★ JERRY JONES ★ Owner/President/General Manager, 1989-Present 2017 Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee

Recognized around the NFL as one of his era's most influential and passionate owners, Jerry Jones was selected for induction to the Pro Football Hall of Fame as a contributor in February of 2017 and completed his trek to Canton with the unveiling of his Hall of Fame bust and induction ceremony on August 5, 2017.

In addition to becoming the first NFL owner to lead his franchise to three Super Bowl titles (1992, 93 and 95) in a four year period of time, Jones' efforts in the areas of sports marketing, promotion, stadium development, and network television negotiations created a lasting imprint on the landscape of the NFL and the American sports culture.

Since his purchase of the Cowboys in 1989, the team has won 10 division titles, while advancing to the postseason 14 times and reaching the NFC Championship game four times.

As Dallas' general manager, Jones has overseen personnel efforts that include the acquisition of 47 different players who have combined for a collective total of 142 Pro Bowl appearances. Six Cowboys players from Jones' tenure of ownership have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame -- Troy Aikman, Michael Irvin, Emmitt Smith, Deion Sanders, Larry Allen and Charles Haley - while Jones has served as the presenter for three of those men: Irvin, Smith and Allen.

The lasting landmarks to Jones' legacy of promoting and protecting the future of the sport of football can be seen in the conception and construction of AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas and The Star in Frisco, Texas. The stadium, which opened in 2009, has a capacity of over 100,000 and is the largest and most technologically sound indoor/outdoor stadium in the world. The Star, which serves as the world training headquarters for the Dallas Cowboys, is a state-of-the-art venue that enjoys a first-of-its-kind partnership with its surrounding community in Frisco, Texas, and the young men and women who compete in athletics at the high school and youth sports levels.

On the league level, Jones has served lengthy stints on nearly every significant NFL ownership committee, including the Competition Committee, the Broadcast Committee, the Management Council's Executive Committee, the Health and Safety Advisory Committee, and he is currently the chairman of the NFL Network and Pro Football Hall of Fame Committees.

Born on October 13, 1942, Jones' connections to the game of football go back to his playing days at North Little Rock High School. He then earned a scholarship to play at the University of Arkansas where he was a co-captain of the 1964 Razorbacks' national championship team.

Jones, who became the 15th NFL owner to be selected for induction into the Hall of Fame, is the only man in football history to both play for a collegiate national championship football team and own a Super Bowl winning club.

Jones was born on Oct. 13, 1942 in Los Angeles, Calif.

★ After rushing for 97 yards and catching four passes for 21 yards against the Seahawks, Elliott posted his 17th game with at least 100 scrimmage yards since he entered the league, tied for the third-most games in a players first 25 career games. It is also the third-highest game total in the last two seasons, behind Le'Veon Bell (20) and LeSean McCoy (18).

BY THE NUMBERS

2.1

Despite missing six games this season, Ezekiel Elliott has punished defenders on his way to the eighth-most rushing yards-after-contact, racking up 454 of his 880 yards after being contacted by defenders, an average of 2.1 yards-per-carry.

60

The Cowboys held the Seattle offensive attack to 60 net passing yards last week, which is the lowest total by an opposing offense since Dallas held Washington to 55 net passing yards on Dec. 14, 2003.

100

Sean Lee topped the 100-tackle mark for the third-consecutive season, the longest streak of his career, and the first time a Dallas defender has strung together three consecutive 100-tackle seasons since Barry Church's four (2013-2016).

113

The Dallas defense forced 10 negative plays against Seattle last week, bringing its opponent's season total to 113, the second-most in the league in 2017. A lot of that work has come on first down, as the Cowboys have forced 46 negative plays on first downs in 2017, and are holding opposing offenses to 4.4 yards-per-play on first down, the second-lowest figure in the NFL.

HEAD COACHES

JASON GARRETT (67-55, 7th Year)

Jason Garrett was named the eighth head coach in Dallas Cowboys history on January 5, 2011. Garrett became the first former Dallas Cowboys player to become the team's head coach. As a backup quarterback during his playing career in Dallas, he started nine-of-23 games played and was a member of teams that won six division titles and three Super Bowl championships.

