Cincinnati Bengals 9 Thursday, Sept. 14, 2017 at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals' defense had a solid game, but for the second straight week, the offense's inability to score a TD crippled the team's chances for a win. The defense gave up just 13 points, 98 net passing yards and 266 yards overall, but story of the game was three Cincinnati drives inside the Texans' 20-yard line, and just three field goals to show for it. The Texans had huge play in the game, and it proved to be the difference. QB Deshaun Watson scrambled 49 yards on a broken pass play on third-and-15 for a 49-yard TD with 50 seconds left in the first half. With just under seven minutes left in the third quarter, Bengals QB Andy Dalton hit TE Tyler Eifert for an apparent TD, but the play was taken away because Eifert had stepped out of bounds and the officials ruled he had not re-established himself inbounds before becoming the first player to touch the ball. Bengals DT Geno Atkins had two sacks for the Bengals, extending to six the number of consecutive games in which he had recorded at least a half sack, which tied for the longest such streak in Bengals history. The Bengals fell to 0-2, while the Texans improved to 1-1.

WEEK 3, GAME 3

Green Bay Packers 27, Cincinnati Bengals 24
Sunday, Sept. 24, 2017 at Lambeau Field

The Bengals' offense, which had not scored a TD in either of the first two games, scored TDs on two of its first three possessions. Behind those scores and an INT returned for a TD by CB William Jackson, the Bengals jumped out to a 21-7 lead on the defending NFC North Champions and controlled that advantage for most of the game. In the first half, Cincinnati outgained Green Bay in net yards, 192-78, while winning on third downs on both sides of the line of scrimmage, converting four of seven while holding the Packers to two of seven. In the second half, however, the Packers flipped the third downs, converting five of eight and holding the Bengals to zero of five. Behind the direction of QB Aaron Rodgers, Green Bay rallied late with a 12-play, 71-yard TD drive with 17 seconds left to send the game into OT. Then, after the Bengals' offense stalled with a three-and-out on the opening drive of OT, Rodgers connected with WR Geronimo Allison on third-and-10 for a 72-yard pass to the Bengals' seven-yard line, and two plays later, the Packers converted on a 27-yard FG. QB Andy Dalton completed 21 of 27 passes for 212 yards, two TDs and no INTs (124.1 rating), and WR A.J. Green caught 10 passes for 111 yards and a TD. Rookie LB Carl Lawson had 2.5 sacks. The Bengals fell to 0-3, while the Packers improved to 2-1.

WEEK 4, GAME 4

Cincinnati Bengals 31, Cleveland Browns 7
Sunday, Oct. 1, 2017 at FirstEnergy Stadium

Both Cincinnati and Cleveland entered the game with 0-3 records, but the Bengals' offense erupted for 31 points while their defense held the Browns scoreless until after the two-minute warning to give the team a much-needed first win. Bengals QB Andy Dalton completed 25 of 30 passes for 286 yards, four TDs and zero INTs (146.0 passer rating). It was his fourth career game with four or more TD passes, and his first since Game 15 of the 2013 season. At one point in the Browns game, Dalton had logged 16 consecutive completions. That was the second-longest streak of completions in a game in team history, behind only the team record of 20 straight completions by former QB Ken Anderson in the 1982 regular-season finale on Jan. 2, 1983 at Houston. TE Tyler Kroft had six receptions for 68 yards and two TDs (all three of those stat categories were career highs for Kroft). HB Giovanni Bernard added three catches for 67 receiving yards and TD. The game marked the return of LB Vontaze Burfict, who missed the team's first three games due to a league suspension. The defense held the Browns to only 21.5 net yards, including just 45 rushing. Cincinnati improved to 1-3, while Cleveland fell to 0-4.

Sunday, Oct. 8, 2017 at Paul Brown Stadium

Cincinnati bested a 3-1 Buffalo Bills squad for their second straight win. The Bengals' defense was the story of the game. The Bengals allowed the Bills to score just one offensive touchdown and held Bills QB Tyrod Taylor to a passer rating of just 63.6 while sporting a relentless pass rush that sacked him six times, including three times in the fourth quarter alone.

Pittsburgh Steelers 29, Cincinnati Bengals 14
Sunday, Oct. 22, 2017 at Heinz Field

Cincinnati's offense and defense had an uneven balance between them in the game's two halves that led to the disappointing defeat. Entering the game, the Bengals ranked No. 2 in the NFL in both average net yards allowed (262.8) and average points allowed (16.6). But in the first half alone, the Bengals gave up nearly their average in net yards allowed to the Steelers (251) and more than their average in points (20).

WEEK 8, GAME 7

Cincinnati Bengals 24, Indianapolis Colts 23 Sunday, Oct. 29, 2017 at Paul Brown Stadium

Cincinnati survived a gut-check game and recorded one of its most peculiar victories in recent memory. The underdog Colts entered the game with the league's 28th-ranked offense and 31st-ranked defense, yet dominated both sides of the line of scrimmage. The Bengals suffered a blocked FG, they lost two fumbles with no takeaways, and they had a rookie halfback (Joe Mixon) lead the team in rushing yards with just 18 as well as receiving yards with 91. The game itself had five lead changes and was tied twice. And the contest's most decisive play was no less unusual. With Cincinnati down 23-17 with just over seven minutes left, Bengals DE Carlos Dunlap batted up a pass in the Indianapolis backfield, caught it when it came down, and then outran the pursuing Colts offensive players for 16-yard INT return for a TD and the game's final points. Indianapolis had two more possessions to try to regain the lead, but the Bengals' defense held both times. QB Andy Dalton was sacked three times and under duress for much of the game, yet still managed to record a solid 108.8 passer rating after completing 17 of 29 passes for 243 yards, two TDs and no INTs. The Bengals improved to 3-4, and the Colts fell to 2-6.