Garrett was elevated to the Cowboys top job after taking over as the team's interim head coach midway through 2010. He guided the club to a 5-3 mark to finish the season after the team started 1-7. He led Dallas to an 8-8 record, narrowly missing the playoffs and an NFC East Division title in each his first three full seasons as head coach (2011-13). Garrett guided the 2014 squad to an NFL-best tying 12-4 record, the club's 22nd Division title - 18th NFC East title - 31st postseason appearance and 34th playoff win. His team fought through adversity in 2015, especially on the injury front where they endured injuries to Tony Romo, Dez Bryant and Orlando Scandrick amongst others, while slipping to 4-12 on the season. The team bounced back under Garrett in 2016, completing the club's largest one-season turnaround in franchise history with a nine-game difference, finishing with a 13-3 record in 2016. The record included beginning the season 0-1 and going on to win 11 straight games - the longest single-season win streak in team history. Garrett's Cowboys won their second division championship with him at the helm, while earning the NFC's top overall seed and hosting an NFC Divisional Playoff Game for the first time since 2007. He was named AP Coach of the Year for his team's 2016 accomplishments.

From 2007-13, when Garrett was brought on as the Cowboys offensive coordinator, the unit finished among the NFL's top-10 in total offense in five of his seven years at the helm: 2013 (10th), 2012 (6th), 2010 (10th), 2009 (2nd) and 2007 (2nd). The team has set single-season records in a handful of categories, including topping 6,000 net yards for the first four times in franchise history (2009- 6,390; 2011 - 6,008; 2014 - 6,138 and 2016 - 6,027). Since his arrival in 2007, not only has the team set single-season records in numerous offensive categories, but the club's cumulative numbers for gross passing yards (39,993) and total points (3,919) represent the best totals over a 10-year span in the history of the organization while the club's 58,567 total net yards are second.

DOUG PEDERSON (20-11, 2nd Year)

Doug Pederson was named head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles on January 18, 2016 following a three-year run as the offensive coordinator of the Kansas City Chiefs (2013-15). In his first season with the Eagles, Pederson helped develop rookie quarterback Carson Wentz, who set a team and all-time NFL rookie record with 379 completions. Under Pederson's direction, Wentz also posted franchise rookie records in pass attempts (607), passing yards (3,782) and passing touchdowns (16). During his three seasons as Kansas City's offensive coordinator, the Chiefs ranked first in the NFL in rushing touchdowns (54), third in yards-per-carry (4.64) and seventh in total rushing yards (6,018). In 2015 Pederson helped the Chiefs rebound from a 1-5 start to win a team-record 11 consecutive games, including Kansas City's first playoff victory in 22 years. In 2013 Pederson and the coaching staff helped turn a 2-14 Chiefs team into an 11-5 playoff contender, marking the largest one-year turnaround in team history. During Pederson's first two years in Kansas City, Pro Bowl running back Jamaal Charles ranked third amongst NFL running backs in yards-per-carry (4.99) and rushing touchdowns (21), fifth in rushing yards-per-game (77.3) and sixth in total rushing yards (2,320). During his three years in Pederson's offense, Alex Smith notched three consecutive 3,000-yard seasons, threw the second-fewest interceptions among quarterbacks, with more than 1,000 attempts (20) and ranked fourth among all quarterbacks with 1,183 rushing yards. Pederson began his pro coaching career in Philadelphia where he served under Andy Reid as an offensive quality control coach (2009-2010) and quarterbacks coach (2011-12). He helped Michael Vick become the second quarterback in NFL history to top the 3,000-yard passing and 500-yard rushing plateaus in consecutive seasons. In 2011 the Eagles offense recorded the second-most net yards in team history (6,386) and a franchise-record 356 first downs. He enjoyed a 12-year playing career in the NFL with the Packers, Dolphins, Eagles and Browns. As a backup quarterback for the Packers, Pederson was part of a team that won Super Bowl XXXI, captured two NFC Championships (1996 and 1997) and earned eight playoff berths and six division titles. During his playing career, Pederson was coached by three of the most successful coaches in NFL history: Don Shula, Mike Holmgren and Andy Reid.

WINNING HEAD COACH

Under Dallas Cowboys Head Coach Jason Garrett's direction, the team secured its second NFC East divisional title with a 13-3 record in 2016, and he was named AP Coach of the Year. He also had an 11-game win streak to establish the longest single-season win streak in franchise history. Garrett won his 50th regular season game at Green Bay (10/16/16) to become only the second head coach in franchise history to reach 50 wins. He tied his personal best with the club's 12th win of the season against Tampa Bay (12/18/16) - tied the second-most wins by a Cowboys head coach. It also marked Garrett's second 12-win season to give him the third-most 12-plus win seasons by a Dallas head coach. He then bettered his personal-best with his 13th win against Detroit (12/26/16), while tying Jimmy Johnson (1992) and Wade Phillips (2007) for the most wins by a Cowboys head coach in a single season.