WEEK 9, GAME 8

Jacksonville Jaguars 23, Cincinnati Bengals 7 Sunday, Nov. 5, 2017 at EverBank Field

Cincinnati totaled a season-low 148 net yards, including just 29 yards rushing, on a season-low total of just 37 offensive plays, while Jacksonville totaled 407 net yards, including 148 rushing, on 78 plays. The Bengals converted just one of eight third downs (12.5 percent) while the Jaguars converted 12 of 18 (66.7). Despite the obvious lopsided numbers, the Bengals were down by only six points at halftime, and just nine points after three quarters. Not until Jacksonville WR Jaydon Mickens scored on a 63-yard punt return on the second play of the fourth quarter was Cincinnati forced to resort virtually entirely to pass plays in an attempt to close the deficit. By that point, however, the Jaguars' defense, which entered the game leading the league in both net passing yards allowed and sacks, was able to shift all of its attention to shutting down the Bengals' passing game. QB Andy Dalton finished with just a 79.9 passer rating, completing 10 of 18 passes for 136 yards. Just before halftime, WR A.J. Green was ejected for fighting with Jaguars CB Jalen Ramsey, who also was disqualified. Green left the game with only one reception for six yards, and no other Bengals WR or TE ended up catching more than two passes. The Bengals fell to 3-5, and the Jaguars improved to 5-3.

Cincinnati Bengals 20, Denver Broncos 17
Sunday, Nov. 19, 2017 at Sports Authority Field at Mile High

It wasn't a picture-perfect performance for the Bengals, but they made big plays when they needed them, and collectively they were enough to snap a 10-game losing streak in Denver, where they had not won since 1975. The list of big plays included a 101-yard INT return by CB Dre Kirkpatrick in the first quarter (it was the longest in NFL history not to result in a TD).

WEEK 12, GAME 11

Cincinnati Bengals 30, Cleveland Browns 16
Sunday, Nov. 26, 2017 at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals handily beat the winless Browns, largely on the strength of a solid running game. Cincinnati had entered the contest ranked last in the NFL in net rushing yards (averaging just 68.0 per game), but erupted for a season-high 152 against Cleveland's defense, which had ranked sixth in the league against the run (91.7 rushing yards allowed per game).

The Bengals put themselves in good position early to secure a win against one of the top two teams in the AFC, jumping out to a 17-0 first-half lead on the strength of a balanced offense and a solid defense. The Bengals outgained the Steelers by 127 yards in the first two periods (253-126), converting six of eight third downs while allowing Pittsburgh to convert just one of five.

WEEK 14, GAME 13

Chicago Bears 33, Cincinnati Bengals 7
Sunday, Dec. 10, 2017 at Paul Brown Stadium

Cincinnati started the game with six starters declared inactive due to injuries, including five on defense. After an early TD and missed PAT by the Bears, the Bengals took a 7-6 lead with just over two minutes left in the first quarter when QB Andy Dalton connected with WR Brandon LaFell for a 14-yard TD pass, but that advantage was short-lived. The Bears regained the lead on a 34-yard FG by former Bengals K Mike Nugent just over two minutes into the second quarter, and then put the Bengals in their rearview mirror. As the game progressed, Chicago took advantage of Cincinnati's depleted defense. The Bears scored 27 unanswered points after the first period, and the Bengals were unable to counter against the expanding deficit. Chicago outgained Cincinnati by 248 yards (482-234) and, aside from the score, held clear advantages in several key stat categories, including first downs (29-14), net yards rushing (232-70), takeaways (2-0) and time of possession (38:09-21:51). The loss left the Bengals with having to win their last three games to avoid a losing season and snapped a 22-game stretch of Bengals opponents failing to score 30 or more points. Dalton's career-long stretch of 193 straight passes without an INT ended in the third quarter. The Bengals fell to 5-8; the Bears improved to 4-9.

WEEK 15, GAME 14

Minnesota Vikings 34, Cincinnati Bengals 7
Sunday, Dec. 17, 2017 at U.S. Bank Stadium

For the second straight week, the Bengals entered the game without six regular starters, including five on defense, and in the end, the results were similar to those the previous week. Minnesota, poised to clinch a coveted bye on Wild Card weekend and possibly home-field advantage throughout the NFC playoffs, capitalized on Cincinnati's depleted units and controlled much of the game in front of an enthusiastic and energized home crowd. The Vikings jumped out to 24-0 halftime lead, and the Bengals' offense was unable to counter against a deficit which continued to grow throughout the game. Cincinnati added a late score with 6:22 left when HB Giovanni Bernard had a two-yard TD run for the game's final points, but it was one of few Bengals highlights. On the final stat sheet, the Vikings held significant advantages over the Bengals in net yards (346-161), total first downs (18-8), net rushing yards (124-46) and time of possession (35:52-24:08). QB Case Keenum staged a near flawless game for Minnesota, completing 20 of 23 passes for 236 yards, two TDs and no INTs. Vikings RB Jerick McKinnon caught seven passes for 114 yards on top of his 27 yards rushing. For the Bengals, QB Andy Dalton recorded a 27.3 passer rating — his lowest of the season — while completing 11 of 22 passes for 113 yards, zero TDs and two INTs (one INT was returned for a TD). The loss secured a second straight losing season for the Bengals and officially eliminated their chances of qualifying for postseason. The Bengals fell to 5-9, while the Vikings improved to 11-3.