Garrett wrapped up the 2014 regular season with a record of 12-4 - the fifth coach to reach 12 wins-or-better in a season in team history. He also secured his first NFC East Division title as the head coach. Against the N.Y. Giants (10/19/14), Garrett passed former head coaches Bill Parcells and Phillips (both with 34) with his 35th regular season win to place fourth in team history. He passed Barry Switzer (40) for third with his 41st victory at Washington (12/28/14), then tied Johnson (44) for the second-most victories at Miami (11/22/15), and passed Johnson at Washington (12/7/15).

Including his 8-7 record in the 2017 season, Garrett's current regular season record as the head coach of the Dallas Cowboys stands at 66-53, with the second-most wins all-time in team history:

ON THE ROAD TO SUCCESS

Since the AFC/NFC merger in 1970, the Dallas Cowboys boast the most road wins (193) and highest win percentage (.520) in the NFL. Dallas is 5-2 in road games in 2017:

Most Road Wins Since 1970

San Francisco	183	187	1	.495

The Cowboys finished the 2014 regular season with an undefeated 8-0 record on the road - the only squad with a perfect mark away from home in the NFL. The Cowboys eight road wins were the most in team history during the regular season since the NFL began a 16-game schedule. They were the second team in franchise history to win all road games in a season, joining the 1968 team, which won all seven of its road games during a 14-game season. In NFL history, they were the sixth team since the 1970 NFL merger to form a perfect 8-0 record on the road, joining the 2007 New England Patriots, the 2001 St. Louis Rams, the 1984, 1989 and the 1990 San Francisco 49ers.

Dallas continued its road victory streak into 2015, winning the first contest away from home at Philadelphia (9/20) before falling to the Saints at New Orleans (10/4) in overtime, ending the road run. Dating back to the Cowboys final road game of the 2013 season at Washington (12/22), Dallas won 10 consecutive regular season road games to tie a franchise-high with both the 2006-07 and 1968-69 squads for the longest road win streak in team history.

On the league level, the 10-game road streak also tied the seventh-longest streak in NFL history:

DAK TO THE FUTURE

The Dallas Cowboys selected Rayne Dakota "Dak" Prescott in the fourth round of the 2016 NFL Draft (135th overall). Following injuries at the quarterback position during the preseason to Kellen Moore and Tony Romo that opened the way for him to start, Prescott never looked back, setting multiple franchise rookie quarterback records along the way. He started all 16 games of the 2016 season for Dallas to become the first rookie quarterback drafted in the fourth round-or-later in NFL history to accomplish that feat, while his 13-3 record is the best in franchise history by a rookie and tied the most wins by an NFL rookie in league history.

Amongst league quarterbacks in 2016, Prescott finished the regular season ranked third in quarterback rating (104.9) and fourth in completion percentage (67.8) and yards-per-attempt (7.99), while completing 311-of-459 passes for 3,667 yards with 23 touchdowns and four interceptions. He led all NFL rookies in wins (13), completion percentage, passing touchdowns, rating, rushing touchdowns (six) and rushing yards (282) en route to becoming the first Cowboys quarterback to be named the Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year.

THE BOOK OF EZEKIEL

For only the second time in franchise history, the Dallas Cowboys used a top-five pick on a running back when they chose Ezekiel Elliott out of Ohio State with the fourth overall selection in the 2016 NFL Draft. Dallas selected Tony Dorsett with the second pick in the 1977 NFL Draft.

Elliott led the NFL in yards (1,631), attempts (322) and runs of 10-plus (48), was third in rushing touchdowns (15) - all tops by a rookie rusher - and was sixth in rushing average (5.1) in 2016.

In 2017 Elliott has 215 carries for 880 yards and eight touchdowns.

In his first season, Elliott produced seven 100-yard rushing games - most by a Cowboys rookie, tied for seventh by a league rookie all-time and tied for the most in the NFL in 2016.

In 2017 he has added four more 100-yard outings to give him 11 for his career for fifth all-time in team history.

Dallas is 9-2 when Elliott tops 100 yards on the ground:

KING ZEKE

Ezekiel Elliott won the NFL's rushing title in 2016 despite only playing in 15 games. Elliott rushed for 1,631 yards and outpaced the second-place rusher, Chicago's Jordan Howard (1,313), by 318 yards. It marked the sixth time that a Cowboy has led the league in rushing, the third overall rusher from Dallas, joining Emmitt Smith (1991-93, 95) and DeMarco Murray (2014), and the first rookie in franchise history to win the NFL rushing title. In NFL history, Elliott became the 16th rookie, sixth in the Super Bowl era - fifth since the NFL merger - and first since Edgerrin James in 1999, to win the league's rushing title:

CHOOSE YOUR RUNNER

One of the strengths of the Dallas Cowboys is its depth at the running back position. In Dallas' stable of rushers behind 2016 league rushing champion Ezekiel Elliott is a strong mix, with veteran rusher Alfred Morris, and youth and upside with Rod Smith.

Morris was signed away from divisional rival Washington in 2016 and has served as Elliott's primary back up this season. For his career, he has posted three 1,000-yard seasons, including a Redskins rookie record 1,613 rushing yards in 2012. Smith, the brother of Cowboys linebacker Jaylon Smith, was acquired off waivers from Seattle in 2015 and has seen action mainly on special teams in the last three seasons while flashing as a runner in the preseason and limited snaps in 2017.

Below is the 2017 season and career breakdown of each player in the Cowboys group of runners behind Elliott:

RUSHING TO THE TOP

The Cowboys accomplished the same feat in 2016, finishing second in the league by averaging 149.8 yards-per-game.

Dallas continues to turn to its offensive strength in 2017, as the unit is third in the league in rushing yards-per-game (136.1):

88, 88, 88

With the selection of Dez Bryant in the first round of the 2010 NFL Draft, the Dallas Cowboys added to their lineage of home-grown talent at wide receiver. Bryant was issued the jersey number 88 to follow in the footsteps of two of the previous 88s in club history - Drew Pearson (1973-83) and Michael Irvin (1988-99).

In Dallas, Bryant has looked to follow in the footsteps of two former great 88's who finished their careers ranking atop the all-time career receiving lists for the Cowboys. Pearson made 489 receptions (fourth) for 7,822 yards (fourth) and 48 touchdowns (seventh) in 156 career games, while Irvin played in 159 games and caught 750 passes (second) for 11,904 yards (second) and 65 touchdowns (fourth).

In the 2017 season, Bryant has made 66 receptions for 815 yards and six touchdowns. He has 528 receptions (third) for 7,436 yards (fifth) and 73 touchdowns (first) during 112 career games.

J. SMITH WINS ED BLOCK COURAGE

The Dallas Cowboys took a leap of faith when they drafted Notre Dame linebacker Jaylon Smith with their second round selection (34th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft. The All-American and Butkus award winner suffered a knee injury in the Fiesta Bowl in his final collegiate game, and subsequently missed his entire rookie season rehabbing the injury on Dallas' Reserve/NFI list.

Smith, through his "Clear Eye View" motto, stayed determined and made a miraculous return to the field during the Cowboys 2017 offseason activities, to his first game action in the preseason and finally making his much anticipated debut during the regular season. For his efforts, he was voted by teammates as the club's 2017 Ed Block Courage Award winner. The award honors those NFL players who exemplify commitments to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. Smith, along with the 31 other recipients, will be honored this spring at the 40th Annual Ed Block Courage Awards in Baltimore, Md.

Smith is second on the Dallas defense with 97 tackles - from coaches film - on the 2017 season:

2017 DRAFT CLASS

The Dallas Cowboys drafted nine players - seven defensive, two offensive - in the 2017 NFL Draft. It was the fourth consecutive season the team leaned more towards defense, as 24 of the last 35 picks by Dallas in the last four drafts (2014-17) have been on that side of the ball. The new class started off with Dallas' first round choice - defensive end Taco Charlton - who was selected with the 28th overall pick out of Michigan.

Of the nine players chosen by Dallas, six made the final roster entering Week One while one (Marquez White) was signed to the club's practice squad and two released (Jordan Carrell, Joey Ivie).

Below is a look at each of Dallas' picks in the 2017 Draft:

PRO: The Cowboys traded for Bené Benwikere before the start of the 2017 regular season in order to bolster a secondary that saw an influx of youth in the offseason. A fourth-year player, Benwikere was originally drafted by Carolina in the fifth round (148th overall) of the 2014 NFL Draft. He brings 27 games of NFL experience to the Cowboys defensive backfield, and has career totals of 109 tackles, two interceptions, 21 pass breakups, three fumble recoveries and one sack. After playing two-plus seasons with the Panthers, Benwikere was waived on Oct. 7, 2016 and acquired by Miami. He was inactive for three games and then waived by the Dolphins before signing to Miami's practice squad. Benwikere signed with Cincinnati in the 2017 offseason and spent the entire training camp with the Bengals. His zone coverage skills and experience should give him a chance to contribute immediately in the Dallas secondary.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

- 9/2/17: Traded to Dallas for a 2019 draft selection.
- 2/15/17: Signed with Cincinnati.
- 11/8/16: Waived by Miami and signed to Miami's practice squad (11/10).
